JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff Vicente Alvarez (“Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself, on a representative basis, and 2 on behalf of others similarly situated, complains and alleges as follows.

3 I. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 1. Plaintiff brings this action against her former employer(s), Defendants Spenuzza, 5 Inc. and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, (collectively, “Defendants”) on behalf of all current and 6 former nonexempt employees employed by Defendants in California (the “Class” or 7 “Represented Employees”), for Labor Code violations stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay
8 all wages owed, including minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide meal 9 periods, failure to provide rest breaks, failure to timely pay wages upon separation of 10 employment, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

11 2. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants from approximately March 2022 through 12 August 2023.

13 3. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that the Represented Employees were 14 subjected to the same policies, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations
15 to which Plaintiff was subjected during employment.

16 4. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided all minimum, regular,
17 and overtime wages due to Defendants’ failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours 18 worked.

19 5. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay proper overtime and sick time wages to 20 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Represented 21 Employees were paid on an hourly basis plus additional earned compensation in the form of 22 nondiscretionary bonuses among other similar payments. However, on the occasions when 23 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees worked overtime hours and received additional earned
24 compensation during the same workweek, Defendants failed to properly include these amounts 25 in the calculations for the regular rate of pay – in violation of California law.

26 6. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were also denied 30-minute off-duty
27 meal periods, as mandated by California law. As a result of Defendants’ policies and practices, 28 the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations when they were: (1) unable

1 to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal period while under the 2 control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4) forced to take a meal
3 period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated second meal periods for shifts
4 in excess of 10 hours.

5 7. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Represented Employees with 6 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major fraction thereof, as 7 mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for Plaintiff and the 8 Represented Employees, and the Represented Employees were often not authorized and/or 9 permitted to take mandated rest breaks due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload.
10 Furthermore, on occasions when Plaintiff and the Represented Employees worked longer shifts, 11 Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit mandated third or fourth rest breaks.

12 8. Plaintiff also alleges that he and the Represented Employees were not paid all 13 wages due and owing each pay period (Labor Code § 204) and upon separation of employment
14 within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 – 203. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants
15 engaged in the practice of failing to pay all wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Represented 16 Employees at the time their employment ended with Defendants, including, but not limited to 17 minimum, regular, and overtime wages, sick wages, wage premiums, among others.

18 9. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants failed to provide accurate itemized wage 19 statements that fully complied with the requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

20 10. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' violations of the wage and hour components of 21 the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders enabled them to decrease expenses and to increase their 22 level of productivity and profits, thereby allowing Defendants to gain an unfair advantage over 23 its competitors.

24 11. At all material times, Defendants and DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 25 Represented Employees' employers or persons acting on behalf of the Represented Employees'
26 employer, within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be 27 violated, a section of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California Labor Code or any provision regulating 28 hours and days of work in an IWC Wage Order and, as such, are subject to penalties for each underpaid employee as set forth in Labor Code § 558 and under California law.

12. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking declaratory, injunctive, equitable, and monetary relief against Defendants and each of them, on behalf of himself and the Represented Employees to recover, among other things, unpaid wages and benefits, interest, attorneys' fees, penalties, costs and expenses pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 208, 210, 218.6, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 1199, among possibly other sections inadvertently omitted. Plaintiff also reserves the right to name additional representatives throughout the State of California.

II. JURISDICTION

13. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims for relief of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees pursuant to the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Orders.

III. VENUE

14. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this Court pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 395(a). Defendants transact business in Riverside County and the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and the Represented Employees in Riverside County. Furthermore, Defendants employed or employ Plaintiff and Represented Employees in Riverside County.

IV. PARTIES

Plaintiff

15. Plaintiff and Class Representative Vicente Alvarez was employed by Defendants from approximately March 2022 through August 2023 and performed work for Defendants in Corona, California.

Defendants

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant Spenuzza, Inc.: (a) is a California corporation, (b) authorized to and doing business in Riverside County, California, and (c) is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees during the applicable statutory periods.

1 17. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships, and extent of 2 participation in the conduct herein alleged, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 20, 3 inclusive, but on information and belief alleges that those Defendants are legally responsible for 4 the payment of penalties and damages to Plaintiff and all Represented Employees by virtue of 5 Defendants' unlawful actions and practices and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious
6 names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE
7 Defendants when ascertained.

8 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that he and the Represented 9 Employees worked under the joint direction and control of Defendants and that Defendants, and 10 each of them, acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, 11 carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respect pertinent hereto, and the acts of 12 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. On information and belief, a 13 unity of interest and ownership between each Defendant exists such that all Defendants acted as 14 a single employer of Plaintiff and other Represented Employees.

15 19. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 16 Defendants, and each of them, are an integrated enterprise and should be treated as a single 17 employer because these entities share an interrelation of operations, with common human 18 resources and personnel policies and shared common offices and facilities. Additionally,
19 Defendants also have a shared website, common management, centralized control of labor 20 operations, and common ownership or financial control.

21 20. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, in conducting 22 themselves in the manner described herein, Defendants, and each of them, were acting in active 23 concert with one another such that the acts of each were and are fully attributable to the others in 24 all material respects. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times 25 Defendants and each of them are now, and at all material times herein mentioned were, the 26 agents, servants, employees, partners, affiliates, and/or representatives of each of their remaining 27 co-Defendants, and were, at all times herein mentioned, acting within the course, scope, and 28 purpose of such relationship(s) and with the knowledge, consent and/or ratification of each of 1 their remaining co-Defendants.

2 21. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times, Defendants 3 have been inadequately capitalized to conduct business, have failed to follow appropriate 4 corporate formalities, and have simply been a shell and instrumentality through which 5 Defendants DOES 11 through 20, inclusive, have conducted their personal affairs. Accordingly,
6 the corporate veil should be pierced, and any liability attached to Defendants should be imposed
7 jointly and severally against Defendants DOES 11 through 20. Adherence to the fiction of the 8 separate existence of these corporate entities would permit abuse of the corporate privilege, 9 thereby sanctioning fraud and promoting injustice.

10 V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

11 22. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
12 as if fully alleged herein.

13 23. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as 14 a class action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

15 24. The relevant time period for this class action is defined as the period beginning 16 four years prior to the filing of this action until class certification (the “Relevant Time Period”).

17 25. The Class, also referred to as the “Represented Employees,” that Plaintiff seeks to 18 represent is defined as follows:

19 All current and former nonexempt employees employed by 20 Defendants in California during the Relevant Time Period.

21 26. Plaintiff also seeks to represent the following subclasses:

22 Meal Break Subclass

23 All Represented Employees who worked a shift in excess of 24 five (5) hours during the Relevant Time Period.

25 Rest Break Subclass

26 All Represented Employees who worked a shift of at least 27 3.5 hours during the Relevant Time Period.
28

1 Waiting Time Penalties Subclass

2 All Represented Employees who separated from their
3 employment with Defendants during the period three years
4 before the filing of this action and ending when final
5 judgment is entered.

6 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass

7 All Represented Employees during the period one year
8 before the filing of this action and ending when final
9 judgment is entered.

10 27. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class description with greater 11 specificity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues as appropriate.

12 28. Plaintiff, as Class Representative, is a member of the class and subclasses that he 13 seeks to represent.

14 29. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
15 under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest in the 16 litigation and the proposed class is easily ascertainable from Defendants' records.

17 30. Numerosity: The potential members of the Class as defined are so numerous that 18 a joinder of all Represented Employees is impracticable. Although the exact number is currently 19 unknown to Plaintiff, this information is easily ascertainable from Defendants' records.

20 31. Commonality: There are questions of law and fact common to the class which 21 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the class, including 22 without limitation:

23 i. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
24 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees for all 25 hours worked;

26 ii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
27 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
28 Employees for hours above 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week;

1 iii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
2 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and the Meal Break
3 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass
4 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a compliant
5 meal period was not provided;

6 iv. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
7 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant rest breaks to Plaintiff and the Rest Break
8 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass
9 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a paid rest
10 break was not provided;

11 v. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 12 timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment between Defendants and Plaintiff and 13 the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass, whether such separation was voluntary or involuntary;

14 vi. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 15 provide Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass with complete, accurate, itemized 16 wage statements;

17 vii. Whether Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§
18 17200 et seq. due to the: failure to pay all wages owed, failure to provide mandated paid rest 19 breaks, failure to provide mandated meal periods, and failure to timely pay final wages; and

20 viii. Whether Plaintiff and Represented Employees are entitled to equitable 21 relief pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

22 32. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims, as the Class Representative, are typical of the 23 claims of The Class. Plaintiff, like other members of The Class, was subjected to Defendants'
24 ongoing Labor Code and Wage Order violations including pertaining to the failure to pay all 25 wages owed, failure to provide mandated meal periods and rest breaks, failure to timely pay 26 wages upon separation of employment, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

27 33. Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff, as the Class Representative, will fairly 28 and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff's interests are not in

1 conflict with those of the Class. Class Representative's counsel are competent and experienced in 2 litigating large employment class actions and other complex litigation matters, including cases
3 like this case.

4 34. Superiority of Class Action. Class certification is appropriate because a class
5 action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this 6 controversy. Individual joinder of all Represented Employees is not practicable, and questions of 7 law and fact common to the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual
8 members of the Class. Each Represented Employee has been damaged and is entitled to 9 recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies and practices set forth above. Class action 10 treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their claims in the manner that is 11 most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.

12 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

13 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

14 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

15 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees Against All Defendants

16 35. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
17 as if fully alleged herein.

18 36. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not exempt from the requirement
19 to be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for 20 each hour worked.

21 37. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided proper minimum and 22 regular wages due to Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
23 worked. As a result of this policy and practice, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were 24 required to perform off-the-clock work that Defendants either knew or should have known they 25 were performing.

26 38. As a result of these policies and practices, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and 27 the Represented Employees for all hours worked.

1 39. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
2 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and
3 Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

4 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
5 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
6 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

7 41. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the 8 Represented Employees were entitled to be paid wages throughout the statutory period for each
9 hour worked, including proper minimum and regular wages, yet Defendants chose not to pay 10 them in accordance thereto.

11 42. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 12 employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said
13 employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be 14 violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California
15 Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

16 43. During employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants 17 failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

18 44. As a result of the Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented
19 Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

20 45. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of 21 all unpaid minimum wages, liquidated damages, penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs of 22 suit, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1194.2, against Defendants in an amount to be proven 23 at trial.

FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

Plaintiff and the Represented Employees Against All Defendants

51. As a result of these policies and practices, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees for all overtime hours worked.

52. Defendants violate Labor Code §§ 204 and 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees because Defendants required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week without proper overtime compensation.

53. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221-223, 510, 1194 and 1197.

54. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were entitled to be paid proper overtime wages throughout the statutory period, yet Defendants chose not to pay them in accordance thereto.

55. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

56. During the employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

57. As a result of Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

58. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of all unpaid overtime wages, penalties, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit against Defendants in an amount to be proven at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

(Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass Against All Defendants

59. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

1 60. Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants
2 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory meal 3 periods.

4 61. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide
5 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

6 62. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may 7 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an 8 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
9 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
10 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
11 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing 12 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

13 63. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B), 14 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 15 pay for each meal period that is missed.

16 64. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were denied
17 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and 18 practices, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations
19 when they were: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty
20 meal period while under the control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, 21 (4) forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated 22 second meal periods for shifts in excess of 10 hours.

23 65. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
24 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not provided with all
25 mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass one 26 additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

27 66. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Meal
28 Break Subclass all mandated meal periods and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated

1 meal or rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

2 67. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass did not
3 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers
4 obtained from Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not willfully obtained, were not 5 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an
6 unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass
7 to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

8 68. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass with meal
9 periods as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of 10 each meal period not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and 11 IWC Wage Order § 11. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at 12 the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a meal period was not 13 lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

14 69. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
15 and IWC Wage Order § 11, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Meal
16 Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

17 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

19 (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

20 Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass Against All Defendants

21 70. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
22 as if fully alleged herein.

23 71. Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants
24 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

25 72. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
26 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

27 73. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and 28 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of

1 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major
2 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as
3 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

4 74. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage
5 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees one additional hour of pay
6 at his regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

7 75. At all relevant times, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
8 Break Subclass with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major
9 fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for the 10 Rest Break Subclass and the Rest Break Subclass were often not authorized and/or permitted to 11 take mandated rest breaks due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on 12 occasions when the Rest Break Subclass worked longer shifts, Defendants failed to authorize 13 and/or permit mandated third or fourth rest breaks.

14 76. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
15 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass were not provided with all
16 mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees
17 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

18 77. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
19 Break Subclass all mandated rest breaks and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated 20 rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

21 78. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass with rest breaks
22 as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of each rest
23 break not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage 24 Order § 12. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at the 25 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a paid rest break was not 26 lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

27 79. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
28 and IWC Wage Order § 12, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Rest

1 Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

2 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

4 (Labor Code §§ 201 – 203)

5 Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

6 80. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
7 as if fully alleged herein.

8 81. Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of 9 Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the timing 10 and payment of wages.

11 82. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without 12 abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

13 83. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid,
14 without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of 15 intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

16 84. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a 17 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is 18 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

19 85. At all relevant times, Defendants employed a policy and practice whereby 20 Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass were not paid all wages due and owing upon 21 separation of employment within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

22 86. Also, at all relevant times, Defendants engaged in the practice of failing to pay all 23 wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass upon separation of 24 employment, including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as 25 meal and rest period premiums.

26 87. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay all wages due and owing to the Waiting
27 Time Subclass because of the failure to pay all required sick pay wages. Labor Code § 246(l)(1) 28 provides that paid sick time for non-exempt employees must be “calculated in the same manner

1 as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether
2 or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek.” Additionally, Labor Code §
3 246(l)(2) states that the paid sick time must be “calculated by dividing the employee’s total
4 wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full
5 pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.” Here, Defendants only calculated and paid sick
6 pay at the base rate of pay, rather than at the rate required by Labor Code § 246, leading to 7 unpaid sick pay and violations of Labor Code §§ 201 – 203.

8 88. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned
9 pattern and practice of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass all 10 wages due and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 11 202. Consequently, pursuant to Labor Code § 203, Defendants owe Plaintiff and the Waiting
12 Time Penalties Subclass the above-described waiting time penalty, all in an amount to be shown 13 according to proof at trial and within the jurisdiction of this Court.

14 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

16 (Labor Code § 226)

17 Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

18 89. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
19 as if fully alleged herein.

20 90. Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of 21 Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the 22 provision of accurate itemized wage statements.

23 91. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized 24 wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the 25 inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee’s name and the last four digits of his or her 26 Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal 27 entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 28 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

1 92. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff
2 and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass due to violations including: failure to accurately state
3 total hours worked (for example, the wage statements failed to accurately reflect the 4 compensable hours worked); failure to accurately state gross wages earned; failure to accurately
5 state all deductions; failure to accurately state net wages earned; failure to state the applicable 6 hourly rates (including the accurate overtime rate of pay); failure to accurately state the 7 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; and failure to accurately identify the 8 name and address of the legal entity of the employer.

9 93. Additionally, Defendants' wage statements directly violated Labor Code § 226(a)
10 each period due to the failure to pay and report premium wages for denied meal periods and rest
11 breaks under § 226.7.

12 94. Therefore, Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect
13 to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass because Defendants failed to provide a 14 wage statement to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass that complied with the 15 requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

16 95. Defendants' failure to provide the required writing deprived Plaintiff and the 17 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass of the ability to know, understand, and question the 18 calculation and rate of pay and hours used to calculate the wages paid by Defendants. Therefore, 19 Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass had no way to dispute the resulting 20 miscalculation of wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to said
21 Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered 22 and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost
23 interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully 24 perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damages in amounts according to 25 proof at trial.

26 96. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor 27 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered an injury in 28 that each was prevented from knowing, understanding and disputing the wage payments paid to

1 them. Furthermore, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have each suffered an 2 injury in that the failure to show all wages earned on the itemized wage statements resulted in 3 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees being denied all necessary deductions, payments, and 4 withholdings owed by the employer, including, but not limited to, the failure to make all 5 necessary contributions for unemployment benefits, social security benefits, proper payment of 6 taxes and withholdings, and other mandated state and federal benefits.

7 97. Plaintiff has also been injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt 8 to obtain correct wage information following Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the 9 mandates of California's Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

10 98. Labor Code § 226(e) requires Defendants to pay the greater of all actual damages 11 or fifty dollars ($50.00) per employee for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred, and 12 one hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods, plus 13 attorney's fees and costs, to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass who were 14 injured by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a). The exact amount of the 15 applicable penalty is all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

16 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 UNFAIR AND UNLAWFUL COMPETITION

18 (Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.)

19 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees against All Defendants

20 99. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
21 as if fully alleged herein.

22 100. California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of unfair
23 competition, which includes any "unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice." The 24 Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, have suffered and continue to suffer injuries in fact,
25 due to the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged herein.

26 101. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under Business &
27 Professions Code § 17021.
28

1 102. As alleged herein, Defendants engaged in conduct that violated California's wage
2 and hour laws, including failure to pay minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide 3 mandated meal periods and rest breaks, and failure to timely pay wages upon separation of 4 employment, all to decrease their costs and increase profits.

5 103. At all times relevant herein, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and the Represented
6 Employees wages and monies and other financial obligations to which they were entitled.

7 104. As a result of Defendants' failure to comply with the Labor Code and IWC
8 Orders, Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, suffered a loss of wages and monies, all in 9 an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. Defendants' ongoing violations of the 10 foregoing statutes and laws constitute a violation of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.

11 105. Defendants' violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders and 12 its scheme to lower its payroll costs as alleged herein, constitute unlawful and unfair business 13 practices because it was done in a systematic manner over a period of time to the detriment of the 14 Plaintiff and all others similarly-situated.

15 106. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
16 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Represented Employees, and to the general public.
17 Plaintiff seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code
18 of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

19 107. A violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. may be 20 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 21 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, are 22 unlawful and in violation of public policy, and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive,
23 fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
24 practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

25 108. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has no plain,
26 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which they have suffered as a 27 consequence of Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of 28 the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually,

1 and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable
2 harm unless Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said
3 unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

4 109. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is entitled to,
5 and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge the profits which Defendants have 6 acquired, or of which Plaintiff and Represented Employees have been deprived, by means of the 7 above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the 8 Represented Employees are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the unfair
9 practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

10 110. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is further 11 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, 12 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining Defendants, and each of them, from 13 engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in 14 the future.

15 111. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 16 Represented Employees are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 17 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a 18 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and 19 Represented Employees; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil 20 Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

21 VI. PAGA CAUSES OF ACTION (Cal. Lab. Code. §§ 2698 – 2699.5)

22 112. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under the PAGA as he was employed by 23 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 24 violations alleged herein. As such, Plaintiff may recover the remedies described herein in a civil 25 action filed on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated current and former aggrieved
26 employees in California against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed 27 (hereinafter the “Aggrieved Employees”).
28

1 113. Plaintiff seeks to recover all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to 2 Labor Code § 2699, as well as attorneys' fees, costs, and/or other damages as permitted by 3 PAGA through a representative action pursuant to the PAGA and the California Supreme Court
4 in Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969. Therefore, Plaintiff is not required to, nor 5 does he, seek class certification of the PAGA claims under Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

6 114. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a), Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing
7 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to 8 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including 9 the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. More than sixty-five (65) days have 10 elapsed since the date Plaintiff provided the written notice of the claims alleged herein without 11 the LWDA assuming jurisdiction over the claims alleged. Accordingly, Plaintiff has fully 12 satisfied the administrative prerequisites to suit under the PAGA.

13 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

15 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

16 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

17 115. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
18 as if fully alleged herein.

19 116. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not exempt from the requirement to 20 be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for each 21 hour worked.

22 117. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided proper minimum and 23 regular wages due to Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
24 worked. As a result of this policy and practice, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were 25 required to perform off-the-clock work that Defendants either knew or should have known they 26 were performing.

27 118. As a result of these policies and practices, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and 28 the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked.

1 119. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
2 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and
3 Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

4 120. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
5 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
6 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

7 121. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
8 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
9 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

10 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

12 (Labor Code §§ 204 and 510; IWC Wage Order § 3(A))

13 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

14 122. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
15 as if fully alleged herein.

16 123. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were employees of Defendants who did 17 not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing payment of overtime wages.

18 124. Labor Code § 204 requires that the employer timely pay all overtime wages to its 19 employees. Labor Code § 510(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) provide that any 20 work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in 21 any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the 22 regular rate of pay for an employee. Furthermore, any work performed in excess of twelve (12)
23 in one workday shall be compensated at twice the regular rate of pay for an employee.

24 125. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required by 25 Defendants to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week. However, due to 26 Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked, Plaintiff and the 27 Aggrieved Employees did not Aggrieved proper overtime compensation.

1 126. Additionally, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were 2 paid on an hourly basis plus additional earned compensation in the form of nondiscretionary
3 bonuses and other similar payments. However, on the occasions when Plaintiff and the 4 Aggrieved Employees worked overtime hours and received additional earned compensation
5 during the same workweek, Defendants failed to properly include these amounts in the 6 calculations for the regular rate of pay – violating the well-established rule that overtime must 7 always be paid at time and one-half the regular rate of pay.

8 127. As a result of these policies and practices, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and 9 the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked.

10 128. Defendants violate Labor Code §§ 204 and 510 and the applicable IWC Wage 11 Order § 3(A) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees because 12 Defendants required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per 13 week without proper overtime compensation.

14 129. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
15 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the 16 Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221-223, 510, 1194 and 1197.

17 130. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
18 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
19 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

20 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE COMPLIANT MEAL PERIODS

22 (Labor Code § 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

23 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

24 131. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
25 as if fully alleged herein.

26 132. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
27 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing meal periods.
28

1 133. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide
2 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

3 134. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may 4 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an
5 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
6 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
7 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
8 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing 9 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

10 135. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B),
11 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 12 pay for each meal period that is missed.

13 136. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were denied
14 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and 15 practices, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were subjected to meal period violations when 16 they were: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal
17 period while under the control of Defendants, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4)
18 forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated second 19 meal periods for shifts in excess of 10 hours.

20 137. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
21 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with 22 all mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 23 one additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

24 138. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees did not 25 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers
26 obtained from Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not willfully obtained, were not 27 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an 28 unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Aggrieved

1 Employees to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

2 139. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
3 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
4 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

5 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

7 (Labor Code § 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

8 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

9 140. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
10 as if fully alleged herein.

11 141. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
12 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

13 142. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
14 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

15 143. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and 16 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of 17 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major
18 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as 19 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

20 144. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage
21 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees one additional hour of pay
22 at his regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

23 145. At all relevant times, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the 24 Aggrieved Employees with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major
25 fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for the 26 Aggrieved Employees, the Aggrieved Employees were unable to leave the premises for breaks,
27 and the Aggrieved Employees were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest 28 breaks due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on occasions when the

1 Aggrieved Employees worked longer shifts, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit
2 mandated third rest breaks.

3 146. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
4 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with 5 all mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
6 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

7 147. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
8 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
9 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

10 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES EACH PERIOD

12 (Labor Code § 204)

13 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

14 148. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
15 as if fully alleged herein.

16 149. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
17 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws regarding the timing of payment 18 of wages each period.

19 150. Labor Code § 204(a) states that all wages earned by a person are due and payable 20 twice during each calendar month, and further states that wages earned during the first through 21 fifteenth days of the month must be paid no later than the twenty-sixth day of the month, and that 22 wages earned between the sixteenth and last day of the month must be paid by the tenth day of 23 the following month.

24 151. Furthermore, Labor Code § 204(d) states "[t]he requirements of this section shall 25 be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if 26 the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period."

27 152. At all relevant times herein, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the 28 Aggrieved Employees with all wages due and owing each period within the time required by

1 Labor Code § 204. Moreover, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
2 Employees with all wages due and owing each pay period, including, but not limited to,
3 minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as meal and rest period premiums and sick time
4 at the proper rate, within the time specified by Labor Code § 204.

5 153. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
6 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
7 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

8 THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

10 (Labor Code §§ 201 – 203)

11 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

12 154. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
13 as if fully alleged herein.

14 155. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants 15 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the timing and 16 payment of final wages.

17 156. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without 18 abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

19 157. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid,
20 without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of 21 intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

22 158. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a
23 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is 24 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

25 159. At all relevant times here, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
26 Employees with all wages due and owing upon separation of employment, including, but not 27 limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, vacation and sick pay at the proper rates, and 28 meal and rest period premiums, within the time specified by Labor Code §§ 201 – 203.

160. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned pattern and practice of failing to timely pay to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages due and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

161. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

(Labor Code § 226)

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

162. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

163. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the provision of accurate itemized wage statements.

164. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

165. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees due to violations including: failure to accurately state total hours worked (for example, the wage statements failed to accurately reflect the compensable hours worked); failure to accurately state gross wages earned; failure to accurately state all deductions; failure to accurately state net wages earned; failure to state the applicable hourly rates (including the accurate overtime rate of pay); failure to accurately state the corresponding number of hours

1 worked at each hourly rate; and failure to accurately identify the name and address of the legal 2 entity of the employer.

3 166. Additionally, Defendants' wage statements directly violated Labor Code § 226(a)
4 each period due to the failure to pay and report premium wages for denied meal periods and rest
5 breaks under § 226.7.

6 167. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
