1 Plaintiff AMBER KARINA OREGEL-TAFOLLA ("Plaintiff") individually and on
2 behalf of other similarly situated current and former employees of Defendant LC TENANT,
3 LLC; Defendant QUAIL PARK RETIREMENT VILLAGE, LLC; Defendant MILLENNIUM
4 ADVISORS, INC.; Defendant SHANNON SENIOR CARE, LLC; and Defendant BTV
5 SENIOR HOUSING, LLC ("Defendants"), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support
6 or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation
7 and discovery, alleges as follows:

8 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9 1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure
10 section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal 11 jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

12 2. Plaintiff's First through Tenth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 13 behalf of herself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendant (hereinafter
14 collectively referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members", as defined more fully in paragraph 15 14, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
16 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 17 and will be established according to proof at trial.

18 3. Plaintiff's Eleventh Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf 19 of herself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or 20 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 21 "Aggrieved Employees") pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is 22 an aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 23 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and 24 will be established according to proof at trial.

25 4. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
26 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes"
27 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 28 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief,

1 Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise
2 intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over 3 it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant
5 maintains offices, has agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in the State of 6 California, County of Tulare. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to 7 Plaintiff and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County
8 of Tulare.

9 PARTIES

10 7. Plaintiff AMBER KARINA OREGEL-TAFOLLA is an individual residing in the 11 State of California.

12 8. Defendant LC TENANT, LLC, at all times therein mentioned, was and is, upon 13 information and belief, a Washington limited liability company and, at all times herein
14 mentioned, whose employees are engaged in work throughout the State of California, including 15 the County of Tulare.

16 9. Defendant QUAIL PARK RETIREMENT VILLAGE, LLC, at all times therein
17 mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company and,
18 at all times herein mentioned, whose employees are engaged in work throughout the State of 19 California, including the County of Tulare.

20 10. Defendant MILLENNIUM ADVISORS, INC., at all times therein mentioned, was 21 and is, upon information and belief, a Washington corporation and, at all times herein
22 mentioned, whose employees are engaged in work throughout the State of California, including
23 the County of Tulare.

24 11. Defendant SHANNON SENIOR CARE, LLC, at all times therein mentioned, was 25 and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company and, at all times
26 herein mentioned, whose employees are engaged in work throughout the State of California,
27 including the County of Tulare.

28 12. Defendant BTV SENIOR HOUSING, LLC, at all times therein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company and, at all times
herein mentioned, whose employees are engaged in work throughout the State of California,

1 including the County of Tulare.

2 13. At all relevant times, Defendant LC TENANT, LLC; Defendant QUAIL PARK
3 RETIREMENT VILLAGE, LLC; Defendant MILLENNIUM ADVISORS, INC.; Defendant
4 SHANNON SENIOR CARE, LLC; and Defendant BTV SENIOR HOUSING, LLC were the 5 “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

6 14. At all times herein relevant, Defendant LC TENANT, LLC; Defendant QUAIL
7 PARK RETIREMENT VILLAGE, LLC; Defendant MILLENNIUM ADVISORS, INC.;
8 Defendant SHANNON SENIOR CARE, LLC; and Defendant BTV SENIOR HOUSING, LLC;
9 and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 10 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or 11 assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and 12 scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives,
13 servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions
14 alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, 15 encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

16 15. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 17 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said
18 defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 19 information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally
20 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 21 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
22 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities 23 when the same have been ascertained.

24 16. Defendant LC TENANT, LLC; Defendant QUAIL PARK RETIREMENT
25 VILLAGE, LLC; Defendant MILLENNIUM ADVISORS, INC.; Defendant SHANNON
26 SENIOR CARE, LLC; and Defendant BTV SENIOR HOUSING, LLC; and DOES 1 through 27 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

28 17. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18. Plaintiff bring this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

19. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid and non-except employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's original Complaint to final judgment.

20. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

21. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than one hundred (100) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

- 1 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair
2 and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all 3 class members is impractical.
- 4 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 5 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 6 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 7 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
8 actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint
9 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

10 22. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 11 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 12 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 13 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in 14 accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- 15 b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their 16 hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours
17 worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal
18 periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 19 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over 20 eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay
21 the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class 22 members;
- 23 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal
24 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work 25 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 26 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other 27 class members for all hours worked;
- 28 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other

- 1 class members during their employment;
- 2 h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California
- 3 Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- 4 i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by
- 5 the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- 6 j. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 7 k. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of
- 8 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- 9 l. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties
- 10 resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 11 m. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory
- 12 damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

12 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

13 23. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other

14 persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the 15 County of Tulare.

16 24. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-

17 exempt employee in the State of California, County of Tulare.

18 25. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees,

19 classified them as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all 20 hours worked and missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

21 26. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class

22 members and Aggrieved Employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and

23 the other class members' and Aggrieved Employees' employment, and to supervise their daily

24 employment activities.

25 27. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 26 Plaintiff's and other class members' and Aggrieved Employees' employment for them to be 27 joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

28 28. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

1           29.       Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the
2 State of California.

3           30.       Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees worked over 4 eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with 5 Defendants.

6           31.       Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
8 employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing 9 to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for short, late, interrupted, and/or 10 missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

11           32.       Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
13 Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were 14 not receiving accurate overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

15           33.       Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees all required
17 rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare
18 Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

19           34.       Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
21 Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at 22 Plaintiff's and the other class member's and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when a 23 meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional 24 hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class member's and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate
25 of pay when a meal period was missed.

26           35.       Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
27 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
28 Employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class member's and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional

1 hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members' and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate
2 of pay when a rest period was missed.

3 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
5 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they 6 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

7 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
9 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed upon discharge or resignation, including 10 overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all 11 wages owed to them at the time their discharge or resignation.

12 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
14 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff
15 and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all wages, 16 including earned, but unpaid, overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

17 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
18 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
19 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 20 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 21 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the accurate total number 22 of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

23 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
25 for Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 26 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

27 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
28 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
Employees were entitled to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses, including

1 in part, the use of personal cellphones.

2 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
3 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
4 members and Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the 5 financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to 6 do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees
7 that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

8 43. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 9 Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked.
10 Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees were required to work more
11 than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation 12 for all overtime hours worked.

13 44. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite 14 uninterrupted, off-duty meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members and 15 Aggrieved Employees.

16 45. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other 17 class members and Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

18 46. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
19 class members and Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

20 47. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
21 class members and Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible under 22 California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

23 48. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate
24 wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

25 49. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate
26 payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

27 50. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate 28 Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

51. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor

Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

53. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

54. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

55. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

56. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

57. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

58. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members and failed to pay class members overtime in the amount of one-and-one half time their correct regular rate of pay.

59. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance

1 of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California
2 Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

3 60. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class 4 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 5 attorneys' fees.

6 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 61. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 10 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

11 62. At all relevant times, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7
12 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by 13 Defendants.

14 63. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no 15 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 16 applicable order of the California IWC.

17 64. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
18 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
19 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a 20 meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of 21 the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent 22 of both the employer and employee.

23 65. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
24 section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee
25 to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 26 with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the 27 total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived 28 by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

66. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were

1 scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 2 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 3 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or 4 rest period.

5 67. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 6 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were required to work for 7 periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty 8 (30) minutes and/or rest period.

9 68. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
10 Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate 11 Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during 12 meal periods.

13 69. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
14 class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 15 226.7.

16 70. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
17 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

18 71. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
19 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 20 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the 21 meal or rest period is not provided.

22 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226. 7)

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 72. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 26 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

27 73. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor 28 Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiffs and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

74. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no

1 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
2 order of the California IWC.

3 75. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very 4 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 5 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be 6 based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4)
7 hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half 8 (3 ½) hours.

9 76. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other class
10 members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest 11 period per each four (4) hour period worked.

12 77. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the 13 other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class 14 members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

15 78. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
16 class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7

17 79. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor
18 Code section 226.7.

19 80. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section
20 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one
21 additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day 22 that the rest period was not provided.

23 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 81. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 27 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

28 82. All relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

83. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay minimum wage to Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

84. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to those sections Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees, and liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

85. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely pay each employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each employee minimum wages.

86. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 202 and 203)

(Against All Defendants)

87. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

88. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

89. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

90. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants' their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

91. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

92. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 204)

(Against All Defendants)

93. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations above and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

94. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed.

95. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

96. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

97. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members all wages due to them, within any time period permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

98. Plaintiff and the other class members entitled to recover all remedies available for violations California Labor Code section 204.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))
(Against All Defendants)

99. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

100. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

101. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited to: the failure to include the accurate total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

102. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

103. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

1       104.       Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 2 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
3 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

4       105.       Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure 5 compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

6                   EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7                   (Violation of California Labor Code § 1174(d))

8                   (Against All Defendants)

9       106.       Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 10 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

11       107.       Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174(d), an employer shall keep, at a 12 central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, 13 payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of 14 piece-rate units earned by any applicable piece rate to, employees employed at the respective 15 plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for 16 this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not less than two years.

17       108.       Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to keep accurate and complete
18 payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Plaintiff and the other
19 class members.

20       109.       As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor section 1174(d), Plaintiff
21 and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected 22 rights.

23       110.       More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by 24 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 1174(d) because 25 they were denied both their legal right and protected interest, in having available, accurate and 26 complete payroll records pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174(d).

27                   NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

28                   (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

(Against All Defendants)

111.       Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

112. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee, in part, including the use of personal cellphones, in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

113. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants. Defendants' failure to reimburse for all necessary business-related expenses and costs including its failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for costs incurred was a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

114. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

115. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

116. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, other class members, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

117. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

118. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants'

1 policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the other class members,
2 to work overtime without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code
3 sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees,
4 including Plaintiff and the other class members, to work through their meal and rest periods
5 without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 6 512(a). Defendants' policies and practices of failing to pay minimum wages violate California
7 Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Moreover, Defendants' policies and practices of 8 failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the other class members violate California Labor
9 Code sections 201, 202 and 204. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 226(a), 10 1174(d).

11 119. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants 12 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

13 120. Plaintiff and the other class members have been personally injured by Defendants' 14 unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to 15 the loss of money and/or property.

16 121. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., 17 Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and 18 retained by Defendants during a period that commences four (4) years preceding the filing of 19 Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the class action is provided to the class; an 20 award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil procedure section 1021.5 and other 21 applicable laws; and an award of costs.

22 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 122. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 26 every allegation set forth above.

27 123. Plaintiff brings her eleventh cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 28 herself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
("PAGA").

1           124.       PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties
2 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any
3 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
4 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
5 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 6 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself or herself and other current 7 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 8 2699(a).

9           125.       Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged 10 above were committed against her during her time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an 11 “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

12           126.       As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant has 13 routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 14 Codes by:

- 15           a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum 16 wage compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.;
- 17           b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
18 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.;
- 19           c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 20 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an 21 additional hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of 22 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- 23           d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
24 to take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 25 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 26 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- 27           e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at end 28 of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203;
- f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204;

- g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates; and
- i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in violation of Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

127. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title section 11010, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

128. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code §2699.3. On August 7, 2023, Plaintiff, through her counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. The LWDA assigned Plaintiff's case number LWDA-CM- 973371-23. Plaintiff also submitted a filing fee of seventy-five ($75.00) to the LWDA in accordance with Labor Code section 2699.3(a)(1)(B). As of the filing of this Complaint, more than 65 days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's August 7, 2023 notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for herself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

129. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to

1 protect her interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
2 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs
3 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

4 130. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
5 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
6 specified in Labor Code §2699.3.

7 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

8 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general
9 public similarly situated, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally,
10 as follows:

11 Class Certification

- 12 1. That this action be certified as a class action;
13 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class;
14 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel; and 15 4. That Defendants provide to Class Counsel immediately the names and most 16 current/last known contact information (address, e-mail and telephone numbers) of all class members.

17 As to the First Cause of Action

18 5. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
19 Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all 20 overtime wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members;

21 6. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special damages
22 as may be appropriate;

23 7. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the 24 date such amounts were due;

25 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California
26 Labor Code section 1194; and

27 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

28 As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California

1 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to 2 provide all meal periods (including second meal periods) to Plaintiff and the other class
3 members;

4 11. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the other class members of one (1)
5 hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period
6 was not provided;

7 12. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to 8 proof;

9 13. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(b);

10 14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were 11 due;

12 15. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

13 16. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

14 As to the Third Cause of Action

15 17. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
16 Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all 17 rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members;

18 18. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the other class members of one (1)
19 hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period
20 was not provided;

21 19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to 22 proof;

23 20. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(b);

24 21. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were 25 due; and

26 22. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

27 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

28 23. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members;

1       24.       For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be
2 appropriate;

3       25.       For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1 for 4 Plaintiff and the other class members in the amount as may be established according to proof at 5 trial;

6       26.       For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such 7 amounts were due;

8       27.       For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 9 California Labor Code section 1194(a);

10       28.       For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2; and

11       29.       For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

12                   As to the Fifth Cause of Action

13       30.       That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
14 Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the 15 time of termination of the employment of Plaintiff and the other class members no longer
16 employed by Defendants;

17       31.       For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to 18 proof;

19       32.       For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for 20 Plaintiff and the other class members who have left Defendants' employ;

21       33.       For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such 22 amounts were due; and

23       34.       For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

24                   As to the Sixth Cause of Action

25       35.       That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
26 Labor Code section 204 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time required
27 by California Labor Code section 204 to Plaintiff and the other class members;

28       36.       For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to
proof;

      37.       For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due; and

38. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

39. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders as to Plaintiff and the other class members, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

40. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

41. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e);

42. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h); and

43. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

44. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 1174(d) by willfully failing to keep accurate and complete payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members as required by California Labor Code section 1174(d);

45. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

46. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174.5; and

47. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

48. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 by willfully failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary business-related expenses as required by California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802;

49. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

50. For the imposition of civil penalties and/or statutory penalties;

51. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

52. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Tenth Cause of Action

53.
