DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiffs ADILIA RODRIGUEZ and Paris Drake (“Plaintiffs,” “Plaintiff Rodriguez,” and “Plaintiff Drake”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Santa Barbara. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs took place in the State of California, County of Santa Barbara. Defendants employed Plaintiffs within the State of California, County of Santa Barbara.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff Rodriguez is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Santa Barbara. Plaintiff Drake is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Santa Barbara.

1 6. Defendant SEGURA ENTERPRISES, INC. DBA SEGURA SECURITY
2 SERVICES, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a
3 California corporation headquartered in the State of California, and at all times herein
4 mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of 5 California, including the County of Santa Barbara.

6 7. At all relevant times, Defendant SEGURA ENTERPRISES, INC. DBA
7 SEGURA SECURITY SERVICES was the “employer” of Plaintiffs within the meaning of all
8 applicable laws and statutes.

9 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendant SEGURA ENTERPRISES, INC. DBA
10 SEGURA SECURITY SERVICES and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the 11 agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees,
12 successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant
13 hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint
14 venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators
15 and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification,
16 knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant
17 designated herein.

18 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 19 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs, who sue
20 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on 21 that information and belief allege, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
22 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused
23 the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
24 Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 25 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

26 10. Defendant SEGURA ENTERPRISES, INC. DBA SEGURA SECURITY
27 SERVICES and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as 28 “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiffs bring this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from November 2, 2018, through November 20, 2023.

14. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time. However, the class is estimated to be greater than three hundred (300) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members' claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiffs have a well-defined community of interest.

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
2 each class member, with whom Plaintiffs have a well-defined community
3 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs
4 have no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs'
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing
6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common
23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the Labor Code, was willful;

26 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
27 employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed 28 meal periods and rest breaks in violation of the law;

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to 2 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
3 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs
4 and the other class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiffs
6 and the other class members to worked overtime and earned incentive
7 pay;
- 8 e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and the other class members of 9 meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs and the other class
10 members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 11 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the 12 other class members for all hours worked;
- 13 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other 14 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 15 resignation;
- 16 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and 17 the other class members during their employment;
- 18 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 19 Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 20 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class 21 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 22 k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 23 l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 24 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- 25 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 26 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of the law; and
- 27 n. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to 28 compensatory damages pursuant to the Labor Code.

18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiffs as hourly-paid non-exempt employees during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Santa Barbara.

22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

24. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in violation of the law.

1 26. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
3 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
4 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

5 27. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs'
8 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 9 interrupted, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive all timely and 10 proper meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when 11 a meal period was missed.

12 28. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and other class members were entitled to receive 14 all timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at 15 Plaintiffs and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late
16 or interrupted, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive all rest periods
17 or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 18 missed.

19 29. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
21 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiffs and the other class members were 22 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

23 30. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
25 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
26 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did
27 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

28 ///

1 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with the law, but, in fact, Plaintiffs and 4 the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 5 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 6 hours worked by Plaintiffs and the other class members.

7 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 9 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

10 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
12 for Plaintiffs and the other class members in accordance with the law, but, in fact, did not keep 13 complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members.

14 34. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class
16 members pursuant to the law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 17 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
18 represented to Plaintiffs and the other class members that they were properly denied wages,
19 all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

20 35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
21 overtime wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiffs and 22 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40)
23 hours per week without overtime compensation.

24 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide the 25 requisite uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other class
26 members.

27 37. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
28 Plaintiffs and the other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

38. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

39. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

40. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members.

41. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members pursuant to the law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

42. Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

5 95. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
6 through 94, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
7 forth herein.

8 96. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that 9 any provision of the Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected
10 by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its 11 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for a violation of the 12 Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on 13 behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

14 97. On August 2, 2023, Plaintiff Drake provided written notice to the LWDA and 15 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code she contends were violated and the 16 theories supporting her contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by 17 reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff Drake believes that on or 18 about October 6, 2023, the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired, and the LWDA did not 19 take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Thus, Plaintiff Drake exhausted the 20 statutory time period to bring this action.

21 98. Plaintiff Drake and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are 22 “aggrieved employees” as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are of all current
23 and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California
24 at any time during the period from August 2, 2022 through November 20, 2023, and one or 25 more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

5 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

6 100. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff Drake and 7 the other aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure
8 to pay all minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

9 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

10 101. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512,
11 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-
12 minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and were further 13 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five 14 (5) hours worked.

15 102. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Drake and the 16 other aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest
17 breaks and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

18 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

19 103. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees

26 all wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to Labor Code sections

28 ///

1 106. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants
2 failed to pay Plaintiff Drake and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages
3 pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties
4 pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

5 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

6 107. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
7 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 226,
8 1174, and 1776.

9 108. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 10 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff Drake and the other aggrieved current and former 11 employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate
12 records regarding Plaintiff Drake and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross
13 wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly
14 rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

Re: SEGURA ENTERPRISES, INC. DBA SEGURA SECURITY SERVICES

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Paris Drake against Segura Enterprises, Inc. dba Security Services (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "SEGURA").

Ms. Drake is pursuing her California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Ms. Drake may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Segura Enterprises, Inc. is a California corporation located at 2646 Santa Maria Way #103, Santa Maria, CA 93455.

SEGURA employed Ms. Drake as an hourly-paid non-exempt Security Officer within one year of the date of this letter (until or until around June of 2023) in the State of California. SEGURA directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Ms. Drake may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of SEGURA within the State of California.

¹ Ms. Drake does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Ms. Drake will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Ms. Drake is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Ms. Drake and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

SEGURA failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Ms. Drake has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at SEGURA, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

SEGURA has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. SEGURA failed to compensate Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. SEGURA also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in Ms. Drake's and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, SEGURA failed to pay aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, SEGURA routinely required Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with SEGURA's policies and expectations and fulfill orders. SEGURA failed to provide coverage to Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, SEGURA failed to authorize and permit Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, SEGURA failed to compensate Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." SEGURA required aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." SEGURA required aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, SEGURA failed to pay Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code sections 203 and 210.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, SEGURA failed to pay Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, SEGURA did not provide Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from SEGURA were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, SEGURA failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, SEGURA did not provide Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Ms. Drake and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by SEGURA, including for purchasing equipment they were required to wear while working and using personal cell phones they were required to use while working.

We believe that Ms. Drake and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Ms. Drake will seek these penalties on her own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of SEGURA within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
