MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

On April 24, 2025, this Court entered an Order Granting Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement ("Preliminary Approval Order") of the Parties' Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Settlement Agreement" or "Settlement") entered into by plaintiffs Jeremy D. Fraley and Jerry D. Hagerty ("Plaintiffs") on behalf of all persons currently or formerly employed by defendant Roseburg Forest Products Co. ("Defendant") (collectively, "the Parties") as a non-exempt employee in California at any time during the Class Period, which is December 23, 2018 to January 7, 2025 ("Class Members" or "Class"). Under the Settlement, the wage and hour claims of 458 Class Members who did not opt out ("Participating Class Members") will be resolved for $2,500,000.00.

Notice of the Settlement was distributed in accordance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order, and the response was excellent. Zero Class Members objected to the Settlement, only three challenged the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods, which have been resolved, and only one opted out of the Settlement. (Declaration of Enoch J. Kim ("Kim Decl."), ¶ 12; Declaration of Nathalie Hernandez ("Hernandez Decl."), ¶¶ 11-13.) The fact that there was a 99.78% participation rate indicates that the persons most affected by Defendant's alleged practices and who stand to benefit most from the Settlement agree that this is an outstanding result and a strong indication that the Settlement is fair and adequate. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13.) The average Individual Class Payment is estimated to be approximately $3,289.09 per Participating Class Member, the highest payment is estimated to be approximately $11,340.90, and the lowest payment is estimated to be approximately $35.89. (Hernandez Decl., ¶ 16.) In the opinion and experience of Class Counsel, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and will convey a substantial benefit to all Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13.)

The proposed Settlement satisfies the criteria for final settlement approval under California law. Consequently, Plaintiffs move this Court for an order: (1) certifying this lawsuit as a class action for settlement purposes only; (2) approving the class action Settlement embodied in the Parties' Settlement Agreement;¹ (3) confirming Plaintiffs as the Class Representatives; (4) confirming the appointment of

¹ To the extent any capitalized term is not defined in this motion, Plaintiffs intend for the definition in the Parties'

Aegis Law Firm, PC, D.Law, Inc., David Yeremian & Associates, Inc., and United Employees Law Group, PC, as Class Counsel; (5) approving Class Counsel’s application for attorneys’ fees of $833,333.33 (“Class Counsel Fees Payment”) and reasonably incurred litigation costs of $32,314.90 (“Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment”); (6) approving the service payments to Plaintiffs (“Class Representative Service Payments”); (7) approving the payment of the Administrator’s invoice for costs of administration in the amount of $7,950.00 (“Administration Expenses Payment”); and (8) approving the “PAGA Penalties” consisting of $100,000.00, with 75% or $75,000.00 allocated to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) (“LWDA PAGA Payment”), and 25% or $25,000.00 allocated to the Aggrieved Employees and distributed on a pro rata basis (“Individual PAGA Payment”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 8.)

A. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1. Plaintiffs’ Claims

On August 3, 2023, Plaintiff Jerry D. Hagerty commenced a class action by filing a complaint alleging ten causes of action against Defendant for (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages; (2) Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime Under Labor Code § 510; (3) Meal Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (4) Rest-Break Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (5) Violation of Labor Code § 226; (6) Violation of Labor Code § 221; (7) Violation of Labor Code § 204; (8) Violation of Labor Code § 203; (9) Violation of Labor Code § 2802; and (10) Violation of Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq. On October 9, 2023, Plaintiff filed a first amended complaint adding a cause of action for penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (“Hagerty Action”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 3.)

Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a), Plaintiff Jerry D. Hagerty gave timely written notice to Defendant and the LWDA by sending his PAGA Notice on August 2, 2023 (LWDA-CM-972425-23). (Id. at ¶ 4.) After the 65-day statutory period had passed, Plaintiff Jerry D. Hagerty filed his First Amended Complaint on October 9, 2023, which added an eleventh cause of action for penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code § 2698 (“PAGA”) (“Hagerty Action”). (Id.)

Settlement Agreement to be used. To the extent there are any conflict between the definitions in the parties’ Settlement Agreement and this motion, the definition in the Settlement Agreement controls.

1 Plaintiff's counsel was then later informed about another Class and PAGA action against 2 Defendant entitled Fraley v. Roseburg Forest Products Co. (herein referred to as the "Fraley Action").
3 (Kim Decl., ¶ 5.) After conversations amongst Plaintiffs' counsel ("Class Counsel"), Plaintiffs and their 4 counsel agreed to jointly litigate and consolidate the Fraley and Hagerty Actions. (Id.) The Parties
5 thereafter filed a stipulation and proposed order to consolidate the two actions. (Id.) After the Court
6 issued an order consolidating the Fraley and Hagerty Actions, the Parties filed a second amended 7 complaint on February 25, 2025, entitled Jeremy D. Fraley, et. al. v. Roseburg Forest Products Co.
8 ("Operative Complaint"), Case No. 23CV05757 ("the Action"). (Id.)

9 The Parties agreed to explore early resolution via mediation and engage in informal discovery
10 prior to mediation. (Kim Decl., ¶ 6.) After exchanging and reviewing informal discovery and 11 participating in mediation, the Parties reached a settlement. (Id.) On April 24, 2025, this Court entered
12 an Order Granting Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement
13 ("Preliminary Approval Order"). (Id.)

14 2. Plaintiffs' Investigation²

15 Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel investigated and researched the facts and 16 circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and the law applicable thereto. This required thorough 17 discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiffs, as well as preliminary research into 18 the various legal issues involved in the case.

19 Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and claims giving rise to the 20 action, including (1) conducting informal discovery and meeting and conferring with defense counsel
21 about same; (2) reviewing and analyzing records and data, as well as employment-related policies; (3)
22 reviewing Plaintiffs' personnel file and other documentation; (4) interviewing Plaintiffs regarding 23 potential Class Members; (5) researching the applicable law and potential defenses; (6) constructing 24 damage models based on interpretations of California law and the facts and numbers provided by 25 Defendant; and (7) reviewing information provided by Defendant in response to informal discovery and 26 in advance of the mediation.

27
28 ² For a full discussion, see the Declaration of Jessica L. Campbell in support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement ("Campbell PA Decl."), previously filed herein.

1 B. MEDIATION

2 On November 7, 2024, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation with Gig Kyriacou, a
3 respected and highly experienced mediator in wage and hour class actions. (Declaration of Enoch J.
4 Kim filed in support of Plaintiffs’ Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and 5 PAGA Settlement on March 19, 2025 (“Kim PA Decl.”) ¶ 6.) During mediation, counsel for Plaintiffs
6 and Defendant discussed all aspects of the case, including the risks of litigation and the risks to both of 7 the Parties, as well as the law and how it applied to the facts of this case. (Id.) Following a full day of 8 mediation, the Parties agreed to general settlement terms to resolve the Action. (Id.) The Parties
9 continued to work together, negotiating the long-form settlement terms following mediation, as set forth
10 in the Settlement Agreement. (Id.) The Settlement is the product of extensive arm’s-length negotiations
11 between attorneys with substantial experience litigating class actions and wage and hour cases. (Kim 12 PA Decl., ¶¶ 16-21; Campbell PA Decl., ¶¶ 24-35; Kim Decl., ¶ 7.)

13 C. THE TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

14 The amount available for distribution to Class Members who do not opt out of the Settlement
15 is the Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00 less the following deductions: (1) a Class Counsel
16 Fees Payment of $833,333.33 to Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees; (2) a Class Counsel Litigation
17 Expenses Payment of $32,314.90 for reimbursement of actual costs incurred; (3) up to $10,000.00 to 18 each Class Representative (for a total of $20,000.00) for an enhancement payment (“Class
19 Representative Service Payments”); (4) $7,950.00 for the settlement administration (“Administration
20 Expenses Payment”); and (5) “PAGA Penalties” consisting of $100,000.00, with 75% or $75,000.00
21 allocated to the LWDA (“LWDA PAGA Payment”), and 25% or $25,000.00 allocated to the Aggrieved
22 Employees and distributed on a pro rata basis (“Individual PAGA Payment”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 8.)

23 D. NOTICE TO THE CLASS MEMBERS

24 Following the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, the Parties directed ILYM Group, Inc.
25 (“ILYM Group”) to send out the court-approved notice form (“Class Notice”). (See Kim Decl., ¶ 10; 26 see also Hernandez Decl., ¶ 4.) The notice process occurred according to the Court’s Preliminary 27 Approval Order. ILYM Group sent the Class Notices to the last-known address of each Class Member.
28 (Shim Decl., ¶ 6.) Of the 459 Class Members who were sent Class Notices, ILYM Group received 74

1 returned Class Notices as undeliverable, and 47 Class Notices were re-mailed, with only 27 Class
2 Notices deemed undeliverable. (Hernandez Decl., ¶¶ 7-10.) Here, the deadline for submitting a Request
3 for Exclusion from Settlement, challenging the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods, and
4 objecting to the Settlement was August 8, 2025. (Hernandez Decl., ¶¶ 11-13; Kim Decl. ¶ 12.) As of
5 the deadline, zero Class Members objected to the Settlement, only three challenged the number of
6 Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods, which have been resolved, and only one opted out of the
7 Settlement. (Id.)

8 II. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION 9 SETTLEMENT

10 Plaintiffs respectfully submit that the Court should grant final approval not only because the 11 settlement is fair but also because public policy favors settlement over continued class-action litigation.
12 See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 434 (“Courts have long acknowledged the 13 importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system.”); State v.
14 Levi Strauss & Co. (1986) 41 Cal. 3d 460, 471 (“[T]he consumer class action is an essential tool for the 15 protection of consumers against exploitative business practices.”); Class Plaintiffs v. City Of Seattle 16 (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (“[S]trong judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where 17 complex class action litigation is concerned.”); Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (4th ed.
18 2002) § 11.41.

19 A. CRITERIA FOR SETTLEMENT APPROVAL

20 California Rule of Court 3.769 requires court approval of the settlement of class action
21 lawsuits. Preliminary approval is merely the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure
22 for settlements of class actions. See Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Dunk v.
23 Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The second approval step is the dissemination of 24 notice of the settlement to all Class Members. Id. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing,
25 at which evidence and argument concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement
26 may be presented and Class Members may be heard. Id.

27 The first two stages have been completed here. Now, at the final approval stage, the decision
28 facing the Court is whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Wershba v. Apple Computer,

1 Inc. (2001) 91 Cal. App 4th 224, 235. Among the relevant considerations in reaching this final 2 determination are (1) the strength of plaintiff's case balanced against the benefits of the settlement, and
3 (2) the complexity, expected duration, and expense of further litigation. Id.; see also Dunk v. Ford
4 Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1802.

5 In evaluating the fairness of a settlement proposal, courts must give "proper deference to the 6 private consensual decision of the parties," because "the Court's intrusion upon what is otherwise a 7 private consensual agreement negotiated between the parties to a lawsuit must be limited to the extent
8 necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching
9 by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties." Hanlon v. Chrysler Inc. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F. 3d
10 1011, 1027; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th, at 1801 ("Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private 11 consensual agreement between the parties.") Accordingly, the Court should take into account the 12 informed recommendations of counsel and the Parties. See Kirkorian v. Borelli, (N.D. Cal.1988) 695 F.
13 Supp. 446, 451 (the recommendation of experienced counsel carries significant weight in the court's 14 determination of the reasonableness of the settlement); Vulcan So. Of Westchester County, Inc. v. Fire
15 Department of White Plains (S.D.N.Y. 1981) 505 F.Supp.955, 967 (same). A presumption of fairness 16 exists where (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining, (2) investigation and 17 discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently, (3) counsel is experienced in 18 similar litigation, and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1794.

19 Applying this final approval criterion evidence substantial grounds for granting this Motion.

20 B. THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT FULFILLS ALL FINAL APPROVAL
21 CRITERIA

- 22 1. The Settlement Follows Substantial Investigation and Discovery and Is the 23 Product of Serious, Informed, Non-Collusive Negotiations in Which Parties
24 Were Represented by Experienced Counsel.

25 The Settlement is the result of extensive negotiations, conducted at arm's length, and informed
26 by substantial factual and legal investigations. (Kim Decl., ¶ 7.) Throughout this case, Plaintiffs and 27 Class Members have been represented by experienced counsel. (Kim PA Decl., ¶¶ 16-21; Campbell PA
28 Decl., ¶¶ 24-35.)

1 Class Counsel have devoted a substantial amount of time to this case, including but not limited
2 to researching various legal issues prior to and after filing this Action; drafting and reviewing pleadings;
3 conducting informal discovery; meeting and conferring with defense counsel; preparing for class
4 certification; reviewing and analyzing the documents produced by Defendant; regularly communicating
5 with Plaintiffs; preparing for and attending mediation; negotiating and finalizing the Settlement
6 Agreement, including several revisions thereof; drafting documents for preliminary and final approval,
7 including documents for the administration of the Settlement; and coordinating and overseeing the 8 administration of the Settlement. (Kim Decl., ¶ 27.)

9 Among those matters considered during the course of settlement negotiations were the risks,
10 expenses, and length of further litigation, including the appeals process; the present state of the law as 11 it applies to wage and hour class actions; the present value of a settlement versus the long wait
12 occasioned by any potential judgment in favor of the Class; and the burdens of proof necessary to 13 establish liability against Defendant's defenses to the Action. These factors each indicated that the 14 interests of Class Members are best served by a settlement of this Action as set forth in the Settlement
15 Agreement. Moreover, as experienced litigators in employment class action cases, Class Counsel
16 believes that the Settlement is fair and reasonable and serves the best interests of the Class Members.
17 (Kim PA Decl., ¶¶ 16-21; Campbell PA Decl., ¶¶ 24-35; Kim Decl., ¶ 13.)

18 2. The Settlement is Reasonable and Therefore Falls within the Range of 19 Approval by this Court.

20 Significant in evaluating the foregoing $2,500,000.00 Settlement are the risks at trial (or an 21 appeal), as well as the costs of continuing the litigation. Defendant contends that the Class would not 22 be able to establish its entitlement to relief it is seeking and promised to mount a vigorous defense.
23 (Campbell PA Decl., ¶ 18-23). On the other hand, Plaintiffs believe that there is ample evidence to 24 support the class allegations. (Id.) Under these circumstances, and in light of the risks inherent in further
25 litigation, it was reasonable for Plaintiffs and Class Counsel to elect to settle the action. Plaintiffs 26 appreciate that, in addition to the litigation risks of continued proceedings, the proceeding itself would 27 be potentially complicated and expensive, and even if ultimately successful absent the settlement, Class
28 Members might see no recovery until the lengthy appellate process is complete. In contrast, the

1 Settlement provides immediate benefits to the Class.

2 From the evaluation of the benefits offered to the Class by the Settlement, as well as the
3 expense, delay, and risk of going forward to trial, with subsequent appellate proceedings, the Settlement
4 fairly, adequately, and reasonably achieves the goals of Plaintiffs and advances the interests of the Class.
5 In short, the settlement falls within the “the range of reasonableness” necessary for final approval. (Kim
6 PA Decl., ¶ 22.)

7 3. Class Members Received the Best Practicable Notice.

8 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate program to 9 provide the best notice practicable.³ See Cartt v. Superior Court, 50 Cal. App. 3d 960, 973-74 (1975);
10 In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1392 (2010); Cho v. Seagate Tech.

12 811-12 (1985).⁴ The content and method of notice should be designed to apprise the class members of 13 the terms of the proposed settlement and of their rights to participate in, object to, or opt out of the 14 settlement. See Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314; In re Vitamin Cases, 107 Cal. App. 4th 820, 828 (2003).

15 The Class Notice preliminarily approved by the Court met these requirements: it explained the 16 nature of the litigation; the material terms of the Settlement; the amount of the Class Counsel Fees
17 Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and Class Representative Service Payments
18 sought; how a Class Member could participate in, object to, or be excluded from the Settlement; and to 19 whom to direct inquiries.

20 4. Zero Class Members Have Objected to the Settlement and Only One Class
21 Member Has Opted Out of the Settlement.

22 A presumption of fairness exists where the percentage of objectors and opt-outs is small. 7-

26 guidance in considering class issues. See Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal. 3d 800, 821 (1971); Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.
3d 126, 145-46 (1981). Where appropriate, therefore, the parties cite Federal Rule 23 and federal case law in addition to California law.

27 ⁴See also Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 175-75 (1974) (individual notice must be sent to all class
28 members who can be identified through reasonable efforts); Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Company, 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950) (best practicable notice is that which is “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections”).

1 Exclusion from Settlement, challenging the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods, and
2 objecting to the Settlement was August 8, 2025. (Hernandez Decl., ¶¶ 11-13; Kim Decl. ¶ 12.) As of
3 the deadline, zero Class Members objected to the Settlement, only three challenged the number of
4 Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods, which have been resolved, and only one opted out of the
5 Settlement. (Id.)

6 5. The Service Payments to Plaintiffs Are Reasonable and Fair.

7 Class action settlements typically provide for an incentive or enhancement payment to the 8 named plaintiff for bringing and helping to prosecute the action. Courts routinely approve these 9 supplemental payments. See Newberg on Class Actions at § 12.46; Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield
10 Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294; Bogosian v. Gulf Oil Corp. (E.D. Pa. 1985) 621 F. Supp. 27

12 Glass Co. (PPG Industries, Inc.) (W.D. Pa. 1973) 59 F.R.D. 616, 617, aff'd 494 F.2d 799 (3d Cir.), cert.
13 denied in Abate v. Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. (1974) 419 U.S. 900. As the Staton court noted:

14 [N]amed plaintiffs . . . are eligible for reasonable incentive payments. The district 15 court must evaluate their awards individually, using relevant factors includ[ing] the 16 actions the plaintiff has taken to protect the interests of the class, the degree to 17 which the class has benefited from those actions, . . . the amount of time and effort the plaintiff expended in pursuing the litigation . . . and reasonabl[e] fear[s] of workplace retaliation.

18 Staton v. Boeing (9th Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 977 (citation omitted).

19 The retaliation issue identified in Staton v. Boeing extends outside the immediate workplace. It 20 is common knowledge that the modern-day workforce is quite mobile, with employees holding several 21 jobs in a career during their lifetime. Few people want to confront their employers, let alone sue them.
22 (Kim Decl., ¶ 39.) By suing their former employer, Plaintiffs contend that they increased the risk of 23 retaliation by prospective employers to which they may apply in the future. (Id.)

24 But Plaintiffs did not allow their fear of the potential repercussions of being a Class
25 Representative deter them from acting for the benefit of Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 40.) They have 26 devoted a substantial amount of time to helping Class Counsel effectively develop and prosecute this 27 Action at every stage of the litigation. (Id.; see also Declaration of Jerry D. Hagerty filed in support of 28 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement on March 19, 2025 (“Hagerty

PA Decl.,”) ¶¶ 9-10; see also Declaration of Jeremy D. Fraley filed in support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement on March 19, 2025 (“Fraley PA Decl.,”) ¶ 7.) Plaintiffs conferred with Class Counsel on numerous occasions to discuss every aspect of this case; provided information about Defendant and their wage-and-hour practices; reviewed documents; produced documents; monitored the progress of the litigation; took the time to apprise themselves of the facts, issues, and law regarding the claims at issue, and spent time with Class Counsel discussing the terms of the Settlement and reviewing and executing the Settlement Agreement. (Kim Decl., ¶ 40.) In the end, Plaintiffs decided to vindicate not only their own rights but also those of their co-workers. (Kim Decl., ¶ 38.)

Plaintiffs have diligently, adequately, and fairly represented Class Members and have not placed their interests above any member of the putative class. (Kim Decl., ¶ 41.) Class Counsel believes that each Plaintiff is entitled to a Class Representative Service Payment for the time and effort they have devoted to this case. (Id.) For purposes of Settlement, Defendant has agreed not to oppose it. (Id.) Such payments to class representatives are a common feature of settlements negotiated by Class Counsel, and trial courts routinely approve them. (Id.)

Not only have Plaintiffs’ efforts been instrumental in generating a substantial benefit for Class Members, but—significantly—not a single Class Member has objected to the requested service payment. (Hernandez Decl., ¶ 12.) Plaintiffs therefore respectfully request the Class Representative Service Payments sought in the amount of $10,000.00 each (for a total of $20,000.00) for their efforts and initiative in bringing and helping prosecute this Action. (Kim Decl., ¶ 41; Hagerty PA Decl. ¶¶ 1-14; Fraley PA Decl. ¶¶ 1-8.)

6. The Payment of Attorneys’ Fees Is Reasonable and Therefore Falls within the Range of Approval by the Court.

(i) The Requested Award of Attorneys’ Fees Is Justified Based on the Percentage-of-the-Benefit Method.

The California Supreme Court recently held that “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created.” Laffitte v. Robert Half Intern. Inc. (Aug. 11, 2016) 205

1 Cal.Rptr.3d 555, 573. Indeed, courts may use the “percentage method for its primary calculation of the 2 fee award. The choice of a fee calculation method is generally one within the discretion of the trial court,
3 the goal under either the percentage or lodestar approach being the award of a reasonable fee to 4 compensate counsel for their efforts.” Id.

5 The requested Class Counsel Fees Payment for attorneys’ fees in this case consists of one-third
6 of the Gross Settlement Amount (or $833,333.33). This percentage is commensurate with both the 7 Settlement and Plaintiffs’ contingency fee agreement.⁵ The requested attorneys’ fees are fair and 8 reasonable under California’s fee-shifting jurisprudence.⁶ And it is consistent with the percentage of the 9 common fund awarded to counsel in cases similar in character and geographical location to this one.
10 (See Kim Decl., ¶ 32-36.)

11 An award of attorneys’ fees equivalent to one-third of the common fund is also well below
12 fees awarded in other wage and hour class action settlements. See Crandall v. U-Haul (Los Angeles 13 County Sup.Ct., Case No. BC178775), the Honorable Steven Czuleger awarded a 40% attorney fee
14 request in an overtime-exemption class action; in Bushnell v. Cremar, Inc. (Orange County Sup.Ct., 15 Case No. 657778), the Honorable Donald E. Smallwood awarded attorneys’ fees in the amount of 38%;
16 in Abzug v. Kerkorian CA000981 (Los Angeles County Sup.Ct., November 1990), the Honorable R.
17 William Schoettler awarded a 45% fee; in Haitz v. Meyer, et al., Alameda County Sup. Court, 8-20-18 1990 No. 572968-3, the court awarded a 40% fee; in Elliott v. Clothestime (Orange County Sup. Ct., 19 Case No. 01-CC00333) the Honorable Jonathan Cannon awarded a 40% fee in a wage-and-hour class
20 action which had not yet proceeded to the class certification stage; in both Rippee v. Boston Market
21 Corporation, Case No.: 05 CV 1359 BTM (JMA) and Barile v. Boston Market Corporation, Case No.:
22 05 CV 1360 BTM (JMA), the Honorable Judge Barry T. Moskowitz awarded a 40% fee to plaintiff’s
23 counsel in wage-and-hour class actions that had not proceeded to the class-certification stage. (Kim 24

25 ⁵ The award of attorneys’ fees and costs in this case is intended to reimburse Class Counsel for all of the 26 uncompensated work that they have already performed and for all of the work they will continue to perform in carrying 27 out and overseeing the administration of the Settlement. Plaintiffs in this action signed a contingency-fee agreement
28 stating that Class Counsel could receive a fee under certain scenarios that exceed one-third of the recovery, as much as 40%. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 32-36.)

⁶ Moreover, the Labor Code specifically provides for an award of attorneys’ fees and costs for some of employees’ claims. See, e.g., Lab. Code § 226. Plaintiffs are also entitled to an award of attorneys’ fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

Decl., ¶ 35.)

The amount requested here will fairly compensate Class Counsel for their successful prosecution of these cases, taking into account the quality, nature, and extent of counsel's efforts, the outstanding results achieved, the fact that no one objected to the fee amount and the fact that the amount of fees for which approval is sought is significantly less than legal precedent. Class Counsel has litigated numerous class actions and submits that this settlement was possible owing to Class Counsel's experience with such cases. (Kim PA Decl., ¶¶ 16-21; Campbell PA Decl., ¶¶ 24-35.) Class Counsel's diligent, efficient, and creative pursuit of this matter positioned Plaintiffs to settle this action successfully, affording redress to the entire Class and avoiding the inevitable expense and risk attendant to protracted litigation. In sum, it was through the efforts of Plaintiffs and Class Counsel that the considerable benefits of the Settlement were obtained.

In light of the foregoing, the fee request in an amount equal to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, or $833,333.33, as agreed upon in the Settlement, is well within the bounds that have been established by the above-cited authority.

(ii) The Requested Award of Attorneys' Fees Is Also Justified Based on the Lodestar Method.

Although Laffitte makes it clear that a lodestar cross-check is not necessary, Class Counsel's lodestar calculation nevertheless also supports the requested attorneys' fees. The lodestar calculation typically proceeds in three steps. First, a trial court must determine a baseline guide or "lodestar" figure based on the time spent and reasonable hourly compensation for each attorney involved in the case. Serrano v. Priest (1975) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48. The court then sets a reasonable hourly fee to apply to the time expended, with reference to the prevailing rates in the geographical area in which the action is pending. Bihun v. AT&T Information System (1993) 13 Cal.App.4th 976, 997. Finally, a "multiplier" is selected with reference to the following factors: (1) the novelty and difficulty of issues involved, (2) the skill displayed in presenting them, (3) the extent to which the nature of the litigation precluded other employment by the attorneys, and (4) the contingent nature of the fee award owing to the uncertainty of prevailing on the merits and of establishing eligibility for the award. Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.App.3d at 49.

1 Class Counsel charges rates commensurate with the prevailing market rates in the Los Angeles
2 area for attorneys of comparable experience and skill handling complex litigation. (Kim Decl., ¶ 17.)
3 For this reason, the Court should approve the rates of Class Counsel as reasonable in conjunction with 4 awarding the requested fees and any lodestar calculations it makes when evaluating the request.

5 Moreover, the Serrano factors all militate in favor of the requested fee award. (Kim Decl., ¶ 26.)
6 This case raised a number of complex and contested issues, and Class Counsel exhibited skill and
7 creativity in prosecuting and presenting them. (Id.) This case was not straightforward. (Kim Decl., ¶
8 27.) Class Counsel had to spend time researching and analyzing each of these claims and issues in order
9 to adequately assess the liability of Defendant. (Id.) Class Counsel then had to develop the evidence
10 necessary through informal discovery to establish Defendant's potential liability. (Id.) This was done
11 through carefully sifting through hundreds of pages of documents. (Id.)

12 In sum, Class Counsel had to come up with creative approaches to these issues in litigating the 13 case and, ultimately, negotiating and crafting the Settlement. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28.) To this end, Class
14 Counsel has devoted a tremendous amount of time and energy. (Id.) This time commitment was 15 necessary in order to research, construct, and prosecute viable legal claims in the face of stiff opposition,
16 but it has come at a cost. (Id.) Class Counsel zealously represented Plaintiffs and the Class and have 17 obtained a favorable result. (Id.)

18 Such is not always the case. Indeed, Class Counsel has invested time and money into numerous
19 other cases, including class actions, which have fizzled out for one reason or another, leaving Class
20 Counsel completely without any compensation for their effort. (Kim Decl., ¶ 29.) Here, Class Counsel
21 has achieved a beneficial settlement for the Class, but this was by no means a foregone conclusion;
22 indeed, their efforts might well have been frustrated by any number of obstacles with which they were 23 presented along the way. (Id.) Nor could class certification be guaranteed. (Id.) However, Class Counsel 24 was able to navigate the shoals of unpredictability to achieve a desirable result and have done so without 25 receiving any compensation to speak of thus far because they took this case on a contingency-fee-basis.
26 (Id.)

27 From the foregoing analysis, Class Counsel's requested attorneys' fees are fair and reasonable.
28 Class Counsel conservatively estimates that it invested over 422.2 hours of attorney time in this matter.

(Kim Decl., ¶¶ 15, 23.) Senior Attorney Enoch Kim invested at least 10.3 hours for a total of $10,763.50 in attorneys' fees ($1,045/hr x 10.3 hours = $10,763.50). Senior Attorney David Yeremian invested approximately 6.8 hours for a total of $9,350.00 ($1,375/hr x 6.8 hours = $9,350.00). Senior Attorney Alvin B. Lindsay invested approximately 64.0 hours for a total of $80,640.00 ($1,260/hr x 64.0 hours = $80,640.00). Associate Attorney Melissa Rodriguez invested approximately 57.9 hours for a total of $27,502.50 in attorneys' fees ($475/hr x 57.9 hours = $27,502.50). Associate Attorney Arianna Razi invested approximately 14.0 hours for a total of $6,650.00 in attorneys' fees ($475/hr x 14.0 hours = $6,650.00). Aegis Law Firm, PC invested approximately 269.2 hours for a total of $223,962.50. Therefore, Class Counsel has collectively incurred at least 422.2 hours and $358,868.50 in fees, thus requiring a multiplier of 2.32 to be applied, which is within the reasonable range approved in lodestar crosschecks. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 23-25.)

(iii) The Requested Costs Award Is Reasonable

As of the date of the filing of this Motion, the actual total costs incurred in litigating this Action for Class Counsel are $32,314.90. (Kim Decl., ¶ 37.) Class Counsel's incurred costs include, but are not limited to, filing fees (e.g. complaint, stipulation, motions), service of process, mediation fees, and attorney-service costs for court filings, all of which were necessarily and reasonably incurred to prosecute this Action and achieve a settlement that significantly benefits the Class. (Id.) Thus, Class Counsel requests a reimbursement of their incurred costs in the amount of $32,314.90. (Id.)

III. CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS APPROPRIATE

The Class is defined in the Settlement Agreement as: "All persons currently or formerly employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in California at any time during the Class Period, which is December 23, 2018 to January 7, 2025." (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.5, 1.12.)

A. THE LEGAL STANDARD

Section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure provides that "when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. Class certification under § 382 is appropriate when "(1) [t]here [is] . . . an ascertainable class;

1 and (2) there [is] . . . a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved
2 affecting the parties to be represented.” Daar v. Yellow Cab Co.(1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 (citations
3 omitted). The community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant
4 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3)
5 class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981)
6 29 Cal.3d 462, 470.

7 Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of class
8 certification, subject to later modification if necessary. Id. at 473-475. The decision to certify a class is 9 a purely procedural one and should be based on the allegations in the operative complaint and not in the 10 perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims. Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 439-11 441.

12 B. ALL OF THE CRITERIA FOR CERTIFICATION OF THE SETTLEMENT
13 CLASS ARE SATISFIED.

14 1. The Class Is Ascertainable.

15 The class is readily ascertainable because all Class Members worked for Defendant within the 16 relevant class period and have already been identified through Defendant’s employee and payroll files.
17 (Campbell PA Decl., ¶ 12) See Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 932 (finding that 18 “[c]lass members are ‘ascertainable’ where they may be readily identified without unreasonable expense 19 or time by reference to official records.”).

20 2. The Numerosity Requirement Is Satisfied.

21 The numerosity requirement is fulfilled simply when the individual joinder of all class 22 members would be impracticable. A proposed class numbering “as few as 40 class members should 23 raise a presumption that joinder is impracticable,” thus satisfying the numerosity requirement. Newberg
24 on Class Actions § 3.5. Here, there are 459 Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 10.) Therefore, joinder would 25 be impracticable, and a class-wide proceeding is clearly preferable and appropriate.

26 3. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate over Any Individual Issues.

27 The court should grant class certification when questions of law and fact common to all Class
28 Members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members. Hicks v. Kaufman

1 &Broad Home Corp. (2001) 89 Cal.App.4th 908, 916 (“As a general rule, if the defendant’s liability
2 can be determined by facts common to all members of the class, a class will be certified even if the 3 members must individually prove their damages. In order to determine whether common questions of 4 fact predominate, the trial court must examine the issues framed by the pleadings and the law applicable 5 to the causes of action alleged.”).

6 The commonality and predominance requirements are “easily met,” because “[when] the 7 defendant has engaged in some course of conduct that affects a group of persons and gives rise to a
8 cause of action, one or more of the elements of that cause of action will be common to all of the persons
9 affected.” Gen’l Tel. Co. of Southwest v. Falcon (1982) 457 U.S. 147, 155. Further, the fact that 10 “calculation of individual damages may at some point be required does not foreclose the possibility of 11 taking common evidence on [liability issues].” Sav-on Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court(2004) 34
12 Cal.4th 319, 332 (holding that the legal question of whether the plaintiff-employees were nonexempt
13 and therefore entitled to overtime was a common question that predominated over the individual 14 questions of each employee’s duties performed and hours worked); Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE
15 Corp.(1987) 191 Cal. App.3d 605, 617 (“[T]he necessity for class members to prove their own damages 16 does not mean individual fact questions predominate”).

17 The scope of this case is narrowly focused on a specific class of persons employed by Defendant
18 during a specific period of time. The common questions of law and fact in this case all stem from the 19 claims that Class Members were not paid for all hours and did not receive meal and rest periods.
20 Plaintiffs and Class Members were subject to the same policies and practices and all sought the same
21 remedies. These common issues predominate over individual issues because identical evidence
22 establishes liability as to all Class Members. (Campbell PA Decl., ¶¶ 13-15.) Under such circumstances, 23 the commonality and predominance requirements are satisfied. Stephens v. Montgomery Ward & Co.,
24 Inc. (1987) 193 Cal. App. 3d 411, 421.

25 4. Plaintiffs’ Claims Are Typical.

26 A class representative’s claims are typical of a class when they arise from the same event,
27 practice, or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their 28 claims rest on the same legal theories. Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom

1 Kitchens v. Owens-Illinois, Inc. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 (“[I]t has never been the law in
2 California that the class representative must have identical interests with the class members.”). Here,
3 Plaintiffs’ claims are typical of Class Members’ claims because they arise from the same factual basis
4 and are based on the same legal theories. (Campbell PA Decl., ¶ 13.) Accordingly, the typicality
5 requirement is satisfied.

6 5. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel Adequately Represent the Class.

7 The adequacy requirement is met by fulfilling two conditions: (1) the class representative must 8 be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation, and (2) the class representative’s
9 interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. McGhee v. Crocker-Citizens Nat. Bank (1976) 60
10 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.

11 Both conditions are met here. First, Plaintiffs and the Class are represented by experienced and 12 competent counsel. Class Counsel is qualified and has served as class counsel in numerous class actions.
13 (Kim PA Decl., ¶¶ 16-21; Campbell PA Decl., ¶¶ 24-35.) Thus, Class Counsel is “qualified,
14 experienced, and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation.” Miller v. Woods (1983) 148
15 Cal.App.3d 862, 875. Second, Plaintiffs have no conflict with the Class, and their interests are aligned
16 with those of the Class. As a result of their effort, Class Members will benefit from the Settlement.
17 Accordingly, the adequacy requirement is satisfied.

18 6. Class Treatment Is Superior to the Alternatives.

19 Courts have long recognized that the class-action device often provides the sole procedural 20 mechanism by which many individuals harmed by corporate wrongdoing can band together to achieve
21 justice. Absent class treatment, similarly situated persons with relatively small but nevertheless 22 meritorious claims for damages would, as a practical matter, have no means of redress because of the 23 time, effort, and expense required to prosecute individual actions. See Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1023.
24 The United States Supreme Court has stated that “the policy at the very core of the class action 25 mechanism is to overcome the problem that small recoveries do not provide the incentive for any 26 individual to bring a solo action prosecuting his or her rights. The class action solves this problem by 27 aggregating the relatively paltry potential recoveries into something worth someone’s (usually an 28 attorney’s) labor.” Amchem Prods. v. Windsor (1997) 521 U.S. 591, 617 (citation and quotation

1 omitted).

2 Other relevant considerations regarding superiority include the improbability that each class
3 member will come forward to prove his or her separate claim and whether the class approach would 4 serve to deter or redress the alleged wrongdoing. Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 435.
5 In employment cases, concerns such as fear of the employer, lack of representation, size of claim, and 6 the employee's perception about the difficulty of litigation, increase the likelihood that an employer
7 will not be held accountable. Acknowledging these concerns, courts have noted that "[t]he risk entailed 8 in suing one's employer are such that the few hardy souls who come forward should be permitted to 9 speak for others when the vocal ones are otherwise fully qualified." St. Marie v. Eastern RR Ass'n
10 (S.D.N.Y. 1976) 72 F.R.D. 443, 449 (overruled as to damages and liability but not as to class 11 certification). Here, the class approach serves to deter and redress the alleged wrongdoing by ensuring 12 that all claims of Class Members are addressed.

13 Further, where, as here, the individual claims are relatively small and the socio-economic status 14 and sophistication of the class members contrasts with that of the defendants, a class action is 15 particularly appropriate because the size of the individual claims "would prove uneconomic for potential 16 plaintiffs" to pursue individually, as "litigation costs would dwarf potential recovery." Hanlon,
17 supra, 150 F. 3d at 1023. These issues, from a practical standpoint, generally lead to the unbalanced
18 situation where the employer is represented by counsel, but the employee who seeks redress is not.
19 Each of the above reasons compels the conclusion that a class action is the preferred method of 20 resolution for this case. (Campbell PA Decl., ¶¶ 12-15.)

21 IV. CONCLUSION

22 For the reasons set forth herein, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court grant final 23 approval of this Settlement and enter the companion order.
