Action Filed: September 11, 2023

Trial Date: Not Set

1 TO THE HONORABLE COURT, ALL PARTIES, AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF 2 RECORD:

3 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that pursuant to Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court and 4 California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, on March 30, 2026 at 10:00 a.m. in Department 15
5 of the Los Angeles Superior Court, located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012, 6 Plaintiff Darcy Nuber ("Plaintiff"), individually and on behalf of a class of similarly situated 7 individuals, will and hereby does move this Court for entry of an Order:

8 1. Confirming the certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes under 9 Section 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure;

10 2. Confirming the appointment of Plaintiff as the Class Representative for settlement 11 purposes;

12 3. Confirming the appointment of William C. Sung and Tiffany L. Luu as Class 13 Counsel;

14 4. Granting final approval of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement 15 ("Settlement" or "Agreement");

16 5. Approving an award of $121,666.66 in attorney's fees to Class Counsel;

17 6. Approving an award of $12,004.05 in costs to Class Counsel;

18 7. Approving an award of $5,058.00 in costs to Simpluris, Inc. for its settlement 19 administration services;

20 8. Approving a service payment of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff for Class Representative 21 Service Payment;

22 9. Approving a payment of $26,250.00 to the Labor & Workforce Development 23 Agency ("LWDA") for its share of civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act 24 ("PAGA"); and

25 10. Entering final judgment in the form of the Proposed Judgment and Order Granting 26 Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement filed herewith.

27 This Motion is made on the following grounds: (l) the Class continues to meet the 28 requirements for class certification for settlement purposes under Code of Civil Procedure § 382;

1 (2) Plaintiff and Class Counsel continue to be adequate representatives of the Class; (3) the 2 Settlement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable compromise of disputed wage and hour claims; (4) the 3 requested amounts for Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs, settlement administration costs, 4 and the Class Representative service payment are all fair, adequate, and reasonable; and (5) in light
5 of the foregoing, the Proposed Judgment and Order Granting Final Approval of Class and PAGA 6 Action Settlement submitted herewith should be entered so as to give finality to, and allow for 7 disbursements from, the Settlement.

8 This Motion is based on this Notice of Motion; the attached Memorandum of Points and 9 Authorities; the supporting declarations of William C. Sung, Tiffany L. Luu, Plaintiff Darcy Nuber, 10 and Alina Islas of Simpluris, Inc., and the exhibits attached thereto; the Agreement; the pleadings, 11 and other papers filed in this Action; and on any further oral or documentary evidence or argument 12 presented at the time of the hearing.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Darcy Nuber (“Plaintiff”) submits this Memorandum of Points and Authorities in support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class and PAGA Action Settlement (the “Motion”) with Defendant Fever Labs, Inc. (“Defendant”) (collectively, the “Parties”). Under the Settlement, Defendant has agreed to pay a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of $365,000.00 to the following Class comprised of 25 individuals:

All persons employed by Defendant Fever Labs, Inc. in California from September 11, 2019 to the date of preliminary approval (the “Class Period”) and classified as an exempt employee but who did not earn a monthly salary equivalent to no less than two times the State minimum wage for full-time employment.

In this non-reversionary class and PAGA action settlement, all Participating Class Members will receive automatic payments without the need to submit a claim form, resulting in an average Individual Class Payment of approximately $7,250.85 to each Participating Class Member. This is an excellent result for the Class, especially in light of the significant litigation risks that Plaintiff faced. Moreover, after receiving notice of the proposed Settlement and projected estimated Individual Class Payments, not a single Class Member has objected to or opted out of the Settlement, resulting in a 100% participation rate.

As explained further below, the Court should grant Plaintiff’s Motion in its entirety because (1) the Class continues to meet the requirements for certification for settlement purposes under Code Civ. Proc. § 382; (2) the Settlement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable compromise of the disputed claims in this case; and (3) the requested amounts for attorneys’ fees and costs, settlement administration costs, and class representative service payment are all fair, adequate, and reasonable. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Court should enter the Proposed Judgment and Order Granting Final Approval submitted herewith.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

A. THE PARTIES AND BRIEF PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Defendant operates a live and immersive entertainment project management company in the United States, including California. Declaration of William C. Sung (“Sung Decl.”), ¶ 9. Defendant

1 employed Plaintiff an IP Coordinator managing live entertainment projects in the Los Angeles area
2 from approximately July 29, 2021 to January 31, 2024. Declaration of Darcy Nuber (“Nuber 3 Decl.”), ¶ 2.

4 On August 1, 2023, Plaintiff sent a notice letter under PAGA to the Labor and Workforce
5 Development Agency (“LWDA”) and gave notice to Defendant, and on September 11, 2023, 6 Plaintiff filed an amended PAGA notice letter and gave notice to Defendant. Sung Decl., ¶ 10.

7 On September 11, 2023, Plaintiff filed her Class Action Complaint in Los Angeles County
8 Superior Court, alleging causes of action against Defendant for (1) Minimum Wage Violations; (2) 9 Overtime Wage Violations; (3) Meal Period Violations; (4) Rest Period Violations; (5) Wage 10 Statement Penalties; (6) Waiting Time Penalties; (7) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business 11 Expenses; and (8) Unfair Competition. Sung Decl., ¶ 11. On October 6, 2023, Plaintiff filed the 12 operative First Amended Complaint (“FAC”) adding a cause of action for Civil Penalties Under the 13 California Private Attorneys General Act against Defendant. Sung Decl., ¶ 12.

14 B. DISCOVERY, MEDIATION, AND PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

15 In connection with mediation, the Parties engaged in extensive informal discovery. Sung 16 Decl., ¶ 13. Defendant produced all available payroll records for Class Members, a class list 17 identifying Class Members by unique identifying number and their job titles, dates of hire and 18 separation if applicable, workweeks worked during the Class Period through the date of mediation 19 and pay periods worked during the PAGA Period through the date of mediation, and Defendant’s 20 employee handbook, including Defendant’s reimbursement policy. Ibid. No time records for Class 21 Members were produced because Class Members did not clock in and out. Ibid.

22 In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff conducted a comprehensive analysis and extrapolation 23 of the payroll and workweek/pay period data produced by Defendant to create a detailed exposure 24 analysis for all claims at issue. Sung Decl., ¶ 14. This discovery and analysis allowed the Parties to 25 assess the merits and value of Plaintiff’s claims, the chances of certification of Plaintiff’s claims, 26 and Defendant’s potential defenses. Ibid.

27 On April 30, 2024, the Parties participated in a full-day mediation with Steven Pearl, Esq. a 28 well-respected wage and hour class action mediator. Sung Decl., ¶ 15. During mediation, the Parties

1 vigorously debated their opposing legal positions, the likelihood of certification of Plaintiff's 2 claims, and the legal basis for the claims and defenses. Ibid. The Parties reached a tentative class
3 and PAGA settlement at the mediation. Ibid. The terms of the Settlement are in the Class Action 4 and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Settlement" or "Agreement"). Id., Exh. 1 (Agreement).

5 On August 21, 2024, Plaintiff submitted the proposed Settlement to this Court with 6 Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action. Sung Decl., ¶ 16. On November 5, 7 2025, this Court issued its Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA 8 Settlement. Id., Exh. 2 (Order Granting Preliminary Approval).

9 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT AND NOTICE ADMINISTRATION

10 A. CLASS DEFINITION

11 As noted, the Class is comprised of: "All persons employed by Defendant Fever Labs, Inc.
12 in California from September 11, 2019 to the date of preliminary approval [i.e., November 5, 2025]
13 (the "Class Period") and classified as an exempt employee but who did not earn a monthly salary 14 equivalent to no less than two times the State minimum wage for full-time employment." Order 15 Granting Preliminary Approval, ¶ 1 (Ex. 2 to Sung Decl.).

16 B. MONETARY TERMS

17 The Settlement provides for Defendant to pay a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount 18 of $365,000.00. Agreement, § 3.1 (Ex. 1 to Sung Decl.). The Net Settlement Amount is the amount 19 remaining from the Gross Settlement Amount after deducting requested attorneys' fees 20 ($121,666.66) and litigation costs ($12,004.05), requested Class Representative Service Payment 21 ($10,000.00), settlement administration costs ($5,058.00), and the amount set aside as PAGA civil 22 penalties ($35,000.00). Agreement, §§ 1.28, 3.2.1-3.2.5; Sung Decl., ¶ 17, Ex. 3. Based on these 23 requested amounts, the Net Settlement Amount is estimated at $181,271.29. Declaration of Alina 24 Islas ("Admin. Decl."), ¶ 13.

25 Each Individual Class Payment to Class Members will be calculated as follows: "The 26 Administrator shall pay Individual Class Payments to Class Members calculated by (a) dividing the 27 Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class 28 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class

1 Member's Workweeks." Agreement, § 3.2.4. In addition, 25% of the amount designated as PAGA 2 Penalties (i.e., $5,000.00) will be distributed to all Aggrieved Employees who worked for 3 Defendant during the period from August 1, 2022 to date of Preliminary Approval [i.e., November 4 5, 2025] (the "PAGA Period") based on the proportionate number of pay periods worked during the 5 PAGA Period. Id. at §§ 1.32, 3.2.5.

6 All Individual Class Payments from the Net Settlement Amount will be classified as 25% 7 wages to be reported on a W-2 form, and 75% penalties and interest, to be reported on a 1099 form.
8 Agreement, § 3.2.4.1. Defendant's share of employer-side payroll taxes shall be paid by Defendant 9 separate and in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. Agreement, § 3.1.

10 C. SUMMARY OF THE NOTICE ADMINISTRATION

11 On November 10, 2025, Defendant's counsel provided the Administrator with the Class List 12 consisting of 25 Class Members' names, social security numbers, last known mailing addresses, and 13 dates of employment. Admin. Decl., ¶ 5. The Administrator conducted a National Change of 14 Address ("NCOA") search to ensure the accuracy and validity of the addresses before mailing Class 15 Notices. Admin. Decl., ¶ 6. If an updated address was found in the NCOA database, the 16 Administrator utilized that address; if no updated address was found, the Administrator utilized the 17 original address. Ibid. On December 5, 2025, the Administrator mailed the Class Notice to the 25 18 Class Members via U.S. First Class Mail. Admin. Decl., ¶ 7, Exh. A (Class Notice).

19 The Administrator received one returned Class Notices as undeliverable. Admin. Decl., ¶ 8.
20 The Administrator conducted a computerized skip trace on the returned Class Notice but could not 21 locate an updated. Ibid. Ultimately, one Class Notices was undeliverable as an updated address 22 could not be found through a skip trace. Ibid.

23 The Administrator received no objections, requests for exclusions, or workweek disputes.
24 Admin. Decl., ¶¶ 10-12. Thus, the participation rate by Class Member is 100%. Admin. Decl., ¶ 10.
25 The average estimated Individual Class Payment is approximately $7,250.85, with the highest 26 estimated payment being $17,573.88 and lowest estimated payment being $1,651.61. Admin. Decl., 27 ¶ 13. Additionally, 17 Aggrieved Employees who were employed during the PAGA Period will 28 receive a portion of the $8,750.00 penalties reserved for Aggrieved Employees. Ibid. The average

1 Individual PAGA Payment is approximately $514.70, with the highest estimated payment being 2 $1,651.61 and the lowest estimated payment being $70.28. Ibid.

3 D. FUNDING OF THE SETTLEMENT AND UNCASHED SETTLEMENT
4 CHECKS

5 Defendant shall deposit the Gross Settlement Amount and the employer's share of payroll 6 taxes with the Administrator no later than 30 days after the Effective Date. Agreement, § 4.3.
7 Within 15 calendar days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount and employer's share 8 of payroll taxes, the Administrator will disburse all Individual Class Payments, all Individual PAGA
9 Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, Class 10 Representative Service Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, and the Class Counsel Litigation 11 Expenses Payment. Agreement, § 4.4.

12 After disbursement, Class Members will have 180 days to cash their checks. Agreement, § 13 4.4.1. If any checks are returned as undeliverable, the Administrator will conduct a Class Member 14 Address Search and remail the settlement check to either a USPS forwarding address or to an 15 address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search within 7 calendar days of receiving 16 the returned checks. Agreement, § 4.4.2. Funds remaining unclaimed after 180 days shall be sent to 17 the California State Controller's Office in the Class Member's name to be held as unclaimed 18 property for the Class Member. Agreement, § 4.4.3.

19 IV. LEGAL ARGUMENT

20 A. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS ALL REQUIREMENTS FOR CLASS
21 CERTIFICATION UNDER CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE § 382

22 Under Code of Civil Procedure § 382, a class may be certified if: (1) it is ascertainable and 23 its members are too numerous for joinder to be practical; (2) the representative and absent class 24 members share a community of interest, and questions of law and fact common to the class 25 predominate over questions unique to individual class members; (3) the representative's claims are 26 typical of the class's claims; and (4) the representative will fairly and adequately represent the 27 class's interests. Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 470.

28 ///

1 Here, this Court found that the Class meets all the requirements for class certification for 2 settlement purposes when it granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. See generally Sung 3 Decl., Exh. 2. Subsequent to the Court’s Order granting preliminary approval, no events have cast 4 doubt on the propriety of this determination, and in fact, the reaction of the Class has been 5 overwhelmingly supportive of the Settlement, with not a single objection or request for exclusion 6 submitted, resulting in a 100% participating rate. See Admin. Decl., ¶¶ 10-12. This Court should 7 therefore confirm its conditional certification of the Class.

8 B. THE SETTLEMENT IS A FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE 9 COMPROMISE OF DISPUTED WAGE AND HOUR CLAIMS

10 California courts have a strong policy in favor of settlement. See, e.g., Stambaugh v. Superior 11 Court (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236. Unlike individual settlements, class action settlements 12 involve a court approval process that exists to prevent fraud, collusion, and unfairness to class 13 members. Malibu Outrigger Bd. of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-14 79. This approval process consists of preliminary settlement approval, notice being given to class 15 members, and a final fairness and approval hearing being held, at which class members have the 16 opportunity to be heard with respect to the settlement. Ibid. Now that notice has been provided to 17 the Class, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court finally approve the Settlement as fair, 18 adequate, and reasonable.

19 1. The Settlement Was Reached Through Arms-Length Negotiation by 20 Experienced Counsel and Presumably Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

21 A class settlement is presumptively fair where it is reached through arm’s-length bargaining, 22 based on sufficient discovery and investigation to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently, 23 counsel is experienced in similar litigation, and the percentage of objectors to the settlement is 24 small. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1802. In deciding whether to approve a 25 proposed settlement, a trial court has broad powers to determine if the proposed settlement is fair 26 under the circumstances of the case. Mallick v. Superior Court (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438. In 27 exercising these powers, the overriding concern is to ensure that a proposed settlement is “fair, 28 adequate, and reasonable.” Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 (internal quotations omitted). Relevant

1 factors for the Court to consider include, but are not limited to:

2 [T]he strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 3 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 4 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

5 Ibid. These factors require balancing, are non-exhaustive and, as such, trial courts should tailor the 6 factors to each case and give due regard to "what is otherwise a private consensual agreement 7 between the parties." Ibid.

8 "In the context of a settlement agreement, the test is not the maximum amount a plaintiff 9 might have obtained at trial on the complaint, but rather whether the settlement is reasonable under 10 all of the circumstances." Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250.

11 Because settlements inherently involve compromise, even settlements providing for substantially 12 narrower relief than likely would be obtained if the suit were successfully litigated can be 13 reasonable because "the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which 14 each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation." Ibid. (quoting Air Line Stewards, etc., 15 Local 550 v. Am. Airlines, Inc. (7th Cir. 1972) 455 F.2d 101, 109). In addition, courts review the 16 discovery process and information received through it to aid them in assessing whether the parties 17 sufficiently developed the claims and their supporting factual bases before reaching settlement. See 18 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-31. Information is sufficient 19 where it allows the parties and the court to form "an understanding of the amount that is in 20 controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation." Clark v. Am. Residential Svcs.
21 LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 801. This requirement exists so that the parties can provide the 22 Court with "a meaningful and substantiated explanation of the manner in which the factual and legal 23 issues have been evaluated." Kullar, 168 Cal.App.4th at 132-33.

24 2. The Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable in Light of the Risks
25 Faced by Plaintiff

26 While Plaintiff steadfastly maintains Plaintiff's claims are meritorious, Plaintiff 27 acknowledges Plaintiff's position included substantial risks and uncertainty, which justifies a 28 downward departure from the maximum exposure each claim potentially carried.

1 As detailed in Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval, there is a significant risk of non-2 certification and/or not prevailing on the merits with respect to each of Plaintiff's claims. Sung 3 Decl., ¶ 18. For example, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant misclassified her as exempt and failed to 4 pay minimum and overtime wages for hours worked over eight hours in a workday and/or 40 hours 5 in a workweek. Ibid. However, Defendant contends that the project management positions that 6 Plaintiff and Class Members worked in were typically "nine to five" jobs and they rarely, if ever, 7 worked more than 8 hours in a workday and/or 40 hours in a workweek. Ibid. Defendant further 8 contends that each Class Members' experience with respect to hours worked were different based 9 on their job positions and project assignments and Class Members did not record hours worked on 10 timesheets, and, as such, individualized issues, including on the issue of how many hours each Class 11 Members worked during each workday and/or workweek and damages, predominate. Ibid. Finally, 12 Defendant contends it could settle individually with Class Members, thereby eliminating 13 numerosity or at least significantly reduce classwide exposure. Ibid.

14 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to provide compliant meal periods to Class Members.
15 Sung Decl., ¶ 19. Defendant contends that it always provides employees the opportunity to take 16 meal periods and is not required to ensure they are taken. Ibid. Defendant maintains Plaintiff's meal 17 period claims are not suited for class certification since individual inquiries would be needed to 18 assess which employees, if any, took non-compliant or missed meal periods, how many meal 19 periods were non-compliant or missed, and the reasons why a particular employee did not take a 20 meal period on a particular shift. Ibid. Finally, Defendant contends it could settle individually with 21 Class Members, thereby eliminating numerosity or at least significantly reduce classwide exposure.
22 Ibid.

23 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to provide compliant rest periods to Class Members.
24 Sung Decl., ¶ 20. Defendant contends that it always provides employees the opportunity to take rest 25 periods and is not required to ensure they are taken. Ibid. Defendant maintains Plaintiff's rest period 26 claims are not suited for class certification since individual inquiries would be needed to assess 27 which employees, if any, took non-compliant or missed rest periods, how many rest periods were 28 non-compliant or missed, and the reasons why a particular employee did not take a rest period on a

1 particular shift. Ibid. Finally, Defendant contends it could settle individually with Class Members, 2 thereby eliminating numerosity or at least significantly reduce classwide exposure. Ibid.

3 As to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory waiting time and wage statement penalties 4 under Labor Code §§ 203 and 226(e), Defendant denies liability for waiting time and wage 5 statements, and argues that it possesses strong, good faith defenses to Plaintiff's underlying claims, 6 thus precluding recovery of waiting time penalties that are only available for "willful" failure to pay
7 wages. Sung Dec., ¶ 21. Defendant further maintains that any alleged wage statement violations 8 were not "knowing and intentional," and that Plaintiff cannot show the Class "suffer[ed] injury" due 9 to these alleged violations as required by Labor Code § 226(e) for the imposition of penalties. Ibid.
10 Defendant relies on Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Services, Inc. (2024) 15 Cal.5th 1056, 1065, for 11 the proposition that an employer's good-faith defenses precludes a "willfulness" finding under 12 Labor Code § 203 and a "knowing and intentional" finding under Labor Code § 226(e) for the 13 imposition of statutory penalties. Sung Dec., ¶ 21. Defendant also claims that Plaintiff's alleged 14 exposure for waiting time and wage statement penalties was grossly inflated because not every 15 employee experienced an alleged Labor Code violation. Ibid.

16 Finally, as to Plaintiff's claim for civil penalties under PAGA, since Plaintiff's PAGA claim 17 is derivative of Plaintiff's underlying wage claims, Defendant asserts the PAGA claim would fail 18 with those claims. Sung Dec., ¶ 22; see Price v. Starbucks Corp. (2011) 192 Cal.App.4th 1136, 19 1147 ("Because the underlying causes of action fail, the derivative UCL and PAGA claims also 20 fail."). Defendant further maintains that, given its good faith defenses, this Court would exercise its 21 discretion to substantially reduce any PAGA penalties if it were to find Defendant liable for any of 22 Plaintiff's claims. Sung Dec., ¶ 22; see Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2); Thurman v. Bayshore Transit
23 Mgmt., Inc. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (affirming reduction of PAGA penalties); Fleming
24 v. Covidien Inc. (C.D. Cal. 2011) Case No. ED CV10-01487 RGK (OPx), 2011 WL 7563047, at *4 25 (reducing PAGA penalties by over 82% in part because employer "not aware" of violations); 26 Carrington v. Starbucks Corp. (2018) 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 529 (affirming PAGA civil penalty of 27 just $5 per pay period where employer made "good faith attempts" to comply with the law).

28 ///

1 These considerations not only bore heavily on the Parties’ negotiations, but also confirm that 2 the Settlement is a fair and reasonable compromise in view of the risk of further litigation. Sung 3 Dec., ¶ 23. As detailed in Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff carefully vetted the 4 claims at issue and conducted a detailed statistical analysis of classwide data with the help of a 5 retained expert to arrive at the calculated damages figures. Ibid. Thus, while these risks are far from 6 exhaustive, they demonstrate the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable in view of them. Ibid.

7 3. The Settlement Fairly, Reasonably, and Adequately Compensates Class
8 Members

9 As noted, the Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will be calculated 10 based on the proportionate number of workweeks worked by each Participating Class Member 11 during the Class Period and based on proportionate number of pay periods worked by each 12 Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period, respectively. Agreement, §§ 3.2.4, 3.2.5.1. This 13 method of distribution compensates Class Members based on the estimated extent of their injuries, 14 as Class Members who worked more workweeks or pay periods would have been subject to more of 15 the alleged wage and hour violations than those who worked fewer workweeks. Thus, the formula 16 for compensating Class Members is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it is tethered to the damages 17 and penalties that could be recovered by them.

18 4. The Absence of Any Objections or Opt Outs Confirms that the 19 Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

20 Class members’ response to a settlement is relevant in evaluating whether it merits final 21 approval. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801. The absence of objections and requests for exclusion 22 supports a fairness presumption. See 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp.
23 (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1152-53 (finding 9 objections and 80 opt-outs from a class of 5,454 24 showed a “particularly impressive” favorable response from class members).

25 Here, not a single Class Member has objected to or opted out of the Settlement, resulting in 26 a 100% participation rate. Admin. Decl., ¶¶ 10-12. This extremely favorable response of the Class 27 further confirms that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

28 ///

1 C. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES ARE REASONABLE AS A 2 PERCENTAGE OF THE COMMON FUND CONFIRMED BY A LODESTAR
3 “CROSS-CHECK”

4 Plaintiff and the Class, as the prevailing parties in settlement, are entitled to recover their 5 attorney’s fees and costs for their wage claims. An attorney’s fee award is justified where the legal 6 action has produced its benefits by way of a voluntary settlement. See e.g., Maria P. v. Riles (1987)
7 43 Cal.3d 1281, 1290-91; Westside Cmnty. for Independent Living, Inc. v. Obledo (1983) 33 Cal.3d 8 348, 352-53; see also Code Civ. Proc. § 1021.5. Here, Plaintiff submits that Plaintiff is entitled to 9 recover attorneys’ fees under the common fund theory, as confirmed by a lodestar “cross-check.”

10 1. Under the Common Fund Doctrine, It Is Proper to Compensate Class
11 Counsel Based on a Percentage of the Recovery Obtained for the Class

12 When a settlement results in a common fund for the benefit of a class, class counsel may be 13 awarded fees as a percentage of the common fund. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 254 (recognizing the 14 “percentage of recovery” method). The California Supreme Court confirmed in Laffitte v. Robert 15 Half Int’l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 that “[t]he percentage of fund method survives in 16 California class action cases.” Our Supreme Court held:

17 The recognized advantages of the percentage method—including relative ease of 18 calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better 19 approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it 20 provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.

21 Id. at 503; see also e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (“when a number of persons are 22 entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the 23 benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be 24 awarded attorney’s fees out of the fund.”); Serrano v. Unruh (1982) 32 Cal.3d 621, 627 (in 25 awarding a fee from the common fund obtained for the benefit of all parties, the trial court acts 26 within its equitable power to prevent the other parties’ unjust enrichment.); Rawlings v. Prudential- 27 Bache Properties, Inc. (6th Cir. 1993) 9 F.3d 513, 516 (percentage of fund method more accurately 28 reflects the results achieved for the putative class and “establishes reasonable expectations on the

1 part of plaintiffs’ attorneys as to their expected recovery; and it encourages early settlement, which 2 avoids protracted litigation.”); In re Rite Aid Corp. Sec. Litig. (3d Cir. 2005) 396 F.3d 294, 300 3 (“The percentage-of-recovery method is generally favored in common fund cases because it allows 4 courts to award fees from the fund ‘in a manner that rewards counsel for success and penalizes it for 5 failure.”).

6 Here, Class Counsel’s fee request of $121,666.66 (one-third of the Gross Settlement 7 Amount) is fair and reasonable based on a percentage of the recovery. First, “regardless whether the 8 percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-9 third of the recovery.” Chavez v. Netflix (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11. This is also consistent 10 with Class Counsel’s experience in similar matters. See Sung Decl., ¶ 24. Thus, the percentage 11 sought by Class Counsel (the same percentage approved in Laffitte) is reasonable.

12 2. The Fee Request Is Also Reasonable Based on a Lodestar “Cross-Check”

13 The California Supreme Court in Laffitte also held that trial courts have discretion to assess 14 the reasonableness of fee awards with tools such as the “lodestar cross-check,” whereby the trial 15 court calculates counsel’s lodestar and determines whether the “lodestar multiplier” needed to bring 16 the lodestar on par with the percentage of recovery is reasonable. Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503-06.
17 While a trial court may utilize the lodestar cross-check, it need not do so. Id. at 506 (“[w]e hold 18 further that the trial courts have discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a percentage fee, as 19 the court did here; they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other 20 means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee.”).

21 Under the lodestar method, the court multiplies the number of hours reasonably expended by 22 each attorney or legal staff member by their reasonable hourly rates, then enhances this lodestar 23 figure by a “multiplier” to account for a range of factors, such as the contingent nature of the case
24 and the degree of success achieved. See Serrano, 20 Cal.3d at 48-49; Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 25 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36; Thayer v. Wells Fargo Bank (2001) 92 Cal. App. 4th 819, 834 (“There is no 26 hard-and-fast rule limiting the factors that may justify an exercise of judicial discretion to increase 27 or decrease a lodestar calculation”).

28 ///

Under California law, lodestar multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher. See, e.g., Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 49-50 (approving multiplier of about 2.5); Coalition for L.A. County Planning etc. Interest v. Bd. of Supervisors (1977) 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (approving multiplier of about 12.8). In class actions such as this one, where the value of the benefit conferred to the class “can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty,” the court may “adjust the lodestar in comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557.

Here, Plaintiff’s counsel’s current lodestar is $99,955.00, broken down as:

Name	Laffey Matrix Fee	Actual Billing Rate	Hours Billed	Lodestar
William C. Sung (14 th Year Attorney)	$948	$900	89.00	$80,100.00
Tiffany L. Luu (5 th Year Attorney)	$581	$550	36.10	$19,855.00
		Total	125.1	$99,955.00

Sung Decl., ¶¶ 25-27. Plaintiff’s counsel’s requested fee award represents a 1.22 lodestar multiplier. Sung Decl., ¶ 25. Additionally, Plaintiff’s counsel estimate they will devote no less than 10 hours, although likely more time, to additional tasks, which are hours not included in the foregoing lodestar total. Sung Decl., ¶ 28. These additional hours will include time spent to obtain and monitor approval of the Settlement and requested awards, oversee the settlement administration process and distribution of funds, respond to inquiries, and communicate with Plaintiff regarding the case. Ibid. Plaintiff’s counsel also bear the risk of taking whatever actions are necessary if Defendant fails to pay.

The amount of fees requested under the Settlement is warranted based on the contingent risk that Counsel incurred, the difficulty of the questions involved, the substantial benefit conferred on the Class as a result of the Settlement, and the skill displayed by Plaintiff’s counsel. Thus, the request for attorneys’ fees satisfies a lodestar check. Accordingly, the Court should find that the circumstances of the present case justify an award of 33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount for attorney’s fees.

1 The fee award requested here is justified because Class Counsel achieved a significant 2 monetary recovery for the Class in an uncertain and risky case while bearing the substantial burdens 3 of representation on a contingency basis, and the fees requested are in line with the market rate.
4 Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-51 (finding that exceptional results 5 in a contingency case, significant risk, and the absence of supporting precedents, are proper 6 considerations in awarding attorney’s fees). Class Counsel negotiated a substantial recovery for the 7 Class, resulting in a 100% participation rate, and not a single Class Member objected to the 8 Settlement, including Class Counsel’s requested fees.

9 In addition, the average estimated Individual Class Payment in this case of $7,250.85
10 exceeds average payments in similar wage and hour class action settlements. See, e.g., Sorenson v.
11 PetSmart, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2008) No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (wage and hour class action 12 settlement approved where average class member recovery was approximately $60); Schiller v.
13 David’s Bridal, Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 11, 2012) No. 1:10-cv-00616-AWI-SKO, 2012 WL 2117001 14 (finding that average payment to class members of less than $200 was a “good” result); Williams v.
15 Centerplate, Inc. (S.D. Cal. Aug. 26, 2013) No. 11-CV-2159 HKSC, 2013 WL 4525428 (granting 16 final approval of class action settlement where average recovery for each class member was 17 approximately $108 and describing result as “very favorable”). The fact that Class Counsel 18 achieved these results in the face of serious defense challenges and in an uncertain legal landscape, 19 confirms the strength of the results achieved.

20 As noted, this case presented significant risk as to both class certification and prevailing on 21 the merits. Accordingly, it is fair and reasonable to account for these risks in compensating Class 22 Counsel. Class Counsel should also be compensated for the risks involved in undertaking this 23 litigation and expending considerable effort, all while working on a pure contingency basis. Since 24 undertaking representation of Plaintiff in this litigation, Class Counsel have borne all the costs of 25 litigation since the filing of the Action without receiving any compensation to date. See Sung Decl., 26 Sung Decl., ¶ 29. During this time, Plaintiff’s counsel have incurred and/or will incur $12,004.05 in 27 litigation costs, and devoted substantial time to this litigation. Ibid.

28 ///

Counsel's efforts have included: initiating the action in state court, litigating in federal court after removal and prior to remand, multiple meetings with the Plaintiff and review of documents provided by Plaintiff; legal research and investigation into Defendants' corporate structure and relevant litigation history; legal research and investigation regarding the Defendants' practices at various points in the litigation; preparation and submission of Plaintiff's PAGA notice letter; preparation of the Complaints and status conferences; extensive meet and confer correspondence and discussions with Defendant's counsel regarding case management, mediation, and informal discovery for mediation; analysis of the informal discovery production; preparation of a damages model; research and preparation of Plaintiff's mediation brief and participation in mediation; drafting, negotiating, and reviewing multiple drafts of the Agreement and attachments thereto; preparation, finalization, and filing Motion for Preliminary Approval and Motion for Final Approval and accompanying filings; preparing for and attending hearings on these Motions; overseeing the notice administration process and distribution of funds; and communications with Plaintiff regarding the case. Sung Decl., ¶ 26. Given the considerable potential for adverse outcomes in this case, including but not limited to losing on class certification and/or merits issues, the contingent risk borne by counsel in this case was great.

Class Counsel's previous experience in litigating wage and hour class actions also supports the reasonableness of the fee request. Class Counsel are well-versed in plaintiff and defense-side wage and hour class action litigation, with two decades of combined experience litigating claims similar to those raised in this case. See Sung Decl., ¶¶ 2-7. Class Counsel have been certified as class counsel in a number of other cases. Sung Decl., ¶ 5. Their experience in similar matters was integral in evaluating the claims against Defendant and the reasonableness of the Settlement. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law, as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. Because it is reasonable to compensate Class Counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, a fee award of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount is reasonable. Thus, Plaintiff submits the requested fee award is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be approved.

1 D. THE REQUESTED LITIGATION EXPENSES ARE REASONABLE.

2 Plaintiff seeks $12,004.05 in litigation costs. Sung Decl., ¶ 17, Exh. 3. The requested 3 litigation cost award include $11,777.74 in costs incurred to date and future estimated costs of 4 $77.97 for filing this Motion, $16.17 for filing any supplemental briefing and/or amended proposed 5 order for this Motion, $116 in Case Anywhere system access fees through final approval, and 6 $16.17 for filing the Administrator’s declaration of compliance. See id., Exh. 3.

7 The cost request is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as the costs were reasonably incurred, and 8 the costs Plaintiff seeks are routinely approved by courts. See e.g., Harris v. Marhoefer (9th Cir.
9 1994) 24 F.3d 16, 19 (counsel should recover “those out-of-pocket expenses that would normally be 10 charged to a fee paying client”); Ashker v. Sayre (N.D. Cal. Mar. 7, 2011) No. 05-03759 CW, 2011 11 WL 825713 at *3 (“costs of reproducing pleadings, motions and exhibits are typically billed by 12 attorneys to their fee-paying clients”); Trustees of Const. Industry & Laborers Health and Welfare 13 Trust v. Redland Ins. Co. (9th Cir. 2006) 460 F.3d 1253, 1258-59 (legal research costs 14 reimbursable); In re Immune Response Sec. Litig. (S.D. Cal. 2007) 497 F.Supp.2d 1166, 1177-78 15 (mediation, consultant and expert fees; legal research; copies; postage; filing fees; messenger and 16 overnight delivery costs reimbursable). In addition, not a single Class Member objected to the 17 Settlement, including Class Counsel’s request of up to $15,000.00 in litigation costs. Because these 18 costs were reasonably incurred, and no Class Member has objected to them, the Court should grant 19 the request.

20 E. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVAL THE REQUESTED SETTLEMENT
21 ADMINISTRATION COSTS.

22 Plaintiff also requests that this Court approve $5,058.00 in settlement administration costs to 23 the Administrator. As detailed in the Admin. Decl., the Administrator performed duties that were 24 integral in effectuating the Settlement and the Notice process. Among other things, the 25 Administrator calculated each Class member’s Individual Class and PAGA Payments, updated 26 addresses contained in the class data supplied by Defendant, formatted and translated the Class 27 Notice for mailing, mailed Class Notices to all Class Members, kept the Parties informed of any 28 objections or requests for exclusion, and otherwise administered the Settlement. See Admin. Decl., ¶¶ 3-14. For these reasons, the Administrator’s requested costs are fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be finally approved.

F. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVE PLAINTIFF’S REQUESTED CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENT

Courts routinely approve service payments to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they provide and the risks they incur during class action litigation. See, e.g., Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exchange (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (upholding “service payments” to named plaintiffs for their efforts in bringing the case); Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 (approving $50,000 service payment). Indeed, “[i]ncentive awards are fairly typical in class action cases.” Rodriguez v. West Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958. The Court may award incentive payments “to compensate [Plaintiff] for work done on behalf of the class, to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action. Id. at 958-59.

Here, Plaintiff seeks a Service Payment of $10,000.00 and Plaintiff and Class Counsel submit that this request is reasonable given Plaintiff’s efforts in this case and the risks Plaintiff undertook on behalf of the Class. See Nuber Decl., ¶¶ 4-6; Sung Decl., ¶ 31. Plaintiff expended substantial time and effort on behalf of the Class and estimates spending over 30 hours on this case, including providing factual information and documents to counsel, attending meetings with counsel to discuss the claims and theories at issue in the litigation, and otherwise actively participating in the prosecution of his claims. Nuber Decl., ¶ 4.

Importantly, Plaintiff was a current employee and a top performer for Defendant when she filed this action in September 2023. Nuber Decl., ¶ 5. She wanted to help her coworkers to recover their unpaid wages, unpaid meal and rest period premiums, and other penalties, and knew there was a risk for whistleblowing and filing this lawsuit. Ibid. Plaintiff also undertook the risk of being liable for Defendant’s costs if this case were lost, as well as the reputational risk of being the named plaintiff in a wage and hour class action against an employer. See, e.g., Deaver v. Compass Bank (N.D. Cal. Dec. 11, 2015) 2015 WL 8526982 at *14-15 (approving incentive payment in wage and hour settlement, finding the award “particularly appropriate in this wage and hour class action, where Plaintiff undertook a significant ‘reputational risk’ in bringing this action against his former

1 employer”). Plaintiff is also agreeing to a much broader release than other Class Members, 2 including a waiver of Civil Code § 1542. See Agreement, § 5.1; see also Bellinghausen v. Tractor
3 Supply Co. (N.D. Cal. 2015) 306 F.R.D. 245, 268 (approving $15,000 total award to named plaintiff 4 in wage and hour class action settlement, including $10,000 incentive award plus an additional 5 $5,000 for plaintiff’s release of claims).

6 Finally, after receiving notice of the proposed Class Representative Service Payment for 7 Plaintiff, no Class Member objected to the amount. Given Plaintiff’s significant contributions to this 8 case, the risks Plaintiff undertook, and the lack of any objection from Class Members, Plaintiff’s 9 requested Service Payment is appropriate and justified as part of the Settlement and should be 10 finally approved.

11 V. CONCLUSION

12 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully submits that this Court should grant 13 Plaintiff’s Motion in its entirety and adopt the Proposed Judgment and Order Granting Final 14 Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement submitted herewith.
