1 I. INTRODUCTION AND OPENING SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

2 Plaintiff John Willis (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a wage and hour class action and 3 Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) settlement in the gross amount of $135,000. See generally 4 Exhibit A (Joint Stipulation Regarding Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release [“Agreement”]).
5 Plaintiff brought this class action individually and on behalf of similarly situated employees who worked 6 for Defendants GFP Enterprises, LLC, Donald Pollard, and Ray Keener, (“Defendants”) (Plaintiff and 7 Defendants sometimes collectively referred to as the “Parties”). See generally Exhibit B (Plaintiff’s 8 Operative Complaint). There are approximately 335 Class Members.

9 Plaintiff has alleged that Defendants violated California law by 1) failing to pay overtime 10 wages, 2) failing to pay minimum wages, 3) failing to provide accurate wage statements, 4) failing to 11 timely pay wages, including final wages, and 5) engaging in unfair competition. See generally Exhibit 12 B; see also Declaration of Justin P. Rodriguez (“Decl. Rodriguez”), ¶¶ 2, 9. Plaintiff has also alleged 13 Defendants are liable for a civil penalties under the PAGA based on these violations. See id.; Exhibit C 14 (Plaintiff’s Ltr. to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency [“LWDA”] Regarding PAGA 15 Claims). Defendants have denied all of Plaintiff’s allegations in their entirety and any liability or 16 wrongdoing of any kind. See Decl. Rodriguez, ¶ 5. Defendants have also denied that this case is 17 appropriate for class certification other than for purposes of settlement. See id. However, subject to 18 Court approval, the Parties have been able to compromise and settle all asserted claims as a result of 19 extensive investigations, document and data exchanges, and extended negotiations. See Exhibit A.
20 Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s counsel believe the proposed Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate based 21 on the investigations, informal discovery exchanges, negotiations, and a detailed knowledge of the 22 issues in this case. See Decl. Rodriguez, ¶¶ 6-10; Declaration of John Willis (“Decl. Willis”), ¶ 10.

23 It is well within the discretion of this Court to grant preliminary approval of the Agreement as it 24 satisfies all applicable criteria under California law. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court: (1) 25 certify the proposed settlement class on a preliminary and conditional basis; (2) grant preliminary and 26 conditional approval of the proposed Agreement (Exhibit A); (3) approve the form and content of the 27 Notice of Settlement (Exhibit F) and the method for providing notice to Class Members as set forth in 28 the Agreement; and (4) adopt the implementation schedule contained in the proposed order.

II. PROCEDURAL AND LITIGATION HISTORY

Plaintiff filed a class action complaint on approximately August 10, 2023, in Sacramento County Superior Court against Defendants. Plaintiff exhausted administrative remedies under the PAGA by providing notice of the claims and violations to the LWDA. See Exhibit C; Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a), (c); Decl. Rodriguez, ¶ 3. Then, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class Action Complaint on approximately December 13, 2023, to include a PAGA claim. See id.; Exhibit B. The facts alleged in the PAGA notice letter to the LWDA are the same as those alleged in the operative Complaint. Compare Exhibit B with Exhibit C; Decl. Rodriguez, ¶ 3. There is no date set for a motion for certification or trial in this matter. See Decl. Rodriguez, ¶ 4.

III. INVESTIGATION AND DISCOVERY CONDUCTED

Plaintiff thoroughly investigated issues affecting certification, the merits of the class claims, and potential damages for such claims. See id. at ¶¶ 3, 6-10; Decl. Willis, ¶¶ 5-7. Plaintiff worked during the time all of Defendants' policies and practices at issue in the Complaint were in effect and provided information regarding these policies and practices, enabling pre-filing investigations to take place. See Decl. Willis, ¶¶ 2-3 5-7. The Parties engaged in informal discovery and exchange of documents, including a representative sampling of employee data, such as timecards, paystubs, payroll data, and relevant policies for the entirety of the statute of limitations applicable to the asserted claims. The discovery covered all aspects of the asserted claims, including certification issues, merits issues, damages, the scope and configuration of Class Members, the content and implementation of the wage and hour policies at issue, issues relating to manageability concerns at trial, among other relevant areas. See Decl. Rodriguez, ¶¶ 6-7, 9-10. The information allowed Plaintiff to determine the extent and frequency of any violations in accordance with Plaintiff's contentions and create an accurate damages model to assess the reasonableness of any settlement. See id.

IV. NEGOTIATION AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

a. Plaintiff and Defendants Engaged in Extensive Arm's Length Negotiations

The final settlement occurred only after extended, arm's length negotiations. Over the course of approximately eleven (11) months, Plaintiff has been investigating the claims and discussing with Defendants' counsel the merits of the claims and issues present in this case. See id. at ¶¶ 5-8. The Parties exchanged substantial amounts of information and legal analysis in connection with these discussions. See id. It was only after these extended discussions, which included a full day mediation with Michael J. Loeb, Esq., that the Parties were able resolve all claims and enter into the Agreement. See id. at ¶ 8.

b. The Terms of the Agreement

1. The following groups of individuals are covered by the Agreement: (a) Class Members, which include all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 10, 2019 up to either (1) the Preliminary Approval Date, or (2) April 23, 2024, whichever is earlier; and (b) Aggrieved Employees, which include all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 9, 2022 up to either (1) the Preliminary Approval Date or (2) April 23, 2024, whichever is earlier. See Exhibit A, ¶¶ 1.2, 1.5. There are approximately 335 Class Members and 159 Aggrieved Employees. See id.

2. Defendants will pay the Gross Settlement Amount of $135,000, which is exclusive of the employer's share of payroll taxes. See id. at ¶ 5.1. No portion of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendants. See id. at ¶ 5.6. Aggrieved Employees will still be paid their share of the PAGA Payment regardless of whether they opt out of being Class Members. See id. at ¶¶ 7.5.1, 7.8.3.

3. Up to $10,000 will be paid to Plaintiff as an Enhancement Payment. This amount will be in addition to any amount Plaintiff may be entitled to under the terms of the Agreement. See id. at ¶ 5.4.

4. Subject to Court approval, the Parties have selected ILYM Group, Inc. to act as the Settlement Administrator, who has provided a maximum cost estimate of $7,650. See Exhibit D (ILYM Group, Inc. Quote); Exhibit A, ¶ 1.33; Decl. Rodriguez, ¶ 20.

5. The Parties agree that $10,000 of the Gross Settlement Amount shall be allocated to resolving claims under the PAGA. Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA Payment will be paid to the LWDA and Twenty-Five percent (25%) will be paid to Aggrieved Employees. See Exhibit A, ¶ 5.5. Given the risk to proving the claims on the merits, the derivative nature of the penalties, the presence of what may likely be deemed good faith disputes, and the Court's discretion to reduce any penalty award, Plaintiff believes the $10,000 PAGA Payment allocation represents a meaningful

1 settlement aimed at deterring non-compliance given the facts of this case. See Decl. Rodriguez, ¶¶ 5-2 10; see also Nordstrom Com. Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 589 (2010) (approving $0 allocation to the 3 resolution of PAGA claims based on their being disputed and being part of a class settlement which 4 was evaluated based on the terms of the agreement overall); Junkersfeld v. Med. Staffing Sols., Inc., 5 2022 WL 2318173, at *8 n.2 (E.D. Cal. 2022) (collecting cases with PAGA settlement values ranging 6 from .037%-1%); Jennings v. Open Door Marketing, LLC, 2018 WL 4773057, *9 (N.D. Cal. 2018)
7 (approving settlement of PAGA claims at 0.6% of total estimated value due to risk of no recovery);
8 Ruch v. AM Retail Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5462451, *7 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving $10,00 PAGA 9 settlement allocation where total PAGA penalty exposure was approximately $5.2 million, or 0.2% of 10 total estimated value); Davis v. Cox Commc 'ns California, LLC, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 63514, *1 11 (S.D. Cal. 2017) (preliminarily approving $4,000 PAGA allocation in $275,000 settlement); Moore v.
12 Fitness Int'l, LLC, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8358, *5 (S.D. Cal. 2014) (approving $2,500 PAGA 13 allocation when attorneys' fees award alone amounted to $200,000); Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., 14 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 118764, *6 (S.D. Cal. 2011) (approving $3,000 PAGA allocation in $1,200,000
15 settlement); Singer v. Becton Dickinson & Co., 2010 WL 2196104 (S.D. Cal. 2010) (approving $3,000
16 PAGA allocation in $1,000,000 settlement); Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17 33900, *9 (N.D. Cal. 2009) (approving $1,500 PAGA allocation in $1,026,000 settlement); Syed v. M- 18 I, L.L.C., 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 24880, *34-35 (E.D. Cal. 2017) (approving $100,000 PAGA 19 allocation in a $3,950,000 settlement even though PAGA exposure was calculated at $53,600,000, or 20 0.2% of total estimated value); Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, at *7 21 (E.D. Cal. 2012) (approving $10,000 PAGA allocation in a $3,700,000 settlement); Franco v. Ruiz 22 Food Prod., Inc., 2012 WL 5941801, at *14 (E.D. Cal. 2012) ($10,000 in PAGA payment from 23 $2,500,000 settlement fund); Chu v. Wells Fargo Investments, LLC, 2011 WL 672645, at *1 (N.D. Cal.
24 2011) (approving PAGA settlement payment of $7,500 to the LWDA out of $6.9 million common-fund 25 settlement).

26 6. The Parties agree that up to Thirty Five Percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount 27 ($47,250) will be paid for Plaintiff's attorneys' fees incurred in the litigation of this case. Defendants 28 will not oppose any application for attorneys' fees so long as it is within this threshold. See id. at ¶ 5.2.

1 Additionally, the Parties agree that Plaintiff will also be entitled to the actual litigation costs as 2 approved by the Court in an amount not to exceed $14,000. See id. The proposed notice to be sent to 3 Class Members will state this information. See Exhibit F.

4 7. Any allocated amounts under the Agreement for Settlement Administrator Costs, Class 5 Representative Enhancement Payment, and attorney's fees and costs that are not ultimately awarded by 6 the Court will remain part of the Net Settlement Amount and be paid out to Participating Class 7 Members on a pro rata basis as set forth in the Agreement. See Exhibit A, ¶¶ 5.1-5.5, 5.8. These 8 amounts will be paid out from the Gross Settlement Amount, not in addition to the Gross Settlement 9 Amount. See Exhibit A, ¶¶ 5.1-5.5.

10 8. Class Members who fail to timely opt-out of this settlement will waive all Released 11 Class Claims as set forth in the Agreement. See Exhibit A, ¶¶ 1.14, 1.26, 1.30, 1.32, 6.1. Aggrieved 12 Employees will waive all Released PAGA Claims as set forth in the Agreement regardless of whether 13 they opt out of being a Class Member. See id. at ¶¶ 1.2, 1.14, 1.30-1.32, 6.2, 7.5.1.

14 9. For any portion of the Net Settlement Amount or PAGA Payment allocated to 15 Participating Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees that is not claimed by them by cashing their 16 respective settlement checks within 180 calendar days of issuance, that remaining amount shall be 17 donated equally, i.e., 50/50 to Capital Pro Bono, Inc., and the Center for Workers' Rights under the 18 doctrine of cy pres. See Exhibit A, at ¶ 5.6. Because the Agreement provides for all funds such that 19 there is no residue, the provisions of California Civil Procedure Code section 384 are inapplicable. See 20 In re Microsoft I-V Cases, 135 Cal.App.4th 706, 718, 720 (2006). The designated beneficiaries clearly 21 promote the law consistent with the objectives and purposes underlying the lawsuit as they are non-22 profits aimed at assisting employees with wage and hour claims who cannot afford legal representation, 23 including providing representation for employees in wage claims before the California Labor 24 Commissioner. See id. at 722-724; see also Decl. Rodriguez, ¶¶ 23-32.

25 c. Allocation of Settlement Funds

26 Payment to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees will not require the 27 submission of a claim form. A Net Settlement Amount will be determined by subtracting from the 28 Gross Settlement Amount any attorneys' fees and costs, Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative, Settlement Administrator Costs, PAGA Payment that are approved and/or awarded by the Court. Each Class Member's share will be determined by dividing their total weeks worked within the Class Period by the total weeks worked by all Class Members within the Class Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount to arrive at the Class Member's individual share of the Net Settlement Amount. Each Aggrieved Employee's share of the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment will be determined by dividing their total weeks worked within the PAGA Claim Period by the total weeks worked by all Aggrieved Employees within the PAGA Claim Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment to arrive at the Aggrieved Employee's individual share. See Exhibit A, ¶¶ 1.17, 1.24, 1.29, 5.5, 5.8.

V. THE PROPOSED PROCEDURES TO NOTIFY CLASS MEMBERS SATISFY DUE PROCESS AS THEY PROVIDE THE BEST NOTICE PRACTICABLE UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES

It is not required that Class Members be given actual notice of a class settlement; instead, the best practicable notice under the circumstances is all that is required. See Silber v. Mabon, 18 F.3d 1449, 1453 (9th Cir. 1994); Briseno v. ConAgra Foods, Inc., 844 F.3d 1121, 1129 (9th Cir. 2017); Walsh v. CorePower Yoga LLC, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 163991, at *12-14 (N.D. Cal. 2017); Wright v. Linkus Enters., 259 F.R.D. 468, 474-75 (E.D. Cal. 2009). In Silber v. Mabon, 18 F.3d 1449 (9th Cir. 1994), the Court rejected a class member's argument that he had not received due process because he did not receive notice until after the opt out period, finding that, so long as the notice process utilized is the best practicable under the circumstances, due process is satisfied even if there is no actual receipt of the notice. See Silber, 18 F.3d at 1453-1454. A similar finding was made in Briseno v. Conagra Foods, Inc., 844 F.3d 1121 (9th Cir. 2017). With regard to any potential for undeliverable notice mailings, the Court in Rannis v. Recchia, 380 F. App'x 646 (9th Cir. 2010) found that class members who did not receive actual notice due to their mailings being deemed undeliverable were still properly held to be part of the class settlement because they received the best notice practicable under the circumstances. See Rannis v. Recchia, 380 F. App'x at 650-651. In Noel v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., 7 Cal.5th 955, 980-984 (2019), the California Supreme Court noted that California has adopted a similar approach regarding providing notice to class members.

Under the proposed notice procedures, Class Members will have sixty (60) days from the date of mailing to review and respond to the Notice of Settlement, which will also be available online. See Exhibit A, ¶¶ 1.21, 7.2. The Notice of Settlement contains all information necessary for a Class Member to assess the litigation, the settlement, and whether they want to participate, object, or opt-out. See id. at ¶¶ 7.2, 7.5.1-7.5.3; Exhibit F. National change of address database searches, skip-traces, and surveying of current employees will be utilized as set out in the Agreement to provide the best practical means of ensuring Class Members receive the notice mailing. See Exhibit A, ¶¶ 7.3-7.4. Any individual whose initial mailing was deemed undeliverable will have additional time to respond. See id. at ¶ 7.4. Additional time to respond will also be provided to cure any deficiencies in opt-outs, objections, or disputes. See id. ¶ 7.5.4. This notice method is regularly utilized in wage and hour class actions and similar to the one approved in Rannis. Thus, the proposed procedures for notifying Class Members satisfy due process and should be approved in this case.

VI. THE AGREEMENT WARRANTS PRELIMINARY APPROVAL AS IT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE AS TO ALL CLASS MEMBERS BASED ON THE FACTS OF THIS CASE

A class action may not be dismissed, compromised, or settled without Court approval and the decision to approve or reject a settlement is committed to the Court’s sound discretion. See Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769; Fed. R. Civ. Proc., Rule 23(e)¹; Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 234-35 (2001); see also Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699(l)(2). However, “[d]ue regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties. The inquiry ‘must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.’” See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1801 (1996); see also Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal. App. 4th 1110, 1118 (2009); In re Microsoft I-V Cases, 135 Cal. App. 4th 706, 723 (2006); Nordstrom Com. Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 581 (2010). The law favors settlement of lawsuits, particularly class actions and other complex cases where substantial resources can be conserved by avoiding the time, expense, and rigors of formal litigation. See Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal. App. 4th 1110, 1117-1118 (2009); In re

¹The California Supreme Court has authorized California’s trial courts to rely on these federal resources to decide class certification issues. See Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-46 (1981).

1 Microsoft I-V Cases, 135 Cal. App. 4th 706, 723 n.14 (2006); Nordstrom Com. Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 2 576, 581 (2010); see also Neary v. Regents of Univ. of Cal., 3 Cal. 4th 273, 277-81 (1992).

3 a. The Terms of The Settlement Are Fair and Within the Range of Reasonableness

4 The purpose of the Court’s preliminary evaluation of a proposed class action settlement is to 5 determine only whether it is within the range of possible approval such that notice to the class of its 6 terms and conditions and the scheduling of a formal fairness hearing is warranted. See Wershba, 91 Cal.
7 App. 4th at 234-35. If the Court finds a proposed settlement falls within “the range of reasonableness,” 8 it should grant preliminary approval of the class action settlement. See, e.g., North County Contr.’s
9 Assn., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Svcs., 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1089-90 (1994); Kullar v. Foot Locker 10 Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133 (2008). Factors to consider in determining whether the 11 settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate include the strength of the Plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, 12 complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through 13 trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the 14 proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the 15 reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 16 1794, 1801 (1996). However, this Court should begin its analysis with a presumption that the proposed 17 settlement is fair. “A presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s 18 length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act 19 intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is 20 small.” Id. at 1802.

21 i. The Agreement is a Result of Extensive, Non-Collusive Arm’s Length 22 Negotiations Between the Parties

23 Settlement of this case was reached only after substantial litigation and extensive arm’s length 24 negotiations lasting nearly eleven (11) months, which included a full day mediation. See Decl.
25 Rodriguez, ¶¶ 5-8. At all times, the negotiations were adversarial, although still professional in nature.
26 See id.

1 ii. The Extent of Investigation and Discovery Completed Provided Ample 2 Information to Enter Into an Informed and Reasonable Settlement

3 The Parties were in possession of all necessary information during the negotiations. The Parties 4 engaged in substantial informal discovery, which included all necessary components for evaluating the 5 class claims and creating an accurate damages model. See id. at ¶¶ 6-10. Plaintiff was in possession of 6 this information prior to calculating any damages in this case. See id. As a result, Plaintiff was able to 7 make a reasonable estimation of Defendants’ potential liability. See id. For these reasons, the 8 settlement now before the Court was reached at a stage where “the parties certainly have a clear view of 9 the strengths and weaknesses of their cases” sufficient to support the settlement. See Boyd v. Bechtel 10 Corp., 485 F.Supp. 610, 617 (N.D. Cal. 1979).

11 iii. Plaintiff’s Counsel are Experienced in Similar Litigation

12 Plaintiff’s counsel have considerable experience in complex litigation such as class and PAGA 13 actions. See Decl. Rodriguez, ¶¶ 12-18. Thus, Plaintiff’s counsel are qualified to evaluate the class 14 claims, the value of settlement versus moving forward with litigation, and viability of possible 15 affirmative defenses. Plaintiff’s counsel believe that the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate in 16 light of the risks associated with the claims, the uncertainties of complex litigation, and the secured 17 benefit to Class Members. See id.

18 iv. The Settlement is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate Based on the Strength of 19 Plaintiff’s Case and the Risks and Costs of Further Litigation

20 Plaintiff’s claims and the ability to obtain and maintain certification all the way through trial 21 were heavily disputed by Defendants. See Decl. Rodriguez, ¶¶ 5-10. Based on the records and facts of 22 this case, Plaintiff has secured a gross recovery of approximately 2.8% of the maximum value of the 23 claims in this matter and between 17.9% and 80% of the more realistic range of recovery. See Decl.
24 Rodriguez, ¶¶ 9-10. The net recovery represents approximately 1% of the maximum value of the 25 claims in this matter and between 6% and 26% of the more realistic range of recovery. The average net 26 award is approximately $130.60. See id.

27 This settlement is a reasonable compromise of the class and PAGA claims, and is within the 28 percentile ranges of the total available damages that have been approved in other class settlements. See

1 Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250; Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1139
2 (1990); Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d 615, 628 (9th Cir. 1982); see also In re
3 Omnivision Technologies, Inc., 559 F.Supp.2d 1036, 1042 (2007) (noting that certainty of recovery in 4 settlement of 6% of maximum potential recovery after reduction for attorney’s fees was higher than 5 median percentage for recoveries in shareholder class action settlements, averaging 2.2%-3% from 6 2000 through 2002); Bravo v. Gale Triangle, Inc., 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 77714 (C.D. Cal. 2017) 7 (approving a settlement where the net recovery to class members was approximately 7.5% of the 8 projected maximum recovery amount); Avila v. Cold Spring Granite Co., 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9 130878 (E.D. Cal. 2017) (approving a settlement with a gross recovery of 11% of the projected 10 maximum damages available and a net recovery of approximately 6.7% of the projected maximum 11 recovery); Bellinghausen v. Tractor Supply Co., 306 F.R.D. 245 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (approving a 12 settlement where the gross recovery was approximately 8.5% of the projected maximum recovery); 13 Schiller v. David’s Bridal, Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 80776 at *48 (E.D. Cal. 2012) (“Class
14 Members will receive an average of approximately $198.70, with the highest payment to a Class 15 Member being $695.78 . . . Overall, the Court finds that the results achieved are good, which is 16 highlighted by the fact that there was no objection to the settlement amount or the attorneys’ fees 17 requested.”); Gardner v. GC Servs., LP, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 47043, 18 (S.D. Cal. 2012) (“the 18 results achieved in this case were very favorable. Class members are provided with immediate 19 monetary relief, with an average award of around several hundred dollars and a minimum award of 20 $50”).

21 v. The Proposed Settlement is a Reasonable Compromise of Claims

22 In Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116 (2008), the Court required additional 23 information be presented in class action settlements “to ensure that the recovery represents a reasonable 24 compromise, given the magnitude and apparent merit of the claims being released, discounted by the 25 risks and expenses of attempting to establish and collect on those claims by pursuing the 26 litigation” Id. at 129. Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles, 186 Cal.App.4th 399
27 (2010), clarified that Kullar does not require an illusory prediction of the outer reaches of exposure 28 without taking into account the actual risks of litigation such as dispositive motions and trial. Kullar

1 also does not require an explicit statement of the maximum amount to be recovered if a plaintiff 2 prevailed on all the claims, provided there is a record that allows “an understanding of the amount that 3 is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.” Id. at 409.

4 Plaintiff has thoroughly set forth the realistic range of outcomes in this litigation as well as the 5 data points relied upon in reaching these ranges. See Decl. Rodriguez, ¶¶ 9-10. The record 6 demonstrates that the compromises made by Plaintiff were reasonable and have resulted in a settlement 7 with recovery percentage well within the range of what has been found to be sufficient in several other 8 cases. See, supra, Section VI.a.iv; see also Linney v. Cellular Alaska P’ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1242 (9th 9 Cir. 1998) (“The fact that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction of the potential recovery 10 does not, in and of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be 11 disapproved”); City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448, 455 (2d Cir. 1974) (“In fact there is no 12 reason, at least in theory, why a satisfactory settlement could not amount to a hundredth or even a 13 thousandth part of a single percent of the potential recovery”).

14 b. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

15 Class certification is appropriate when (1) the class is ascertainable and (2) there is “a well-16 defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be 17 represented.” Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1806. The “community of interest” element “embodies three 18 factors: (1) common questions of law or fact predominate; (2) class representatives with claims or 19 defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” Id.

21 i. The Proposed Settlement Class is Ascertainable and Sufficiently Numerous 22 The proposed settlement class is ascertainable because all putative Class Members can be 23 readily identified through employee personnel and payroll files. See Noel v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., 7 24 Cal.5th 955, 980 (2019); Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 932 (1981); Lee v. Dynamex, 25 Inc., 166 Cal. App. 4th 1325, 1334 (2008). The numerosity requirement is met because there are 335

26 individuals who fall within the definition of Class Member, which makes joinder of all members 27 impracticable. See Gay v. Waiters’ & Dairy Lunchmen’s Union, 489 F.Supp. 282 (N.D. Cal. 1980), 28 aff’d 694 F.2d 531 (9th Cir. 1982); Hebbard v. Calgrove, 28 Cal. App. 3d 1017, 1030 (1972) (noting no set minimum to meet the numerosity prerequisite, but a class as few as twenty-eight (28) members is acceptable). Thus, these requirements are satisfied.

ii. The Commonality, Predominance, and Typicality Requirements are Met

The commonality requirement is met when there are questions of law or fact regarding the class as a whole. See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1019. Commonality requires only that some common legal or factual questions exist; Plaintiff need not show that all issues in the litigation are identical. See Richmond v. Dart Ind., Inc., 29 Cal.3d 462, 473 (1981); City of San Jose v. Superior Court, 12 Cal.3d 447, 460 (1974). Common questions of law or fact must also predominate over individual questions and class-wide treatment of a dispute must be superior to individual litigation.² See Richmond, 29 Cal.3d at 469. Predominance requires a putative class be sufficiently cohesive to warrant adjudication by representation. See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1022. The typicality requirement is met when claims of the named representative are typical of those of the class, though “they need not be substantially identical.” Id. at 1020; Classen v. Weller, 145 Cal. App. 3d 27, 46-47 (1983).

The common questions of law and fact in this case stem from Plaintiff’s contention that Defendants violated California law by 1) failing to incorporate the value of non-discretionary remuneration (e.g. bonuses, additional hourly rates/differentials) in addition to the basic hourly rate when calculating the regular rate of pay for overtime and sick leave wage premiums, 2) failing to pay any overtime and/or correctly calculate the regular rate of pay for overtime and sick leave when Plaintiff earned daily rates and/or provided lodging in addition to their base hourly and/or daily rates of pay, 3) failing to keep accurate time records and utilizing rounding when calculating Plaintiff’s and similarly situated employees’ hours worked because a crew chief, instead of employees, recorded times for all employees without input and verification from employees, 4) maintaining policies and procedures that prevented Plaintiff and similarly situated employees from clocking in and out leading to Plaintiff and similarly situated employees worked off-the-clock since Defendants did not keep track of their start and stop times, 5) failing to pay Plaintiff and similarly situated employees timely wages. See Exhibit B. The waiting time penalties, unfair competition, and PAGA claims are derivative of these ²When assessing predominance and superiority, a court may consider that the class will be certified for settlement purposes only and that manageability of trial is therefore irrelevant. See Amchem Products v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591 (1997).

1 violations. See id. Plaintiff and the Class Members seek the same remedies under state law. Under 2 these specific circumstances, the commonality and predominance requirements are satisfied. Regarding 3 the typicality requirement, Plaintiff contends he suffered from the same unlawful policies, treatment, 4 and circumstances as Class Members did, will request the same remedies, and will rely on the same 5 methods of proof to establish liability and damages. See id. Thus, the typicality requirement is also 6 satisfied for settlement purposes.

7 iii. The Adequacy Requirement is Met

8 The adequacy of representation requirement is met if the named representative and counsel have 9 no interests adverse to those of the putative class members and are committed to vigorously prosecuting 10 the case on behalf of the class. See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020; McGhee v. Bank of America, 60 11 Cal.App.3d 442, 450-51 (1976). Those standards are met here. Under the proposed Agreement, 12 Plaintiff and the putative Class Members will receive a pro rata share of the settlement based on the 13 number of workweeks they worked for Defendants. See Exhibit A. Finally, any settlement class 14 member who wishes to opt-out of the settlement may do so, and he or she may also dispute the number 15 of workweeks stated in the Notice of Settlement (Exhibit F).

16 There is no conflict of interest between Plaintiff and Class Members. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's 17 counsel have pursued the claims made in the operative Complaint vigorously on behalf of the class.
18 Plaintiff's counsel, with Plaintiff's assistance, thoroughly investigated the claims made in this case by 19 speaking with Plaintiff and reviewing substantial amounts of documents. Plaintiff's counsel thereafter 20 engaged Defendants' counsel in settlement discussions over the course of approximately eleven (11) 21 months. Moreover, Plaintiff's counsel has experience defending and bringing wage and hour claims.
22 Because Plaintiff's counsel has vigorously pursued Plaintiff's and the Class Members' claims, the 23 adequacy requirement is met. See generally Decl. Rodriguez.

24 VII. ATTORNEYS FEES AND COSTS, ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT TO THE CLASS 25 REPRESENTATIVE, AND SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR COSTS TO BE 26 REQUESTED IN CONNECTION WITH FINAL APPROVAL

27 Plaintiff is not requesting any determination with respect to attorney's fees and costs, 28 Enhancement Payment, or Settlement Administrator Costs at this time. Rather, should the Court grant preliminary approval, Plaintiff will make the request for these amounts as set out in the Agreement as

1 part of their final approval briefing. Specifically, Plaintiff will request the Court award attorney's fees 2 in the amount of $47,250 (35% of the Gross Settlement Amount), costs in an amount not to exceed 3 $14,000, Settlement Administrator Costs in an amount not to exceed $10,000, and an Enhancement 4 Payment for the Class Representative in the amount of $10,000.

5 Plaintiff believes an award of attorney's fees under the common fund doctrine is appropriate in 6 this case as there is a sufficiently identifiable class of beneficiaries (e.g. the settlement class), the 7 benefits received can be accurately traced to the settlement Plaintiff and Class Counsel were able to 8 negotiate on behalf of Class Members, and the fee can be shifted with exactitude to those benefiting as 9 the fee request is a specific, lump-sum percentage of the fund. See Laffitte v. Robert Half Internat., 10 Inc., 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 (2016); Paul, Johnson, Alston & Hunt v. Gaulty, 886 F.2d 268, 271 (9th Cir.
11 1989); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 477-478 (1980) ("A lawyer who recovers a common 12 fund for the benefit of persons other than . . . her client is entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee from 13 the fund as a whole."); see also Martin v. Ameripride Servs., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61796, *22-23 14 (S.D. Cal. 2011) (collecting cases); Birch v. Office Depot, Inc., USDC Southern District, Case No.
15 06cv1690 DMS (WMC) (awarding 40% fee on a $16 million wage and hour class action settlement); 16 Rippee v. Boston Mkt. Corp., USDC Southern District, Case No. 05cv1359 BTM (JMA) (awarding a 17 40% fee on a $3.75 million wage and hour class action settlement); West v. Circle K Stores, Inc., 2006 18 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 76558, at *7-*8, *12, *27 (E.D. Cal. 2006) (awarding a $15,000 representative 19 enhancement where 10,000 class members were to receive a gross award of approximately $500 each 20 from the $5,000,000 settlement); Dent v. ITC Serv. Group, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 139359, at *9-*10, 21 *15-*16 (D. Nev. Aug. 6, 2013) (awarding a $15,000 representative enhancement out of a $150,000 22 settlement for approximately 530 class members); Patel v. Nike Retail Services, Inc., 2019 WL 23 2029061 at *2 (N.D. Cal. 2019) ($5,261 for settlement administrator's fees was not excessive where 24 PAGA group consisted of 40 employees). The bid provided by ILYM to administer the settlement is 25 also within the cost ranges that have been approved by other Courts for similar services. Compare 26 Patel v. Nike Retail Services, Inc., 2019 WL 2029061 at *2 (N.D. Cal. 2019) ($5,261 for settlement 27 administrator's fees was not excessive where PAGA group consisted of 40 employees, i.e. $131.53 per individual) with Exhibit D, ($7,650 for settlement administration fee for 335 Class Members, i.e. $22.8 per individual).

Plaintiff's final approval briefing will include information and analysis regarding the appropriateness of the fee percentage sought, a lodestar cross check of the requested fee, a detailed declaration from Plaintiff regarding their time spent on the case as well as any risks and burdens incurred as the Class Representative, an updated itemized costs spreadsheet, and a declaration from the Settlement Administrator detailing the work performed and Settlement Administrator Costs incurred. See Decl. Rodriguez ¶¶ 19. The Notice of Settlement will state the amounts to be requested to provide Class Members the ability to comment thereon, providing evidence of whether the requested amounts are reasonable. See Exhibit F at pg. 2, § II.A; see also In re Heritage Bond Litig., 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 13555, 71 (C.D. Cal. 2005) ("the absence of objections or disapproval by class members to class counsel's fee request further supports finding the fee request reasonable"). Any allocated amounts not ultimately awarded by the Court will be distributed to Class Members pro rata. See Exhibit A, ¶¶ 5.2-5.4, 5.8.

VIII. CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court preliminarily and conditionally certify the class for settlement purposes; grant preliminary and conditional approval of the proposed settlement; approve the proposed notification procedures, including the Notice of Settlement and proposed deadlines relating thereto; and schedule the final approval hearing. A copy of Plaintiff's proposed order is being filed concurrently herewith.

1 anticipated or unanticipated, including without limitation statutory, constitutional, contractual or common 2 law claims for lost wages, unpaid wages, emotional distress, punitive damages, special damages, damages, 3 unpaid costs, penalties, liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees, litigation costs, restitution, equitable 14 Representative as a Participating Class Member.

15 1.14 "Effective Date" means the Final Approval Date unless there is a timely objection lodged 16 that has not later been withdrawn, in which case the Effective Date will be either (a) the 60th calendar day 17 after a signed order approving this settlement has been filed provided no appellate proceeding having been 18 filed; or (b) seventh (7th) calendar day after any appellate proceeding opposing the settlement has been 19 finally dismissed with no material change to the terms of this settlement and there is no right to pursue 20 further remedies or relief, whichever is later.

21 1.15 "Final Approval Date" means the date a signed order granting final approval of this 18 of this Agreement is filed with the Court.

19 1.28 “QSF” means a Qualified Settlement Fund set up by the Settlement Administrator for the 20 benefit of the Participating Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees and from which the payments 21 under this Agreement shall be made. Any amounts Defendants have agreed to pay under this Agreement 22 shall remain the property of Defendants until the payments required under the Agreement are made.

23 1.29 “Qualifying Workweeks” are weeks worked by Class Members and/or Aggrieved 24 Employees during the Class Period and/or PAGA Claim Period, respectively, in California. For Class
25 Members, workweeks shall be defined as the total length of service (in days) in California during the Class 26 Period divided by seven. For Aggrieved Employees workweeks shall be defined as the total length of 27 service (in days) in California during the PAGA Claim Period divided by seven. The calculation of a Class 28

1 Member's and/or Aggrieved Employee's workweeks and a determination as to whether a Class Member 2 and/or Aggrieved Employee was actively employed in California in a particular workweek shall be 3 construed from Defendants' records.

4 1.30 "Released Class Claims" means any and all class claims that are alleged in the Complaint, 5 and any additional wage and hour claims that could have been brought based on the facts alleged in the 6 Complaint, through the Class Period. This release excludes the release of claims not permitted by law.
7 The Released Class Claims exclude claims for workers' compensation or unemployment insurance 8 benefits. This release will cover all Class Members who do not opt out.

9 1.31 "Released PAGA Claims" means any and all claims that were brought under the Private 10 Attorneys General Act, Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq., contained in the Complaint and any additional wage 11 and hour PAGA claims that could have been brought based on the facts alleged in the Complaint during 12 the PAGA Claim Period. Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this waiver of claims.

13 1.32 "Released Parties" means Defendants, as well as Defendants' parent companies, 14 subsidiaries, officers, shareholders, directors, predecessors, successors, affiliates, assigns, agents, 15 employees, attorneys, and insurers.

16 1.33 "Settlement Administrator" means and refers to ILYM Group, Inc., the third-party entity
17 that will administer the Agreement as outlined in Sections 4 and 7, or any other third-party administrator 18 agreed to by the Parties and approved by the Court for the purposes of administering this Agreement. The 19 Parties each represent that they do not have any financial interest in the Settlement Administrator.

20 1.34 "Settlement Administrator Costs" means the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the 21 Settlement Administrator as a result of the procedures and processes expressly required by this Agreement, 22 and shall include all costs of administering the Agreement, including, but not limited to, all tax document 23 preparation, custodial fees, and accounting fees incurred by the Settlement Administrator; all costs and fees 24 associated with preparing, issuing and mailing any and all notices and other correspondence to Class 25 Members and/or Aggrieved Employees; all costs and fees associated with communicating with Class 26 Members and/or Aggrieved Employees, Class Counsel, and Defendants' Counsel; all costs and fees 27 associated with computing, processing, reviewing, and paying the Individual Settlement Amounts, and 28

1 resolving disputes; all costs and fees associated with calculating tax withholdings and payroll taxes, if any,
2 making related payment to federal and state tax authorities, if any, and issuing tax forms relating to 3 payments made under the Agreement; all costs and fees associated with preparing any tax returns and any 4 other filings required by any governmental taxing authority or agency; all costs and fees associated with 5 preparing any other notices, reports, or filings to be prepared in the course of administering Individual 6 Settlement Amounts; and any other costs and fees incurred and/or charged by the Settlement Administrator 7 in connection with the execution of its duties under this Agreement.

8 2. DESCRIPTION OF THE LITIGATION

9 2.1 On or about August 9, 2023, Plaintiff sent notice to the LWDA to exhaust administrative 10 remedies under the PAGA for (1) Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194; IWC Wage Order 16, § 3 (Failure
11 to Pay Overtime Wage), (2) Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197.1; IWC Wage Order 16 § 4 (Failure
12 to Pay Minimum Wages), (3) Violation of Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3 (Failure to Provide Accurate Wage 13 Statements), (4) Violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203, 256 (Failure to Pay Final Wages), (5) Violation of 14 Labor Code §§ 558, 558.1 (Provision Regarding Hours and Days of Work in Any Industrial Welfare 15 Commission Order), (6) Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.3, 1174 (Failure to Maintain Accurate Records), 16 (7) Violation of Labor Code §§ 246, 246.5 248.5 (Failure to Provide Paid Sick Leave), and (8) Violation 17 of Labor Code §§ 204, 210 (Untimely Payment of Wages). The LWDA did not respond to the notice 18 within the statutorily required time frame and, as such, Plaintiff became authorized to act as a Private 19 Attorneys General on all alleged PAGA claims.

20 2.2 On or about August 10, 2023, Plaintiff filed a class action Complaint in Sacramento County
21 Superior Court on behalf of himself and Class Members alleging claims for (1) Failure to Pay Overtime 22 Wages, (2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages, (3) Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements, (4) Failure 23 to Pay Final Wages, and (5) Unfair Competition. Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint on 24 approximately December 13, 2023 to add a PAGA cause of action based on the violations alleged in the 25 August 9, 2023 notice to the LWDA on behalf of himself and Aggrieved Employees.

26 2.3 Through informal discovery, Defendants and Defendants' Counsel provided Class 27 Counsel with copies of all applicable versions of its policies and procedures, employee handbooks, 28

1 information on Class Members including, but not limited to, Class Members' workweeks, dates of 2 employment, total number of Class Members, their rates of pay, and pay periods as well as timecard data 3 and payroll reports for a randomly selected sample of Class Members.

4 2.4 After Class Counsel received the data, the Parties engaged in informal settlement 5 negotiations, but were not able to come to a resolution. On February 23, 2024, the Parties participated in 6 a lengthy mediation with private mediator Michael J. Loeb, Esq. At the conclusion of the mediation, the 7 Parties were able to come to a resolution. At all times, the Parties' settlement negotiations have been non-8 collusive, adversarial, and at arm's length.

9 2.5 Discussions between Plaintiff and Class Counsel, between counsel for the Parties, document 10 productions, extensive legal analysis, the provision of information by Defendants to Plaintiff and the 11 detailed analysis of the records, including expert analysis, have permitted each side to assess the relative 12 merits of the claims and the defenses to those claims.

13 2.6 In the Action, Plaintiff contends that Defendants violated California law by 1) failing to 14 incorporate the value of non-discretionary remuneration (e.g. bonuses, additional hourly rates/differentials) 15 in addition to the basic hourly rate when calculating the regular rate of pay for overtime and sick leave 16 wage premiums, 2) failing to pay any overtime and/or correctly calculate the regular rate of pay for 17 overtime and sick leave when Plaintiff earned daily rates and/or provided lodging in addition to their base 18 hourly and/or daily rates of pay, 3) failing to keep accurate time records and utilized rounding when 19 calculating Plaintiff's and similarly situated employees' hours worked because a crew chief, instead of 20 employees, recorded times for all employees without input and verification from employees, 4) failing to 21 maintain policies and procedures that prevented Plaintiff and similarly situated employees from clocking
22 in and out leading to Plaintiff and similarly situated employees worked off-the-clock since Defendants did 23 not keep track of their start and stop times, 5) failing to pay Plaintiff and similarly situated employees 24 timely wages. Plaintiff also alleges that these policies and practices resulted in wage statement violations, 25 waiting time penalties, and derivative PAGA penalties. Defendants have denied each of Plaintiff's claims 26 and Defendants have denied that this Action is appropriate for class certification for anything other than 27 settlement purposes. The agreed upon Gross Settlement Amount was reached after evaluating the Parties' 28

1 theories of potential exposure for the underlying claims and the class data supporting these claims. The 2 Parties, with the assistance of the mediator, also assessed appropriate discounts to the potential liability 3 based on Defendants' factual and legal contentions and defenses.

4 2.7 The Parties agree that the above-described investigation and evaluation, as well as discovery 5 and the information exchanged to date, are more than sufficient to assess the merits of the respective 6 Parties' positions and to compromise the issues on a fair and equitable basis. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, 7 Defendants, and Defendants' Counsel have concluded that it is desirable that the Action be settled in a 8 manner and upon such terms and conditions set forth herein in order to avoid further expense, 9 inconvenience and distraction of further legal proceedings, and the risk of an adverse outcome each of the 10 Parties potentially face in the Action. Therefore, the Parties desire to resolve the claims in the Action.
11 Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendants, and Defendants' Counsel are of the opinion that the Agreement for 12 the consideration and terms set forth herein is fair, reasonable, and adequate in light of all known facts and 13 circumstances.

14 3. THE CONDITIONAL NATURE OF THIS AGREEMENT

15 3.1 This Agreement and all associated exhibits or attachments are made for the sole purpose of 16 settling the Action. This Agreement and the settlement it evidences are made in compromise of disputed 17 claims. Because the Action was pled as a class action, this Agreement must receive preliminary and final 18 approval by the Court. Accordingly, the Parties enter into this Agreement and associated settlement on a 19 conditional basis. If the Effective Date does not occur, or if the Court's approval of the settlement is 20 reversed or materially modified on appellate review, this Agreement shall be deemed null and void; it shall 21 be of no force or effect whatsoever; it shall not be referred to or utilized for any purpose whatsoever; and 22 the negotiation, terms and entry of the Agreement shall remain subject to the provisions of California 23 Evidence Code Sections 1119 and 1152, Federal Rule of Evidence 408, and any other analogous rules of 24 evidence that may be applicable.

25 3.2 Defendants have denied all claims as to liability, damages, liquidated damages, penalties, 26 interest, fees, restitution, injunctive relief and all other forms of relief asserted in the Action. Defendants 27 have agreed to resolve the Action via this Agreement, but to the extent this Agreement is deemed void or the Effective Date does not occur, Defendants do not waive, but rather expressly reserve, all rights to challenge all such claims and allegations in the Action upon all procedural and factual grounds, including, without limitation, the ability to challenge class or collective treatment on any grounds, as well as to assert any and all other potential defenses or privileges.

4. SCOPE OF THE CLASS

4.1 The scope of the class of individuals encompassed under the Agreement and subject to all obligations and duties required under the Agreement, shall include all Class Members as defined in Section 1.5 and all Aggrieved Employees as defined in Section 1.2. However, it shall not include any Class Members who submit valid and timely requests to opt-out of the Agreement and settlement, as set forth in Section 7.5.1.

4.2 Only Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover under this Agreement.

4.3 Any person who believes that he or she is a Class Member or Aggrieved Employee and wishes to participate in the Agreement, but did not receive a Notice of Settlement because his or her name did not appear on the class list provided to the Settlement Administrator prior to mailing, may submit a data request to the Settlement Administrator. The data request must contain all of the following information: (a) the full name and, if applicable, Social Security Number of the individual making the request; (b) the name used by such employee as of the time his or her employment with Defendants ended; (c) the individual's dates of employment with Defendants; and (d) a return address to which a response may be sent. Every data request must be postmarked on or before the conclusion of the Notice Period or otherwise submitted to the Settlement Administrator such that it is received before the conclusion of the Notice Period. Upon receipt of any data requests, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly (in no event more than two business days) transmit the data requests to Defendants' Counsel and request that Defendants review their records.

4.4 If Defendants agree that the person listed in a data request is a Class Member and/or Aggrieved Employee, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly mail a Notice of Settlement to the person who submitted the data request, at the address designated for that purpose in the data request. All provisions of this Agreement relating to the Notice of Settlement shall apply to Notice of Settlements sent in response to data requests, and any person who submits a data request and is sent a Notice of Settlement in response shall be treated by the Settlement Administrator as a Class Member and/or Aggrieved Employee for all other purposes.

4.5 If Defendants do not agree that the person listed in a data request is a Class Member and/or Aggrieved Employee, Defendants' Counsel and Class Counsel shall attempt to resolve any such dispute in good faith within seven (7) calendar days of Class Counsel being advised in writing of the data request dispute. Defendants' records shall control unless the individual submitting the data request provides persuasive evidence to doubt the accuracy of those records. Each data request dispute that Defendants' Counsel and Class Counsel cannot timely resolve shall be resolved by the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator must accept and weigh all the evidence provided in a good faith attempt to resolve the dispute. The Settlement Administrator must resolve any dispute submitted to it within seven (7) calendar days after Defendants' Counsel and Class Counsel submit the dispute to the Settlement Administrator. The decision by the Settlement Administrator shall be final as between the parties, subject to Court review.

5. TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

The Parties agree as follows:

5.1 Gross Settlement Amount: In consideration and exchange for the releases described in Section 6, Defendants shall pay the Gross Settlement Amount ($135,000). Funding of the Gross Settlement Amount shall occur within 21 calendar days after the Effective Date to be held in trust in a QSF by the Settlement Administrator. The Gross Settlement Amount includes payments to Participating Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, all attorneys' fees, costs and litigation expenses related to the Action incurred to date, as well as all such fees and costs incurred in documenting the Agreement, administering the Agreement (including Settlement Administrator Costs), and obtaining final approval of the Agreement, the Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative and the PAGA Payment. Any monies necessary to satisfy Defendants' tax obligations (e.g. employer FICA, FUTA and SDI contributions on wage payments)

1 on any monies distributed to Participating Class Members will be paid in addition to the Gross Settlement 2 Amount.

3 5.2 Attorneys' Fees and Costs: Class Counsel will apply to the Court for attorney's fees of 35% 4 of the Gross Settlement Amount, which shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. Defendants have 5 agreed to not oppose Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees so long as it does not exceed the 35% 6 threshold. Class Counsel will also be entitled to reimbursement for advanced litigation expenses not to 7 exceed $14,000, which shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. Defendants have agreed to not 8 oppose Class Counsel's request for reimbursement for advanced litigation expenses so long as they do not 9 exceed the $14,000 threshold. The Settlement Administrator will issue Class Counsel an IRS Form 1099 10 for the attorneys' fees and costs paid under this Agreement. In the event that the Court awards less than 11 the requested attorney's fees and/or costs, the portion of the requested amounts not awarded to Class 12 Counsel shall be added to the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Participating Class Members on 13 a pro rata basis.

14 5.3 Settlement Administrator Costs: The Settlement Administrator Costs shall be paid from the 15 Gross Settlement Amount and shall not exceed $10,000. The difference between any actual costs and the 16 allocated $10,000 shall be added to the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Participating Class 17 Members on a pro rata basis.

18 5.4 Enhancement Payment: Class Counsel, on behalf of Plaintiff, shall apply to the Court for 19 an Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative in an amount not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars 20 ($10,000) to compensate for the risks, time, and expense of his involvement in the Action and securing the 21 benefits of this Agreement for Class Members. The Enhancement Payment is in addition to the Individual 22 Settlement Amount Plaintiff would otherwise be due under the Agreement as a Participating Class Member.
23 Defendants have agreed to not oppose Class Counsel's request for an Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff 24 so long as it does not exceed the amount stated herein. The Enhancement Payment will be designated as a 25 non-wage payment and reported on an IRS Form 1099-MISC. In the event that the Court awards less than 26 the Enhancement Payment amount requested, then any portion of the requested amount not awarded to the

Class Representative shall be added to the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.

5.5 PAGA Payment: Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) of the Gross Settlement Amount shall be allocated to resolving claims under the PAGA. Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA Payment will be paid to the LWDA and Twenty-Five percent (25%) will be paid to Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis as described below in Section 5.8. Any amount not approved by the Court for the allocated PAGA Payment shall be added to the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.

5.6 Treatment of Residue and Cy Pres: For any portion of the Net Settlement Amount or PAGA Payment allocated to Participating Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees that were not claimed by cashing their respective settlement checks before the deadline to do so, that remaining amount shall be donated equally, i.e. 50/50, to Capital Pro Bono, Inc., and the Center for Workers' Rights under the doctrine of cy pres. No portion of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendants for any reason.

5.7 No Additional Benefits Contributions: All Individual Settlement Amounts paid to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees shall be deemed to be income solely in the year in which such amounts were actually received. It is expressly understood and agreed that the receipt of such Individual Settlement Amounts will not entitle any Participating Class Member or Aggrieved Employee to any new or additional compensation or benefits under any company bonus or other compensation or benefit plan or agreement in place during the period covered by the Agreement, nor will it entitle any Participating Class Member Aggrieved Employee to any increased retirement, 401(k) and/or 403(b) benefits or matching benefits, or deferred compensation benefits. It is the intent of this Agreement that the Individual Settlement Amounts provided for in this Agreement are the sole payments to be made by Defendants to the Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees in connection with this Agreement (notwithstanding any contrary language or agreement in any benefit or compensation plan document that might have been in effect during the period covered by this Agreement).

5.8 Pro Rata Distribution Formula: Payment to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees of their Individual Settlement Amount will not require the submission of a claim form. A Net

Settlement Amount will be determined by subtracting from the Gross Settlement Amount any amounts for approved attorneys' fees and costs, any Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative, the Settlement Administrator Costs, and the PAGA Payment. Each Class Member's share will be initially determined by dividing their total Qualifying Workweeks within the Class Period by the total Qualifying Workweeks of all Class Members. That fraction will then be multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount to arrive at the Class Member's individual share of the Net Settlement Amount. Any funds allocated to Class Members under this formula who timely opt out of the Settlement will be redistributed to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis, i.e. each Participating Class Member's share will be determined by dividing their total Qualifying Workweeks within the Class Period by the total Qualifying Workweeks of all Participating Class Members and that fraction will then be multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount to arrive at the Participating Class Member's individual share of the Net Settlement Amount. Each Aggrieved Employee's share of the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment will be determined by dividing their total Qualifying Workweeks within the PAGA Claim Period by the total Qualifying Workweeks by all Aggrieved Employees within the PAGA Claim Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment to arrive at the Aggrieved Employee's individual share.

5.9 Tax Allocation: The Parties recognize that the Individual Settlement Amounts to be paid to Participating Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees reflect a settlement of a dispute over claimed penalties and wages. The Settlement Administrator shall calculate the employer's share of payroll taxes on the amounts paid to Participating Class Members as wages as well as calculating all required withholdings and deductions from said wage payments. The characterization of Individual Settlement Amounts to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees are as follows:

5.9.1 Twenty Percent (20%) of each Participating Class Members' Individual Settlement Amount shall be allocated for payment of disputed wages and shall be subject to required employer taxes. Participating Class Members shall receive an IRS Form W-2 for reporting of this portion of their Individual Settlement Amount.

5.9.2 Eighty Percent (80%) of each Participating Class Members' Individual Settlement Amount shall be allocated for disputed statutory penalties and interest, and no amount shall be deducted

1 for any taxes. This portion of the Individual Settlement Amount consists of other income, not wages, for 2 which the Participating Class Members shall receive IRS Forms 1099-MISC and 1099-INT and this 3 payment shall be divided equally among the 1099-MISC and 1099-INT designations.

4 5.9.3 The entirety (100%) of each Aggrieved Employee's share of the 25% portion of the 5 PAGA Payment shall be allocated for payment of disputed civil penalties, and no amount shall be deducted 6 for any taxes. This portion of the Individual Settlement Amount consists of other income, not wages, for 7 which the Aggrieved Employees shall receive an IRS Form 1099-MISC.

8 5.10 Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees shall be solely responsible for the 9 reporting and payment of their share of any federal, state and/or municipal income or other taxes on 10 payments made pursuant to this Agreement, and shall hold the Parties, Class Counsel, and Defendants' 11 Counsel free and harmless from any claims resulting from treatment of such payments as non-taxable, 12 including the treatment of such payments as not subject to withholding or deduction for payroll and 13 employment taxes. No party has made any representation to any of the other Parties as to the taxability of 14 any payments pursuant to this Agreement, including the payments to Participating Class Members, the 15 payments to Aggrieved Employees, the payments to Class Counsel, the payments to the Class 16 Representative, the payroll tax liability of Defendants, or the allocation of the Net Settlement Amount or 17 PAGA Payment to wage and non-wage income as provided in this Section, or otherwise as to tax 18 implications of any provision of this Agreement.

19 5.11 No Additional Contribution by Defendants: Defendants' monetary obligation under this 20 Agreement is limited to the Gross Settlement Amount and any employer side payroll taxes owed on 21 amounts characterized as wages under this Agreement. All other costs and expenses arising out of or in 22 connection with the performance of this Agreement shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, unless 23 expressly provided otherwise herein. However, in the event this agreement is deemed null and void as 24 described in Section 3 because the Court, in its independent determination, finds that the Agreement does 25 not meet the standards for settlement approval, then Defendants and Plaintiff shall be equally responsible 26 for the costs of the Settlement Administrator incurred between the date the Agreement was executed and 27 the date of such event.

1 5.12 Certification For Settlement Purposes: The Parties agree that, for purposes of settlement 2 only, certification of the class as defined in Section 1.5 and 4.1 is appropriate and the requisites for 3 establishing class certification have been met and are met.

4 5.13 Adequacy of Class Counsel and Class Representative: The Parties agree that, for purposes 5 of settlement only, Class Counsel and Plaintiff are adequate representatives for Class Members and 6 Aggrieved Employees.

7 6. RELEASE

8 6.1 Release of Claims by Participating Class Members: Upon the Effective Date, all 9 Participating Class Members will be deemed to fully, finally and forever release the Released Class Claims 10 as to all Released Parties. In addition, on the Effective Date, all Participating Class Members and their 11 successors in interest will be permanently enjoined and forever barred from prosecuting any of Released 12 Class Claims against any of the Released Parties.

13 6.2 Release of Claims by Aggrieved Employees: Upon the Effective Date, all Aggrieved 14 Employees will be deemed to fully, finally and forever release the Released PAGA Claims as to all 15 Released Parties. In addition, on the Effective Date, all Aggrieved Employees and their successors in 16 interest will be permanently enjoined and forever barred from prosecuting any of the Released PAGA 17 Claims against any of the Released Parties.

18 6.3 Release by Plaintiff: Upon the Effective Date, Plaintiff will be deemed to fully, finally and 19 forever release the Released Class Claims, Released PAGA Claims, and Class Representative's Released 20 Claims as to all Released Parties. In addition, on the Effective Date, Plaintiff and any successors in interest 21 will be permanently enjoined and forever barred from prosecuting any of the Released Class Claims, 22 Released PAGA Claims, and Class Representative's Released Claims against any of the Released Parties.

23 7. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION

24 7.1 Duties of Settlement Administrator: The Settlement Administrator shall be responsible for: 25 1) receiving Class Member and Aggrieved Employee contact information and confirming addresses are 26 valid; 2) calculating estimated Individual Settlement Amounts and any and all taxes associated with the 27 Individual Settlement Amounts, including employer taxes; 3) taking appropriate steps to trace and locate any individual Class Members and Aggrieved Employee whose address or contact information as provided to the Settlement Administrator is inaccurate or outdated and mailing the Notice of Settlement to Class Members; 4) providing notification to the appropriate state and federal officials of this Agreement as required under the law; 5) receiving, independently reviewing, and resolving any challenges (in consultation with Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel) from Class Members or Aggrieved Employees, including any associated documentation, regarding their Qualified Workweek calculations; 6) receiving and serving on Class Counsel, Defendants' Counsel, and the Court, copies of any written objections, and/or any opt out statements; 7) establishing a toll free telephone line and responding to inquiries and requests for information or assistance from Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees; 8) maintaining a QSF; 9) determining and paying the final amounts due to be paid under the Agreement after resolution of all challenges, disputes, opt-outs, awarded attorneys' fees and costs, Settlement Administrator Costs, PAGA Payment, taxes, any Enhancement Payments, and for funds that cannot be distributed due to the inability to locate Class Members or Aggrieved Employees; 10) determining the validity of any disputes or late opt-outs by previously unidentified Class Members or Aggrieved Employees; 11) paying any residual funds from uncashed checks; 12) reporting to Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel regarding the statistics of the administration, including (a) the number of initial Notice of Settlements mailed; (b) the number of forwarded Notice of Settlements; (c) the number of re-mailed Notice of Settlements; (d) the number of total undeliverable Notice of Settlements; (e) the number of address traces performed for undeliverable Notice of Settlements; (f) the number of Notice of Settlements undeliverable from traced addresses; (g) the number of total objections received; (h) the number of opt-out requests received; (i) the number of disputes received; (j) the number of disputes resolved; 13) providing a declaration to the Court regarding the final statistics of the administration and compliance with all payment obligations under the Agreement; 14) completing all necessary tax reporting on the QSF and payment of the Individual Settlement Amounts to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees; and 15) carrying out other related tasks as necessary to effectuate the terms of this Agreement and any Order of the Court. All disputes relating to the Settlement Administrator's ability and need to perform its duties shall be referred to the Court, if

1 necessary, which will have continuing jurisdiction over the terms and conditions of this Agreement, until 2 all payments and obligations contemplated by the Agreement have been fully executed.

3 7.2 Notice to Class Members and Aggrieved Employees: Defendants represent and warrant that 4 Class Members and Aggrieved Employees are able to read and write in English such that no translation of 5 the Notice of Settlement into another language is necessary. The Notice of Settlement will provide Class 6 Members and Aggrieved Employees with a summary of the terms and conditions of the Agreement, how 7 to participate in the settlement, how to object to the Agreement, how to dispute the individual's Qualifying 8 Workweeks, and how to opt-out from the Agreement. The Notice of Settlement will also inform Class 9 Members and Aggrieved Employees of the Gross Settlement Amount, Net Settlement Amount, proposed 10 attorneys' fees and costs allocations, any proposed Enhancement Payments, proposed Settlement 11 Administrator Cost allocations, proposed PAGA Payment allocations, the scope of the class, the nature and 12 extent of the released claims, dates set for a fairness hearing and hearing on Class Counsels' motion for 13 attorneys' fees and costs. The Notice of Settlement shall include information regarding Class Member's 14 and Aggrieved Employee's estimated Individual Settlement Amount. The Notice of Settlement will 15 provide information on how to access electronic copies online of the Notice of Settlement, any motions for 16 approval of the Agreement, any motions for approval of attorneys' fees and costs, and any other documents 17 as the Court directs.

18 7.3 Class Member Data and Mailing: No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the 19 Preliminary Approval Date, Defendants shall provide the Settlement Administrator with the first and last 20 name, last known mailing address, last known telephone number, Social Security Number, start and end
21 date (if any) of employment of each Class Member and Aggrieved Employee, and any other information 22 the Settlement Administrator needs to effectuate notice to Class Members and Aggrieved Employees as 23 outlined herein. The Settlement Administrator shall review the data to determine the number of Qualifying 24 Workweeks for each Class Member and Aggrieved Employee. No later than fourteen (14) calendar days 25 after receipt of such address information, the Settlement Administrator will perform a national change of 26 address ("NCOA") search, update the addresses per the results of the NCOA search, and then mail the 27 Notice of Settlement, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit 1, to each Class Member and Aggrieved 28

Employee by first-class mail, postage prepaid. The Settlement Administrator shall maintain all information received from Defendants confidential to itself, and Defendants' Counsel. However, Class Counsel shall be able to review the breakdown of Qualified Workweeks and estimated Individual Settlement Amounts for Class Members and Aggrieved Employees prior to mailing for quality assurance provided the personal identifying information is redacted and/or omitted.

7.4 Returned and/or Re-mailed Notice of Settlements: In the event that a Notice of Settlement is returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable on or before the conclusion of the Notice Period, the Notice of Settlement shall be sent to the forwarding address affixed thereto within five (5) calendar days. If no forwarding address is provided, then the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to determine a correct address using a skip-trace, computer or other search using the name, address and/or Social Security number of the individual involved, and shall then perform a single re-mailing within five (5) calendar days to any more recent address found as a result of the search. Following each search that does not result in a corrected address, for those Class Members who appear to be current employees of Defendants at the time of the Preliminary Approval Date, the Settlement Administrator shall contact Defendants' Counsel for assistance and Defendants shall cooperate in good faith with the Settlement Administrator's reasonable efforts to obtain valid mailing addresses for Class Members to the extent they are active employees of Defendants. In the event the Notice of Settlement is forwarded to a new address and/or re-mailed to a Class Member, the deadline for the Class Member to submit any request to opt-out, a dispute, or an objection shall be the end of the Notice Period or 10 days from the date of the re-mailing/forwarding to a new address, whichever is later. In the event the procedures in this Section are followed and the Class Member does not timely and properly request to opt-out, the Class Member shall be bound by all terms of the Agreement, including the releases contained in Section 6.

7.5 Responses to Notice of Settlement:

7.5.1 Opt-Outs: The Notice of Settlement shall provide that Class Members who wish to exclude themselves from the Agreement must submit a request to opt-out as provided in this Section. The request to opt-out must (a) state the Class Member's full name and date of birth; (b) a statement that he or she does not want to be a Class Member, does not want to participate in the settlement, and/or wants to be

1 excluded from the settlement; (c) identify the case name and number (i.e. Willis v. GFP Enterprises, LLC, 2 Case No. 23CV006533); (d) be signed; and (e) be post-marked no later than the conclusion of the Notice 3 Period or the re-mailing timeline stated in Section 7.4. The Class Member must personally sign the request 4 to opt-out. No request to opt-out may be made on behalf of a group of Class Members. The date of the 5 postmark on the return-mailing envelope shall be the exclusive means used to determine whether a request 6 to opt-out has been timely submitted. Any Class Member who requests to opt-out of the Agreement will 7 not be entitled to any portion of the Net Settlement Amount nor will they have any right to object, appeal 8 or comment thereon. The name of any Class Member who submits a valid and timely opt out request will 9 be specifically identified in any proposed order granting final approval. Class Members who fail to submit 10 a valid and timely request to opt-out shall be bound by all terms of the Agreement and any order or final 11 judgment thereon. Regardless of whether an Aggrieved Employee opts out of being a Class Member, they 12 will still receive their share of the PAGA Payment as Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this 13 Agreement as it relates to the PAGA Payment or Released PAGA Claims.

14 7.5.2 Objection Procedures: Any Class Member who does not opt-out but who wishes to 15 object to this Agreement or otherwise to be heard concerning this Agreement shall send their written 16 objections to the Settlement Administrator and also serve copies of the objections on Class Counsel and 17 Defendants' Counsel. The Notice of Settlement shall make clear that the Court can only approve or deny 18 the Agreement, not change the terms of the Agreement. The objection must (a) state the Class Member's 19 full name and date of birth; (b) provide evidence that the individual is, in fact, a Class Member; (c) state 20 the reasons for the objection(s), including any supporting documentation; (d) identify the case name and 21 number (i.e. Willis v. GFP Enterprises, LLC, Case No. 23CV006533); (e) be signed; and (f) be post-marked 22 no later than the conclusion of the Notice Period or the re-mailing timeline stated in Section 7.4. The 23 Notice of Settlement will inform the Class Member that they should also file a notice of intent to appear 24 with the Court and serve the notice on Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel, if they intend to appear at 25 the final approval hearing.

26 7.5.3 Dispute Procedures: Any Class Member who disputes the number of Qualifying 27 Workweeks on the Notice of Settlement shall contact the Settlement Administrator. The dispute must (a) 28

1 identify the nature of the dispute; (b) provide any information or documentation supporting the dispute; (c)
2 be signed; and (d) be post-marked no later than the conclusion of the Notice Period or the re-mailing
3 timeline stated in Section 7.4. The Settlement Administrator shall promptly (in no event more than two 4 business days) forward all such disputes to Defendants' Counsel and request that Defendants review the 5 dispute. Defendants' records shall presumptively control unless the Class Member can produce 6 documentation evidencing other periods of employment worked. If Defendants agree with submitted 7 information, the Class Member shall be credited or subtracted Qualifying Workweeks in accordance with 8 their submitted dispute and that final number of Qualified Workweeks shall govern the calculation of that 9 Class Member's Individual Settlement Amount. If Defendants disagree with the submitted information, 10 Defendants' Counsel will promptly advise Class Counsel of the dispute, which includes turning over any 11 documentation submitted by the Class Member as part of the dispute. Defendants' Counsel and Class 12 Counsel shall attempt in good faith to resolve any such dispute within five (5) calendar days of Class 13 Counsel being advised of the dispute. Each dispute that Defendants' Counsel and Class Counsel cannot 14 timely resolve shall be resolved by the Settlement Administrator, subject to Court review.

15 7.5.4 Deficient Opt-Outs, Objections, or Disputes: In the event that a deficient opt-out, 16 objection, or dispute is received on or before the conclusion of the Notice Period, the Settlement 17 Administrator shall mail a letter to the Class Member within five (5) calendar days informing them of the 18 deficiency. If a deficiency letter is mailed to a Class Member, the deadline for the Class Member to cure 19 the deficiency shall be the end of the Notice Period or 10 calendar days from the date of the deficiency 20 letter, whichever is later.

21 7.6 Due Process Acknowledgement: Compliance with the procedures set forth in Sections 7.1 22 to 7.5.4 shall constitute due and sufficient notice to Class Members of the Action and the Agreement and 23 shall satisfy Class Members' due process rights. Nothing else shall be required of the Parties, Class 24 Counsel or Defendants' Counsel to provide notice of the proposed Agreement.

25 7.7 Settlement Administrator Declaration Regarding Notice Period: Within fourteen (14) 26 calendar days after the conclusion of the Notice Period, the Settlement Administrator shall provide Class 27 Counsel and Defendants' Counsel with a signed declaration under penalty of perjury providing a complete 28

1 and detailed report regarding the statistics and responses of settlement administration to date and all the 2 Settlement Administrators' obligations under Sections 5.8 to 5.9.3 and 7.1 to 7.5.4.

3 7.8 Settlement Administrator Payments to Participating Class Members, Class Counsel and 4 Plaintiff: Within seven (7) calendar days after the Effective Date and the Court's determination of the 5 amount of attorneys' fees and costs payable to Class Counsel, the Enhancement Payment payable to 6 Plaintiff, the PAGA Payment, and Settlement Administrator Costs, the Settlement Administrator shall 7 calculate the final Net Settlement Amount, the final Individual Settlement Amounts for Participating Class 8 Members and/or Aggrieved Employees, any applicable taxes thereon, and report the results of these 9 calculations Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel. Defendants shall wire the Gross Settlement Amount 10 and applicable taxes necessary to fund the Settlement as described in Section 5.1 to the Settlement 11 Administrator within twenty-one (21) calendar days after the Effective Date to be to be held in trust in a 12 QSF. Within seven (7) calendar days after Defendants fund the settlement, the Settlement Administrator 13 shall deliver payment of Class Counsels' attorney's fees and costs, the Enhancement Payment payable to 14 Plaintiff, the 75% portion of the PAGA Payment payable to the LWDA, Settlement Administrator Costs, 15 and payment to Participating Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees as required under this 16 Agreement and approved by Court.

17 7.8.1 The Settlement Administrator shall wire the Court-approved attorneys' fees and 18 costs to Class Counsel unless another method is requested by Class Counsel. Class Counsel shall provide 19 the Settlement Administrator with the pertinent taxpayer identification number and payment instructions 20 after the Final Approval Date.

21 7.8.2 The Settlement Administrator shall send a check by mail for the Court-approved 22 Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative, care of Class Counsel unless another method is 23 requested by Class Counsel.

24 7.8.3 Only Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees will receive their 25 Individual Settlement Amount.

26 7.8.4 The Settlement Administrator shall remit and report the applicable portions of the 27 payroll tax payment to the appropriate taxing authorities on a timely basis pursuant to its duties under this 28

Agreement. Defendants agree to reasonably cooperate with the Settlement Administrator to the extent necessary to determine the amount of the payroll tax payment required.

7.9 Settlement Check Expiration and Uncashed Checks: The Settlement Administrator shall issue Individual Settlement Amounts to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees in the form of a check, which shall become null and void if not deposited within one hundred eighty (180) calendar days of issuance. After one hundred eighty (180) calendar days of issuance, the checks shall be voided and funds from all uncashed checks shall be transmitted in accordance with Section 5.6. The Settlement Administrator shall deliver these funds within fourteen (14) calendar days after the check cashing deadline.

7.10 Settlement Administrator Declaration Regarding Compliance and Settlement Administration: Within twenty-one (21) calendar days after the last day for Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to cash their settlement checks, the Settlement Administrator shall provide Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel with a signed declaration under penalty of perjury providing a complete and detailed report regarding the settlement administration documenting that all payments under the Agreement have been made, that the Court's final approval order has been complied with, and that all the obligations of the Settlement Administrator have been completed.

8. PRELIMINARY SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION SCHEDULE

8.1 The schedule may be modified depending on whether and when the Court grants necessary approvals, orders notice to Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, and sets further hearings. The schedule may also be modified to correct clerical errors and to reflect the provisions in the Agreement as described above. In the event of such modification, the Parties shall cooperate to complete the settlement procedures as expeditiously as reasonably practicable. The preliminary schedule for notice, approval, and payment procedures carrying out the Agreement is as follows:

1 9. DUTIES OF THE PARTIES

2 9.1 Preliminary Approval: The Parties will cooperate in obtaining, through an unopposed 3 motion to be filed as soon as reasonably practicable, an order from the Court preliminarily approving this 4 Agreement at the earliest possible date concurrently with the Court's certification of the Action as a class 5 action for settlement purposes. The Parties further agree to fully cooperate in the drafting and/or filing of 6 any further documents or filings reasonably necessary to be prepared or filed, shall take all steps that may 7 be requested by the Court relating to, or that are otherwise necessary to the approval and implementation 8 of this Agreement and shall otherwise use their respective best efforts to obtain certification for settlement 9 purposes, approval of, and implementation of this Agreement. The Parties will submit this Agreement to 10 the Court for preliminary approval of its terms and for approval of the steps to be taken to obtain its final 11 approval. Within one week of signing this Agreement Class Counsel shall provide a draft of the 12 Preliminary Approval Motion to Defendants' Counsel. Defendants' Counsel will provide comments and/or 13 proposed revisions within two weeks after receipt of the draft Preliminary Approval Motion from Class 14 Counsel. With regard to the final approval documents, a similar one-week maximum review and response 15 time shall be observed by the Parties. The Parties will request that the Court's preliminary approval of this 16 Agreement be embodied in an Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA
17 Settlement.

18 9.1.1 Plaintiff's motion shall seek an order: 1) Preliminarily approving the Agreement; 2) 19 Approving as to form and content the proposed Notice of Settlement; 3) Directing the mailing of the Notice 20 of Settlement by first class mail to Class Members and Aggrieved Employees; 4) Preliminarily appointing 21 Plaintiff and Class Counsel as representatives of Class Members; 5) Preliminarily approving settlement 22 administration services to be provided by the Settlement Administrator; 6) Preliminarily approving the 23 proposed Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff; 7) Preliminarily approving the application for payment of 24 reasonable attorneys' fees and reimbursement of litigation-related expenses to Class Counsel; and 8) 25 Scheduling a fairness hearing on the question of whether the proposed Agreement should be finally 26 approved as fair, reasonable and adequate as to the Class Members.

1 9.1.2 Defendants shall not oppose Plaintiff's motion for approval of the proposed 2 Agreement.

3 9.1.3 The Parties shall cooperate with each other and the Settlement Administrator during 4 the process of giving Class Members notice and opportunity to object to the Agreement, as necessary and 5 appropriate to assure effective communication to individual Class Members of information about their 6 rights and obligations under this Agreement.

7 9.2 Final Approval and Fairness Hearing: On a date approved by the Court and set forth in the 8 Notice of Settlement, the Court shall hold the Final Approval and Fairness Hearing where objections, if 9 any, may be heard. Class Counsel shall provide the Court as part of the motion for final approval of the 10 Agreement, a declaration by the Settlement Administrator of due diligence and proof of mailing of the 11 Notice of Settlement required to be mailed to Class Members by this Agreement, and of the delivery results 12 of the Settlement Administrator's mailings including tracing and re-mailing efforts. The Settlement 13 Administrator declaration shall identify, by name, any Class Member who submitted a timely and valid 14 request to opt out during the Notice Period.

15 9.2.1 Class Counsel and Defendants shall work in good faith to draft a mutually agreeable 16 Proposed Order Granting Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Final Judgment. The 17 Proposed Order Granting Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Final Judgment shall 18 include findings and orders: 1) Approving the Agreement, adjudging the terms thereof to be fair, reasonable 19 and adequate, and directing that its terms and provisions be carried out; 2) Approving the payment of an 20 Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative; 3) Approving Class Counsel's application for an award 21 of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of out-of-pocket litigation expenses; 4) Approving the Settlement 22 Administrator Costs; and 5) Providing that the Court will retain jurisdiction to oversee administration and 23 enforcement of the terms of the Agreement and the Court's orders.

24 9.2.2 Following entry of the Court's order granting final approval of the Agreement, the 25 Parties will each act to ensure the fulfillment of all its provisions, including but not limited to the following:
26 1) Should an appeal be taken from the final approval of the Agreement or motion to set aside the judgement 27 be filed, all parties will support the final approval order on appeal or otherwise; 2) Class Counsel will assist the Settlement Administrator as needed or requested in the process of identifying and locating Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees entitled to payments under the Agreement and assuring delivery of such payments; 3) Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel will cooperate with each other and assist the Settlement Administrator as needed or requested in completing the distribution of any residual amounts, as specified above, to the cy pres beneficiaries; 4) Class Counsel, in conjunction with the Settlement Administrator, will certify to the Court completion of all payments required to be made by this Agreement.

9.3 Final Judgment: If the Court approves this Agreement at the final approval and fairness hearing, the Parties will request that the Court enter an Order Granting Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Final Judgment.

9.4 Notice to LWDA: Plaintiff will provide notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") of this settlement in accordance with Labor Code § 2699(1)(2).

10. MISCELLANEOUS TERMS

10.1 Defendant's Right to Withdraw Based on Opt-Outs: If, prior to the Final Approval Date, 10% or more of the Class Members have submitted proper and timely requests to opt-out in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement, Defendants may rescind the Agreement and all actions taken in its furtherance will be thereby null and void. Defendants must exercise this right of rescission, in writing, to Class Counsel, within seven (7) calendar days after the Settlement Administrator notifies the Parties of the total number of opt-outs. If the option to rescind is exercised, then any Settlement Administrator Costs shall be paid by Defendants. Defendants have represented that there are no more than 3,770 workweeks during the Class Period. In the event the number of workweeks during the Class Period is more than 4,147 (i.e., greater than 10% more than 3,770), then the Gross Settlement Amount shall be increased proportionally by the workweeks in excess of 3,770, multiplied by the pay period value. For example, if there were 11,900 workweeks represented to exist during the Class Period, but there are actually 15,000 workweeks in the Class Period, and the actual workweek value is $5.00 per workweek, Defendants would have to increase the Gross Settlement Amount by $15,500.00 (15,000 workweeks – 11,900 workweeks = 3,100 workweeks x $5.00/workweek). In the alternative, Defendants may opt to reduce the Class Period to an earlier date such that the workweeks will not exceed 4,147. To the extent Defendants opt to select

1 reducing the number of workweeks, the PAGA Claim Period will be similarly reduced to have the same 2 ending date.

4 THIS SECTION, THE “ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY” AND EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT 5 OTHER THAN THE ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY, AN “OTHER PARTY”) ACKNOWLEDGES AND any person or entity any portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action or right released and discharged in this Agreement.

10.4 Waiver of Appeal and Ability to Opt Out: To the extent permitted by applicable law, by signing this Agreement Defendants are waiving any rights to appeal from the Court's approval of the settlement unless the Court materially modifies the settlement. Furthermore, by signing this Agreement Plaintiff is waiving any right or ability to opt out of this Agreement during the Notice Period or otherwise.

10.5 Exhibits Incorporated by Reference: The terms of this Agreement include the terms set forth in any attached Exhibits, which are incorporated by this reference as though fully set forth in this Agreement. Any Exhibits to this Agreement are an integral part of the Settlement.

10.6 Judgment and Retention of Jurisdiction to Enforce: Upon the Effective Date, judgment will be entered according to this Agreement. The Parties stipulate and agree that the Sacramento County Superior Court shall have continuing jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the Agreement pursuant to Civil Procedure Code section 664.6 and that the prevailing party any action necessary to enforce the terms of the Agreement after default by the other party may recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs related thereto.

10.7 Mutual Cooperation: The Parties agree to cooperate fully with one another to accomplish and implement the terms of this Agreement. Such cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, execution of such other documents and the taking of such other action as may reasonably be necessary to fulfill the terms of this Agreement. The Parties to this Agreement shall use their best efforts, including all efforts contemplated by this Agreement and any other efforts that may become necessary by Court order, or otherwise, to effectuate this Agreement and the terms set forth herein.

10.8 No Admission of Liability: Neither the acceptance nor the performance by Defendants of the terms of this Agreement, nor any of the related negotiations or proceedings, is or shall be claimed to be, construed as, or deemed to be, an admission by Defendants of the truth of any of the allegations in the Complaint, the representative character of the Action, the validity of any of the claims that were or could have been asserted by Plaintiff and/or Class Members in the Action, or of any liability or guilt of Defendants in the Action. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to be or deemed an admission by Defendants of any liability, culpability, negligence, or wrongdoing toward Plaintiff, the Class Members,

1 or any other person, and Defendants specifically disclaim any liability, culpability, negligence, or 2 wrongdoing toward Plaintiff, the Class Members, or any other person. Each of the Parties has entered into 3 this Stipulation with the intention to avoid further disputes and litigation.

4 10.9 Notices: Unless otherwise specifically provided herein, all notices, demands, or other

17 10.10 Mutual Drafting of Agreement: The Parties hereto agree that the terms and conditions of 18 this Agreement are the result of lengthy, intensive, arm's-length negotiations between the Parties and that 19 this Agreement shall not be construed in favor of or against any party by reason of the extent to which any 20 party or its counsel participated in the drafting of this Agreement.

21 10.11 Attorneys' Fees and Costs Limitations: Neither Class Counsel nor any other attorneys 22 acting for, or purporting to act for, the Class, Class Members, or Plaintiff, may recover or seek to recover 23 any amounts for fees, costs, or disbursements from the Releasees or the Gross Settlement Amount except

25 10.12 No Modifications: This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written 26 instrument signed by counsel for all Parties or their successors-in-interest. This Agreement may not be

4 to effectuate its terms and to execute any other documents required to effectuate the terms of this 5 Agreement.

6 10.14 Class Member Signatories: Because the Action has not yet been certified, and the Class
7 Members are so numerous, the Parties agree that it is impossible or impractical to have each Class Member 8 sign this Agreement. It is agreed that, for purposes of seeking approval of the Agreement, this Agreement 9 may be executed on behalf of all Class Members by the Class Representative.

10 10.15 Counterparts: This Agreement shall become effective upon its execution by all of the 11 undersigned. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendants and Defendants' Counsel may execute this Agreement 12 in counterparts, and execution of counterparts shall have the same force and effect as if each had signed 13 the same instrument. Facsimile, electronic, and/or scanned copies of signatures shall have the same force 14 and effect of originals.

15 10.16 Choice of Law: The Agreement and any exhibits hereto shall be considered to have been 16 negotiated, executed, and delivered, and to have been wholly performed, in the State of California, and the 17 rights and obligations of the Parties to the Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, 18 and governed by, the substantive laws of the State of California without giving effect to that State's choice 19 of law principles.

20 10.17 Headings and Captions: Section titles or captions contained in the Agreement are inserted 21 as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit, extend, or describe the scope of 22 this Agreement, or any provision thereof.

23 10.18 No Retaliation or Discouragement: The Parties agree they will take no action that could be 24 construed as retaliation against any Class Members for participating or seeking to participate in this class 25 action settlement. The Parties will not discourage any class member from participating or seeking to 26 participate in this class action settlement. This is a material term of the Agreement and non-breaching 27 Parties will seek court intervention if this provision is breached.

10.19 Integrated Agreement: This Agreement sets forth the entire understanding between the Parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, oral or written, pertaining to the subject matter hereof. Each party acknowledges that there is no representation, inducement, promise or agreement which has been made, orally or otherwise, by the other party, concerning the terms or conditions of this Agreement, which is not expressly embodied in this Agreement. In entering into this Agreement, the Parties represent that the terms of this Agreement are fully understood and voluntarily accepted by the Parties.

10.20 Binding on Successors and Assigns: This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors or assigns of the Parties to this Agreement, as previously defined.

10.21 Invalidity of Any Provision: Before declaring any provision of this Agreement invalid, the Court will first attempt to construe the provision as valid to the fullest extent possible consistent with applicable precedents so as to define all provisions of this Settlement Agreement valid and enforceable.

10.22 Waiver of Compliance: No waiver of any condition or covenant contained in this Agreement or failure to exercise a right or remedy by any of the Parties hereto will be considered to imply or constitute a further waiver by such party of the same or any other condition, covenant, right or remedy.

CALIFORNIA SUPERIOR COURT
FOR THE COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO COUNTY

JOHN WILLIS, individually and on behalf of all other similarly situated employees,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Liability Company; DONALD POLLARD, an individual; RAY KEENER, an individual; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. 23CV006533

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION
DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL OF

ATTENTION: all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 10, 2019, to the present [REDACTED] (the "Class Members").

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. THIS NOTICE RELATES TO A PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION LITIGATION AND POTENTIAL DISBURSEMENT OF SETTLEMENT FUNDS TO YOU. IF YOU ARE A CLASS MEMBER, IT CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN OR OPT OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT ACCORDING TO THE PROCEDURES DESCRIBED BELOW.

You are receiving this notice pursuant to an order from the Sacramento County Superior Court ("Court") granting Plaintiff's motion for preliminary approval of a Joint Stipulation Regarding Class Action PAGA Settlement and Release ("Agreement" or "Settlement") as fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Settlement was entered into between Plaintiff John Willis ("Plaintiff" or "Class Representative"), and Defendants GFP Enterprises, LLC, Donald Pollard, and Ray Keener ("Defendants") on behalf of Class Members as defined above. The terms of the Settlement are outlined herein. You are receiving this notice because Defendants' records indicate you fall within the definition of "Class Member." Defendants' records also indicate that you worked [REDACTED] weeks in California during the applicable Class Period (as defined below), which means your total share of the settlement proceeds is estimated to be [REDACTED]. Your actual share of the settlement proceeds will vary depending on the total number of Class Members that choose to participate and the resolution of any workweek disputes as described in this notice.

The terms of the Agreement and a description of the case are identified in this notice. Pursuant to the Court's order, YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED AS FOLLOWS:

I. BACKGROUND OF THE CASE

On August 10, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Complaint against Defendants in the Sacramento County Superior Court of California on behalf of himself and Class Members. The term "Action" means this putative class action pending in Sacramento County Superior Court, Case No. 23CV006533. The Class Period is from August 10, 2019, to [REDACTED] (the "Class Period").

In the Action, Plaintiff sought to obtain unpaid wages, interest, statutory penalties, civil penalties, fees, and costs on behalf of himself, Class Members, and Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff alleged that Defendants violated California law by 1) failing to pay overtime wages, 2) failing to pay minimum wages, 3) failing to provide accurate wage statements, 4) failing to pay all final wages, 5) failing to maintain accurate records, 6) failing to provide paid sick leave, 7) failing to pay timely wages, 8) engaging in unfair competition, and 9) committing PAGA violations. Defendants have denied all of Plaintiff's allegations. The Action has been actively litigated. There have been on-going investigations, and there has been an exchange of extensive documentation and information. Furthermore, the Parties have participated in a full day mediation facilitated by a neutral third party. Based upon the negotiations, and all known facts and circumstances, including the various risks and uncertainties related to legal actions, the Parties reached a class-wide settlement. By settling, the Parties will avoid the risks associated with a lengthy litigation process. Despite agreeing to and supporting the Agreement, Defendants continue to deny all allegations and claims. Defendants have entered into this Settlement to fully, finally, and forever resolve this Action, based on the terms set forth in the Agreement, in order to avoid the burden and expense associated with ongoing litigation.

The Agreement applies to any and all Class Members, which are defined as all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 10, 2019, to [REDACTED]. The Agreement also applies to Aggrieved Employees, which are defined as all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 9, 2022, to [REDACTED]. If you are a Class Member, you have the opportunity to participate in the Settlement, or to exclude yourself (“opt out”) from the Settlement. This notice is to advise Class Members of how they can either participate in the Settlement or be excluded from the Settlement. As set forth below, Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this Agreement as it relates to the PAGA Payment or Released PAGA Claims regardless of whether they opt out of being a Class Member. Aggrieved Employees will receive their share of the PAGA Payment regardless of whether they opt out of being a Class Member.

II. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A. The Amount of the Settlement

Under the terms of the Agreement, Defendants have agreed to pay a total sum of One Hundred Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars ($135,000) (“Gross Settlement Amount”). Deducted from this Gross Settlement Amount will be sums approved by the Court for attorneys’ fees not to exceed 35% of the Gross Settlement Amount, attorneys’ costs not to exceed $14,000, Settlement Administrator Costs estimated not to exceed $10,000, Class Representative’s Enhancement Payment of $10,000, and $10,000 for alleged PAGA penalties (the “PAGA Payment”), which will result in a “Net Settlement Amount” for distribution to all Class Members. Any employer side taxes attributable to payments allocated as wages will be paid by Defendants in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. As explained further below, the amount of each Class Member’s share of the Net Settlement Amount will depend on the number of weeks worked by participating Class Members during the Class Period. Of the $10,000 allocated to resolving the PAGA claims, 75% of the PAGA Payment will be paid to the State of California Labor and Workforce Development Agency and 25% of the PAGA Payment will be divided among Aggrieved Employees.

The number of weeks you worked in California during the Class Period and your estimated total share of the Net Settlement Amount and PAGA Payment (“Individual Settlement Amount”) is stated on the first page of this notice. The actual amount received may be more or less than the amount stated depending on the actual number of weeks worked in California by Participating Class Members (i.e., those who do not opt out of the Settlement), the resolution of any disputes regarding workweeks, and on the distributions finally approved and allocated by the Court. However, whether Class Members opt out will have no effect on Aggrieved Employees’ allocations for the PAGA claim.

B. Individual Settlement Amounts and Allocation Between Class Members and Aggrieved Employees

Defendants will pay Individual Settlement Amounts through the Settlement Administrator, as described below, to each Participating Class Member and to Aggrieved Employees. All Individual Settlement Amounts will be subject to appropriate taxation. The Parties have agreed, based on the allegations in the Action that all Individual Settlement Amounts payable to eligible Class Members will be allocated from the Net Settlement Amount and paid as 80% for disputed interest, statutory penalties, and other non-wage damages for which an IRS Forms 1099-MISC and 1099-INT will issue and 20% for disputed wages for which IRS Forms W-2 will issue. The PAGA Payment to Aggrieved employees will be paid as 100% for civil penalties.

Payment to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees will not require the submission of a claim form. Each Participating Class Member’s share will be determined by dividing their total weeks worked in California within the Class Period by the total weeks worked by all Participating Class Members in California within the Class Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount to arrive at the Class Member’s individual share of the Net Settlement Amount. Each Aggrieved Employee’s share of the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment will be determined by dividing their total weeks worked in California within the PAGA Claim Period by the total weeks worked in California by all Aggrieved Employees within the PAGA Claim Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment to arrive at the Aggrieved Employee’s individual share. The PAGA Claim Period is defined as August 9, 2022, up to [REDACTED]. Defendants’ records indicate that you worked [REDACTED] weeks during the applicable PAGA Claim Period, which means your share of the PAGA Payment is estimated to be [REDACTED]. This amount is included in your estimated Individual Settlement Amount stated on the first page of this notice, not in addition to it. You will still receive your share of the PAGA Payment even if you opt out of being a Class Member. Receipt of the Individual Settlement Amounts will not entitle any Class Member or Aggrieved Employee to additional compensation or benefits under any compensation, retirement or benefit plan or agreement in place during the period covered by the Settlement.

C. Calculations to Be Based on Defendants' Records and Resolution of Workweek Disputes

For each Class Member, the amount payable will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator from Defendants' records. Defendants' records will be presumed correct unless evidence to the contrary is provided to the Settlement Administrator. Defendants' records and any additional evidence will be reviewed by the Settlement Administrator in the event of a dispute about the number of workweeks worked in California by an individual Class Member. If a Class Member disputes the accuracy of Defendants' records, all supporting documents evidencing additional workweeks must be submitted by the Class Member. The dispute must (a) identify the nature of the dispute; (b) provide any information or documentation supporting the dispute; (c) be signed; and (d) be post-marked no later than [REDACTED]. The dispute will be resolved by the Settlement Administrator based on the records and evidence provided.

D. Release of Claims

For those Class Members who do not opt out and Aggrieved Employees, the Agreement contains the following releases:

Class members who do not opt out will be deemed to have released any and all class claims that are alleged in the Complaint, and any additional wage and hour claims that could have been brought based on the facts alleged in the Complaint, through the Class Period. This release excludes the release of claims not permitted by law. The Released Class Claims exclude claims for workers' compensation or unemployment insurance benefits. This release will cover all Class Members who do not opt out.

Aggrieved Employees will be deemed to have released any and all claims that were brought under the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq., contained in the Complaint and any additional wage and hour PAGA claims that could have been brought based on the facts alleged in the Complaint during the PAGA Claim Period. Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this waiver of claims.

The individuals released ("Released Parties") include Defendants, as well as Defendants' parent companies, subsidiaries, officers, shareholders, directors, predecessors, successors, affiliates, assigns, agents, employees, attorneys, and insurers.

Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees can talk to one of the lawyers appointed as Class Counsel (listed below) for free or talk to their own lawyer if they have questions about the released claims and what they mean.

III. WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS AS A CLASS MEMBER

A. Participating in the Settlement as a Class Member

If you wish to be a Participating Class Member and believe your workweek information is accurate, you do not need to take any further action. Payment will be automatically made to you consistent with the terms of the Agreement and Court Order. If you wish to dispute the workweek calculation, you may follow the procedures outlined in Section II.C above. California law protects Class Members from retaliation based on their decision to participate in the Settlement.

B. Excluding Yourself from the Settlement as a Class Member

The Court will exclude you from being a Class Member if you request this by [REDACTED]. If you do not wish to be bound by the Settlement as a Class Member, you may request to be excluded (i.e., "opt out") by submitting a timely written request to the Settlement Administrator. The request to opt-out must (a) state your full name and date of birth; (b) a statement that you do not want to be a Class Member, do not want to participate in the Settlement, and/or wants to be excluded from this Settlement; (c) identify the case name and number (i.e. Willis v. GFP Enterprises, LLC, 23CV006533); (d) be signed; and (e) be post-marked no later than [REDACTED]. The request to opt out must be mailed by First Class U.S. Mail, or the equivalent, to:

[admin info]

If you submit a request to opt out which is not postmarked by [REDACTED], your request to opt out will be rejected, and you will be bound by the release and all other terms of the Agreement. Do not use a postage meter as that may not result in a postmark appearing on the envelope containing your request to opt out. Any Class Member who submits a complete and timely request to opt out shall, upon receipt by the Settlement Administrator, no longer be a Class Member and not receive their share of the Net Settlement Amount. Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this Agreement and will receive their share of the PAGA Payment regardless of whether they opt out of being a Class Member.

C. Objection to Settlement

If you do not opt out of the Settlement, you can object to the terms of the Settlement. However, if the Court rejects your objection, you will still be bound by the terms of the Settlement. You can ask the Court to deny approval by submitting an objection. You cannot ask the Court to order a larger settlement; the Court can only approve or deny the settlement. If the Court denies approval, no settlement payments will be sent out and the lawsuit will continue. The objection must (a) state your full name and date of birth; (b) provide evidence that you are, in fact, a Class Member; (c) state the reasons for the objection(s), including supporting documentation; (d) identify the case name and number (i.e. Willis v. GFP Enterprises, LLC, 23CV006533); (e) be signed; and (f) be post-marked no later than [REDACTED]. The objection must be sent to the Settlement Administrator at the address identified in Section III.B and to counsel for Plaintiff and Defendants at the addresses identified in Section VI of this notice.

In addition to submitting a written objection, you may also appear at the final approval hearing to state your objection. Any Class Member who does not request exclusion may, if the Class Member so desires, enter an appearance through an attorney. If you appear through your own attorney, you are responsible for paying that attorney. You should also file a notice of intent to appear with the Court and serve the notice on counsel for Plaintiff and Defendants.

IV. EFFECT OF THE SETTLEMENT: RELEASED RIGHTS AND CLAIMS

If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, the Court will make and enter judgment consistent therewith. A notice of entry of judgment will be filed with the Court and available online at its Public Portal. The judgment, whether favorable or not, will bind all Class Members who do not request exclusion. After final approval, each and every Class Member who does not opt out of the Settlement and Aggrieved Employee, will release Defendants and the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims and the Released PAGA Claims described above. In other words, if you were employed as a Class Member by Defendants in California during the Class Period, and you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will be deemed to have entered into these releases and to have released the above-described claims. In addition, you will be barred from ever suing Defendants and the Released Parties with respect to the claims covered by this Settlement. If the Settlement is not approved by the Court or does not become final for some other reason, the litigation will continue.

V. FINAL SETTLEMENT APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing in Department ___, [address] on [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] to determine whether the Agreement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate. The Court will also be asked to approve Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and costs, the Settlement Administrator Costs, and the Class Representative's Enhancement Payment. The hearing may be continued without further notice. It is not necessary for you to appear at this hearing.

7 California Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10 to determine alleged violations of the California 8 Labor Code, California Business and Professions Code, and Wage Order No. 16.

9 3. Venue is proper pursuant to Civil Procedure Code §§ 395(a), 395.2, and 395.5, in that 10 foreign entities and have not designated any county in California as being where they maintain their 11 principal offices. In addition, some of the wrongful acts and violations of law asserted herein occurred 12 within Sacramento County, and Defendants' obligation to pay wages arose in Sacramento County 13 pursuant to Madera Police Officers Assn. v. City of Madera, 36 Cal.3d 403, 414 (1984).

14 4. Plaintiff sought permission pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 et seq. to 15 pursue the claims set forth in this Complaint against Defendants as a Private Attorney General on behalf 16 of himself and other similarly situated employees. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699.3, 17 Plaintiff gave written notice via online submission to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency 18 ("LWDA") on approximately August 9, 2023. Plaintiff provided facts and legal bases for his claims 19 within the notice to the LWDA on all violations asserted under the Private Attorneys General Act cause 20 of action. Plaintiff also submitted the $75.00 filing fee. The August 9, 2023, notice was also sent via 21 certified mail to Defendants on the same day. To date, the LWDA has not provided any response to 22 Plaintiff's notice correspondence. Accordingly, Plaintiff has exhausted all administrative remedies 23 pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") and may bring this action on behalf of himself 24 and all similarly situated employees, i.e. Aggrieved Employees. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(A), 25 (c)(3); Caliber Bodyworks, Inc., v. Sup. Ct., 134 Cal. App. 4th 365, 383 n.18, 385 n.19 (2005).
26 Aggrieved Employees include, but is not limited to the following: all non-exempt employees who 27 worked for Defendants in California at any time from August 9, 2022 to the present.

22 13. Defendants proximately caused Plaintiff to be subjected to the unlawful practices, 23 wrongs, complaints, injuries and/or damages alleged in this Complaint.

24 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

25 14. Plaintiff brings the First through Fifth Causes of Action on behalf of himself and all 26 others similarly situated as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.
27 The class which Plaintiff seeks to represent is composed of, and defined, as follows: 28

1 All non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at 2 any time between August 10, 2019, to the present.

3 15. This action has been brought and may be properly maintained as a class action, 4 pursuant to the provision of California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, because there is a well-5 defined community of interests in the litigation and the proposed class is easily ascertainable.

6 (a) Numerosity: The putative class is so numerous that the individual joinder of all members 7 is impracticable under the circumstances of this case. While the exact number of class 8 members is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that 9 Defendants have employed as many as fifty (50) individuals falling within the above 10 stated class definition throughout the State of California during the applicable statute of 11 limitations, who were subjected to the policies and practices outlined in this Complaint.
12 As such, joinder of all members of the putative class is not practicable.

13 (b) Common Questions Predominate: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all 14 members of the putative class and predominate over questions that affect only individual 15 members of the class. These common questions of law and fact include, without 16 limitation, the following:

- 17 (1) Whether Defendants maintained accurate payroll records;
- 18 (2) Whether, as a result of Defendants' policies and practices, Plaintiff and putative 19 class members were not paid all overtime wages owed;
- 20 (3) Whether Defendants failed to correctly calculate the regular rate of pay for 21 premium wage purposes such as overtime, double time, and sick leave wages;
- 22 (4) Whether as a result of Defendants' policies and practices Plaintiff's and putative 23 class members received all wages, due and owing, at the time of their termination 24 or separation; and
- 25 (5) Whether Defendants provided Plaintiff's and putative class members with wage 26 statements that complied with Labor Code section 226.

27 (c) Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the members of the putative 28 class. The putative class also sustained damages arising out of Defendants' common

1 course of conduct in violation of the law as complained of herein. Plaintiff and all 2 members of the putative class were non-exempt employees who were not paid all 3 overtime wages owed, minimum wages owed, and sick pay wages owed, as a result of 4 Defendants' policies and practices resulting in inaccurate wage statements that did not 5 itemize the accurate overtime wages owed, minimum wages owed, and sick leave wages.
6 Additionally, Defendants issued Plaintiff and all members of the putative class wage 7 statements that did not comply with Labor Code section 226. As a result, Plaintiff and 8 each member of the putative class will have suffered the same type of harm and seek the 9 same type of recovery based on the same legal theories.

10 (d) Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the members of the 11 putative class. For all relevant times, Plaintiff resided in California and worked for 12 Defendants in California. Moreover, Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the 13 putative class as Plaintiff has no interests that are adverse to those of putative class 14 members. Additionally, Plaintiff has retained counsel who has substantial experience in 15 complex civil litigation and wage and hour matters.

16 (e) Superiority: A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient 17 adjudication of the controversy since individual joinder of all members of the putative 18 class is impracticable. Class action treatment will permit a larger number of similarly 19 situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, 20 efficiently, and without the unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that numerous 21 individual actions would engender. Further, as damages suffered by each individual 22 member of the class may be relatively small, the expenses and burden of the individual 23 litigation would make it difficult or impossible for individual members of the class to 24 redress the wrongs done to them, and an important public interest will be served by 25 addressing the matter as a class action. The cost to the court system of adjudication of 26 such individualized litigation would be substantial. Individualized litigation would also 27 present the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments.
28

1 16. Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the 2 management of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

3 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 17. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 16 as though fully 5 set forth herein.

6 18. Plaintiff worked for Defendants from August 7, 2022, to about September 3, 2022, and 7 from March 20, 2023, to March 24, 2023, as a non-exempt employee. Defendants operate a disaster 8 response company that responds to fires, floods, hurricanes, and other disasters or emergencies. They 9 provide disaster response such as moving debris from disaster areas, providing trailers and catering in 10 disaster areas, and providing fire protection such as moving wood and debris to certain areas to break 11 fires and help in extinguishing fires. In the fall of 2022, Plaintiff worked in Eureka, California for 12 approximately two weeks. In March of 2023, Plaintiff worked in Coachella, California for Defendants.
13 Over the course of employment Plaintiff and similarly situated employees held positions as firefighters 14 and wild land firefighters. Some of their duties included cutting trees down to avoid fires, mop up hot 15 spots on the ground, cool hot spots on the ground, drive and/or assist heavy equipment to clear out 16 debris from natural disasters or to construct barricades to break fires, set up catering trailers at disaster 17 zones or sites, and assist in disaster emergency response.

18 19. In addition to their base hourly rate, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees were paid 19 additional sums per hour, e.g., $4.60 per hour, depending on where they worked, including in California.
20 Plaintiff and similarly situated employees were also paid flat daily rates, e.g., $325 per day, depending 21 on where they worked, including in California. Defendants also paid various types of bonuses to 22 employees depending on whether they obtained different types of work-related certifications, ranging 23 from $100 to $150 per bonus. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees usually worked over eight 24 hours per day and over forty (40) hours per week. Most of the time, Plaintiff and similarly situated 25 employees worked between twelve (12) and sixteen (16) hours per day. Defendants failed to incorporate 26 the value of the additional hourly rates into the base rate when calculating the regular rate of pay for 27 overtime and sick leave wage premiums. Defendants also failed to correctly calculate the regular rate of 28

1 pay for overtime and sick leave when Plaintiff earned daily rates and/or provided lodging in addition to 2 their base hourly and/or daily rates of pay.

3 20. Furthermore, Defendants did not keep accurate time records and utilized rounding when 4 calculating Plaintiff's and similarly situated employees' hours worked. Plaintiff and similarly situated 5 employees did not record their own hours worked. Instead, Crew Chiefs recorded times for all 6 employees on sites. The crew consisted of ten (10) to twenty (20) employees. Defendant maintained 7 policies and procedures that prevented Plaintiff and similarly situated employees from clocking in and 8 out at the beginning of their shift and at the end of their shift. Timecards were filled out by the Crew 9 Chief or supervisor without input from Plaintiff and similarly situated employees. Defendants and the 10 Crew Chief did not show the time entries to Plaintiff and similarly situated employees for verification.
11 Plaintiff and similarly situated employees had to travel to sites and start working right away upon 12 arrival. As a result, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees worked off-the-clock since Defendants 13 did not keep track of their start and stop times.

14 21. Plaintiff was sick while at work on March 24, 2023. Plaintiff informed Defendants that he 15 had purchased a flight ticket to fly back home to see a medical provider because he was sick and was 16 vomiting a lot. Defendants' supervisor, Mike Denning told Plaintiff to "consider this his last day."
17 Defendants sent Plaintiff his last paycheck approximately two weeks after his last day of work. Plaintiff 18 is informed and believes that Defendants maintain a policy of paying final wages only at regularly 19 scheduled payroll cycles rather than upon termination or within seventy-two hours of separation as 20 required by the California Labor Code.

21 22. As a result of Defendants' policies and practices, Plaintiff and similarly situated 22 employees were not paid for all wages due, including minimum wages, overtime wages, and sick leave 23 wages. These amounts were not paid to similarly situated employees at the time of their separation and 24 remain unpaid to date. Additionally, the unlawful practices identified above resulted in Defendants 25 issuing inaccurate paystubs to Plaintiff and similarly situated employees. The paystubs did not 26 accurately itemize the gross wages earned, total hours worked, correct applicable rates of pay, and the 27 net wages earned.

1 23. Plaintiff is informed and believes that DONALD POLLARD and RAY KEENER were 2 the Managing Members or Members of the Limited Liability Company from at least 2022 to present.
3 Mr. Pollard and Mr. Keener were responsible for creating, implementing, and overseeing the wage and 4 hour policies and practices outlined herein that resulted in the violation of the California Labor Code.

5 24. Defendant GFP ENTERPRISES, LLC identified Defendant DONALD POLLARD in its 6 filings with the California Secretary of State from at least January 10, 2022, to the present as its 7 Managing Member or Member. Plaintiff is informed and believes that DONALD POLLARD was 8 responsible for creating and electing to implement GFP ENTERPRISES, LLC's payroll and 9 compensation policies and practices or that DONALD POLLARD was aware of such policies and 10 practices and ratified them.

11 25. Defendant GFP ENTERPRISES, LLC identified Defendant RAY KEENER in its filings 12 with the California Secretary of State from at least January 10, 2022, to the present as its Managing 13 Member or Member. Plaintiff is informed and believes that RAY KEENER was responsible for creating 14 and electing to implement GFP ENTERPRISES, LLC's payroll and compensation policies and practices 15 or that RAY KEENER was aware of such policies and practices and ratified them.

16 CAUSES OF ACTION

17 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
18 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES
19 (As to all Defendants)

20 26. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 25 as though fully 21 set forth herein.

22 27. During the period Plaintiff was employed by Defendants, Defendants were required to 23 compensate Plaintiff at one and one-half (1½) times the regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of 24 eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week, and two (2) times the regular rate of pay for 25 hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours per day. See, e.g., IWC Wage Order No. 16, section 26 (3)(A); Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510, 1194.

27 28. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day 28 and/or forty (40) hours per week on several occasions while employed by Defendants. However,

1 Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and similarly situated employees for all overtime hours 2 worked at their regular rate of pay.

3 29. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees were not exempt from overtime protections 4 employees under the California Wage Orders and Labor Code.

5 30. As a proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees
6 have been damaged as stated in the section below entitled "DAMAGES," which is incorporated here to 7 the extent pertinent as if set forth here in full.

8 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
9 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES
10 (As to all Defendants)

11 31. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 30 as though fully 12 set forth herein.

13 32. For the period preceding the filing of this Complaint, Defendants were required to 14 compensate Plaintiff and similarly situated employees with at least California's applicable minimum for 15 every hour worked. See MW-Order 2019; IWC Wage Order, No. 16, section 4(A); Cal. Lab. Code § 16 1194.

17 33. Plaintiff was not exempt to the State's Minimum Wage Order. Defendants were aware of 18 their obligation to pay the minimum wage for each hour worked but failed to do so. Defendants 19 rounding Plaintiff's and similarly situated employees hours worked, failing to pay all wages due.

20 34. As a proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees 21 have been damaged as stated in the section below entitled "DAMAGES," which is incorporated here to 22 the extent pertinent as if set forth here in full.

24 WAGE STATEMENT VIOLATIONS
25 (As to all Defendants)

26 35. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 34 as though fully 27 set forth herein.

28 36. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a), an employer must provide an itemized statement to an employee, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, showing:

1 (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for 2 any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 3 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or 4 any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the 5 number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 6 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that 7 all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated 8 and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the 9 period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and 10 the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee 11 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name 12 and address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if the employer is 13 a farm labor contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the 14 name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the 15 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay 16 period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate 17 by the employee. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be 18 recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the 19 month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the 20 deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at 21 the place of employment or at a central location within the State of 22 California.

23 37. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants intentionally and knowingly failed to provide an 24 itemized statement or failed to provide an accurate and complete itemized statement showing the 25 requirements set forth in California Labor Code section 226(a). Specifically, Defendants did not 26 accurately itemize all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, all regular, overtime 27 and double time hours worked and corresponding rates of pay, and gross and net wages earned. The 28 paystubs also did not accurately itemize Plaintiff's and similarly situated employees' total hours worked due to Defendants' failure to keep proper track of time and rounding policy that resulted in off-the-clock work. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees were not able to promptly and easily determine their total hours worked from their paystubs alone. Additionally, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees suffered confusion over whether they received all wages owed and were prevented from effectively challenging information on their wage statements.

38. As a proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees have been damaged as stated in the section below entitled "DAMAGES," which is incorporated here to the extent pertinent as if set forth here in full.

WAITING TIME PENALTIES
(As to all Defendants)

39. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 38 as though fully set forth herein.

40. An employer must pay an employee who is terminated all unpaid wages immediately upon termination. See Cal. Lab. Code § 201.

41. An employer must pay an employee who resigns all unpaid wages within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation. See Cal. Lab. Code § 202.

42. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees did not receive all wages, including minimum and overtime wages, or all sick leave pay owed at their termination or within the required time after their separation from employment.

43. An employer who willfully fails to pay an employee wages in accordance with California Labor Code sections 201 and/or 202 must pay the employee a waiting time penalty of up to thirty (30) days. See Cal. Lab. Code § 203.

44. Defendants knew of their obligation to pay Plaintiff's and similarly situated employees' their final wages when their employment terminated. Indeed, Defendants had knowledge that Plaintiff and similarly situated employees were not paid for all their hours worked because of Defendants' failure to track Plaintiff's and similarly situated employees' hours and Defendants' rounding policy.

Defendants' time keeping practice were unreliable because the Crew Chief would enter the time for Plaintiff and similarly situated employees without input from Plaintiff and similarly situated employees. Additionally, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and similarly situated employees received fringe pay but they felt to incorporate such pay into the calculation for the regular rate of pay for premium pay such as overtime wages and sick pay wages. Such conduct shows Defendants had knowledge of earned, but unpaid wages at the time of separation, yet Defendants still refused to pay the remaining wages owed.

45. As a proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees have been damaged and deprived of their wages and thereby seek their daily rate of pay multiplied by thirty (30) days for Defendants' failure to pay all wages due.

UNFAIR COMPETITION
(As to GFP ENTERPRISES, LLC and DOES 1 to 100)

46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 45 as though fully set forth herein.

47. Unfair competition shall mean and include any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice and unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading advertising and any act prohibited by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17500) of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code. See California Business and Professions ("B&P") Code § 17200.

48. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees were not paid all wages owed, including minimum and overtime wages, and paid sick leave, during their employment or any time thereafter.

49. Plaintiff further alleges that such actions and/or conduct constitute a violation of the California Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") (Business and Professions Code 17200 et seq.) pursuant to Cortez v. Purolator Air Filtration Products Co., 23 Cal. 4th 163 (2000).

50. As a direct and legal result of the Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, pursuant to the UCL (including B&P Code §17203), Plaintiff and similarly situated employees are entitled to restitution, including, but not limited to, interest and penalties pursuant to Business & Professions Code sections 17203, 17208, violations of California Labor Code sections 226.7, 245 et seq., 510, 512, and 1194 all in an amount as yet unascertained but subject to proof at trial, for four (4) years from the filing of this Action.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT
(As to all Defendants)

51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 50 as though fully set forth herein.

52. Plaintiff has alleged to the Labor Commissioner that Defendants have violated the following provisions of the Labor Code in their dealings with Plaintiff and other similarly situated current and former employees:

- Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194; IWC Wage Order 16, § 3 (Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

- Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197.1; IWC Wage Order 16, § 4 (Failure to Pay Minimum Wages)
- Violation of Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3 (Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements)
- Violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203, 256 (Failure to Pay Final Wages)

- Violation of Labor Code §§ 246, 246.5, 248.5 (Failure to Provide Paid Sick Leave)
- Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.3, 1174 (Failure to Maintain Accurate Records)
- Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 210 (Untimely Payment of Wages)

53. Plaintiff seeks civil penalties against Defendants as provided in the California Labor Code, or, if no civil penalty is provided, default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(f)(2).

54. Plaintiff seeks these civil penalties from Defendants pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a) and 2699.3.

55. As a proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees have been damaged as stated in the section below entitled "DAMAGES," which is incorporated here to the extent pertinent as if set forth here in full.

Re: Willis v. GFP Enterprises, LLC

Dear Labor Commissioner,

As counsel for John Willis ("Plaintiff"), I am writing to provide you and the following "employers" notice pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699.3:

We are setting forth the "facts and theories" to support each of the counts found within this complaint. Please notify us of your intent to investigate any or all of the claims alleged herein against GFP Enterprises, LLC, Donald Pollard, and Ray Keener ("Defendants"). Should you decide not to investigate, we request that you allow us to bring the following action on behalf of Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a). Specifically, Aggrieved Employees shall include, but is not limited to, the following: all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between one year prior to the filing of this notice to the present date. Plaintiff is clearly entitled to bring a Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") claim for civil penalties on behalf of these individuals pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc., 23 Cal.App.5th 745, 757 (2018)

(finding a plaintiff has PAGA standing if affected by one of the alleged violations; the plaintiff need not have personally experienced all the violations pursued in PAGA action).

A. FACTS

Plaintiff worked for Defendants from August 7, 2022, to about September 3, 2022, and from March 20, 2023, to March 24, 2023, as a non-exempt employee. Defendants operate a disaster response company that responds to fires, floods, hurricanes, and other disasters or emergencies. They provide disaster response such as moving debris from disaster areas, providing trailers and catering in disaster areas, and providing fire protection such as moving wood and debris to certain areas to break fires and help in extinguishing fires. In the fall of 2022, Plaintiff worked in Eureka, California for approximately two weeks. In March of 2023, Plaintiff worked in Coachella, California for Defendants. Over the course of employment Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees held positions as firefighters and wild land firefighters. Some of their duties included cutting trees down to avoid fires, mop up hot spots on the ground, cool hot spots on the ground, drive and/or assist heavy equipment to clear out debris from natural disasters or to construct barricades to break fires, set up catering trailers at disaster zones or sites, and assist in disaster emergency response.

In addition to their base hourly rate, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were paid additional sums per hour, e.g., $4.60 per hour, depending on where they worked, including in California. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were also paid flat daily rates, e.g., $325 per day, depending on where they worked, including in California. Defendants also paid various types of bonuses to employees depending on whether they obtained different types of work-related certifications, ranging from $100 to $150 per bonus. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees usually worked over eight hours per day and over forty (40) hours per week. Most of the time, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees worked between twelve (12) and sixteen (16) hours per day. Defendants failed to incorporate the value of the additional hourly rates into the base rate when calculating the regular rate of pay for overtime and sick leave wage premiums. Defendants also failed to correctly calculate the regular rate of pay for overtime and sick leave when Plaintiff earned daily rates and/or provided lodging in addition to their base hourly and/or daily rates of pay.

Furthermore, Defendants did not keep accurate time records and utilized rounding when calculating Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' hours worked. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did not record their own hours worked. Instead, Crew Chiefs recorded times for all employees on sites. The crew consisted of ten (10) to twenty (20) employees. Defendant maintained policies and procedures that prevented Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees from clocking in and out at the beginning of their shift and at the end of their shift. Timecards were filled out by the Crew Chief or supervisor without input from Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. Defendants and the Crew Chief did not show the time entries to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for verification. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees had to travel to sites and start working right away upon arrival. As a result, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees worked off-the-clock since Defendants did not keep track of their start and stop times.

Plaintiff was sick while at work on March 24, 2023. Plaintiff informed Defendants that he had purchased a flight ticket to fly back home to see a medical provider because he was sick and was vomiting a lot. Defendants' supervisor, Mike Denning told Plaintiff to "consider this his last day." Defendants sent Plaintiff his last paycheck approximately two weeks after his last day of work. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants maintain a policy of paying final wages only at regularly scheduled payroll cycles rather than upon termination or within seventy-two hours of separation as required by the California Labor Code.

As a result of Defendants' policies and practices, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid for all wages due, including minimum wages, overtime wages, and sick leave wages. These amounts were not paid to Aggrieved Employees at the time of their separation and remain unpaid to date. Additionally, the unlawful practices identified above resulted in Defendants issuing inaccurate paystubs to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. The paystubs did not accurately itemize the gross wages earned, total hours worked, correct applicable rates of pay, and the net wages earned.

Plaintiff is informed and believes that Donald Pollard and Ray Keener were the Managing Members or Members of the Limited Liability Company from at least 2022 to present. Mr. Pollard and Mr. Keener were responsible for creating, implementing, and overseeing the wage and hour policies and practices outlined herein that resulted in the violation of the California Labor Code.

B. ALLEGATIONS AND CHARGES

Count One – Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194; IWC Wage Order 16, § 3 (Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require employers to pay employees 1 ½ times their regular rate of pay for any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday and any work in excess of forty (40) hours in any one workweek. Employers must also pay employees 1 ½ times their regular rate of pay for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek. Finally, employers must pay employees 2 times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any workday and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in any one workweek. As stated above, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees worked over eight (8) hours per day and forty (40) hours per week and were not paid all overtime wages owed. Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover all unpaid overtime wages. Failure to pay such wages is against the law.

Count Two – Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197.1; IWC Wage Order 16, § 4 (Failure to Pay Minimum Wages)

During the period Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were employed by Defendant they were entitled to be paid at least the State’s minimum wage rate for each hour that they worked. See, e.g., IWC Wage Order MW-2019; IWC Wage Order No. 16, § (4); Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194, 1197.1. For the reasons stated above, Defendant did not pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked. Thus, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid at least the applicable state minimum wage for those hours worked. This is against the law.

Count Three – Violation of Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3 (Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements)

Labor Code section 226 requires employers to furnish to employees with “an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, . . . (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer . . . and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee” For the reasons stated above, Defendant failed to comply with these requirements with respect to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. This is in violation of the law.

Count Four – Violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203, 256 (Failure to Pay Final Wages)

Labor Code sections 201-203 require that all wages, including overtime, minimum wages, and sick leave wages be paid to employees upon separation and/or termination of employment. Here, for the reasons stated above, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did not receive all final wages due and owing to them at the time of termination or seventy-two (72) hours thereafter as required by Labor Code sections 201-203. This is in violation of the law.

Count Five – Violation of Labor Code §§ 558, 558.1 (Provisions Regulating Hours and Days of Work in Any Industrial Welfare Commission Order)

Labor Code section 558 states that it is unlawful for any employer, or other person acting on behalf of an employer, to violate or cause to be violated any of sections 500 to 558.1 of the Labor Code or any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission. Similarly, Labor Code section 558.1 states that it is unlawful for any employer or other person acting on behalf on an employer to violate, or cause to be violated, any provision regulating minimum wages or hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, as well as Sections 203, 226, 226.7, 1193.6, 1194, or 2802 of the Labor Code. As described above, Defendant, by and through Defendant agents, violated Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' rights provided for under Labor Code sections 558 and 558.1 as well as the incorporated Wage Orders and incorporated statutes therein. Mr. Pollard and Mr. Keener were officers, directors, shareholders, and/or managing agents of Defendant responsible for the violations stated herein as they were in a position of authority with the power and responsibility to monitor, institute, and/or modify the unlawful practices, but chose to ratify them instead. This is against the law.

Count Six – Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.3, 1174 (Failure to Maintain Accurate Records)

Labor Code section 226.3 provides that any employer who fails to maintain records required by Labor Code section 226(a) or provide records required by 226(a) shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation. Labor Code section 1174(d) provides that employers must keep and maintain accurate payroll records showing the hours worked daily by, and the wages paid to, employees. Defendant failed to maintain the accurate records required by law and, instead, maintained incomplete, inaccurate records regarding Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' wage records and hours worked. This was against the law.

Count Seven – Violation of Labor Code §§ 246, 246.5, 248.5 (Failure to Provide Paid Sick Leave)

Labor Code sections 246, et seq., mandate that employers must provide California employees, who work thirty (30) or more days within a year for the employer, paid sick leave of at least one (1) hour for every thirty (30) hours worked that begins to accrue at the commencement of employment. An employer may use a different accrual method, other than providing one hour per every 30 hours worked, provided that the accrual is on a regular basis so that an employee has no less than twenty-four (24) hours of accrued sick leave or paid time off by the 120th calendar day of employment or each calendar year, or in each 12-month period. An employer may limit the use of sick leave to either twenty-four (24) hours or the equivalent of three (3) days, whichever is greater, during a year period. However, employers using an accrual method rather than a lump sum method must allow employees to accrue up to forty-eight (48) hours or the equivalent of six (6) days at any given time. Employers must authorize employees to take paid sick leave under the conditions set forth in the Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act of 2014 ("HWHFA") for the diagnosis, care, or treatment of an existing health condition of, or preventive care for, an employee or an employee's family member. Any sick leave taken must be paid at the employee's regular rate of pay. For the reasons state above, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with sick leave meeting the requirements set forth in HWHFA. Plaintiff will be seeking equitable, injunctive, and restitutionary relief to remedy these violations.

Count Eight – Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 210 (Untimely Payment of Wages)

Labor Code section 204(a) provides that “all wages, other than those mentioned in Section 201, 201.3, 202, 204.1, or 204.2, earned by any person in any employment are due and payable twice during each calendar month, on days designated in advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. As stated above, Defendant failed to comply with this provision by paying Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for wages earned between the 1st and 15th and between the 16th and last day of the month beyond the maximum time allowed under the statute. This was in violation of the law.

ATTENTION: all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 10, 2019, to the present [REDACTED] (the "Class Members").

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. THIS NOTICE RELATES TO A PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION LITIGATION AND POTENTIAL DISBURSEMENT OF SETTLEMENT FUNDS TO YOU. IF YOU ARE A CLASS MEMBER, IT CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN OR OPT OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT ACCORDING TO THE PROCEDURES DESCRIBED BELOW.

You are receiving this notice pursuant to an order from the Sacramento County Superior Court ("Court") granting Plaintiff's motion for preliminary approval of a Joint Stipulation Regarding Class Action PAGA Settlement and Release ("Agreement" or "Settlement") as fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Settlement was entered into between Plaintiff John Willis ("Plaintiff" or "Class Representative"), and Defendants GFP Enterprises, LLC, Donald Pollard, and Ray Keener ("Defendants") on behalf of Class Members as defined above. The terms of the Settlement are outlined herein. You are receiving this notice because Defendants' records indicate you fall within the definition of "Class Member." Defendants' records also indicate that you worked [REDACTED] weeks in California during the applicable Class Period (as defined below), which means your total share of the settlement proceeds is estimated to be [REDACTED]. Your actual share of the settlement proceeds will vary depending on the total number of Class Members that choose to participate and the resolution of any workweek disputes as described in this notice.

The terms of the Agreement and a description of the case are identified in this notice. Pursuant to the Court's order, YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED AS FOLLOWS:

I. BACKGROUND OF THE CASE

On August 10, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Complaint against Defendants in the Sacramento County Superior Court of California on behalf of himself and Class Members. The term "Action" means this putative class action pending in Sacramento County Superior Court, Case No. 23CV006533. The Class Period is from August 10, 2019, to [REDACTED] (the "Class Period").

In the Action, Plaintiff sought to obtain unpaid wages, interest, statutory penalties, civil penalties, fees, and costs on behalf of himself, Class Members, and Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff alleged that Defendants violated California law by 1) failing to pay overtime wages, 2) failing to pay minimum wages, 3) failing to provide accurate wage statements, 4) failing to pay all final wages, 5) failing to maintain accurate records, 6) failing to provide paid sick leave, 7) failing to pay timely wages, 8) engaging in unfair competition, and 9) committing PAGA violations. Defendants have denied all of Plaintiff's allegations. The Action has been actively litigated. There have been on-going investigations, and there has been an exchange of extensive documentation and information. Furthermore, the Parties have participated in a full day mediation facilitated by a neutral third party. Based upon the negotiations, and all known facts and circumstances, including the various risks and uncertainties related to legal actions, the Parties reached a class-wide settlement. By settling, the Parties will avoid the risks associated with a lengthy litigation process. Despite agreeing to and supporting the Agreement, Defendants continue to deny all allegations and claims. Defendants have entered into this Settlement to fully, finally, and forever resolve this Action, based on the terms set forth in the Agreement, in order to avoid the burden and expense associated with ongoing litigation.

The Agreement applies to any and all Class Members, which are defined as all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 10, 2019, to [REDACTED]. The Agreement also applies to Aggrieved Employees, which are defined as all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 9, 2022, to [REDACTED]. If you are a Class Member, you have the opportunity to participate in the Settlement, or to exclude yourself ("opt out") from the Settlement. This notice is to advise Class Members of how they can either participate in the Settlement or be excluded from the Settlement. As set forth below, Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this Agreement as it relates to the PAGA Payment or Released PAGA Claims regardless of whether they opt out of being a Class Member. Aggrieved Employees will receive their share of the PAGA Payment regardless of whether they opt out of being a Class Member.

II. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A. The Amount of the Settlement

Under the terms of the Agreement, Defendants have agreed to pay a total sum of One Hundred Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars ($135,000) ("Gross Settlement Amount"). Deducted from this Gross Settlement Amount will be sums approved by the Court for attorneys' fees not to exceed 35% of the Gross Settlement Amount, attorneys' costs not to exceed $14,000, Settlement Administrator Costs estimated not to exceed $10,000, Class Representative's Enhancement Payment of $10,000, and $10,000 for alleged PAGA penalties (the "PAGA Payment"), which will result in a "Net Settlement Amount" for distribution to all Class Members. Any employer side taxes attributable to payments allocated as wages will be paid by Defendants in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. As explained further below, the amount of each Class Member's share of the Net Settlement Amount will depend on the number of weeks worked by participating Class Members during the Class Period. Of the $10,000 allocated to resolving the PAGA claims, 75% of the PAGA Payment will be paid to the State of California Labor and Workforce Development Agency and 25% of the PAGA Payment will be divided among Aggrieved Employees.

The number of weeks you worked in California during the Class Period and your estimated total share of the Net Settlement Amount and PAGA Payment ("Individual Settlement Amount") is stated on the first page of this notice. The actual amount received may be more or less than the amount stated depending on the actual number of weeks worked in California by Participating Class Members (i.e., those who do not opt out of the Settlement), the resolution of any disputes regarding workweeks, and on the distributions finally approved and allocated by the Court. However, whether Class Members opt out will have no effect on Aggrieved Employees' allocations for the PAGA claim.

B. Individual Settlement Amounts and Allocation Between Class Members and Aggrieved Employees

Defendants will pay Individual Settlement Amounts through the Settlement Administrator, as described below, to each Participating Class Member and to Aggrieved Employees. All Individual Settlement Amounts will be subject to appropriate taxation. The Parties have agreed, based on the allegations in the Action that all Individual Settlement Amounts payable to eligible Class Members will be allocated from the Net Settlement Amount and paid as 80% for disputed interest, statutory penalties, and other non-wage damages for which an IRS Forms 1099-MISC and 1099-INT will issue and 20% for disputed wages for which IRS Forms W-2 will issue. The PAGA Payment to Aggrieved employees will be paid as 100% for civil penalties.

Payment to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees will not require the submission of a claim form. Each Participating Class Member's share will be determined by dividing their total weeks worked in California within the Class Period by the total weeks worked by all Participating Class Members in California within the Class Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount to arrive at the Class Member's individual share of the Net Settlement Amount. Each Aggrieved Employee's share of the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment will be determined by dividing their total weeks worked in California within the PAGA Claim Period by the total weeks worked in California by all Aggrieved Employees within the PAGA Claim Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment to arrive at the Aggrieved Employee's individual share. The PAGA Claim Period is defined as August 9, 2022, up to [REDACTED]. Defendants' records indicate that you worked [REDACTED] weeks during the applicable PAGA Claim Period, which means your share of the PAGA Payment is estimated to be [REDACTED]. This amount is included in your estimated Individual Settlement Amount stated on the first page of this notice, not in addition to it. You will still receive your share of the PAGA Payment even if you opt out of being a Class Member. Receipt of the Individual Settlement Amounts will not entitle any Class Member or Aggrieved Employee to additional compensation or benefits under any compensation, retirement or benefit plan or agreement in place during the period covered by the Settlement.

C. Calculations to Be Based on Defendants' Records and Resolution of Workweek Disputes

For each Class Member, the amount payable will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator from Defendants' records. Defendants' records will be presumed correct unless evidence to the contrary is provided to the Settlement Administrator. Defendants' records and any additional evidence will be reviewed by the Settlement Administrator in the event of a dispute about the number of workweeks worked in California by an individual Class Member. If a Class Member disputes the accuracy of Defendants' records, all supporting documents evidencing additional workweeks must be submitted by the Class Member. The dispute must (a) identify the nature of the dispute; (b) provide any information or documentation supporting the dispute; (c) be signed; and (d) be post-marked no later than [REDACTED]. The dispute will be resolved by the Settlement Administrator based on the records and evidence provided.

D. Release of Claims

For those Class Members who do not opt out and Aggrieved Employees, the Agreement contains the following releases:

Class members who do not opt out will be deemed to have released any and all class claims that are alleged in the Complaint, and any additional wage and hour claims that could have been brought based on the facts alleged in the Complaint, through the Class Period. This release excludes the release of claims not permitted by law. The Released Class Claims exclude claims for workers' compensation or unemployment insurance benefits. This release will cover all Class Members who do not opt out.

Aggrieved Employees will be deemed to have released any and all claims that were brought under the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq., contained in the Complaint and any additional wage and hour PAGA claims that could have been brought based on the facts alleged in the Complaint during the PAGA Claim Period. Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this waiver of claims.

The individuals released ("Released Parties") include Defendants, as well as Defendants' parent companies, subsidiaries, officers, shareholders, directors, predecessors, successors, affiliates, assigns, agents, employees, attorneys, and insurers.

Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees can talk to one of the lawyers appointed as Class Counsel (listed below) for free or talk to their own lawyer if they have questions about the released claims and what they mean.

III. WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS AS A CLASS MEMBER

A. Participating in the Settlement as a Class Member

If you wish to be a Participating Class Member and believe your workweek information is accurate, you do not need to take any further action. Payment will be automatically made to you consistent with the terms of the Agreement and Court Order. If you wish to dispute the workweek calculation, you may follow the procedures outlined in Section II.C above. California law protects Class Members from retaliation based on their decision to participate in the Settlement.

B. Excluding Yourself from the Settlement as a Class Member

The Court will exclude you from being a Class Member if you request this by [REDACTED]. If you do not wish to be bound by the Settlement as a Class Member, you may request to be excluded (i.e., "opt out") by submitting a timely written request to the Settlement Administrator. The request to opt-out must (a) state your full name and date of birth; (b) a statement that you do not want to be a Class Member, do not want to participate in the Settlement, and/or wants to be excluded from this Settlement; (c) identify the case name and number (i.e. Willis v. GFP Enterprises, LLC, 23CV006533); (d) be signed; and (e) be post-marked no later than [REDACTED]. The request to opt out must be mailed by First Class U.S. Mail, or the equivalent, to:

[admin info]

If you submit a request to opt out which is not postmarked by [REDACTED], your request to opt out will be rejected, and you will be bound by the release and all other terms of the Agreement. Do not use a postage meter as that may not result in a postmark appearing on the envelope containing your request to opt out. Any Class Member who submits a complete and timely request to opt out shall, upon receipt by the Settlement Administrator, no longer be a Class Member and not receive their share of the Net Settlement Amount. Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this Agreement and will receive their share of the PAGA Payment regardless of whether they opt out of being a Class Member.

C. Objection to Settlement

If you do not opt out of the Settlement, you can object to the terms of the Settlement. However, if the Court rejects your objection, you will still be bound by the terms of the Settlement. You can ask the Court to deny approval by submitting an objection. You cannot ask the Court to order a larger settlement; the Court can only approve or deny the settlement. If the Court denies approval, no settlement payments will be sent out and the lawsuit will continue. The objection must (a) state your full name and date of birth; (b) provide evidence that you are, in fact, a Class Member; (c) state the reasons for the objection(s), including supporting documentation; (d) identify the case name and number (i.e. Willis v. GFP Enterprises, LLC, 23CV006533); (e) be signed; and (f) be post-marked no later than [REDACTED]. The objection must be sent to the Settlement Administrator at the address identified in Section III.B and to counsel for Plaintiff and Defendants at the addresses identified in Section VI of this notice.

In addition to submitting a written objection, you may also appear at the final approval hearing to state your objection. Any Class Member who does not request exclusion may, if the Class Member so desires, enter an appearance through an attorney. If you appear through your own attorney, you are responsible for paying that attorney. You should also file a notice of intent to appear with the Court and serve the notice on counsel for Plaintiff and Defendants.

IV. EFFECT OF THE SETTLEMENT: RELEASED RIGHTS AND CLAIMS

If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, the Court will make and enter judgment consistent therewith. A notice of entry of judgment will be filed with the Court and available online at its Public Portal. The judgment, whether favorable or not, will bind all Class Members who do not request exclusion. After final approval, each and every Class Member who does not opt out of the Settlement and Aggrieved Employee, will release Defendants and the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims and the Released PAGA Claims described above. In other words, if you were employed as a Class Member by Defendants in California during the Class Period, and you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will be deemed to have entered into these releases and to have released the above-described claims. In addition, you will be barred from ever suing Defendants and the Released Parties with respect to the claims covered by this Settlement. If the Settlement is not approved by the Court or does not become final for some other reason, the litigation will continue.

V. FINAL SETTLEMENT APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing in Department ___, [address] on [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] to determine whether the Agreement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate. The Court will also be asked to approve Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and costs, the Settlement Administrator Costs, and the Class Representative's Enhancement Payment. The hearing may be continued without further notice. It is not necessary for you to appear at this hearing.

1 I, Justin P. Rodriguez, declare:

2 1. I am an attorney at law duly admitted to practice before all the courts of the State of 3 California and an attorney of record for Plaintiff John Willis ("Plaintiff") herein. I am making this 4 declaration on behalf of the named Plaintiff, the putative class members, and in support of Plaintiff's 5 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement ("Motion"). A true and 6 correct copy of the Joint Stipulation Regarding Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release 7 ("Agreement") in this matter is filed with this Motion as Exhibit A.

8 2. This case was brought as a wage and hour class action based on Plaintiff's contention 9 that Defendants GFP Enterprises, LLC, Donald Pollard, and Ray Keener, ("Defendants") violated 10 California law by 1) failing to pay overtime wages, 2) failing to pay minimum wages, 3) failing to 11 provide accurate wage statements, 4) failing to timely pay all final wages, and 5) engaging in unfair 12 competition. Plaintiff also alleged liability for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act 13 ("PAGA"). These claims were based on allegations that Defendants violated California law by 1) 14 failing to incorporate the value of non-discretionary remuneration (e.g. bonuses, additional hourly 15 rates/differentials, etc.) in addition to the basic hourly rate when calculating the regular rate of pay for 16 overtime and sick leave wage premiums, 2) failing to pay any overtime and/or correctly calculate the 17 regular rate of pay for overtime and sick leave when Plaintiff earned daily rates and/or was provided 18 lodging in addition to their base hourly and/or daily rates of pay, 3) failing to keep accurate time 19 records and utilizing rounding when calculating Plaintiff's and similarly situated employees' hours 20 worked because a crew chief, instead of employees, recorded times for all employees without input and 21 verification from employees, 4) maintaining policies and procedures that prevented Plaintiff and 22 similarly situated employees from clocking in and out leading to Plaintiff and similarly situated 23 employees worked off-the-clock, and 5) failing to timely pay Plaintiff and similarly situated employees 24 their wages, including final wages. The PAGA, waiting time penalty, wage statement violation, and 25 unfair competition claims are derivative of these violations.

26 3. Plaintiff is the only named representative in this matter. From our initial investigations 27 of Plaintiff's claims and documents, we believed these claims had merit and could be maintained as a 28 class action. We filed the action on or about August 10, 2023. Plaintiff exhausted administrative remedies through the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) prior to amending the Complaint to add a PAGA claim. Plaintiff filed a notice with the LWDA on August 9, 2023, setting forth the facts and theories of liability. A true and correct copy of the notice filed with the LWDA is being filed with this Motion as Exhibit C. A copy of the notice was also sent to Defendants via certified mail and the $75.00 filing fee was remitted to the LWDA at that time. There was no response by the LWDA regarding its intent to investigate the claims alleged in Plaintiff’s notice for more than 65 days. As such, Plaintiff became authorized to commence a civil action under the PAGA and filed a First Amended Complaint on December 13, 2023. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s operative Complaint is filed with this Motion as Exhibit B. A copy of the Complaint was uploaded to the LWDA on April 9, 2024, after we received an endorsed copy back from Court. The facts alleged to support the PAGA claim in the LWDA notice are the same as the facts alleged in the Complaint.

4. Currently, there is no date set for a motion to certify the class and there is no trial date.

5. Defendants are represented in this matter by Fox Rothschild LLP. From the beginning, Defendants have contested the merits of this case, the suitability of the case for class action or representative treatment, the manageability of the case at trial, and Plaintiff’s ability to prove a violation in each pay period for each employee among other defenses and contentions they made challenging the propriety of this action. Defendants further contended, even assuming there was a finding supporting the imposition of PAGA penalties, that the Court would likely exercise its discretion to substantially reduce any such penalties owed based on evidence of good faith attempts to comply with California Labor Code obligations by Defendants. Defendant also contends that California law would not even apply to many of the weeks worked by Class Members to the extent they were weeks worked outside of California during the pay periods at issue in this case and, as such, California law would not apply pursuant to Sullivan v. Oracle Corp., 51 Cal.4th 1191 (2011). Notwithstanding its agreement to settle this matter, Defendants believe the practices Plaintiff is contending are unlawful either do not exist or, to the extent they do exist, fully comply with all state and federal employment laws with respect to Plaintiff and Class Members. Also, Defendants have contended that this matter is not appropriate for class certification outside of this proposed class settlement.

1 6. Based on the expected testimony from Plaintiff and Class Members, a review of 2 Defendants' policies and procedures and other documents relating to the alleged claims, information on 3 the number of Class Members, Class Members' dates of employment and work performed in California, 4 and a representative sample of Class Members' payroll data, the scope of the potential damages to 5 Plaintiff and Class Members in light of the claims alleged, the uncertainty in the law with regard to 6 certification, and the negotiations that have taken place, I am convinced that the proposed settlement is 7 in the best interest of the class. The length and risks of trial and other normal perils of litigation that 8 impact the value of the claims were also considered and weighed in reaching the Agreement. In 9 addition, I carefully considered the prospect of potential class certification issues as well as the 10 uncertainty of class certification, the difficulties of complex litigation, and the lengthy process of 11 establishing specific damages and various possible delays and appeals in agreeing to the proposed 12 settlement. I further considered the fact that penalties under the PAGA could be substantially cut at the 13 discretion of the Court even if Plaintiff was successful on proving those claims and there was risk that a 14 Court could find no willfulness in the failure to pay wages at separation, which would eliminate the 15 value of the waiting time penalty claim entirely. Overall, I believe it is more beneficial to secure a 16 guaranteed benefit to the class now rather than to proceed with litigation and potentially obtain zero 17 funds to the class due to legal or factual issues in the case.

18 7. My office, including my partner, Galen T. Shimoda, my associate, Renald Konini, our 19 paralegal, and myself, along with Plaintiff's assistance, thoroughly investigated the merits of the claims 20 and potential damages for such claims. The parties engaged in informal discovery and exchange of 21 documents, including a 20% representative sampling of employee data, such as timecards, paystubs, 22 payroll data and relevant policies for the entirety of the statute of limitations applicable to the alleged 23 claims. The discovery covered all aspects of the asserted claims, including certification issues, merits 24 issues, damages, the scope and configuration of Class Members, the content and implementation of the 25 wage and hour policies at issue, issues relating to manageability concerns at trial, among other relevant 26 areas. From this production we were able to determine information critical to a reliable damages 27 analysis such as the average hourly rate, daily hours worked, number of workweeks and pay periods that 28 had potential violations based on the asserted claims, the frequency with which violations occurred in a

1 given week and/or pay period, and the number of former employees. This information allowed my 2 office to assess both liability and damages and create an accurate damages model. Plaintiff assisted in 3 all aspects of this litigation including providing factual information relating to Plaintiff's and Class 4 Members' employment conditions, providing a substantial number of documents, and answering 5 questions regarding Defendants' factual contentions in this matter. This was important because it 6 directly related to our ability to maintain this case as a class action and our ability to obtain a favorable 7 settlement for the class.

8 8. Throughout this litigation our office had numerous communications with Defendants' 9 Counsel discussing our respective positions. Although we did not file the case until August 10, 2023, 10 our pre-filing investigation of the wage and hour claims and interviews began in May 2023, including 11 reviewing documents and seeking out potential witnesses to interview. This investigation and compiling 12 of supporting facts and documents continued up to and through the August filing date. Prior to agreeing 13 to engage in mediation, our office prepared written discovery to go out and start the formal discovery 14 process. However, prior to the formal written discovery being served, the parties were able to begin 15 discussing the possibility of mediation and utilizing informal discovery exchanges instead of formal 16 discovery. The parties engaged in mediation on February 23, 2024, using an experienced mediator, 17 Michael J. Loeb, Esq. It was only after approximately eleven (11) months of investigations and 18 extensive, arm's length negotiations that the parties were able to reach a settlement, which only occurred 19 after a full-day mediation. The negotiations were at all times contentious and adversarial, though still 20 professional in nature.

21 9. The following represents the potential maximum recovery for each of Plaintiff's claims 22 based on my office's analysis of Defendants' relevant policies and the data produced by Defendants, 23 including a sample of time and payroll records for Class Members. There were 3,770 workweeks in the 24 Class Period, 393 pay periods in the PAGA and statutory penalty statute of limitations, an average base 25 hourly rate of $26 and an average overtime rate of $39.

26 a). Unpaid Minimum Wages: This claim is based on allegations that Defendant failed to 27 pay Plaintiff and Class Members all minimum wages due to Defendants not keeping 28 accurate time records and utilizing rounding when calculating Plaintiff's and similarly

1 situated employees' hours worked. Plaintiff contended Defendants did not keep 2 accurate records because Plaintiff and similarly situated employees did not record their 3 own hours worked. Instead, Crew Chiefs recorded times for all employees on site and 4 Plaintiff and similarly situated employees did not review or approve these entries as 5 accurate. Based on interviews and the documents provided, Class Members did not 6 work the same set schedule every week. The number of days worked and hours per day 7 varied depending on the number and type of emergency response being provided by the 8 company. On average, Class Members worked approximately four (4) days per week.
9 Based on the interviews and documents provided, Plaintiff estimated that there was an 10 average of approximately 15 minutes per shift worked off-the-clock, which equals 11 approximately one hour per week. The maximum damages for this claim are $50,895, 12 which is entirely comprised of liquidated damages under California Labor Code section 13 1194.2 and based on a weighted average minimum wage rate of $13.50 per hour.
14 Plaintiff is only claiming liquidated damages under this claim because Plaintiff has also 15 assumed that all unpaid hours also qualified for overtime compensation. Thus, only 16 liquidated damages are claimed to avoid double recovery of substantive wage loss. This 17 amount does not take into account any potential risks with respect to Plaintiff proving 18 the merits or damages. Defendants heavily disputed that Plaintiff and similarly situated 19 employees worked off-the-clock, citing the regular payment of substantial regular and 20 overtime hours worked each pay period. Additionally, Defendants contended that, to the 21 extent any rounding of time did occur based on the method of timekeeping used, it was 22 always rounded in the favor of employees, creating an overpayment of hours worked 23 rather than underpayment. Finally, Defendants have asserted that a substantial majority 24 of Class Members deployed in California were not California residents. More than 50% 25 of the pay periods in the sample group had hours worked outside California in the same 26 pay period as hours worked inside California. These facts created substantial risks that 27 California law would not apply to all weeks worked by Class Members pursuant to 28 Sullivan v. Oracle Corp., 51 Cal.4th 1191 (2011), greatly reducing the amount of 1 potential damages available for all of Plaintiff's claims. Given the factual and legal 2 disputes, it is likely that a Court would find a good faith dispute, which entirely wipes 3 out a claim for liquidated damages. See Cal. Lab. Code § 1194.2(b). Taking these 4 factors into account, it is more realistic that there would not be any recovery for this 5 claim.

6 b). Unpaid Overtime Wages (Off-the-Clock): The off-the-clock theory of overtime liability 7 is based on the same factual allegations that formed the basis for the minimum wage 8 claims, which are stated above. The maximum damages for this claim are $147,030 9 ([3,770 workweeks x 1 hour off-the-clock per week] x $39 average overtime rate).
10 Plaintiff has assumed that all unpaid hours qualified as overtime. This amount does not 11 take into account any potential risks with respect to Plaintiff proving the merits or 12 damages. Because this theory of liability is based on the same facts supporting the 13 minimum wage claims, it is subject to the same risks identified above. Pursuant to 14 Sullivan and the fact that more than 50% of the applicable workweeks may not be 15 subject to California's wage and hour laws, I believe a more realistic range of recovery 16 for this theory of liability is between $36,757.50 to $73,515 (50% to 75% reduction 17 based on risk).

18 Unpaid Overtime based on RROP: This theory of liability for unpaid overtime is based 19 on allegations that Defendant failed to calculate overtime on daily rate payments or 20 incorporate the value of bonuses, additional hourly rate payments in lieu of health and 21 welfare benefits, and value of lodging when calculating the regular rate of pay for 22 premium purposes such as overtime. The maximum damages for this claim is 23 $409,438.49. Daily rates were only paid in approximately 9.3% pay periods and caused 24 an average of approximately $243.75 in unpaid overtime for each instance. Over 1,885 25 bi-weekly pay periods, this equates to approximately $42,730.59. The remaining 26 overtime underpayments arose from the failure to incorporate the value of hourly 27 payments in lieu of health and welfare benefits and lodging. There were no bonuses 28 paid within the sample group. The average amount of unpaid overtime per week based on these payments was approximately $97.27, which equals a total of $366,707.90 in unpaid overtime. These amounts do not take into account any potential risks with respect to Plaintiff proving the merits or damages, which was heavily disputed. For example, Defendants contended that since they provide services under Federal contracts, the Service Contract Act does not allow for fringe benefit payments to be included in the calculation for the regular rate of pay. See 41 U.S.C. § 6707(e); Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Services, Inc., 172 Cal.App.4th 654, 662 (2009). This presented a substantial risk to this claim since because these types of payments were the most frequent and of the highest amounts paid. Removing the value of hourly payments in lieu of health and welfare benefits from the regular rate of pay calculation would reduce this category of damages by approximately 90%. Taking these factors into account, I believe a more realistic range of recovery for this theory of liability is between $79,401.38 to $226,084.54 (50% to 90% reduction based on risk for amounts associated with the health and welfare benefits payments plus the daily rate damages calculation).

c). Wage Statement Violations: This claim is derivative of Plaintiffs' overtime, and minimum wage claims. The maximum exposure for this claim is $19,650, which is calculated based on an initial violation $50 per pay period per employee (393 pay periods x $50 = $19,650). Based on our research, we did not find any prior Labor Commissioner or court decisions that stated Defendant's practices and/or policies were improper. As such, a "subsequent violation" may not be found for penalty calculation purposes and the exposure analysis here is based on an "initial violation" valuation being adopted by any fact finder if this matter went to trial. This amount does not take into account the potential risks associated with this claim and assumes a violation in every pay period. Because this claim is derivative of Plaintiff's other claims, the same risks identified above for Plaintiff's minimum wages and overtime claims equally apply here, substantially affecting the potential value of this claim. As noted above, the Defendants heavily disputed whether there was any underpayment of wages resulting from off-the-clock work and whether California law would even apply to the majority of workweeks at issue in this case. Given the recent case of Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., No. S279397, 2024 WL 1979980 (Cal. May 6, 2024), it is likely that a good faith dispute will be found for the majority of claimed violations. If limited to the regular rate violations based on the failure to calculate overtime on daily rate payments, this would reduce the wage statement violation rate to 9.3% of pay periods. Taking these factors into account, a more realistic range of recovery for this claim is $0 to $1,827.45 ([393 pay periods x 9.3%] x $50 per pay period).

- d). Sick Leave: This claim was based on the allegations that Defendants failed to correctly calculate the regular rate of pay for sick leave. However, review of the sample did not reveal any violations for this claim as there was no sick leave paid in the sample group. Thus, there was no separate value associated with this claim.
- e). Waiting Time Penalties: This claim is derivative of the minimum wage and overtime claims above. Review of the sample did not reveal any instances where individuals were being paid final wages only at normal pay period intervals rather than at termination or within 72 hours of resignation. There were approximately 159 former employees within the waiting time penalty statute of limitations and the average shift length was approximately 12.68 hours. The daily rate of pay for these individuals is approximately $399.36 ([8 regular hours * $26 average hourly rate] + [4 overtime hours x $39 average overtime rate] + [.68 double time hours x $52 average double time rate]). This equates to a maximum exposure of $1,904,947.20. However, this amount does not take into account the potential risks associated with this claim. Because this claim is derivative, the same risks mentioned above also apply to this claim. Similar to the liquidated damages for minimum wage violations, there is a good faith dispute defense to waiting time penalty claims. See Diaz v. Grill Concepts Servs., Inc., 23 Cal.App.5th 859, 868 (2018). Based on the facts of this case, it is more realistic that there would be a good faith dispute to a substantial majority of the claims. Approximately 15% of individuals were paid a daily rate at some point in their employment. I believe that the failure to calculate overtime for daily rate payments is the strongest claim alleged. Thus,

1 I believe a more realistic range of recovery for this claim is between $0 and 2 $285,742.08.

3 f). PAGA: This claim is derivative of the Labor Code violations identified above and would 4 be subject to all the same risks as the underlying claims it is based on. Additionally, 5 based on our research, we did not find any prior Labor Commissioner or court decisions 6 that stated Defendants' practices and/or policies were improper. As such, a "subsequent 7 violation" may not be found for penalty calculation purposes, and the exposure analysis 8 here is based on an "initial violation" valuation being adopted by any fact finder if this 9 matter went to trial. See Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1207-10 1209 (2008). Based on Class Members' payroll data and the violations alleged to the 11 LWDA, the maximum exposure for this claim is $2,121,997.20. This amount does not 12 take into account any of the risks in proving the merits of the underlying claims that the 13 PAGA claim is based on. Beyond the risks on the merits, the correct valuation of civil 14 penalty amounts for certain claims under PAGA were in dispute. For example, our 15 damages calculation valued civil penalties for failure to pay final wages under Labor 16 Code section 256 (which provides the civil penalty amount will not exceed 30 days' pay 17 as waiting time under the terms of Section 203) for a total of $1,904,947.20 instead of 18 $15,900 based on the default $100 per violation for the final pay period for each 19 employee who we alleged was not timely paid final wages. An adverse finding on this 20 single issue would drastically reduce the PAGA damages from $2,121,997.20 to 21 $232,950. Using the same reductions based on risk for the underlying claims the PAGA 22 claim is based on and the default PAGA penalty calculation for waiting time penalty 23 violations, total PAGA damages would be reduced to $134,679.90. In addition to the 24 risks on the merits and disputes regarding the proper valuation of the penalty amounts, I 25 believe the Court may exercise its discretion to reduce PAGA penalties in this case since 26 Courts are statutorily authorized to use discretion to reduce penalties and the range of 27 discretion used varies substantially. See Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc., 203 28 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (2012) (30% reduction); Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., 2011 U.S.

1 DIST. LEXIS 154590, *9 (C.D. Cal. 2011) (82% reduction). The 82% reduction 2 equates to roughly $9-$50 worth of civil penalties per pay period per employee 3 depending on the total potential value of the civil penalty (i.e. $50-$250), which is more 4 in line with actual awards based on my experience and review of awards in other cases.
5 Thus, the total exposure may be cut further to approximately $24,242.38 (82% 6 reduction) to $94,275.93 (30%) or lower. It is important to note that this discretionary 7 reduction is completely separate and in addition to any risks on the merits. Given the 8 substantial risks associated with the claims, we believe the amount that might ultimately 9 be awarded under this claim would be significantly lower than our maximum exposure 10 calculation. Allocating $10,000 to the PAGA claims in this case is appropriate, 11 especially in light of amounts that Courts have approved as reasonable valuations in 12 other cases. See Nordstrom Com. Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 589 (2010) (approving 13 $0 allocation to the resolution of PAGA claims based on their being disputed and being 14 part of a class settlement which was evaluated based on the terms of the agreement 15 overall); Junkersfeld v. Med. Staffing Sols., Inc., 2022 WL 2318173, at *8 n.2 (E.D. Cal.

19 recovery); Ruch v. AM Retail Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5462451, *7 (N.D. Cal. 2016)

5 calculated at $53,600,000, or 0.2% of total estimated value); Garcia v. Gordon 7 $10,000 PAGA allocation in a $3,700,000 settlement); Franco v. Ruiz Food Prod., Inc., 8 2012 WL 5941801, at *14 (E.D. Cal. 2012) ($10,000 in PAGA payment from 9 $2,500,000 settlement fund); Chu v. Wells Fargo Investments, LLC, 2011 WL 672645, 10 at *1 (N.D. Cal. 2011) (approving PAGA settlement payment of $7,500 to the LWDA 11 out of $6.9 million common-fund settlement).

12 10. In summary, the maximum recovery for the asserted claims is $4,793,151.24 and the 13 more likely range of recovery for the claims is between $169,456.89 and $756,385.93. These amounts 14 are inclusive of interest on unpaid wages. Plaintiff's gross recovery of $135,000 under the Agreement 15 equals approximately 2.8% of the maximum value of the claims and between 17.9% and 80% of the 16 more realistic range of recovery. After deducting from the Gross Settlement Amount the proposed 17 allocations for attorneys' fees and costs, any Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative, 18 Settlement Administrator Costs, and the PAGA Payment, the net recovery under the Agreement, 19 $43,750, represents approximately 1% of the maximum value of the claims in this matter. The net 20 recovery also represents between 6% and 26% of the more realistic range of recovery. The average net 21 award is approximately $130.60. I believe the Agreement represents a reasonable compromise of 22 claims based on the legal and factual disputes in this case. The ability to secure a guaranteed settlement 23 now and ensure Class Members receive some compensation, rather than proceed to further litigation 24 and potentially recover nothing, was a motivating factor in reaching this Agreement.

25 11. In agreeing to represent Plaintiff and take on the case for all Class Members, our office 26 agreed to take this case on a contingency basis, meaning that we would take a percentage of any 27 settlement or judgment should we recover a monetary amount. We took a risk that we would not 28 recover any money in this matter if we were unsuccessful at trial. We also took on the risk that the case

1 may be subject to an unfavorable summary judgment ruling. However, we believe it is important to 2 make sure employees are able to find affordable representation in order to ensure that employers are 3 complying with all their legal obligations towards employees and paying employees all their hard-4 earned wages.

was recognized as a Super Lawyer (Rising Star) from approximately 2009 to 2013 and was recognized as a Super Lawyer from 2014 to present.

16. Mr. Shimoda has practiced law in California since being admitted to the State Bar in 2003, litigating wage and hour class actions and individual wage and hour litigation among other cases. Mr. Shimoda began practicing class action law on the defense side at the firm of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP. He then switched to plaintiff class action work in 2005. His class action experience is in wage and hour law. Mr. Shimoda has litigated several class action cases in California State and Federal Courts, including up to certification, settlement, preliminary and final approval, and disbursement of monies, and has been found to be satisfy the adequacy requirements for class counsel. Some of the class action and/or PAGA cases he is litigating and/or has litigated as lead or co-counsel include the following:

17. The preceding list of cases does not include those where, for a variety of reasons, the case was initially filed as a class and/or PAGA action, but did not maintain that status through the end of the case.

18. My associate, Renald Konini, Esq., also worked with me on this case. In May 2011, Mr. Konini graduated from Seton Hall University School of Law. Prior to moving to California, he practiced law in New Jersey. While working for my firm, Mr. Konini has worked on a variety of individual and class action cases, including those involving wage and hour claims, Private Attorney General Act claims, wrongful termination claims, discrimination claims, retaliation claims, and harassment claims. Mr. Konini passed the July 2016 California Bar Examination and started practicing as an associate at my firm from approximately April 2019 to February 2021 and rejoined my firm in September 2022. Mr. Konini has worked on written discovery and depositions, calculating class-wide damages, communicating with class representatives, drafting briefs and motions, and more. Mr. Konini worked on other class and/or PAGA wage and hour actions that my firm has filed, namely Bertelli v. Air Products and Chemicals, Inc., Case No. 34-2018-00236898 (Sac. Sup. Ct.), Carr v. Howroyd-Wright Employment Agency, Inc., Case No. 34-2018-00228290 (Sac. Sup. Ct.), Gomez v. Vander Schaaf Dairy, et al., Case No. STK-CV-UOE-2020-0003954 (San Joaquin Sup. Ct.), Haggins v. Kelly Services, Inc., Case No. 34-2017-00220473 (Sac. Sup. Ct.), Hussaini v. Integrated Resources, Inc., et al, Case No. 34-2021-00297152 (Sac. Sup. Ct.), Kee, et al. v. Dr. Jeffrey A. Saladin, Dental Corporation (D/B/A Children's Choice Pediatric Dental Care), et al., Case No. 34-2020-00290072 (Sac. Sup. Ct.), Lear v. Raxium, Inc., Case No. 21CV004358 (Alameda Sup. Ct.), Serrano v. Cool Time, LLC, Case No. 34-2021-00312356 (Sac. Sup. Ct.), Grebe v. Mary Ann's Baking Co., Inc., Case No. 34-2020-00285254-CU-OE-GDS (Sac. Sup. Ct.), Fujimoto v. Nabe-Ya, Inc., et al., Case No. 20CV01255 (Butte Sup. Ct.), Massey v. V3 Electric, Inc., et al., Case No. 34-2019-00263666 (Sac. Sup. Ct.), Miller v. Caldwell Transportation Company, LLC, et al., Case No. 34-2018-00234954 (Sac. Sup. Ct.), Pek, et al v. Varris Management, Inc., Case No. STK-CV-UOE-2020-3954 (San Joaquin Sup. Ct.), Valencia v. Lowbrau Bier Garten, LLC, et al., Case No. 34-2019-00258038 (Sac Sup. Ct). Mr. Konini's practice largely revolves around wage and hour matters, including PAGA claims.

19. In connection with any final approval hearing, I will be seeking attorneys' fees and costs, an Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative, and Settlement Administrator Costs as set forth in the Agreement. I will be requesting attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to the common fund doctrine as I believe it to be applicable to the present case pursuant to Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34-35 (1977), Laffitte v. Robert Half Internat. Inc., 1 Cal.5th 480 (2016), and Paul, Johnson, Alston & Hunt v. Gaulty, 886 F.2d 268, 271 (9th Cir. 1989). The facts and case law supporting the requested amounts will be set forth in the final approval motion, including information for the Court to perform a

1 lodestar cross check of the requested attorney's fees, quantify the amount of time spent by Plaintiff on 2 this case and any further risks and/or burdens incurred as a result of acting as Class Representative, an 3 updated declaration in support of actual litigation costs and itemized cost spreadsheet, and declaration 4 from the Settlement Administrator detailing the work performed and Settlement Administrator Costs 5 incurred. My firm's expected costs through final approval are not expected to exceed $14,000.
6 Attached as Exhibit E is a true and correct copy of the costs incurred prior to the filing of this Motion 7 and the expected costs incurred through the final approval and fairness hearing. Any difference in the 8 awarded fees and costs, Class Representative's Enhancement Payment, and Settlement Administrator 9 Costs and the amounts allocated for each under the Agreement will be added back to the Net Settlement 10 Amount and distributed pro rata to Class Members.

11 20. I have used several class action administrator companies in the wage and hour class 12 actions I have resolved in the past and believe ILYM Group, Inc. will provide the best service to 13 administer the proposed class settlement. ILYM Group, Inc. has provided a quote for the estimated 14 maximum cost of administering the class settlement of approximately $7,650. A true and correct copy 15 of a cost estimate provided by ILYM Group, Inc. is filed with this Motion as Exhibit D. This is only an 16 estimate, and final pricing may vary depending on the issues, if any, that arise during the administration 17 of the settlement. However, the difference between the actual, lesser costs and $10,000, if any, will be 18 paid to the Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.

19 21. A copy of the Agreement and the entire Motion was submitted to the LWDA for review 20 at the same time the Motion was submitted to the Court pursuant to California Labor Code section 21 2699(1)(2). A true and correct copy of documents demonstrating the settlement documents were 22 provided to the LWDA and that the LWDA has confirmed receipt are being filed with this Motion as 23 Exhibit G.

24 22. A true and correct copy of the proposed Notice of Settlement is being filed with this 25 Motion as Exhibit F.

26 23. The designated cy pres beneficiaries in this case are Capital Pro Bono, Inc. ("CPB") and 27 The Center For Workers Rights ("CFWR"). Only those funds that remain from uncashed settlement 28 checks will be sent to the cy pres beneficiaries pursuant to section 5.6 of the Agreement.

1 24. CPB is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit in good standing with the State of California that was 2 established in 1981 and incorporated in 1986 to provide free civil legal services to the indigent, 3 primarily through the use of volunteer attorneys. The formal service area includes Sacramento, Yolo, 4 San Joaquin, El Dorado and Placer counties, however it also regularly provides assistance, whether in 5 person or by phone, to individuals residing outside those counties, including Solano, Nevada, Merced, 6 Sutter, Yuba, and Stanislaus counties. CPB changed its name in 2020 from Voluntary Legal Services 7 Program of Northern California (“VLSP”) to Capital Pro Bono, Inc. CPB has been the recipient of cy
8 pres funds from several jurisdictions in the State of California, including from Sacramento County 9 Superior Court.

10 25. If CPB is approved as a cy pres beneficiary, any funds received will be dedicated to the 11 Employment Law Clinic and Advice Line project, which assists the indigent with legal matters related to 12 their current or former employment. This assistance regularly includes, but is not limited to, free legal 13 advice regarding claims for unpaid wages, failure to provide meal and rest periods, failure to pay 14 reimbursement, and waiting time penalty claims. CPB provides legal advice, assistance with legal 15 forms, and direct representation in administrative hearings, including administrative hearings in front of 16 the California Labor Commissioner for unpaid wages. CPB has a staff attorney and clinic coordinator 17 who provide assistance, along with experienced employment law attorney volunteers. These services 18 have been a focus of the Employment Law Clinic and Advice Line project since its inception with VLSP 19 and continuing through today under CPB.

20 26. CFWR is also a qualified cy pres designee in class actions, under section 384, as it is a 21 501(c)(3) nonprofit in good standing with the State of California providing free civil legal services to the 22 indigent. Since its inception in 2014 and in partnership with Legal Aid at Work, the CFWR offers one-23 on-one legal consultations for low-wage workers. The CFWR discusses employment issues with 24 workers and advises them as to the available legal remedies. In addition to individual counseling on 25 employment issues, the CFWR educates workers, unions, and community members about workplace 26 laws and remedies through “Know-Your-Rights” trainings conducted by the CFWR staff and volunteers.

27 27. The CFWR provides limited representation for low-wage workers in wage claims before 28 the California Labor Commissioner. The CFWR has provided services to low-wage workers in a variety

1 of industries across the entire state of California. CFWR primarily focuses on the enforcement of basic 2 workplace protections, including claims for unpaid wages, minimum wage violations, failure to pay 3 overtime, failure to pay reimbursement, waiting time penalties, and meal and rest period violations. The 4 CFWR helps workers navigate the wage claim process before the California Labor Commissioner 5 through advice given at its legal consultation clinics and/or, in some cases, through representing workers 6 in these claims. If the CFWR is approved as a cy pres beneficiary, the funds received will be dedicated 7 towards assisting low-wage workers with wage claims and enforcing the California Labor Code with 8 respect to those wage claims.

9 28. I believe the services provided by CPB and the CFWR promote the law consistent with 10 the objective of wage and hour class actions in general and in this case specifically.

11 29. I have spoken with every other attorney at my firm to determine whether they have any 12 relationship with either of the proposed cy pres beneficiaries.

13 30. I have volunteered for both organizations numerous times over the past several years, 14 either directly in the advice clinics or by presenting seminars on wage and hour laws for law students 15 seeking to also volunteer at advice clinics. I have also volunteered by sitting on CPB's advisory 16 committee. These organizations are non-profits that assist low-income workers throughout California, 17 giving free legal advice regarding employment law issues and representing employees with wage claims 18 before the California Labor Commissioner. I have witnessed firsthand the quality service and attention 19 these entities provide to individuals in need of employment law advice and representation at the 20 California Labor Commissioner.

21 31. Galen T. Shimoda has volunteered for both organizations on and off over the past several 22 years through either presenting wage and hour seminars to law students who staff the free advice clinics 23 or helping at the advice clinics themselves. However, Mr. Shimoda has not performed any volunteer 24 work with either organization since approximately March 2020. Mr. Shimoda has never received 25 payment or compensation of any kind in connection with any work he's done with either of the proposed 26 cy pres beneficiaries.

27 32. Renald Konini has never done any work, volunteer or otherwise with Capital Pro Bono, 28 Inc. or the Center For Workers' Rights. Neither my firm, myself, Mr. Konini, nor Mr. Shimoda have

1 ever received any compensation, direct or indirect, for designating CFWR or CPB as cy pres 2 beneficiaries or in connection with any of the volunteer work we have done with the organizations.

3 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is 4 true and correct. Executed on May 16, 2024, in Sacramento, California.

CLASS ACTION

DECLARATION OF JOHN WILLIS IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT

Reservation No. A-06533-001

Date: June 14, 2024
Time: 9:00 a.m.
Dept.: 23
Judge: Hon. Jill H. Talley

Filed: August 10, 2023
FAC Filed: December 13, 2023
Trial Date: None Set

1 I, John Willis, declare:

2 1. I am a competent adult, I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this 3 declaration, and I am making this declaration on behalf of myself, as a named plaintiff, and in support 4 of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement.

5 2. I worked for Defendants GFP Enterprises, LLC, Donald Pollard, and Ray Keener 6 ("Defendants") in California from approximately August 7, 2022, to September 3, 2022, as a non-7 exempt employee. I was subject to all of Defendants' policies and practices that have been alleged as 8 unlawful in the Complaint and the notice sent to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, 9 including the following: failure to pay overtime, failure to pay minimum wages, failure to provide 10 accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay final wages, and violation of Labor Code section 558, 11 failure to pay all sick wages owed, and untimely payment of wages.

12 3. I have actively participated in the litigation of this case for the benefit of all Class 13 Members. Prior to obtaining an attorney, I researched the claims and attorneys that I felt would do a 14 good job bringing the claims. I did this so I could be sure I understood what the important pieces of 15 information were and be able to discuss those topics with the attorneys during our initial discussions 16 assessing the claims. I wanted to make sure I also had a good idea of what to expect during the case 17 and how it would proceed to trial. After securing Shimoda & Rodriguez Law, PC, I continued to be 18 actively involved in the case to help ensure a positive outcome.

19 4. My attorneys explained to me the risks and benefits of bringing a class action and a 20 claim under the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA"). I understood that pursuing the case as a 21 class and PAGA action meant that it would take substantially longer than pursuing my claims 22 individually, whether in Court or with the California Labor Commissioner, and that I risked getting 23 nothing in the end, but I believed it was important to make sure that Defendants followed the law for 24 everyone. I also understood that there was a professional and financial risk in pursuing the case as a 25 class and PAGA action rather than pursuing my claims individually as there was a risk of having to pay 26 Defendants' costs if we were unsuccessful in bringing our claims.

27 5. During the course of this litigation, I have given detailed accounts of all the facts related 28 to my employment. I provided my attorneys with documentation that I believe supported the claims

1 brought against Defendants, including emails, employer policies, payroll records, and timecards 2 regarding the wage and hour issues raised in the litigation. I met with and assisted my attorneys in 3 understanding these documents and providing context for Defendants' payroll process as it applied to 4 me and how I believed it applied to Defendants' other employees. I worked for Defendants several 5 different locations in California with different crew compositions, which I believe enabled me to 6 discuss the similarities of the wage and hour policies and practices among all Class Members.

7 6. The work I performed for this case included an extensive review of documents and 8 payroll practices to show and explain to my attorneys what was happening and why I thought it was 9 unlawful. For example, I searched for and reviewed many documents and work-related documents to 10 show and explain to my attorneys what was happening and why I believed certain practices were 11 unlawful. I helped review and explain to my attorney's different documents such as paystubs and time 12 records, payroll policies, bonus policies, employee handbooks, and timesheets. I also went through each 13 document to describe how they all fit into the typical workday, the claims, potential witnesses to 14 corroborate each issue, and other ways in which I felt they were important. A substantial amount of 15 time was spent discussing the bonus compensation plans, additional hourly rates/differentials, and 16 alternative compensation plans such as daily rates and lodging payments when calculating overtime and 17 sick leave wage payments. I believe going through the various elements of the bonus plan, hourly rate 18 differentials, daily rates, and lodging to support our contention that it was non-discretionary and should 19 have been included in the regular rate of pay for overtime and sick leave wages, was very important to 20 the claims because it had an impact for all the derivative claims like wage statement violations, waiting 21 time penalties, and PAGA penalties. Going over the differing ways any such bonuses, different rates, 22 daily rates, and lodging could be earned, conversations regarding the terms that I had with management 23 and supervisors, and the factual circumstances surrounding each paid bonus and/or pay rate and lodging 24 was critical. I went through my pay history with my attorneys to explain how the payments were 25 documented on our paystubs and what other indicators they could look for in the records to demonstrate 26 the type of bonuses and pay rates paid and circumstances surrounding the bonus and additional hourly 27 rates differentials. Also, I explained to my attorneys how Defendants kept time records and how 28 rounding hours worked happened when calculating my and other similarly situated employees' owed

1 wages. Additionally, I explained how Defendants' policies prevented myself and other similarly 2 situated employees from clocking in and out which led to working off-the-clock. Further detail and 3 review was required when my attorneys asked me questions about the payroll data sample that was 4 produced as part of informal discovery to engage in mediation.

5 7. I participated in the negotiations and settlement discussions in this case, including 6 participating in mediation by phone, speaking with my attorneys to answer questions, provide any 7 additional information needed to assist the negotiations, and discussing the potential terms of the 8 Agreement to evaluate its adequacy. Throughout the course of this litigation I have asked questions 9 when I needed clarification about various aspects of this case to make sure steps were continually taken 10 to advance the interests of Class Members.

11 8. Overall, I have spent approximately 45-55 hours assisting in the prosecution of the wage 12 and hour claims in this case. I expect the amount of time I spend on this case will increase if 13 preliminary approval is granted because Class Members will likely reach out to me about the 14 Settlement and the process for receiving payment.

15 9. I have not received any benefits as a result of filing this lawsuit. I have, however, 16 experienced substantial burdens as a result of filing the lawsuit that other Class Members were not 17 subject to. For example, in bringing the lawsuit, I assumed the risk of having to pay Defendants' costs 18 if the Court or jury rules against us on the claims. My understanding is that this is a substantial risk 19 because the costs associated with litigation, in general, are very high and this cost is multiplied many 20 times over in complex litigation like class actions. I have spent a substantial amount of time in this 21 case, securing a monetary benefit for many individuals who have not had to do anything whatsoever to 22 have the opportunity to receive it. Rather than spend this time with friends and family, I have spent this 23 time for the benefit of Class Members. I have also experienced a substantial amount of stress as a result 24 of this litigation and feel that I have lost employment opportunities because of this lawsuit. This hazard 25 response and firefighting industry is relatively small for employment opportunities and having sued one 26 of the few employers in this field I think has made it less likely a future employer would consider 27 hiring me. Finally, as part of the Settlement, I am the only individual providing a broad, general release 28

1 of all my individual claims, whether known or unknown. No other Class Member is subject to such a 2 broad release.

3 10. I have reviewed the final Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and 4 Release, discussed the terms with my attorney, and asked my attorney any questions I had. I believe 5 the terms of the Settlement and allocations are fair and reasonable given the facts of the case.

6 11. I understand that any Class Representative Enhancement Payment I may receive is for 7 my participation as a Class Representative and it is not contingent on my support or approval of the 8 Agreement.

9 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR RESPECTIVE COUNSEL OF RECORD:

2 The Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Motion”) in the 3 above referenced case came before this Court, on June 14, 2024, at 9:00 a.m., in Department 23 before 4 the Honorable Jill H. Talley, presiding. Plaintiff John Willis (“Plaintiff”) filed this putative class 5 action on August 10, 2023. The operative Complaint alleges that Defendants GFP Enterprises, LLC, 6 Donald Pollard, and Ray Keener (“Defendants”) violated California law by 1) failing to pay overtime 7 wages, 2) failing to pay minimum wages, 3) failing to provide accurate wage statements, 4) failing to 8 timely pay all final wages, and 5) engaging in unfair competition. Plaintiff has also alleged 9 Defendants are liable for a civil penalties under the Private Attorney’s General Act (“PAGA”) based 10 on these violations. Plaintiff sought attorneys’ fees and costs as part of this Action. Defendants 11 denied all of Plaintiff’s claims and denied that this case was appropriate for class treatment. No class 12 has been certified.

13 The parties have agreed to settle the class and PAGA claims. Defendants will provide 14 monetary consideration in exchange for a release of claims consistent with the terms of the proposed 15 settlement as set forth in the Joint Stipulation Regarding Class Action and PAGA Settlement and 16 Release (“Agreement” or “Settlement”). Any capitalized terms herein shall have the same meaning as 17 set forth in the Agreement. The Court, having received and considered Plaintiff’s Motion for 18 Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, the declarations in support, the 19 Agreement, the proposed Notice of Settlement, and other evidence, HEREBY ORDERS AND 20 MAKES DETERMINATIONS AS FOLLOWS:

21 I. PRELIMINARILY CERTIFYING A SETTLEMENT CLASS; APPOINTMENT OF 22 CLASS REPRESENTATIVES; APPOINTMENT OF CLASS COUNSEL

23 The Court finds that certification of the following class for settlement purposes only is 24 appropriate under the California Code of Civil Procedure and related case law:

25 All non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at 26 any time between August 10, 2019, up to April 23, 2024.

1 The Court recognizes that the foregoing definition is for Class Member identification purposes 2 only and is not intended to capture the claims at issue or limit or alter the released claims under the 3 Agreement.

4 The Court finds that Class Members meet the ascertainability and numerosity requirements since 5 the parties can identify with a matter of certainty, based on payroll records, individuals who fall within 6 the definition and the number of Class Members would make joinder impractical. The commonality and 7 predominance requirements are met for settlement purposes since there are questions of law and fact 8 common to Class Members. The common questions of law or fact in this case all stem from Plaintiff's 9 contentions that Defendants caused the violations outlined above by 1) failing to incorporate the value of 10 non-discretionary remuneration (e.g. bonuses, additional hourly rates/differentials) in addition to the 11 basic hourly rate when calculating the regular rate of pay for overtime and sick leave wage premiums, 2) 12 failing to pay any overtime and/or correctly calculate the regular rate of pay for overtime and sick leave 13 when Plaintiff earned daily rates and/or provided lodging in addition to their base hourly and/or daily 14 rates of pay, 3) failing to keep accurate time records and utilizing rounding when calculating Plaintiff's 15 and similarly situated employees' hours worked because a crew chief, instead of employees, recorded 16 times for all employees without input and verification from employees, 4) maintaining policies and 17 procedures that prevented Plaintiff and similarly situated employees from clocking in and out leading to 18 Plaintiff and similarly situated employees worked off-the-clock since Defendants did not keep track of 19 their start and stop times, 5) failing to timely pay Plaintiff and similarly situated employees' wages, 20 including final wages. The PAGA, waiting time penalty, wage statement violation, and unfair 21 competition claims also derive from these violations. Additionally, Class Members seek the same 22 remedies under state law. The typicality requirement for settlement purposes is also satisfied since the 23 claims of the Class Representative is based on the same facts and legal theories as those applicable to the 24 class members.

25 The Court also finds that preliminarily and conditionally certifying the settlement class is 26 required to avoid each Class Member from litigating similar claims individually. This Settlement will 27 achieve economies of scale for Class Members with relatively small individual claims and conserve the 28 resources of the judicial system.

1 The Court finds that Plaintiff John Willis and Plaintiff's counsel, Galen T. Shimoda, 2 Justin P. Rodriguez, and Renald Konini of Shimoda & Rodriguez Law, PC, to be adequate 3 representatives of the settlement class. The Court appoints them as Class Representative and Class 4 Counsel, respectively.

5 II. PRELIMINARILY APPROVING CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT

6 The Court has reviewed the Agreement, which was submitted with Plaintiff's Motion as Exhibit 7 A. The Court finds, on a preliminary and conditional basis, that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and 8 adequate and falls within the range of reasonableness of a settlement that could ultimately be given final 9 approval by this Court. The Court finds the Settlement was agreed upon only after extensive 10 investigation, litigation, and arms-length negotiations by counsel experienced in complex litigation, who 11 took reasonable steps and measures to weigh the potential value of the disputed claims against the risks 12 of continued litigation. The Court also acknowledges that Class Members may present any objections to 13 the Settlement at a fairness hearing approved by this Court or opt-out of being bound by the 14 preliminarily approved Agreement. The Court preliminarily approves the Agreement and all terms 15 therein as if stated here in full, including the $135,000 Gross Settlement Amount.

16 The Court approves of ILYM Group, Inc. acting as the Settlement Administrator in this case and 17 hereby appoints them to fulfill those duties as outlined in the Agreement.

18 The Court finds that an award of fees under the common fund doctrine may be appropriate in this 19 case because there is a sufficiently identifiable class of beneficiaries (i.e. Class Members), the benefits 20 that Plaintiff and Class Counsel were able to negotiate on behalf of Class Members can be accurately 21 traced as set forth in the Agreement, and the fee can be shifted with exactitude to those benefiting as the 22 fee request is a specific, lump-sum percentage of the Gross Settlement Amount. See Laffitte v. Robert 23 Half Internat., Inc., 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 (2016); Paul, Johnson, Alston & Hunt v. Gaulty, 886 F.2d 268, 24 271 (9th Cir. 1989); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 477-478 (1980) ("A lawyer who recovers 25 a common fund for the benefit of persons other than . . . her client is entitled to a reasonable attorney's 26 fee from the fund as a whole."). The amounts allocated under the Agreement for attorney's fees and 27 costs, for an Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative, and Settlement Administrator Costs 28 shall be included in the Notice of Settlement to enable Class Members to review and comment thereon.

1 The Court will consider the reaction of Class Members when evaluating the reasonableness of the 2 requested amounts at final approval. See In re Heritage Bond Litig., 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 13555, 71
3 (C.D. Cal. 2005) (“the absence of objections or disapproval by class members to class counsel’s fee 4 request further supports finding the fee request reasonable”). Plaintiff and Class Counsel are directed to 5 provide information in connection with the motion for final approval that will enable the Court to assess 6 the appropriateness of any requested fee percentage, to perform a lodestar cross check of the requested 7 fee percentage, and to quantify the amount of time spent by Plaintiff on this case and any further risks 8 and/or burdens incurred as a result of acting as Class Representative. Class Counsel is also directed to 9 provide an updated declaration and itemization regarding actual litigation costs incurred. The 10 Settlement Administrator shall also submit a declaration attesting to Settlement Administrator Costs 11 incurred. The Court will review these amounts and allocations in connection with the final approval 12 hearing. To the extent the Court ultimately awards less than the amounts allocated under the Agreement 13 for attorney’s fees and costs, for an Enhancement Payment to the Class Representative, and/or 14 Settlement Administrator Costs, the difference between the amounts awarded and the amounts requested 15 shall be added to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members pro rata as 16 set forth in the Agreement.

17 The Court approves of the Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) PAGA Payment, which shall be paid 18 from the Gross Settlement Amount, not in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount, to resolve the 19 alleged PAGA claims. Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA Payment will be paid to the Labor and 20 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Twenty-Five percent (25%) will be paid to Aggrieved 21 Employees on a pro rata basis as described in the Agreement. The Court also finds that the Agreement 22 provides a recovery that creates an effective, substantial deterrent to any potential future non-23 compliance, furthering the purpose of the Labor Code and LWDA.

24 The Court approves of the identified cy pres beneficiaries and distribution plan wherein any 25 checks issued to Participating Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees that are not cashed by the 26 deadline to do so shall be donated equally, i.e. 50/50, to Capital Pro Bono, Inc., and the Center for 27 Workers’ Rights. See In re Microsoft I-V Cases, 135 Cal.App.4th 706, 718 (2006). No portion of the 28 Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendants for any reason.

1 The releases and waivers for Class Members who do not opt out of being bound by the 2 Agreement (i.e. Participating Class Members), Aggrieved Employees, and the Class Representative are 3 also approved by the Court as set forth in the Agreement.

4 III. APPROVAL OF THE DISTRIBUTION METHOD OF NOTICE TO THE CLASS, 5 INCLUDING THE NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT

6 The Court finds that the proposed Notice of Settlement, attached to this Order as Exhibit 1 and 7 incorporated by reference, fairly and adequately advises Class Members of the terms of the Agreement, 8 the rights being waived, their right to opt out, the ability to dispute the number of workweeks worked 9 during the Class Period, their pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount, how to participate in the 10 settlement, how to file documentation in opposition to the proposed settlement, and when to appear at 11 the fairness hearing to be conducted on the date set forth below. The Court further finds that the Notice 12 of Settlement and proposed distribution of such notice by first class mail to each identified Class 13 Member at his or her most recent address based on a National Change of Address database search from 14 the Class Members' last known address and a skip trace on any Class Members who have the Notice of 15 Settlement returned as "undeliverable" or "not at this address" comports with all constitutional 16 requirements, including those of due process.

17 The Court also finds that because there is a strong interest in providing Class Members the 18 opportunity to participate in the settlement, along with the Parties' efforts to minimize any intrusion to 19 privacy rights, the sharing of employment information, including social security numbers, is not a 20 serious intrusion on their privacy rights. Hence, the Court orders Defendants to provide Class Member 21 information to the Settlement Administrator as set forth in the Agreement, including the first and last 22 name, last known mailing address, last known telephone number, Social Security Number, start and end 23 dates (if any) of employment in California of each Class Member and Aggrieved Employee, and any 24 other information the Settlement Administrator needs to effectuate notice to Class Members and 25 Aggrieved Employees. The Class Member information will be provided to the Settlement Administrator 26 only, and not to Plaintiff or Class Counsel, in order to process this settlement as contemplated within the 27 Agreement and approved by this Order. The Settlement Administrator shall only use this information for the purposes identified in the Agreement and shall keep this information confidential consistent with the terms of the Agreement.
28

IV. IMPLEMENTATION SCHEDULE

Accordingly, with good cause shown, the Court hereby approves and orders that the following implementation schedule be adhered to:

Last day for Defendants to provide Settlement Administrator with Class Member and Aggrieved Employee information	Within 14 calendar days after the Preliminary Approval Date
Last day for Settlement Administrator to complete NCOA search, update Class Member and Aggrieved Employee mailing information, and mail Notice of Settlement	Within 14 calendar days after the Settlement Administrators' receipt of Class Members' information from Defendants

Last day for Settlement Administrator to deliver payment of Class Counsel's attorney's fees and costs, Enhancement Payments, PAGA Payment, Settlement Administrator Costs, payment to Participating Class Members, and payment to Aggrieved Employees	Within 7 calendar days after Defendants have funded the settlement

Last day for Settlement Administrator to deliver value of uncashed settlement checks to cy pres beneficiaries	Within 14 calendar days after settlement check cashing deadline
Last day for Settlement Administrator to provide Parties with compliance declaration	Within 21 calendar days after settlement check cashing deadline

FINAL APPROVAL AND HEARING

The Court hereby grants Plaintiff's Motion and sets final approval hearing on the proposed date of October 25, 2024, at 9:00 a.m., with briefs and supporting documentation to be submitted according to the California Code of Civil Procedure, in this Department. Participating Class Members may object and appear at the final approval hearing in person or by counsel as set forth in the Agreement.

If for any reason the Court does not grant final approval of the Agreement, all evidence and proceedings held in connection therewith shall be without prejudice to the status quo and rights of the parties to the litigation, including all challenges to personal jurisdiction and to class certification for any purpose other than approving a settlement class. The parties will revert to their respective positions as if no settlement had been reached at all.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

FOR THE COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO COUNTY

JOHN WILLIS, individually and on behalf of all other similarly situated employees,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Liability Company; DONALD POLLARD, an individual; RAY KEENER, an individual; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. 23CV006533

SETTLEMENT

ATTENTION: all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 10, 2019, to the present [REDACTED] (the "Class Members").

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. THIS NOTICE RELATES TO A PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION LITIGATION AND POTENTIAL DISBURSEMENT OF SETTLEMENT FUNDS TO YOU. IF YOU ARE A CLASS MEMBER, IT CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN OR OPT OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT ACCORDING TO THE PROCEDURES DESCRIBED BELOW.

You are receiving this notice pursuant to an order from the Sacramento County Superior Court ("Court") granting Plaintiff's motion for preliminary approval of a Joint Stipulation Regarding Class Action PAGA Settlement and Release ("Agreement" or "Settlement") as fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Settlement was entered into between Plaintiff John Willis ("Plaintiff" or "Class Representative"), and Defendants GFP Enterprises, LLC, Donald Pollard, and Ray Keener ("Defendants") on behalf of Class Members as defined above. The terms of the Settlement are outlined herein. You are receiving this notice because Defendants' records indicate you fall within the definition of "Class Member." Defendants' records also indicate that you worked [REDACTED] weeks in California during the applicable Class Period (as defined below), which means your total share of the settlement proceeds is estimated to be [REDACTED]. Your actual share of the settlement proceeds will vary depending on the total number of Class Members that choose to participate and the resolution of any workweek disputes as described in this notice.

The terms of the Agreement and a description of the case are identified in this notice. Pursuant to the Court's order, YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED AS FOLLOWS:

I. BACKGROUND OF THE CASE

On August 10, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Complaint against Defendants in the Sacramento County Superior Court of California on behalf of himself and Class Members. The term "Action" means this putative class action pending in Sacramento County Superior Court, Case No. 23CV006533. The Class Period is from August 10, 2019, to [REDACTED] (the "Class Period").

In the Action, Plaintiff sought to obtain unpaid wages, interest, statutory penalties, civil penalties, fees, and costs on behalf of himself, Class Members, and Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff alleged that Defendants violated California law by 1) failing to pay overtime wages, 2) failing to pay minimum wages, 3) failing to provide accurate wage statements, 4) failing to pay all final wages, 5) failing to maintain accurate records, 6) failing to provide paid sick leave, 7) failing to pay timely wages, 8) engaging in unfair competition, and 9) committing PAGA violations. Defendants have denied all of Plaintiff's allegations. The Action has been actively litigated. There have been on-going investigations, and there has been an exchange of extensive documentation and information. Furthermore, the Parties have participated in a full day mediation facilitated by a neutral third party. Based upon the negotiations, and all known facts and circumstances, including the various risks and uncertainties related to legal actions, the Parties reached a class-wide settlement. By settling, the Parties will avoid the risks associated with a lengthy litigation process. Despite agreeing to and supporting the Agreement, Defendants continue to deny all allegations and claims. Defendants have entered into this Settlement to fully, finally, and forever resolve this Action, based on the terms set forth in the Agreement, in order to avoid the burden and expense associated with ongoing litigation.

The Agreement applies to any and all Class Members, which are defined as all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 10, 2019, to [REDACTED]. The Agreement also applies to Aggrieved Employees, which are defined as all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time between August 9, 2022, to [REDACTED]. If you are a Class Member, you have the opportunity to participate in the Settlement, or to exclude yourself (“opt out”) from the Settlement. This notice is to advise Class Members of how they can either participate in the Settlement or be excluded from the Settlement. As set forth below, Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this Agreement as it relates to the PAGA Payment or Released PAGA Claims regardless of whether they opt out of being a Class Member. Aggrieved Employees will receive their share of the PAGA Payment regardless of whether they opt out of being a Class Member.

II. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A. The Amount of the Settlement

Under the terms of the Agreement, Defendants have agreed to pay a total sum of One Hundred Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars ($135,000) (“Gross Settlement Amount”). Deducted from this Gross Settlement Amount will be sums approved by the Court for attorneys’ fees not to exceed 35% of the Gross Settlement Amount, attorneys’ costs not to exceed $14,000, Settlement Administrator Costs estimated not to exceed $10,000, Class Representative’s Enhancement Payment of $10,000, and $10,000 for alleged PAGA penalties (the “PAGA Payment”), which will result in a “Net Settlement Amount” for distribution to all Class Members. Any employer side taxes attributable to payments allocated as wages will be paid by Defendants in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. As explained further below, the amount of each Class Member’s share of the Net Settlement Amount will depend on the number of weeks worked by participating Class Members during the Class Period. Of the $10,000 allocated to resolving the PAGA claims, 75% of the PAGA Payment will be paid to the State of California Labor and Workforce Development Agency and 25% of the PAGA Payment will be divided among Aggrieved Employees.

The number of weeks you worked in California during the Class Period and your estimated total share of the Net Settlement Amount and PAGA Payment (“Individual Settlement Amount”) is stated on the first page of this notice. The actual amount received may be more or less than the amount stated depending on the actual number of weeks worked in California by Participating Class Members (i.e., those who do not opt out of the Settlement), the resolution of any disputes regarding workweeks, and on the distributions finally approved and allocated by the Court. However, whether Class Members opt out will have no effect on Aggrieved Employees’ allocations for the PAGA claim.

B. Individual Settlement Amounts and Allocation Between Class Members and Aggrieved Employees

Defendants will pay Individual Settlement Amounts through the Settlement Administrator, as described below, to each Participating Class Member and to Aggrieved Employees. All Individual Settlement Amounts will be subject to appropriate taxation. The Parties have agreed, based on the allegations in the Action that all Individual Settlement Amounts payable to eligible Class Members will be allocated from the Net Settlement Amount and paid as 80% for disputed interest, statutory penalties, and other non-wage damages for which an IRS Forms 1099-MISC and 1099-INT will issue and 20% for disputed wages for which IRS Forms W-2 will issue. The PAGA Payment to Aggrieved employees will be paid as 100% for civil penalties.

Payment to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees will not require the submission of a claim form. Each Participating Class Member’s share will be determined by dividing their total weeks worked in California within the Class Period by the total weeks worked by all Participating Class Members in California within the Class Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount to arrive at the Class Member’s individual share of the Net Settlement Amount. Each Aggrieved Employee’s share of the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment will be determined by dividing their total weeks worked in California within the PAGA Claim Period by the total weeks worked in California by all Aggrieved Employees within the PAGA Claim Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment to arrive at the Aggrieved Employee’s individual share. The PAGA Claim Period is defined as August 9, 2022, up to [REDACTED]. Defendants’ records indicate that you worked [REDACTED] weeks during the applicable PAGA Claim Period, which means your share of the PAGA Payment is estimated to be [REDACTED]. This amount is included in your estimated Individual Settlement Amount stated on the first page of this notice, not in addition to it. You will still receive your share of the PAGA Payment even if you opt out of being a Class Member. Receipt of the Individual Settlement Amounts will not entitle any Class Member or Aggrieved Employee to additional compensation or benefits under any compensation, retirement or benefit plan or agreement in place during the period covered by the Settlement.

C. Calculations to Be Based on Defendants' Records and Resolution of Workweek Disputes

For each Class Member, the amount payable will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator from Defendants' records. Defendants' records will be presumed correct unless evidence to the contrary is provided to the Settlement Administrator. Defendants' records and any additional evidence will be reviewed by the Settlement Administrator in the event of a dispute about the number of workweeks worked in California by an individual Class Member. If a Class Member disputes the accuracy of Defendants' records, all supporting documents evidencing additional workweeks must be submitted by the Class Member. The dispute must (a) identify the nature of the dispute; (b) provide any information or documentation supporting the dispute; (c) be signed; and (d) be post-marked no later than [redacted]. The dispute will be resolved by the Settlement Administrator based on the records and evidence provided.

D. Release of Claims

Class members who do not opt out will be deemed to have released any and all class claims that are alleged in the Complaint, and any additional wage and hour claims that could have been brought based on the facts alleged in the Complaint, through the Class Period. This release excludes the release of claims not permitted by law. The Released Class Claims exclude claims for workers' compensation or unemployment insurance benefits. This release will cover all Class Members who do not opt out.

Aggrieved Employees will be deemed to have released any and all claims that were brought under the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq., contained in the Complaint and any additional wage and hour PAGA claims that could have been brought based on the facts alleged in the Complaint during the PAGA Claim Period. Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this waiver of claims.

The individuals released ("Released Parties") include Defendants, as well as Defendants' parent companies, subsidiaries, officers, shareholders, directors, predecessors, successors, affiliates, assigns, agents, employees, attorneys, and insurers.

Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees can talk to one of the lawyers appointed as Class Counsel (listed below) for free or talk to their own lawyer if they have questions about the released claims and what they mean.

III. WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS AS A CLASS MEMBER

A. Participating in the Settlement as a Class Member

If you wish to be a Participating Class Member and believe your workweek information is accurate, you do not need to take any further action. Payment will be automatically made to you consistent with the terms of the Agreement and Court Order. If you wish to dispute the workweek calculation, you may follow the procedures outlined in Section II.C above. California law protects Class Members from retaliation based on their decision to participate in the Settlement.

B. Excluding Yourself from the Settlement as a Class Member

The Court will exclude you from being a Class Member if you request this by [redacted]. If you do not wish to be bound by the Settlement as a Class Member, you may request to be excluded (i.e., "opt out") by submitting a timely written request to the Settlement Administrator. The request to opt-out must (a) state your full name and date of birth; (b) a statement that you do not want to be a Class Member, do not want to participate in the Settlement, and/or wants to be excluded from this Settlement; (c) identify the case name and number (i.e. Willis v. GFP Enterprises, LLC, 23CV006533); (d) be signed; and (e) be post-marked no later than [redacted]. The request to opt out must be mailed by First Class U.S. Mail, or the equivalent, to:

[admin info]

If you submit a request to opt out which is not postmarked by [redacted], your request to opt out will be rejected, and you will be bound by the release and all other terms of the Agreement. Do not use a postage meter as that may not result in a postmark appearing on the envelope containing your request to opt out. Any Class Member who submits a complete and timely request to opt out shall, upon receipt by the Settlement Administrator, no longer be a Class Member and not receive their share of the Net Settlement Amount. Aggrieved Employees cannot opt out of this Agreement and will receive their share of the PAGA Payment regardless of whether they opt out of being a Class Member.

C. Objection to Settlement

If you do not opt out of the Settlement, you can object to the terms of the Settlement. However, if the Court rejects your objection, you will still be bound by the terms of the Settlement. You can ask the Court to deny approval by submitting an objection. You cannot ask the Court to order a larger settlement; the Court can only approve or deny the settlement. If the Court denies approval, no settlement payments will be sent out and the lawsuit will continue. The objection must (a) state your full name and date of birth; (b) provide evidence that you are, in fact, a Class Member; (c) state the reasons for the objection(s), including supporting documentation; (d) identify the case name and number (i.e. Willis v. GFP Enterprises, LLC, 23CV006533); (e) be signed; and (f) be post-marked no later than [redacted]. The objection must be sent to the Settlement Administrator at the address identified in Section III.B and to counsel for Plaintiff and Defendants at the addresses identified in Section VI of this notice.

In addition to submitting a written objection, you may also appear at the final approval hearing to state your objection. Any Class Member who does not request exclusion may, if the Class Member so desires, enter an appearance through an attorney. If you appear through your own attorney, you are responsible for paying that attorney. You should also file a notice of intent to appear with the Court and serve the notice on counsel for Plaintiff and Defendants.

IV. EFFECT OF THE SETTLEMENT: RELEASED RIGHTS AND CLAIMS

If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, the Court will make and enter judgment consistent therewith. A notice of entry of judgment will be filed with the Court and available online at its Public Portal. The judgment, whether favorable or not, will bind all Class Members who do not request exclusion. After final approval, each and every Class Member who does not opt out of the Settlement and Aggrieved Employee, will release Defendants and the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims and the Released PAGA Claims described above. In other words, if you were employed as a Class Member by Defendants in California during the Class Period, and you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will be deemed to have entered into these releases and to have released the above-described claims. In addition, you will be barred from ever suing Defendants and the Released Parties with respect to the claims covered by this Settlement. If the Settlement is not approved by the Court or does not become final for some other reason, the litigation will continue.

The Court will hold a hearing in Department ____, [address] on [redacted] at [redacted] to determine whether the Agreement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate. The Court will also be asked to approve Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and costs, the Settlement Administrator Costs, and the Class Representative's Enhancement Payment. The hearing may be continued without further notice. It is not necessary for you to appear at this hearing.
