DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff ROSA DELIA GRANADOS DE VARGAS (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that
2 either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable
3 opportunity for further investigation and discovery, individually and on behalf of all other members
4 of the public similarly situated, alleges as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants SVR MANAGEMENT II LLC, and 7 DOES 1 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor
8 Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all
9 hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods,
10 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to indemnify employees for expenditures, 11 failure to furnish accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon separation of 12 employment, failure to produce requested employment records, failure to timely pay wages during 13 employment, and unfair business practices.

14 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action individually and as a class
15 action on behalf of Plaintiff and certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 16 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” and defined more fully below). The 17 Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any Defendant in 18 California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period
19 applicable to the claims pleaded here.

20 3. Plaintiff brings the Tenth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 21 California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 22 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt employees by Defendants in 23 the State of California during the statute of limitations period for her PAGA claim (hereinafter 24 referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

25 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 26 establishment within the State of California, including Napa County. As such and based upon all
27 the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants are subject
28

1 to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”),
2 and the California Business & Professions Code.

3 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants have, at 4 times:

- 5 (a) Failed to pay some, but not necessarily all employees for all hours worked,
6 including all minimum, straight time, and overtime wages in compliance
7 with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 8 (b) Failed to provide some, but not necessarily all employees with timely and 9 duty-free meal periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and 10 IWC Wage Orders, failed to maintain accurate records of all meal periods
11 taken or missed, and failed to pay an additional hour’s pay for each workday
12 a meal period violation occurred;
- 13 (c) Failed to authorize and permit some, but not necessarily all employees to 14 take timely and duty-free rest periods in compliance with the California
15 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failed to pay an additional hour’s 16 pay for each workday a rest period violation occurred;
- 17 (d) Failed to indemnify some, but not necessarily all employees for expenditures 18 incurred in direct discharge of duties of employment; and
- 19 (e) Failed to provide some, but not necessarily all employees with accurate, 20 itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the 21 California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 22 (f) Failed to timely produce requested employment records to some, but not
23 necessarily all employees as required by the California Labor Code and IWC
24 Wage Order; and

25 6. On information and belief, Defendants were on actual and constructive notice of the 26 improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful conduct.
27 Defendants’ violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and 28 deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employers of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior.”

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in Napa County, California as a nonexempt employee paid hourly from approximately January 2024 to the present as a Housekeeper. Plaintiff typically worked at least eight hours per day, generally either working a morning shift beginning at 5:30 A.M. or an evening shift beginning at 2:00 P.M. Plaintiff’s duties required maintaining sanitation standards in public areas of Defendants’ resort property, including cleaning floors and common areas and restocking restroom amenities.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law, as well as to add additional claims.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that Defendants are, and at all times herein mentioned, were:

- (a) Business entities qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Napa County; and,
- (b) The former employers of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employer of the Class Members because Defendants engaged Plaintiff and the Class to work; and/or suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled or had the power and authority to control their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts, and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and of the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior.”

12. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants were in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

13. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1 15. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter because Plaintiff brings this Complaint
2 for various violations of the Labor Code and California Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”)
3 orders, Defendants are business entities operating in California, and Plaintiff is a California
4 resident.

5 16. This class action is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section
6 382. The monetary damages, penalties, and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal
7 jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. This
8 Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, section
9 10. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.
10 Plaintiff’s share of damages, penalties, and other relief sought in this action does not exceed 11 $75,000.

12 17. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have 13 agents, and/or transact business in the County of Napa, California.

14 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

15 18. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in Napa County, California as an hourly-paid, non-
16 exempt employee from approximately January 2024 to the present as a Housekeeper. Plaintiff’s
17 duties required maintaining sanitation standards in public areas of Defendants’ resort property,
18 including cleaning floors and common areas and restocking restroom amenities. Defendants
19 typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per 20 day, but Plaintiff often worked more than eight hours per day and forty (40) hours in a workweek.
21 Plaintiff generally either worked a morning shift beginning at 5:30 A.M. or an evening shift
22 beginning at 2:00 P.M.

23 19. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants for Labor Code violations and unfair
24 business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (including 25 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide legally compliant meal periods, 26 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to reimburse business expenses, failure to 27 furnish accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay wages during employment, and failure to 28 provide requested records. As discussed below, Plaintiff’s experience working for Defendants was

1 typical and illustrative of the class.

2 20. Plaintiff brings these causes of action individually and as a class action on behalf of 3 certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 4 “Class” or “Class Members,” and defined more fully below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and 5 all other persons who have been employed by Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-
6 exempt employee during the statute of limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

7 21. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and
8 establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such and based 9 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants are 10 subject to the Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the IWC, and the California Business &
11 Professions Code.

12 22. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully
13 failed to comply with the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders with respect to Plaintiff and the Class
14 and instead maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of including, but not 15 limited to, the following violations on a regular basis:

- 16 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight
17 time, and overtime wages. For example, Defendants:
18 i. required employees to perform work off-the-clock, without compensation, 19 including, but not limited to requiring employees to retrieve the keys and 20 supplies needed for the upcoming shift prior to clocking in; and/or 21 ii. failed to pay for all hours worked and failed to pay some of this unpaid work 22 at the overtime rate, as required; and/or 23 iii. required them to continue working during unpaid meal and rest periods;
24 and/or
25 iv. failed to maintain accurate records of the hours worked.
26 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods; for 27 example, Defendants:
28 i. required employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day

- 1 without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for 2 every five hours of work; and/or
- 3 ii. continued to assert control over employees by requiring, pressuring, or
4 encouraging them to perform work tasks, which could not be completed
5 without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods; for example
6 requiring employees to complete cleaning or restocking tasks while on a 7 break; and/or
- 8 iii. interrupted Plaintiff's meal periods; and/or denied employees permission to 9 take a meal period.
- 10 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
11 periods. For example, Defendants:
- 12 i. required employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day
13 without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute,
14 uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major 15 fraction of four hours); and/or
- 16 ii. failed to compensate employees for rest periods that were not authorized or 17 permitted; and/or
- 18 iii. continued to assert control over employees by requiring, pressuring, or
19 encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed
20 without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods.
- 21 (d) Failing to indemnify employees for work-related expenses, such as having 22 to use Plaintiff's personal cell phone for work-related communications and 23 purchase cleaning supplies necessary to complete work, all without 24 reimbursement.
- 25 (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
26 containing all the information required by the Labor Code and IWC Wage
27 Orders, such as the legal employing entity's address, rest/meal break
28 premiums, and all wages for all hours worked, among other things.

- (f) Failing to timely pay employees their final wages due upon separation of employment, including, but not limited to, all expenditures, minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime wages, meal and rest period premium wages.
- (g) Failing to timely produce requested employment records.
- (h) Failing to timely pay wages during employment in violation of §204 of Lab. Code.

23. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them, were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

24. As a result of these violations of Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class suffered injury because, among other things:

- (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they were entitled;
- (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they had not been;
- (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;
- (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they had not been;
- (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages owed to them;

- (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information;
- (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits; and,
- (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

25. Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in Labor Code § 226(e) and injunctive relief under Labor Code § 226(h).

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

26. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

27. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

28. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending on the first day of trial in this matter.

29. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

30. Plaintiff undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

31. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

- (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be greater than one hundred (100) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.
- (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.
- (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly, and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.
- (d) Superiority: A Class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:
 - 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
 - 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
 - 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and,

32. The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

33. Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

34. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages;
- (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- (d) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures
- (e) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;
- (f) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;
- (g) Failed to timely produce all of the requested records;
- (h) Failed to timely pay wages during employment in violation of §204 of Lab. Code; and
- (i) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

35. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;
- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
 - 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
- (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

1 36. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of
2 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. Defendants' own business
3 records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices.
4 To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff contemplates the use of additional 5 techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice,
6 website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class
7 and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and 10 Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

11 37. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the 12 above paragraphs.

13 38. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 14 an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 15 not required to do so.

16 39. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay Plaintiff
17 and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. For example, Plaintiff was required to 18 retrieve the keys and supplies needed for the upcoming shift prior to clocking in. Defendants also 19 required Plaintiff to perform work during uncompensated meal periods and rest periods. By their 20 failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated
21 the provisions of Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders that require such 22 compensation to non-exempt employees.

23 40. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight
24 time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

25 41. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 26 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

27 42. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 28 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class

suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

43. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

44. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

45. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

47. California Labor Code §§510, 1194 and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay overtime wages payable at the rate of at least one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for more than eight hours in one workday or more than forty hours in one workweek. Employees are entitled to double overtime wages payable at the rate of at least twice the regular rate of pay for work in excess of twelve hours in one workday or work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek. For purposes of computing the overtime rate of compensation required to be paid to a non-exempt full time salaried employee, the employee's regular hourly rate shall be 1/40th of the employee's weekly salary. The regular rate shall be 1/8th of the employee's daily rate. Payment of a fixed salary to a non-exempt employee shall be deemed to provide compensation only for the employee's regular, non-overtime hours, notwithstanding any private agreement to the contrary. (Lab. Code §515(d))

48. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff and the Class were non-exempt employees and regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek and were entitled to the protections of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194,

1 and the applicable IWC Wage Order. Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiffs for all overtime
2 hours worked as required under the foregoing provision of the California Labor Code and IWC
3 Wage Order by, among other things: requiring, permitting or suffering Plaintiff to work off the 4 clock; requiring, permitting or suffering Plaintiff to work through meal and rest breaks but not
5 compensating them for this time and failing to include this time in their hours worked; and failing
6 to properly maintain Plaintiff's records.

7 49. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class
8 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday
9 and/or forty (40) hours in a workweek, as required by Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

10 50. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
11 compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class 12 have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 13 them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained
14 according to proof at trial.

15 51. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 16 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 17 Plaintiff and the Class.

18 52. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to 19 proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the 20 assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code
21 and/or other statutes.

22 53. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and 23 payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each
24 employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours
25 worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with all 26 compensation due, in violation of Labor Code § 204.

27 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

28 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

1 54. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
2 paragraphs.

3 55. California law requires an employer to provide an employee an uninterrupted meal
4 period of no less than thirty minutes before the end of a five-hour work period during which
5 employees are relieved of all duties. A second meal period of not less than 30 minutes is required
6 if an employee works more than 10 hours in one day. (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512; Wage Orders, 11;
7 Brinker Restaurant Corp v. Superior Ct. (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1049.) The Wage Order's meal
8 period requirement is satisfied if the employee (1) has at least 30 minutes uninterrupted, (2) is free
9 to leave the premises, and (3) is relieved of all duty for the entire period. (Brinker Restaurant Corp.
10 v. Superior Court, supra, at 1036.) An employer must relinquish control over their activities, 11 permit a reasonable opportunity to take an uninterrupted 30-minute break, and not impede or 12 discourage an employee from taking a meal break. (Id. at p. 1040.) If the employee is not relieved 13 of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an “on duty” meal period and 14 counted as time worked. (Id. at p. 1035.) “An employer may not undermine a formal policy of 15 providing meal breaks by pressuring employees to perform their duties in ways that omit breaks.
16 (Cicairos v. Summit Logistics, Inc. (2005) 133 Cal.App.4th 949, 962–963; see also Jaimez v.
17 Daiohs USA, Inc., (2010) 181 Cal.App.4th 1286, 1304–1305 [proof of common scheduling policy
18 that made taking breaks extremely difficult would show violation]; Dilts v. Penske Logistics, LLC
19 (S.D.Cal. 2010) 267 F.R.D. 625, 638 [indicating informal anti-meal-break policy “enforced
20 through ‘ridicule’ or ‘reprimand’” would be illegal].) The wage orders and governing statute do
21 not countenance an employer's exerting coercion against the taking of, creating incentives to forgo,
22 or otherwise encouraging the skipping of legally protected breaks.” (Id. at p. 1040.)

23 56. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 24 law, the employer must pay the employee one hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for 25 each workday that a legally required meal period was not timely provided or was not duty-free.
26 (Lab. Code §226.7(c)). The California Supreme Court held that premium pay for denying an 27 employee a meal or rest break constitutes “wages.” (Naranjo v Spectrum Security Services, Inc.
28 (2022) 13 Cal.5th 93.)

58. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

60. California Labor Code §226.7 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Order §12 requires that employers must provide employees timely, uninterrupted 10-minute rest breaks, free of all duty, for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof. If an employer fails to provide an employee a rest break in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall pay the employee one hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest break is not provided as a rest break premium wage. Employees are entitled to a 10-minute rest break for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029.) Furthermore, “Employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time during rest periods. (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269.) This obligation includes allowing employees to leave the premises during their rest periods.

61. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages at their regular rate of pay for each workday they were not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

62. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

63. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday they were not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

65. Plaintiff and the Class were required to incur substantial necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants. For example, Plaintiff was required to use her personal cell phone to receive work-related communications and instructions. Additionally, Plaintiff was required to purchase cleaning supplies necessary to complete work, all without reimbursement.

66. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and indemnify Plaintiff and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants, including, but not limited to, the use of Plaintiff's personal cell phone for work-related communications and purchase of cleaning supplies necessary to perform job duties, all without reimbursement.

67. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

68. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(b).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

70. At all material times set forth herein, Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

71. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements compliant with these Labor Code sections. For example, Plaintiff's paystubs do not list accurate rest/meal break premiums, and all wages for all hours worked, among other things.

72. As a result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

73. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional violations of California §§ 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under Labor Code § 226(a).

1 74. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and
2 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as
3 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
4 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related 5 laws and regulations.

6 75. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their
7 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate
8 penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

9 76. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 10 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code § 226(h).

11 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Produce Requested Employment Records)

13 77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
14 paragraphs.

15 78. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226, current and former employees have the right to 16 inspect or receive a copy of their payroll records pertaining to their employment, upon reasonable
17 request to their employer. Under this statute, an employer that receives a request to inspect or 18 receive a copy of payroll records pertaining to a current or former employee must comply with the 19 request as soon as practicable, but no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of the 20 request.

21 79. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1198.5(a), every current and former employee, or their or 22 her representatives, have the right to inspect and receive a copy of the personnel records that the 23 employer maintains relating to the employee's performance or to any grievance concerning the 24 employee. Under this statute, upon written request from a current or former employee or their or 25 her representatives, an employer must make the contents of those personnel records available for 26 inspection or provide a copy of the personnel records to the current or former employee, or their 27 or her representatives, not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date the employer receives
28 the written request, subject to some limited exceptions. Failure to comply with these requests allows for a civil penalty seven hundred fifty dollars ($750), pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1198.5(k) and 226(f).

80. Labor Code § 432 provides that if an employee or applicant signs any instrument relating to the obtaining or holding of employment, they shall be given a copy of the instrument upon request.

81. As set forth above, Plaintiff and the Class are current and former employees of Defendant.

82. On or about February 23, 2026, Plaintiff sent a written request through their counsel to Defendant for their payroll records, timecards, and personnel records. However, Plaintiff did not receive all the requested records within the statutory deadline.

83. Defendant violated Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5 by failing to timely produce the required records requested by Plaintiff.

84. On information and belief, Defendant's failure to provide Plaintiff with their requested employment records is not an isolated incident but was instead consistent with Defendant's policy and practice that applied to Plaintiff and the Class.

85. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1198.5, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to a penalty of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) from Defendant, injunctive relief in the form of compliance with § 1198.5, and attorneys' fees and costs.

86. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff are entitled to a penalty of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) from Defendant, injunctive relief in the form of compliance with § 226, and attorneys' fees and cost.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment)

87. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

88. This cause of action is dependent upon, and wholly derivative of, the overtime wages, minimum wages, and/or meal and rest period premiums that were not timely paid to Plaintiff and Class Members during their employment.

1 89. At all times relevant herein set forth, Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages
2 earned by any person in any employment between the first (1st) and the fifteenth (15th) days,
3 inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee,
4 are due and payable between the sixteenth (16th) and the twenty-sixth (26th) day of the month
5 during which the labor was performed.

6 90. At all times relevant herein, Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned
7 by any person in any employment between the sixteenth (16th) and the last day, inclusive, of any 8 calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable 9 between the first (1st) and the tenth (10th) day of the following month.

10 91. At all times relevant herein, Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned
11 for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next 12 regular payroll period. Alternatively, at all times relevant herein, Labor Code section 204 provides 13 that the requirements of this section are deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly,
14 biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven (7) calendar days
15 following the close of the payroll period.

16 92. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and 17 Class Members all wages due including, but not limited to, overtime wages, minimum wages,
18 and/or meal and rest period premiums, within the time periods specified by California Labor Code
19 section 204.

20 93. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages due violates Labor
21 Code section 204. Plaintiff and Class Members are therefore entitled to recover from Defendants
22 the statutory penalty wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 210.

23 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Against All Defendants for Violations of California
25 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

26 94. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
27 paragraphs.
28

1 95. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business
2 & Professions Code § 17201.

3 96. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
4 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class Members, and to the general public. Plaintiff seeks 5 to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 6 Procedure § 1021.5.

7 97. Defendants’ activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and
8 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
9 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

10 98. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 11 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described above in the 12 foregoing causes of action are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and are immoral, 13 unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or 14 fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et 15 seq.

16 99. By and through their unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices
17 described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from 18 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and has deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly 19 situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

20 100. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of 21 Defendants’ wrongful conduct.

22 101. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled 23 to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 24 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by 25 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and 26 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 27 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

28 102. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further

1 entitled to, and does, seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair,
2 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
3 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices
4 in the future.

5 103. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, has no plain,
6 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered
7 as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a
8 result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff,
9 individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to 10 suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to 11 engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

12 104. Plaintiff also alleges that, if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth
13 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance, and other 14 withholdings.

15 105. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 16 putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 17 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a
18 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Class
19 Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and 20 other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

21 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act 23 of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

24 106. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs of this 25 Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

26 107. At all relevant times, Defendants were subject to the California Labor Code and the 27 applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders.

28 108. Plaintiff brings this cause of action as an aggrieved employee, individually and as a

1 representative on behalf of the State of California and all other current and former aggrieved
2 employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), Labor Code sections
3 2698 et seq.

4 109. Plaintiff exhausted the administrative prerequisites to the commencement of this
5 action as required by Labor Code section 2699.3. On March 27, 2026, Plaintiff submitted written
6 notice by online filing to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”)
7 and provided notice to Defendants identifying the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to 8 have been violated, along with the facts and theories supporting those violations. Plaintiff paid the 9 required filing fee. The LWDA assigned this matter Case No. LWDA-CM-1166729-26.

10 110. The sixty-five (65) day statutory period for LWDA review elapsed on June 1, 2026,
11 without the LWDA providing notice of its intent to investigate. Accordingly, Plaintiff satisfied the 12 administrative exhaustion requirements of Labor Code section 2699.3 and is authorized to pursue
13 civil penalties under PAGA.

14 111. The statute of limitations applicable to the PAGA claims was tolled during the 15 period of administrative exhaustion pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3(d).

16 112. The Labor Code violations alleged in this cause of action are the same violations
17 identified in Plaintiff’s LWDA notice and arise from Defendants’ uniform policies, practices, and 18 course of conduct applicable to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff seeks to recover
19 civil penalties for all such violations experienced by Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees
20 during the PAGA period.

21 113. Plaintiff has standing to pursue civil penalties for the violations alleged herein
22 because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants during the PAGA period and personally
23 experienced the Labor Code violations identified in the LWDA notice. The alleged violations arose
24 from Defendants’ uniform policies and practices and affected Plaintiff and other aggrieved 25 employees in the same or similar manner, and were not the result of isolated or employee-specific 26 circumstances.

27 114. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Defendants violated the 28 California Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 204, 226, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512,

1 1174, 1194, 1197, 1198.5, and 2802.

2 115. Defendants' violations were willful, knowing, and systematic, and resulted from
3 company-wide policies and practices. Upon information and belief, such violations continued
4 during the PAGA period and, absent judicial intervention, will continue to occur, thereby exposing
5 Defendants to ongoing civil penalties.

6 116. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff seeks
7 recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a), including any applicable
8 statutory penalties, and pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f) for violations for which no specific 9 civil penalty is provided, together with all other relief available under PAGA.

10 117. Plaintiff seeks recovery of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and all 11 aggrieved employees, with sixty-five percent (65%) of any civil penalties recovered payable to the 12 LWDA and thirty-five percent (35%) payable to the aggrieved employees, as provided by Labor
13 Code section 2699(m).

14 118. Plaintiff further seeks reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code
15 section 2699(k)(1), interest as permitted by law, and such other relief as the Court deems just and 16 proper.

17 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

18 Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the

3. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

4. For premiums pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);

7. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2. For unpaid business-related expenses and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

3. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid business-related expenses from the date such amounts were due, or as otherwise provided by law;

4. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

5. For attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 2802(c), or as otherwise provided by law; and

6. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the recordkeeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order as to Plaintiff and Subclass Members, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

3. For injunctive relief pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h);

4. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e);

5. For attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e)(1); and

6. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

1. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated the records producing provisions of Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5 and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide the required and requested documents thereto;

2. For all actual damages, according to proof;

3. For statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5; and

4. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code § 226(h).
