1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice in California and before this Court, and I am associated with Crosner Legal, PC, counsel of record for plaintiff Candice Valenzuela. I make this declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Approval of Settlement under the Private Attorneys General Act. If called to testify as to the within facts, I would and could competently do so.
2. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct, fully-executed copy of the Parties' Stipulation and Agreement for PAGA Representative Action Settlement (the "Settlement Agreement"). Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a redline of the Settlement Agreement reflecting all changes made from the Court's model settlement agreement. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a true and correct copy of Plaintiff's PAGA Notice letter and proof of submission to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Attached hereto as Exhibit 4 is proof of submission of the complaint to the LWDA. Attached hereto as Exhibit 5 is a true and correct copy of the LWDA's acknowledgment of receipt of the proposed settlement.
3. I am unaware of any other pending cases that would overlap with the claims alleged in this case or that would impact the claims of the class members in this case.

4. Defendant Kazi a fast food franchisee that operates dozens of restaurants, most notably KFC restaurants, in several states including California, Colorado and New Jersey. Plaintiff Valenzuela began working for Defendant on or about November 15, 2020 as a Cashier at Defendant's Pacoima, California location. Around April 2022 she transferred to Defendant's Canoga Park, California location as a temporary manager, but later transferred back to Pacoima where she continues to work part-time.

5. During her employment, Plaintiff alleges she routinely performed work off the clock and had to work while purportedly clocked out for meal breaks. She also alleges she was denied the opportunity to take rest and meal periods, and consistently was interrupted during her breaks and asked to perform work while clocked out for lunch as noted above. She further alleges she was

1 prohibited from leaving the restaurant for her meal and rest periods at times, particularly if a
2 discounted meal provided by Kazi, or otherwise subject to employer control while on break.
3 Finally, Plaintiff alleges Kazi's wage statements were inaccurate on their face and failed to list the 4 inclusive dates of the pay period and further did not have the employer's address.

5 6. Based on these allegations, and after appropriate notice to the LWDA, Plaintiff filed
6 her PAGA-only complaint on December 4, 2023, seeking civil penalties for the following alleged 7 wage and hour violations: (a) failure to pay wages, including overtime wages; (b) failure to provide
8 meal and rest periods; (c) failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements; and (d) waiting
9 time penalties. Plaintiff filed the matter on behalf of aggrieved employees including all non-exempt
10 employees of Kazi in California during the relevant PAGA time frame (September 30, 2022 until 11 October 15, 2024).

12 7. Kazi has at all times denied Plaintiff's allegations and maintained it properly
13 calculated and paid all wages due, that its meal and rest break and payroll policies and procedures
14 comply with California law, that it provided the class members with required meal and rest breaks
15 on a fully compliant basis, and that its wage statements accurately reflect all information required
16 by the Labor Code. Additionally, Kazi strongly contends the case cannot be maintained as a 17 representative action as, to the extent aggrieved employees missed meal and/or rest breaks, it was 18 intermittent and infrequent and evidence of such missed breaks would be purely anecdotal, and 19 therefore individualized issues predominate, which would render a trial under PAGA 20 unmanageable.

21 8. After Plaintiff filed her complaint, upon discussing the merits of the case and 22 engaging in several meet and confer sessions regarding prospective law and motion and discovery
23 issues, the Parties agreed to an early mediation. The Parties further agreed to a protocol for 24 exchanging additional documents and information before the mediation. Through this formal and 25 informal discovery, Defendant provided Plaintiff with information including, inter alia, the number
26 of potential aggrieved employees, the number of aggregate pay periods, sample pay stubs and time
27 records for around 25% of the aggrieved employees (Plaintiff's experts advised this sampling
28 would be statistically significant and enable them to extrapolate to the entire Aggrieved Employee

1 population), employee handbooks and manuals, and relevant policy documents on Defendant's
2 time keeping and reporting policies, etc. Plaintiff had that information reviewed by Berger
3 Consulting Group to assist with evaluating potential violation rates, potential damages, etc.

4 9. The parties then attended a full day mediation in August 2024 before highly-
5 regarded mediator Gig Kyriacou, Esq., who has extensive experience mediating wage and hour
6 class and PAGA actions. Before and during the mediation, Plaintiff and her counsel analyzed,
7 researched, and investigated the potential issues, including matters related to the calculation of 8 damages, trial, and appellate issues and risks. During mediation, the Parties vigorously debated the 9 likelihood of Plaintiff's ability to proceed on a representative basis as to the PAGA claims, the legal 10 grounds for Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses, and the parties' data analyses and 11 conclusions based on data provided by Defendant. After a contentious full day of negotiations, the 12 Parties were able to reach agreement on all major issues and subsequently formalized the tentative 13 settlement in the settlement agreement now before the Court.

14 SUMMARY OF SETTLEMENT TERMS

15 10. Under the settlement, Defendant will pay a non-reversionary settlement amount of 16 $330,000 (the "Gross Settlement Amount" or "GSA"). The GSA is inclusive of payments to the 17 LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, costs of settlement administration (no more than $5,250), a 18 reasonable service awards to Plaintiff of $7,500.00, and reasonable attorney's fees of 1/3 of the 19 GSA, or $110,000, and actual litigation costs of $15,523.98. After all deductions from the GSA, 20 Plaintiff presently estimates about $191,726.02 will remain (the "Net Settlement Amount" or 21 "NSA"). Seventy-five percent of the NSA (about $143,974.51) will go to the LWDA, and the 22 remaining 25% (about $47,931.51) will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees in proportion
23 to the total number of Pay Periods each individual worked during the PAGA Period, with an average
24 award currently estimated at about $100 per Aggrieved Employee.

25 11. The Parties propose using Phoenix Settlement Administrators as the Settlement
26 Administrator. Phoenix has extensive experience administering PAGA settlements, and has agreed 27 to cap its fees at $5,250. Kazi will fund the settlement within 30 days of the Effective date and,
28 within 14 days of receipt of the GSA, Phoenix₄ will mail a Notice and settlement check to all

1 Aggrieved Employees via regular First-Class U.S. Mail, using the most current, known mailing
2 addresses identified in Kazi's records. Aggrieved Employees need not submit claim forms and will
3 automatically receive a Notice and settlement check. Settlement checks will be negotiable for 180
4 days, after which time any unclaimed residual funds will be forwarded to the California State
5 Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund.

6 12. The California Supreme Court has explained that a judgment in "a representative
7 action brought by an aggrieved employee under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 8 2004 ... is binding not only on the named employee plaintiff but also on government agencies and 9 any aggrieved employee not a party to the proceeding." Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th
10 969, 985-86. Accordingly, the release in the Settlement Agreement narrowly releases only civil 11 penalty claims brought under PAGA. Under Arias, the order the Parties request the Court enter is 12 intended to be "binding not only on the named employee plaintiff but also on government agencies 13 and any aggrieved employee not a party to the proceeding." The Settlement Agreement protects the 14 rights of the Aggrieved Employees to bring their own individual claims should they wish. For these 15 reasons, the Parties contend the release narrowly applies only to the PAGA claims alleged, and the 16 Settlement Agreement specifically provides the Release is inapplicable to any claims other than 17 those brought under PAGA.

18 THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, ADEQUATE AND REASONABLE, FURTHERS THE 19 PURPOSES UNDERLYING PAGA, AND WARRANTS APPROVAL

20 13. First, Plaintiff alleges Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked by requiring 21 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to work while purportedly clocked out for meal periods or 22 otherwise perform work off the clock. She further alleged Defendant on occasion underpaid 23 employees for their overtime by failing to pay overtime at the premium rate and instead paying at 24 the regular base hourly rate.

25 14. Next, Plaintiff argued she and the Aggrieved Employees did not receive all required
26 meal periods, or did not receive them on a compliant basis, and that Kazi's written policies were 27 not fully compliant. As noted, Plaintiff alleges employees frequently worked through some part of 28 their meal break or otherwise had their breaks interrupted by work, and she also alleged that second meal periods were not provided on shifts of more than 10 hours. She further alleged the Aggrieved Employees did not receive compliant rest periods for the same reasons in that their breaks could be interrupted by work or not provided at all depending on the volume of business.

15. Plaintiff next alleged Kazi failed to reimburse necessary business expenses for use of personal cell phones, as supervisors would contact Plaintiff and other employees on their personal phones both at and away from work regarding a host of issues, such as scheduling, availability, illnesses, etc.. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees received no reimbursement for using their own phones on company business. Lastly, Plaintiff also brought claims derivative of the foregoing claims, including a derivative wage statement claim based on the failure to pay all wages due, and failure to pay all wages due and owing upon separation of employment under Labor Code §§ 201-203.

16. For mediation, Kazi indicated it employed approximately 480 non-exempt employees in California during the applicable PAGA period, and these individuals worked approximately 11,000 pay periods during that time. Based on the data and information provided, Plaintiff estimated Defendant's maximum PAGA exposure at approximately $5,264,400.

17. We calculated these amounts as follows:

Unpaid Wages

11000 pay periods * 100% violation rate * $100/violation = $1,100,000

Underpaid Overtime

11000 pay periods * 3% violation rate * $100/violation = $33,000

Meal Violations

11000 pay periods * 80% violation rate * $100/violation = $880,000

Rest Violations

11000 pay periods * 93% violation rate * $100/violation = $1,023,000

Expense Reimbursement

11000 pay periods * 100% violation rate * $100/violation = $1,100,000

Wage Statement Violations

11000 pay periods * 100% violation rate * $100/violation = $1,100,000

1 Untimely Final Wages

2 284 former employees * 1 violation/employee * $100 = $28,400

3 18. In response to Plaintiff's unpaid wage claims, Kazi argued its payroll and 4 compensation policies paid employees for all hours worked at the correct hourly rates. Per Kazi, if 5 any off the clock work occurred it was strictly against company policy and done voluntarily by the 6 employees and without management's knowledge or consent. Accordingly, Defendant argued 7 Plaintiff would be unable to show any alleged "off the clock" work was actually compensable. On 8 the underpaid overtime claims, Kazi again emphasized it paid employees with the correct hourly
9 rates, including overtime, and if any overtime was paid incorrectly it would have been rare,
10 aberrational and likely a simple administrative error. Defendant therefore argued that even if this 11 occurred it claim would not give rise to any significant liability for civil penalties.

12 19. For the meal and rest break claims, Kazi offered multiple defenses. First, it 13 emphasized its written meal and rest break policy generally was compliant, that it authorized and 14 permitted all necessary breaks, and that employees received full uninterrupted lunch periods free
15 from employer control. It further noted its time records generally showed employees took compliant
16 meal periods and would be presumed correct. Defendant also asserted that even to the extent any 17 late or short meal periods occurred, it was in violation of company policy and aberrational, and 18 likely voluntary on the employee's part. Per Kazi resolving this claim would require significant 19 individual inquiries to determine the reasons underlying any such alleged violations and whether it 20 was by employee choice or some other reason.

21 20. As with meal breaks, Defendant argued the applicable rest break policies complied
22 with California law, and that it authorized and permitted employees to take all required breaks.
23 Defendant further contended that, in light of the fact that it is not required to maintain a record of 24 rest periods, any evidence of failure to authorize rest periods and/or discouragement from taking 25 rest periods would be purely anecdotal and individual issues would predominate on liability. This 26 arguably would once again make a trial unmanageable since the number of instances an employee
27 missed a rest break would have to be tested on a case by case basis to determine compliance.

28 21. For the expense reimbursement claim, Kazi countered there typically would be no

1 need for employees to communicate via phone or text while performing their job duties, or for
2 them to otherwise use their personal phones for any reason. Per Defendant, to the extent Plaintiff
3 or other Aggrieved Employees used their individual phones for work purposes, it was done purely 4 for personal convenience and was neither required nor necessary in order to perform their job
5 duties. Thus, per Defendant, no reimbursement was required.

6 22. Plaintiff also alleged Kazi's wage statements violated Labor Code § 226 on their 7 face because they did not list the inclusive dates for each pay period, and further did not list the 8 employer's address. In addition to the alleged facial violations, Plaintiff further claimed
9 derivative violations of Labor Code § 226 (wage statement violations) and §§ 201-203 (waiting 10 time penalties) based on the unpaid wage and meal/rest claims. In addition to being subject to the 11 same merits defenses as the primary claims, these claims also are subject to "good faith" and 12 other defenses available to Defendant. Accordingly, Plaintiff had to discount the value of these 13 claims significantly in light of these multiple potential defenses. Defendant also contended a 14 substantial discount should be applied to the civil penalties for these derivative (i.e., "stacked")
15 violations, as it would be unfair to penalize Defendant multiple times for the same violation.

16 23. Defendant next emphasized PAGA gives the Court wide latitude to reduce the 17 amount of civil penalties "based on the facts and circumstances of a particular case" if "to do
18 otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory." I am
19 aware of many state and federal courts in California have applied significant reductions to PAGA
20 civil penalties even after plaintiff prevailed on the merits, and we accounted for this in evaluating 21 the settlement. Finally, Kazi argued most of the Aggrieved Employees, including Plaintiff, signed
22 valid and enforceable arbitration agreements. Thus, if Plaintiff could be compelled to individual
23 arbitration it would further delay and potentially derail resolution of the PAGA representative 24 claims.

25 24. Thus, Defendant raised various and multi-layered defenses to each of Plaintiff's
26 claims, anyone of which, if successful, could have decimated Plaintiff's case. And Defendant
27 vowed to raise all these defenses at trial. Accordingly, Plaintiff faced risky issues going forward
28 with this litigation, and it could have taken years to realize any recovery in this action along with

1 the possibility of individual arbitrations and post-trial appeals. In addition to its merits defenses
2 and arguing trial would be unmanageable, Defendant also intended to raise additional defenses on 3 damages, including the proper measure of civil penalties and the appropriate discount to place on 4 any assessment of such penalties.

5 25. Although Plaintiff and I believe we could have prevailed, there was no such 6 guarantee. When the risks of prevailing at trial on the merits on all claims, securing 100% of the 7 theoretical civil penalties, and the Court's significant discretion to reduce any penalty award, all
8 are factored into the equation, the settlement value is reasonable and supported. Of course, to 9 recover anywhere near the maximum penalties Plaintiff would have to shoot the moon and win
10 both liability and maximum penalties on all claims as to every pay period at issue, which 11 outcome, for the reasons discussed, is unlikely and would take several years for trial and an 12 almost certain appeal. Given Defendant's various procedural and merits defenses, as well as the 13 substantial penalty reductions ordered in the cases above – which occurred after trial – the 14 proposed settlement is eminently reasonable.

15 SUBMISSION TO THE LWDA

16 26. My office timely served the LWDA with the Settlement Agreement and this 17 Motion, and notified the LWDA of this approval hearing. Accordingly, the LWDA will be able to 18 weigh in as necessary and, importantly, many courts find it persuasive of approval if the LWDA
19 ultimately declines to offer any comment or objection to a proposed PAGA settlement.

20 THE REQUESTED FEES AND COSTS ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE

21 27. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff's counsel respectfully
22 request an award of attorney's fees equal to 1/3 Gross Settlement Amount, or $110,000. A one-
23 third common fund attorney fee award is consistent with what courts have awarded Plaintiff's
24 counsel in other representative actions. Awarding attorney's fees of one-third of a gross settlement
25 amount is favored by California courts when a fund established for the common benefit of others
26 is involved, such as here.

27 28. There are several additional factors why I believe that the Court should award one-
28 third of the common fund as a reasonable attorney's fee. First, counsel's efforts resulted in a

1 common fund settlement amount of $330,000.00, which for the reasons explained, is fair and
2 reasonable in light of the risks/defenses Defendant raised in litigation and threatened to raise at 3 trial and in post-trial appeals. Further, this is a significant sum that furthers the purposes
4 underlying PAGA such as augmenting the state's enforcement capabilities, encouraging
5 compliance with Labor Code provisions, and deterring future non-compliance. Moreover, this 6 result was achieved by the work and success of this office, who negotiated the settlement after 7 extensive preparation, informal discovery, and an adversarial mediation.

8 29. Second, Plaintiff faced significant risks going forward with the litigation. As 9 discussed above, Defendant raised various defenses to their claims, anyone of which, if 10 successful, could have decimated Plaintiff's case. Plaintiff faced risky legal issues going forward
11 with this litigation, and it would have taken several more years to realize any recovery in this 12 action along with the possibility of post-trial appeals,

13 30. Third, Crosner Legal are experienced class and representative action litigators, and 14 have achieved several approved PAGA settlements. This experience and expertise, combined 15 with the high quality of work performed, resulted in the settlement achieved in this case.

16 31. I graduated from Trinity Law School in 2017 and joined Mara Law Firm, PC
17 (formerly The Turley and Mara Law Firm, APLC) that same year. I later joined Crosner Legal

20 routinely write and oppose motions, draft complaints, appear before the Court at law and

27 41. Based upon the qualifications and experience set forth above, I believe the 28 following hourly rates are reasonable: Zach Crošner $800/hr, Jamie Serb $750/hr, Nikki Trenner

1 $700/hr, Brenden Hamilton $600/hr; Kiara Bramasco, $650/hr; J. Kirk Donnelly, $900/hr.

2 42. I request the Court apply the above hourly billing rates in this case, as it reasonable
3 in the California legal market for attorneys handling wage and hour class and PAGA actions. I
4 have personal knowledge of the hourly rates charged by a number of plaintiff-side wage and hour
5 class action firms in major California legal markets for partner-level attorneys with experience
6 comparable to mine. These rates have ranged from $650 to $900 per hour for calendar years
7 2018-2023. Some examples include attorney Ron Makarem of Makarem & Associates in Los 8 Angeles, with 28 years of experience, $900/hour (2023), Matthew Matern of Matern Law Group
9 in Los Angeles, with approximately 26 years of experience $850/hour (2018); Craig Ackermann
10 of Ackermann & Tilajef, PC in Los Angeles with approximately 25 years of experience
11 $850/hour (2021), Michael Singer and Isam Khoury of Cohelan Khoury & Singer in San Diego, 12 35 years and 45 years of experience respectively, both $825/hour (2018), Zachary Crosner of 13 Crosner Legal PC in Los Angeles, 13 years of experience $750/hour (2022), and James Kawahito
14 of Kawahito Law Group in Los Angeles, with approximately 16 years of experience $750/hour 15 (2020).

16 43. The requested rates also comport with the adjusted Laffey Matrix, which provides 17 that reasonable hourly rates for attorneys with 10+ years of experience, such as myself, Mr.
18 Crosner, and Ms. Serb, are over $800/hour. The adjusted Laffey Matrix may be found at 19 <http://www.laffeymatrix.com/see.html>.

20 44. Fourth, Crosner Legal has been representing Plaintiff (and the State of California)
21 in this matter on a strictly contingent basis and as such, had to forego other financial opportunities
22 to litigate other cases, incurred the risk of non-recovery after a substantial investment of time,
23 money, and resources, and have done so since the inception of this case without any payment or 24 compensation. This is not an easy burden for a small firm. If, despite these hardships and risks, 25 the best this office could hope for is merely to be paid our customary hourly rate multiplied by the 26 number of hours worked on the case, then we would not be compensated for the hardships and 27 serious risks it faced litigating this contingency case, and would not be incentivized to take on 28 similar private attorney general cases in the future.

1 45. Fifth, the request for attorney's fees in the amount of one-third of the common
2 fund falls well within the norms accepted by state and federal courts in California in comparable
3 wage and hour actions actually handled by this office. Moreover, the award of a one-third fee
4 recovery under the common fund doctrine was recently approved by the California Supreme 5 Court in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480. For all of the above reasons, a 6 common fund fee award here in the amount of one-third of the $330,000 common fund, or 7 $110,000, is fair and reasonable.

8 46. Crosner Legal expended a total of 158.4 attorney hours on this matter, and 9 accordingly the firm's lodestar totals approximately $116,850, excluding time to be incurred at 10 the hearing on this motion and thereafter to implement and administer the settlement. Crosner 11 Legal's lodestar is summarized in Exhibit 6 hereto. Accordingly, on a lodestar basis, the 12 requested fees represent exceed the base lodestar and therefore there is no request for a lodestar
13 enhancement.

14 47. As noted, Plaintiff's counsel has represented Plaintiff for some eighteen months 15 with respect to this matter and has expended a significant amount of time and resources in that 16 representation. We agreed to litigate this case on a purely contingent basis and in so doing 17 assumed considerable risk of non-payment for its fees and costs, as discussed above, and as is the 18 case with these matters in general. Under all relevant factors (as outlined herein and in the 19 accompanying memorandum), we respectfully request the Court award the requested fees of 20 $110,000 based on the common fund theory with a corresponding lodestar cross-check and no
21 lodestar enhancement.

22 48. We also request reimbursement of Crosner Legal's actual out-of-pocket expenses
23 incurred to prosecute this action. These expenses were incidental and necessary to the effective 24 representation of the employees.

25 49. Crosner Legal's costs are $15,523.98, including court filing/service of process
26 fees, mediation fees, expert fees, and postage. Notably, the requested costs do not include any and 27 all printing and research charges. A true and correct itemization of the costs and expenses
28 incurred is set forth below:

Expense Category	Amount
Court Filing Fees/Service of Process/Attorney Service	$765.50
Mediation Fees	$11,500.00
Expert Fees	$4,160.00
PAGA Filing Fee	$75.00
Postage	$34.48
Total Costs and Expenses	$15,523.98

The requested costs are reasonable and uncontested and should be approved in full.

50. Here, pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff seeks an incentive award of $7,500. The request is reasonable given the much broader release that Plaintiff is agreeing to, as well as her efforts in this case and the risks she undertook on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees. Additionally, by contacting and retaining counsel to pursue these claims, Plaintiff made this settlement possible for the other Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA, while shouldering the risk of being liable for Defendant's litigation costs. Plaintiff also exposed herself to unwanted notoriety related to filing a public lawsuit (discoverable even through a simple google search) for the benefit of other employees, placing her at risk of discrimination by future prospective employers. Among taking many other actions assisting in the successful litigation of this case, Plaintiff provided substantial factual information to their counsel, attended numerous meetings with my office to discuss the case, and generally participated in all phases of the litigation. Accordingly, the requested enhancement payments to Plaintiff is appropriate and justified as part of the Settlement.

1 51. For the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully requested that the Court approve the 2 settlement in its entirety.

3 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the Defendant has no obligation to pay the Gross Settlement Amount prior to the deadline stated in Paragraph 6.1 of this Agreement. The Administrator will disburse the entire Gross Settlement Amount without asking or requiring Aggrieved Employees to submit any claim as a condition of payment. None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.

- 3.2. Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. The Administrator will make and deduct the following payments from the Gross Settlement Amount, in the amounts specified by the Court in the Final Approval:
 - 3.2.1. To PAGA Counsel: A PAGA Counsel Fees Payment of not more than one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount which is currently estimated to be $110,000.00 and PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $30,000.00. Defendant will not oppose requests for Court approval of these payments provided that they do not exceed these amounts. Plaintiff and/or PAGA Counsel will file an application or motion for PAGA Counsel Fees Payment and PAGA Litigation Expenses Payment. If the Court approves a PAGA Counsel Fees Payment and/or a PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment less than the amounts requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. Released Parties shall have no liability to PAGA Counsel or any other Plaintiff's Counsel arising from any claim to any portion any PAGA Counsel Fee Payment and/or PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment.  - 3.2.2. To Plaintiff: A PAGA Representative Enhancement Award to Plaintiff of not more than $7,500.00 (in addition to any Individual PAGA Payment Plaintiff is entitled to as an Aggrieved Employee). As part of the Settlement approval motion, Plaintiff and/or PAGA Counsel will request approval for the PAGA Representative Enhancement Award. If the Court approves a PAGA Representative Enhancement Award less than the amount requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the PAGA Penalty Allocation. The Administrator will pay the PAGA Representative Enhancement Award using IRS Form 1099. Plaintiff assumes full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on the PAGA Representative Enhancement Award.

3.2.3. To the Administrator: An Administrator Expenses Payment not to exceed $6,000.00 except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. To the extent the Administration Expenses are less or the Court approves payment less than $6,000.00, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount.

3.2.4. To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: The PAGA Penalty Allocation to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, with 75% allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.

3.2.4.1. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalty Allocation by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.

3.2.4.2. If the Court approves PAGA Penalty Allocation of less than the amount requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

4. SETTLEMENT FUNDING AND PAYMENTS.

4.1. Aggrieved Employee Pay Periods. Based on a review of its records to date, Defendant estimates there are 480 Aggrieved Employees who worked a total 11,000 Pay Periods during the PAGA Period.

4.2. Aggrieved Employee Data. Within 30 days, Defendant will simultaneously deliver the Aggrieved Employee Data to the Administrator in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. To protect Aggrieved Employee' privacy rights, the Administrator must maintain the Aggrieved Employee Data in confidence, use the Aggrieved Employee Data only for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Aggrieved Employee Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Aggrieved Employee Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. Defendant has a continuing duty to immediately notify PAGA Counsel if it discovers that the Aggrieved Employee Data omitted employee identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Aggrieved Employee Data as soon as reasonably feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which Defendant must send the Aggrieved Employee Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted Aggrieved Employee Data.

The face of each check shall prominently state the date (not less than 180 days after the date of mailing) when the check will be voided. The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.

4.4.2. The Administrator must conduct an Aggrieved Employee Address Search for all Aggrieved Employees whose checks are returned undelivered without USPS forwarding address. Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Aggrieved Employee Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Aggrieved Employees whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Aggrieved Employee whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Aggrieved Employee prior to the void date.

4.4.3. For any Aggrieved Employee whose Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks [to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Aggrieved Employee.

4.4.4. The payment of Individual PAGA Payments shall not obligate Defendant to confer any additional benefits or make any additional payments to the Aggrieved Employees (such as 401(k) contributions or bonuses) beyond those specified in this Agreement.

5. RELEASES OF CLAIMS. Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

5.1 Plaintiff's Release. Plaintiff and her respective former and present spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys (including PAGA Counsel), heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns generally, release and discharge Released Parties from all claims, transactions, liability, demands, losses, damages, violations of state or federal statutes or law, costs, attorney's fees, expenses, compensation, actions, and causes of action (contingent, accrued, inchoate or otherwise) known and unknown (except as may be prohibited by law), arising out of or relating to Plaintiff's employment relationship with Defendant or occurrences that occurred during the PAGA Period, including but not limited to PAGA claims predicated on alleged violations of the California Labor Code sections §§ 201-203, 204, 208, 216, 221-223, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 245-248.6, 432, 432.5, 432.6, 432.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1024.5, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2699, 2699.3, 2802, 2810.5, all applicable Wage Orders during the Covered Pay Periods, as well as all interpretations of these laws by California Courts and administrative bodies, as well as any other law that is enforceable through PAGA; (ii) claims which could have been alleged in the Action under the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act (ICRAA- CA Civil Code section 1786, et seq.) and the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA - 15 U.S.C. section 1681, et seq.); (iii) all claims that could have been premised on the claims, causes of action or legal theories described above or any of the claims, causes of action or legal theories of relief pleaded in the operative complaint and/or raised in the September 27, 2023 PAGA letter to the LWDA; and (iv) all damages, penalties, interest and other amounts recoverable under said claims, causes of action or legal theories of relief ("Plaintiff's Release"). 5.2 Release by the LWDA:

The LWDA is deemed to release the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice.

6. MOTION OR APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT. The Parties agree to jointly prepare and file an application or motion for approval of this Settlement.

6.1 Plaintiff's Responsibilities. Plaintiff will prepare and deliver to Defense Counsel all documents necessary for obtaining approval of this Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. (f)(2)) including (i) a draft proposed Order Granting Approval of PAGA Settlement; (ii) a signed declaration from the Administrator attaching its "not to exceed" bid for administering the Settlement and attesting to its willingness to serve; competency; operative procedures for protecting the security of Aggrieved Employee Data; amounts of insurance coverage for any data breach, defalcation of funds or other misfeasance; all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Aggrieved Employees or the LWDA; and the nature and extent of any financial relationship with Plaintiff, PAGA Counsel or Defense Counsel; (iii) a signed declaration from PAGA Counsel firm attesting to its timely transmission to the LWDA of all necessary PAGA documents (initial notice of violations (Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a)), Operative Complaint (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (1)(1)), this Agreement (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (1)(2)); (iv) a redlined version of the parties' Agreement showing all modifications made to the Model Agreement ready for filing with the Court; and (v) all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflict of interest with Aggrieved Employees and/or the Administrator. In their Declarations, Plaintiff and PAGA shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.

- 6.2 Responsibilities of PAGA Counsel. PAGA Counsel and Defense Counsel are jointly responsible for expeditiously finalizing and filing the application or motion for approval of this Settlement no later than 30 days after the full execution of this Agreement and, if necessary, obtaining a prompt hearing date for the motion and appearing in Court to advocate in favor of the motion. PAGA Counsel is responsible for delivering the Court's Preliminary Approval to the Administrator.
- 6.3 Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed application or motion for approval of this Settlement and/or the supporting declarations and documents, PAGA Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant the motion for approval of this Settlement or conditions its approval on any material change to this Agreement, PAGA Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to modify the Agreement and otherwise satisfy the Court's concerns.

- 7.1 Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected Phoenix Class Action Administration ("Phoenix") to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, Phoenix agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.

7.4 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.

8. AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE SIZE ESTIMATES and ESCALATOR CLAUSE

Based on its records, Defendant estimates that, as of the date of this Settlement Agreement, (1) there are 480 Aggrieved Employees who worked 11,000 Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. If the total number of pay periods worked during the PAGA Period is 10% higher than 11,000 (i.e., 12,100 pay periods), then Defendant shall have the option to either: (1) shorten the PAGA Period so that the PAGA Period ends on the date that the pay period count totals 12,100; or (2) supplement the Gross Settlement Amount by the proportionate amount above ten percent. As an example, if the actual number of Pay Periods increases by 15% above 11,000 and Defendant chooses option 1, then the Gross Settlement Amount will be increased by 5%.

9. CONTINUING JURISDICTION OF THE COURT. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

9.1 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the PAGA Counsel Fees Payment and PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, the Parties, their respective counsel waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If another party appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

10. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

10.1 No Admission of Liability or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendant's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does not approve this Settlement, Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

10.2 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.

- 10.3 Attorney Authorization. PAGA Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 10.4 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of mediator Gig Kyriacou and/or the Court for resolution.
- 10.5 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 10.6 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, PAGA Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 10.7 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 10.8 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 10.9 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 10.10 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 10.11 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.

- 10.12 Use and Return of Aggrieved Employee Data. Information provided to PAGA Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the PAGA Data provided to PAGA Counsel by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the Administrator discharges its obligation to pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy all paper and electronic versions of Aggrieved Employee Data received from Defendant unless, prior to the Administrator's payment of all Settlement Funds, Defendant makes a written request to PAGA Counsel for the return, rather than the destructions, of Aggrieved Employee Data.
- 10.13 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 10.14 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 10.15 Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

NOTICE OF PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE OF CLAIMS

Candace Valenzuela v. Kazi Foods, Inc.
Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles
Case No. 23STCV29564

[INSERT DATE OF MAILING]

[INSERT FIRST & LAST NAME]
[INSERT ADDRESS – LINE 1]
[INSERT ADDRESS – LINE 2]

Dear [INSERT FIRST & LAST NAME],

Pursuant to the Order of Honorable Colin Leis of the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles dated [INSERT DATE OF SETTLEMENT APPROVAL], enclosed is your payment from the settlement of the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) claims in the lawsuit entitled Candice Valenzuela v. Kazi Foods, Inc., Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles, Case No. 23STCV29564 (the “Action”).

The Action alleges a single claim for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) against Defendant Kazi Foods, Inc. (“Defendant”), for alleged failure to pay minimum wage for all hours worked; failure to pay overtime at the regular rate; failure to provide lawful meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof; failure to authorize or permit lawful rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof; failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and failure to timely pay wages upon termination. Defendant denies these allegations and denies any wrongdoing of any kind associated with these allegations.

Plaintiff seeks civil penalties on behalf of the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and herself and all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period from September 30, 2022 through October 15, 2024 (“PAGA Employees”). You have been identified as an eligible PAGA Employee in this time period.

Defendant denies Plaintiff’s claims in their entirety and believes that its wage and hour policies and practices fully comply with California law. However, in an effort to avoid the expense and business disruption associated with protracted litigation, Defendant agreed to resolve the Action. The Court has not made any determination about Plaintiff’s allegations. This Notice is not to be understood as an expression of any opinion by the Court as to the merits of the claims.

Honorable Colin Leis of the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles approved the settlement on [INSERT DATE OF SETTLEMENT APPROVAL]. Pursuant to the PAGA, 75% of PAGA penalties are paid to the State of California, and the remaining 25% of the PAGA penalties are paid directly to the Aggrieved Employees who worked during the PAGA Period from September 30, 2022 through October 15, 2024. Each Individual PAGA Payment was calculated on a pro rata basis (i.e., proportional) based on the number of pay periods worked by each PAGA Employee. To determine a PAGA Employee’s pro rata share of the Settlement, the settlement administrator will divide the amount of the PAGA Employees’ 25% share of the PAGA Penalty Allocation by the total number of pay periods worked by all PAGA Employees during the PAGA Period and multiply the resulting amount by the number of pay periods worked by that PAGA Employee. You worked [INSERT PAY PERIODS WORKED] pay periods during the PAGA Period from September 30, 2022 through October 15, 2024 (“PAGA Period”).

The enclosed check is your Individual PAGA Payment. Settlement checks will be null and void 180 days after issuance if not deposited or cashed. In such event, the Settlement Administrator shall direct all unclaimed funds to the California State Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Aggrieved Employee whose checks were not delivered or cashed. If your check is lost or misplaced, you should contact the Settlement Administrator immediately to request a replacement. You will be bound by the Released PAGA Claims provision of the settlement even if you do not cash your check and may not opt out or object to the settlement.

You will receive an IRS 1099 Form for the check for this payment amount. You should seek the advice of a tax professional for any tax issues or questions related to this payment. Defendant will not retaliate against, or take any other negative action against, any employee who cashes the settlement check.

In exchange for the Individual PAGA Payments, Plaintiff and all PAGA Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, Defendant and each of its former and present directors, officers, shareholders, owners, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, and assigns (the "Released Parties") from all claims for PAGA penalties accruing during the PAGA Period from September 30, 2022 to October 15, 2024 that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged in the Action, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice ("Released Claims"). The settlement does not resolve any claims for unpaid or underpaid wages or otherwise preclude you from bringing an action for wages against the Defendant or other Released Parties.

The pleadings and other records in this litigation, including the Settlement Agreement, may be examined online for a fee through the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Bernardino Court Docket website, <https://cap.sb-court.org/search>. You may also contact Phoenix Class Action Administration's toll free at [INSERT ADMINISTRATOR PHONE NUMBER].

PLEASE DO NOT CONTACT THE COURT OR THE JUDGE WITH ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT THE ACTION OR THE SETTLEMENT.

of this Agreement shall be accepted as an original. All executed counterparts and each of them will be deemed to be one and the same instrument if counsel for the Parties will exchange between themselves signed counterparts. Any executed counterpart will be admissible in evidence to prove the existence and contents of this Agreement.

- 10.17 Stay of Litigation. The Parties agree that upon the execution of this Agreement the litigation shall be stayed, except to effectuate the terms of this Agreement. The Parties further agree that upon the signing of this Agreement that pursuant to CCP section 583.330 to extend the date to bring a case to trial under CCP section 583.310 for the entire period of this settlement process.

NOTICE OF PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT CLAIM

To: California Labor and Workforce Development Agency and Kazi Foods, Inc.
Date: September 27, 2023
Subject: Candice Valenzuela v. Kazi Foods, Inc.

Introduction

This office represents PLAINTIFF, Candice Valenzuela (hereinafter "PLAINTIFF") in connection with PLAINTIFF's claims under the California Labor Code. PLAINTIFF was, at all relevant times herein mentioned, an employee of the following entity and individual managing agents of said entity: Kazi Foods, Inc. (hereinafter, this entity and its managing agents are collectively referred to as “DEFENDANTS”). DEFENDANTS may be contacted directly at the addresses listed above.

Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, PLAINTIFF, on behalf of PLAINTIFF, and on behalf of all current and former non-exempt employees employed by any one or more of the DEFENDANTS at any location in California within one year of the date of this notice (“NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES”) and on behalf of all current and former exempt employees employed by any one or more of the DEFENDANTS at any location in California within one year of the date of this notice (“EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES”), hereby gives written notice (“NOTICE”) of PLAINTIFF’s claims against DEFENDANTS. This NOTICE is being provided via online filing to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and DEFENDANTS via certified mail to their Agent(s) for Service of Process and/or entity mailing address as provided to the California Secretary of State.

This NOTICE also serves to demonstrate PLAINTIFF’s reasonable attempt at settlement with DEFENDANTS. If DEFENDANTS are interested in settling this matter before a lawsuit is filed, DEFENDANTS may contact Crosner Legal, P.C., at the address listed at the close of this NOTICE. This settlement attempt is in compliance with relevant California law. Graham v. Daimler Chrysler Corp. (2004) 24 Cal.4th 553, 561.

This NOTICE is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5. This NOTICE further reserves any and all rights by PLAINTIFF to amend this notice to include, amend, or add further charges upon discovery of new violations of any of the provisions of the California Labor Code. In addition, to the extent that entities and/or other individuals are named and charged with violations of the Labor Code—making them liable on an individual basis as permitted by numerous Labor Code sections including, but not limited to sections 558.1 and 1197.1—PLAINTIFF reserves any and all rights to add, substitute, or change the name of employer entities and/or individuals responsible for the violations at issue. Any further amendments and changes to this notice shall relate back to the date of this NOTICE. Consequently, DEFENDANTS are on notice that PLAINTIFF continues its investigation, with the full intent to amend and/or change this notice, to add any undiscovered violations of any of the provisions of the California Labor Code—to the extent that are applicable to this case—and to change and/or add the identities of any entities and/or individuals responsible for the violations contained herein. For violations that are curable under § 2699.3(c) and that DEFENDANTS intend to cure within the statutory time period set forth in §§ 2699 and 2699.3(c), the DEFENDANTS shall provide notice including a description of the actions taken to cure. If the alleged violation is not cured within the statutory time period, PLAINTIFF will commence a civil action pursuant to section 2699. For all other violations that are not curable, an action pursuant to section 2699(a) and 2699(f) will commence after the requirements under 2699.3 are fulfilled.

Based on the following summary of facts and theories upon which PLAINTIFF will base PLAINTIFF’s claims, PLAINTIFF requests that the LWDA regard this NOTICE as written notice of PLAINTIFF’s intent to seek civil penalties against DEFENDANTS. Under Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 745, a PAGA representative has authority to seek penalties for all known violations committed by the employer – regardless of whether the representative experienced all violations personally. Id. at 760-761. Moreover, under Johnson v.

Maxim Healthcare Servs., Inc., (2021) 66 Cal. App. 5th 924, 929, an employee may pursue a claim under PAGA even when that employee's individual claim is time-barred.

PLAINTIFF, on behalf of PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, alleges that the specific provisions of California law that DEFENDANTS have violated, requiring this NOTICE, include but are not limited to: California Labor Code sections 201-203, 204, 208, 216, 221-223, 226, 226.7, 245-248.6, 432, 432.5, 432.6, 432.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1024.5, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, 2810.5, and all applicable Wage Orders.

The Named Entities Are Joint Employers of PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES

California courts have recognized that the definition of "employer" for purposes of enforcement of the California Labor Code goes beyond the concept of traditional employment to reach irregular working arrangements for the purpose of preventing evasion and subterfuge of California's labor laws. Martinez v. Combs (2010) 49 Cal.4th 35, 65. As such, anyone who directly or indirectly, or through an agent or any other person, engages, suffers, or permits any person to work or exercises control over the wages, hours, or working conditions of any person, may be liable for violations of the California Labor Code as to that person.

PLAINTIFF is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times DEFENDANTS and unknown entities operated as a single integrated enterprise with common ownership and centralized human resources as set forth herein. Under California law, in determining whether two defendant entities are liable as an integrated enterprise, courts consider four factors: (1) centralized control of labor relations; (2) interrelation of operations; (3) common management; and (4) common ownership or financial control. Laird v. Capital Cities/ABC, Inc. (1998) 68 Cal.App.4th 727, 737 (overruled on other grounds, Reid v. Google, Inc. (2010) 50 Cal. 4th 512 (2010).)

PLAINTIFF believes and hereon asserts that DEFENDANTS and unknown entities must be classified as joint employers of PLAINTIFF for purposes of liability for civil penalties under PAGA, as the aforementioned entities engaged, suffered and permitted PLAINTIFF to perform services from which they benefited, and furthermore that the aforementioned entities had the right to exercise control over the wages, hours and/or working conditions of PLAINTIFF at all relevant times herein, so as to be considered the joint employers of PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES. By reason of their status as joint employers of PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, they are each liable for civil penalties for violations of the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders as to PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

Individual Liability Under Labor Code § 558.1

Labor Code section 558.1 permits joint and several liability as to both an individual and employer for violations of Labor Code sections 203, 226, 226.7, 1194, and 2802. DEFENDANTS, at all relevant times, were an employer or person acting on behalf of employer(s) who violated

PLAINTIFF's and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' rights by violating various sections of the California Labor Code. The California Legislature defines "other person acting on behalf of an employer" as "a natural person who is an owner, director, officer, or managing agent of the employer." The "managing agent" definition mirrors that found in California's punitive damages statute (subdivision (b) of section 3294 of the Civil Code). Under that statute and supporting case law, "managing agents" are all employees who exercise substantial independent authority and judgment in their corporate decision-making such that their decisions ultimately determine corporate policy. White v. Ultramar, Inc. (1999) 21 Cal. 4th 563, 566-67. For the reasons set forth above and others, at all relevant times, any above-listed individuals meet the criteria of managing agents under California law, and therefore, may be held liable under California Labor Code sections 558 and 558.1 for violations of Labor Code §§ 203, 226, 226.7, and 1194 as further described in detail below.

PLAINTIFF intends to further name any unknown individuals responsible for violations arising under Labor Code sections 558 and 558.1 after further discovery. PLAINTIFF will ask the Court to relate the amendment of the PAGA charge and the operative complaint to the date of filing of these charges. PLAINTIFF asks and demands that DEFENDANTS put these individuals on notice immediately to provide them as much notice possible to mount in defense. In the alternative, PLAINTIFF also offers to DEFENDANTS to place those individuals on notice if DEFENDANTS voluntarily provides their contact information.

General Information

DEFENDANTS own, operate, manage and/or staff its employees to work at the facilities, restaurants and/or other location(s) in California, including but not limited to, the facilities, restaurants in Pacoima and Canoga Park, California. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS own, operate, manage and/or staff its employees to work at at least 482 facilities, locations, and/or restaurants located in cities throughout California. DEFENDANTS operate under the name(s) "KFC" and/or "Kentucky Fried Chicken." DEFENDANTS, through its various locations serve the restaurant and/or fast food industry.¹ Although DEFENDANTS may operate a successful company or have a noble mission, DEFENDANTS do not comply with California's labor laws.

PLAINTIFF is a current employee of DEFENDANTS. PLAINTIFF worked for DEFENDANTS as a non-exempt employee with a job title of cashier and/or assistant manager and/or non-exempt manager and/or similar titles and/or job positions from on or around November 18, 2020, through the present. PLAINTIFF worked for DEFENDANTS at DEFENDANTS' Pacoima and Canoga Park, California location(s). PLAINTIFF regularly worked at least six (6) to eight (8) hours per day, at times working at least twelve (12) hours per day, at least five (5) to six (6) days per week. DEFENDANTS paid PLAINTIFF an hourly rate for time counted by DEFENDANTS as hours worked.

Among other things, DEFENDANTS (1) failed and continue to fail to keep accurate and complete time records for PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES; (2) failed and continue to fail to pay PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES for all hours worked; (3) failed and continue to fail to pay PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES at least minimum wage for all hours worked and overtime/regular rates for corresponding work; (4) failed and continue to fail to pay proper overtime wages for failure to incorporate all non-discretionary compensation into the overtime premium pay calculations; (5) failed and continue to fail to provide PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with proper meal and/or rest breaks, and/or compensate PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES an additional hour of premium pay at the regular rate of compensation for missed/improper meal and/or rest periods; (6) refused and continue to refuse to make and/or falsely denied the amount of payments due to PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, including but not limited to, owed sick pay; (7) failed and continue to fail to place PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES on proper notice of their workplace rights, including but not limited to owed sick pay; (8) failed and continue to fail to provide legally compliant wage statements to PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES; (9) made unlawful deductions from PLAINTIFF's and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' paychecks; (10) failed and continue to fail to timely pay wages to PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES during employment and/or upon separation of employment; (11) failed and continue to fail to reimburse PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES for business expenses incurred on behalf of DEFENDANTS; (12) conducted and continue to conduct illegal criminal and/or financial background checks as a condition of PLAINTIFF's, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' hire and continued employment; (13) required and continue to require PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to disclose arrests not resulting in convictions and/or to disclose convictions prior to extending an offer of employment and/or otherwise impermissibly inquired and continue to inquire into PLAINTIFF's, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES', and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' criminal history on their employment applications and sign off on same as a condition of employment; (14) failed and continue to fail to provide suitable seating; and (15) required and continue to require PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree in writing to a term or condition that violates the law as a condition of employment. Further descriptions of the above-mentioned violations and others are explained below.

Labor Code Violations

Recordkeeping Requirement Violations: California Labor Code section 1174 requires employers to keep "accurate and complete" payroll records showing, among other things, the hours worked daily by PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES. All applicable IWC Wage Orders, section 7 similarly requires employers to keep accurate time records reflecting the times during which allowed meal periods were provided each day.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed, and continue to fail, to keep accurate and complete payroll records as required by law, including but not limited to the following records:

total daily hours worked, applicable rates of pay, time records showing when PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES began and ended each work period, time records of meal periods, and accurate itemized wage statements.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed and continue to fail to keep accurate and complete records showing total hours worked by PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES by virtue of DEFENDANTS' time rounding and/or auto deduction policies and practices and/or other off-the-clock work policies and practices.

DEFENDANTS failed and continue to fail to keep accurate and complete records showing total hours worked by virtue of DEFENDANTS' failure to relieve PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES of all duties and DEFENDANTS' control for unpaid meal periods, resulting in unpaid hours worked.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS further failed, and continue to fail, to record the true start and end times of PLAINTIFF's and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' meal periods.

Based on further information and belief, DEFENDANTS further failed and continue to fail, to record the true start and end times of PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' work shifts.

Additionally, DEFENDANTS failed, and continue to fail to keep accurate records and issue accurate wage statements by not documenting accrued sick time for PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

DEFENDANTS' failure to keep "accurate and complete" payroll records for PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES violates Labor Code sections 1174, 1198, 1199, and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, section 7. These violations subject DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 558.1, 226.6, 1174.5 and 2699. Each violation of each Labor Code section and Wage Order provision, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE, results in a separate civil penalty.²

Violations of Labor Code Sections 226(b)-(c), 1198.5, and 432:

Time and Pay Records

Labor Code section 226 and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, section 7 require that employers keep the following information on file for each employee for a minimum of three years: The employee's dates of employment; the employee's hourly rates and the corresponding number of hours worked by the employee at each hourly rate, when the employee begins and ends each work period (including meal periods) and split intervals; total hours worked by the employee; all deductions; gross wages earned; and net wages earned.

Section (b) of Labor Code section 226 further requires employers to "afford current and former employees the right to inspect or receive a copy of records pertaining to their employment upon reasonable request to the employer.” Section (c) of Labor Code section 226 provides that, “an employer who receives a written or oral request to inspect or receive a copy of records pursuant to subdivision (b) pertaining to a current or former employee shall comply with the request as soon as practicable, but no later than 21 calendar days from the date of the request. A violation of this subdivision is an infraction.” An employer’s failure to comply within this timeframe entitles a current or former employee to recover a seven hundred fifty-dollar ($750) penalty from the employer. Lab. Code section 226(f).

Personnel Records

In addition to their right to time and pay records, employees, and their representatives, have the right to inspect and receive a copy of their personnel files pursuant to Labor Code section 1198.5. This statute applies to both former and current employees. Labor Code section 432 further specifies that employers must furnish copies of all employment records bearing the employee’s signature.

Labor Code section 1198.5 also requires that the file be made available for inspection or receipt within a “reasonable” amount of time, but “not later than 30 calendar days from the date the employer receives a written request.” An employer’s failure to comply within this timeframe likewise entitles a current or former employee to recover a seven hundred fifty-dollar ($750) penalty from the employer. Lab. Code section 1198.5(k).

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to timely produce or make available a current or former employee’s personnel records and/or payroll records when requested pursuant to Labor Code sections 226, 1198.5, 432, and/or the applicable Wage Order. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed and continue to fail to timely produce complete payroll and personnel records when requested by NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

These violations subject DEFENDANTS to penalties under Labor Code sections 226, 1198.5, and 2699. Each violation of each Labor Code section and Wage Order provision, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE and each EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE, results in a separate civil penalty.

Meal Period Violations: California law requires employers to provide employees a duty-free, uninterrupted thirty (30) minute meal period when an employee works more than five (5) hours in a workday, and it must be provided within the first five (5) hours the employee works. Lab. Code section 512 (and all applicable IWC Wage Orders), section 11(A) and (C); Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. Employers must also provide employees with a second duty-free, uninterrupted thirty (30) minute meal period when an employee works more than (10) hours in a workday, and it must be provided before the end of the 10th hour of work. Ibid. Meal periods can be waived, but only under the following circumstances: (1) if an employee’s total work period in a day is over five (5) hours but no more than six (6) hours, the required meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and employee, and (2) if an employee’s total work period in a day is over ten (10) hours but no more than twelve (12) hours, the required second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and employee, but only if the first meal period was not waived. Ibid. Upon information and belief, PLAINTIFF did not sign a valid meal period waiver throughout PLAINTIFF’s employment by DEFENDANTS.

Employers covered by any and all applicable IWC Wage Orders have an obligation to both (1) relieve their employees for at least one meal period for shifts over five hours (see above), and (2) to record having done so. If the employer fails to properly record a valid meal period, it is presumed that no meal period was provided. All applicable IWC Wage Orders, section 7(A)(3) (“Meal periods . . . shall also be recorded”); Brinker, supra, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1052-1053, citing section 7(A)(3) (“If an employer’s records show no meal period for a given shift over five hours, a rebuttable presumption arises that the employee was not relieved of duty and no meal period was provided”).

Employers must pay employees an additional hour of wages at the employees’ regular rate of pay for each missed or unlawful meal period (e.g., less than 30 minutes, interrupted meal period, first meal period provided after five (5) hours, second meal period provided after 10 hours). Lab. Code § 226.7; all applicable IWC Wage Orders, §11(B) (“If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable provision of this Order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided”); Brinker, supra, 53 Cal.4th 1004.

PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES consistently worked shifts of five and a one-half (5 ½) hours or more, entitling to at least one meal period.

PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES would not receive legally compliant thirty (30) minute first meal breaks. Based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were consistently unable to take timely, off duty, thirty-minute, uninterrupted meal periods, often being forced to take late meal periods, interrupted meal periods, and/or work through part or all their meal periods due to understaffing, the nature and constraints of their job duties and/or commentary from supervisors pressuring them to take non-compliant meal breaks or skip meal breaks completely.

For example, based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were frequently forced to take late meal periods in order to complete assigned job duties. Based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were frequently interrupted during purported meal periods and/or had meal periods cut short and/or restricted to DEFENDANTS' premises due to the need to continue assigned job duties.

For example, while working as a cashier and/or assistant manager and/or other similar title(s) and/or position(s), including but not limited to, at DEFENDANTS' Pacoima location(s), PLAINTIFF was restricted to DEFENDANTS’ premises during purportedly off-duty meal periods, resulting in DEFENDANTS’ failure to relieve PLAINTIFF of all duties and control during unpaid meal periods, in violation of California meal period laws and minimum wage laws, among other violations of the Labor Code described herein.

Also, while working as a non-exempt manager and/or similar title(s) and/or position(s) at DEFENDANTS' Canoga Park location(s) beginning in or around June/July 2022, PLAINTIFF was frequently, if not always, interrupted during unpaid meal periods and/or required to clock out for her meal periods but to continue working due to the need to complete assigned job duties.

Based on information and belief, other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were consistently suffered and permitted to take meal periods past the fifth hour of work and/or had their meal periods interrupted, cut short, restricted to DEFENDANTS' premises and/or otherwise on duty due to commentary from supervisors, understaffing, the nature and constraints of their job duties, and/or the need to meet DEFENDANTS' goals and expectations.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS implemented policies and/or practices that failed to relieve NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES of all duties and DEFENDANTS' control during unpaid meal periods.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to complete off-the-clock work prior to their scheduled shift time which DEFENDANTS failed to take into account when scheduling meal periods for NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES. Based on information and belief, meal periods were late, in part due to unaccounted pre-shift off-the-clock work.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS had actual and/or constructive knowledge that their policies and practices resulted in the denial of uninterrupted meal periods which were free of DEFENDANTS' control owed to PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, in violation of California's meal period laws.

Based on information and belief, per DEFENDANTS' uniform policy and practice, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES who worked shifts of more than ten hours did not receive a second legally compliant thirty (30) minute second meal break.

For example, when PLAINTIFF worked more than ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours in a shift, PLAINTIFF was not provided with any version of a second meal period.

Based on information and belief, despite DEFENDANTS' failure to provide lawful meal periods, DEFENDANTS implemented a policy and/or practice of rounding the start and end times of PLAINTIFF's and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' meal periods and/or automatically deducting at least thirty minutes per shift for missed and/or otherwise unlawful meal periods (including meal periods restricted to DEFENDANTS' premises), despite having actual and/or constructive knowledge that PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES did not receive lawful meal periods.

Moreover, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to keep accurate records of the true start and end times of PLAINTIFF's and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' meal periods. Based on information and belief, to the extent meal period were recorded, DEFENDANTS illegally rounded the start and end times of purported meal periods resulting in PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES not being paid for all time worked as well as late and/or shortened meal periods. See Donohue v. AMN Services, LLC (2021) 11 Cal.5th 58.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to instruct PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES as to the timing and duty-free nature of meal periods.

Based on further information and belief, DEFENDANTS did not have a compliant written meal break policy, nor did DEFENDANTS have any sort of compliant policy in practice. Liability for the NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES can be established by evidence that an employer adopted a uniform corporate break policy that failed to give full effect to California law and the applicable Wage Order requirements. The fact that employees may legally waive meal breaks does not affect this result. Brinker, supra, 53 Cal.4th 1004.

PLAINTIFF is further informed and believes and thereon alleges that DEFENDANTS had actual and/or constructive knowledge that their time-rounding and/or auto-deduction policies and practices resulted in the denial of lawful meal periods owed to PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, in violation of California's meal period laws.

DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, an additional hour of wages at their respective regular rates of compensation for each workday a lawful meal period was not provided. DEFENDANTS either failed to pay a meal period premium at all for each workday a lawful meal period was not provided and/or failed to pay the proper meal period premium for failure to incorporate all non-discretionary remuneration, including but not limited to, bonuses, shift differential pay and/or other non-discretionary compensation into the regular rate or compensation for purposes of calculating the owed meal period premium.

The aforementioned conduct results in violations of Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198-1199, and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, section 11(A) and (C) along with all applicable IWC Wage Orders. These violations subject DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 558.1, 558 and 2699, and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, section 20. Each violation of each Labor Code section and Wage Order provision results in a separate civil penalty, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE for each pay period during which the referenced statutes and Wage Order provisions were violated.³ DEFENDANTS' failure to provide valid meal periods, and the automatic deduction for meal periods that were not provided/valid, ultimately results in further violations, such as violations of Labor Code sections 1174, 1199, 226.6, discussed above, and other violations discussed below.

Rest Period Violations: California law requires employers to provide employees a paid, duty-free ten (10) minute rest period for each four (4) hours worked, or major fraction thereof. See applicable IWC Wage Order, §12(A). In Brinker v. Restaurant Corp., 53 Cal.4th 1004 (2012), the California Supreme Court held that employees are entitled to a 10-minute paid rest period for shifts from 3 ½ to 6 hours in length, two 10-minute rest periods for shifts more than 6 hours up to 10 hours, and three 10-minute rest periods for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours. (Id. at 1029). The rest period requirement obligates employers to permit and authorize employees to take off-duty rest periods, meaning employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. Employers must pay employees an additional hour of wages at the employee's regular rate of pay for each missed or improper rest period (e.g., less than 10 minutes, interrupted rest period, rest period(s) at improper time(s) during shift(s). Lab. Code §226.7; applicable IWC Wage Order, §12(B) ("If an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided").

³ See Lab. Code §2699(f)(2) (establishing that the civil penalty is “for each aggrieved employee per pay period”); Lab. Code §558 (establishing that the civil penalty is “for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid”); All applicable IWC Wage Orders, §20 (establishing that “[i]n addition to any other civil penalties provided by law, any employer or any other person acting on behalf of the employer who violates, or causes to be violated, the provisions of this order, shall be subject to the civil penalty...for each underpaid employee for each pay period during which the employee was underpaid”).

Moreover, under California law rest periods must be a "net" ten minutes in a suitable rest area. Id. at 268 (relying on January 3, 1986 and February 22, 2002 DLSE Letters wherein the DLSE ruled that the net ten-minute language for rest periods means ten minutes of time in a rest area and cannot include time it takes to get to and from the rest area). The employer must show that it clearly articulates the right to a net ten minutes, which means it must clearly communicate what "net" ten minutes means (i.e., regardless of what happens along the way to and from a rest area, employees are entitled to a full ten minutes of rest in the rest area). Id.; see also, Bufile v. Dollar Fin. Grp., Inc., (2008) 162 Cal. App. 4th 1193, 1199 (the "onus is on the employer to clearly communicate the authorization and permission [to take rest periods] to their employees.").

DEFENDANTS did not properly authorize and provide PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with legally compliant rest periods at a rate of every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, that insofar as practicable, are provided in the middle of the work period, as required by law.

PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were not adequately informed, authorized, instructed about, nor permitted an opportunity to take proper rest breaks per California law. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS had no policy in place nor instruction as to the taking of duty-free rest periods. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS did not have a compliant written rest period policy, nor did DEFENDANTS have any sort of compliant rest period policy in practice.

For example, based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were frequently unable to take compliant rest periods due to their need to complete assigned job duties and/or were unable to take a net ten-minute rest period in a suitable rest area and/or had purported rest periods restricted to DEFENDANTS' premises.

For example, PLAINTIFF was rarely, if ever, received a ten-minute, off-duty rest period from including but not limited to, in or around November 2020 through in or around May 2023.

Based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' rest periods were interrupted, cut short, on duty, restricted to premises and/or late due to understaffing, the nature and constraints of their job duties, and/or due to commentary from supervisors/ managers pressuring NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to skip rest breaks completely or otherwise take non-compliant rest periods.

Moreover, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to provide any form of a third rest period on shifts lasting longer than ten hours.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS implemented policies and/or practices that failed to relieve PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES of all duties and DEFENDANTS' control during rest periods.

Based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were pressured to complete their work duties according to a designated schedule such that rest breaks were only taken once tasks were completed, and/or as time permitted.

Furthermore, DEFENDANTS failed to pay a rest period premium for each day in which NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES experienced a missed or otherwise unlawful rest period in violation of California law. Bluford v. Safeway Stores, Inc. (2013) 216 Cal. App. 4th 864, 872. DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, an additional hour of wages at their respective regular rates of pay for each workday a proper rest period was not provided. DEFENDANTS either failed to pay a rest period premium at all for each workday a lawful rest period was not provided and/or failed to pay the proper rest period premium for failure to incorporate all non-discretionary remuneration, including but not limited to, bonuses, shift differential pay, and/or other non-discretionary compensation into the regular rate of compensation for purposes of calculating the owed rest period premium.

The aforementioned conduct results in violations of Labor Code sections 226.7, and 1198-1199, and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, §12(A). These violations subject DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 558, 2699, and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, §20. Each violation of each Labor Code section and Wage Order provision results in a separate civil penalty, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE for each pay period during which the referenced statutes and Wage Order provisions were violated.⁴

Failure to Provide Suitable Resting Facilities: Per section 13 of all applicable IWC Wage Orders, employees shall be provided with suitable resting facilities. Section 13(B) of the Wage Orders provides: "Suitable resting facilities shall be provided in an area separate from the toilet rooms and shall be available to employees during work hours."

DEFENDANTS' locations/facilities are generally similar in layout and design, and there was, and continue to be, space that allows for a resting facility that employees may use to cease work and recover during meal or rest periods. DEFENDANTS could have provided NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with a resting facility within DEFENDANTS' facilities/locations with reasonable or no modification, but instead denied and continue to deny, employees with suitable areas to rest (e.g. a breakroom). As a result, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED

⁴ See Lab. Code §2699(f)(2) (establishing that the civil penalty is "for each aggrieved employee per pay period"); and All applicable IWC Wage Orders, §20 (establishing that "[i]n addition to any other civil penalties provided by law, any employer or any other person acting on behalf of the employer who violates, or causes to be violated, the provisions of this order, shall be subject to the civil penalty...for each underpaid employee for each pay period during which the employee was underpaid").

EMPLOYEEES were forced to adjust to areas not conducive to resting, including but not limited to leaning up against the wall, or search for facilities outside of DEFENDANTS' premises which are not designated or reserved for rest, such as their personal vehicles.

DEFENDANTS did not provide NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEEES with suitable resting facilities during their hours of work, particularly during meal and/or rest periods.

DEFENDANTS' failure to provide suitable resting facilities to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEEES violated and continue to violate the applicable Wage Order, section 13(B) and the California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 1198.

Minimum Wage Violations: "Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit." Labor Code section 1194.

Labor Code section 1197 states the California requirement that employees must be paid at least the minimum wage fixed by the Commission, and any payment of less than the minimum wage is unlawful. The minimum wage standard applies to each hour employees worked for which they were not paid. Pursuant to section 4 of the applicable Wage Order, "Every employer shall pay to each employee not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in the payroll period..." The applicable Wage Order defines "hours worked" as "the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so." See §2 of all applicable Wage Orders. Therefore, employers are required to pay employees for all time spent subject to the control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered or permitted to work. An employer's failure to pay for any particular hour worked by an employee is unlawful even if averaging an employee's total pay over all hours worked, paid or not, results in an average hourly wage above minimum wage. Armenta v. Osmose, Inc. (2005) 135 Cal.App.4th 314, 324. Furthermore, "in any action under Section 98, 1193.6, 1194, or 1197.1 to recover wages because of the payment of a wage less than the minimum wage fixed by an order of the commission or by statute, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon..." Cal. Lab. Code § 1194.2.

DEFENDANTS failed to compensate PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEEES for all hours worked by virtue of DEFENDANTS' automatic deduction and time rounding policies for shift start and shift end times and meal period start and end times, and failure to relieve employees of all duties/employer control during unpaid meal periods or otherwise unlawful practices for missed or improper meal periods as explained above.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS implemented a policy and/or practice of rounding meal period start and end times and/or automatically deducting at least thirty minutes per shift for meal periods, despite having actual and/or constructive knowledge that PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEEES were subject to DEFENDANTS' control during purported meal periods and/or were otherwise not afforded with lawful meal periods, depriving PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES of all wages owed.

Based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were not paid for all hours worked due to DEFENDANTS' policy and/or practice of paying according to scheduled hours worked instead of actual time worked, and/or mandated off-the clock work policies and/or practices.

For example, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS sometimes require/required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to travel between DEFENDANTS' restaurants, facilities and/or locations and/or run business errands before and/or after a scheduled shift and/or during unpaid meal periods without compensating NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES for the travel time and/or other off-the-clock work performed.

For example, based on information and belief, due to scheduling issues and/or understaffing, PLAINTIFF was sometimes required to perform business errands for DEFENDANTS but was not compensated for including but not limited to, the time spent traveling and/or time spent performing business errands for DEFENDANTS, resulting in the underpayment of minimum and overtime wages owed to PLAINTIFF.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS did not compensate NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES for time spent donning and doffing personal protective equipment and/or uniforms (e.g., rubber gloves, hairnets, aprons, hats, and/or face masks) during meal periods, before the start of a scheduled shift, and/or after completing a scheduled shift, resulting in the underpayment of wages owed to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

Based on information and belief, at times, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were required to complete off-the-clock work outside of scheduled shifts due to work-related phone calls and/or messages they received to their phones/mobile devices and were required to respond to, including but not limited to, communications from supervisors regarding scheduling and/or other work tasks, resulting in the underpayment of wages owed to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were required to perform other off-the-clock work for which they were not compensated. For example, based on information and belief, at times, DEFENDANTS' biometric/electronic employee time-keeping system malfunctioned such that NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were required to either reinitiate and/or otherwise troubleshoot the system prior to being able to clock in and/or were unable to clock in at all for the start of their shifts and/or clock back in from meal periods, resulting in off-the-clock work and the underpayment of wages owed to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES. Based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES experienced the same issues when clocking out for shifts and/or back in for meal periods. This time spent under DEFENDANTS' control was not recorded and not compensated and resulted in unpaid minimum wages owed to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

Moreover, based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES who opened their work locations were required to first unlock the doors, turn on all the lights in the restaurant/facility and/or deactivate the alarm before clocking in for work, resulting in pre-shift off-the-clock work and the underpayment of wages owed to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES. Based on further information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES in charge of closing their location(s) were required to first clock out for their shifts before enabling the alarm, turning off all the lights in the facility and/or locking the doors. This resulted in additional off-the-clock post-shift work that was not compensated and the underpayment of wages owed to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to undergo COVID-19 temperature screenings and/or complete questionnaires prior to beginning their scheduled shift and/or prior to clocking/signing in, thereby, resulting in pre-shift off-the-clock work.

PLAINTIFF also alleges that DEFENDANTS would unlawfully edit the clock in and out times for his and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' meal periods in order to display at least a thirty minute off-duty meal period during most if not all shifts worked, notwithstanding the fact that DEFENDANTS had actual and/or constructive knowledge that DEFENDANTS had required PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' to perform work-related tasks during their meal periods.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES the applicable minimum wage for the county and/or city within which the NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE worked in California.

For example, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES working in DEFENDANTS' facilities located in the city of Los Angeles and/or within an unincorporated area of the county of Los Angeles, at the applicable minimum wage rate(s) in effect for the city and/or county of Los Angeles, and as such failed to pay all owed minimum wages. For example, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS paid NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES $15.00 per hour after July 1, 2022 and/or another hourly rate that was below minimum wage rate in effect for the city and/or county of Los Angeles. See Section 187.02(d) of the Los Angeles Municipal Code (increasing the minimum wage rate, effective July 1, 2023, by $.74 for a new minimum wage rate of $16.78 per hour) and Los Angeles County Minimum Wage Ordinance section 8.100.040 (increasing the minimum wage rate for the unincorporated areas of Los Angeles to $16.90 per hour).

Moreover, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES split shift premium wages when they worked split shifts during the relevant period.

For example, based on information and belief, at times, DEFENDANTS required PLAINTIFF and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to work two separate shifts in the same day. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES split shift compensation whenever PLAINTIFF's and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' work schedules were interrupted by non-paid non-working periods established by DEFENDANTS, which resulted in a violation of the applicable Wage Order (See section 4 of all applicable Wage orders, "When an employee works a split shift, one (1) hour's pay at the minimum wage shall be paid in addition to the minimum wage for that workday..."). See, also, Cal. Code Regs. Tit. 8, § 11050 (when an employee works a split shift, one (1) hour's pay at the minimum wage shall be paid in addition to the minimum wage for that workday, except when the employee resides at the place of employment). DEFENDANTS also failed to separately itemize these split shift premium wages on PLAINTIFF's and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' wage statements, in violation of Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and all applicable IWC Wage Orders. See, https://www.dir.ca.gov/dlse/split_shift.htm. (The employer must itemize the premium payment on the pay stub provided to the employee, and it should be shown as a separate category such as "Split Shift Premium" and should not be lumped into another category such as wages, bonus, etc. DEFENDANTS failed to separately account for the split shift premiums earned by PLAINTIFF and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES on their wage statements.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to pay NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES for time they were required to spend completing orientation, policy questionnaires, and/or time spent completing the onboarding process including but not limited to reviewing various documents and policies provided by DEFENDANTS. Based on information and belief, this work time was completed off-the-clock and was not compensated.

Based on further information and belief, DEFENDANTS implemented a time-rounding system that as applied systematically deprived PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES of compensable time because the time-rounding system implemented by DEFENDANTS would almost always, if not always, result in understating actual compensable work time. DEFENDANTS' failure to pay for all time worked by virtue of their time-rounding practices resulted in the underpayment of minimum wages owed to PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES as well as unpaid overtime wages for those NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES who worked more than eight (8) hours in a day and/or more than forty (40) hours in a week.

DEFENDANTS' failure to pay for all time worked by virtue of their time rounding, auto-deduction policies and practices for unlawful meal periods, failure to provide lawful meal periods, and/or other off-the-clock work practices and policies, resulted in the underpayment of minimum wages owed to PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES as well as unpaid overtime wages for those NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES who worked more than eight (8) hours in a day and/or more than forty (40) hours in a week.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS had actual and/or constructive knowledge that their time rounding policies/practices, auto-deduction policies and practices, failure to provide lawful meal periods and/or other off-the-clock work resulted in the underpayment of minimum wages owed to PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, in violation of California's minimum wage laws.

These violations subject DEFENDANTS, to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 558, 558.1, 1197.1 and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, §20. Each violation of each Labor Code section and Wage Order provision results in a separate civil penalty, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE, for each pay period during which the referenced statutes and Wage Order provisions were violated.⁵

Overtime Violations: California law requires employers to pay overtime equal to one and one-half times the regular hourly rate of pay for each hour worked beyond eight (8) hours per workday and each hour worked beyond forty (40) hours per work week. Lab. Code §510; IWC Wage Order All applicable IWC Wage Orders §3. Employers must pay overtime equal to double the regular hourly rate of pay for each hour worked beyond twelve (12) hours per workday and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in a work week. Ibid.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS violated California's overtime laws by, among other things, failing to correctly calculate, or record, the total number of hours worked by PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and not paying proper overtime rates for overtime worked by virtue of same.

Namely, DEFENDANTS' automatic deduction and time rounding policies and practices for meal periods and shift start times and shift end times, payment according to scheduled hours worked rather than actual time worked, off-the-clock/unpaid work completed during meal periods and/or time spent restricted to DEFENDANTS' premises and/or subject to DEFENDANTS' control during off-the-clock meal periods (described above), and/or other off-the-clock work resulted in the failure to account for all hours worked and thus the denial of minimum wages as well as overtime wages owed to PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES who worked more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a week.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed and continue to fail to pay a premium wage rate for all hours worked beyond eight (8) hours in a day or beyond forty (40) hours in a week.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed and continue to fail to pay twice NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' regular rate(s) of pay for time worked beyond twelve (12) hours per workday and for time worked beyond eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in a work week, in violation of California's overtime laws.

Based on further information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to pay the applicable minimum wage rate(s) in effect for the city and/or county in which the NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE worked, which resulted in a failure to pay all owed overtime wages as the overtime rate was based on an unlawful minimum wage rate. For example, based on information and belief

⁵ See Lab. Code §1197.1(a) (establishing that the civil penalty is "for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid"); All applicable IWC Wage Orders, §20 (establishing that "[i]n addition to any other civil penalties provided by law, any employer or any other person acting on behalf of the employer who violates, or causes to be violated, the provisions of this order, shall be subject to the civil penalty...for each underpaid employee for each pay period during which the employee was underpaid").

DEFENDANTS failed to pay the applicable minimum wage rate(s) in effect for the city and/or county of Los Angeles, which resulted in a failure to pay all owed overtime wages owed to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES as the overtime rate was based on an unlawful minimum wage rate.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to incorporate all non-discretionary remuneration, including but not limited to, shift differential pay, bonus pay, multiple base rates of pay and/or other non-discretionary pay into the regular rate of pay used to calculate the owed overtime rate(s), resulting in the miscalculation and underpayment of overtime wages owed to PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

For example, based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES earned non-discretionary bonuses/incentive pay and/or shift differential pay and/or other non-discretionary compensation during pay periods in which they worked overtime, yet DEFENDANTS failed to incorporate all non-discretionary compensation into the regular rate(s) used to calculate the owed overtime rate(s), resulting in the miscalculation and underpayment of overtime wages owed to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

This conduct results in violations of Labor Code sections 218.5, 510, 558, 558.1, 1198-1199, and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, §12(A). These violations subject DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 558, 558.1, 218.5, and 2699, and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, §20. Each violation of each Labor Code section and Wage Order provision results in a separate civil penalty, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE, for each pay period during which the referenced statutes and Wage Order provisions were violated.⁶

Violation of California Labor Code §§ 245-248.5: Throughout the relevant time period, DEFENDANTS failed to provide proper paid sick leave to PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES. DEFENDANTS either failed to provide paid sick leave at all or improperly calculated the sick leave accrual and the sick leave rate of pay owed to PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES by failing to base the accrued sick leave hours on the correct number of hours worked (as a result of the rounding/automatic deduction policies and practices for meal periods and/or shift start and end times/other required off-the-clock work including but not limited to work completed during unpaid meal periods and by failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including but not limited to, non-discretionary bonuses, shift differential pay, commission and/or piece-rate compensation and/or other non-discretionary compensation into the sick leave pay rate calculation.

⁶ See Lab. Code §2699(f)(2) (establishing that the civil penalty is “for each aggrieved employee per pay period”); Lab. Code §558 (establishing that the civil penalty is “for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid”); All applicable Wage Orders, §20 (establishing that “[i]n addition to any other civil penalties provided by law, any employer or any other person acting on behalf of the employer who violates, or causes to be violated, the provisions of this order, shall be subject to the civil penalty...for each underpaid employee for each pay period during which the employee was underpaid”).

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS further failed to provide notice of the correct sick leave amount balance available to PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES on their wage statements or other written statements.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to put NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED on notice of their paid sick leave rights—or thereby putting their entitlement to sick leave in a Labor Code section 2810.5 notice. In addition, DEFENDANTS failed to maintain accurate records of used sick leave and the balance of paid sick leave left to the NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE throughout the relevant time period.

Based on information and belief, throughout the relevant period, DEFENDANTS failed to provide notice of sick leave amount balance left for PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, thus affecting their intelligent exercise of their paid sick leave. But for this failure, PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES would have used their paid sick leave at least prior to their respective separations, for as on several occasions thereafter, he or she would have been entitled to use the banked sick leave and earn appropriate compensation.

This illegal retention of paid sick leave is unlawful, and PLAINTIFF seeks all forms of injunctive relief, restitution, and declaratory relief as permitted by California law, on behalf of PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

In violation of Labor Code section 247.5, DEFENDANTS failed to maintain records documenting the hours worked and paid sick days accrued and used by PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, permitting the presumption that PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were entitled to the maximum number of hours accruable under this article.

Upon information and belief, DEFENDANTS further failed and continue to fail to comply with Labor Code section 246, by failing to provide PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with a Labor Code section 226 wage statement, or separate writing containing the amount of paid sick leave available, or paid time off leave an employer provides in lieu of sick leave, at the time it pays wages.

DEFENDANTS unlawfully retained and continue to retain paid sick leave that should have been paid but was not, as a result of DEFENDANTS' failure to properly institute a paid sick leave program.

On information and belief, PLAINTIFF alleges that all of these practices were experienced and continue to be experienced by other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

PLAINTIFF requests all appropriate relief under the PAGA and these statutes, including but not limited to the restitution of earned paid sick leave that could have been used, but was not due to DEFENDANTS' sole failure to institute such a paid sick leave entitlement or paid sick leave bank as required by California law.

Accordingly, PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES are entitled to injunctive relief, attorney's fees, declaratory relief, restitution, and penalties as permitted by law. PLAINTIFF requests all relief pursuant to the aforementioned code provisions, including but not limited to Labor Code sections 233 and 234, which incorporates the paid sick leave requirements.

Failure To Provide Supplemental Paid Sick Leave: Labor Code section 248.2 provides that all employers with 26 or more employees are required to provide up to 80 hours for covered employees to take 2021 COVID-19 Supplemental Paid Sick Leave to care for themselves, to care for a family member or if it is vaccine-related. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS violated Labor Code section 248.2 by not providing NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with required 2021 COVID-19 Supplemental Paid Sick Leave. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to provide Supplemental Paid Sick Leave in 2022 in violation of Labor Code section 248.6.

Refusal to Make Payment: Labor Code section 216 declares unlawful an employer's refusal to pay wages due and payable and/or denial of the validity of any claim to wages due.

DEFENDANTS violated and continue to violate Labor Code section 216 by failing to pay PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES for all hours worked at the proper wage rate and by failing to pay PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES an additional hour of pay for each meal and/or rest period not provided or that was invalid. Gould v. Maryland Sound Industries, Inc. (1995) 31 Cal.App.4th 1137, 1154-1155.

These violations subject DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code section 225.5. Each violation results in a separate civil penalty, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE, for each pay period during which the statute's provisions were violated.⁷

Wage Statement Violations: California law requires every employer semi-monthly or at the time of each payment of wages to furnish each of his or her employees with an accurate itemized wage statement in writing that contains the following: (1) gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all deductions; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. Cal. Lab. Code. section 226(a).

As DEFENDANTS failed to provide PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with meal and rest periods that complied with Labor Code section 226.7, the wage statements DEFENDANTS issued to PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES failed and continue to fail to correctly set forth (a) the gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(1); (b) the total hours worked by the employee in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(2); (c) the net wages earned, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(5); and (d) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(9).

⁷ Labor Code § 225.5 (establishing that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who unlawfully withholds wages due any employee in violation of sections 212, 216, 221, 222, or 223 shall be subject to a civil penalty...for each failure to pay each employee”) (emphasis added).

DEFENDANTS' issued wage statements to PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES that also failed to indicate the earned gross and net wages earned during the pay period, the correct applicable rates of pay for all hours worked, and the "total hours worked" by PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES (by virtue of rounded time entries, automatic deduction for meal periods/failure to relieve NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES of all duties and employer control during unpaid meal periods, payment according to scheduled hours worked rather than actual hours worked, and/or other off-the-clock work policies and practices described above), which results in a violation of Labor Code section 226(a).

Separately, and independent of the above allegations, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS issued wage statements to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES that failed to list the total hours worked, in violation of including but not limited to, Labor Code section (a)(2).

Failure to list all hours worked on a wage statement, gives rise to an inference of injury under Labor Code Section 226 (Maldonado v. Epsilon Plastics, Inc., (2018) 22 Cal.App.5th 1308, 1337).

Based on information and belief, wage statements issued by DEFENDANTS failed to list the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE is being paid.

For example, based on information and belief, wage statements issued by DEFENDANTS failed to list the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE is being paid.

For example, based on information and belief, at times, DEFENDANTS issued wage statements to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES containing payment for hours worked during previous pay periods, yet DEFENDANTS' wage statements do not include the inclusive dates of the accurate pay period for that retroactive pay, further failing to list the total hours worked for the pay period, including but not limited to, the total hours worked for the pay period the retroactive pay corresponds with. For example, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS' wage statements provided to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES list a category for "Retro" and/or retroactive pay without including the inclusive dates of the accurate pay period for that retroactive pay, further failing to list the total hours worked for the pay period, including but not limited to, the total hours worked for the pay period the retroactive pay corresponds with, in violation of including but not limited to, Labor Code sections 226(a)(2) and/or 226(a)(6).

DEFENDANTS' failure to accurately list all hours worked on all wage statements caused confusion to PLAINTIFF and caused and continue to cause confusion to the NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES over whether they received all wages owed to them. PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were injured by DEFENDANTS' failure to provide accurate wage statements.

In addition, because of the violations detailed above, including but not limited to, not paying regular and overtime wages for all hours worked, not paying all sick leave wages at the proper rates, and failing to provide meal and rest break premiums, DEFENDANTS have violated California Labor Code § 226 by willfully failing to furnish PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with accurate, itemized wage statements. As described herein, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS also failed to incorporate all forms of non-discretionary compensation earned during the pay period into the overtime pay rate calculation, and as such, failed to display the proper overtime rate(s) for each hour of overtime worked by PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES.

Based on information and belief, wage statements issued by DEFENDANTS failed to list all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(9).

For example, based on information and belief, wage statements issued by DEFENDANTS failed to list all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(9) due to DEFENDANTS' failure to list an overtime rate category at all and/or failure to list a category containing the proper overtime rate.

Moreover, based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS issued wage statements to PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES that further violate Labor Code section 226(a), by among other things, failing to list the correct name and/or address of the legal entity that is the employer.

As a result, the wage statements provided to PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were not accurate and did not include all of the statutorily required information.

These violations subject DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code section 226. Each violation results in a separate civil penalty, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE and each EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE, for each pay period during which the statute provisions were violated.⁸

Unlawful Deductions: Labor Code section 221 prohibits an employer from “collect[ing] or receiv[ing] from an employee any part of wages theretofore paid by said employer to said employee.” Based on information and belief DEFENDANTS made unlawful deductions from NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES paychecks during the relevant period including but not limited to, deducting costs of uniforms and/or other business costs and/or deducting wages for purported overpayments from previous pay periods and/or unlawfully deducting wages for negligently damaged property. Such a practice is in violation of including but not limited to, Labor Code Sections 221-222 which subjects DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code Section 2699.

Each violation results in a separate civil penalty, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE, for each pay period during which the statute provisions were violated. See Lab. Code §225.5 (establishing that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who unlawfully withholds wages due any employee in violation of Section 212, 216, 221, 222, or 223 shall be subject to a civil penalty...for each failure to pay each employee”).

Semimonthly Payment Violations: Labor Code section 204 requires that all earned wages must be paid to employees twice during each calendar month. DEFENDANTS violated this section by, including but not limited to, failing to pay PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES an additional hour of pay for meal and rest periods not provided and/or otherwise unlawful, by failing to compensate employees for all hours worked, and by failing to pay proper premium wage rates for all hours worked. These violations subject DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code section 210. Each violation results in a separate civil penalty, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE for each pay period during which the statute’s provisions were violated.

Reporting Time Pay Violations:

Section 5 of all applicable IWC Wage Orders, provides as follows:

(A) Each workday an employee is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said employee’s usual or scheduled day’s work, the employee shall be paid for half the usual or scheduled day’s work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the employee’s regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage. (B) If an employee is required to report for work a second time in any one workday and is furnished less than two (2) hours of work on the second reporting

NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were not paid reporting time wages in accordance with California law, including but not limited to the applicable IWC Wage Order. For example, based on information and belief, at times, PLAINTIFF and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES reported to work for a scheduled shift but were sent home and/or were not put to work and were not paid all owed reporting time pay wages in accordance with California law.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS have a policy and practice of failing to pay all reporting time wages to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, in violation of California law, including but not limited to, the applicable IWC Wage Order, Section 5. DEFENDANTS’ failure to pay all reporting time wages to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES violated and continue to violate the applicable Wage Order, section 5(A)-(B) and the California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 1198.

Violation of California Day of Rest Law

Under California law, every employee in California is "entitled" to "one day's rest [from labor] in seven"; and, no employer may "cause" their employees "to work more than six days in seven." See Labor Code Sections 551 and 552. Labor Code section 553 provides that a violation of the foregoing sections is a misdemeanor.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS have and continue to have a uniform policy and practice of requiring NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to work at least seven days consecutively in a workweek, in violation of including but not limited to, Labor Code Section 551. Based on information and belief, PLAINTIFF and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were suffered, permitted, or required to work at least seven (7) days consecutively in a workweek, in violation of California law, including but not limited to Labor Code Section 551.

Seating Violations: Per section 14(A-B) of all applicable IWC Wage Orders, employees shall be provided with suitable seats when the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats and when they are not actively engaged in the work duties that would not permit them to be seated.

All applicable IWC Wage Orders, Section 14(A-B) provides:

(A) All working employees shall be provided with suitable seats when the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats.

(B) When employees are not engaged in the active duties of their employment and the nature of the work requires standing, an adequate number of suitable seats shall be placed in reasonable proximity to the work area and employees shall be permitted to use such seats when it does not interfere with the performance of their duties.

Suitable seating is one of the worker protections covered by California's Wage Orders, which have the same dignity as statutes, are remedial in nature and are to be broadly construed to effectuate the goal of protecting the comfort and welfare of employees. Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1027 (2012).

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to provide NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with suitable seating, and when such employees were not engaged in duties which required them to stand, no seating was placed in reasonable proximity to their workstations.

Moreover, based on information and belief, the nature of the work reasonably permitted the use of seats for at least part of the time that NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were working. Lastly, based on information and belief, there were periods of time when NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were not engaged in active duties of their employment, yet there were no suitable seats in reasonable proximity to the work area and use of seats would not interfere with the performance of their duties.

DEFENDANTS' NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES worked in various positions. The nature of NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' work reasonably permitted the use of seats. However, DEFENDANTS failed to provide suitable seating in reasonable proximity to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' work areas in violation of section 14(A-B) of all applicable Wage Orders, and Labor Code sections 1198 and 1199, subjecting DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 1199 and 2699. Each violation of each Labor Code section and IWC Wage Order provision, for each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE, results in a separate civil penalty.⁹

Violation of Labor Code section 351 and 353: Labor Code Section 351 prohibits employers and their agents from sharing in or keeping any portion of a gratuity left for or given to one or more employees by a patron. Furthermore, it is illegal for employers to make wage deductions from gratuities, or from using gratuities as direct or indirect credits against an employee's wages. Labor Code Section 353 mandates employers to keep accurate records of all gratuities received.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to ensure that NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES fully received the gratuities left for them by patrons, in that DEFENDANTS and their agents would collect and/or take a portion of the gratuities for themselves, in violation of Labor Code Section 351. Based on further information and belief, DEFENDANTS also failed/fails to keep accurate records of all tips received, in violation of Labor Code Section 353. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to pay gratuities paid by customers using credit cards to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES by the next regular payday following the credit card payment, in violation of Labor Code section 351.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS charge an additional service charge to their customers/patrons. Customers are led to believe that the service charge will be paid to DEFENDANTS' NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES. Instead, DEFENDANTS keeps a majority (if not the entirety) of the service charge, thereby depriving NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES of the service charge/gratuity that is left by the patron/customer for the NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES. See O'Grady v Merchant Exchanges Production, Inc., 41 Cal.App.5th 771, 790 (a mandatory service charge can constitute a gratuity that is intended to the employees providing the service).

Pursuant to PAGA, DEFENDANTS are liable for penalties of $100 per pay period payable to each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE for the first violation of Labor Code Sections 351 and 353 they experienced within the statutory period, and $200 per pay period for each additional violation.

Standard Conditions of Labor Violations: Together, Labor Code sections 1198 and 1199 make unlawful any employment of any employee under conditions of labor prohibited by the Wage Orders, and any violation, refusal, or neglect to comply with any provision within Part 4, Chapter 1 of the Labor Code, including sections 1174, 1197, and 1198, or order or ruling of the commission.

⁹ See Lab. Code §2699(f)(2) (establishing that the civil penalty is “for each aggrieved employee per pay period”).

Therefore, DEFENDANTS' violations, including but not limited to, with respect to meal periods, rest periods, recordkeeping provisions, minimum wages and overtime wages, business expenses, seating, suitable resting, reporting time pay, split shift premium wages and other violations described herein result in separate violations of sections 1198 and 1199, which subject DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 1197.1 and 2699.

Statutory Wage Violations: Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for an employer to secretly pay wages lower than required by statute while purporting to pay legal wages.

As described above, DEFENDANTS willfully and systematically denied PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES of minimum and overtime wage compensation for all hours worked which resulted in the payment of less than statutorily required wages owed to them. DEFENDANTS acted with the intent to deprive them of statutory wages, including, but not limited to, overtime wages and minimum wages, to which they were entitled to under California law.

Thus, DEFENDANTS paid PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES lower wages than those they were entitled to while purporting that PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were properly paid. As such, PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES are entitled to recover penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)-(g).

Failure to Pay Vested Vacation/Paid Time Off:

California Labor Code section 227.3 provides that when an employer policy provides for paid vacations and/or paid time off, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his, her, or their vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to the employee as wages at the employee's final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served and that there shall be no forfeiture of vested vacation time or paid time off upon termination. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS had and continue to have a uniform policy and practice of failing to allow NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to use their earned vacation/paid time off during their employment and failing to pay all vested, accrued paid time off (including but not limited to, all owed vacation pay/paid time off paid at the final rate including non-discretionary compensation, including but not limited to, shift differentials) to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES upon separation of employment, in violation of California law, including but not limited to, Labor Code section 227.3.

Final Pay Violations: Labor Code section 201 requires employers to pay all wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, immediately upon discharge. California Labor Code section 201(a) provides, in relevant part, that "[i]f an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately." California Labor Code section 202(a) provides, in relevant part, that "[i]f an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting." Pursuant to Labor Code section 203, an employer that willfully fails to pay wages due an employee who is terminated or resigns must pay (in addition to the unpaid wages) a penalty equal to the employee's daily wages for each day, not exceeding 30 days, that the wages are unpaid. This 30-day waiting time penalty is recoverable under the PAGA via Labor Code Section 256. See, Iskanian v. CLS Transportation Los Angeles, LLC, 59 Cal.4th 348 (2014); see also, Caliber Bodyworks, Inc. v. Superior Court, 134 Cal. App. 4th 365 (2005).

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to timely pay NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES all wages that were due and owing upon termination or resignation. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS untimely provide final wages to NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES without regard to the timing requirements of Labor Code sections 201-202.

Upon separation of employment, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' final paychecks were not timely provided and/or were not timely provided with all owed vacation pay and/or paid time off. Moreover, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES' final paychecks, once provided, did not include all wages owed as they were devoid of, including but not limited to, all owed minimum wages, overtime wages, premium wages, vacation pay, all owed sick leave and/or paid time off wages at the properly accrued rates (including but not limited to, all owed vacation pay/paid time off paid at the final rate including non-discretionary compensation, including but not limited to, shift differentials).

Based on further information and belief, DEFENDANTS failed to timely provide all owed wages immediately upon discharge of employment. Based in information and belief, at times, PLAINTIFF and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES experienced breaks in employment caused by DEFENDANTS whereby NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES would not be called in for work for longer than a single pay period due to including but not limited to DEFENDANTS' lack of work or lack of assignments. Such instances qualify as a discharge of employment. Yet, DEFENDANTS failed to timely pay all owed wages at the end of such periods of employment, in violation of including but not limited to Labor Code section 201-202.

These violations subject DEFENDANTS to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 203, 210, and/or 256. Each violation results in a separate civil penalty, for each EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE and each NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE for each pay period during which the statute provisions were violated.¹⁰

Violation of Labor Code Section 208:

Labor Code Section 208 provides: Every employee who is discharged shall be paid at the place of discharge, and every employee who quits shall be paid at the office or agency of the employer in the county where the employee has been performing labor. All payments shall be made in the manner provided by law.

¹⁰ (establishing that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 204, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5, 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty...for each failure to pay each employee”).

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS have a policy and practice of failing to provide NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES who are terminated with their final paychecks at the place of discharge and/or of failing to provide NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with their final paychecks at the office or agency of DEFENDANTS in the county where the work was performed, in violation of Labor Code Section 208.

Business Expense Violations: California law requires employers to indemnify their employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to the directions of the employer. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2802(a) and all applicable Wage Orders, § 9 (b). Furthermore, “for purposes of [section 2802], the term ‘necessary expenditure or losses’ shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not limited to, attorneys’ fees incurred by the employee enforcing the rights granted by this section.”

Among other things, under California law, when tools or equipment are required by the employer or are necessary to the performance of a job, such tools and equipment shall be provided and maintained by employer, except that an employee whose wages are at least two (2) times the minimum wage provided herein may be required to provide and maintain hand tools and equipment customarily required by the trade or craft. See applicable IWC Wage Order, § 9 (b).

Among other things, under California law, when employees must use their personal cellphones for work-related purposes, the employer must reimburse them for a reasonable percentage of their cell phone bills. See Cochran v. Schwan’s Home Services, Inc. (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 1137, 1140. To show liability, an employee will only need to show that he or she was required to use their personal cellphone for work-related purposes and not reimbursed for the use. Id. 1144-1145

California law also requires employers to reimburse employees for automobile expenses incurred for the business use of personal vehicles, such as for mileage, gas, and the wear and tear on the vehicle. See Gattuso v. Harte-Hanks Shoppers, Inc. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 554.

Further, “any contract or agreement, express or implied, made by any employee to waive the benefits of this article or any part thereof, is null and void, and this article shall not deprive any employee or his personal representative of any right or remedy to which he is entitled to under the laws of this State.” See Cal. Lab. Code § 2804.

Based on information and belief, PLAINTIFF and NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were improperly required to provide and maintain work tools that are supposed to be the responsibility of the employer.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS shifted the costs of doing business onto NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES by requiring them to pay for their business expenses, including but not limited to, uniforms/work clothing/work shoes, personal protective/safety gear and/or the use of NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES’ and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES’ personal mobile phone and data usage for work related purposes including but not limited to receiving and responding to work related messages and/or phone calls.

For example, on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES received calls/messages to their personal cell phones/mobile devices from supervisors and/or other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES regarding scheduling and/or other work tasks but were not provided any and/or full reimbursement from DEFENDANTS for this personal cell phone use.

For example, PLAINTIFF was consistently required to make and/or receive work-related calls and/or messages to/from her personal cell phone/mobile device but was not provided with any and/or full reimbursement from DEFENDANTS for this business use of PLAINTIFF's personal cell phone/mobile device.

Based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were not reimbursed for the cost of using their personal phone for work related purposes and/or the cost of purchasing and/or maintaining work uniforms/work clothing/work shoes, personal protective/safety gear. For example, based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were not reimbursed for the costs of purchasing and/or maintaining work uniforms/work clothing/work shoes, personal protective/safety gear, such as, but not limited to, face masks, gloves, hairnets and/or work shoes.

Based on information and belief, at times, DEFENDANTS required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to use their personal vehicles for work without reimbursing them for the personal vehicle expenses they incurred in connection therewith. For example, based on information and belief, at times, DEFENDANTS required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to travel from one of DEFENDANTS' facilities/restaurants to a second of DEFENDANTS' facilities/restaurants for work and/or otherwise required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to use their personal vehicles to carry out their assigned job duties without reimbursing NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES for the expenses incurred in connection with DEFENDANTS' business use of their personal vehicles.

For example, DEFENDANTS sometimes required PLAINTIFF to run business errands for DEFENDANTS using PLAINTIFF's personal vehicle, however, DEFENDANTS failed to provide any and/or full reimbursement for the business expenses PLAINTIFF incurred in connection therewith, including without limitation, reimbursement for cost of fuel, vehicle wear and tear and/or mileage. As such, DEFENDANTS failed to compensate NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and/or EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES at the legally mandated Internal Revenue Service (IRS) per mile compensation rates in effect during the relevant period.

As explained above, based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were not reimbursed for the cost of using their personal phone for work related purposes and/or the cost of purchasing and/or maintaining work uniforms/work clothing/work shoes, personal protective/safety gear.

Based on information and belief, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were improperly required to pay for business expenses that are supposed to be the responsibility of DEFENDANTS.

As a pattern and practice, DEFENDANTS regularly failed to reimburse and indemnify NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES for business expenses. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2802, PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were entitled to be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses associated with carrying out DEFENDANTS' orders and/or carrying out the duties assigned by DEFENDANTS.

As described herein, DEFENDANTS regularly failed to reimburse and indemnify PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES for all reasonable expenses associated with carrying out their job duties. DEFENDANTS' failure to provide PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES with full reimbursement for all reasonable expenses associated with carrying out their duties required that PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES subsidize and/or carry the burden of business expenses in violation of Labor Code section 2802.

Unlawful Agreements/ Unlawful Criminal History Inquiries:

Unlawful Agreements

Labor Code section 432.5 provides that "no employer...shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer...to be prohibited by law." Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS required PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree in writing to unlawful conditions of employment including but not limited to, unlawful non-solicitation/non-compete agreements, unlawful confidentiality and/or nondisclosure agreements, unlawful releases and/or waivers, including but not limited to, unlawful meal period waivers, unlawful forum selection clauses and/or choice of law provisions/agreements and/or unlawful criminal and/or financial checks as a condition of obtaining and/or continuing employment in violation of Labor Code section 432.5.

Labor Code section 432.6(a), provides that "a person shall not, as a condition of employment, continued employment, or the receipt of any employment-related benefit, require any applicant for employment or any employee to waive any right..."

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to sign meal period waivers that were universally signed as a condition of employment, including but not limited to, during the onboarding process. By requiring NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to sign unlawful meal period waivers as a condition of obtaining and/or maintaining employment, DEFENDANTS violated Labor Code section 432.5. Further, these invalid waivers are otherwise unlawful under Labor Code section 432.6.

Moreover, the California Labor Code places certain procedural and substantive limit on employers' ability to conduct employee background checks and on how employers can use the information they obtain through those background checks. Labor Code section 1024.5 states that employers, except for financial institutions, may order a credit check only if the individual works (or is applying to work) in certain positions (e.g., managerial positions, financially-related positions, and certain government positions). Additionally, the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act (ICRAA- CA Civil Code section 1786, et seq.) and the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA - 15 U.S.C. section 1681, et seq.) mandate several requirements prior to and following an employee background check, including but not limited to identifying an appropriate reason for the background check, a separate consent form with required disclosures and certain formatting requirements, additional forms such as a summary of rights, a way by which to request a copy of the report, as well as proper notice of adverse actions taken, among other statutory requirements.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS ordered unlawful financial credit checks on NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, in violation of Labor Code section 1024.5, and required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to provide ongoing written consent to the unlawful credit checks as a condition of employment, in violation of California and Federal law, which results in a further violation of Labor Code section 432.5.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS also required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to submit and/or agree to submit in writing to unlawful criminal background checks as a condition of obtaining and/or holding employment in violation of the ICRAA and the FCRA.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree in writing to a background check which failed to abide by the requirements set forth in CA Civil Code section 1786, et seq. and 15 U.S.C. section 1681, et seq., including but not limited to by failing to provide a clear and conspicuous disclosure (and/or failing to provide any disclosure at all), failing to provide disclosures free of extraneous information, failing to provide a lawful purpose for the background check, failing to provide a summary of rights under the ICRAA and/or the FCRA, failing to provide a way by which the individual could request a copy of the report, failing to disclose the name, address, and telephone number of the third party preparing the report, and failing to properly obtain authorization or consent to such a background check, and thus was an unlawful background check.

By requiring NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree in writing to unlawful criminal and/or financial checks not in conformance with the applicable laws, DEFENDANTS violated Labor Code section 432.5.

Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS also required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree in writing to provide ongoing consent to DEFENDANTS to conduct background checks throughout the duration of employment, in violation of the ICRAA and/or FCRA and/or other applicable laws, resulting in a further violation of Labor Code section 432.5, by requiring applicants and employees to agree to an unlawful provision as a condition of employment.

Based on further information and belief, DEFENDANTS knew that requiring NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree to unlawful criminal and/or financial background checks as a condition of obtaining and/or holding employment was unlawful.

By requiring NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES agree in writing to unlawful provisions as a condition of employment, DEFENDANTS violated Labor Code section 432.5.

Unlawful Inquires into Criminal History

Labor Code section 432.7 prohibits an employer from asking applicants about past arrest(s) unless they resulted in conviction(s) and even then, certain limitations apply. Based on information and belief, DEFENDANTS asked NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES about arrests not resulting in convictions on their employment application, in violation of California law.

Upon information and belief, DEFENDANTS, in violation of California law, including but not limited to the Fair Chance Act/the California Fair Employment and Housing Act (“FEHA”), asked NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES about convictions prior to extending an offer of employment and/or otherwise impermissibly inquired into criminal history on their employment application in violation of California law.

By asking about arrests not resulting in convictions, DEFENDANTS violated Labor Code section 432.7. By asking about convictions at the application phase or prior to extending an employment offer, DEFENDANTS violated California’s Fair Chance Act, and thereby violated Labor Code section 432.5 by unlawfully requiring NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree in writing to disclose arrests and/or convictions as a condition of employment.

Unlawful PAGA Waiver

Additionally, DEFENDANTS violated Labor Code section 432.5 by requiring NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree in writing to other unlawful agreements, including but not limited to, an unlawful waiver of PAGA and or representative actions as a condition of employment.

An action pursuant to PAGA “...is a representative action on behalf of the state” Kim v Reins Int’l California, Inc., (2020) 9 Cal. 5th 73, 86-87. It is well settled that agreements purporting to waive an employee’s right to a trial of PAGA claims is contrary to California law and unenforceable. See Iskanian v CLS Transportation Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal. 4th 348, 384 (“We conclude that where, as here, an employment agreement compels the waiver of representative claims under the PAGA, it is contrary to public policy and unenforceable as a matter of state law.”)

Moreover, the California Supreme Court has ruled that a court cannot compel arbitration of an aggrieved employee’s individual PAGA claim because there is no such thing as an individual

PAGA claim. Kim v Reins Int'l California, Inc., (2020) 9 Cal. 5th 73, 86-87 (“There is no individual component to a PAGA action because ‘every PAGA action ... is a representative action on behalf of the state.’”))

Upon information and belief, DEFENDANTS required NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree in writing to waive their right to a trial of PAGA claims in violation of California law. By requiring NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES to agree, in writing, to an unlawful PAGA waiver, DEFENDANTS required written agreement to an unlawful provision as a condition of employment which is a violation of labor code section 432.5.

As such, PLAINTIFF, NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES continue to be subject to various unlawful provisions as a condition of employment.

Conclusion

DEFENDANTS have violated the above-referenced California Labor Code provisions, the applicable IWC Wage Order, including but not limited to all applicable Wage Orders, as well as other laws, and is liable for all applicable premium wages, statutory and civil penalties, interest, attorneys’ fees, and costs. The civil penalties PLAINTIFF and other NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES seek to recover include, but are not limited to, the statutory and civil penalties specified above.

Labor Code § 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter (i.e. this NOTICE) to the employer in question and file an online claim to the LWDA setting forth the claims and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the LWDA an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this NOTICE is to satisfy the requirements created by Labor Code §§ 2699, 2699.3(a), 2699.3(b), 2699.3(c), and 2699.5, prior to seeking penalties and premium wages allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations in a civil action. We look forward to determining whether the LWDA intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly ask that you respond to this NOTICE according to the time frame contemplated by the code.

If the LWDA elects not to take any action with respect to any of the foregoing claims, PLAINTIFF will seek these penalties in a civil action, on behalf of PLAINTIFF and all NON-EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES and EXEMPT AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES of DEFENDANTS within one year of the date of this letter as allowed by law.
