1 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 2 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 3 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

4 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 5 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
6 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 7 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

8 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 9 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 10 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 11 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 12 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

13 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 14 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 15 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 16 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

17 8. On or around September 26, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 18 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 19 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 20 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

21 9. Plaintiff also provided Defendants, and each of them, with notice under Labor Code 22 section 2810.3, subdivision (d) that Plaintiff would seek to hold them liable for each other’s wage 23 and hour violations under Labor Code section 2810.3 on September 26, 2023 by certified mail with 24 return receipt requested.

25 10. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 26 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 27 calendar days of the September 26, 2023 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 28 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to remain on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; and detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to remain on-call; to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked; failing to pay reporting time pay; paid time off and vacation

1 time owed; and failing to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 2 Employees.

3 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
4 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 5 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 6 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 7 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 8 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 9 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 10 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 11 periods; and/or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 12 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

13 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 14 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 15 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 16 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 17 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 18 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 19 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 20 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

21 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
22 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 23 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 24 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 25 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 26 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the 27 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 28 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

1 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
2 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 3 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
4 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 5 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 6 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 7 Aggrieved Employees.

8 17. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
9 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 10 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime 11 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 12 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

13 18. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 14 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 15 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 16 and applicable Wage Orders.

17 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 18 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 19 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 20 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 21 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and 22 cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to 23 the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor Code 2802.

24 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 25 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 26 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 27 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 28 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the

1 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information
2 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 3 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

4 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 5 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 6 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not 7 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 8 all other Aggrieved Employees.

9 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 10 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 11 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 12 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 13 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 14 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

15 23. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
16 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 17 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 18 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 19 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 20 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 21 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 22 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 23 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

24 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 25 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 26 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 27 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 28 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies

1 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 2 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 3 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

4 25. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 5 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 6 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 7 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 8 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 9 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 10 economic liberty.

11 26. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 12 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 13 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 14 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

15 PARTIES

16 A. Plaintiff

17 27. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff 18 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-19 exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, providing care to home health 20 patients. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately 21 July of 2019 through at least March of 2023.

22 B. Defendants

23 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendant Unison 24 Health Services, Inc. is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a stock corporation organized and 25 existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County 26 of Los Angeles, State of California.

27 29. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 28 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff,

1 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
2 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 3 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
4 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 5 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 6 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 7 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 8 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 9 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to “Defendants,” it shall 10 include Unison Health Services, Inc., and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies 11 within the State of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

12 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

13 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 14 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 15 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 16 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 17 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

18 31. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 19 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 20 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 21 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 22 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 23 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 24 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 25 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 26 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

27 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 28 formation of the purported corporate existence of Unison Health Services, Inc., and DOES 1 through

1 50, inclusive (the “Alter Ego Defendants”), they, and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 2 51 through 100 (“Individual Defendants”), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following 3 reasons:

4 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 5 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws 6 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 7 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 8 inequitable purpose;

9 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 10 and through the Alter Ego Defendants’ unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 11 the funding source for the Individual Defendants’ own personal expenditures;

12 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 13 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 14 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 15 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

16 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs 17 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 18 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 19 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 20 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 21 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 22 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

23 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 24 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 25 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 26 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be 27 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
28 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

33. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be disregarded.

34. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

35. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

36. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

37. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

38. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee

1 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 2 Code section 204.

3 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

4 39. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code 5 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 6 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 7 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; 8 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 9 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 10 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 11 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

12 40. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 13 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 14 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 15 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 16 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

17 41. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 18 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

19 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 20 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 21 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 22 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 23 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 24 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's 25 services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor 26 Code section 226, subdivision (a).

27 43. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 28 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision

1 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
2 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 3 period for each subsequent violation.

4 Violation of Labor Code § 558

5 44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person 6 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 7 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil 8 penalty as follows:

9 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and 10 for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount 11 sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

12 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 13 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 14 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

15 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 16 employee.”

17 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 18 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 19 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 20 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 21 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any “doing business 22 as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance 23 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

24 46. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 25 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover 26 civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars 27 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 28 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

47. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, or papers of the person.”

48. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

49. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units earned.”

50. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

51. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment

1 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
2 under Labor Code section 1174.

3 52. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 4 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 5 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 6 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

7 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

8 53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 9 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 10 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 11 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 12 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 13 Section 203 as follows:

14 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 15 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 16 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 17 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
18 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

19 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 20 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 21 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 22 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
23 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
24 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

25 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 26 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 27 employee."

28 ///

1 54. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 2 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 3 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees' minimum wages for all 4 hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 5 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 6 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 7 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, 8 entitling Plaintiff and other aggrieved Employees to actual and liquidated damages.

9 55. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 10 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 11 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one 12 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 13 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 14 subsequent violation.

15 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

16 56. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 17 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 18 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 19 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 20 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 21 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

22 57. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 23 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 24 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person 25 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 26 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 27 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

28 ///

58. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for the failure to: pay the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by Defendants, the name of the employer, including “doing business as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants under Labor Code section 2810.5, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to California and local laws.

59. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

REQUEST FOR JURY TRIAL

60. Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- A. An award of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
- B. An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
- C. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;
- D. For costs of suit incurred herein; and
