1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 The parties to this action have reached a Settlement and the Court preliminarily approved the 3 Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (collectively the “Agreement”), a true and correct copy 4 of which is attached as Exhibit #2 to the Declaration of Norman Blumenthal (“Blumenthal Decl.”).¹ In 5 accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order dated April 1, 2025 (“Preliminary Approval Order”), 6 the approved Class Notice has been disseminated to the Class.²

7 The purpose of this hearing is to determine whether the proposed settlement of the litigation 8 should be finally approved. Plaintiff Paul Williams (“Plaintiff”) respectfully moves for final approval, 9 including attorneys’ fees, costs and the service award, and the proposed entry of the Final Approval 10 Order and Judgment, submitted herewith. The settlement represents an excellent result for the Class and 11 avoids the delays, risks, and costs of further litigation. After disseminating the notice to the 8,188 12 members of the Class, to date there have been no objections and only 7 requests for exclusion from 13 the Class, which means that nearly the entire Class (99.91%) has elected to participate in the Settlement.
14 Blumenthal Decl. ¶4. This is a positive response from the Class evidencing their collective approval of 15 the settlement. As a result, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the settlement should be finally approved 16 for the same reasons that the Court preliminarily approved the settlement as fair, reasonable, and 17 adequate.

18 II. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

19 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid by Defendant 20 Zoological Society of San Diego (“Defendant”) is Five Million Two Hundred Thousand Dollars 21 ($5,200,000) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”). (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.22 and 3.1.) Under the Settlement, 22 the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class
23 Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel
24 Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4) the Class Representative

25
26 ¹ Capitalized terms are defined in the Agreement.

27 ² The “Class” is defined as “all individuals who were employed Defendant in California and 28 classified and worked as a non-exempt employee at any time during the Class Period.” (Preliminary Approval Order at ¶ 5.) The “Class Period” is October 4, 2019 through October 29, 2024. Id.

1 Service Payment to Plaintiff; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Blumenthal 2 Decl. ¶3(a). The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of payroll taxes.
3 (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendant.
4 (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Blumenthal Decl. ¶3(b). The following is a table of the key financial terms of the 5 Settlement and the proposed deductions:

6 $5,200,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)

- 7 - $10,000 (Plaintiff's proposed service award not to exceed amount)
- 8 - $30,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- 9 - $1,733,333 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
- 10 - $104,000 (PAGA Payment - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Aggrieved Employees)
- 11 - $38,500 (Administration Expenses Payment)

12 $3,284,167 (Net Settlement Amount)

13 The specific details of the Settlement were discussed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval and are 14 set forth again in the Declaration of Blumenthal at ¶¶ 3(c)-3(i).

15 The Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable to the class and should be finally approved for 16 the same reasons the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement, agreeing that the settlement 17 is "fair, reasonable, and adequate." (Preliminary Approval Order at ¶ 3.) In sum, the Settlement valued 18 at $5,200,000 is an excellent result for the Class. This result is particularly favorable in light of the fact 19 that liability and class certification in this case were far from certain in light of the defenses asserted 20 by Defendant. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses asserted, the uncertainty of class 21 certification, along with the uncertainties of proof at trial and appeal, the proposed settlement is fair, 22 reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Blumenthal Decl. ¶3(j).

23 III. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL 24 OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

25 Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum, 52 Cal.App.4th 259, 26 265 (1997). In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly 27 appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran.
28 v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (2000) ("[V]oluntary conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation.")

The court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, taking into account that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting

1 subjective, unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See 2 Wershba v. Apple Computer, 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246 (2001) (“The proposed settlement is not to be 3 judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs 4 prevailed at trial.”) In Wershba, the Court explained that “the merits of the underlying class claims are 5 not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Id.; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

6 In these cases, courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that 7 the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute 8 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. at 246. The presumption of 9 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 10 act intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is 11 experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 12 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). Here, the facts and circumstances compel the conclusion that the 13 proposed settlement satisfies that standard and the presumption applies.

14 IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE AND ADEQUATE

15 The Court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford
16 Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996); see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n, 688
17 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement 18 is fair. Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117 (2009). “The well-recognized 19 factors that the trial court should consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement 20 agreement include 'the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 21 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 22 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views 23 of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the 24 proposed settlement.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008) (internal 25 citations omitted); see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L. A., 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408 26 (2010).

27 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
28 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.

1 Id. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement 2 is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that 3 the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id. “Ultimately, the 4 [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross 5 approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]” Id.

6 These factors are analyzed seriatim below, and all support final approval of the class action 7 settlement before this Court, consistent with this Court’s Preliminary Approval Order.

8 A. The Settlement Satisfies the California Test for Fairness

9 1. The Investigation and Analysis of Documents are Sufficient to Allow Counsel 10 and the Court to Act Intelligently

11 Over the course of more than a year of litigation, the Parties engaged in the investigation of the 12 claims, including the production of documents, class data, and other information, allowing for the full 13 and complete analysis of liabilities and defenses to the claims in this Action. The procedural history and 14 investigation performed was detailed at length in support of the motion for preliminary approval. The 15 Settlement was the product of arms-length and contentious negotiations through an all-day mediation 16 presided over by Tripper Ortman, Esq. The details of the litigation are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl.
17 at ¶¶ 6(a)-6(g).

18 2. The Settlement was Reached Through Arm’s Length Bargaining

19 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations before 20 an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continue to deny any 21 wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiff and Class 22 Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released Class 23 Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement, based upon the experience of Class Counsel 24 who has previously litigated similar claims against other employers. Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(a).

25 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Tripper Ortman, Esq., a respected 26 and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement. In 27 preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided to Plaintiff and Class Counsel payroll and 28 employment data and other information regarding the Class Members, various internal documents, and

1 other compensation and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the 2 assistance of damages expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to the 3 mediator. Following this all-day mediation, the Parties agreed to this Settlement based upon a 4 mediator's proposal. Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(b).

5 The fact that the settlement was negotiated with the assistance of an experienced mediator 6 supports approval. Alberto v. GMRI, Inc., 252 F.R.D. 652, 666 (E.D. Cal. Jun 24, 2008); Glass v. UBS
7 Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 at *15 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (where settlement was "negotiated 8 and approved by experienced counsel on both sides of the litigation, with the assistance of a 9 well-respected mediator" this factor supports approval of the settlement").

10 From August 2024 to October 2024, the settlement agreement and exhibits thereto were 11 finalized and executed. On March 28, 2025, the Court heard Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary 12 Approval, and on April 1, 2025. the Court entered the Order granting preliminary approval of the 13 settlement as fair and reasonable to the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(c).

14 3. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

15 Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience and has represented thousands 16 of persons in class actions including employment litigation, wage and hour class actions, and complex 17 litigation. Class Counsel has previously litigated wage and hour class actions involving employees and 18 claims similar to this case and have been approved as experienced class counsel during contested 19 motions in state and federal courts throughout California. The experience of counsel and class action 20 cases managed and settled by the Class Counsel in this action is provided to the Court in the Blumenthal 21 Decl. at Exhibit #1. Class Counsel have participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and 22 have concluded the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class.
23 Blumenthal Decl. ¶ 3(j).

24 4. There Are No Objections and Only Six Requests for Exclusion

25 The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. On May 5, 2025, 26 the Administrator mailed the Court-approved Class Notice to the Class Members, which provided each 27 class member with the terms of the Settlement, including notice of the claims at issue and the financial 28 terms of the settlement, including the attorneys' fees, costs, and service award that were being sought,

1 how individual settlement awards would be calculated, and the specific, estimated payment amount to 2 that individual. See Declaration of Stacey Shim ["Shim Decl."], ¶ 7, Exh. A. In disseminating the 3 notice, the Administrator followed the notice procedures authorized by the Court in its Preliminary 4 Approval Order. Significantly, there have been no objections and only seven (7) requests to opt-out.
5 Shim Decl. ¶¶11-12. As such, nearly the entire Class (99.91%) will participate in the Settlement and 6 will be sent a settlement check. See Shim Decl. at ¶¶ 14-16 Blumenthal Decl. ¶4.

7 The absence of any objector strongly supports the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the 8 Settlement. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation, 80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 (S.D.N.Y.
9 2000) ("If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as indicative of the 10 adequacy of the settlement."); Stoetznner v. U.S. Steel Corp., 897 F.2d 115, 118-119 (3d. Cir. 1990) (29 11 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"); Laskey v. Int'l Union, 638 F.2d 954 12 (6th Cir. 1981) (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed settlement should 13 be considered when determining fairness of settlement). Here, where there are no objections, the 14 approval of the class is evident.

15 5. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case

16 The Action generally alleges that Plaintiff and other Class Members were not properly paid all 17 overtime wages for hours worked and at the correct rate, were not provided meal and rest periods, were 18 not timely paid earned wages, were not provided reimbursement for required expenses, were not 19 provided accurate itemized wage statements, were not paid accrued and used sick pay at the correct rate 20 of pay, and were not paid all wages at the time of termination. The Action seeks unpaid wages, 21 penalties, attorney fees, litigation costs, and any other equitable or legal relief allegedly due and owing 22 to Plaintiff and the other Class Members by virtue of the foregoing claims. Blumenthal Decl. ¶5.

23 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
24 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by Defendant 25 present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Defendant asserted 26 that Defendant's practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant argued that Class 27 Members were paid for all time worked and that work time was properly recorded. Defendant 28 maintained there was no miscalculation of the regular rate when paying wages to the Plaintiff and the

1 Class. Defendant contend that their meal and rest period policies fully complied with California law 2 and that Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks.
3 Defendant could argue that its payment of significant meal period premiums is further evidence of their 4 lawful practices. Defendant contends that there was no failure to pay for business expenses and any cell 5 phone usage was merely convenient and voluntary such that reimbursement was not legally required.
6 Finally, Defendant could argue that the Supreme Court decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.
7 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiff's claims, on liability, value, and class certifiability as to the meal
8 and rest period claims. Defendant also argues that based on its facially lawful practices, Defendant 9 acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if accepted would negate the claims for waiting time 10 penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See e.g. Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 11 1056, 1065 (2024) ("if an employer reasonably and in good faith believed it was providing a complete 12 and accurate wage statement in compliance with the requirements of section 226, then it has not 13 knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with the wage statement law.") If successful, Defendant's 14 defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the Class. While Plaintiff believes that 15 these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these defenses have merit and therefore present 16 a serious risk to recovery by the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(a).

17 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 18 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 (N.D. Cal. 2009), explained in approving an overtime class action settlement:

19 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued litigation are great.
20 Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' principal claim... [...T]he gross 21 settlement amount and the Class Members' expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

22 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at *19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009); see also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 23 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In considering the strength of Plaintiff's case, legal 24 uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval.").

25 As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

26 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting 27 final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties of proving damages, recognize the 28 uncertainty of outcome, and believe defendant would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees,

1 the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the potential 2 recovery through full adjudication.

3 Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.
4 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

5 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiff would be unable 6 to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on behalf 7 of any employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully opposed 8 the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification. Further, 9 as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 10 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even where the 11 class has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, 12 class certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class through trial 13 was by no means a foregone conclusion. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(b).

14 In sum, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable result, and provides the Class with a significant 15 recovery, particularly when viewed in light of the fact that the Defendant asserted serious and 16 substantial defenses both to liability and to class certification. The maximum and average Class 17 Member allocation (in addition to their Individual PAGA Payment) are $1,250.18 and $401.39, 18 respectively. See Shim Decl. ¶16. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses, along with the 19 uncertainties of proof and appeal, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should 20 be finally approved. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶8(e).

21 6. The Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely Duration of Further Litigation

22 As demonstrated by the decision in Duran, the complexities and duration of further litigation 23 cannot be overstated. There is little doubt that Defendant would post a bond and appeal in the event of 24 an adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal by Defendant would have required many more years to 25 resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case 26 could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh 27 an uncertain result three or more years in the future. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(c).

28 Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against Defendant through possible appeals which could take at least another two or three years. Class Counsel also have

1 taken into account the uncertain outcome, the risk of litigation, especially in complex actions such as 2 this one. Class Counsel are also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of proof under, and 3 alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would 4 have been inevitable. Costs would have mounted and recovery would have been delayed if not denied, 5 thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory. The Settlement confers substantial benefits upon 6 the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement 7 set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(c).

8 Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that their case has merit, which Defendant 9 continue to vigorously deny, they recognized the potential risks both sides would face if litigation of 10 the Action continued. As the federal court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar 11 to those in this litigation:

12 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 13 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of how 14 this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 15 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 16 litigating an appeal. "The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 17 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement."

18 Id. at *12.

19 7. The Amount Offered in Settlement

20 The Settlement in this case is fair, reasonable and adequate considering Defendant's defenses 21 to Plaintiff's claims. As set forth in the Declaration of Nordrehaug in support of preliminary approval 22 which discussed the value of the class claims in detail, the Gross Settlement Amount compares 23 favorably to the value of the claims. Based upon 8,182 Participating Class Members who collectively 24 worked 627,844 Workweeks, the Gross Settlement Amount provides a value of $635.54 per Class 25 Member and $8.28 per Workweek and, after deductions, the Net Settlement Amount provides an 26 average recovery of $401.38 per Class Member and a recovery of $5.23 per Workweek. Blumenthal 27 Decl. at ¶8(d).

28 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiff's damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at issue in this Action, Plaintiff used the expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid

1 wages for the employees. The maximum potential damages were calculated to be $530,085 for alleged 2 unpaid wages due to rounding, $17,264,624 for the alleged unpaid wages for off-the-clock work at one 3 hour per week, $9,329 for alleged unpaid overtime due to the miscalculation of the regular rate, 4 $360,843 for the alleged unpaid meal premiums and sick pay due to the alleged miscalculation of the 5 result rate, $5,212,757 for alleged meal period damages based upon a 12.3% potential violation rate for 6 all shifts worked observed in the time records and after deduction for meal premiums paid by 7 Defendant, $6,070,686 for alleged rest period damages based upon the same 12.3% potential violation 8 rate for shifts worked and after deduction for rest premiums paid by Defendant, $753,280 for alleged 9 unreimbursed cell-phone expenses at $5 per month. As a result, the total damage valuation was 10 calculated that Defendant were subject to a maximum damage claim in the amount of $1,950,362. As 11 a result, the total damage valuation was calculated that Defendant were subject to a maximum damage 12 claim in the amount of $30,201,604. As to potential penalties, Plaintiff calculated that potential waiting 13 time penalties were a maximum of between $11,153,856 and $20,910,426, and potential maximum 14 wage statement penalties were between $1,793,800 and $15,340,800, depending on the predicate
15 violation.³ Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiff's calculations and exposure theories. Blumenthal 16 Decl. at ¶ 8(d).

17 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $5,200,000 represents more than 17% of the 18 maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.⁴
19 Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v.
20 Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for 21 waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the Class. The above maximum 22

23 ³ While Plaintiff alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 203 and 226, these 24 claims were subject to additional, separate defenses asserted by Defendant, including, a good faith 25 dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for meal or rest periods or other wages were owed 26 given Defendant's position that Class Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

27 ⁴ Because the PAGA claim does not provide a recovery to the Class, Plaintiff did not include the 28 PAGA claim in this discussion of the class claim valuation. The PAGA claim was addressed in the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶ 33 filed in support of the motion for preliminary approval.

1 calculations should then be realistically risk adjusted in consideration for both the risk of class 2 certification and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the 3 settlement as compared to the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by 4 Defendant, this settlement is fair and reasonable.⁵ Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(d). Clearly, the goal of this 5 litigation has been met.

6 V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND SERVICE AWARD SHOULD 7 BE APPROVED

8 A. The Attorneys' Fees are Reasonable and Supported by the Percentage of the Fund
9 Method

10 Class Counsel seeks a fee award calculated at one-third (1/3) of the total value of the settlement 11 for the successful prosecution and resolution of this action. California state and federal courts have 12 recognized that an appropriate method for determining award of attorneys' fees is based on a percentage 13 of the total value of benefits to class members by the settlement. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91
14 Cal.App.4th 224, 254 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444
15 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 557 F.2d 759, 769 (9th Cir. 1997). The purpose 16 of this equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust enrichment to the Class and to "spread litigation costs 17 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden 18 alone." Vincent, 557 F.2d at 769.

19 The California Supreme Court has provided guidance regarding the award of attorneys' fees in 20 wage and hour class action settlements. Under California law, the award of attorneys' fees in common 21 fund wage and hour class action settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v.

22 ⁵ See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 23 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 24 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 25 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents 26 approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Dunleavy v.
27 Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.), 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) (affirming approval of 28 a class settlement which represented "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery".) See also Viceral v.
Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D.
Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal.5th 480, 503 (2016) (“We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state
2 courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 3 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court 4 may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund
5 created”). Under the percentage of the fund method, a court’s objective remains to “mimic the market” 6 in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998).

7 First, the fee award representing one-third of the fund clearly falls within that range and is 8 consistent with other rulings of other courts and comprehensive surveys of class action settlements and 9 fee awards. Attorneys’ fees awards of one-third of the fund are within the expected range in the market 10 in legal services. In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal.5th 480, 503 (2016), the California Supreme 11 Court both endorsed the award of a fee as a percentage of that fund, and expressly approved one-third 12 (1/3) as a reasonable percentage in a contingent common fund class settlement. Such similar awards by 13 other Courts are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl. ¶11.

14 Second, the results delivered by Class Counsel also support the requested percentage of the fund.
15 Here, Plaintiff and his counsel secured a $5,200,000 settlement for the benefit of the Class and currently 16 only six of the Class Members elected to opt out. Similarly, not one Class Member objected. The 17 Settlement was possible only because Class Counsel was able to convince Defendant that Plaintiff could 18 potentially prevail on the contested issues regarding liability, maintain class certification, overcome 19 difficulties in proof as to monetary relief and take the case to trial if need be. Blumenthal Decl. ¶10(f).
20 In successfully navigating these hurdles Class Counsel displayed the necessary skills in both wage and 21 hour and class action litigation. Moreover, as discussed above, there were significant risks to the 22 contingent litigation. See Barbosa v. Cargill Meat Solutions Corp., 297 F.R.D. 431, 449 (E.D. Cal.
23 2013) (“Like this case, where recovery is uncertain, an award of one-third of the common fund 24 as attorneys' fees has been found to be appropriate.”)

25 Third, “the response of the class members to attorneys’ fee notice, though not decisive, is 26 relevant to the ... reasonable determination” regarding fees. Swedish Hospital v. Shalala, 1 F.3d 1261, 27 1272 (D.C. Cir. 1993). A positive response rate tends to suggest that the court’s “approximation of the 28 market” for fees is well supported. Id. at 1269. Here, the Class Notice specifically notified the Class that 1 Class Counsel would be seeking a one-third fee award. Again, there were no objections.

2 Fourth, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced attorney's fees 3 reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. As observed in City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp.:

4 No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent upon his success to charge, when 5 successful, as little as he would charge a client who had agreed to pay for his services, regardless 6 of success.

6 495 F.2d 448, 470 (2d Cir. 1974).

7 For Class Counsel, the fees here were wholly contingent in nature and the case presented far 8 more risk than the usual contingent fee case. Among the risks was the cost inherent in class action 9 litigation, as well as a long battle with a corporate Defendant who had retained a premier and highly 10 experienced defense firm. Counsel retained on a contingency fee basis, whether in private matters 11 or in class action litigation, is entitled to a premium above their hourly rate in order to 12 compensate for both the risks and the delay in payment. See e.g. Stanger v. China Elec. Motor, Inc., 13 812 F.3d 734, 741 (9th Cir. 2016) (courts "must" apply a risk enhancement); Stetson v. Grissom, 821 14 F.3d 1157, 1166 (9th Cir. 2016) (abuse of discretion not to apply risk multiplier).

15 Fifth, the requested fee award is supported by the lodestar cross-check. The reasonableness of 16 the requested attorneys' fee of one-third equal to $1,733,333 is also established by reference to Class 17 Counsel's lodestar in this matter. The contemporaneous billing records for Class Counsel evidence 18 that through July 29, 2025, Class Counsel's total lodestar is $301,018.75, with significant 19 additional fees still to be incurred to complete final approval and the settlement process.
20 Blumenthal Decl. at ¶12 and Exhibit #3. The requested fee award is therefore currently equivalent to 21 Class Counsel's total lodestar with a reasonable multiplier cross-check, and there will be additional 22 lodestar incurred by Class Counsel to complete the settlement process and manage the settlement 23 distribution and reports. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶12. Such lodestar cross-check is within the range of 24 reasonable multipliers approved in other cases.⁶ For such reasons, Class Counsel's request for

26 ⁶ See Johnson v. Brennan, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 105775 (S.D.N.Y. 2011) ("Courts regularly award 27 lodestar multipliers from two to six times lodestar"); Buccellato v. At&T Operations, Inc., 2011 U.S.
28 Dist. LEXIS 85699, at *4 (N.D. Cal. June 30, 2011) (4.3 multiplier is reasonable); Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.
5th at 487 (approving 1/3 fee award with multiplier of 2.13); Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 (9th Cir. 2002) (3.65 multiplier approved); Pellegrino v. Robert Half Intern., Inc., 182 attorneys' fees in the amount of one-third of the common fund is reasonable and should be approved.

B. The Reimbursement of Litigation Expenses

The Agreement provides at paragraph 3.2(b), that Class Counsel may seek a "Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $30,000." Class Counsel have incurred $24,299.48 based upon counsel's billing records, which is less than the "not to exceed" amount of $30,000. Class Counsel therefore requests reimbursement for litigation expenses in the incurred amount of $24,299.48. These litigation expenses include the expenses incurred for filing fees, mediation expenses, expert expenses (Berger Consulting), court document purchases, attorney service charges (Knox, OneLegal), and research charges (LexisNexis), all of which are costs normally billed to and paid by the client.⁷ The details of the expenses incurred are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl. at ¶13 and Exhibit #3.

C. The Service Award Is Reasonable and Should be Approved

Plaintiff respectfully submits that for his service as the class representatives, Plaintiff should be awarded the agreed service award of $10,000, in accordance with the Agreement for his time, risk and effort expended on behalf of the Class as the class representatives. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Defendant has agreed to this payment and there have been no objections to the requested service award. The Blumenthal Decl., at ¶14, provides a long list of equivalent service awards approved in California in similar cases, which further supports the request in this case. Plaintiff's Declaration is submitted in support of this request and is attached as Exhibit #4 to the Blumenthal Decl.

As the sole representative of the Class, Plaintiff performed his duties to the Class admirably and without exception. Plaintiff worked extensively with Class Counsel during the course of the litigation, Cal.App.4th 278 (2010) (in class actions reasonable multipliers of 2.0 to 4.0 are often applied); Wershba, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 255 ("multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher."); In re Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases, 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (2009) (affirming multiplier of 2.52 as "fair and reasonable"); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (2008) (affirming multiplier of 2.53); Taylor v. Fedex Freight, Inc., 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 142202 (E.D. Cal. 2016) (2.26 multiplier).

⁷ Nontaxable costs are properly awarded where authorized by the parties' agreement. Stetson, 821 F.3d at 1165. Accordingly, "[e]xpenses such as reimbursement for travel, meals, lodging, photocopying, long-distance telephone calls, computer legal research, postage, courier service, mediation, exhibits, documents scanning, and visual equipment are typically recoverable." Rutti v. Lojack Corp., Inc., 2012 WL 3151077, at *12 (C.D. Cal. 2012).

1 responding to numerous requests, searching for documents, working with counsel, and reviewing the 2 settlement documentation. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶ 14. As set forth in the Agreement, Plaintiff is also 3 providing a comprehensive release as part of the Settlement, far beyond the class release. Plaintiff's 4 Declaration details the involvement, stress and risks he undertook as a result of this Action. Plaintiff 5 also assumed the serious risk that he might possibly be liable for costs and fees to Defendant, as well 6 as the reputational risk of being "blacklisted" by other future employers for having filed a class action 7 on behalf of employees. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶15. Without the Plaintiff's participation, cooperation and 8 information, no other employees would be receiving any benefit. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶¶ 15-16.

9 The payment of service awards to successful class representatives is appropriate and the amount 10 is within the currently awarded range for similar settlements. See, e.g., Andrews v. Plains All Am.
11 Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (service awards of $15,000 each 12 are appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal.
13 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist.
14 LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was $351); 15 Louie, supra, 2008 WL 4473183 at *7 (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs in 16 overtime class action); Glass, supra, 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17 (awarding $25,000 service award).
17 Accordingly, Class Counsel respectfully requests approval of the Class Representative Service Payment 18 in accordance with the Agreement.

19 VI. CONCLUSION

20 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness 21 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate 22 and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment, submitted herewith.

23 Respectfully submitted,
