1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 On May 2, 2025, this Court entered an order preliminarily approving the parties' Joint 4 Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release ("Settlement Agreement") entered 5 into by Plaintiff John Pardee ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of himself and other similarly situated persons
6 employed by Defendant Holz Rubber Company, Inc. ("Defendant Holz Rubber") and Defendant
7 HR Outsourcing Associates, LLC ("Defendant HR Outsourcing") (hereinafter Defendant Holz 8 Rubber, and Defendant HR Outsourcing collectively referred to as "Defendants," and Plaintiff and 9 Defendants collectively referred to as the "Parties") in California as non-exempt employee during 10 the Class Period, which is from September 25, 2019 through September 24, 2024 ("Class Members" 11 or "the Class"). Under the Settlement, the wage and hour claims of 196 Class Members who did 12 not opt out ("Participating Class Members") will be resolved for $600,000.00.

13 Notice of the Settlement was distributed in accordance with the Court's preliminary 14 approval order, and the response was excellent. Zero Class Members objected to the Settlement, 15 and zero opted out of the Settlement. (Declaration of Enoch J. Kim ("Kim Decl."), ¶ 9; Declaration 16 of Lluvia Islas ("Islas Decl."), ¶¶ 8 and 9.) The fact that there was a 100% participation rate 17 indicates that the persons most affected by Defendants' alleged practices and who stand to benefit 18 most from the Settlement agree that this is an outstanding result and a strong indication that the 19 Settlement is fair and adequate. (Kim Decl., ¶ 10.) The Individual Class Payment will average 20 $1,597.14 per Participating Class Member, the highest payment is $4,361.62, and the lowest 21 payment is $16.91 (Kim Decl., ¶ 7; Islas Decl., ¶ 13.) In the opinion and experience of Class 22 Counsel, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and will convey a substantial benefit to 23 all Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 10.)

24 The proposed Settlement satisfies the criteria for final settlement approval under California 25 law. Consequently, Plaintiff moves this Court for an order: (1) certifying this lawsuit as a class 26 action for settlement purposes only; (2) approving the class action Settlement embodied in the 27 Parties' Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release ("Settlement 28 Agreement"); (3) confirming Plaintiff as the Class Representative; (4) confirming the appointment

1 of Emil Davtyan, David Yeremian, Enoch Kim, David Keledjian, David Arakelyan and Norayr 2 Zakaryan, of D.Law, Inc., as Class Counsel; (5) approving Class Counsel’s application for 3 attorneys’ fees of $200,000.00 (“Class Counsel Fees Payment”) and reasonably incurred litigation 4 costs of $17,960.54 (“Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment”); (6) approving the 5 enhancement award to Plaintiff (“Class Representative Service Payment” or “Enhancement 6 Award”); (7) approving the payment of the Settlement Administrator’s invoice for costs of 7 administration in the amount of $9,000.00 (“Administration Costs”); and (8) approving the “PAGA 8 Penalties” payment consisting of $50,000.00, with 75% or $37,500.00 to the Labor and Workforce 9 Development Agency (“LWDA PAGA Payment”), and 25% or $12,500.00 to be allocated to the 10 Aggrieved Employees on a pro-rata basis according to the number of PAGA Pay Periods worked 11 during the PAGA Period (“Individual PAGA Payment”). (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, ¶¶ 14, 15(c)(ii), 12 15(c)(vi), 15(c)(vii), 17.)

13 II. STATUS OF THE LITIGATION

14 A. Procedural History

15 On September 25, 2023, Plaintiff commenced a Class Action by filing a Complaint alleging 16 causes of action against Defendants for (1) Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Lab. Code §§ 204, 17 223, 226.7, 512 and 1198); (2) Failure to Provide Rest Periods (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 18 1198); (3) Failure to Pay Hourly Wages and Overtime (Lab. Code § 223, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 19 1197.1 and 1198); (4) Failure to Provide Reporting Time Wages; (5) Failure to Pay Proper Sick 20 Pay (Lab. Code § 246); (6) Failure to Provide Accurate Written Wage Statements (Lab. Code § 21 226(a)); (7) Failure to Timely Pay All Final Wages (Lab. Code §§ 201, 202 and 203); (8) Failure 22 to Indemnify (Lab. Code § 2802); and (9) Unfair Competition (Business & Professions Code §§ 23 17200 et seq.) (“Action”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 3.)

24 Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subd.(a), Plaintiff gave timely written notice to 25 Defendants and California’s Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) by sending 26 the PAGA Notice on September 25, 2023 (LWDA-CM-983560-23). On November 29, 2023, 27 Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding a cause of action for penalties under PAGA. (Kim 28 Decl., ¶ 3.)

1 After initiating the Action, the Parties agreed to explore resolution via mediation and engage 2 in informal discovery in preparation for mediation. (Kim Decl., ¶ 4.)

3 On December 16, 2024, pursuant to the Settlement reached between the Parties at 4 mediation, Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Complaint to include all Released Claims (defined 5 below) and Released PAGA Claims (defined below), including the addition of Plaintiff's rounding
6 claims and allegations and the appropriate refinement of Plaintiff's class and subclass definitions
7 to comport with the Settlement ("Operative Complaint"). (Kim Decl., ¶ 5.)

8 B. Investigation

9 Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation and researched 10 the facts and circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and applicable law. (Declaration of 11 Enoch Kim filed in support of Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion for Motion for Preliminary Approval 12 of Class Action and PAGA Settlement on March 21, 2025, ("Kim PA Decl.,") ¶ 12.) This required
13 thorough discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiff, in addition to the above-14 described research into the various legal issues involved in the case. (Id.) After filing the lawsuit, 15 Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and claims giving rise to the action, 16 including (1) conducting informal discovery and meeting and conferring with defense counsel 17 about same; (2) reviewing and analyzing records and data, as well as employment-related policies; 18 (3) reviewing Plaintiff's personnel file and other documentation; (4) interviewing Plaintiff
19 regarding potential Class Members; (5) researching the applicable law and potential defenses; (6)
20 constructing damage models based on interpretations of California law and the facts and numbers 21 provided by Defendants; and (7) reviewing information provided by Defendants in response to 22 informal discovery and in advance of the mediation. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 12.) The Parties conducted 23 their own evaluations of the potential recoveries based on the claims alleged in the Action, 24 including consulting experts. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 12.)

25 C. Settlement Efforts

26 On July 26, 2024, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation with Brandon McKelvey, 27 a respected and highly experienced mediator in wage and hour class actions. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 14.)
28 During mediation, counsel for Plaintiff and Defendants discussed all aspects of the case, including

1 the risks associated with continued litigation and class certification issues, as well as the law and 2 how it applied to the claims in this case. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 14) Following a full day of mediation, 3 the Parties agreed to general settlement terms to resolve the lawsuit. (Kim PA Decl., PA ¶ 14) The 4 Parties continued to work together negotiating the long form settlement terms following mediation, 5 as set forth in the Settlement Agreement. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 14)

6 III. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS

7 Under the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, Defendants have agreed to pay a 8 non-reversionary settlement amount of $600,000.00 (“Gross Settlement Amount” or “GSA”) and 9 to separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portions of the individual 10 Settlement Awards. (Kim Decl., Ex. 1, ¶ 14.)

11 The Settlement Agreement defines “Class Members” or “Settlement Class” as all persons 12 employed by Defendants in California as a non-exempt employee from September 25, 2019 through 13 September 24, 2024 (“Class Period”). (Id., Ex. 1, ¶ 6 and 7.) The Settlement Agreement defines 14 “PAGA Members,” or aggrieved employees with respect to PAGA, as all Class Members who 15 worked any hours for Defendants in California from September 25, 2022 through September 24, 16 2024 (“PAGA Period”). (Id., Ex. 1, ¶ 7.)

17 The “Net Settlement Amount,” available for distribution to Class Members, is the Gross 18 Settlement Amount, less all Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees and litigation costs, the Enhancement 19 Award to the Class Representative, the PAGA penalty payment to the Labor and Workplace
20 Development Agency (“LWDA”), and Settlement administration expenses. (Id., Ex. 1, ¶ 15(c).) 21 Settlement Awards to the Class Members, and PAGA Awards to the PAGA Members, will be 22 calculated by the Settlement Administrator and paid out of the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) The 23 entire Net Settlement Amount will be paid out pro rata to Class Members who do not opt out, and 24 to PAGA Members. (Id.) These amounts are detailed as follows:

- 25 • Up to one-third of the GSA, or $200,000.00, to Class Counsel for Attorneys’ Fees, 26 and $17,960.54 to Class Counsel for reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred to prosecute 27 the Action (Id., Ex. 1, ¶ 17);
- 28 • Up to $10,000.00 to Plaintiff as an Enhancement Award for service as the class

1 representative (Id., Ex. 1, ¶ 15(c)(vi));

2 • Up to $9,000.00 to the Settlement Administrator for its fees and costs to administer
3 the Settlement (Id., Ex. 1, ¶ 15(c)(vii));

4 • $37,500.00 to the LWDA of the State of California for settlement of claims for civil 5 penalties under PAGA, which will be paid out of the GSA, leaving $12,500.00 as the Net PAGA
6 Settlement Amount to be paid to PAGA Members. (Id., Ex. 1, ¶ 15(c)(ii).)

7 After preliminary approval of Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions (“Phoenix” 8 or “Administrator”), the Administrator sent the Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement and 9 Hearing Date for Final Approval of Settlement (“Class Notice”) to the Class Members’ last-known 10 addresses and made significant efforts to locate Class Members, including performing skip traces 11 on those Class Members who could not be located. (Kim Decl., ¶ 8; Islas Decl., ¶ 6.) The notice 12 process occurred according to the Court’s order granting preliminary approval of the settlement.
13 Phoenix sent the Class Notices to the last-known address of each Class Member. Of the 196 Class 14 Members who were sent notices, 9 Class Notices were returned to Phoenix by the Post Office, and 15 6 Class Notices were re-mailed, with only 3 Class Notices deemed undeliverable. (Islas Decl., ¶¶ 6 16 and 7.) Here, the deadline for submitting a Request for Exclusion from Settlement and objecting to 17 the Settlement was August 14, 2025. (Islas Decl., ¶¶ 8 and 9; Kim Decl. ¶ 9.) As of the deadline, 18 zero Class Members objected to the Settlement and zero Class Members opted out of the 19 Settlement. (Id.)

20 IV. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION
21 SETTLEMENT

22 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Court should grant final approval not only because 23 the settlement is fair but also because public policy favors settlement over continued class-action 24 litigation. See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 434 (“Courts have long 25 acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure of justice in our 26 judicial system.”); State v. Levi Strauss & Co. (1986) 41 Cal. 3d 460, 471 (“[T]he consumer class 27 action is an essential tool for the protection of consumers against exploitative business 28 practices.”); Class Plaintiffs v. City Of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (“[S]trong

1 judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where complex class action litigation is 2 concerned.”); Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (4th ed. 2002) § 11.41.

3 A. CRITERIA FOR SETTLEMENT APPROVAL

4 California Rule of Court 3.769 requires court approval of the settlement of class action
5 lawsuits. Preliminary approval is merely the first of three steps that comprise the approval
6 procedure for settlements of class actions. See Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 7 (1993); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The second approval step is 8 the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all Class Members. Id. The third step is a final 9 settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument concerning the fairness, adequacy, 10 and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented and Class Members may be heard. Id.

11 The first two stages have been completed here. Now, at the final approval stage, the decision 12 facing the Court is whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Wershba v. Apple 13 Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal. App 4th 224, 235. Among the relevant considerations in reaching 14 this final determination are (1) the strength of plaintiff’s case balanced against the benefits of the 15 settlement, and (2) the complexity, expected duration, and expense of further litigation. Id.; see also 16 Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1802. In evaluating the fairness of a 17 settlement proposal, courts must give “proper deference to the private consensual decision of the 18 parties,” because “the Court’s intrusion upon what is otherwise a private consensual agreement 19 negotiated between the parties to a lawsuit must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a 20 reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion 21 between, the negotiating parties.” Hanlon v. Chrysler Inc. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F. 3d 1011, 1027; 22 Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th, at 1801(“Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private 23 consensual agreement between the parties.”) Accordingly, the Court should take into account the 24 informed recommendations of counsel and the parties. See Kirkorian v. Borelli, (N.D.
25 Cal.1988)695 F. Supp. 446, 451 (the recommendation of experienced counsel carries significant 26 weight in the court’s determination of the reasonableness of the settlement); Vulcan So. of 27 Westchester County, Inc. v. Fire Department of White Plains (S.D.N.Y. 1981) 505 F.Supp.955, 967
28 (same). A presumption of fairness exists where (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length

1 bargaining, (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act 2 intelligently, (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation, and (4) the percentage of objectors is 3 small. Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1794.

4 Applying this final approval criterion evidence substantial grounds for granting this Motion.

5 B. THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT FULFILLS ALL FINAL APPROVAL
6 CRITERIA

7 1. The Settlement Follows Substantial Investigation and Discovery and Is the 8 Product of Serious, Informed, Non-Collusive Negotiations in Which 9 Parties Were Represented By Experienced Counsel.

10 The proposed Settlement was reached as a result of arm's length negotiations after the 11 completion of pertinent discovery and the exchange of necessary class data. (Kim PA Decl. ¶ 27.)
12 Throughout this case, Plaintiff and Class Members have been represented by experienced counsel
(Id. at ¶¶ 23, 65-71.)

13 Class Counsel have devoted a substantial amount of time to this case, including but not 14 limited to researching various legal issues prior to and after filing this action; drafting and reviewing 15 pleadings; conducting informal discovery and meeting and conferring with defense counsel; 16 preparing for class certification; reviewing and analyzing the documents produced by Defendants, 17 including the reviewing and analyzing records and data, as well as employment-related policies, 18 and other documentation; regularly communicating with Plaintiff; preparing for and attending 19 mediation; negotiating and finalizing the Settlement including several revisions thereof; drafting 20 documents for preliminary and final approval, including documents for the administration of the 21 settlement; briefing for the hearing on the motion for preliminary approval of the class action 22 settlement; and coordinating and overseeing the administration of the settlement. (Kim PA Decl., 23 ¶ 12.)

24 Among those matters considered during the course of settlement negotiations were the risks, 25 expenses, and length of further litigation, including the appeals process; the present state of the law 26 as it applies to wage and hour class actions; the present value of a settlement versus the long wait 27 occasioned by any potential judgment in favor of the class; and the burdens of proof necessary to 28

1 establish liability against Defendant's defenses to the action. These factors each indicated that the 2 interests of Class Members are best served by a settlement of this action as set forth in the 3 Settlement. Moreover, as experienced litigators in employment class action cases, Class Counsel
4 believes that the Settlement is fair and reasonable and serves the best interests of the Class
5 Members. (Kim PA Decl., at ¶¶ 26-31; Kim Decl., ¶ 10.)

7 2. The Settlement Follows Substantial Investigation and Discovery and Is the 8 Product of Serious, Informed, Non-Collusive Negotiations in Which 9 Parties Were Represented By Experienced Counsel

10 Significant in evaluating the foregoing $600,000.00 settlement are the risks at trial (or an 11 appeal), as well as the costs of continuing the litigation. Defendants contend that the Class would 12 not be able to establish its entitlement to relief it is seeking and promised to mount a vigorous 13 defense. (Kim PA Decl., ¶¶ 13, 33-58.) On the other hand, Plaintiff believes that there is ample 14 evidence to support the class allegations. (Id.) Under these circumstances, and in light of the risks 15 inherent in further litigation, it was reasonable for Plaintiff and Class Counsel to elect to settle the 16 action. (Id.) Plaintiff appreciates that, in addition to the litigation risks of continued proceedings, 17 the proceeding itself would be potentially complicated and expensive, and even if ultimately 18 successful absent the settlement, Class Members might see no recovery until the lengthy appellate 19 process is complete. (Id. at ¶ 31.) In contrast, the Settlement provides immediate benefits to the 20 Class.

21 From the evaluation of the benefits offered to the Class by the Settlement, as well as the 22 expense, delay, and risk of going forward to trial, with subsequent appellate proceedings, the 23 Settlement fairly, adequately, and reasonably achieves the goals of Plaintiff and advances the 24 interests of the Class. In short, the settlement falls within the "the range of reasonableness"
25 necessary for final approval. (Id. at ¶ 73.)

26 3. Class Members Received The Best Practicable Notice

27 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate program 28 to provide the best notice practicable.<sup>1</sup> See Cartt v. Superior Court, 50 Cal. App. 3d 960, 973-74

<sup>1</sup> The California Supreme Court has authorized California's trial courts to use Federal Rule 23 and cases applying it for guidance in considering class issues. See Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal. 3d 800, 821 (1971); Green v. Obledo, (1975); In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1392 (2010); Cho v. Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal.App.4th 734, 745-746 (2009); Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 811-12 (1985).<sup>2</sup> The content and method of notice should be designed to apprise the class members of the terms of the proposed settlement and of their rights to participate in, object to, or opt out of the settlement. See Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314; In re Vitamin Cases, 107 Cal. App. 4th 820, 828 (2003).

The Notice preliminarily approved by the Court met these requirements: it explained the nature of the litigation; the material terms of the Settlement; the amount of the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and Class Representative Service Payment sought; how a Class Member could participate in, object to, or be excluded from the Settlement; and to whom to direct inquiries.

4. Zero Class Members Have Objected to the Settlement and Zero Class Members Have Opted out of the Settlement.

A presumption of fairness exists where the percentage of objectors and opt-outs is small.<sup>7</sup> Eleven Owners for Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal. App.4th 224, 244; Hanlon v. Chrysler Corporation (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1025-1026. Here, the deadline for submitting a Request for Exclusion from Settlement, challenging the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods, and objecting to the Settlement was August 14, 2025. (Islas Decl., ¶¶ 8-10; Kim Decl. ¶ 9.) As of the deadline, zero Class Members objected to the Settlement, and zero Class Members opted out of the Settlement. (Id.)

5. The Enhancement Award to Plaintiff Is Reasonable and Fair.

Class action settlements typically provide for an incentive or enhancement payment to the named plaintiff for bringing and helping to prosecute the action. Courts routinely approve these supplemental payments. See Newberg on Class Actions at § 12.46; Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294; Bogosian v. Gulf Oil Corp. (E.D. Pa. 1985) 621

29 Cal. 3d 126, 145-46 (1981). Where appropriate, therefore, the parties cite Federal Rule 23 and federal case law in addition to California law.

<sup>2</sup> See also Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 175-75 (1974) (individual notice must be sent to all class members who can be identified through reasonable efforts); Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Company, 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950) (best practicable notice is that which is “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections”).

1 F. Supp. 27 (award of $20,000.00 each to two class representatives in antitrust case); Bryan v.
2 Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. (PPG Industries, Inc.) (W.D. Pa. 1973) 59 F.R.D. 616, 617, aff'd 494
3 F.2d 799 (3d Cir.), cert. denied in Abate v. Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. (1974) 419 U.S. 900. As the 4 Staton court noted:

6 [N]amed plaintiffs . . . are eligible for reasonable incentive payments. The district court 7 must evaluate their awards individually, using relevant factors includ[ing] the actions the 8 plaintiff has taken to protect the interests of the class, the degree to which the class has benefited from those actions, . . . the amount of time and effort the plaintiff expended in pursuing the litigation . . . and reasonabl[e] fear[s] of workplace retaliation.

9 Staton v. Boeing (9th Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 977 (citation omitted).

10 The retaliation issue identified in Staton v. Boeing extends outside the immediate 11 workplace. It is common knowledge that the modern-day workforce is quite mobile, with 12 employees holding several jobs in a career during their lifetime. Few people want to confront their 13 employers, let alone sue them. (Kim Decl., ¶ 29-32.) By suing his former employer, Plaintiff 14 contends that he increased the risk of retaliation by prospective employers to which he may apply
15 in the future. (Id.)

16 But Plaintiff did not allow his fear of the potential repercussions of being a class 17 representative to deter him from acting for the benefit of Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 31.) He has 18 devoted a substantial amount of time to helping Class Counsel effectively develop and prosecute 19 this Action at every stage of the litigation. (Id., Declaration of John Pardee filed in support of 20 Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion for Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA
21 Settlement on March 21, 2025, ("Pardee PA Decl.,") at ¶ 10.) Plaintiff conferred with Class Counsel 22 on numerous occasions to discuss every aspect of this case; provided information about Defendants; 23 reviewed documents; produced documents; identified witnesses; monitored the progress of the 24 litigation; took the time to apprise himself of the facts, issues, and law regarding the claims at issue, 25 spent time with Class Counsel discussing the terms of the settlement and reviewing and executing 26 the Settlement Agreement. (Kim Decl., ¶ 31.) In all, Plaintiff estimates that he has devoted 27 numerous hours in preparing the Action and seeing it through to settlement. (Kim Decl., ¶ 31.)

28 Plaintiff spent a significant amount of time with Class Counsel detailing his knowledge of 1 Defendants' practices and assisting in the prosecution of this Action. (Kim Decl, ¶ 32.) He has 2 diligently, adequately, and fairly represented Class Members and has not placed his interests above

3 any member of the putative class. (Id.; Pardee PA Decl, ¶ 9.) Class Counsel believes that Plaintiff
4 is entitled to an enhancement award for the time and effort he has devoted to this case. (Kim Decl, 5 ¶ 32.) Defendants have agreed not to oppose it. (Id.) Such payments to class representatives are a 6 common feature of settlements negotiated by Class Counsel, and trial courts routinely approve 7 them. (Id.)

8 Not only have Plaintiff's efforts been instrumental in generating a substantial benefit for 9 Class Members, but—significantly— not a single Class Member has objected to the requested 10 enhancement award. (Islas Decl., ¶ 13.) Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests the Class 11 Representative Service Payment sought in the amount of $10,000.00 for his efforts and initiative in 12 bringing and helping prosecute this action. (Kim Decl., ¶ 32; Pardee Decl. ¶¶ 1-16.) (Id.)

13
14 6. The Payment of Attorneys' Fees Is reasonable and Therefore Falls within 15 the Range of Approval by the Court.

16 (i) The Requested Award of Attorneys' Fees Is Justified Based on the 17 Percentage-of-the-Benefit Method.

18 The California Supreme Court recently held that “when class action litigation establishes a 19 monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers 20 awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee 21 by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created.” Laffitte v. Robert Half Intern. Inc.
22 (Aug. 11, 2016) 205 Cal.Rptr.3d 555, 573. Indeed, courts may use the “percentage method for its 23 primary calculation of the fee award. The choice of a fee calculation method is generally one within 24 the discretion of the trial court, the goal under either the percentage or lodestar approach being the 25 award of a reasonable fee to compensate counsel for their efforts.” Id.

26 The requested Class Counsel Fees Payment in this case consists of 33 1/3% of the Gross 27 Settlement Amount.<sup>3</sup> This percentage is consistent with both the Settlement and Plaintiff's

28 <sup>3</sup> The award of attorneys' fees and costs in this case is intended to reimburse Class Counsel for all of the uncompensated work that they have already performed and for all of the work they will continue to perform in

1 contingency fee agreement. The requested Class Counsel Fees Payment is fair and reasonable under 2 California's fee-shifting jurisprudence.<sup>4</sup> And it is consistent with the percentage of the common 3 fund awarded to counsel in cases similar in character and geographical location to this one. (See 4 Kim Decl., ¶ 23-27.)

5 An award of attorneys' fees equivalent to 33 1/3% percent of the common fund is 6 commensurate with judicial precedent. See Crandall v. U-Haul (Los Angeles County Sup.Ct., Case 7 No. BC178775), the Honorable Steven Czuleger awarded a 40% attorney fee request in an 8 overtime-exemption class action; in Bushnell v. Cremer, Inc. (Orange County Sup.Ct., Case No.
9 657778), the Honorable Donald E. Smallwood awarded attorneys' fees in the amount of 38%; in 10 Abzug v. Kerkorian CA000981 (Los Angeles County Sup.Ct., November 1990), the Honorable R.
11 William Schoettler awarded a 45% fee; in Haitz v. Meyer, et al., Alameda County Sup. Court, 8-12 20-1990 No. 572968-3, the court awarded a 40% fee; in Elliott v. Clothestime (Orange County Sup.
13 Ct., Case No. 01-CC00333) the Honorable Jonathan Cannon awarded a 40% fee in a wage-and-14 hour class action which had not yet proceeded to the class certification stage; in both Rippee v.
15 Boston Market Corporation, Case No.: 05 CV 1359 BTM (JMA) and Barile v. Boston Market
16 Corporation, Case No.: 05 CV 1360 BTM (JMA), the Honorable Judge Barry T. Moskowitz 17 awarded a 40% fee to plaintiff's counsel in wage-and-hour class actions that had not proceeded to 18 the class-certification stage. (Kim Decl., ¶ 26.)

19 The amount requested here will fairly compensate Class Counsel for their successful 20 prosecution of this case, taking into account the quality, nature, and extent of counsel's efforts, the 21 outstanding results achieved, the fact that no one objected to the fee amount and the fact that the 22 amount of fees for which approval is sought is consonant with legal precedent. Class Counsel has 23 litigated numerous class actions and submits that this settlement was possible owing to Class 24 Counsel's experience with such cases. (Kim PA Decl., ¶¶ 67-69.) Class Counsel's diligent,

25
26 carrying out and overseeing the administration of the settlement. Plaintiff in this action signed a contingency-fee 27 agreement stating that Class Counsel could receive a fee under certain scenarios that exceeds one-third of the 28 recovery. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 23-27.)

<sup>4</sup> Moreover, the Labor Code specifically provides for an award of attorneys' fees and costs for some of employees' claims. See, e.g., Lab. Code § 226. Plaintiff is also entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

1 efficient, and creative pursuit of this matter positioned Plaintiff to settle this action successfully, 2 affording redress to the entire class and avoiding the inevitable expense and risk attendant to 3 protracted litigation. In sum, it was through the efforts of Plaintiff and Class Counsel that the 4 considerable benefits of the settlement were obtained.

5 In light of the foregoing, the fee request in an amount equal to 33 1/3% of the Gross 6 Settlement Amount, as agreed upon in the Settlement, is well within the bounds that have been 7 established by the above-cited authority.

9 (ii) The Requested Award of Attorneys' Fees Is Also Justified Based on the 10 Lodestar Method.

11 Although Laffitte makes it clear that a lodestar cross-check is not necessary, Class Counsel's 12 lodestar calculation nevertheless also supports the requested attorneys' fees. The lodestar 13 calculation typically proceeds in three steps. First, a trial court must determine a baseline guide or 14 "lodestar" figure based on the time spent and reasonable hourly compensation for each attorney 15 involved in the case. Serrano v. Priest (1975) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48. The court then sets a reasonable 16 hourly fee to apply to the time expended, with reference to the prevailing rates in the geographical 17 area in which the action is pending. Bihun v. AT&T Information System (1993) 13 Cal.App.4th 976, 18 997. Finally, a "multiplier" is selected with reference to the following factors: (1) the novelty and 19 difficulty of issues involved, (2) the skill displayed in presenting them, (3) the extent to which the 20 nature of the litigation precluded other employment by the attorneys, and (4) the contingent nature 21 of the fee award owing to the uncertainty of prevailing on the merits and of establishing eligibility 22 for the award. Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.App.3d at 49.

23 Class Counsel charges rates commensurate with the prevailing market rates in the Los 24 Angeles area for attorneys of comparable experience and skill handling complex litigation. (Kim 25 Decl., ¶ 14.) The reasonableness of Class Counsel's hourly rates has been cited and approved by 26 judges in recent actions. The rates approved in these orders, while being approved for Los Angeles 27 County, are also commensurate with the prevailing market rates in these counties. (Id.; Exh. 2 (the 28 "Laffey Matrix"). Moreover, the Laffey Matrix rates have been held to be reasonable market rates when locally adjusted for inflation. Syers Properties III, Inc. v. Rankin (2014) 226 Cal.App.4th

1 691. For this reason, the Court should approve the rates of Class Counsel as reasonable in 2 conjunction with awarding the requested fees and any lodestar calculations it makes when 3 evaluating the request.

4 Moreover, the Serrano factors all militate in favor of the requested fee award. (Kim Decl., 5 ¶ 15.) This case raised a number of complex and contested issues, and Class Counsel exhibited skill 6 and creativity in prosecuting and presenting them. (Id.) This case was not straightforward. (Kim 7 Decl., ¶ 16.) Class Counsel had to spend time researching and analyzing each of these claims and 8 issues in order to adequately assess the liability of Defendant. (Id.) Class Counsel then had to 9 develop the evidence necessary through informal discovery to establish Defendant's potential 10 liability. (Id.) This was done through carefully sifting through hundreds of pages of documents.
11 (Id.)

12 In sum, Class Counsel had to come up with creative approaches to these issues in litigating 13 the case and, ultimately, negotiating and crafting the settlement. (Kim Decl., ¶ 17.) To this end, 14 Class Counsel has devoted a tremendous amount of time and energy. (Id.) This time commitment 15 was necessary in order to research, construct, and prosecute viable legal claims in the face of stiff 16 opposition, but it has come at a cost. (Id.) Class Counsel zealously represented Plaintiff and the 17 Class and has obtained a favorable result. (Id.)

18 Such is not always the case. Indeed, Class Counsel has invested time and money into 19 numerous other cases, including class actions, which have fizzled out for one reason or another, 20 leaving Class Counsel completely without any compensation for their effort. (Kim Decl., ¶ 18.)
21 Here, Class Counsel has achieved a beneficial settlement for the class, but this was by no means a 22 foregone conclusion; indeed, their efforts might well have been frustrated by any number of 23 obstacles with which they were presented along the way. (Id.) Nor could class certification be 24 guaranteed. (Id.) However, Class Counsel was able to navigate the shoals of unpredictability to 25 achieve a desirable result and have done so without receiving any compensation to speak of thus 26 far because they took this case on a contingency-fee-basis. (Id.)

27 From the foregoing analysis, Class Counsel's requested attorneys' fees are fair and 28 reasonable. Class Counsel conservatively estimates that they have invested over 177.4 hours

1 of attorney time in this matter. Senior Counsel Enoch J. Kim's current billing rate is 2 $1,045.00 (17 years out of law school, Laffey Matrix rate of $948.00), and I have invested 3 at least 20 hours in this matter with a lodestar amount of $20,900.00. Senior Attorney David 4 Keledjian's current billing rate is $925.00 (9 years out of law school, Laffey Matrix rate of 5 $839.00), and he spent approximately 37 hours in this matter with a lodestar amount of 6 $34,225.00. Associate Attorney David Arakelyan's current billing rate is $585.00 (4 years 7 out of law school, Laffey Matrix rate of $581.00), and he spent approximately 44 hours in 8 this matter with a lodestar amount of $25,740.00. Associate Attorney Kevin Burns's current 9 billing rate is $475.00 (2 years out of law school, Laffey Matrix rate of $473.00), and he 10 spent approximately 2.4 hours on this matter with a lodestar amount of $1,140.00. Associate 11 Attorney Norayr Zakaryan's current billing rate is $475.00 (1 year out of law school, Laffey 12 Matrix rate of $473.00), and he spent approximately 74 hours on this matter with a lodestar 13 amount of $35,150.00. Therefore, Class Counsel has collectively incurred 177.4 hours and 14 $117,155.00 in fees. (Kim Decl., ¶ 19.)

15 Class Multipliers routinely range from 3 to 5, and it is not uncommon that multipliers of 16 between 5 and 10, or higher, are applied. See, e.g., Wilson v. Bank of Am. Natl. Trust & Savs. Assn., 17 No. 643872 (Cal. Sup. Ct., Aug. 16, 1982) (multiplier of 10); Glendora Comm. Redev. Agency v.
18 Demeter (1984) 155 Cal.App.3d 456, 465 (affirming multiplier of 12, and expressly rejecting the 19 argument that fee was either exorbitant or unconscionable). The fee request of $200,000.00 results 20 in a modest multiplier of approximately 1.7, which further evidences the reasonableness of the 21 request. (Kim Decl., ¶ 22.)

22 (iii) The Requested Costs Award Is Reasonable

23 The preliminarily approved settlement provided for the reimbursement of up to $20,000.00 24 for Class Counsel's costs. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28.) As of the date of the filing of this motion, the actual 25 total costs incurred in litigating this Action for Class Counsel are $17,960.54. (Id.) Class Counsel 26 incurred costs including, but not limited to, filing fees (e.g. complaint, stipulation, motions), service 27 of process, mediation fees, expert analysis fees, attorney-service costs for court filings, copy 28 charges for documents, and postage charges, all of which were necessarily and reasonably incurred

1 to prosecute this Action and achieve a settlement that significantly benefits the Class. (Id.) Thus,
2 Class Counsel requests a reimbursement of their incurred costs in the amount of $17,960.54. (Id.)

3 V. CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS 4 APPROPRIATE

5 The Class is defined in the settlement as “all persons employed by Defendants in California 6 as a non-exempt employee from September 25, 2019 through September 24, 2024.” (Kim Decl., 7 Exh 1. ¶ 7.)

8 A. THE LEGAL STANDARD

9 Section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure provides that “when the question is one of a 10 common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is 11 impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of 12 all. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. Class certification under § 382 is appropriate when “(1) [t]here [is] . . .
13 an ascertainable class; and (2) there [is] . . . a well-defined community of interest in the questions 14 of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” Daar v. Yellow Cab Co.(1967) 67 15 Cal. 2d 695, 704 (citations omitted). The community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three 16 factors: “(1) predominant questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses 17 typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.”
18 Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 470.

19 Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of class 20 certification, subject to later modification if necessary. Id. at 473-475. The decision to certify a 21 class is a purely procedural one and should be based on the allegations in the operative complaint 22 and not in the perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims. Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 23 Cal.4th 429, 439-441.

24 B. ALL OF THE CRITERIA FOR CERTIFICATION OF THE SETTLEMENT
25 CLASS ARE SATISFIED

26 Express judicial policy favors maintaining wage and hour actions as class actions. Prince v.
27 CLS Transp., Inc. (2004) 118 Cal. App. 4th 1320, 1328; Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981)
28 29 Cal. 3d 462. Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor

1 of class certification, subject to later modification if necessary. Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 473-75.
2 The decision to certify a class is a procedural one and should be based on the allegations in the 3 operative complaint, and not in the perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims. (Linder v.
4 Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-41.

5 To certify a settlement class, the Court must find the two primary requirements for 6 maintaining a class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class, and (2) there must be a well-7 defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involving the parties to be 8 represented. See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal. 3d 800, 805-09; Daar v. Yellow Cab
9 Company (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704. These criteria are met here for the reasons set forth below.

10 A. There Is a Numerous and Ascertainable Class

11 Whether a class is ascertainable is determined by examining the class definition, the size of 12 the class and the means available for identifying class members. See Vasquez, supra, 4 Cal. 3d at 13 821-22; Reyes v. Board of Supervisors of San Diego County (1987) 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1271.
14 Class members are “ascertainable” where they may be readily identified without unreasonable 15 expense or time.

16 Plaintiff contends, and Defendants do not dispute for settlement purposes only, that the 17 numerosity and ascertainability elements are satisfied here. Class Members are all current and 18 former non-exempt employees of Defendants employed in California during the Class Period 19 (September 25, 2019 through October 19, 2024). (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 21, Ex. 1, ¶ 6.) Defendants have 20 identified 193 Class Members based on review of its payroll and personnel records. (Id.)

21 Therefore, and notwithstanding the foregoing, there is a numerous and ascertainable class.

22 B. There Is a Well-Defined Community of Interest

23 A community of interest is established by the predominance of common issues of law and 24 fact. See Vasquez, 4 Cal. 3d at 811. The requirement of a community of interest:

25 [D]oes not depend upon an identical recovery, and the fact that each 26 member of the class must prove his separate claim to a portion of any 27 recovery by the class is only one factor to be considered ... The mere 28 fact that separate transactions are involved does not of itself preclude a finding of the requisite community of interest so long as every member of the alleged class would not be required to litigate numerous and substantial questions to determine his individual right

1 to recover subsequent to the rendering of any class judgment which 2 determined in plaintiffs' favor whatever questions were common to the class.

3 Id. at 809.

4 Plaintiff contends, and Defendants do not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 5 common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims alleged by Plaintiff, and the 6 Class is united in its proof. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 22.) Because Plaintiff has alleged a single scheme, 7 “the relevant proof [does] not vary among class members” and “clearly presents a common question
8 fundamental to all class members.” See In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation (SDNY 9 1997) 172 F.R.D. 119, 123 (citing In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, (SDNY 10 1997) 169 F.R.D. 493, 518). California courts show “no hesitancy” in inferring class-wide 11 causation, class-wide injury, and class-wide damages when a common course of action has been 12 shown. B.W.I. Custom Kitchen, 191 Cal. App. 3d at 1350. This inference ““eliminates the need for 13 each class member to prove individually the consequences of the defendants’ actions to him or 14 her.”” Id. at 1351 (quoting Rosack v. Volvo of America Corp (1982) 131 Cal. App. 3d 741, 753 15 [emphasis added]).

16 This action involves, inter alia, a determination about Defendants’ alleged failure to provide 17 meal and rest periods, failure to pay minimum and overtime wages due to allegedly common off-18 the-clock work policies, failure to reimburse business expenses; the resulting failure to pay final 19 wages when required and to provide accurate wage statements; and largely derivative claims under 20 the UCL and PAGA. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 21.) Plaintiff contends Defendants’ practices affected Class 21 Members in the same way and present questions that are suitable for common adjudication because 22 all Class Members were subject to the same employment policies and practices. (Id.) The outcome
23 of litigation in this matter depends upon questions that are common to Class Members. (Id.)

24 C. The Named Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical

25 A class representative’s claims are typical when they arise from the same event, practice, 26 or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their claims 27 rest on the same legal theories. The class representative’s claims must be “typical” but not 28 necessarily identical to the claims of other class members. It is sufficient that the representative is 1 similarly situated so that he or she will have the motive to litigate on behalf of all class members.

2 Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom Kitchens v. Owens-Illinois, Inc.
3 (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 (“[I]t has never been the law in California that the class 4 representative must have identical interests with the class members.”). Thus, it is not necessary that 5 the class representative should have personally incurred all the damages suffered by each of the 6 other class members. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228.

7 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 8 Plaintiff’s claims are typical of Class Members’ claims because they arose from the same factual 9 basis and are based on the same legal theories. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 22.) Plaintiff and Class Members 10 were employed by Defendants during the Class Period and subject to allegedly unlawful meal and 11 rest policies and pay practices at issue in this litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff’s claims are typical of 12 the claims of the putative Class. (Id.)

13 D. Adequacy of Class Counsel and Class Representative

14 As detailed below, Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, have represented their 15 clients zealously and have no conflicts of interest. (Kim PA Decl., ¶¶ 23, 67-73.) The Class 16 Representative’s interests are aligned with those of the Class Members, as he has suffered the same 17 injuries as the Class Members and has no conflicts of interest. (Id. at ¶ 23.) Plaintiff has not shrunk 18 from this responsibility. (Id.) Indeed, Plaintiff has devoted a substantial amount of time and energy
19 to litigating this Action and effectuating a settlement. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel and the Class 20 Representative are adequate.

21 E. Predominance and Superiority

22 Individual issues do not predominate over those common to the class. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 24.)
23 As explained, supra, Plaintiff alleges there are common issues of law and fact given that Plaintiff 24 and all Class Members were subjected to the same policies and pay practices during the relevant 25 time period. (Id.) Plaintiff and Class Members seek meal and rest premiums, unpaid wages and 26 overtime, reimbursement for business expenses, and penalties for work performed as non-exempt 27 employees for Defendants. (Id.) Plaintiff alleges that these issues are suitable for common 28 adjudication because all Class Members were subject to the same employment policies, and

1 Plaintiff contends the practices applied uniformly to all Class Members. (Id.)

2 Plaintiff contends that class resolution is superior to other available methods for the fair and 3 efficient adjudication of the controversy as there is little interest or incentive for Class Members to 4 individually control the prosecution of separate actions. (Kim PA Decl., ¶ 25.) Although the alleged 5 injury resulting from Defendants' policies and practices are real and significant, the cost of 6 individually litigating each such case against Defendants would easily exceed the value of any relief 7 that could be obtained by any one Class Member individually. (Id.) If Class Members are forced to 8 litigate their claims individually, it would potentially result in over approximately 193 individual 9 actions against Defendant each for relatively small amounts. (Id.) Hence, an individual suit would 10 prove uneconomical for potential plaintiffs because litigation costs would dwarf a potential 11 recovery. (Id.)

12 VI. CONCLUSION

13 For the reasons set forth herein, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant final 14 approval of this Settlement and enter the companion order.
