1 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on April 22, 2025, at 8:30 a.m., in Department S26 of the 2 above-entitled Court, located at 247 West Third Street, San Bernardino, California 92415,
3 Plaintiffs Joshua Wolfe and Veronica Topete (collectively, “Plaintiffs” or “Class
4 Representatives”) will and hereby do move for an order granting final approval of:

5 1. The Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release
6 (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”) on the grounds that the Settlement is 7 fair, adequate, and reasonable because:

- 8 • A Net Settlement Amount of approximately $702,630.95 will be fully distributed to all
9 Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion
10 (“Settlement Class Members”);
11 • No Notices of Objection or Requests for Exclusion were submitted to the settlement
12 administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators (“Phoenix” or “Settlement
13 Administrator”);

14 2. Payment in the amount of $400,000.00 to Lawyers for Justice, PC and Crosner
15 Legal, PC (collectively, “Class Counsel”), representing one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement
16 Amount, for the Attorneys’ Fees, which is reasonable and justified on a percentage-basis;

17 3. Payment in the amount of $17,869.05 to Class Counsel for litigation costs;

18 4. Payment in the amount of $9,500.00 to the Settlement Administrator for 19 Administration Costs;

20 5. Payment in the amount of $10,000.00 each to Plaintiffs Joshua Wolfe and Veronica
21 Topete (total $20,000.00) as Enhancement Payments, for their time and effort in representing the 22 Class; and

23 6. Allocation of the penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004,
24 California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., in the amount of $50,000.00 (“PAGA Settlement
25 Amount”), of which seventy-five percent (75%), or $37,500.00, will be paid to the California
26 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) (“PAGA Payment”) and twenty-five
27 percent (25%), or $12,500.00, (“Employees’ PAGA Amount”) will be distributed to PAGA
28

1 Employees on a pro rata basis, based on the number of pay periods they worked during the PAGA
2 Period (“PAGA Settlement Award”).

3 This Motion is made pursuant to Rule 3.769 and Rule 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of 4 Court, which require approval by the Court of a class action settlement and permit the Court to 5 extend the page limit for memoranda.

6 This motion is based upon the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities; the 7 Declarations of Class Counsel (Arman Marukyan and Zachary Crosner), Class Representatives
8 (Joshua Wolfe and Veronica Topete), Settlement Administrator (Jarrod Salinas of Phoenix 9 Settlement Administrators) in support thereof; the pleadings and other records on file with the 10 Court in this matter; and such evidence and oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on 11 this Motion.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiffs Joshua Wolfe and Veronica Topete (“Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives”) seek final approval of: (1) the Gross Settlement Amount of $1,200,000.00¹; (2) attorneys’ fees in the amount of $400,000.00 which is one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount², and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $17,869.05 (together, referred to as the “Plaintiffs’ Counsel Award”) to Lawyers for Justice, PC and Crosner Legal, PC (collectively, “Class Counsel”); (3) Administration Costs in the amount of $9,500.00 to Phoenix Settlement Administrators (“Phoenix” or “Settlement Administrator”); (4) Enhancement Payments in the amount of $10,000.00 each to Plaintiffs Joshua Wolfe and Veronica Topete; and (5) allocation of $50,000.00 for penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA Settlement Amount”).

Plaintiffs seek relief on behalf of the following Class:

All current and former hourly paid or non-exempt employees who worked for the Defendant within the State of California at any time during the period from October 27, 2018 through February 12, 2024 (“Class” or “Class Members”).³

This matter involved ongoing investigations, substantial informal discovery, review and analysis of a large volume of documents and data prior to and during the mediation conducted by Lynn Frank, Esq. This matter has required 386.95 hours of attorney time by Class Counsel. As will be demonstrated herein, the request for attorneys’ fees, which represents one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, is fully supported by the use of the percentage-fee method. Courts have historically awarded fees of up to fifty percent (50%) of the recovery. The requested attorneys’ fees are also supported under the lodestar cross-check method.⁴

Plaintiffs move for final approval of the Enhancement Payments in the amount of $10,000.00 each to Plaintiffs Joshua Wolfe and Veronica Topete, to compensate Plaintiffs for the time and effort that they expended spearheading the lawsuit on behalf of the Class, PAGA

1 Employees, and the State of California. Plaintiffs also move for final approval of the payment to 2 the Settlement Administrator in the amount of $9,500.00 for Administration Costs. Plaintiffs also 3 move for final approval of the allocation of $50,000.00 for the PAGA Settlement Amount, of 4 which seventy-five percent (75%), i.e., $37,500.00, will be paid to the California Labor Workforce
5 and Development Agency (“LWDA”) for its portion of the PAGA Settlement Amount (“LWDA
6 Payment”), and twenty-five percent (25%), i.e., $12,500.00 (“Employees’ PAGA Amount”), will 7 be distributed to all current and former hourly non-exempt employees who worked for the 8 Defendant within the State of California at any time during the period from January 8, 2022 to 9 February 12, 2024 (“PAGA Employees”).

10 The requests for Plaintiffs’ Counsel Award, Enhancement Payments, Administration
11 Costs, and the allocation for the PAGA Settlement Amount were fully disclosed in the Court
12 Approved Notice of Class and Representative Action Settlement (“Notice Packet”) that was mailed 13 to the Class Members. Most importantly, as of the date of this Motion, not a single Class Member
14 has objected to any aspect of the Class Settlement, including the requested Plaintiffs’ Counsel
15 Award, Enhancement Payments, Administration Costs or the allocation for PAGA Settlement
16 Amount.

17 The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and is the product of arm’s-length, good-18 faith negotiations by experienced counsel presided over by a highly-regarded mediator who is 19 experienced in mediating wage-and-hour class action lawsuits. Accordingly, the Court should
20 grant final approval of the Settlement, and award Plaintiffs’ Counsel Award, Enhancement
21 Payments, Administration Costs, and the allocation for PAGA Settlement Amount in the amounts 22 as fully disclosed to the Class and as requested herein.

23 In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to 24 grant final approval of the Settlement and award Plaintiffs’ Counsel Award, Enhancement
25 Payments, Administration Costs, and the allocation for PAGA Settlement Amount, Plaintiffs also 26 move for an order permitting the filing of this single consolidated memorandum, although it
27 exceeds the page limit established by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1113(d), instead of filing 28 several separate motions.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Defendants manufacture baked goods such as cookies, breads, and cakes. Plaintiffs Joshua Wolfe and Veronica Topete allege that they are former employees of Defendants.

On October 27, 2022, Plaintiff Wolfe filed his Class Action Complaint for Damages in the San Bernardino County Superior Court, thereby commencing the action entitled Joshua Wolfe v. South Coast Baking, LLC, et al., Case No. CIVSB2224856 (“Wolfe Class Action” or “Action”).

On January 4, 2023, Plaintiff Topete submitted written notice to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendants of her intent to pursue civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code § 2698, Et Seq (“PAGA”).

On March 14, 2023, Plaintiff Topete filed a representative action in Orange County Superior Court seeking civil penalties under PAGA, thereby commencing the action entitled Veronica Topete v. South Coast Baking, LLC, et al., Case No. 30-2023-01312362-CU-OE-CXC (“Topete PAGA Action”).

On September 14, 2023, Plaintiff Wolfe submitted written notice to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendants of his intent to pursue civil penalties under PAGA.

On April 17, 2024, Plaintiffs consolidated the Wolfe Class Action and Topete PAGA Action by filing a First Amended Class Action Complaint for Damages & Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code § 2698, Et Seq. (“Operative Complaint”) in the Wolfe Class Action, which: (1) adds Rise Baking Company, LLC; Rise Artisan Bread, LLC; Rise Baking Sweet Goods, LLC; and Brill, Inc. as defendants; (2) adds Plaintiff Topete as a named plaintiff; and (3) adds Plaintiff Topete’s and Plaintiff Wolfe’s PAGA claims.

Plaintiffs’ core allegations are that Defendants have violated the California Labor Code by engaging in a uniform practice and procedure, with respect to Plaintiffs, Class Members, and PAGA Employees, of, inter alia, failing to pay all overtime and minimum wages, failing to provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium pay, failing to timely pay wages during employment and upon termination of employment, failing to provide compliant wage statements, failing to maintain requisite payroll records, and failing to reimburse necessary business expenses,

1 and thereby engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business and
2 Professions Code section 17200, et seq. and conduct that gives rise to penalties pursuant to PAGA.
3 Plaintiffs contend that they, and the Class Members, are entitled to, inter alia, unpaid wages,
4 penalties (including and not limited to, penalties pursuant to PAGA), and attorneys' fees.

5 Defendants have denied, and continue to deny, any liability and wrongdoing of any kind
6 associated with any of the allegations in the Action, and further deny that the Action is appropriate
7 for class treatment or representative adjudication for any purpose other than for settlement
8 purposes only.

9 The Parties have actively litigated the Action since October 27, 2022. On December 12,
10 2023, the Parties participated in a formal, full-day mediation conducted by Lynn Frank, Esq., a 11 well-regarded mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters. With 12 the aid of the mediator's evaluation, the Parties ultimately reached the Settlement described herein
13 to resolve the Action in its entirety.

14 On July 30, 2024, Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action
15 Settlement and supporting documents ("Motion for Preliminary Approval").

16 On October 22, 2024, the Hearing on the Motion for Preliminary Approval occurred, and 17 the Court issued an Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement
18 ("Preliminary Approval Order"), thereby preliminarily approving the terms of the Settlement, 19 the Notice Packet, and the proposed administration procedures and associated deadlines.

20 Plaintiffs now move for final approval of the Settlement, Plaintiffs' Counsel Award, 21 Enhancement Payments, Administration Costs, and the allocation for PAGA Settlement Amount.

22 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS AND PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

23 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendants have agreed to pay a Gross
24 Settlement Amount of $1,200,000.00 by making a one-time deposit, along with any Employer
25 Taxes, into a settlement account to be established by the Settlement Administrator.⁵ Subject to 26 approval by the Court, the Net Settlement Amount will be calculated by deducting the following 27 amounts from the Gross Settlement Amount: (1) Plaintiffs' Counsel Award, consisting of 28 ⁵ Settlement Agreement, § III.A.

attorneys' fees in the amount of $400,000.00 and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $17,869.05, to Class Counsel; (2) Enhancement Payments in the amount of $10,000.00 each to Plaintiffs Joshua Wolfe and Veronica Topete ($20,000.00 total); (3) Administration Costs in the amount of $9,500.00 to Phoenix; and (4) PAGA Settlement Amount in the amount of $50,000.00.⁶ The Net Settlement Amount, which is estimated to be $702,630.95, will be distributed in accordance with the Settlement Agreement and there is no reversion to Defendant.⁷

The Settlement Administrator will determine each Settlement Class Member's pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount ("Individual Settlement Payment"), according to the following methodology: the Settlement Administrator will calculate the total Compensable Workweeks for all Settlement Class Members by adding the number of Compensable Workweeks for each Settlement Class Member during the Class Period. The respective Compensable Workweeks for each Settlement Class Member will be divided by the total Compensable Workweeks for all Settlement Class Members, resulting in the Payment Ratio for each Settlement Class Member. Each Settlement Class Member's Payment Ratio will then be multiplied by the final Net Settlement Amount to yield his or her Individual Settlement Payment.⁸

The Settlement Administrator will determine each PAGA Employee's pro rata share of 25% the PAGA Settlement Amount ("PAGA Settlement Award"), according to the following methodology: the Settlement Administrator will divide his or her total Compensable Pay Periods during the PAGA Period by the total Compensable Pay Periods worked by all PAGA Employees during the PAGA Period. That fraction will then be multiplied by the 25% portion of the PAGA Settlement Amount to arrive at the PAGA Employee's PAGA Settlement Award.⁹

⁶ Settlement Agreement, §§ I.P., III.O.b.1., III.O.b.4., III.O.b.5., III.O.b.6., and III.O.b.7.

⁷ This amount is higher than the amount stated in Paragraph 12 of the accompanying Declaration of Jarrod Salinas of Phoenix Settlement Administrators Regarding Notice and Settlement Administration ("Phoenix Declaration" or Phoenix Decl.") because the Administrator's calculation assumes that Class Counsel will obtain litigation costs and expenses in the maximum amount of $35,000.00, which is allocated under the Settlement. However, Class Counsel seeks the amount of only $17,869.05 for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses, and the total difference of $17,130.95 will remain part of the Net Settlement Amount.

⁸ Id., § III.O.a.

⁹ Id., § III.O.b.1.

1 Class Members had forty-five (45) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Notice
2 Packet (“Response Deadline”) to submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection and/or 3 dispute of the Workweeks.¹⁰ As of the date of this Motion, the Settlement Administrator has not
4 received any written objections to the Class Settlement (“Notice of Objection”) or requests to be
5 excluded from the Class Settlement (“Requests for Exclusion”) from Class Members.¹¹

6 Each Individual Settlement Payment will be allocated as follows: twenty percent (20%) as 7 wages (the “Wage Portion”), which will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 to be issued by the 8 Settlement Administrator; forty percent (40%) as interest on the unpaid wages, which will be 9 reported on an IRS Form 1099 to be issued by the Settlement Administrator; and forty percent
10 (40%) as statutory penalties, which shall be reported on an IRS Form 1099 to be issued by the 11 Settlement Administrator.¹² Any payment for a PAGA Employee’s PAGA Settlement Award will 12 be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties, will not be subject to taxes or withholdings, 13 and will be reported on an IRS Form-1099, to be issued by the Settlement Administrator.¹³ The 14 Settlement Administrator will withhold the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with 15 respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Payments, and issue checks to Settlement
16 Class Members for their Individual Settlement Payments (i.e., payment of their Individual 17 Settlement Payments net of these taxes and withholdings).¹⁴ The employer’s share of payroll taxes
18 and contributions on the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Payments (i.e., the Employer
19 Taxes) will be paid by Defendants in addition to and not as a deduction from the Gross Settlement
20 Amount.¹⁵

21 Any checks issued by the Settlement Administrator to Settlement Class Members and 22 PAGA Employees will be valid and negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) days after 23 issuance.¹⁶ If a Settlement Class Member or PAGA Employee does not cash his or her settlement

IV. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

The Court-appointed Settlement Administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators has taken all necessary steps to effectuate the notice and settlement administration process, as set forth in the Court's Preliminary Approval Order.

On November 5, 2024, Defendants' counsel provided Phoenix the Class List containing each Class Member's and PAGA Employee's last-known full name, mailing address, Social Security Number, and number of Workweeks, ("Class List").¹⁸ The Class List contained data for 479 Class Members who worked 42,346 Workweeks¹⁹ and 313 PAGA Employees who worked a total of 10,579 Pay Periods.²⁰ The mailing addresses contained in the Class List were processed and updated utilizing the National Change of Address Database ("NCOA") maintained by the U.S. Postal Service.²¹ The NCOA contains requested changes of address filed with the U.S. Postal Service. In the event that any individual had filed a U.S. Postal Service change of address request, the address listed with the NCOA would be utilized in connection with the mailing of the Notice Packet.²²

On November 19, 2024, Phoenix mailed the Notice Packet via U.S. First Class Mail to all 479 individuals identified as Class Members in the Class List.²³

A total of twenty-two (22) Notice Packets were returned to Phoenix.²⁴ Of these, none were returned with a forwarding address.²⁵ If a Class Member's Notice Packet was returned by the USPS as undeliverable and without a forwarding address, Phoenix performed an advanced address search on all of these addresses by using TransUnion TLOxp, one of the most comprehensive address databases available for skip tracing.²⁶ Through the advanced address searches, Phoenix was able

2 updated addresses.²⁷ Ultimately, there are nine (9) Notice Packets that remain undeliverable,
3 because an updated address could not be obtained via skip trace.²⁸

4 As of the date of this Motion, the Settlement Administrator has not received any Notices
5 of Objection,²⁹ Requests for Exclusion,³⁰ or Workweek disputes from Class Members.³¹

6 To date, there are 479 Class Members who did not submit a timely and valid Request for 7 Exclusion (“Settlement Class Members”), and who will be paid their portion of the Net Settlement
8 Amount.³² Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement, the Net Settlement Amount of approximately 9 $702,630.95 will be distributed to Settlement Class Members in accordance with the terms of the 10 Settlement.³³ The highest Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $4,435.53
11 and the average Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $1,431.11.³⁴ The 12 highest PAGA Settlement Award is currently estimated to be $72.08 and the average PAGA
13 Settlement Award is currently estimated to be $39.94.³⁵

14 V. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION
15 AND PAGA SETTLEMENT.

16 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether a class action settlement is fair
17 and reasonable. Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52. To determine whether the 18 settlement is fair and reasonable, courts consider relevant factors such as:

19 the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 20 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the 21 amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of 22 the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 23 governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed 24 settlement.

Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. “The list of factors is not exclusive and the court is free to engage in a balancing and weighing of the factors depending on the circumstances of each case.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245. “Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801.

The proponent of the settlement has the burden to show that it is fair and reasonable. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. At the final approval stage, a presumption of fairness exists where, as here: “(1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802. In reviewing a class settlement, the court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law that underlie the merits of the dispute. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1146. The inquiry is not whether the settlement agreement is the best one that class members could have possibly obtained, but whether the settlement, taken as a whole, is “fair, adequate, and reasonable.” Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 55. A settlement need not obtain 100 percent of the damages sought in order to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 251. Even if the proposed settlement affords relief that is substantially narrower than it would be if the cases were to be successfully litigated, that is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding prolonged litigation. Id.

A. The Settlement Resulted from Arm’s-Length Negotiations Based Upon Extensive Investigation and Informal Discovery.

The Parties actively litigated the case since the Action commenced on October 27, 2022. Class Counsel conducted significant investigation and informal discovery into the facts of the case, to assess the veracity, strength, and scope of the claims, and was preparing for class certification and trial prior to reaching the Settlement.³⁶

³⁶ Marukyan Decl., ¶ 6.

1 The Parties conducted significant investigation and informal discovery regarding the facts
2 of the cases, including and not limited to, the exchange, review, and analysis of a large volume of 3 documents and data obtained from Defendants, Plaintiffs, and other sources.³⁷ Class Counsel had 4 the opportunity to interview Plaintiffs and other Class Members to gather facts and to identify 5 potential witnesses.³⁸ Counsel for the Parties also met and conferred on numerous occasions, e.g., 6 to discuss issues relating to the pleadings, and the production of documents and data prior to the 7 mediation.³⁹ Class Counsel also drafted Plaintiffs' mediation brief and prepared for and attended
8 court proceedings, settlement negotiations, and the mediation, among other tasks.⁴⁰

9 After conducting formal and informal discovery and investigation into the facts of the 10 cases, the Parties participated in a formal, full-day mediation conducted by Lynn Frank, Esq., a 11 well-regarded mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters.⁴¹ In the 12 course of mediation and settlement negotiations, the Parties exchanged class information,
13 documents, and data, and discussed all aspects of the case, including and not limited to, the risks
14 and delays of further litigation, the risks to the Parties of proceeding with class certification and 15 trial, the law relating to class certification, off-the-clock theory, meal and rest periods,
16 representative PAGA claims, and wage-and-hour enforcement, as well as the evidence produced
17 and analyzed, and the possibility of appeals, among other things.⁴² During all settlement
18 discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm's length in an adversarial position.⁴³
19 Arriving at a settlement that was acceptable to the Parties was not easy.⁴⁴ Defendants and their 20 counsel felt very strongly about Defendants' ability to prevail on the merits and to avoid class
21 certification.⁴⁵ Defendants and their counsel felt strongly about Defendants' ability to avoid class
22 certification and representative adjudication and prevail on the merits, while Plaintiffs and Class
23 Counsel believed that they would be able to obtain class certification and prevail at trial.⁴⁶ After conducting significant informal discovery and investigations, settlement negotiations, and with the aid of the mediator's evaluation, the Parties agreed that the case was well-suited for settlement given the legal issues relating to Plaintiffs' principal claims, as well as the costs and risks to the Parties that would attend further litigation.⁴⁷

The Settlement takes into account the strengths and weaknesses of each side's position and the uncertainty of how the case might have concluded at certification, trial, and/or appeals. Class Counsel analyzed a large volume of information, documents, and data obtained from Defendants, Plaintiffs, and other sources, and performed research regarding applicable law, which is evolving as it relates to certification, off-the-clock theory, meal and rest periods, representative PAGA claims, wage-and-hour enforcement, Plaintiffs' claims, and Defendants' defenses thereto, as well as facts discovered.⁴⁸ The Settlement was based on this large volume of facts, evidence, and investigation.⁴⁹ Additionally, Class Counsel have extensive experience in handling complex wage-and-hour actions, including significant experience in employment class action litigation.⁵⁰

B. The Risks Inherent in Continued Litigation Favor Final Approval of the Settlement.

The Settlement, which provides for a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,200,000.00, represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of the case, given the risks inherent in litigating class and representative claims through certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals.⁵¹ The Settlement was calculated using information and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, formal and informal discovery, and the exchange of information in the context of mediation and ongoing settlement negotiations.⁵² Had the action not settled, Defendants would have vigorously challenged class certification, manageability of representative adjudication, and liability. Defendants contended that individualized questions of fact predominated over any common issues, and these issues would pose challenges to certification and representative adjudication. Defendants would have likely argued again at trial, if any, that Plaintiffs' claims were not appropriate for class-wide and/or representative adjudication. On the other hand, Defendants also faced the risk of the Court certifying a class and allowing a jury to decide Plaintiffs' claims on a class-wide or representative basis. Additionally, preparation for trial would have been expensive for all parties.

It is preferable to reach an early resolution of a dispute because such resolutions save time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. If this matter had settled after further litigation, the settlement amount would have taken into account the additional costs incurred, and there might have been less money available for Class Members and PAGA Employees after all was said and done. This is not just an abstract contention. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. These risks of further litigation include a determination that the claims were unsuitable for class treatment and/or representative adjudication, failure to obtain certification, class de-certification after certification of a class, allowing a jury to decide the claims asserted in the cases, and the real possibility of no recovery after years of litigation. Additionally, the Parties were moving into the phase of the litigation where they would have to conduct a significant amount of additional discovery, including and not limited to, depositions of Defendants' Persons Most Knowledgeable designees, expert witnesses, and percipient witnesses, such as managers, supervisors, and other current and former employees throughout the State of California. Additional discovery would have certainly arisen, which would have cost the Parties additional time and money. In contrast, the Settlement provides real and significant benefits for the Class here and now, while avoiding the further expenses, risks, and delay of prolonged litigation with only the possibility of recovery.

It would be grossly inefficient for such a large class of current and former employees to bring individual actions to recover from Defendant for the alleged violations of wage-and-hour laws. Moreover, the potential individual recovery that could be obtained by a Class Member would not be significant enough to provide him or her with the incentive to sue. By granting final approval of the Settlement, the Court can approve a resolution that provides a certain and substantial recovery for Class Members.

1 C. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate.

2 The Settlement, which provides for a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,200,000.00,
3 represents a fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution of the case. The Settlement was calculated
4 using information and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, informal discovery,
5 and the exchange of information in the context of preparing for mediation and conducting ongoing
6 settlement negotiations. The Settlement takes into account the potential risks and rewards inherent 7 in any case and, in particular, in this matter. Moreover, considering all of the facts in the cases,
8 the Gross Settlement Amount represents a considerable recovery.

9 Even after deducting Attorneys' Fees in the amount of $400,000.00, costs and expenses in 10 the amount of $17,869.05, Enhancement Payments in the amount of $10,000.00 each ($20,000.00
11 total), Administration Costs in the amount of $9,500.00, and the allocation of PAGA Settlement
12 Amount of $50,000.00 from the Gross Settlement Amount of $1,200,000.00, the Net Settlement
13 Amount is currently estimated to be $702,630.95.⁵³ Under the Settlement Agreement, the Gross
14 Settlement Amount will be fully paid out, in accordance with the terms of the Settlement. As 15 discussed in Section III, supra, each Settlement Class Member will be paid a pro rata share of the 16 Net Settlement Amount, based on the number of Workweeks credited to him or her, and each
17 PAGA Employee will be paid a pro rata share of 25% of the PAGA Settlement Amount, based on 18 the number of Pay Periods during the PAGA Period credited to him or her. To date, there are 479
19 Settlement Class Members, representing one hundred percent (100%) of the Class Members.⁵⁴ The 20 highest Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $4,435.53 and the average
21 Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $1,431.11.⁵⁵ The highest PAGA
22 Settlement Award is currently estimated to be $72.08 and the average PAGA Settlement Award is 23 currently estimated to be $39.94.⁵⁶ These are significant individual recoveries, particularly in light
24 of the risks of litigation.

At the final approval stage, “[a]n allocation formula need only have a reasonable, rational basis [to warrant approval], particularly if recommended by experienced and competent class counsel.” In re American Bank Note Holographics, Inc., Securities Litigation (S.D.N.Y. 2001) 127 F.Supp.2d 418, 429-30. The pro rata allocation here is a fair and reasonable way to distribute the Net Settlement Amount. In light of the above considerations, Class Counsel believes that the Settlement as a whole is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and in the best interest of the Class Members, the State of California, and PAGA Employees.⁵⁷ Although the recommendations of Class Counsel are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the recommendations into account, particularly if Class Counsel appears to be competent, has experience with this type of litigation, and significant discovery and investigation have been completed, as is the case here. Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed., 2002) § 11.47. Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement.

D. The Class Was Represented by Competent Counsel.

Class Counsel has extensive experience in employment class action law and complex wage-and-hour litigation.⁵⁸ For example, Lawyers for Justice, PC has been appointed class counsel in numerous complex wage-and-hour cases, and has recovered millions of dollars for individuals in California.⁵⁹ Both parties’ counsel were capable of assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the Class Members’ claims against Defendants and the benefits of the Settlement under the circumstances of the case and in the context of a private, consensual settlement agreement.

E. There Are No Notices of Objection to the Class Settlement.

The Settlement has been well received by the Class – *not a single Class Member objected to the Class Settlement.*⁶⁰ Specifically, no objections have been made as to the Gross Settlement Amount or requested Plaintiffs’ Counsel Award, Enhancement Payments, Administration Costs, or the allocation for PAGA Settlement Amount. California courts have consistently found that a small number of objectors indicates the class’ support for a settlement and strongly favors final

2 7-Eleven Owners, supra, 85 Cal.App.4th at 1152-53 (final approval granted despite 9 objectors).

3 Here, the lack of any objections speaks volumes about the fairness, reasonableness, and 4 adequacy of this Settlement. Accordingly, the Settlement as a whole is presumed to be fair,
5 reasonable, and adequate, and the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement in its entirety.

7 VI. THE ATTORNEYS' FEES REQUESTED IS FAIR AND REASONABLE AND 8 SHOULD BE APPROVED.

9 A. Legal Standard for Attorneys' Fees in a Class Action Settlement.

10 Trial courts have "wide latitude" in assessing the value of attorneys' fees and their 11 decisions will "'not be disturbed on appeal absent a manifest abuse of discretion.'" Lealao v.
12 Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 41; Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122,
13 1132 (The "experienced trial judge is the best judge of the value of professional services rendered 14 in his court[.]"); Cellphone Termination Fee Cases (2009) 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1118. Where 15 the amount of a settlement is a "certain easily calculable sum of money," California courts may 16 calculate attorneys' fees as a reasonable percentage of the settlement. Weil and Brown, California
17 Practice Guide, Civil Procedure Before Trial, Chapter 14, § 14:145; see also Laffitte v. Robert
18 Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503; Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1808. The percentage-
19 of-the-benefit approach is preferred in class and representative actions because "it better
20 approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach." Lealao, supra, 82
21 Cal.App.4th at 49.

22 California law provides that an attorneys' fees award should be equivalent to fees paid in 23 the legal marketplace for the result achieved and risk incurred. Id. at 47-50; Laffitte v. Robert Half
24 Int'l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503. In Lealao, the court held that when an action leads to a 25 recovery that can be "monetized" with a reasonable degree of certainty, the trial court should 26 "ensure that the fee awarded is within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace 27 in comparable litigation." Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 50. Fee awards that are too small will 28 "chill the private enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal rights and obstruct the representative actions that often relieve the courts of the need to separately adjudicate numerous claims.” Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 53.

“The ultimate goal . . . is the award of a ‘reasonable’ fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of calculation.” Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-58 (quoting Apple Computer, Inc. v. Superior Court, supra, 126 Cal.App.4th at 1270). It is not an abuse of discretion to choose one method over another as long as the method chosen is applied consistently using percentage figures and/or rates that accurately reflect the marketplace. In cases where class members present claims against a settlement amount and the settlement agreement provides that the defendant agrees to paying the attorneys a percentage of the same, use of that percentage method is appropriate. Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 32.

Historically, courts have awarded fees as high as fifty percent (50%) of the settlement, depending on the circumstances of the case. Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed., 2002) § 14.03; see also In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding attorneys’ fees in the amount of 45% of the settlement amount of $7.3 million); Beech Cinema, Inc. v. Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 480 F.Supp. 1195 (awarding approximately 53% of the settlement amount as attorneys’ fees). California courts routinely approve class action attorneys’ fees awards “averag[ing] around one-third of the recovery.” Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found 20 to 40 percent range of contingency fee in marketplace was appropriate in class actions); see also Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 488 & 506 (approving fee award of 1/3 of common fund of $19 million).

B. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate.

California and federal courts have long recognized that an appropriate method for determining the award of attorneys’ fees is based on a percentage of the total value of benefits made available to class members by the settlement. Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503; Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert (1980) 444 U.S. 472, 478; Paul, Johnson, Alston & Hunt v. Gaulty (9th Cir. 1989) 886 F.2d 268, 272; Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769; Serrano v.

1 Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34.⁶¹ The purpose of this equitable doctrine is to spread litigation costs
2 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire
3 burden alone. See Vincent, supra, 557 F.2d at 769.

4 When a litigant's efforts result in a settlement from which others may derive benefits, the 5 litigant may require the passive beneficiaries to compensate those whose efforts brought about the 6 settlement. See, R. Pearle, California Attorney Fee Awards (CEB, 1993) § 7A, p. 5-7 (permitting
7 Plaintiffs' Counsel Award to be paid out of the settlement or directly on behalf of the other parties
8 enjoying the benefit of the settlement). Both state and federal courts have embraced this doctrine.
9 See Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 35; Crampton v. Takegoshi (1993) 17 Cal.App.4th 308, 317;
10 Vincent, supra, 557 F.2d at 769.

11 The propriety of calculating and awarding attorneys' fees as a percentage of a monetary 12 settlement that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered for the benefit of others, has been 13 confirmed by the California Supreme Court. Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 480 at 486 & 506. The 14 California Supreme Court has taken the position that "[t]rial courts have discretion to conduct a 15 lodestar cross-check on a percentage fee," "they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-16 check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee[.]" and 17 "[t]he percentage [...] method survives in California." Id. (internal quotes omitted).

18 Courts have consistently recognized that class and representative action litigation is 19 increasingly necessary to protect the rights of individuals whose injuries and/or damages are too
20 small to economically justify legal action on an individual basis. Accordingly, in determining a 21 reasonable fee award, courts award fees to serve as an economic incentive for lawyers to pursue
22 such litigation in order to achieve increased access to the judicial system for meritorious claims
23 and to enhance deterrents to wrongdoing. This is especially true in situations where multiple 24 similar alleged wrongs would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here.
25 See A. Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d Ed., 1993) 104, at 6.

26
27
28 ⁶¹ The California Supreme Court has urged trial courts to consider class action federal authority. Green v. Obledo (1981) 29 Cal.3d 126, 146; Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal.3d 800, 821.

When the case was originally filed, not only was it inescapably contingent, but the prospect of a long, drawn-out battle with a defendant represented by experienced counsel, was almost a certainty. By taking on this “battle” on a contingency basis, Class Counsel risked substantial economic loss if the results were not successful. This substantial risk is the reason that the courts approve the use of the percentage method when a settlement is obtained by the efforts of class counsel. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-49 (discussing the risks of engaging in litigation without certainty of compensation).

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendants will pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,200,000.00 on a non-reversionary basis. The requested attorneys’ fees are one-third (1/3) of the total value of the monetary settlement. In light of Class Counsel’s successful prosecution and resolution of the case, the requested attorneys’ fees are appropriate and reasonable.

Compensating class counsel in class litigation on a percentage basis makes good sense because: (1) it is consistent with the private marketplace where contingent fee attorneys are customarily compensated on such a basis; (2) it aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members in achieving the maximum possible resolution of the case; and (3) it encourages the most efficient and expeditious resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement. The requested attorneys’ fees in this matter satisfy all of those factors and should be approved on a percentage basis.

The percentage method is consistent with, and is intended to mirror, the practice in the private marketplace where contingent-fee attorneys typically negotiate percentage-fee arrangements with their clients. The named plaintiffs’ agreement to pay a contingent fee is powerful evidence of a reasonable fee. One of the best ways to demonstrate the value of counsel’s work to the class is to review the consideration agreed to be paid by the named plaintiff. If the named plaintiff has employed counsel on a contingency-fee basis, it would indeed be inequitable for the members of the class, who will enjoy the benefits of the settlement without incurring the risks of bringing the claim, to pay less than the named plaintiff. In this case, Plaintiffs have agreed to a contingency fee of at least one-third (1/3) of the recovery.⁶²

⁶² Marukyan Decl., ¶ 9.

Furthermore, a percentage-fee award is not dependent on a determination of the actual amount claimed by those entitled—it is the creation of the settlement that is the crucial fact. In Winslow v. Harold G. Ferguson Corp., the California Supreme Court expressly held that “it is equitable that [the attorney’s] compensation and expenses should come from the entire fund saved for all classes concerned before it is distributed.” Winslow v. Harold G. Ferguson Corp. (1944) 25 Cal.2d 274, 284. Likewise, Lealao expressly held that a percentage-based fee “may be calculated on the basis of the total fund made available rather than the actual payments made to the class.” Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 51; see also Boeing, supra, 444 U.S. at 478 (“a litigant or a lawyer who recovers” a settlement “for the benefit of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorneys’ fee from the fund as a whole”).

In Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, in determining reasonable attorneys’ fees, the Court of Appeal valued a settlement based on the total value of the settlement made available to class members by the efforts of counsel, decided in favor of granting fees as a percentage of the total value of the settlement, and rejected an objection that the fees be awarded based on the exact amount claimed by class members. Id. at 247.

Class Counsel has obtained a substantial recovery on behalf of Plaintiffs, the Class, PAGA Employees, and the State of California, and the results achieved justify an attorneys’ fees award that is the equivalent of the standard market fee and that is consistent with the contingency-fee agreement entered into by and between Plaintiffs and Class Counsel. Thus, the requested attorneys’ fees are appropriate.

C. The Attorneys’ Fees Requested Is Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered in Determination of Fee Awards.

In Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel, the court identified twelve factors to be considered in determining whether fee awards are reasonable: (1) the time and labor required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved; (3) the skill required to perform the legal services properly; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of the case; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; (8) the amount involved and results obtained; (9) the experience, reputation and ability of the attorney; (10) the undesirability of the case; (11) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and (12) awards in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772.

Each and every one of these factors favors the attorneys' fees sought here; however, some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be addressed herein. The Attorneys' Fees in the amount of $400,000.00 (which is 1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount) is commensurate with the time, effort, and expense dedicated to the case, the contingent nature of Class Counsel's fee and the risks taken in commencing the case, the skill and determination required, the results that Class Counsel have achieved, and the value of the settlement that Class Counsel have obtained for the Class Members.

1. Time & Labor.

Class Counsel used its experience and skills, and dedicated the full extent of resources, to litigate and bring this matter to a successful conclusion on behalf of the Class. Moreover, as demonstrated in the supporting declarations, Class Counsel have extensive experience in the handling of class actions and complex litigation cases.⁶³

As outlined in the Declaration of Arman Marukyan, Class Counsel have fully and actively participated in litigation of the cases.⁶⁴ Prior to commencing the lawsuits, Class Counsel have conducted a significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendants' business, and its operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures.⁶⁵ During the litigation of the actions, Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiffs and other Class Members; reviewed and analyzed a large volume of pages of information, documents and data obtained from Defendants, Plaintiffs, and other sources; and prepared liability, damages, penalties, and valuation calculations.⁶⁶ Class Counsel also met and conferred with Defendants' counsel over the issues relating to pleadings, discovery, and the production of information, documents and data, among other things; engaged in settlement negotiations with Defendants’ counsel; and prepared for and attended court proceedings, mediation, and settlement negotiations.⁶⁷

Class Counsel have dedicated staffing and monetary resources necessary to prosecute this matter diligently and with maximum efficiency and have fully and actively participated in the litigation process. The Task and Time Chart, which is attached as EXHIBIT A to the accompanying Declaration of Arman Marukyan, sets forth in detail the hours that Lawyers for Justice, PC has spent performing tasks on behalf of Plaintiff Wolfe and the Class.⁶⁸ The Task and Time Chart is thorough and comprehensive, and was prepared so that the Court can peruse it without having to set forth each and every task in the body of this Motion. The Court is respectfully referred to the chart, which sets forth the history of the work performed by Class Counsel, commencing with the pre-filing analysis and research, and continuing up to settlement and final approval. Additionally, the Crosner Legal Time Report, which is attached as EXHIBIT “1” to the accompanying Declaration of Zachary Crosner, sets forth the hours that Crosner Legal, PC has spent performing tasks on behalf of Plaintiff Topete and the Class.⁶⁹ Together, Class Counsel have spent a combined 386.95 hours performing tasks and to obtain a significant recovery on behalf of Plaintiffs, the Class, the PAGA Employees, and the State of California.⁷⁰ These hours were required to bring these matters to their successful conclusion. In light of the value of time expended and the carrying of costs involved in litigating this case, the requested attorneys’ fees are fair, adequate, and reasonable.

2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly.

The skill required to properly litigate the case is evident not only in the results achieved, but in the steps necessary to reach those results. Defendants retained well-respected counsel to represent their defenses. More specifically, Defendants and their counsel felt very strongly about Defendants’ ability to obtain a denial of certification and to prevail on the merits. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believed that they would have obtained class certification and prevailed at trial.

⁷⁰ Marukyan Decl, Exh. A; Crosner Decl., Exh. 1.

Class Counsel undertook significant investigation, analysis, and research prior to filing this case, during the litigation, and prior to mediation. Class Counsel took steps to prepare the matter for class certification and representative adjudication and had every intention of taking the case to trial on a class-wide basis if Defendant did not offer an appropriate class-wide settlement. Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, as demonstrated in the Declarations of Arman Marukyan, Class Counsel used their extensive experiences in the handling of class actions and complex wage-and-hour litigation matters in order to obtain the Settlement with maximum efficiency.⁷¹

3. The Value of the Settlement for the Class Members.

The Settlement represents an excellent resolution of the action, given the risks inherent in litigating the case through certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals. Had the case not settled, Defendants would have vigorously challenged certifiability, manageability of representative adjudication, and liability. Defendants, however, faced risks if the Court certified a class and allowed a jury to decide the claims. Additionally, preparing the case for trial would have been expensive for the Parties.

The Settlement at this stage is preferred over continued litigation because such resolutions save time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery, as opposed to an uncertain result in the future after prolonged litigation involving expert discovery, trial preparation, class certification proceedings, and appellate review of those proceedings. The Settlement offers present relief and/or recovery to Settlement Class Members, the State of California, and PAGA Employees while avoiding the further expense, risk, and delay in obtaining possible recovery at an unknown time in the future.

As a result of this litigation and settlement negotiations, Defendant agreed to pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,200,000.00 to settle the matter. After deducting the Attorneys' Fees ($400,000.00), costs and expenses ($17,869.05), Enhancement Payments ($20,000.00 total), Administration Costs ($9,500.00), and the allocation of the PAGA Settlement Amount ⁷¹ Marukyan Decl., ¶¶ 13-18.

(50,000.00) from the Gross Settlement Amount, it is currently estimated that the Net Settlement Amount is approximately $702,630.95.⁷² The Net Settlement Amount will be fully distributed in accordance with the terms of the Settlement. The highest Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $4,435.53 and the average Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $1,431.11.⁷³ The highest PAGA Settlement Award is currently estimated to be $72.08 and the average PAGA Settlement Award is currently estimated to be $39.94.⁷⁴ The Settlement offers significant monetary relief to the Settlement Class Members, the State of California, and PAGA Employees.

4. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent.

Plaintiffs entered into a contingency fee agreement with Class Counsel, and the representation of the Class provided by Class Counsel has been wholly contingent. Class Counsel took on the cases without knowing whether any recovery would be obtained. Class Counsel has collectively invested 386.95 hours of time to obtain relief on behalf of Plaintiffs, Class Members, the State of California, and PAGA Employees.⁷⁵ Class Counsel has also incurred litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $17,869.05.⁷⁶

Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁷⁷ Class Counsel is well-experienced in wage-and-hour class action and complex litigation and used that experience to obtain a great result.⁷⁸ The skill and determination that Class Counsel has shown, along with the results obtained, justify the requested Plaintiffs' Counsel Award. Considering the amounts requested, the work performed, and the risks incurred, the requested fees and costs are reasonable and should be awarded.

In determining the reasonableness of a fee award in a class action settlement, whether or not representation is provided on a contingency basis is an important factor:

A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they are performed. The contingent fee compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. A lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.

Cates v. Chiang (2013) 213 Cal.App.4th 791, 823 (internal quotes and citations omitted). Class Counsel litigated the case on a contingent basis with all of the concomitant risk factors inherent in such an uncertain undertaking. Had Class Counsel not been successful, the time that Class Counsel have devoted to litigating the case would have been for naught, and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses.

5. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved.

The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific difficulties faced in this matter, are considerable. The Settlement has yielded a positive response from the Class Members—no Class Members objected to the Class Settlement.⁷⁹

The court in Camden noted that, “a key element of the common fund case is that fees are [...] taken from the fund [...] and a common fund is itself the measure of success ... [and] represents the benchmark on which a reasonable fee will be awarded.” Camden, 946 F. 2d 768, fn. 28 (citing Court Awarded Attorney Fees, Report of the Third Circuit Task Force (October 8, 1985) 108 F.R.D. 237 and Newberg, Attorney Fee Awards § 2.07 (1986)).

Here, the results achieved and obtained on behalf of Plaintiffs and the Class are reasonable in light of the risks inherent in further litigating this matter. Class Counsel’s efforts have resulted in a settlement that provides for a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,200,000.00.⁸⁰ The Gross Settlement Amount will be fully paid out, in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement. The highest Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $4,435.53 and the average Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $1,431.11.⁸¹ The highest PAGA Settlement Award is currently estimated to be $72.08 and the average PAGA Settlement Award is currently estimated to be $39.94.⁸²

6. The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys.

Lawyers for Justice, PC and Crosner Legal, PC are recognized class action law firms that employed its attorneys' knowledge, skills, and experience in bringing this matter to a successful conclusion. Class Counsel have years of complex and class action litigation experience, have recovered millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of individuals in California, and have successfully handled numerous significant wage-and-hour class action and complex cases.⁸³

D. The Lodestar Methodology Also Justifies Approval of the Requested Fees, Because Class Counsel Has Performed Work That Is of Significant Value Based On Reasonable Hours and Prevailing Hourly Rates of Compensation.

While the percentage-of-the-benefit approach is endorsed as the better approximation of the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach, courts may also use the lodestar method to "cross-check" the results of the other. See Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 505 (explaining that "[a] lodestar cross-check is simply a quantitative method for bringing a measure of the time spent by counsel into the trial court's reasonableness determination"); see also, e.g., Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050 ("[W]hile the primary basis of the fee award remains the percentage method, the lodestar may provide a useful perspective on the reasonableness of a given percentage award."). Importantly, "the lodestar calculation . . . does not override the trial court's primary determination of the fee as a percentage" of the settlement amount and "does not impose an absolute maximum or minimum on the potential fee award." Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 505.

The lodestar is calculated based on reasonable hours at reasonable prevailing hourly rates for the attorneys. Ketchum, supra, 24 Cal.4th at 1131-32. Under California law, counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour reasonably spent on the matter. Id. at 1133.

1. The Number of Hours Spent on the Litigation was Reasonable.

The reasonableness of hours is assessed by "the entire course of the litigation, including pretrial matters, settlement negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the trial itself[.]" Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist. (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447.

As discussed above, the case was highly contested and required a significant amount of time and labor. Defendants made it clear very early on that it disputed all of the allegations of the case and disputed that the matter was appropriate for class or representative treatment. Defendants raised affirmative defenses and denied liability, and the pursuit of this case involved gathering and analyzing data not only from Defendants but also from the Class Members. The handling of the cases involved a great amount of effort, and also required and involved the exercise of a high level of skill, which Class Counsel has as a result of their extensive experience in employment class actions and complex wage-and-hour litigation. Long and difficult battles would have followed as the cases moved toward certification and trial, including taking and defending depositions of Defendants' Persons Most Knowledgeable designees, percipient witnesses, and experts, propounding additional discovery requests and conducting additional document production, and engaging in extensive motion practice. As Class Counsel geared up for these battles, Class Counsel undertook intense preparation in an attempt to resolve the entire matter through mediation.

Class Counsel had to bring together a large volume of information, documents and data that were obtained from Defendants, Plaintiffs, and through other sources. Class Counsel conducted extensive review and analysis of the information, documents and data to strategize the action and to prepare for mediation and engage in settlement discussions.

As discussed above in Part VI.C.1, infra, attached to the Declaration of Arman Marukyan is a task and time chart that sets forth in detail the numerous tasks that Lawyers for Justice, PC performed on behalf of Plaintiff Wolfe and the Class, and the time required for completing those tasks.⁸⁴ Additionally, the Crosner Legal Time Report, attached to the Declaration of Zachary Crosner, sets forth the hours that Crosner Legal, PC has spent performing tasks on behalf of Plaintiff Topete and the Class.⁸⁵ The charts demonstrate that Class Counsel have spent a combined total of 386.95 hours litigating the cases and finalizing the Settlement.⁸⁶ In light of the facts and circumstances of the cases, as well as the results that Class Counsel has achieved in these cases, Class Counsel has spent a reasonable number of hours on this matter. In addition, Class Counsel will continue to perform work on this matter through the date of final approval and in connection with the implementation of the Settlement.

⁸⁴ Marukyan Decl., Exh. A.

⁸⁵ Crosner Decl., Exh. 1.

⁸⁶ Marukyan Decl., Exh. A; Crosner Decl., Exh. 1.

2. The Fees Requested Represent a Reasonable Hourly Rate of Compensation in Light of Class Counsel's Efforts and Experience.

Both California and federal courts recognize that attorneys should be compensated for providing representation on a contingency basis and for taking on the risks associated with said representation, as well as being provided with financial incentives to enforce important rights and protections like those at issue in this action. See Ketchum, supra, 24 Cal.4th at 1132-33. In awarding attorneys' fees, the aim is to mirror "the established practice in the private legal market of rewarding attorneys for taking the risk of nonpayment by paying them a premium over their normal hourly rates for winning contingency cases." See Id.

Class Counsel has been actively involved in this matter, prior to its commencement and all the way up to the present, and Class Counsel's dedication to providing representation in these cases has precluded other employment. Here, Class Counsel bore the risk that, despite all of its efforts and skills employed, there may be no recovery. Ultimately, Class Counsel was successful in reaching a settlement of $1,200,000.00.

As set forth in the Declaration of Arman Marukyan, the professional backgrounds and experience of Lawyers for Justice, PC support reasonable rates of compensation of at least $850 per hour for services provided by Lawyers for Justice, PC.⁸⁷ Lawyers for Justice, PC has been awarded attorneys' fees, compensating the firm at the blended rate of at least $850 per hour for legal service performed, by courts of this state.⁸⁸ While the circumstances of every case are unique, the fact remains that the work performed and efforts undertaken by Class Counsel on behalf of the Class Members justify the requested attorneys' fees.

Applying the rate of $850 per hour to 204 hours for services provided by Lawyers for Justice, PC would place a reasonable value of $173,400 based on lodestar, and Crosner Legal, PC's base lodestar is $134,185.00,⁸⁹ for a combined lodestar of $307,585.00 for the work performed by Class Counsel. However, Class Counsel seeks attorneys' fees in the amount of $400,000.00, which is one-third (1/3) of the total recovery, as provided for by the Settlement Agreement.

⁸⁷ Marukyan Decl., ¶¶ 11, 12.

⁸⁹ Crosner Decl., Exh. 1.

It also bears noting that a court may apply a multiplier in consideration for risk, efficiency, and/or obtaining a substantial result, to enhance the lodestar for purpose of cross-check. See Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at 1133-34 (holding that a risk multiplier may be applied to compensate contingency fee attorneys at a fair market rate). Such an enhancement "mirrors the established practice in the private legal market of rewarding attorneys for taking the risk of nonpayment by paying them a premium over their normal hourly rates for winning contingency cases." Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051; accord Ketchum, supra, 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-34. A risk multiplier also serves to bring the financial incentives for enforcing important rights "into line with incentives [attorneys] have to undertake claims for which they are paid on a fee-for-services basis." Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at 1132. Courts have also approved fee awards with multipliers of 2 and even higher. See, e.g., City of Oakland v. Oakland Raiders (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 78 (affirming a 2.34 multiplier without remand); Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 ("Multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher."); Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases (2009) 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (applying a 2.52 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check); Chavez, supra, 162 Cal.App.4th at 66 (applying a 2.5 multiplier in a consumer class action).

The lodestar method as a cross-check to the percentage figure sought strongly supports the reasonableness of the requested attorneys' fees. Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully requests that the Court grant final approval of, and award, attorneys' fees in the amount of $400,000.00 to Class Counsel.

VII. COSTS TO BE REIMBURSED TO CLASS COUNSEL ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

The Settlement provides for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of up to $35,000.00. As set forth in the Declarations of Arman Marukyan and Zachary Crosner, Class Counsel seek reimbursement of $17,869.05 in litigation costs and expenses incurred in these cases.⁹⁰ This amount was reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of the cases and to obtain the Settlement.⁹¹ The cost savings of $17,130.95 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount, which will be distributed to Settlement Class Members in accordance with the Settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court award litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $17,869.05 to Class Counsel.

VIII. THE ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

As set forth in the accompanying Phoenix Declaration, the total costs incurred and to be incurred by Phoenix for the notice and settlement administration process are $9,500.00.⁹² The costs incurred and to be incurred include, but are not limited to, (a) printing and mailing the Notice Packet; (b) receiving and processing requests for exclusion and objections to the Class Settlement, if applicable; (c) resolving Class Members' disputes over the number of Workweeks Defendants have record of them working during the Class Period, which was pre-printed on their individualized Notice Packet; (d) establishing a QSF account and calculating individual settlement award amounts; (e) processing and mailing settlement award checks; (f) handling tax withholdings as required by the Settlement and the law; (g) preparing, issuing and filing tax returns and other applicable tax forms; (h) handling the distribution of any unclaimed funds pursuant to the terms of the Settlement; and (i) performing other tasks as the Parties mutually agree to and/or the Court orders Phoenix to perform.⁹³

Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of payment to Phoenix, a necessary third-party administrator, for its handling of the notice and settlement process, in the amount of $9,500.00.

IX. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENTS IS FAIR AND REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

The Settlement provides for Enhancement Payments in the amount of $10,000.00 each to Plaintiffs Joshua Wolfe and Veronica Topete ($20,000.00 total) to compensate Plaintiffs for the time and effort that they expended on behalf of the Class. The requested Enhancement Payments are both common and reasonable and should be awarded.

In determining whether to make Enhancement Payments, courts consider the following factors: (1) the risk to the class representative in commencing suit, both financial and otherwise; (2) the notoriety and personal difficulties encountered by the class representatives; (3) the amount of time and efforts spent by the class representatives; (4) the duration of the litigation; and (5) the personal benefit (or lack thereof) enjoyed by the class representatives as a result of the litigation. Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 299 (approving $50,000 participation award to a single class representative).

The requested Enhancement Payments are fair and appropriate because Plaintiffs spent a substantial amount of time and effort producing relevant documents and past employment records, as well as providing the facts and evidence to support the prosecution of the claims.⁹⁴ Plaintiffs were available whenever Class Counsel needed them and actively tried to obtain, and gave, information to support the pursuit of the cases.⁹⁵

Accordingly, it is appropriate and just for Plaintiffs Joshua Wolfe and Veronica Topete to receive $10,000.00 each ($20,000.00 total), as reasonable Enhancement Payments, in addition to their individual settlement payments.

X. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant final approval of the Settlement, and award Plaintiffs' Counsel Award, Enhancement Payments, Administration Costs, and the allocation for PAGA Settlement Amount, in their entirety, as sought herein; and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.
