JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff ARTURO B. AMAYA (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself, all others similarly
2 situated, the State of California, and the general public, complain and allege as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this class and representative action against Defendants FIG LEASING
5 CO., INC., a California corporation; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, (collectively referred to as 6 “Defendants”) for alleged violations of the California Labor Code and California Business and 7 Professions Code. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have:

- 8 a. failed to pay them overtime wages at the correct rate;
- 9 b. failed to pay them double time wages at the correct rate;
- 10 c. failed to pay them overtime and/or double time wages by failing to include all 11 applicable remuneration in calculating the regular rate of pay;
- 12 d. failed to provide them with meal periods;
- 13 e. failed to provide them with rest periods;
- 14 f. failed to pay them premium wages for missed meal and rest periods;
- 15 g. failed to provide them with accurate written wage statements;
- 16 h. failed to reimburse them with necessary business expenditures; and
- 17 i. failed to pay them all of their final wages following separation of employment.

18 Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class and 19 representative action to recover unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil and statutory penalties, 20 restitution and related relief on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public.

21 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

22 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this case because the monetary
23 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff from Defendants conduct exceeds the minimal jurisdiction
24 of the Superior Court of the State of California.

25 3. Venue is proper in the County of Los Angeles pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
26 sections 395(a) and 395.5 in that liability arose this county because at least some of the transactions
27 that are the subject matter of this Complaint occurred therein and/or each defendant is found, 28 maintains offices, transacts business and/or has an agent therein.

4. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County because Defendants' have at all times alleged herein, conducted business in Los Angeles County, and throughout California. As such, venue is proper in any county in California.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff ARTURO B. AMAYA is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant FIG LEASING CO., INC. is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a California corporation doing business in the State of California.

7. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that each of the fictitiously named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged herein and that Plaintiff's alleged damages were proximately caused by these defendants, and each of them. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times mentioned herein, some or all of the defendants were the representatives, agents, employees, partners, directors, associates, joint venturers, joint employers, owners, principals or co-participants of some or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting within the course and scope of such relationship and with the full knowledge, consent and ratification by such other defendants.

9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times mentioned herein, some of the defendants pursued a common course of conduct, acted in concert and conspired with one another, and aided and abetted one another to accomplish the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged herein.

10. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to Code

1 of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest among the 2 persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because Plaintiff is 3 unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class action.

4 11. Relevant Time Period: The relevant time period is defined as the time period
5 beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until judgment is entered.

- 6 a. Hourly Employee Class: All persons employed by Defendants, collectively or 7 separately, in hourly or non-exempt positions eligible to receive Form W-2's in 8 California four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that 9 final judgment is entered in this action ("Hourly Employee Class").
- 10 b. Meal Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked in 11 a shift in excess of five hours during the four years prior to the filing of this action 12 and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 13 c. Rest Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked a 14 shift of at least three and one-half (3.5) hours the four years prior to the filing of 15 this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 16 d. Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who 17 separated from their employment with Defendants during the period beginning 18 three years before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is 19 entered.
- 20 e. Wage Statement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California during 21 the period beginning one year before the filing of this action and ending when final 22 judgment is entered.
- 23 f. Expense Reimbursement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in 24 California who incurred business expenses during the Relevant Time Period.
- 25 g. UCL Class: All Hourly Employee Class and Expense Reimbursement Class
26 members employed by Defendants in California during the four years prior to the 27 filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this 28 action.

12. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class definitions with greater specificity, by further division into sub-classes and/or by limitation to particular issues.

13. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that the individual joinder of each individual class member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact number of class members, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that the actual number exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California law.

1 14. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all
2 class members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual class members.

3 These common questions include, but are not limited to:

- 4 a. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 5 employees with their rest periods;
- 6 b. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 7 employees with their meal periods;
- 8 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay premium wages to class members when they 9 have not been provided with meal and rest periods at the appropriate rates of pay;
- 10 d. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class 11 members for all time worked;
- 12 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage 13 statements as a result of providing them with written wage statements with 14 inaccurate entries for, among other things, amounts of gross and net wages, and 15 total hours worked;
- 16 f. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or 17 incomplete final wage payments;
- 18 g. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for all necessary business 19 expenses incurred during the discharge of their duties;
- 20 h. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under 21 Labor Code section 203; and
- 22 i. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that 23 Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition;

24 15. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other class members' claims. Plaintiff
25 is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing to 26 comply with the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code as alleged in this 27 Complaint.

28 16. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative in

1 that he has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent class
2 members and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly 3 and adequately represent and protect the interests of the other class members.

4 17. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in that 5 they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent class members, are experienced in 6 wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf
7 of Plaintiff and absent class members.

8 18. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair and 9 efficient adjudication of the class members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and the 10 Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to simultaneously and 11 efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the unnecessary duplication of 12 effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In addition, the monetary amounts 13 due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively small and would thus make it difficult,
14 if not impossible, for individual class members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a class 15 action will serve an important public interest by permitting class members to effectively pursue the 16 recovery of monies owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent 17 or contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

18 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19 19. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee during the relevant and 20 statutory periods.

21 20. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
22 and Class members proper wages and overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay.

23 21. Plaintiff and Class Members were also consistently required to perform work, off-the-24 clock, for which they were not paid wages. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were 25 systemically required to arrive to work early and fill out mandatory COVID-19 questionnaires, prior 26 to being allowed to clock in for work. Then, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to spend time
27 booting up the time clock, all prior to clocking in for work. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members 28 were required to perform various pre-shift and post-shift work, off-the-clock, including having to

1 clean Defendants' work area. Furthermore, Plaintiff and Class Members were systemically required
2 to perform work-related tasks during unpaid meal periods, which they were regularly denied. Finally,
3 Plaintiff and Class Members were required to retrieve their background reports from Defendants'
4 background check vendor. The forgoing and uncompensated working time was under the direction
5 and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

6 22. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of 7 eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Plaintiff
8 and Class Members to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

9 23. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 10 Class Members the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with the California Law.
11 Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and Class Members were not
12 relieved of all duties, and required to perform work-relates tasks during their unpaid meal periods,
13 which were systemically denied. Additionally, the uncompensated pre-shift duties, discussed herein,
14 delayed Plaintiff and Class Members' meal periods, to commence after the completion of their fifth 15 hour of work.

16 24. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30)
17 minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal 18 period as part of each work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to 19 take their meal periods, or that advised Class Members of their meal and rest period rights; and (3)
20 Defendants' practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their meal and 21 rest periods due to the excessive workload.

22 25. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 23 Class Members the opportunity to take rest periods in compliance with the California Law. Plaintiff
24 and Class Members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4)
25 hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest
26 period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2)
27 no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods,
28 or that properly advised Plaintiff and Class Members of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy

1 and practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to 2 the excessive workload.

3 26. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members premium pay 4 wages at their appropriate regular rates of pay for each meal and rest period denied.

5 27. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with accurate wage statements as 6 mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226. Specifically, Defendants failed to issue wage 7 statements as “a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee’s wages, or 8 separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing.”
9 Additionally, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members were not recorded in “ink 10 or other indelible form.”

11 28. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as “gross wages 12 earned” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

13 29. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as “total hours worked 14 by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were 15 not included.

16 30. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as “net wages earned”
17 were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

18 31. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as “all applicable
19 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 20 hourly rate by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including 21 overtime, were not included.

22 32. Additionally, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members failed to
23 include the “name and address of the legal entity that is the employer” as required by Labor Code §
24 226(a)(8).

25 33. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with paper pay 26 stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE Opinion Letters.
27 Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ wage statement were only provided in electronic format in violation 28 of Labor Code § 226.

34. Plaintiff and Class Members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to pay purchase protective gear and masks, necessary to perform, their duties under Defendants' employ. Plaintiff and Class members were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

(Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1174, and 1198)

(Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class)

35. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

36. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members have been non-exempt employees of Defendant entitled to the full meal period protections of both the Labor Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

37. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order impose an affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt employees with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period of five hours, and to provide them with two uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period of ten hours.

38. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order (“Wage Order”) both prohibit employers from requiring employees to work during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required meal period.

39. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor Code section 200.

40. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

41. Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order states:

1 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than five 2 (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that 3 when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day's 4 work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer
5 and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30
6 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 'on duty' meal 7 period and counted as time worked. An 'on duty' meal period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.

8 42. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was not subject to a valid on-duty meal period
9 agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Meal Period Sub-Class
10 members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

11 43. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
12 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
13 Sub-Class with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5)
14 hour work period, as required by Labor Code section 512 ad the applicable Wage Order. Specifically,
15 due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were not
16 relieved of all duties, and required to perform work-relates tasks during their unpaid meal periods,
17 which were systemically denied. Additionally, the uncompensated pre-shift duties, discussed herein,
18 delayed Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members' meal periods, to commence after the 19 completion of their fifth hour of work..

20 44. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
21 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium wages to Meal Period Sub-
22 Class members when they worked five (5) hours without clocking out for any meal period.

23 45. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
24 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
25 Sub-Class with a second meal period when they worked shifts of ten or more hours and failed to pay
26 them premium wages as required by Labor Code 512 and the applicable Wage Order.

27 46. Moreover, Defendants written policies fail to inform Meal period Class Members of 28 their meal period rights under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

1 47. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-
2 Class members additional premium wages, and/or were not paid premium wages at the employees'
3 regular rates of pay when required meal periods were not provided.

4 48. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6, 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff, on behalf of 5 himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seek to recover unpaid premium wages, interest
6 thereon, and costs of suit.

7 49. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 8 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the 9 Meal Period Sub-Class members, seek to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

10 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

11 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

12 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198)

13 (Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class)

14 50. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 15 herein.

16 51. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members have been 17 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of both the Labor
18 Code and the applicable Wage Order.

19 52. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on 20 employers to permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than ten 21 minutes of net rest time for each four hour work period, or major fraction thereof, that must be in the 22 middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

23 53. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order both prohibit 24 employers from requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to 25 pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay, on each 26 workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

27 54. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
28 Code section 200.

1 55. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 2 violate the Wage Order.

3 56. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
4 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing members of the Rest Period Sub-Class
5 with net rest period of at least ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hour work period, or major 6 fraction thereof, as required by the applicable Wage Order.

7 57. Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were not provided with rest periods of 8 at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1)
9 Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second 10 rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that 11 encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Rest Period Sub-Class
12 members of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring Rest Period
13 Sub-Class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to the excessive workload and 14 maintaining and monitoring their cellular phones during breaks.

15 58. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class
16 members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not provided.

17 59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself 18 and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seek to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and 19 costs of suit.

20 60. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 21 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Rest
22 Period Sub-Class members, seek to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

23 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

24 FAILURE TO PAY HOURLY AND OVERTIME WAGES

25 (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

26 (Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class)

27 61. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 28 herein.

1 62. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members are or have been 2 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the 3 applicable Wage Order.

4 63. Section 2 of the applicable Wage Order defines “hours worked” as “the time during 5 which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, and includes all the time the employee 6 is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

7 64. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt
8 employees at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours 9 that an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

10 65. Labor Code section 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an 11 employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable Wage 12 Order.

13 66. Labor Code section 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated
14 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in addition 15 to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

16 67. Labor Code section 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less
17 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours worked during a 18 payroll period.

19 68. Labor Code section 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other 20 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent or employee of another person, to pay an 21 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

22 69. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under 23 conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

24 70. Labor Code section 204 requires employers to pay non-exempt employees their earned 25 wages for the normal work period at least twice during each calendar month on days the employer 26 designates in advance and to pay non-exempt employees their earned wages for labor performed in 27 excess of the normal work period by no later than the next regular payday.

28 71. Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower

1 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

2 72. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order require employees
3 to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half times their respective 4 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight hours in one workday, all hours worked in 5 excess of forty hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight hours worked on the seventh 6 consecutive day of one workweek.

7 73. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order also require 8 employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two times their respective 9 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve hours in one workday and for all hours
10 worked in excess of eight hours on a seventh consecutive workday during the workweek.

11 74. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have applied 12 centrally devised policies and practices to him and Hourly Employee Class members with respect to 13 working conditions and compensation arrangements.

14 75. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay hourly wages to Plaintiff and Hourly 15 Employee Class members for all time worked, including but not limited to, overtime hours at 16 statutory and/or agreed rates.

17 76. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were not paid proper wages and 18 overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee
19 Class members were systemically required to arrive to work early and fill out mandatory COVID-19 20 questionnaires, prior to being allowed to clock in for work. Then, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee
21 Class members were required to spend time booting up the time clock, all prior to clocking in for 22 work. Additionally, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were required to perform various 23 pre-shift and post-shift work, off-the-clock, including having to clean Defendants' work area.
24 Furthermore, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were systemically required to perform
25 work-related tasks during unpaid meal periods, which they were regularly denied. Finally, Plaintiff 26 and Hourly Employee Class members were required to retrieve their background reports from 27 Defendants' background check vendor. The forgoing and uncompensated working time was under 28 the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

1 77. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to 2 work in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week,
3 entitling Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to minimum and overtime wages, which 4 they were systemically denied.

5 78. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
6 members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the 7 full amount of wages earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period,
8 including overtime wages.

9 79. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 218.6, 223, 510, 1194 and 1194.2, Plaintiff, on 10 behalf of himself and Hourly Employee Class members, seek to recover unpaid straight time and 11 overtime wages, interest thereon and costs of suit.

12 80. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 13 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 14 Hourly Employee Class members, seek to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

15 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WRITTEN WAGE STATEMENTS

17 (Lab. Code § 226)

18 (Plaintiff and Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

19 81. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 20 herein.

21 82. Labor Code section 226(a) states:

22 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, shall 23 furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, 24 or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if wages are paid by 25 personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing 26 (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except as 27 provided in subdivision (j), (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and 28 any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned,
(6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 1 employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as defined in 2 subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the legal entity

3 that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates
4 in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
5 worked at each hourly rate by the employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if 6 the employer is a temporary services employer as defined in Section 201.3, 7 the rate of pay and the total hours worked for each temporary services
8 assignment. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded 9 in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and 10 year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be 11 kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of 12 employment or at a central location within the State of California. For 13 purposes of this subdivision, ‘copy’ includes a duplicate of the itemized 14 statement provided to an employee or a computer-generated record that 15 accurately shows all of the information required by this subdivision.

16 83. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) has sought to harmonize the 17 “detachable part of the check” provision and the “accurate itemized statement in writing” provision
18 of Labor Code section 226(a) by allowing for electronic wage statements so long as each employee
19 retains the right to elect to receive a written paper stub or record and that those who are provided with 20 electronic wage statements retain the ability to easily access the information and convert the electronic 21 statements into hard copies at no expense to the employee. (DLSE Opinion Letter July 6, 2006).

22 84. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
23 limitations period, Defendants have failed to provide Wage Statement Class members with written 24 wage statements as described above. Additionally, the wage statements issued to class members 25 failed to account for the unpaid minimum wages, overtime, and premium pay wages described 26 above.

27 85. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class
28 Members with paper pay stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE Opinion Letters. Plaintiff’s and Wage Statement Class members’ wage statement were only provided in electronic format in violation of Labor Code § 226.

86. Additionally, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members failed to include the “name and address of the legal entity that is the employer” as required by Labor Code § 226(a)(8).

87. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ failure to provide her and Wage
Statement Class members with accurate written wage statements were intentional in that Defendants

1 have the ability to provide them with accurate wage statements but have intentionally provided them
2 with written wage statements that Defendants have known do not comply with Labor Code section
3 226(a).

4 88. Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members have suffered injuries, in that 5 Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them
6 about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage
7 statements have prevented immediate challenges to Defendants' unlawful pay practices, has required
8 discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused 9 difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the 10 submission of inaccurate information about wages and deductions to federal and state government 11 agencies.

12 89. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Wage
13 Statement Class members, seek the greater of actual damages or $50.00 for the initial pay period in 14 which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for each subsequent pay period
15 in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of 16 $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

17 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

19 (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

20 (Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

21 90. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 22 herein.

23 91. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have 24 been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely payment of all wages 25 earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

26 92. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 201, employees who have been 27 discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

28 93. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 202, employees who have

1 resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours notice of resignation have been entitled to 2 payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

3 94. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant time during the applicable
4 limitations period, Defendants have failed to timely pay Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class
5 members all of their final wages in accordance with the Labor Code.

6 95. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
7 limitations period, Defendants have maintained a policy or practice of paying Waiting Time
8 Penalties Sub-Class members their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code 9 sections 201 or 202 by failing to timely pay them all final wages.

10 96. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that Defendants' failure to 11 timely pay all final wages to her and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have been willful
12 in that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 13 and/or 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practices that are incompatible with those 14 requirements.

15 97. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 16 Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seek waiting time penalties from the dates that their 17 final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of thirty days, and interest thereon.

18 98. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
19 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-
20 Class members, seek awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

21 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 herein.

27 100. Labor Code section 2802(a) states:

28 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary

1 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of 2 the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions 3 of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

4 101. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class Members were not reimbursed for 13 Complaint and until the date of entry of judgment.

14 103. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, and Expense Reimbursement Class members, seeks 15 interest thereon and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees
16 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.
