Re: Payment from Cosio Diaz v. Mediland Corporation dba Premium Windows

Dear <<FIRST_NAME>> <<LAST_NAME>>:

Enclosed you will find a check made payable to you. This is your payment from the settlement of the lawsuit entitled Cosio Diaz v. Mediland Corporation dba Premium Windows, Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. 23STCV28114.

The case was filed against Mediland Corporation dba Premium Windows (“Defendant”), pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq. (called “PAGA”). The claim was brought on behalf of the State of California and all current and former non-exempt employees, who work or worked for Defendant at any time during the PAGA Period (September 18, 2022 through April 22, 2025). You have been identified as one of the employees on whose behalf the case was brought.

Plaintiff in the case, Martin Cosio Diaz (“Plaintiff”), claimed that Defendant owed penalties under PAGA for certain California Labor Code violations because Defendant allegedly (1) failed to pay all wages, including minimum wages and overtime wages; (2) failed to provide meal periods; (3) failed to provide rest periods; (4) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (5) failed to reimburse for necessary business expenditures; and (6) failed to pay wages due at separation of employment. Defendant denies that they did anything wrong or that they owe any penalties. The Parties agreed to resolve the case, and as part of that settlement, Defendant agreed to pay a certain amount of money categorized as PAGA penalties. The settlement of this action does not constitute an admission by Defendant of any of the matters alleged in the case or an admission of liability. Under the PAGA statute, the penalties get divided between the State and the employees. The enclosed check represents your portion of the penalties allocated to the employees.

Enclosed is a check made out to you. The check represents your share of the settlement for PAGA civil penalties ($_ .). Under the settlement, the Plaintiff and Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California have released the following PAGA Claims on behalf of “aggrieved employees”, including you:

All Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice. This release includes claims under the PAGA for failure to pay any form of wage due, including minimum and overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages, failure to pay wages due, failure to reimburse necessary business expenditures, failure to pay wages due upon termination, failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and failure to maintain accurate time and/or payroll records.

This release applies to your ability to pursue claims through PAGA, regardless of whether you cash your check, and regardless of whether this letter can be delivered to you.
