2 with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all

4 to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period 5 premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or 12 others aggrieved.

13 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 15 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 16 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
17 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars
18 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-

21 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 5039 Firestone Place, South Gate, 22 California, 90280.

23 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted 24 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 25 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 26 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

10 MAERSK INC. operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees

13 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1

18 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51

2 12. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 4 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 7 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

8 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

9 13. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

10 14. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 11 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 12 and the applicable Wage Orders.

13 15. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
14 Labor Code:

15 16. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
16 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
17 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 18 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 19 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 20 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

21 17. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 22 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 23 Wage Orders.

24 18. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 25 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 26 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 27 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum 28 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to line up to wait to undergo and undergo off-the-clock security checks, including bag checks and hat checks, prior to being permitted to clock-in for their start shifts.

19. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable Wage Order.

20. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay: Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.'

21. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

Labor Code section 510.

22. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

1 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
2 non-exempt employees to line up to wait to undergo and undergo off-the-clock security checks,
3 including bag checks and hat checks, prior to being permitted to clock-in for their start shifts.

4 23. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each
5 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
6 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 7 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
8 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday,
9 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed
10 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code
11 sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

12 24. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 13 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other
14 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 15 shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

16 25. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 17 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 18 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 19 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 9 at §11; Brinker 20 Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an 21 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
22 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh
23 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
24 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 25 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being 26 relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

27 26. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 28 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay

1 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code
2 section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §11.

3 27. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant
4 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-5 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 6 limited to:

7 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
8 non-exempt employees to be subjected to off-the-clock security checks and bag checks process
9 during meal breaks if they left Defendants' premises during their meal breaks.

10 28. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 11 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
12 based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
13 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
14 employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code
15 section 226.7.

16 29. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 18 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them
19 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

20 30. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 21 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other
22 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 23 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

24 31. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
25 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor
26 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10
27 minutes' rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more 28 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period. Wage Order 9 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

32. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at § 12.

33. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subjected to off-the-clock security checks and bag checks process during rest breaks if they left Defendants’ premises during their rest breaks;

34. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

35. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods in compliance with California law.

36. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the

1 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages
2 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 3 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day,
4 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following
5 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 6 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 7 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

8 37. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 9 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-10 exempt employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period 11 premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204.
12 Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay
13 Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees'
14 their earned wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

15 38. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 16 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 17 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 18 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 19 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 20 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 21 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable
22 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all 23 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 24 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 25 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 26 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 27 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

28 39. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff

1 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages
2 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest
3 period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-
4 based hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code
5 section 226.

6 40. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 7 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 8 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72)
9 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

10 41. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
11 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 12 all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 13 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 14 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

15 42. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved 16 employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil 17 action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in 18 Labor Code section 2699.3.

19 43. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor 20 Code section 2699.3. On September 11, 2023, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the 21 LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific 22 provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 23 support the violations alleged.

24 44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 25 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 26 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 27 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 28 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

45. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, and 1197, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following amounts:

a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, and 512; one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 558].

d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1].

46. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and

1 the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

2 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations 3 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the 4 California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

5 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable
6 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 7 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or
