SECTIONS 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

1 Plaintiff Steven Patrick Dutter, as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other 2 aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, alleges as 3 follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against Security Paving 7 Company, Inc., and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of 8 California ("SPC" and collectively, with DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, 9 "Defendants"), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of 10 California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees 11 of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains 12 to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, 13 Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 245, et seq., Labor Code 14 section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all 15 employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved 16 Employees").

17 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 18 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

19 3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 20 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the 21 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 22 began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff 23 and Defendants was due to be performed; and the county in which the employment contract, or part 24 of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged 25 herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and 26 because Defendants employ numerous Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

27 4. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 28 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code

1 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 2 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
3 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 4 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 5 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

6 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 7 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
8 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 9 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

10 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 11 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 12 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 13 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 14 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

15 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 16 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 17 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 18 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

19 8. On or around September 11, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 20 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 21 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 22 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

23 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 24 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 25 calendar days of the September 11, 2023 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 26 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to remain on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, and by attempting but failing to properly implement an alternative workweek schedule ("AWS") (including, without limitation, by failing to implement a written agreement designating the regularly scheduled alternative workweek in which the specified number of work days and work hours are regularly recurring; failing to adopt the AWS in a secret ballot election, before the performance of work, by at least a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the affected employees in the work unit; failing to follow the notice/disclosures procedures prior to any AWS election; and/or failing to register an AWS election with the State of California, as required by Labor Code section 511 and applicable Wage Orders), to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 1 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to remain on-

2 call; to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift 3 tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff 4 uniforms and safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make 5 phone calls off the clock; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or 6 manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked; failing to pay reporting time 7 pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and failing to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment 8 of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

9 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
10 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 11 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 12 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 13 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 14 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 15 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 16 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 17 periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 18 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

19 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 20 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 21 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 22 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 23 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 24 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 25 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and 26 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

27 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
28 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish

1 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 2 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 3 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 4 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the 5 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 6 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

7 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
8 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 9 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
10 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 11 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 12 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 13 Aggrieved Employees.

14 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
15 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 16 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
17 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 18 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

19 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 20 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 21 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 22 and applicable Wage Orders.

23 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 24 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 25 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 26 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 27 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, for the 28 purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of the

1 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor
2 Code 2802.

3 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 4 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 5 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
6 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 7 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 8 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 9 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants
10 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

11 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 12 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 13 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not 14 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 15 all other Aggrieved Employees.

16 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 17 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 18 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 19 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 20 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 21 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

22 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
23 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 24 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 25 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 26 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 27 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 28 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200,

1 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 2 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

3 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 4 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 5 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation
6 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 7 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies
8 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 9 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 10 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

11 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 12 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 13 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 14 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 15 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 16 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 17 economic liberty.

18 25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 19 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 20 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 21 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

9 32. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 10 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

11 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

12 33. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 13 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 14 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 15 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 16 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

17 34. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 18 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 19 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 20 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any

22 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 23 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

24 35. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 25 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 26 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 27 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor 28 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for

1 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee
2 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 3 Code section 204.

4 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

5 36. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
6 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 7 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 8 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;
9 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 10 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 11 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 12 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

14 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 15 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 16 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 17 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

18 38. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 19 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

20 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 21 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 22 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 23 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 24 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 25 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's 26 services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor 27 Code section 226, subdivision (a).

28 40. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are

1 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
2 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
3 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 4 period for each subsequent violation.

5 Violation of Labor Code § 558

6 41. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 7 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 8 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 9 penalty as follows:

10 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 11 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 12 to recover underpaid wages;

13 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 14 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 15 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

16 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

17 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 18 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 19 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 20 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 21 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any "doing business 22 as" names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance 23 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

24 43. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
25 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
26 civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
27 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 28 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

44. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, or papers of the person.”

45. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

46. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units earned.”

47. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

48. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment

1 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
2 under Labor Code section 1174.

3 49. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 4 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to
