2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Emma Romero ("Plaintiff") seeks preliminary approval of the Joint Stipulation of Class
4 Action and PAGA Settlement ("Settlement" or "Settlement Agreement") entered into between Plaintiff 5 and Defendant Charles Abbott Associates, Inc. ("Defendant") (together, with Plaintiff, the "Parties").
6 (Declaration of Jonathan M. Genish in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class 7 Action and PAGA Settlement ["Genish Decl."], Exh. 3). The Settlement terms are outlined as follows:

- 8
- 9 • Class Size: Approximately two hundred and fifty-eight (258) individuals.
 - 10 • Gross Settlement Amount: Eight Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($850,000.00).
 - 11 • Attorneys' Fees and Costs: Attorneys' fees of up to thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross 12 Settlement Amount ($297,500.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $850,000.00) plus actual 13 litigation costs and expenses not to exceed Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
14 ($25,000.00), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
 - 15 • Enhancement Payment: Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00), to be paid from 16 the Gross Settlement Amount.
 - 17 • Settlement Administration Costs: Not to exceed Eight Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
18 ($8,000.00), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
 - 19 • PAGA Amount: Forty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($40,000.00) from the Gross 20 Settlement Amount, 75% of which will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development 21 Agency ("LWDA") and the remaining 25% to be paid to the PAGA Employees.
 - 22 • Estimated Net Settlement Amount: Four Hundred Sixty-Nine Thousand Five Hundred 23 Dollars and Zero Cents ($469,500.00) to be distributed to Settlement Class Members.

24 As set forth herein, the Settlement is the product of informed discovery and arms-length 25 negotiations, and provides a fair, adequate, and reasonable recovery for the Class. Plaintiff therefore 26 respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminarily approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify 27 the Class, approve the proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement ("Class Notice"), and set a hearing 28 date for final settlement approval, among other requested relief.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Defendant is a contract service provider to state and local agencies that provides expertise in building and safety, city engineering, public works, environmental, and fire prevention services. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Administrative Assistant and as a Permit Technician from approximately April 2021 to approximately February 2023. (Declaration of Plaintiff Emma Romero in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement [“Romero Decl.”], ¶ 2).

On September 8, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail, pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specified provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant (“PAGA Letter”). (Genish Decl., ¶ 9 & Exh. 2).

On September 15, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint for Damages in the action entitled Emma Romero v. Charles Abbott Associates, Inc., San Bernardino County Superior Court Case No. CIVSB2322374 (“Action”), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant. (Id., ¶ 10).

On November 14, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class Action Complaint for Damages and Enforcement Action Under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code §§ 2698 Et Seq. (“Operative Complaint”), which added a cause of action under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”). (Id., ¶ 11). The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes of action for violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide compliant rest periods and premiums payments in lieu thereof, failure to pay minimum wages, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to provide accurate wage statements, and failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, for violations of California Business & Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations, and for civil penalties under PAGA based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations. (Ibid.).

1 On April 4, 2024, pursuant to Plaintiff’s request and the settlement of Plaintiff’s individual claims
2 against Robert Half, the Court dismissed Plaintiff’s individual claims against Robert Half with prejudice 3 and Plaintiff’s class claims against Robert Half without prejudice. (Id., ¶ 12).

4 On August 20, 2024, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Tagore
5 Subramaniam, Esq. (“Mediator”), a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in complex 6 wage and hour matters, which did not result in a settlement at that time. (Id., ¶ 13).

7 On October 11, 2024, Plaintiff propounded written formal discovery onto Defendant (specifically, 8 Form Interrogatories – General (Set One), Form Interrogatories – Employment Law (Set One), Special 9 Interrogatories (Set One), Requests for Admission (Set One), and Requests for Production of Documents 10 (Set One)). (Id., ¶ 14).

11 On November 11, 2024, after continued negotiations and with the assistance of the Mediator’s 12 evaluations, the Parties were able to reach an agreement to resolve this dispute on a class and 13 representative basis. The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the terms in a long 14 form settlement agreement. (Id., ¶ 16).

15 On March 26, 2025, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Id., ¶ 17 & Exh. 3).

16 III. THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

17 A. Class Definition

18 For purposes of settlement only, the Parties have agreed that the Class shall be defined as “all 19 current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of 20 California at any time during the Class Period” (“Class Members” or “Class”). (Genish Decl., ¶ 17; 21 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 6.b). The Class Period is defined as the period from September 15, 2019 through 22 the date on which the total number of workweeks reaches 21,250. (Genish Decl., ¶ 17; Settlement 23 Agreement, ¶ 6.f). Pursuant to Apex Class Action LLC’s (“Settlement Administrator” or “Apex”) duties, 24 the Settlement Administrator will calculate the end date of the Class Period once they are in receipt of 25 the Class List, which occurs after the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement. (Genish Decl., 26 ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 6.d, 6.jj & 22). Based on information provided by Defendant, it is 27 estimated that there are a total of two hundred and fifty-eight (258) Class Members. (Genish Decl., ¶ 17).

28 ///

1 B. Amount of Settlement

2 The Parties have agreed to settle the class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative Complaint
3 for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Eight Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
4 ($850,000.00), exclusive of employer-side payroll taxes. (Genish Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5 6.p).

6 C. Allocation and Funding of the Gross Settlement Amount

7 The Gross Settlement Amount is a common fund and therefore includes all requested costs, fees, 8 and other allocations. (Genish Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 6.p). The Gross Settlement Amount 9 includes: (1) Class Counsel’s fees in the amount up to thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement 10 Amount (i.e., $297,500.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $850,000.00); (2) Class Counsel’s actual 11 litigation costs and expenses, not to exceed Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($25,000.00);
12 (3) Settlement Administration Costs, not to exceed Eight Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($8,000.00); 13 (4) Enhancement Payment in the amount up to Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00); and 14 (5) PAGA Amount of Forty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($40,000.00). (Genish Decl., ¶ 18; 15 Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 6.p, 9, 10, 11, & 12). After the above-estimated amounts are deducted from 16 the Gross Settlement Amount, the Net Settlement Amount that will be available for Class Members is 17 currently estimated to be Four Hundred Sixty-Nine Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents
18 ($469,500.00). (Genish Decl., ¶ 18). The average pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that a 19 Class Member may be eligible to receive under the Class Settlement (“Individual Settlement Share”) is 20 One Thousand Eight Hundred Nineteen Dollars and Seventy-Seven Cents ($1,819.77). (Genish Decl., ¶ 21 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 6.s). Additionally, 25% of the PAGA Amount (“PAGA Employee 22 Amount”), which is $10,000 out of $40,000, will be fully distributed to all current and former hourly-
23 paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California at any time 24 during the PAGA Period (“PAGA Employees”). (Genish Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 6.p, 6.x, 25 6.y, & 11). The “PAGA Period” is defined as the period from September 8, 2022 through the date on 26 which the total number of workweeks reaches 21,250. (Genish Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 6.z).

27 ///

28 ///

1 The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed and paid to all Class Members who do not submit 2 a timely and valid Request for Exclusion (“Settlement Class Members”) on a pro rata basis based on the 3 number of weeks each Class Member worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt
4 employee in California during the Class Period (“Workweeks”). (Genish Decl., ¶ 19; Settlement 5 Agreement, ¶¶ 6.ll and 6.mm). Individual Settlement Shares will be calculated by the Settlement 6 Administrator, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Genish Decl., ¶ 19; Settlement 7 Agreement, ¶¶ 6.s and 13).

8 The PAGA Employee Amount will be distributed and paid to all PAGA Employees on a pro rata
9 basis based on the number of weeks each PAGA Employee worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid 10 and/or non-exempt employee in California during the PAGA Period (“PAGA Workweeks”). (Genish 11 Decl., ¶ 20; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 6.bb and 14). The pro rata share of the PAGA Employee Amount 12 that a PAGA Employee may be eligible to receive under the PAGA Settlement (“Individual PAGA 13 Payment”) will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator, in accordance with the Settlement 14 Agreement. (Genish Decl., ¶ 22; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 6.q and 15).

15 Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as twenty percent (20%) wages and eighty 16 percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. (Genish Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 17 15). The portion allocated to wages will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated to 18 penalties, interest, and non-wage damages will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the 19 Settlement Administrator. (Genish Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 15). The Settlement 20 Administrator will withhold the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages 21 portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their net 22 payment of their Individual Settlement Share (“Individual Settlement Payment”). (Genish Decl., ¶ 21; 23 Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 6.r & 15). The employer’s share of taxes and contributions in connection with 24 the wages portion of Individual Settlement Shares will be paid by Defendant separately and in addition 25 to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Genish Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 6.p & 15). Each 26 Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties and will be reported 27 on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator. (Genish Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement 28 Agreement, ¶ 15).

1 The Settlement Agreement is a non-reversionary and non-claims made settlement. (Genish Decl., 2 ¶ 22; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 6.p & 33). The Net Settlement Amount will be fully distributed to 3 Settlement Class Members and the PAGA Amount will be fully distributed to the LWDA and PAGA
4 Employees, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Genish Decl., ¶ 22; Settlement Agreement, 5 ¶¶ 13 and 14). No money will revert to Defendant. (Genish Decl., ¶ 22; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 6.p).

6 Each Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and 7 negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and 8 thereafter, shall be canceled. (Genish Decl., ¶ 23; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 33). Any funds associated 9 with such canceled checks will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to the State of California's 10 Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Settlement Class Member and/or PAGA Employee.
11 (Genish Decl., ¶ 23; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 33).

12 D. Released Claims

13 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and all 14 Settlement Class Members will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released the Released Parties 15 of all Released Class Claims. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 34).

16 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, the State of 17 California with respect to all PAGA Employees, and all PAGA Employees will be deemed to have fully, 18 finally, and forever released the Released Parties of all Released PAGA Claims. (Id., ¶ 35).

19 "Released Class Claims" means any and all claims, demands, rights, liabilities, and/or causes of

20 IV. STANDARD OF REVIEW FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

21 The settlement of a class action requires court approval. (See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.
22 App. 4th 1794 (1996)). “In general, questions whether a settlement was fair and reasonable, whether 23 notice to the class was adequate, whether certification of the class was proper, and whether the attorney 24 fee award was proper are matters addressed to the trial court’s broad discretion.” (Wershba v. Apple 25 Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234-35 (2001) (disapproved on other grounds)).

26 The review and approval of a proposed class action settlement involves a two-step process. (See 27 Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(c)). First, counsel submit the proposed terms of the settlement and the 28 Court makes a preliminary assessment of whether the settlement appears to be sufficiently within the

1 range of a fair settlement to justify providing notice of the proposed settlement to class members. After 2 notice is provided to the class, the Court must conduct a second inquiry into whether the proposed 3 settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Ibid).

4 The initial evaluation of the settlement at the preliminary approval step “is not a fairness hearing.”
5 (Armstrong v. Board of School Directors of City of Milwaukee, 616 F.2d 305, 314 (7th Cir. 1980)).
6 Rather, the limited purpose of this initial inquiry is to determine, at a threshold level, only whether the 7 proposed settlement is within the range of possible approval and, as a result, “whether there is any reason 8 to notify the class members of the proposed settlement and to proceed with a fairness hearing.” A 9 presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2) 10 investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel 11 is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (See In re Microsoft I-V 12 Cases, 135 Cal. App. 4th 706, 723 (2006)).

13 Preliminary approval does not require a court to make a final determination that the settlement is 14 fair, reasonable, and adequate. Rather, that decision is made only at the final approval stage, after notice 15 of the settlement has been given to the class members and they have had an opportunity to object or 16 exclude themselves from the settlement. (See Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(g)). In considering a 17 potential class settlement, the court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law 18 which underlie the merits of the dispute and need not engage in a trial on the merits. (See Officers for 19 Justice v. Civil Service Commission, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982)).

20 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS PRESUMED FAIR

21 A. The Settlement Was Reached as a Result of Arm’s-Length Bargaining

22 California courts recognize that “a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is 23 reached through arm’s-length bargaining.” (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; see also Clark v. Am.
24 Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, the Parties’ settlement negotiations 25 were at all times made at arm’s-length and were adversarial. (Genish Decl., ¶ 24). Although the 26 Settlement was not reached following mediation, it was reached after further negotiations and with 27 continued assistance from the Mediator. (Ibid). At all times, Plaintiff was willing and prepared to litigate 28 this matter through class certification and trial if the Parties had been unable to reach a favorable

1 resolution. (Id., ¶ 45).

2 B. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery by Experienced Class Counsel

3 Courts typically assess the status of discovery in determining whether a class action settlement 4 agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801). Prior to mediation, 5 Defendant produced a random sampling of putative class members' time and pay records as well as 6 Defendant's relevant wage and hour policies. (Genish Decl., ¶ 25).

7 This allowed Class Counsel to conduct an informed assessment and analysis of the strengths and 8 weaknesses of the claims and the potential class-wide damages. (Id., ¶ 26). Based on information 9 exchanged, the Parties extensively briefed issues regarding class certification and liability and provided 10 their analyses to the Mediator who helped the Parties debate the strengths and weakness of their respective 11 positions. (Id., ¶ 27). Additionally, settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and 12 experienced counsel. (Genish Decl., ¶¶ 1-8). Accordingly, Class Counsel had sufficient information and 13 experience to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

14 C. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties' Respective Legal Positions
15 and Recovery Risks

16 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 17 trial, nor does the settlement have to obtain 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
18 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 19 must consider "the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 20 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the 21 extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the 22 presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement."
23 (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).

24 Here, the reasonableness of the Settlement is underscored by the fact that Defendant has legal and 25 factual grounds for defending the Action. Based upon Class Counsel's experience litigating similar 26 complex matters, Plaintiff reasonably expected a vigorous and lengthy defense to both class certification 27 and the merits of the Action absent a settlement.

28 ///

1 1. Class Counsel’s Analysis of the Maximum Available Liability and Damages

2 Class Counsel analyzed all available data and estimated Defendant’s maximum potential exposure 3 to be approximately $6,564,170, assuming the litigation was successful at trial on all claims at issue and 4 every employee had a violation for each claim on every shift worked. (Genish Decl., ¶ 28). This 5 maximum potential analysis was then reduced based on the challenges facing the likelihood of obtaining 6 class certification, prevailing at trial, and other attendant risks. (Ibid). This estimate is based off an 7 estimated maximum liability for all claims at issue and the total aggregate workweeks during the relevant 8 time period, less interest, and based on the analysis of the data which was extrapolated out for all class 9 members across the entire putative class period, which included: $343,732 for meal period violations less 10 meal period premiums paid; $3,054,233 for rest period violations at a 100% violation rate; $659,552 for 11 unpaid off-the-clock work for 1 hour per workweek of off-the-clock work; $511,236 for unpaid overtime 12 wages; $142,418 for unpaid overtime wages at the required regular rate of pay; $63,878 for unpaid meal 13 break premiums and sick pay at the required regular rate of pay; $176,800 for unreimbursed business 14 expenses; $1,165,271 for waiting time penalties; and $447,050 for wage statement penalties. (Ibid).
15 Plaintiff further estimated that Defendant faced an additional exposure of $459,100 in potential, non-16 stacked (i.e., one penalty, per employee, per pay period during the PAGA statutory period) PAGA 17 penalties. (Ibid). Together with the PAGA penalties, Defendant’s maximum potential exposure totaled 18 $7,023,270 in damages. (Ibid).

19 2. Class Counsel’s Risk-Based Analysis and Risk-Based Adjustments

20 While Plaintiff believes that Defendant faced significant exposure, substantial barriers to a 21 recovery existed. Defendant contended that Plaintiff’s claims are not suitable for class certification 22 because individual issues and affirmative defenses would predominate should this case go to trial.
23 (Genish Decl., ¶ 31; See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004 (2012); Duran v.
24 U.S. Bank Nat. Assn., 59 Cal.4th 1, 35-36 (2014); Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 131 S.Ct. 2541, 2551
25 (2011)). While Plaintiff and Class Counsel disagree with Defendant’s predictions, they also recognize 26 that there is a significant risk that the Court may deny class certification. (Genish Decl., ¶ 31; see also, 27 Findings of the Study of California Class Action Litigation, 2000-2006, available at 28 <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf> (finding that only 21.4% of all class actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as part of a contested certification motion)).

For example, Plaintiff's meal period claims, which were based on Defendant's alleged failure to provide lawful meal periods, have been increasingly difficult to certify in recent years. (Genish Decl., ¶ 32; See Brinker, 53 Cal. 4th at 1034-35). Plaintiff's theory of liability for meal period violations was based on allegations that Defendant had failed to implement its policies and that its practices failed to allow Class Members to take meal breaks in the manner required under California law. (Genish Decl., ¶ 32; See Bradley v. Networkers Int'l, LLC, 211 Cal.App.4th 1129, 1150 (2012) (holding that "the lack of a meal/rest break policy and uniform failure to authorize such breaks are matters of common proof.")). Defendant contended that its policies and practices at all times during the Class Period were lawful. (Genish Decl., ¶ 32). Indeed, Plaintiff's analysis revealed only a 11.2% violation rate for unique meal period violations offsetting meal period premiums paid. (Ibid). Defendant further argued that the rate of purported meal period violations reflected in the data would require individualized inquiry and that such inquiry would prohibit a class from being certified. (Ibid). Class Counsel also had to consider the risk that the Court would find validity in an individualized proof defense to certification of Plaintiff's meal period claim. (Ibid).

Additionally, a large portion of Defendant's overall liability lies in Plaintiff's rest period allegations. (Id., ¶ 33). As with the meal period allegations, Defendant contended that it had a lawful written rest period policy, provided compliant rest breaks, and relieved Class Members of all duties as required under California law. (Ibid). Additionally, this claim was even more uncertain given the difficulties associated with proving the alleged rest period violations, as Defendant was not required to record these breaks. (Ibid). Given the lack of records demonstrating rest period violations, there were legitimate concerns Plaintiff would not be able to certify these claims or prove substantial damages with requisite certainty, which made the estimated value of this claim subject to much challenge. (Ibid).

Plaintiff also faced challenges certifying and proving liability for his minimum wage and overtime claims. (Id., ¶ 34). These claims were largely based on Defendant's unrecorded, off-the-clock work performed by the Class Members, including during purported meal periods and after clocking out. (Ibid). However, the individualized nature of why this work was performed and the individualized nature of damages presented substantial concerns regarding the manageability of the case and the risk the Court

1 could find these issues prevented certification, and the estimated damages for this claim were based on 2 an assumption that all Class Members worked off the clock for at least one hour per week. (Ibid).

3 Plaintiff also contended that Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members 4 for necessary business-related expenses. (Id., ¶ 34). Defendant contended that it had a policy and practice
5 of reimbursing employees for necessary business-related expenses. (Ibid). Defendant further contended 6 that, with respect to the alleged expenses for which Plaintiff and the other Class Members never requested 7 reimbursement from Defendant, it did not know and had no reason to know that alleged business-related 8 expenses had been incurred. (Ibid). Defendant further contended that the reason for why a Class Member 9 undertook certain expenses, while not others, and failed to receive reimbursement for certain expenses 10 while not others, would raise individual issues that could not be certified. (Ibid).

11 There are also substantial risks associated with Plaintiff's waiting time penalties and wage 12 statement claims. (Id., ¶ 36). First, these claims were derivative of Plaintiff's claims for unpaid meal 13 period premiums, unpaid rest period premiums, unpaid minimum wages, and unpaid overtime wages, 14 and if certification was denied on those underlying claims, these derivative claims for penalties would 15 also likely fail. (Ibid). Further, even if Plaintiff prevailed on his underlying claims, he would still be 16 required to demonstrate that Defendant's violations of California Labor Code section 203 were willful
17 violations. (Genish Decl., ¶ 36; See, e.g., Choate v. Celite Corp., 215 Cal App. 4th 1460, 1468 (2013) 18 (holding that "an employer's reasonable, good faith belief that wages are not owed may negate a finding 19 of willfulness")). Wage statement claims have also seen varying treatment at the appellate level because 20 such claims have an element of discretion attached to them rather than a pure calculation of damages after 21 liability is proven. (Genish Decl. ¶ 36; Jaimez v. DAIOHS USA, Inc., 181 Cal.App.4th 1286 (2010) with 22 Price v. Starbucks Corp., 192 Cal.App.4th 1136 (2011)). Accordingly, these derivative claims, which 23 comprised a substantial portion of Defendant's estimated liability, were therefore uncertain. (Genish 24 Decl., ¶ 36).

25 Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, proving the 26 amount of wages due to Class Members would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain 27 proposition. (Id., ¶ 37). In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel will need to request and 28 analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members' contact information, contact them,

1 and obtain their declarations at great expense. (Ibid). Obtaining the cooperation of current employees 2 would also be difficult, given the likely reluctance to aid prosecution of a lawsuit against a current 3 employer. (Ibid). On the other hand, Defendant would likely be able to obtain the cooperation of their 4 employees. (Ibid). Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and trial, possible appeals 5 would substantially delay any recovery by the Class. (Ibid).

6 Therefore, taking into account how each of the above risks potentially effected Plaintiff's ability 7 to first obtain class certification, and then prove the underlying violations, plus the cost and delay in 8 recovering the alleged potential damages, Class Counsel discounted Defendant's estimated liability based 9 on the challenges facing his ability to succeed on class certification by 60% to $2,809,308. (Id., ¶ 38).
10 The merits-based risk factors further reduced Defendant's estimated liability by an additional 60%.
11 (Ibid). This resulted in an adjusted estimated liability of $1,123,723. In light thereof, the settlement 12 amount of $850,000 is a significant settlement. (Ibid).

13 Class Counsel also contemplated the risks of proceeding with the PAGA claim and potential 14 liability Defendant could face from this claim as part of the global resolution. (Id., ¶ 39). Existing case 15 law makes PAGA claims subject to the same defenses and risks as Plaintiff's underlying wage claims.
16 (Genish Decl., ¶ 39; see, Elliot v. Spherion Pac. Work, LLC, 572 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181-82 (C.D. Cal.
17 2008) ("Plaintiff's claim under [PAGA] is wholly dependent upon her other claims. Because all of 18 Plaintiff's other claims fail as a matter of law, so does her PAGA claim")). Class Counsel also anticipated 19 that even if successful on the merits at trial, the imposition of cumulative civil penalties based on the 20 alleged wage and hour violations could be considered unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory, 21 and that Defendant would argue that it made a good faith attempt to comply with its legal obligations
22 warranting a reduction in penalties. (Genish Decl., ¶ 39).¹ Class Counsel also anticipated Defendant

24 ¹ See, e.g., Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc., 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1131 (2012) (imposition of both statutory 25 and civil penalties for same conduct is impermissible double recovery) (disapproved on other grounds); Aguirre v. Genesis 26 Logistics, 2013 WL 10936035, at *3 (C.D. Cal. 2013) ("duplicative effect" of penalties is a factor in favor of "reducing ...the 27 PAGA penalty"); Smith v. Lux Retail North America, Inc., 2013 WL 2932243, at *3 (N.D. Cal. June 13, 2013) (declining to 28 stack penalties based on the same conduct); Castillo v. ADT, LLC, 2017 WL 363108, at *4 (E.D. Cal. Jan. 25, 2017); Sanchez
v. McDonalds Restaurants of California, Inc., 2017 WL 4620746 (LA Super. Ct. July 6, 2017) (declining to stack penalties arising out of the same conduct); Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., 2011 WL 756304718, at *4 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2011) (reducing PAGA penalties by 80%); Cotter v. Lyft, Inc., 193 F.Supp.3d 1030 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (indicating that a substantial reduction is warranted where good faith dispute exists in legal obligations); Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 529 (2018) (approving reduction in penalties from $50 per pay period to $5 per pay period based on good faith attempts to comply with obligations and minimal violations).

1 would argue that it made a good faith attempt to comply with its legal obligations and that the violations
2 per pay period were low, warranting an additional reduction in civil penalties. (Ibid). Finally, Class 3 Counsel was also mindful of the fact that PAGA is fundamentally not intended to be compensatory in 4 nature but is instead intended to facilitate enforcement of California’s labor laws by financing state 5 activities and educating and deterring non-compliance. (Ibid).

6 Therefore, after considering this multitude of factors, Plaintiff and Class Counsel concluded that 7 it was in the best interest of the State of California and the PAGA Employees to enter into the Settlement, 8 and to allocate Forty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($40,000.00) of the Gross Settlement Amount 9 towards the PAGA claim, which represents approximately 4.7% of the Gross Settlement Amount. (Id., 10 ¶ 40). This percentage of the settlement is well within the range of wage and hour settlements regularly 11 approved in both state and federal court for cases that include both a class and PAGA action. (Ibid).
12 Typically, such hybrid cases allocate only 1% of the gross settlement value to resolve PAGA claims, and,
13 indeed, settlements allocations as little as 0.22% of the gross settlement amount have been approved as 14 reasonable by courts. (Ibid). Moreover, the overall relief obtained by the Settlement is significant, not 15 only from a monetary perspective, but also because it fulfills the public policy objectives of PAGA—to 16 promote enforcement of California’s labor laws, provide funds to the state, and deter future non-17 compliance by the employer. (Ibid).

18 The Settlement is in the best interest of the Class Members, the PAGA Employees, and the State 19 of California and is within the accepted range of recoveries for this type of litigation given the inherent 20 risk of litigation, the risk of obtaining and maintaining class certification, and the costs of further 21 litigation. (Id., ¶ 41).

22 VI. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

23 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 provides that three basic requirements must be met in order 24 to sustain any class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class; (2) there must be a well-defined 25 community of interest in the question of law or fact affecting the parties to be represented; and (3) 26 certification will provide substantial benefits to litigants and the courts, i.e., proceeding as a class action 27 is superior to other methods. (See Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1806). Plaintiff contends that the Action, 28 which is based upon Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices, satisfies the class certification requirements under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Defendant denies Plaintiff's allegations, but for purposes of the Settlement only, Defendant has stipulated to certification of the Class.

A. An Ascertainable Class Exists Which is So Numerous That Joinder of All Members is Impracticable

Whether an ascertainable class exists turns on three factors: (1) the class definition, (2) the size of the class, and (3) the means of identifying the class members. (See Miller v. Woods, 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 873 (1983)). In this case, all three considerations strongly favor class certification. Here, the Class is defined as "all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California at any time during the Class Period." (Genish Decl., ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 6.b). This provides a clear and definite scope for the proposed class.

Next, the Class is sufficiently numerous. There is no magic number that satisfies the numerosity requirement. Courts have certified classes with as few as ten or twenty-eight class members. (Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981); Bowles v. Superior Court, 44 Cal. 2d 574 (1995); Hebbard v. Colgrove, 28 Cal.App.3d 1017, 1030 (1972)). Here, the estimated Class size of approximately two hundred and fifty-eight (258) individuals meets the numerosity requirement.

Finally, the question of whether class members are easily identifiable turns on whether a plaintiff can establish "the existence of an ascertainable class." (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co., 67 Cal.2d 695 at 706 (1967)). The existence of an ascertainable class in this case can be established through Defendant's payroll records, and the Class definition is sufficiently specific to enable the Parties, Class Members, and the Court to determine the parameters of the Class. (See Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp., 191 Cal.App.3d 605, 617 (1987)).

B. The Class Shares a Well-Defined Community of Interest

The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant questions of law and fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1806). Here, all three requirements are easily satisfied.

1 The commonality criterion requires the existence of common question of law or fact and is 2 generally established with the issues of predominance and typicality. (See Daar, 67 Cal.2d 695, 706).
3 What is required is that a common question of fact or law exists which predominates over issues unique 4 to individual plaintiffs. The existence of individual issues or facts—generally present in any case arising 5 from employment—is not a bar to class certification as long as they do not render class litigation 6 unmanageable or predominate over the common issues. (See B.W.I. Custom Kitchen v. Owens-Illinois, 7 Inc., 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1354 (1987)).

8 Here, Plaintiff’s claims present common issues of law and fact that predominate and warrant class 9 certification. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant denied compliant meal and rest periods to employees, 10 required employees to perform work off-the-clock, and failed to fully compensate employees for all time 11 actually worked. These policies and practices meant that Defendant allegedly failed to pay minimum and 12 overtime wages, and other related claims. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s policies and practices were 13 uniform as to all Class Members. Thus, class treatment is appropriate.

14 To satisfy the typicality requirement, California law does not require that plaintiffs’ claims be 15 identical to the other class members. Rather, the test of typicality for a class representative is whether 16 other members have the same or similar injury, whether the action is based on conduct which is not 17 unique to the named plaintiff, and whether other class members have been injured by the same course of 18 conduct. (See Seastrom v. Neways, Inc., 149 Cal.App.4th 1496, 1502 (2007)). The typicality requirement 19 for a class representative refers to the nature of the claim or defense of the representative, and not to the 20 specific facts from which it arose or the relief sought. (See Ibid).

21 Here, Plaintiff alleges that his claims are similar to that of the other Class Members and that 22 Plaintiff’s claims arise out of the same alleged course of conduct giving rise to the claims of the other 23 Class Members. Because Plaintiff’s claims are based upon the same alleged conduct and business 24 practices as those of Class Members, the typicality requirement has been satisfied.

25 Finally, the question of adequacy of representation “depends on whether the plaintiff’s attorney 26 qualifies to conduct the proposed litigation in the plaintiff’s interest or not antagonistic to the interests of 27 the class.” (McGee v. Bank of America, 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 450 (1976)). Here, these considerations are 28 satisfied. Class Counsel is well-regarded and is qualified and experienced in employment-related, class-

1 action litigation. (Genish Decl., ¶¶ 1-8). Plaintiff will vigorously, adequately, and fairly represent the 2 interests of the Class. Plaintiff has, at all times, throughout the course of the litigation considered the 3 interests of the Class and understood that she must take steps to adequately represent the Class and their 4 interests. (Romero Decl., ¶ 10). Because Plaintiff’s claims are typical of other Class Members and are 5 not based on unique circumstances, there is no antagonism between the interests of Plaintiff and the Class.

6 C. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

7 Under the circumstances, proceeding as a class action is a superior means of resolving this dispute, 8 as the Class Members and the Court will derive substantial benefits. Class certification would serve as 9 the only means to deter and redress the alleged violations. (See Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal.4th 429, 10 434 (2000) (relevant considerations include the probability that each class member will come forward to 11 prove his or her separate claim and whether the class approach would actually serve to deter and redress 12 the alleged wrongdoing)). Further, individual actions arising out of the same operative facts would 13 unduly burden the courts and could result in inconsistent results. Therefore, class action proceedings are 14 superior to individual litigation.

15 VII. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS REASONABLE

16 Plaintiffs in class action lawsuits are eligible for reasonable incentive payments as compensation 17 “for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (Munoz 18 v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412 (2010)). Courts routinely grant approval of 19 class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representative, which are 20 necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the class 21 representatives help to bring about for the class. (See In re Online DVD Rental, 779 F.3d 934, 947-948 22 (9th Cir. 2014) (approving incentive award 417 times larger than individual payments where incentive 23 award made up a mere .17% of the settlement); Gaudin v. Saxon Mortgage Servs., Inc., 2015 WL 24 7454183, at *10 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 23, 2015) (finding service award of $15,000 to be “fair and 25 reasonable”)).

26 Plaintiff initiated this litigation on behalf of her former co-workers who will now be entitled to 27 receive payment from the Settlement. Plaintiff invested substantial time and effort into litigation, 28 including her own research, reviewing documents, and extensive discussions with Class Counsel.

(Romero Decl., ¶¶ 3-5). Further, the requested amount for Plaintiff is also reasonable given the average award and the benefit gained by other Class Members. For these reasons, Plaintiff requests that an Enhancement Payment of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) to Plaintiff be preliminarily approved by the Court. (Genish Decl., ¶ 42; Romero Decl., ¶ 12).

VIII. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS ARE REASONABLE

Trial courts have “wide latitude” in assessing the value of attorneys’ fees and their decisions will “not be disturbed on appeal absent a manifest abuse of discretion.” (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal, Inc., 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 41 (2000)). California law provides that attorney fee awards should be equivalent to fees paid in the legal marketplace to compensate for the result achieved and risk incurred. (Id. at 47). In cases where class members present claims against a common fund and the defendant agrees to a percentage of the fund as part of the settlement, use of the percentage method is appropriate. (Id. at 32).

Here, the requested attorneys’ fees up to thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $297,500.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $850,000.00) is disclosed to Class Members in the proposed Class Notice. (Settlement Agreement, Exh. A). The requested fee was freely negotiated, is common in the legal marketplace, and is not opposed by Defendant. The Motion for Final Approval will elaborate on the nature of the legal services provided and will also support Class Counsel’s request for the reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses not to exceed Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($25,000.00). (Genish Decl., ¶¶ 43 & 45). The Attorneys’ Fees and Costs that are not ultimately approved by the Court shall instead be included in the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Settlement Class Members. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9).

IX. THE CLASS NOTICE AND THE OPT-OUT AND OBJECTION PROCESS MEETS DUE PROCESS REQUIREMENTS

The Parties have jointly drafted the Class Notice, which will be mailed to the Class Members. (Id., Exh. A). The Class Notice will include information regarding the nature of the Action, a summary of the terms of the Settlement, the Class definition, information on how to object to and/or opt-out of the Class Settlement and to dispute Workweeks and/or PAGA Workweeks, and the date of the Final Approval Hearing. (Ibid.). The Class Notice will list each Class Member’s total Workweeks and their estimated Individual Settlement Share and each PAGA Employee’s total PAGA Workweeks and their estimated

1 Individual PAGA Payment. (Ibid).

2 Within fourteen (14) calendar days after entry of the preliminary approval order, Defendant will 3 provide a list in a formatted readable Microsoft Office Excel spreadsheet to the Settlement Administrator 4 containing the following information for each Class Member: full name; last known mailing address; 5 Social Security number; dates worked for Defendant during the period September 15, 2019 through the 6 date on which the Court enters the order granting preliminary approval; and such other information as is 7 necessary for the Settlement Administrator to calculate Workweeks and PAGA Workweeks (collectively 8 referred to as the “Class List”). (Id., ¶¶ 6.d & 23). Within seven (7) calendar days after receiving the 9 Class List from Defendant, the Settlement Administrator will perform a search based on the National 10 Change of Address Database or other similar services available, such as provided by Experian, for 11 information to update and correct for any known or identifiable address changes, and will mail a Class 12 Notice to all Class Members via First-Class U.S. Mail, using the most current, known mailing addresses 13 identified by the Settlement Administrator. (Id., ¶ 23.a). The Parties have agreed to use Apex Class 14 Action LLC as the Settlement Administrator. (Genish Decl., ¶ 46; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 6.jj).

15 In determining whether to approve a settlement of a class action, a trial court has virtually 16 complete discretion as to the manner of giving notice to class members, and review on appeal is governed 17 by the abuse of discretion standard. (See In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380 18 (2010)). Here, Class Counsel is not aware of an alternative method of providing notice to the Class which 19 would result in a higher likelihood of actual notice. (Genish Decl., ¶ 47). The original source of the 20 mailing addresses is from Class Members, who provided the information to Defendant. (Ibid).

21 Class Members will have forty-five (45) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice 22 by the Settlement Administrator to submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and/or 23 Workweeks Dispute (“Response Deadline”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 6.ii).

24 Any Class Notice returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable on or before the 25 Response Deadline will be sent promptly via First-Class U.S. Mail to the forwarding address affixed 26 thereto and the Settlement Administrator will indicate the date of such re-mailing on the Class Notice.
27 (Id., ¶ 23.b). If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will promptly attempt 28 to determine a correct address using a skip-trace or other search, using the name, address, and/or Social

1 Security number of the Class Member, and perform a single re-mailing within five (5) calendar days.
2 (Ibid). In the event that a Class Notice is re-mailed to a Class Member, the Response Deadline for that 3 Class Member shall be extended fifteen (15) calendar days from the original Response Deadline. (Id., ¶ 4 6.ii).

5 Class Members will have an opportunity to dispute the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA 6 Workweeks to which they have been credited, as reflected in their respective Class Notices, by submitting 7 a timely and valid letter (“Workweeks Dispute”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked 8 on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 6.nn and 24). A Workweeks Dispute must: (a) contain the 9 case name and number of the Action; (b) contain the Class Member’s full name, signature, address, 10 telephone number, and the last four (4) digits of the Class Member’s Social Security number; (c) clearly 11 state that the Class Member disputes the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Workweeks credited to 12 that Class Member and what the Class Member contends is the correct number; and (d) be returned by 13 mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response 14 Deadline. (Id., ¶ 6.nn).

15 Any Class Member wishing to be excluded from the Class Settlement must submit a timely and 16 valid letter (“Request for Exclusion”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or before 17 the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 6.hh & 25). A Request for Exclusion must: (a) contain the case name 18 and number of the Action; (b) contain the Class Member’s full name, signature, address, telephone 19 number, and last four (4) digits of the Class Member’s Social Security number; (c) clearly state that the 20 Class Member does not wish to be included in the Class Settlement; and (3) be returned by mail to the 21 Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., 22 ¶ 6.hh). Notwithstanding the above, all PAGA Employees will be bound by the PAGA Settlement and 23 will be issued their Individual PAGA Payment, irrespective of whether they submit a Request for 24 Exclusion. (Id., ¶ 25).

25 To object to the Class Settlement, Settlement Class Members must submit a timely and complete 26 written objection (“Notice of Objection”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or 27 before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 6.v & 26). A Notice of Objection must: (a) contain the case name 28 and number of the Action; (b) contain the objector’s full name, signature, address, telephone number, and

1 the last four (4) digits of the objector's Social Security number; (c) contain a written statement of all 2 grounds for the objection accompanied by any legal support for such objection; (d) contain copies of any 3 papers, briefs, or other documents upon which the objection is based; and (e) be returned by mail to the 4 Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., 5 6.v). Settlement Class Members, individually or through counsel, may also present their objection orally 6 at the Final Approval Hearing, regardless of whether they have submitted a Notice of Objection. (Id., ¶ 7 26).
