CLASS ACTION & PAGA

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION
AND MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL
OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA
SETTLEMENT, ATTORNEYS FEES AND
COSTS, AND CLASS REPRESENTATIVE
ENHANCEMENT AWARD;
MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Date: December 19, 2025
Time: 8:30 a.m.
Department: 1

Complaint Filed: August 24, 2021
FAC Filed: December 16, 2024

Trial Date: None Set

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on December 19, 2025, at 8:30 a.m., in Department 1 of the above-entitled Court, located at 4050 Main Street, Riverside, California 92501, Plaintiff Lolita Galvan (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) will and hereby does move for an order granting final approval as follows:

1. Making final the Court’s previous preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes, and approving the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”), on the grounds that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable because, inter alia:

- A Total Settlement Amount of approximately $4,275,000.00 will be fully distributed to all Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion (“Settlement Class Member”) (only six Class Members submitted a Request for Exclusion); and
- No Objections were submitted to the settlement administrator, Simpluris, Inc. (“Simpluris” or “Settlement Administrator”);

2. Awarding payment in the amount of $1,496,250.00 to Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Class Counsel”), representing thirty-five percent (35%) of the Total Settlement Amount,¹ for attorneys’ fees, which is reasonable and justified on a percentage-basis and also based on a lodestar cross-check;

3. Awarding payment in the amount of $9,350.46 to Class Counsel for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses;

4. Awarding payment in the amount of $28,000.00 to the Settlement Administrator for Settlement Administration Costs;

5. Awarding payment in the amount of $15,000.00 to Plaintiff Lolita Galvan, as a Class Representative Enhancement Award; and

6. Approving the allocation of the penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), in the amount of $213,750.00 (“PAGA Amount”), of which 75%, or $160,312.50, will be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) (“LWDA Payment”) and 25%, or $53,437.50 will

¹ The Total Settlement Amount was subject to potential increase via an escalator clause but the Settlement Administrator has advised that the escalator clause was not triggered.

1 be distributed to PAGA Group Members on a pro rata basis, based on PAGA Workweek during
2 the PAGA Period (“PAGA Group Member Amount”).

3 This motion is made pursuant to Rules 3.764, 3.769, and 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of
4 Court, which, respectively, require that a memorandum in support of class certification not exceed 20
5 pages, require approval by the Court of a class action settlement, and permit the Court to extend the page
6 limit for memoranda, and California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2), which requires approval by the Court
7 of a PAGA settlement. Unless otherwise specified, all citations and references to the Private 8 Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) are to 9 the version of that statute prior to the recent amendment effective July 1, 2024; the amended
10 statute does not apply to the Action, or the Settlement pursuant to California Labor Code section
11 2699(v)(1), as amended, because the notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency
12 was filed prior to June 19, 2024.

13 This motion is based upon the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities; the Declaration
14 of Class Counsel (Vartan Madoyan), Class Representative (Lolita Galvan), and Settlement Administrator
15 (Denise Islas of Simpluris) in support thereof; the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in 16 this matter; and such evidence and oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this motion.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiff Lolita Galvan (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) seeks final approval of: (1) the settlement reached between Plaintiff and Defendant Inland Respite, Inc., (“Defendant”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”) which provides for Defendant’s payment of a Total Settlement Amount of $4,275,000.00;² (2) attorneys’ fees in the amount of $1,496,250.00, which is thirty-five percent (35%) of the Total Settlement Amount, and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $9,350.46 (together, referred to as the “Attorney’s Fees and Costs”) to Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Class Counsel”); (3) payment in the amount of $28,000.00 to Simpluris, Inc. (“Settlement Administration Costs”); (4) payment in the amount of $15,000.00 to Plaintiff Lolita Galvan (“Class Representative Enhancement Award”); and (5) allocation of $213,750.00 for penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA Amount”).³

Plaintiff requests that the Court make final its preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes. The Settlement resolves the Released Class Claims and provides relief to a class consisting of the following individuals: all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant within the State of California who performed work for Defendant at any time during the Class Period (i.e., the time period of August 24, 2017, through March 20, 2024) (“Class” or “Class Members”).⁴

The Settlement also resolves the Released PAGA Claims pertaining to the employment of the following alleged PAGA Group Members or PAGA Group: all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant within the State of California who performed work for Defendant at any time during the PAGA period (i.e., the time period of September 6, 2022, through March 20, 2024) (“PAGA Group Members”).⁵

This matter involved, and the settlement is the product of meaningful and extensive investigations, and review and analysis of thousands of pages of information, documents, and data

1 exchanged by the Parties in the course of litigation and mediations and settlement negotiations which
2 involved two mediation sessions conducted by the Honorable Lesley Green, Ret..⁶

3 This case has required 441.90 hours of attorney time by Class Counsel.⁷ As will be demonstrated
4 herein, the request for attorneys' fees, which represents thirty-five percent (35%) of the Total Settlement
5 Amount, is fully supported by the use of the percentage-fee method. Courts have historically awarded
6 fees of up to fifty percent (50%) of the recovery. The requested attorneys' fees are also supported under
7 the lodestar cross-check method.⁸

8 The requests for Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Class Representative Enhancement Award, 9 Settlement Administration Costs, and allocation for the PAGA Amount were fully disclosed in the 10 Notice of Class Action Settlement ("Class Notice") that was mailed to the Class Members. Most 11 importantly, as of the date of this Motion, no Class Member has objected to the Settlement or to the 12 contemplated Attorney's Fees and Costs, Class Representative Enhancement Award, Settlement
13 Administration Costs, or allocation for PAGA Amount.

14 The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and is the product of arm's-length, good-faith
15 negotiations by experienced counsel presided over by a highly-regarded mediator who is experienced in 16 mediation labor and employment matters. Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of the 17 Settlement, and award the Attorneys Fees and Costs, Class Representative Enhancement Award,
18 Settlement Administration Costs, and allocation for the PAGA Amount in the full amounts requested 19 herein.

20 In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to grant
21 final approval of the Settlement, and award Attorney's Fees and Costs, Class Representative
22 Enhancement Award, Settlement Administration Costs, and allocation for the PAGA Amount,
23 Plaintiff also moves for an order permitting the filing of this single consolidated memorandum, although 24 it exceeds the page limit established by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.764, instead of filing several 25 separate motions.

26 ⁶ Declaration of Vartan Madoyan ("Madoyan Decl.") ¶ 9.

27 ⁷ Madoyan Decl., Exh. 1.

28 ⁸ Applying a multiplier of 3.99 which is warranted under the circumstances of the case, the total enhanced lodestar fees are $1,498,703.85, and Class Counsel seeks an attorneys' fees award of $1,496,250.00 (equal to 35% of the Total Settlement Amount).

II. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND SINCE PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

For a discussion of relevant procedural history and facts regarding preliminary approval and subsequent matters, please see the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan at paragraphs 2 to 4.

III. THE CLASS SHOULD BE CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES

For the reasons previously addressed by way of Plaintiff's moving and supporting papers for the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (namely, that the relevant class certification factors are satisfied, i.e., ascertainability, numerosity, community of interest, typicality, adequacy of representation, superiority, and manageability), as well as the reasons discussed herein regarding the completion of the due process notice procedure, the Court is requested to now make final its preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes.

IV. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS, NOTICE PROCESS, AND PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay a Total Settlement Amount of $4,275,000.00 on a non-reversionary basis,⁹ and separately the amounts necessary to pay its Employer Taxes, via two (2) installment payments. Within fifteen (15) calendar days after the Effective Date, the Settlement Administrator will provide the Parties with an accounting estimate of the amounts to be paid by Defendant pursuant to the terms of the Settlement and establish a qualified settlement account for administration of the Settlement. Defendant will make a deposit of one-half (1/2) of the Total Settlement Amount (i.e., $2,137,500.00) into a settlement account established by the Settlement Administrator ("First Installment") thirty (30) calendar days after Final Approval.¹⁰ Within one (1) year after payment of the First Installment, Defendant will make a deposit of the remaining one-half (1/2) of the Total Settlement Amount (i.e., $2,137,500.00) plus an amount sufficient for Employer's Taxes into a settlement account established by the Settlement Administrator ("Second Installment").¹¹ Subject to approval by the Court, the Net Settlement Amount will be calculated by deducting the

Attorney's Fees and Costs, Class Representative Enhancement Award, Settlement Administration Costs, and PAGA Amount.¹² The Net Settlement Amount, which is estimated to be $2,512,649.54, will be fully distributed to Settlement Class Members in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. The PAGA Amount of $213,750.00 will be distributed to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") (in the amount of $160,312.50) and to the PAGA Group Members (in the amount of $53,437.50) in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.¹³

Simpluris, Inc. ("Settlement Administrator" or "Simpluris") will determine each Settlement Class Member's (i.e., Class Members who did not timely opt out of the Class Settlement) pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount ("Individual Settlement Share(s)")¹⁴, according to the following methodology: Net Settlement Amount will be divided by the aggregate total number of Pay Periods of all Class Members, resulting in the "Estimated Pay Period Value." Each Class Member's estimated Individual Settlement Share will then be calculated by multiplying each individual Class Member's total number of Pay Periods by the Estimated Pay Period Value.¹⁵

The Settlement Administrator will calculate each PAGA Group Members pro rata share of the PAGA Employee Amount ("Individual PAGA Payment") as follows: The Settlement Administrator will divide the PAGA Group Member Amount, i.e., 25% of the PAGA Penalty Amount, by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods of all PAGA Group Members to yield the "PAGA Pay Period Value," and multiply each PAGA Group Member's individual Pay Periods by the PAGA Aggrieved Pay Period Value to yield his or her Individual PAGA Payment.¹⁶

Class Members had sixty (60) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice ("Response Deadline") to dispute the number of Workweeks and/or the PAGA Workweek credited to each of them, opt out of the Class Settlement, and/or object to the Settlement.¹⁷ The Response Deadline was October 25, 2025, and the extended Response Deadline was November 10, 2025, for Class Members who were re-mailed the Class Notice.¹⁸ As of the date of this motion, the Settlement

Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as follows twenty percent (20%) wages (“Wage Portion”) and eighty percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages (“Non-Wage Portion”). The Wage Portion will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the Non-Wage Portion will be reported on an IRS Form-1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator.²⁰ The Settlement Administrator will withhold the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their Individual Settlement Payments (i.e., payment of their Individual Settlement Share net of the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings on the wages portion of their Individual Settlement Share) (“Employer Taxes”).²¹ The Employer Taxes will be paid separately and in addition to the Total Settlement Amount. Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties and will be reported on an IRS Form-1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator.²²

The Settlement Administrator shall distribute the following payments: Within seven (7) calendar days of the full funding of the Total Settlement Amount: Individual Settlement Payment to Settlement Class Members, Individual Settlement Payments to Settlement Class Members, Individual PAGA Payments to PAGA Group Members, the LWDA Payment to the State of California, Class Representative Enhancement Award to Plaintiff, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs to Class Counsel, and Settlement Administration Costs to itself.²³

Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment checks will be valid and negotiable for one hundred eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are mailed, and thereafter, shall be canceled.²⁴ The funds associated with such canceled checks will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to the Controller of the State of California to be held pursuant to the Unclaimed Property

7 V. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

8 The Court directed Simpluris to administer and effectuate the notice and settlement
9 administration process, as set forth in the Court’s July 7, 2025 Preliminary Approval Order. On July 28,
10 2025, Simpluris received a mailing list from Defendant’s counsel that contained each Class Members’
11 and PAGA Group Members’ last known full name, last known mailing address, last known telephone
12 number, Social Security Number, the start and end dates of employment as an hourly-paid or non-exempt
13 employee of Defendant in California during the Class Period, and such other information as was 14 necessary for Simpluris to calculate Workweeks during the Class Period (collectively, “Class List”).²⁷

15 The Class List contained information for 7,042 individuals identified as Class Members.²⁸ The 16 mailing addresses contained in the Class List were processed and updated utilizing the U.S. Postal
17 Service’s National Change of Address Database (“NCOA”).²⁹

18 On August 26, 2025, Simpluris mailed the Class Notice via U.S. first class mail to all 7,042
19 individuals identified as Class Members in the Class List.³⁰

20 A total of 356 Class Notices were returned with a forwarding address and Simpluris promptly re-
21 mailed the Class Notices to the forwarding addresses.³¹ Simpluris performed a skip-trace search on 356
22 Class Notices that were returned to Simpluris without forwarding addresses, located an updated address

1 for 318 Class Members, and promptly re-mailed the Class Notice to the updated addresses.³² There are
2 38 mailed Class Notices that remain undeliverable.³³

3 The Settlement Administrator has received zero (0) Objections and six (6) Requests for Exclusion
4 from Class Members by the Response Deadline of October 25, 2025 or the extended Response Deadline
5 of November 10, 2025 for those Class Notices that were re-mailed.³⁴

6 To date, there are 7,036 Class Members who did not submit a timely and valid Request for 7 Exclusion (“Settlement Class Members”), and who will be paid their portion of the Net Settlement
8 Amount. The Net Settlement Amount of approximately $2,512,649.54 and the PAGA Amount of 9 $213,750.00 will be distributed in accordance with the terms of the Settlement.³⁵

10 VI. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION
11 SETTLEMENT.

12 In reviewing a class settlement, the court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of 13 fact and law that underlie the merits of the dispute. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland
14 Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1146. The inquiry is not whether the settlement agreement is the best 15 one that class members could have possibly obtained, but whether the settlement, taken as a whole, is 16 “fair, adequate, and reasonable”—and the trial court has broad discretion to determine this. Chavez v.
17 Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-55. A settlement need not obtain 100 percent of the damages
18 sought in order to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc.
19 (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 251. Even if the proposed settlement affords relief that is substantially
20 narrower than it would be if the case were to be successfully litigated, that is no bar to a class settlement
21 because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives 22 ground in the interest of avoiding prolonged litigation. Id.

23 To determine whether the settlement is fair and reasonable, relevant factors to consider are:

24 the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 25 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 26 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The list of factors is not exclusive and the court can consider different factors based on the circumstances of each case.” Wershba at 245. At the final approval stage, a presumption of fairness exists where, as here:

“(1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.”

Id. at 1802. “Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Dunk at 1801.

A. The Settlement Resulted from Arm’s-Length Negotiations Based Upon Extensive Investigation and Formal and Informal Discovery.

The Parties actively litigated the case since the initial complaint was filed on August 24, 2021. Class Counsel conducted significant investigation, and extensive formal and informal discovery into the facts of the case, to assess the veracity, strength, and scope of the claims, and was preparing for class certification and trial prior to reaching the Settlement.³⁶

The Parties informally exchanged a volume of information, documents, and data throughout the course of the litigation and in connection with the mediations and settlement negotiations.³⁷ Class Counsel analyzed thousands of pages of information, documents, and data obtained from Plaintiff, Defendant, and other sources, including: employment records of Plaintiff, a detailed sampling of Plaintiff’s, Class Members’, and aggrieved employees’ timekeeping, and payroll, Defendant’s Employee Handbook(s), wage and hour policies (including, but not limited to, Defendant’s California Meal Periods Policy and Rest Periods Policy, Overtime Policy, Dress Code Policy, Cell Phone Policy, and Timekeeping Policy), earning statements, company policy acknowledgments and forms (including, but not limited to, Defendant’s Handbook/Policy Employee Acknowledgment, Employee Acknowledgement of Receipt of the Meal Periods Policy and Rest Periods Policy, and On-Duty Meal Period Agreement), internal memorandum, job descriptions, and other operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures documents, among other information and documents.³⁸ Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiff and other percipient witnesses.³⁹ Class Counsel developed liability, damages, and penalties valuation models in the course of litigation and in connection with the mediations and settlement negotiations, and met and conferred with Defendant's counsel on numerous occasions, e.g., to discuss issues relating to the pleadings, case management, motion practice, and production of information, documents, and data in the course of litigation and in connection with the mediations and settlement negotiations, and settlement.⁴⁰ Other work performed by Class Counsel included, and was not limited to, case strategy and analysis; researching, drafting, reviewing, and/or revising the pleadings, motion-related papers, the mediation briefing and supporting materials, and settlement documents; drafting and propounding multiple sets of formal written discovery requests on Defendant (Requests for Production (Set One), Special Interrogatories (Sets One and Two), and Form Interrogatories (Set One)) and notices of depositions of Defendant's persons most knowledgeable designees; reviewing Defendant's responses and objections to written discovery requests and deposition notices; and preparing for and attending court proceedings, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other tasks.⁴¹

On October 31, 2023, and November 9, 2023, the Parties participated in two arm's-length and informed negotiations with the Honorable Lesley Green (Ret.) ("Mediator"), a respected mediator of complex wage and hour actions. After the first mediation session failed, and after Class Counsel analyzed additional documents and conducted additional negotiations, the Parties were able to settle the case at the second mediation session. In the course of mediations and settlement negotiations, the Parties exchanged extensive information, documents, and data and discussed all aspects of the case, including and not limited to, the risks and delays of further litigation, the risks and expenses to the Parties of proceeding with class certification; the law relating to class certification, off-the-clock theory, regular rates of pay, meal and rest periods (including inter alia, on premises breaks), expense reimbursements, recordkeeping and wage statement requirements, representative PAGA claims and penalties, and wage-and-hour law and enforcement; Plaintiff's claims and allegations, and Defendant's defenses thereto, as well as the evidence produced and analyzed; and the possibility of appeals, among other things.⁴² During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm's length in an adversarial position.⁴³ Arriving at a settlement that was acceptable to the Parties was not easy.⁴⁴ Defendant and its counsel felt very strongly about Defendant's ability to prevail on the merits and to avoid class certification and representative adjudication and prevail on the merits, while, Plaintiff and Class Counsel believed that they would be able to obtain class certification and prevail at trial.⁴⁵ After conducting initial disclosures, significant formal and informal discovery and investigations, extensive settlement negotiations, and with the aid of the mediator's evaluation, the Parties agreed that this matter was well-suited for settlement given the legal issues relating to Plaintiff's principal claims, as well as the costs and risks to the Parties that would attend further litigation.⁴⁶

The Settlement takes into account the strengths and weaknesses of each side's position and the uncertainty of how this matter might have concluded at certification, trial, and/or appeals.⁴⁷ The Settlement was based on thousands of pages of facts, evidence, and investigation.⁴⁸ Additionally, Class Counsel has extensive experience in handling complex wage-and-hour actions, including significant experience in employment class action litigation.⁴⁹

B. The Risks Inherent in Continued Litigation Favor Final Approval of the Settlement.

The risks inherent in litigating the claims through certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals, favor resolving this matter for a Total Settlement Amount of $4,275,000.00.⁵⁰ The Settlement was calculated using information and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, formal and informal discovery, and the exchange of information in the context of litigation, mediation, and ongoing settlement negotiations.⁵¹ Had the action not settled, Defendant would have continued to vigorously challenged class certification, manageability, and liability. Defendant contended that individualized

1 questions of fact predominated over any common issues, and these issues would pose challenges to
2 certification and representative adjudication. Defendant would have likely argued again at trial, if any,
3 that Plaintiff's claims were not appropriate for class-wide and/or representative adjudication. On the
4 other hand, Defendant also faced the risk of the Court certifying a class and allowing a jury to decide
5 Plaintiff's claims on a class-wide or representative basis. Also, preparation for trial would have been 6 expensive for all Parties.

7 It is preferable to reach an early resolution of a dispute because such resolutions save time and
8 money that would otherwise go to litigation. If this matter had settled after further litigation, the settlement
9 amount would have taken into account the additional costs incurred, and there might have been less
10 money available for Class Members, PAGA Group Members, and the State of California after all
11 was said and done. This is not just an abstract contention. The risks and expenses of further litigation
12 outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. These risks of further litigation include a
13 determination that the claims were unsuitable for class treatment and/or representative adjudication,
14 failure to obtain certification, class de-certification after certification of a class, allowing a jury to decide
15 the claims asserted in this matter, and the real possibility of no recovery after years of litigation.
16 Additionally, the Parties were moving into the phase of the litigation where they would have to conduct a
17 significant amount of additional discovery, including and not limited to, depositions of Defendant's
18 Person Most Knowledgeable designees, expert witnesses, and percipient witnesses, such as managers,
19 supervisors, and other current and former employees throughout the State of California. Additional 20 discovery would have certainly arisen, which would have cost the Parties additional time and money. In 21 contrast, the Settlement provides real and significant benefits for the Class, PAGA Group Members, 22 and the State of California here and now, while avoiding the further expenses, risks, and delay of 23 prolonged litigation with only the possibility of recovery.

24 It would be grossly inefficient for such a large class of current and former employees to bring
25 individual actions to recover from Defendant for the alleged violations of wage-and-hour laws.
26 Moreover, the potential individual recovery that could be obtained by a Class Member would not be 27 significant enough to provide him or her with the incentive to sue. By granting final approval of the 28

Settlement, the Court can approve a resolution that provides a certain and substantial recovery for Class Members, PAGA Group Members, and the State of California.

C. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate.

The Settlement, which provides for a Total Settlement Amount of $4,275,000.00, represents a fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution of this matter. The Settlement was calculated using information and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, initial disclosures, formal and informal discovery, and the exchange of information in the context of litigation, mediation, and extensive settlement negotiations. The Settlement takes into account the potential risks and rewards inherent in any case and, in particular, in this matter. Moreover, considering the facts in this matter, the Total Settlement Amount represents a considerable recovery.

The Total Settlement Amount will be fully paid out, in accordance with the terms of the Settlement. As discussed in Section IV, supra, each Settlement Class Member will be paid a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount (which is currently estimated to be $2,512,649.54), based on the number of Workweeks credited to them and each PAGA Employee will be paid a pro rata share of the PAGA Penalty Amount, based on the number of PAGA Workweeks during the PAGA Period credited to them.⁵² The highest Individual Settlement Payment to a Settlement Class Member is currently estimated to be $1,322.73 and the average Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $357.11.⁵³ The highest Individual PAGA Payment to a PAGA Employee is current estimated to be $27.87 and the average Individual PAGA Payment is currently estimated to be $12.38.⁵⁴ These are significant individual recoveries, particularly in light of the risks of litigation.

Class Counsel believes that the Settlement as a whole is fair, reasonable, and adequate.⁵⁵ Although Class Counsel's recommendations are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the recommendations into account, particularly if Class Counsel appears to be competent, has experience

⁵² Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 16 & 17. The pro rata allocation here is a fair and reasonable way to distribute the Net Settlement Amount that is payable to the Settlement Class Members and 25% of the PAGA Amount that is payable to the PAGA Group Members. At the final approval stage, "[a]n allocation formula need only have a reasonable, rational basis [to warrant approval], particularly if recommended by experienced and competent class counsel." In re American Bank Note Holographics, Inc., Securities Litigation (S.D.N.Y. 2001) 127 F.Supp.2d 418, 429-30.

1 with this type of litigation, and significant discovery and investigation have been completed, as is the case
2 here. Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed., 2002) § 11.47. Accordingly, the Court
3 should grant final approval of the Settlement.

4 D. The Class Was Represented by Competent Counsel.

5 Class Counsel has extensive experience in employment class action law and complex wage-and-
6 hour litigation.⁵⁶ Lawyers for Justice, PC has been appointed class counsel in numerous complex wage-
7 and-hour cases, and has recovered millions of dollars for individuals in California.⁵⁷ Both Parties' counsel
8 were capable of assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the Class Members' claims against Defendant
9 and the benefits of the Settlement under the circumstances of the lawsuit and in the context of a private,
10 consensual settlement agreement.

11 E. There Are No Written Objections to the Class Settlement.

12 The Settlement has been well received by the Class – not a single Class Member objected to the 13 *Settlement, and only six (6) Class Members opted out of the Settlement.*⁵⁸ Specifically, no objections
14 have been made as to the Total Settlement Amount or contemplated Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Class
15 Representative Enhancement Award, Settlement Administration Costs, and allocation for the PAGA
16 Amount. California courts have consistently found that a small number of objectors indicates support for 17 a settlement and strongly favors final approval.⁵⁹

18 Here, the lack of any objections speaks volumes about the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy
19 of this Settlement. Accordingly, the Settlement as a whole is presumed to be fair, reasonable, and 20 adequate, and the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement in its entirety. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th

VII. THE ATTORNEYS' FEES REQUESTED SHOULD BE APPROVED.

A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate.

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will pay Total Settlement Amount of $4,275,000.00.⁶⁰ The requested attorneys' fees are thirty-five percent (35%) of the total value of the monetary settlement.⁶¹ In light of Class Counsel's successful prosecution and resolution of this matter, and the tremendous result achieved by way of a very substantial settlement sum, the requested attorneys' fees are appropriate and reasonable.

Where the amount of a settlement is a "certain easily calculable sum of money," California courts may calculate attorneys' fees as a reasonable percentage of the settlement. Weil and Brown, California Practice Guide, Civil Procedure Before Trial, Chapter 14, § 14:145; In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig. (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 942 (The percentage method is particularly appropriate where a monetary settlement has been recovered and "the benefit [recovered can be] easily quantified."); see also Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503; Dunk at 1808. Courts may calculate and award attorneys' fees as a percentage of a monetary fund that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered for the benefit of others. Laffitte at 486 & 506. Trial courts "retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and [may] use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee." Id. (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 253.

Courts award fees as an economic incentive for lawyers to pursue litigation that will enhance and facilitate access to the judicial system for meritorious claims, deter wrongdoing, and address multiple similar alleged wrongs that would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here. See A. Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d ed. 1993) 104, at 6.

The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because "it better approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach." Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 49. California law provides that the award for attorneys' fees should be equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable litigation based on the result achieved and risk incurred. Id. at 47-50; Laffitte at 503. In cases where the settlement agreement provides that the defendant will pay the plaintiff's attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the ⁶⁰ Settlement Agreement, ¶ 8.nn.

⁶¹ Id., ¶ 12.

1 settlement, use of that percentage method is appropriate. Lealao at 32. Fee awards that are too small will
2 “chill the private enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal rights and obstruct the
3 representative actions that often relieve the courts of the need to separately adjudicate numerous claims.”
4 Id. at 53. Therefore, fees in representative actions should approximate the probable terms of a contingent
5 fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated attorney and client in comparable litigation. Id. at 48. “The 6 ultimate goal . . . is the award of a ‘reasonable’ fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of 7 the method of calculation.” Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-58 (quoting
8 Apple Computer, Inc. v. Superior Court (2005) 126 Cal.App.4th, 1253, 1270).

9 Class Counsel’s application for attorneys’ fees in light of the facts and circumstances
10 surrounding the case is well-within the range of reasonableness. Courts have awarded fees as high as 50%
11 of the settlement in complex actions, depending on the circumstances of the case.⁶²

12 Class Counsel has performed significant work in this matter, as discussed in the Declaration of 13 Vartan Madoyan with the very real possibility of an unsuccessful outcome and no fee recovery of any 14 kind.⁶³ In the present matter, Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not
15 receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁶⁴ Class Counsel is experienced in complex wage-
16 and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a significant settlement recovery for Plaintiff, the 17 Class, PAGA Group Members, and the State of California.⁶⁵ Considering the amount of fees
18 requested, work performed, risks incurred, results obtained, experience of Class Counsel in handling
19 similar matters, and the very substantial settlement that Class Counsel was able to achieve in this case,
20 Plaintiff maintains that the requested attorneys’ fees are reasonable and should be awarded.

21 Compensating class counsel in class litigation on a percentage basis, as requested herein, makes 22 good sense because: (1) it is consistent with the private marketplace where contingent fee attorneys are 23 customarily compensated on such a basis; (2) it aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class
24 members in achieving the maximum possible resolution of the case; and (3) it encourages the most

25 ⁶² See In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding attorneys’ fees in the amount of 45% of the $7.3
26 million total settlement amount); Beech Cinema, Inc. v. Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 480 F.Supp. 1195
27 (awarding approximately 53% of the settlement as attorneys’ fees). California courts routinely approve attorneys’ fees awards
28 “average[ing] around one-third of the recovery.” Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found the range of contingency fees in marketplace to be 20%-40% and determined such a percentage fee was appropriate).

⁶⁴ Id., ¶¶ 10-11, & 19.

⁶⁵ Id., ¶¶ 14-18.

1 efficient and expeditious resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable,
2 settlement. The attorney fee request here satisfies all of these factors and should be approved on a
3 percentage basis.

4 The percentage method is consistent with, and is intended to mirror, the practice in the private 5 marketplace where contingent-fee attorneys typically negotiate percentage-fee arrangements with their
6 clients. The named plaintiff's agreement to pay a contingent fee is powerful evidence of a reasonable fee.
7 One of the best ways to demonstrate the value of counsel's work to the class is to review the 8 consideration agreed to be paid by the named plaintiff. If the named plaintiff has employed counsel on a 9 contingency-fee basis, it would indeed be inequitable for the members of the class, who will enjoy the 10 benefits of the settlement without incurring the risks of bringing the claim, to pay less than the named
11 plaintiff. In this case, Plaintiff has agreed to a contingency fee agreement of at least thirty-five percent
12 (35%) of the recovery.⁶⁶

13 Class Counsel has obtained a substantial recovery on behalf of Plaintiff, the Class, the PAGA
14 Group Members, and the State of California and the results achieved justify an attorneys' fees award
15 that is the equivalent of the standard market fee and that is consistent with the contingency-fee agreement
16 entered into by and between Plaintiff and Class Counsel. Thus, the requested attorneys' fees are 17 appropriate.

18 B. The Attorneys' Fees Requested Are Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered
19 in Determination of Fee Awards.

20 The factors which courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable, all of which 21 support the fee award requested by Class Counsel, are: the time and labor required; the novelty and 22 difficulty of the questions involved; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the 23 preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of the case; the customary fee;
24 whether the fee is fixed or contingent; the time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; the 25 amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; the 26 undesirability of the case; the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and awards

1 in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772.
2 Some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be addressed below.

3 The award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,496,250.00 (which is 35% of the Total
4 Settlement Amount) is commensurate with the time, effort, and expense dedicated to this matter, the 5 contingent nature of Class Counsel's fee recovery and the risks taken, the skill and determination
6 required, the results that Class Counsel has achieved, and the value of the settlement that Class Counsel
7 has obtained in this matter.

8 1. Time & Labor.

9 Class Counsel used its experience and skills, and dedicated the full extent of resources, to litigate
10 and bring this matter to a successful conclusion.⁶⁷

11 As outlined in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, Class Counsel has fully and actively 12 participated in litigation of this matter.⁶⁸ Prior to commencing the lawsuit, Class Counsel had conducted a
13 significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendant's business and its 14 operations, and employment policies, practices, and procedures.⁶⁹ During the litigation of this matter,
15 Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiff and other percipient witnesses; reviewed and 16 analyzed thousands of pages of information, documents and data obtained from Defendant, Plaintiff, and 17 other sources; and prepared liability, damages, penalties, and valuation calculations.⁷⁰ Class Counsel also 18 met and conferred with Defendant's counsel on numerous occasions e.g., to discuss issues relating to the 19 pleadings, case management, motion practice, informal discovery, and the production of information, 20 documents and data among other things, and prepared for and attended court proceedings, multiple
21 mediations, and settlement negotiations.⁷¹

22 Counsel has dedicated staffing and monetary resources necessary to prosecute this matter
23 diligently and with maximum efficiency and has fully and actively participated in the litigation
24 process.⁷² The Attorney Task and Time Chart, which is attached as "EXHIBIT 1" to the accompanying

1 Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, sets forth in detail the hours that attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC
2 have spent performing tasks in this matter.⁷³ Class Counsel has spent 441.90 hours performing tasks
3 and to obtain a significant recovery in this matter.⁷⁴ These hours were required to bring this matter to its
4 successful conclusion. In light of the value of Class Counsel's work and the carrying of costs involved
5 in litigating this matter, the requested attorneys' fees are fair, adequate, and reasonable.

6 2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly.

7 The skill required to properly litigate this matter is evident from the results achieved, the steps
8 necessary to reach those results, and that Defendant retained well-respected counsel to represent it.

9 Class Counsel exercised its skill to perform significant investigation, analysis, and research prior 10 to filing the case, during the litigation, and prior to and during the mediation and settlement negotiations.
11 Class Counsel took steps to prepare the matter for class certification and had every intention of taking this
12 matter to trial on a class-wide basis if Defendant did not offer an appropriate class-wide settlement.
13 Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, as demonstrated in the Declaration of Vartan
14 Madoyan, Class Counsel used its extensive experience in the handling of class actions and complex
15 wage-and-hour matters in order to obtain the Settlement with maximum efficiency.⁷⁵

16 3. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent.

17 Plaintiff entered into a contingency fee agreement with Class Counsel, and the representation of 18 the Class provided by Class Counsel has been wholly contingent.⁷⁶ Class Counsel has invested 441.90
19 hours of time to obtain relief on behalf of Plaintiff, the Class, the PAGA Group Members, and the 20 State of California.⁷⁷ Class Counsel has also incurred litigation costs and expenses in the amount of 21 $9,350.46.⁷⁸ Thus, Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any 22 compensation until recovery is obtained.⁷⁹

23 In determining the reasonableness of a fee award in a class action settlement, whether or not 24 representation is provided on a contingency basis is an important factor:

25 ⁷³ Id., Exh. 1.

A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they are performed. The contingent fee compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. A lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.

Cates v. Chiang (2013) 213 Cal.App.4th 791, 823 (internal quotes and citations omitted). Class Counsel litigated this matter on a contingent basis with all of the concomitant risk factors inherent in such an uncertain undertaking. Had Class Counsel not been successful, the time that Class Counsel has devoted to litigating this matter would have been for naught, and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-49 (discussing the risks of engaging in litigation without certainty of compensation).

4. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved.

The Settlement represents an excellent resolution of this matter, given the risks inherent in litigating the matter through class certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals. Had this matter not settled, Defendant would have vigorously challenged certifiability, and liability. Defendant, however, faced risks if the Court certified a class and allowed a jury to decide the claims. Additionally, preparing this matter for trial would have been expensive for the Parties. The Settlement at this stage is preferred over continued litigation because such resolutions save time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery, as opposed to an uncertain result in the future after costly, risk, and prolonged litigation involving expert discovery, trial preparation, class certification proceedings, and appellate review of those proceedings.

The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific difficulties faced in this matter, are considerable.⁸⁰ Class Counsel obtained a settlement of $4,275,000.00.⁸¹ The Settlement has yielded a positive response from the Class Members—no Class Members objected to the Class Settlement.⁸²

1 5. *The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys.

2 Lawyers for Justice, PC is a recognized class action law firm that employed its attorneys’
3 knowledge, skills, and experience in bringing this case to a successful conclusion.⁸³ Class Counsel has 4 years of complex and class action litigation experience, has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of 5 thousands of individuals in California, and has successfully handled numerous significant wage-and-hour
6 class action and complex cases.⁸⁴

7 C. The Lodestar Methodology Also Justifies Approval of the Requested Fees.

8 While the percentage-of-the-benefit approach is endorsed as the better approximation of the 9 workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach, courts may also use the lodestar method to 10 “cross-check” the results of the other.⁸⁵ The lodestar is calculated based on reasonable hours at reasonable
11 prevailing hourly rates for the attorneys, and counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour
12 reasonably spent on the matter. Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1131-33. The reasonableness
13 of hours is assessed by “the entire course of the litigation, including pretrial matters, settlement
14 negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the trial itself[.]” Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist.
15 (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447.

16 As discussed above in Part VII.B.1, infra, and also discussed in the Declaration of Vartan
17 Madoyan, Class Counsel expended significant time and labor in this highly contested matter.⁸⁶ Class
18 Counsel has been actively involved in the prosecution of the cases, and the work performed in said cases
19 has precluded other employment.⁸⁷ Class Counsel bore the risk that, despite all of its efforts and skills
20 employed, there may be no recovery.⁸⁸ Ultimately, Class Counsel was successful in reaching a settlement
21 of $4,275,000.00.⁸⁹ The Attorney Task and Time Chart sets forth in detail the numerous tasks that Class

Counsel performed in this matter, and the time required for completing those tasks.⁹⁰ The chart demonstrates that Class Counsel has spent a total of 441.90 hours litigating this matter and finalizing the Settlement.⁹¹ In light of the facts and circumstances of this matter, as well as the results that Class Counsel has achieved, Class Counsel has spent a reasonable number of hours performing work on this matter. In addition, Class Counsel will continue to perform work on this matter through the date of final approval and in connection with the implementation of the Settlement.

As set forth in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, the professional background and experience of Class Counsel support a reasonable rate of compensation of at least $850 per hour for services provided by Class Counsel.⁹² Lawyers for Justice, PC has been awarded attorneys' fees, compensating the firm at the blended rate of at least $850 per hour for legal service performed, by courts of this state.⁹³ While the circumstances of every case are unique, the fact remains that the work performed by Class Counsel in this matter justify the requested attorneys' fees.

Applying the rate of $850 per hour to 441.90 hours worked by Class Counsel, would place a base lodestar value of $375,615.00 on the services provided by Class Counsel. However, courts apply a multiplier in consideration for risk, efficiency, and/or obtaining a substantial result, to enhance the lodestar for purpose of cross-check. See Ketchum at 1133-34 (holding that a risk multiplier may be applied to compensate contingency fee attorneys at a fair market rate).⁹⁴ The risks involved, skill required, complexity of the matter, and results obtained warrant upward enhancement of the lodestar.⁹⁵ In determining whether or not to enhance the lodestar, California courts take into account multiple factors, ⁹⁰ Madoyan Decl., Exh. 1.

⁹¹ Id., ¶ 12.

⁹² Id., ¶ 13.

⁹⁴ Courts have approved fee awards with multipliers of 2 and even higher. See, e.g., City of Oakland v. Oakland Raiders (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 78 (affirming a 2.34 multiplier without remand); Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 ("Multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher.").

⁹⁵ Even when courts have opted to award fees in settlement fund cases based on time reasonably expended on the action, courts have generally awarded these fees based on the actual time expended (the lodestar) in conjunction with a multiplier of between 2 and 4. Kerr v. Screen Extras Guild, Inc. (9th Cir. 1975) 526 F.2d 67. Adjustment of the base lodestar figure to compute an award of attorneys' fees for a claim under the California Labor Code is appropriate. Id., at 1135-36; Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48-49. Courts frequently apply multipliers to enhance the lodestar to reflect the risks involved, the complexity of the litigation, and the other relevant facts. Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051; Graham v. DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 579 ("One of the most common fee enhancers [...] is for contingency risk."). Such an enhancement "mirrors the established practice in the private legal market of rewarding attorneys for taking the risk of nonpayment by paying them a premium over their normal hourly rates for winning contingency cases." Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051; accord Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at 1132-33. A risk multiplier also serves to bring the financial incentives for enforcing important rights "into line with incentives [attorneys] have to undertake claims for which they are paid on a fee-for-services basis." Ketchum at 1132.

many of which were specifically addressed above in §§ VII.B, infra. See Cates at 822-23. Multiple factors warrant enhancement of the lodestar in the case, including the following: the time and labor required; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of these case; the contingent nature of the fee; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; and awards in similar cases. Ketchum at 1134.

Given the above factors, including perhaps most importantly the very substantial settlement sum that Class Counsel was able to achieve through its hard work, expertise, and skill, a multiplier of 3.99 is warranted and should be applied. If a different firm with less skill and expertise had represented the class, it is likely they would not have been able to achieve such a significant settlement of $4,275,000.00. Applying the requested multiplier would properly account for the skill and expertise employed by Class Counsel in obtaining a very large settlement to the tremendous benefit of the Class, as well as the State of California and the PAGA Group Members. Applying the rate of $850 per hour to the 441.90 hours of services provided by Class Counsel results in a base lodestar value of $375,615.00, and applying a multiplier of 3.99,⁹⁶ which is warranted under the circumstances as detailed above, results in total enhanced lodestar fees of $1,498,703.85.

The lodestar method as a cross-check to the percentage award sought herein, strongly supports the reasonableness of the requested attorneys' fees. The nature of the work performed, skill exercised, and the substantial outcome in this matter—which involves an outstanding monetary recovery involving a Total Settlement Amount of $4,275,000.00 (with a Net Settlement Amount of approximately at least $2,512,649.54 to be paid to Settlement Class Members, payment of $53,437.50 to PAGA Group Members, and payment of $160,312.50 to the State of California)—support the percentage fee sought. Accordingly, the Court is respectfully requested to award attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,496,250.00 to Class Counsel.

⁹⁶ Larger multipliers have been awarded in similar cases, and the total amount of fees sought by Class Counsel is also reasonable compared to fees awarded in similar cases. Courts routinely enhance lodestar amounts based on multipliers that "range from 2 to 4 or even higher." Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 (emphasis added); see also, e.g., Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (approving multiplier of 2.5); Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051 (approving multiplier of 3.65); Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc. (2d Cir. 2005) 396 F.3d 96, 123 (approving multiplier of 3.5); Craft v. County of San Bernardino (C.D. Cal. 2006) 624 F.Supp.2d 1113, 1125 (awarding multiplier of 5.2 and referring to other cases with cross-check multipliers ranging from 4.5 to 19.6).

VIII. REIMBURSEMENT OF CLASS COUNSEL’S LITIGATION COSTS AND EXPENSES SHOULD BE APPROVED.

The Settlement provides for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of up to $15,000.00. As set forth in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, Class Counsel only seeks reimbursement of $9,350.46 in litigation costs and expenses incurred in this matter.⁹⁷ This amount was reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court award litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $9,350.46 to Class Counsel.

IX. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS SHOULD BE APPROVED.

As set forth in the accompanying Simpluris Declaration, the total costs incurred and to be incurred by Simpluris for the notice and settlement administration process are $28,000.00.⁹⁸ The costs incurred and to be incurred include, but are not limited to, establishing and maintaining a settlement fund account; establishing and maintaining a calendar of administrative deadlines and responsibilities; processing, issuing, and transmitting settlement payments; distributing notice of the Settlement to the Class; receiving and validating Request for Exclusions, Objections, or Workweeks Disputes submitted by Class Members; calculating Employer Taxes and providing appropriate forms and calculations to Defendant; providing counsel with weekly reports; and other tasks as the Parties mutually agree or the Court orders Simpluris to perform.⁹⁹

Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of payment to Simpluris, a necessary third-party for its handling of the notice and settlement process, in the amount of $25,886.00.

X. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED.

Plaintiff requests a Class Representative Enhancement Award, in the amount of $15,000.00 to herself, for her efforts and work spearheading the prosecution of this matter and serving as the Class Representative, as well as her broader individual waiver and release of claims with a California Civil Code Section 1542 waiver.

⁹⁷ Madoyan Decl., ¶ 19.

⁹⁸ Simpluris Decl., ¶ 22.

⁹⁹ Id., ¶ 3.

The enhancement award requested here is reasonable.¹⁰⁰ Plaintiff spent a substantial amount of time and effort providing the facts and evidence necessary to support the prosecution of the claims.¹⁰¹ Plaintiff was available whenever Class Counsel needed her and actively tried to obtain, and gave, information to support the pursuit of this matter.¹⁰² Plaintiff's work in the case and her willingness to file this lawsuit was key in achieving a substantial settlement for the benefit of everyone, and she should be compensated accordingly for doing so and for agreeing to provide a full general release.¹⁰³ The $15,000.00 Enhancement Award may be larger than a typical case, but given the $4,275,000.00 settlement that was achieved, the Enhancement Award is only 0.35% of the Total Settlement Amount.

Accordingly, it is appropriate and just for Plaintiff Lolita Galvan to receive $15,000.00 as a reasonable Class Representative Enhancement Award, in addition to her Individual Settlement Payment.

XI. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Court is respectfully requested to grant final approval of the Settlement, approve and award Attorney's Fees and Costs to Class Counsel, the Class Representative Enhancement Award to Plaintiff, Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator, and the PAGA Amount, in their entirety, as sought herein; and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.
