1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff DAWN JANOWSKI (“Plaintiff Janowski”) and Plaintiff ELLEN WEBB-4 TURNER (“Plaintiff Webb-Turner”) (together referred to as “Plaintiffs” or “Class 5 Representatives”) filed a Second Amended Class Action Complaint in this Court (“Action” 6 against Defendant J B MECHANICAL, INC. (“Defendant J B”) and Defendant JOHN 7 BILLHEIMER (“Defendant Billheimer”) (together referred to as “Defendants,” Defendants and 8 Plaintiffs together referred to as the “Parties”). Plaintiffs alleged the following causes of action: 9 (1) Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Lab. Code § 204, 223, 226.7, 512 and 1198); (2) Failure to 10 Provide Rest Periods (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198); (3) Failure to Pay Hourly Wages
11 and Overtime (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198); (4) Failure to Pay 12 Proper Sick Pay (Lab. Code § 246); (5) Failure to Provide Accurate Written Wage Statements 13 (Lab. Code §§ 226(a)); (6) Failure to Timely Pay All Final Wages; (7) Failure to Indemnify (Lab.
14 § 2802); (8) Unfair Competition (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.); and (11) Civil Penalties 15 (Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.).

16 After engaging in substantial investigation and extensive negotiations with the assistance 17 of a respected mediator, Jason Marsili, the Parties agreed to settle all claims alleged in the Action 18 on a class-wide, non-reversionary basis for $600,000.00, inclusive of all fees and costs. The 19 Parties’ Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement 20 Agreement”) defines the class as “all persons employed by Defendant in California and classified 21 as hourly, non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant during the Class Period,” which is 22 the period from September 6, 2019 to the date of preliminary approval of the Settlement (“Class” 23 or “Class Members”). All 198 Class Members will receive a settlement payment unless they opt 24 out of the Class Settlement.

25 The proposed settlement reflected in the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and 26 adequate, and in the best interests of the Class. Consequently, Plaintiffs, with the consent of 27 Defendants, hereby move this Court for an order: (1) granting preliminary approval of the 28 proposed class action settlement, as embodied in the Settlement Agreement filed concurrently

1 herewith; (2) approving the Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court 2 Approval (“Class Notice”) to be sent to Class Members; and (3) setting a hearing for final 3 approval of the class action settlement.

4 II. STATUS OF THE LITIGATION

5 A. Procedural History

6 On September 6, 2023, Plaintiff Janowski filed a class action complaint against 7 Defendants alleging seven causes of actions: (1) Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Lab. Code §§ 8 204, 223, 226.7, 512 and 1198); (2) Failure to Provide Rest Periods (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 9 226.7 and 1198); (3) Failure to Pay Hourly Wages and Overtime (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 10 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198); (4) Failure to Provide Accurate Written Wage Statements (Lab.
11 Code §§ 226(a)); (5) Failure to Timely Pay All Final Wages (Lab. Code §§ 201, 202 and 203); (6) 12 Failure to Indemnify (Lab Code § 2802); and (7) Unfair Competition (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 13 17200 et seq.) (Declaration of Enoch J. Kim (“Kim Decl.”), filed concurrently herewith, ¶ 10.)
14 On November 9, 2023, Plaintiff Janowski filed her First Amended Complaint (“FAC”), adding a 15 claim for Civil Penalties under Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (Id.)

16 Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a), Plaintiff Janowski gave timely written 17 notice to Defendants and the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) by sending her 18 Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) Notice on September 6, 2023. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13.) Plaintiff 19 Janowski then sent a revised PAGA Notice to Defendants and the LWDA on September 14, 2023.
20 (Id.) The LWDA did not express an interest in investigating Plaintiff’s claims within the 65-day 21 period. (Id.) Therefore, on November 9, 2023, Plaintiff Janowski filed a First Amended Complaint 22 (“FAC”) adding a cause of action for Civil Penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

23 On May 14, 2024, pursuant to the Parties’ joint stipulation, Plaintiff Janowski filed a Second 24 Amended Complaint (“SAC” or the “Operative Complaint”), adding Plaintiff Webb-Turner as a 25 named Plaintiff and a single cause of action for Failure to Pay Proper Sick Pay under Labor Code
26 § 246. (Kim Decl., ¶ 14.) Subsequently, on May 14, 2024, Plaintiffs submitted an amended PAGA
27 Notice to the LWDA, adding Plaintiff Webb-Turner’s claims. (Id.) (Kim Decl., Exhibit 2.)

28 B. Investigation

1 Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel investigated and researched the facts and 2 circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and the law applicable thereto. (Kim Decl., ¶ 20.)
3 This required thorough discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiffs, as well 4 as preliminary research into the various legal issues involved in the case. (Id.) After conducting 5 their initial investigation, Class Counsel determined that Plaintiffs' claims were well-suited for 6 class and representative action adjudication owing to what appeared to be a common course of 7 conduct affecting a similarly situated group of employees. (Id.)

8 After filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and 9 claims giving rise to the action, including: (1) conducting informal and formal discovery and 10 meeting and conferring with defense counsel about the same; (2) reviewing and analyzing a 11 sampling of time and pay records as well as employment handbooks, Plaintiff Janowski's 12 personnel files, relevant policies and other documentation; (3) researching the applicable law and 13 potential defenses; (4) constructing damage models based on interpretations of California law; 14 and (5) reviewing information provided by Defendants at mediation. (Kim Decl., ¶ 21.) The Class 15 enumerated in this action is ascertainable because the Class Members may be readily identified 16 by reference to Defendants' records. (Id.) Defendants have agreed to share the information from 17 these records with the Settlement Administrator in order to identify and contact the Class 18 Members. Defendants have represented that there are approximately 198 total Class Members, 19 and approximately 131 Aggrieved Employees. (Id.)

20 Class Counsel's analysis was informed by a data sample produced by Defendants. The 21 number of employees analyzed by Class Counsel's expert is 173, which represents 87.37% of the 22 approximate total number of 198 Class Members. Accordingly, the data sample is statistically 23 reliable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 22; Gorlick Decl., ¶ 7.)

24 Defendants, for their part, vigorously contested liability, the amount of claimed damages, 25 and the propriety of class certification. (Kim Decl., ¶ 23.) After Class Counsel analyzed the 26 relevant documents and other gathered data, Class Counsel believed that this case was appropriate 27 for resolution via mediation. (Id.) Given the high level of risk present for both sides, the Parties 28 elected to mediate Plaintiffs' claims and explore the possibility of settlement. (Id.)

1 C. Settlement Efforts

2 On October 10, 2024, the Parties attended mediation with Jason Marsili, a respected and 3 highly experienced mediator in wage and hour class actions. (Kim Decl., ¶ 24.) During mediation, 4 Plaintiffs’ and Defendants’ counsel discussed all aspects of the case, including the risks of 5 litigation and the risks to both parties of proceeding with a motion for class certification as well as 6 the law relating to unpaid wages, meal periods, rest periods, wage statements, and final pay. (Id.)
7 As a result of the mediation, the Parties agreed to settle the lawsuit according to the terms set 8 forth in the Settlement Agreement. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1.)

9 From Class Counsel’s review of the strengths and weaknesses of the case and the risks 10 and delays posed by further litigation, Class Counsel believes that the Settlement is fair and 11 reasonable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 25.) Further, and based on the settlement negotiations, which were 12 extensive and conducted in good faith and at arm’s length between attorneys with substantial 13 experience litigating class actions and wage and hour cases, the Settlement Agreement was the 14 product of a non-collusive settlement process in which the Parties were forced to make significant 15 compromises in the interest of reaching a full and complete settlement of the lawsuit. (Id.)

16 III. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS

17 Under the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, Defendants have agreed to pay 18 $600,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount on a non-reversionary basis. (Kim Decl., ¶ 26; Exh.
19 1, §3.1.) The Settlement Agreement defines the “Class” as “all persons employed by Defendant in 20 California and classified as hourly, non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant during the 21 Class Period,” which is “the period from September 6, 2019, to the date the Court approves the 22 Preliminary Approval Motion.” (Kim Decl., ¶ 27, Exh. 1 §§ 1.5 and 1.12.). (Kim Decl., ¶ 21; Exh.
23 1, §1.5 and §1.12.) The “Net Settlement Amount,” available for distribution to Class Members, 24 shall be the Gross Settlement Amount, less the Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA
25 Payment, Class Representatives Service Payments, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel 26 Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28, Exh.
27 1, §1.28.). These amounts are detailed as follows:

- 28
 - Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than 33.3%, which is currently estimated

1 to be $200,000.00 and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more 2 than $25,000.00; (Kim Decl., ¶ 28; Exh. 1, §3.2.2);

- 3 • Administration Expenses Payment of not more than $8,500.00; (Kim Decl., ¶ 28; 4 Exh. 1, §3.2.3);
- 5 • Class Representative Service Payments of not more than $7,500.00 to each Class 6 Representative; and (Kim Decl., ¶ 28; Exh. 1, §3.2.1);
- 7 • PAGA Penalties in the amount of $30,000.00 for civil penalties under PAGA, with 8 75% ($22,500.00) paid to the LWDA for the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25%
9 ($7,500.00) paid to Aggrieved Employees for their Individual PAGA Payments.
10 (Kim Decl., ¶ 28; Exh. 1, §3.2.5.)

11 Defendants shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts 12 necessary to fully pay Defendant's share of payroll taxes in two installments. (Kim Decl., ¶ 26; 13 Exh. 1, § 4.3.) The two payments, totaling the Gross Settlement Amount, shall be made as 14 follows:

- 15 • The first installment payment in the amount of $350,000.00 shall be made 30 days 16 after the Court grants Final Approval of the Settlement;
- 17 • The second installment in the amount of $250,000.00 shall be made 90 days after 18 the first installment. (Kim Decl., ¶ 26; Exh. 1, § 4.3.)

19 The "Individual Class Payment" is each Participating Class Member's pro rata share of 20 the Net Settlement Amount calculated according to the number of Workweeks worked during the 21 Class Period. (Kim Decl., ¶ 29; Exh. 1, §1.23.) Using a straight average and assuming they 22 worked throughout the Class Period, Plaintiff estimates that each Class Member will receive an 23 average of $1,623.73 for their Individual Class Payment. (Kim Decl., ¶ 65.) The "Individual 24 PAGA Payment" means the Aggrieved Employee's pro rata share of 25% of the PAGA Penalties 25 calculated according to the number of Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period. (Kim Decl., 26 ¶ 30; Exh. 1, §1.24.)

27 Defendants will pay their employer-side payroll tax obligations on the Wage Portion of 28 the Individual Class Payments in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Kim Dec., ¶ 31.Exh.

1 1, §3.1.) 20% of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to 2 settlement of wage claims (the “Wage Portion”), and are subject to tax withholding and will be 3 reported on an IRS W-2 Form. (Id., Exh. 1, § 3.2.4.1.) The remaining 80% will be allocated to 4 settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the “Non-Wage Portion”). (Id., Exh. 1, § 3.2.4.1.)

5 Class Members will receive the Class Notice via first class mail (after the Settlement 6 Administrator conducts a national change of address search). (Kim Decl., ¶ 33; Exh. 1, §7.4.2.) If 7 the Class Notice is returned as non-deliverable on or before the Response Deadline and a new 8 address is obtained by way of a returned Class Notice, then the Settlement Administrator will 9 promptly forward the original Class Notice to the updated address via first-class regular U.S. mail, 10 indicating on the original packet the date of such re-mailing. (Exh. 1, § 7.4.2.) Class Members will 11 have an opportunity to dispute the Workweeks and PAGA Pay Period information provided in their 12 Class Notice and produce evidence to support their contentions. (Kim Decl., ¶ 34; Exh. 1, § 7.6)
13 The Settlement Administrator will make the final determination as to any disputes involving Class 14 Members’ allocation of Workweeks and Pay Periods. (Id.)

15 Class Members wishing to opt out from the Settlement Agreement must send a signed 16 written request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator within 60 days from the initial 17 mailing of the Class Notice. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28; Exh. 1, §7.5.1.) Participating Class Members will 18 also have the opportunity to object to the Settlement Agreement by serving a copy of the 19 objection to the Settlement Administrator within 45 days after the mailing of the Class Notice
20 (Id.; Exh. 1, §7.7.2.)

21 The Parties have also selected Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions
22 (“Phoenix”) to handle the notice and administration of the Settlement. (Kim Decl., Exh. 1, § 7.1.) 23 Phoenix has procedures in place to protect the security of class data, adequate insurance in the 24 event of a data breach or defalcation of funds, and is qualified to administer the Settlement. (Kim 25 Decl., Exh. 3; see also Lawrence Decl.) The procedures for mailing notice and processing 26 exclusions and objections as well as distribution of the Net Settlement Amount are detailed in the 27 Settlement Agreement. (Kim Decl., Exh. 1, §§ 7, 7.1-7.8.5.)
28

1 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY IS APPROPRIATE

2 Express judicial policy favors maintaining wage and hour actions as class actions. (Prince 3 v. CLS Transp., Inc. (2004) 118 Cal. App. 4th 1320, 1328; Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc.
4 (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved 5 in favor of class certification, subject to later modification if necessary. (Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 6 473-75.) The decision to certify a class is a procedural one, and should be based on the allegations 7 in the operative complaint, and not in the perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims.
8 (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-41.)

9 To certify a settlement class, the Court must find the two primary requirements for 10 maintaining a class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class, and (2) there must be a well-11 defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involving the parties to be 12 represented. (See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal. 3d 800, 805-09; Daar v. Yellow Cab 13 Company (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704.) These criteria are met here for the reasons set forth below.

14 A. There Is A Numerous and Ascertainable Class

15 Whether a class is ascertainable is determined by examining the class definition, the size 16 of the class and the means available for identifying class members. (See Vasquez, supra, 4 Cal. 3d 17 at 821-22; Reyes v. Board of Supervisors of San Diego County (1987) 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 18 1271.) Class members are “ascertainable” where they may be readily identified without 19 unreasonable expense or time. See Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal. App. 3d 926, 932 (1981) 20 (finding that “class members are ‘ascertainable’ where they may be readily identified without 21 unreasonable expense or time by reference to official records).

22 Plaintiffs contend, and Defendants do not dispute for settlement purposes only, this 23 requirement and the requirement of numerosity is met. Class Members are “all persons employed 24 by Defendant in California and classified as hourly, non-exempt employees who worked for 25 Defendant during the Class Period,” which is the period from September 6, 2019, to the date the 26 Court approves the Preliminary Approval Motion”. (Kim Decl., ¶ 82(a).) Documents and 27 information exchanged between the Parties reflect a class of approximately 198 Class Members.
28 (Kim Decl., ¶ 82(a).) The Class Members have already been identified by reference to

1 Defendant's payroll and personnel records. (Kim Decl., ¶ 82(b).)

2 Therefore, and notwithstanding the foregoing, there is a numerous and ascertainable class.

3 B. There Is A Well-Defined Community of Interest

4 A community of interest is established by the predominance of common issues of law and 5 fact. See Vasquez, 4 Cal. 3d at 811. The requirement of a community of interest:

6 [D]oes not depend upon an identical recovery, and the fact that each 7 member of the class must prove his separate claim to a portion of any 8 recovery by the class is only one factor to be considered ... The mere 9 fact that separate transactions are involved does not of itself preclude 10 a finding of the requisite community of interest so long as every 11 member of the alleged class would not be required to litigate 12 numerous and substantial questions to determine his individual right 13 to recover subsequent to the rendering of any class judgment which 14 determined in plaintiff's favor whatever questions were common to 15 the class.

16 Id. at 809.

17 Plaintiffs contend, and Defendants do not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 18 common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims alleged by Plaintiffs, and the 19 Class is united in its proof. (Kim Decl., ¶ 82(e).) Because Plaintiffs have alleged a single scheme, 20 "the relevant proof [does] not vary among class members" and "clearly presents a common 21 question fundamental to all class members." (See In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust 22 Litigation (SDNY 1997) 172 F.R.D. 119, 123 (citing In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust 23 Litigation, (SDNY 1997) 169 F.R.D. 493, 518).) California courts show "no hesitancy" in 24 inferring class-wide causation, class-wide injury, and class-wide damages when a common course 25 of action has been shown. (B.W.I. Custom Kitchen, 191 Cal. App. 3d at 1350.) This inference 26 "eliminates the need for each class member to prove individually the consequences of the 27 defendants' actions to him or her." (Id. at 1351 (quoting Rosack v. Volvo of America Corp (1982) 28 131 Cal. App. 3d 741, 753 [emphasis added]).)

29 This action involves, inter alia, a determination about Defendants' alleged failure to 30 provide meal and rest periods, failure to pay minimum and overtime wages due to allegedly 31 common and unlawful policies, failure to pay proper sick pay, failure to pay final wages when 32 required, failure to provide accurate written wage statements, failure to indemnify for business

1 expenses, and largely derivative claims under the Business & Professions Code and PAGA. (Kim 2 Decl., ¶ 82(e)). Plaintiffs contend these practices affected Class Members in the same way. (Id.)

3 C. The Named Plaintiffs' Claims Are Typical

4 A class representative's claims are typical when they arise from the same event, practice, 5 or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their 6 claims rest on the same legal theories. The class representative's claims must be "typical" but not 7 necessarily identical to the claims of other class members. It is sufficient that the representative is 8 similarly situated so that he or she will have the motive to litigate on behalf of all class members.
9 (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom Kitchens v. Owens-Illinois, Inc.
10 (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 ("[I]t has never been the law in California that the class 11 representative must have identical interests with the class members.") Thus it is not necessary that 12 the class representative should have personally incurred all of the damages suffered by each of the 13 other class members. (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228.)

14 Plaintiffs contend, and Defendants do not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 15 Plaintiffs' claims are typical of Class Members' claims because they arose from the same factual 16 basis and are based on the same legal theories. (Kim Decl., ¶ 82(c).) Plaintiffs were employed by 17 Defendants during the Class Period and subject to the allegedly unlawful meal and rest break 18 policies and pay practices at issue in this litigation. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiffs are members of 19 the Class. (Id.) The central issues of this litigation (whether Defendant failed to pay all wages, 20 whether Defendant failed to provide meal and rest periods, etc.) which would arise if this were an 21 individual action brought by Plaintiffs, apply to the other Class Members as well. (Id.) Thus, the 22 claims of Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the Class. (Id.)

23 D. Adequacy of Class Counsel and Class Representatives

24 Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, have represented their clients zealously 25 and have no conflicts of interest. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 3-9, 82(d).) The Class Representatives' interests 26 are aligned with those of Class Members, they have suffered the same injuries as Class Members, 27 and have no conflicts of interest. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel and the Class Representatives are 28 adequate.

1 E. Predominance and Superiority

2 Individual issues do not predominate over those common to the class. (Kim Decl., ¶82(f).)

3 The class action mechanism is superior to individualized actions because Class Members have 4 little incentive to bring claims that are small. (Id.)

5 V. THE TWO-STEP APPROVAL PROCESS

6 Any settlement of class action litigation must be reviewed and approved by the Court.

7 This is accomplished in two steps: (1) An early (preliminary) review by the trial court, and (2) a 8 detailed review after the notice has been distributed to the class members for their comments or 9 objections. In this regard, the Manual for Complex Litigation (Second) explains:

10 A two-step process is followed when considering class settlements...
11 If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, 12 informed, non-collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, 13 does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class 14 representative or segments of the class, and falls within the range of possible approval, then the court should direct that notice be given to the class members of a formal fairness hearing, at which evidence may be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement.

15 (Manual for Complex Litigation (Second) (1985) at § 30.44.) The preliminary approval of the 16 class action settlement by the trial court is simply a conditional finding that the settlement appears 17 to be within the range of acceptable settlements. (See, e.g., Newberg, § 11.25; North County 18 Contractor's Assn., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Services (1994) 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1094-95.)
19 Thus, the preliminary approval of the class action settlement by the trial court is simply a 20 conditional finding that the settlement appears to be within the range of acceptable settlements.

21 Settlements to resolve PAGA claims also require court approval. (Labor Code § 22 2699(1)(2).) There is no articulated standard for approving PAGA settlements. PAGA settlements 23 for as little as $0 have been approved. (See Nordstrom Com'n Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 24 589 (approving PAGA settlement and release that allocated $0 to PAGA claim).) Courts have 25 also approved settlements for $20,000 or less. (See, e.g., Hicks v. Toys 'R' Us-Delaware, Inc., 26 (C.D. Cal. Sept. 2, 2014) 2014 WL 4703915, at *1 (approving $5,000 PAGA payment in $4 27 million settlement); Chu v. Wells Fargo Invest. LLC (N.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 WL 672645, 28 at *1 (approving PAGA payment of $7,500 in $6.9 million settlement); Williams v. Brinderson

1 Constructors (C.D. Cal. Feb. 6, 2017) 2017 WL 490901, at *5 ($10,000 PAGA settlement in 2 $300,000 settlement).)

3 A review of the preliminary approval criteria demonstrates a substantial basis for granting 4 the instant Motion and proceeding to a final settlement approval hearing.

5 VI. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND ADEQUATE

6 As a matter of public policy, courts both encourage the use of the class action device and 7 favor settlement over continued litigation. (See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 8 429, 434 (“Courts have long acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent 9 a failure of justice in our judicial system.”); Class Plaintiff v. City of Seattle (1992) 955 F.2d 10 1268, 1276 (“[S]trong judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where complex class 11 action litigation is concerned.”).)

12 Moreover, courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a 13 settlement unless evidence to the contrary is offered. In short, there is a presumption that the 14 negotiations were conducted in good faith. (Newberg, §11.51; Rodriguez v. West Publ. Corp.
15 (C.D. Cal. August 10, 2007) 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74767, 24-25 ; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir.
16 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447.) Courts do not substitute their judgment for that of the proponents, 17 particularly when settlement has been reached by experienced counsel familiar with the litigation.
18 (Rodriguez, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74767 at 24; Hammon v. Barry (D.D.C. 1990) 752 F. Supp.
19 1087.)

20 In Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 128 (2008), the court laid out 21 several factors that should be analyzed in determining if a class action settlement should be 22 approved. These factors include: (1) the strength of plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, 23 complexity and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status 24 through trial; (4) the amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and 25 stage of the proceedings; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) the presence of a 26 governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of the Class Members to the proposed settlement.

27 The Settlement here satisfies each of these factors. Class Counsel conducted extensive 28

1 informal discovery before entering into meaningful settlement negotiations in this matter, 2 including a detailed analysis of Defendant's policies and a considerable sample of Defendant's 3 time and pay records. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 20-24.) This discovery permitted Class Counsel to fairly 4 evaluate the strengths of the case and the risks associated with ongoing litigation. Class Counsel 5 is very experienced in the handling of wage and hour class actions and supports this Settlement.
6 (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 3-9.)

7 A. The Strength of Plaintiffs' Case.

8 Plaintiffs allege that Defendants failed to pay minimum wages and overtime, failed to 9 provide proper meal breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof, failed to provide proper rest 10 breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof, failed to provide proper sick pay, failed to provide 11 accurate wage statements, failed to timely pay all wages upon termination, and failed to 12 reimburse necessary business expenses. (Kim Decl., ¶ 25.) Plaintiffs seek related violations of 13 California's Business & Professions Code, and penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 et seq.
14 (Id.)

15 Class Counsel felt confident that the claims in this case would be certified given that 16 Defendants' policies were applicable to all Class Members and unlawful. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 36-59.)
17 Defendants contended, however, that their policies complied with California law and denied 18 Plaintiffs' allegations.

19 B. The Risks Associated with the Merits.

20 As with all litigation, there are risks that a party will not prevail on the merits. In this case, 21 Plaintiffs contended that Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members proper minimum 22 wages for all hours worked and proper overtime wages for hours worked in excess of eight hours 23 in a day and 40 hours a week, and implemented an unlawful time-rounding policy and practice.
24 (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 40-42.) Specifically, Plaintiffs contend that Defendants required Plaintiffs and 25 Class Members to carry out work-related duties prior to and after the end of their shifts. (Id.) 26 Furthermore, Plaintiffs allege that Defendants failed to pay Class Members at the applicable and 27 proper regular rates of pay for overtime wages. (Id.) Defendants contend that they paid for all 28 reported hours worked, that Class Members were trained to record all hours worked, and that they

1 paid proper minimum and overtime wages, and that the allegations regarding failure to pay wages
2 for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a day did not constitute a basis for violation of Labor 3 Code § 510. (Id.) Given the difficulty in certifying this claim, Class Counsel had to apply a 4 significant discount to damages based on this theory. (Id.)

5 Plaintiffs also contended that Defendants did not provide timely and uninterrupted meal 6 breaks to Class Members, and failed to pay premium wages at applicable regular rates of pay in 7 lieu thereof. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 43-46.) Specifically, Plaintiffs contended that meal periods were 8 systematically interrupted by work duties, including, but not limited to, having to keep and 9 maintain their personal cellular phones during meal periods for work-related purposes. (Id.)
10 Defendants disagreed with Class Counsel's interpretation of the law and facts. (Id.) Defendants 11 contended that Class Members were given a reasonable opportunity to take their meal periods, 12 and in fact received their meal periods most of the time. (Id.) Defendants argued they have a high 13 meal period compliance rate. (Id.) Given Defendants' defenses and potential hurdles facing 14 certification of this claim, Class Counsel had to apply a significant discount on this theory. (Id.)

15 Plaintiffs also contended that the same argument applied to rest breaks. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 47-16 49.) Plaintiffs contended that Defendants did not provide Class Members with paid 10-minute rest 17 breaks for every four hours or major fraction thereof. (Id.) Class Members consistently worked in 18 excess of consecutive four-hour shifts and were entitled to paid rest breaks of not less than ten 19 minutes for each consecutive four-hour shift which they were denied. (Id.) Specifically, due to 20 excessive workload, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to maintain and monitor their 21 cellular phones during rest breaks for work-related purposes. (Id.) Defendants maintained that 22 they did provide the reasonable opportunity for Class Members to take duty-free rest breaks.
23 Defendants also pointed out that, unlike meal periods, rest breaks need not be recorded, so any 24 rest break violations would likely be difficult to prove at trial. Defendants dispute all allegations 25 that breaks were not received. As these considerations would likely depress the damages vel non 26 ultimately awarded, Class Counsel applied significant and appropriate discounts to the rest-break 27 claim. (Id.)

28 Plaintiffs also contended that in the course of performing their job duties, Class Members

1 incurred necessary business-related expense. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 57-58.) Specifically, Defendants 2 required Plaintiffs and Class Members to purchase cellular phones, and cellular phone service for 3 work related purposes. (Id.) Additionally, Plaintiffs and Class Members were required to purchase 4 supplies, obtain Internet service and use their personal computers in order to be able to work from 5 home. (Id.) Plaintiffs allege, however, that Plaintiffs and Class Members were not reimbursed for 6 those business-related expenses. (Id.) Class Counsel believes it would be difficult to recover on 7 this claim because Defendants maintain they did not require Class Members to incur the 8 necessary business expenses. (Id.) Thus, Class Counsel provided significant and appropriate 9 discounts to the unreimbursed business expenses claim. (Id.)

10 C. The Risks Associated with Paystub Violations and Waiting Time Penalties.

11 In order to establish liability for these penalties, Plaintiffs would first have to establish 12 liability for the underlying claims. Plaintiffs would then have to establish that Defendant's 13 conduct was willful and knowing. (Labor Code §§ 203, 226(e).)

14 With waiting time penalties, there is always the risk that the trier of fact would not have 15 held that Defendant's actions were done "willfully." A good faith belief in a legal defense can 16 preclude a finding of willfulness. (Gonzalez v. Downtown LA Motors (2013) 215 Cal.App.4th 36, 17 54; 8 C.C.R. § 13520.) As discussed above, Plaintiffs allege that Defendants failed to pay for all 18 hours worked and premiums for non-compliant meal breaks due to the underreporting of hours 19 and off the clock work. Plaintiffs contend the Class Members are entitled to these wages and 20 premiums, which they allege were not paid at the time of their termination or resignation. If 21 Plaintiffs are successful on their claims, the penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 shall attach.
22 Defendants, however, contend they provided employees with the reasonable opportunity to take 23 meal breaks, asked Class Members to confirm the accuracy of their time records, and therefore 24 had good-faith defenses under Brinker and its progeny. Defendants likewise contend that it 25 properly paid all hours worked by its employees. Based upon Defendants' potential success in 26 establishing both that a good faith dispute existed with regard to unpaid wages, and Defendants 27 endeavored in good faith to supply accurate wage statements, Defendants argue the claims for 28 paystub violations and waiting time penalties have little or no value. See Maldonado v. Epsilon

1 Plastics, Inc., 22 Cal. App. 5th 1308, 1336-1337 (2018) (wage statements that accurately report 2 wages paid to employees do not violate Labor Code § 226, even if it is later determined that 3 employer did not properly pay all wages due). As such, there was risk associated with wage 4 statement and waiting time penalties that Class Counsel had to consider. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 50-56.)

5 D. The Risks Associated with the PAGA Penalties.

6 Labor Code § 2699.3 gives aggrieved employees the right to recover civil penalties for 7 specific Labor Code violations by way of a civil action. The PAGA provides a penalty amount of 8 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 9 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 10 violation. Labor Code § 2699(e)(2). However, if a civil penalty is provided in a specified amount 11 by the Labor Code section relating to the underlying alleged Labor Code violation, that amount 12 shall apply. (Id.) The PAGA also gives the Court discretion to award any lesser amount than the 13 maximum civil penalty. (Id. [“...a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil 14 penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular 15 case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 16 confiscatory.”]); See, e.g., Lopez v. Friant & Assocs., LLC, 15 Cal. App. 5th 773, 788 (2017), rev.
17 denied (2018), (recognizing court’s ability to reduce PAGA penalties). Courts have held that 18 situations similar to the current one (e.g. injuryless violations, technical errors, and substantial 19 compliance) should lead to reductions in penalties. See Thurman v. Bayshore Transit 20 Management, Inc., 203 Cal. App. 4th 1112, 1134-1135 (2012) (holding that reduction was 21 justified when employer “attempted to comply with the law”); Fleming v. Covdien, Inc., No. ED 22 CV10-01487 RGK (OPx), 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 154590 at *8-9 (C.D. Cal. August 12, 2011)
23 (reducing PAGA penalties more than 80% – from $2.8 million to $500,000 – when “employees 24 suffered no injury” employers were “not aware” of the violation and “took prompt steps to correct 25 all violations once notified”).

26 Plaintiffs discounted potential penalties under this claim given this authority, and for 27 reasons already discussed. The PAGA claims are premised on the same underlying unpaid wages, 28 meal and rest break, wage statement, and waiting time claims, and thus subject to the same

1 disputes and defenses. There is also a dispute as to whether violations in later pay periods trigger
2 the $200 penalty under PAGA as a “subsequent violation.” (Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163
3 Cal. App. 4th 1157, 1203 (2008).) As such, there is a fair amount of risk associated with PAGA 4 claims makes the settlement’s proposed PAGA payment of $30,000 appropriate. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 5 50-53.)

6 E. The Risk, Expense, Complexity and Likely Duration of Any Litigation.

7 Given the risks outlined above, the issues in this case were complex and the risk for 8 Plaintiffs and Class Members associated with this litigation was significant. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 66-9 69.) A class trial would have required the retention of expensive expert witnesses, the accrual of 10 extensive litigation costs, and the parties would have had to spend a substantial amount of time 11 litigating this matter. (Id.)

12 Finally, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues, it is likely that any 13 outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal would result in 14 further delay for Class Members who will have already waited considerable time for resolution in 15 this matter.

16 F. The Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status Through Trial.

17 In class actions, decertification is always a possibility. There is always a risk that a trial of 18 this magnitude can become unmanageable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 66-69.) Given cases like Duran v. U.S.
19 Bank Nat. Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1, 34 (2014) that deal with the complexity of using statistical 20 samples in class actions, decertification is a real risk that Class Counsel must take into account.

21 G. The Amount Offered in Settlement.

22 There can be no doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-23 collusive, and arms-length negotiations between the parties with an experienced mediator. In 24 order to determine the approximate potential damages which would be owed to each of the Class 25 Members, Class Counsel analyzed the time records for Plaintiffs and Defendant provided Class 26 Counsel with records for a sampling of Class Members. By analyzing this information, Class 27 Counsel was able to estimate the full value of the case if Plaintiffs were to prevail at trial. (Kim 28 Decl., ¶¶ 20-25.)

1 Based on the data provided, Class Counsel estimated the realistic exposure on the primary 2 claims in this case as follows: unpaid wage claim at $30,020.42 (minimum and overtime wage 3 claims), meal period claim at $300,786.04, rest period claim at $172,766.75, wage statement 4 claim at $68,460.00, waiting time penalties at $121,689.29, reimbursement of business expenses 5 claim at $34,210.00, and on PAGA at $34,820.00, for a total realistic maximum exposure of 6 $762,752.28. (Kim Decl., ¶ 38.)

7 The Gross Settlement Amount of $600,000.00 represents a recovery for the Class of 8 approximately 78% of the total realistic exposure Plaintiffs estimated that Defendants could face 9 on the primary claims in this case. (Kim Decl., ¶ 65.) Plaintiffs and Class Counsel submit that this 10 is an excellent result in the face of uncertainty and the prospects of protracted and contested 11 litigation through class certification, summary judgment, and trial, and particularly in light of all 12 of the factors described above. (Id.)

13 Class Counsel believes that the settlement is fair and reasonable and serves the best 14 interests of Class Members. Although the recommendations of counsel proposing the class 15 settlement are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the recommendations into account, 16 particularly if counsel has been involved in litigation for some period of time, appear to be 17 competent, and have experience with this type of litigation, and significant discovery has been 18 completed. See Newberg, §11.47.

19 VII. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS FAIR AND 20 REASONABLE

21 It is appropriate to provide a relatively modest additional incentive payment to the class 22 representative. See Newberg, § 12.1; Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901
23 F.Supp. 294.

24 Plaintiffs are entitled to a reasonable service payment for their efforts and initiative in 25 bringing and helping to prosecute this class action. (Kim Decl., ¶ 77.) Plaintiffs spent significant 26 time better apprising themselves of their rights, deciding whether remedial action should be taken, 27 how it should be taken, searching for attorneys, and contacting Class Counsel, who spent many 28 hours with Plaintiffs discussing the case and the law. (Id.) In the end, Plaintiffs decided to

1 vindicate not only their own rights but also those of their co-workers by filing a class action
2 lawsuit. (Id.)

3 The courage it took to stand up to Defendants by filing and litigating this action in this 4 way should not be underestimated. (Kim Decl., ¶ 78.) By suing Defendants, Plaintiffs increased 5 the risk of retaliation by prospective employers. (Id.) But Plaintiffs did not allow their fear of the 6 potential repercussions of being a class representative deter them from acting for the benefit of 7 Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 79.) To the contrary, Plaintiffs have been intimately involved in 8 this case since its inception. (Id.) They have devoted a substantial amount of time to helping Class 9 Counsel effectively develop and prosecute this action at every stage of the litigation. (Id.) Both 10 before and after the filing of this lawsuit, Plaintiffs conferred with Class Counsel on numerous 11 occasions to discuss every aspect of their case. (Id.) Plaintiffs provided Class Counsel with 12 information about Defendants and about the industry generally, reviewed documents, identified 13 witnesses, consulted Class Counsel throughout the litigation repeatedly and at length, participated 14 in the mediation process, monitored the progress of the litigation with Class Counsel, and 15 reviewed and signed the Settlement Agreement. (Id.)

16 In sum, Plaintiffs have diligently, adequately, and fairly represented Class Members, and 17 have not placed their interests above any member of the putative class. (Kim Decl., ¶ 80.) This 18 sort of payment to a class representative has been a common feature of settlements negotiated by 19 Class Counsel and has been routinely approved by trial courts. (Id.)

20 The Settlement allocates an incentive award in the amount of $7,500.00 to each Class 21 Representative. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28.) This amount is a far cry from the $50,000 of enhancement 22 awards to the two named plaintiffs approved by the trial court in Clark. See Clark Clark v.
23 American Residential Services, LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th at 807. Although Class Counsel 24 appreciate that the Court has a duty to ensure that class representatives are not overcompensated 25 at the expense of the class, modest incentive awards in employment class actions, such as the one 26 here, are necessary not only to compensate class representatives for the time they spend in the 27 case, but also, and more importantly, to encourage aggrieved employees to challenge questionable 28 employment practices notwithstanding the very real consequences they may face.

1 In light of the foregoing, Class Counsel believes that the incentive award in the amount of 2 $7,500.00 to each Class Representative is fair and reasonable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 81.)

3 VIII. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE PROVIDES ADEQUATE NOTICE TO THE 4 CLASS MEMBERS.

5 Constitutional due process requires that class members be provided with notice sufficient 6 to give them an opportunity to be heard in the proceedings. Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank &
7 Trust Co. (1950) 339 U.S. 306. Proper notice must provide the class members with sufficient 8 information to make an informed decision as to whether to accept or object to the settlement. (Id.
9 at 314.) The notice must apprise the class members of the pendency of the action; reasonably 10 convey information regarding the settlement and the class members' rights, entitlements, and 11 obligations; and afford class members the opportunity to present their objections. (Id.)

12 The Class Notice meets constitutional standards because it provides all the information a 13 reasonable person would need to make a fully informed decision about the settlement. It will 14 notify all class members of the terms of the settlement, of its effect on their rights, of their options 15 as class members (i.e., participate, object, opt out, do nothing), and of the consequences of 16 exercising those options. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 70-72.) Moreover, the Class Notice will specifically 17 direct any Class Members who have questions or concerns to contact the Settlement
18 Administrator or Class Counsel. (Id.)

19 The standard for determining the adequacy of notice is whether the notice has "a 20 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members." (Cartt v. Superior 21 Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 974.) The Judicial Council of California's Deskbook on the 22 Management of Complex Civil Litigation (Matthew Bender 2003), § 3.74 notes that individual 23 notice by mail is preferred when possible and dissemination of combined certification/settlement 24 notice is a common and accepted practice. (In re Vitamin Cases (2003) 107 Cal.App.4th 820, 25 828.)

26 Here, the Class Notice will be sent via first-class mail to each Class Member. (Kim Decl., 27 ¶¶ 33, 70.) If any Class Notices are returned undeliverable without a forwarding address, the 28 Settlement Administrator will use the national change of address database and perform a skip

1 trace to locate the Class Member and mail a new Class Notice to him or her at the correct address.
2 (Id.) Thus, most, if not all, Class Members will likely receive the Class Notice.

3 Pursuant to controlling authority, the proposed Class Notice and method of distribution 4 fully comport with due process requirements. Therefore, the Court should approve the Class 5 Notice and direct that it be distributed as proposed herein.

6 IX. STANDING TO OBJECT TO PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

7 Non-settling parties and third parties periodically may attempt to object to proposed class 8 action settlements, but the right of non-settling parties to object at the final settlement approval 9 hearing, let alone the preliminary approval hearing, is quite limited. As a general rule, only class 10 members have standing to object to a proposed settlement. “Beginning from the unassailable 11 premise that settlements are to be encouraged, it follows that to routinely allow non-class 12 members to inject their concerns via objection at the settlement stage would tend to frustrate this 13 goal.” (Gould v. Alleco, Inc. (4th Cir. 1998) 883 F.2d 281, 284.) Since an application is being 14 filed to obtain a good faith determination, no persons other than class members have standing to 15 object to the proposed settlement. (In re School Asbestos Litigation (3rd Cir. 1990) 921 F.2d 16 1330.)

17 X. THE STIPULATED AWARD OF ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND COSTS IS 18 REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

19 Under the Settlement Agreement, subject to approval by this Court, Class Counsel will 20 seek an award of fees of no more than $200,000.00, one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, 21 and actual reasonable litigation costs in an amount not to exceed $25,000.00. (Kim Decl. ¶ 74.)
22 The requested fees are fair compensation for a law firm involved in undertaking complex, risky, 23 expensive, and time-consuming litigation solely on a contingent basis. (Kim Decl. ¶¶ 74-75.)
24 Defendants will not oppose Class Counsel’s above fees and cost request. (Kim Decl. ¶ 74.)

25 Here, Class Counsel has borne the entire risk and costs of litigation and will not receive 26 any compensation until recovery is obtained. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 74-76.) The Court should also 27 consider the benefit obtained by Class Counsel on behalf of Class Members. Thus, the requested 28 award for Class Counsel is reasonable.
