Attorneys for Plaintiff and the State of California

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

DECHENG LI, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

JINGDONG LOGISTICS UNITED STATES
COMPANY, a Delaware Corporation; and DOES 1-50, inclusive.

Defendants.

CASE NO.: 26STCV26385

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

(1) CIVIL PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL
ACT (LABOR CODE § 2698 et seq.)

UNLIMITED CIVIL CASE

1 Plaintiff Decheng Li (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated 2 aggrieved employees, alleges and complains of Defendant Jingdong Logistics United States
3 Company (“Defendant”) and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively, “Defendants”) and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Defendant operates a significant, technology-driven warehousing and distribution
6 network in the United States, designed for cross-border e-commerce, warehousing, and last-mile 7 delivery.

8 2. Plaintiff brings this PAGA representative action solely on behalf of the State of 9 California against Defendant for alleged violations of the California Labor Code.

10 3. Plaintiff does not seek to recover anything other than penalties as permitted by 11 California Labor Code § 2699.

12 4. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked 13 due to its failure to record and pay for all time worked off the clock. Plaintiff further alleges that 14 Defendant failed to pay all overtime and sick pay compensation at the proper legal rates by failing to 15 properly calculate the “regular rate of pay.” Moreover, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s meal and 16 rest period policies and practices failed to allow and permit aggrieved employees to take all compliant 17 and timely meal and rest periods or pay premium wages at the “regular rate of pay” in lieu thereof.
18 Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to provide aggrieved employees with accurate written 19 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226(a), failed to reimburse all necessary 20 business expenses incurred, and failed to timely pay all final wages upon separation of employment 21 in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203.

22 JURISDICTION

23 5. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California, brings this representative action pursuant 24 to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., seeking penalties for Defendant’s violation of California Labor Code 25 §§ 201-203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226(a)(6), 226(e), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 516, 1194, 26 1197.1, 1199, 2802-2804, and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage 27 Orders”).

28 6. Based upon the foregoing, Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees are aggrieved

1 employees within the meaning of Labor Code §2699, et seq.

2 7. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, 3 Defendant has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves
4 to the State of California so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by California courts 5 consistent with the traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6 VENUE

7 8. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure 8 §§ 395(a) and 395.5, as most of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in the County 9 of Los Angeles. Defendant owns, maintains offices, transacts business, has an agent or agents within 10 the County of Los Angeles, and/or otherwise are found within the County of Los Angeles, and 11 Defendant is within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

12 PARTIES

13 9. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, who is over 18, was and currently is a California 14 resident residing in the State of California.

15 10. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and alleges that Defendants are authorized to do 16 business within the County of Los Angeles and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the 17 aggrieved employees during the applicable statutory periods. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of 18 Defendants' policies and/or practices complained of herein and has been deprived of the rights 19 guaranteed to him by California Labor Code §§ 201-203, 204, 210, 226, 226(a), 226(e), 226.3, 226.7, 20 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 516, 1194, 1197.1, 1199, 2802-2804, and the California Business and 21 Professions Code § 17200 et seq., and applicable Wage Orders.

22 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the four years 23 preceding the filing of the Complaint and continuing to the present, Defendants did (and continue to 24 do) business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

25 12. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 26 corporate, of the Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said 27 Defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 28 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, and

1 believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious Defendants, whether individual, partners, or 2 corporate, were responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, and 3 proximately caused Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees to be subject to the unlawful employment 4 practices alleged herein.

5 13. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned 6 herein, Defendants were and are the employers of Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees. At all times 7 herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of the acts hereinafter alleged to 8 have been done by the named Defendants. Furthermore, the Defendants, and each of them, were the 9 agents, servants, and employees of each and every one of the other Defendants, as well as the agents 10 of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting within the course and scope of said 11 agency and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, and/or otherwise 12 ratified each and every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein.

13 14. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of and 14 engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise and acting within the course and 15 scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, Plaintiff 16 alleges that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and all aggrieved 17 employees.

18 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

19 15. Defendant operates a significant, technology-driven warehousing and distribution
20 network in the United States, designed for cross-border e-commerce, warehousing, and last-mile 21 delivery.

22 16. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in the role of 23 “Operator/Team leader” from August 8, 2025 to March 13, 2026. Based in Fontana, California, 24 Plaintiff was responsible for a variety of tasks, including, but not limited to, inventory stocktaking, 25 conducting inventory checks for the Skyworth project team, and preparing JDL 2 warehouse data 26 reports.

27 17. Alongside Plaintiff, other aggrieved employees, including but not limited to Logistics 28 Supervisor, Operator/Team leader, Warehouse Supervisor, Warehouse Lead, and Inventory

1 Associate, played a critical role in supporting Defendant's daily operations and overall success across 2 California.

3 18. Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were responsible for a wide range of tasks 4 critical to Defendant's operations, such as shipping, inventory, warehousing, distribution, and overall 5 logistics services. Their work ensured the effective operation of Defendant's assets. Despite the 6 essential nature of their contributions, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees allege that Defendant 7 failed to comply with the California Labor Code, including but not limited to proper wage payment 8 and provision of meal and rest periods, as set forth below.

9 19. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees regularly worked 10 various shifts, many of which were more than 8.0 hours in a workday and 40.0 hours in a workweek.
11 Plaintiff alleges that other aggrieved employees were also subjected to the same policies, procedures, 12 practices, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations to which he was subjected 13 during his employment.

14 20. First, at all relevant times, Defendant has consistently failed to accurately record and 15 pay for all time worked, including the time aggrieved employees were under the employer's control.
16 This included a policy and practice of failing to properly record the time worked by aggrieved 17 employees, including all time spent working off the clock. As a result of this company-wide 18 policy/practice, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees are not compensated for all the hours that 19 they work and all of the overtime hours they work, in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 20 1194, 1197.1, 1199, and applicable Wage Orders.

21 21. As a result, over a period of time, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were not 22 properly paid for all hours worked in violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 1194, 1197.1, 1199, 23 and applicable Wage Orders. Additionally, due to the unlawful timekeeping policy/practices, Plaintiff 24 and other aggrieved employees were not properly paid at the correct overtime rate for hours worked 25 in excess of eight hours per shift in violation of Labor Code § 510.

26 22. Labor Code § 1197.1 authorizes employees who are paid less than the minimum fixed 27 by an applicable state or local law or by an order of the commission a civil penalty, restitution of 28 wages, and liquidated damages as follows: (1) for any initial violation that is intentionally committed,

1 one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee 2 is underpaid....[and] (2) [f]or each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred 3 fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is 4 underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation was intentionally committed.

5 23. Labor Code § 510 requires an employer to compensate an employee who works more 6 than eight (8) hours in one workday, forty (40) hours in a workweek, and for the first eight (8) hours 7 worked on the seventh consecutive day, no less than one and one-half times (1 1/2) the regular rate of 8 pay. In addition, Labor Code § 510 obligates employers to compensate employees at no less than 9 twice the regular rate of pay when an employee works more than twelve (12) hours in a workday or 10 more than eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work. Pursuant to Section 3 of the 11 applicable Wage Orders, aggrieved employees shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in 12 any workday or more than 40 hours in any workweek unless the employee receives one and one-half 13 (1 1/2) times such employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 hours in the workweek.

14 24. Accordingly, through PAGA and to the extent permitted by law, Plaintiff and other 15 aggrieved employees are entitled to recover penalties for violations of Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 16 1194, 1197.1, 1199 1197.1 under Labor Code § 1197.1, 1199, or Labor Code § 2699(f)(2), and for 17 attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

18 25. Furthermore, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees worked 19 regular shifts that lasted longer than 8.0 hours in a workday and resulted in aggrieved employees 20 regularly working more than 40 hours in a workweek. However, Defendant uniformly failed to 21 properly calculate and pay overtime wages at the proper legal rate due to Defendant's failure to 22 include all forms of compensation/remuneration, including, but not limited to, stipends, shift pay, 23 non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, incentives, and all other forms of remuneration in 24 calculating the "regular rate of pay" for purposes of overtime compensation.

25 26. Under the California Labor Code (as well as the FLSA), courts have consistently held 26 that regularly paid non-discretionary bonuses (and other forms of pay) must be included in 27 determining an employee's "regular rate of pay" for purposes of calculating overtime. (See Haber v.
28 The Americana Corp. 378 F. 2d 854, 855-856 (9th Cir. 1967) [holding that regularly paid efficiency

1 bonuses must be included in calculating the “regular rate”]; Wang v. Chinese Daily News, Inc. 435 F.
2 Supp. 2d 1042, 1055-1057 (C.D. Cal. 2006) [granting summary judgment to Plaintiff under California 3 and federal law on the grounds that Defendant improperly calculated overtime by excluding annual 4 bonuses paid to employees from the “regular rate of compensation”]; see Walling v. Youngerman- 5 Reynolds Hardwood Co. (1945) 65 S.Ct. 1242, 1245. (“The regular rate by its very nature must reflect 6 all payments which the parties have agreed shall be received regularly during the workweek, 7 exclusive of overtime payments. It is not an arbitrary label chosen by the parties but an actual fact.
8 Once the parties have decided upon the amount of wages and the mode of payment, the determination 9 of the regular rate becomes a matter of mathematical computation, the result of which is unaffected 10 by any designation of a contrary ‘regular rate’ in the contracts.”); see also 29 CFR §§ 778.110 11 (“production bonus”) and 778.111 (“piece-rate”).

12 27. Labor Code § 510 requires an employer to compensate an employee who works more 13 than eight (8.0) hours in one workday, forty (40.0) hours in a workweek, and for the first eight (8.0) 14 hours worked on the seventh consecutive day, no less than one and one-half times (1 1/2) the regular 15 rate of pay. In addition, Labor Code § 510 obligates employers to compensate employees at no less 16 than twice the regular rate of pay when an employee works more than twelve (12.0) hours in a 17 workday or more than eight (8.0) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work. Pursuant to Section 18 3 of the applicable Wage Orders, aggrieved employees shall not be employed more than eight (8.0) 19 hours in any workday or more than 40.0 hours in any workweek unless the employee receives one 20 and one-half (1 1/2) times such employee’s regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 hours in 21 the workweek.

22 28. By their policy of requiring Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees to work in 23 excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and/or forty (40) hours in a workweek without compensating 24 them at the lawful rate of one-half (1 1/2) their “regular rate of pay,” Defendant willfully violated the 25 provisions of Labor Code § 510 and the applicable Wage Orders.

26 29. Accordingly, through PAGA and to the extent permitted by law, Plaintiff and other
27 aggrieved employees are entitled to recover penalties for violations of Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 28 1194, 1197.1, 1199 1197.1 under Labor Code § 1197.1, 1199, or Labor Code § 2699(f)(2), and for

1 attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

2 30. Similarly, at all relevant times, Defendant also failed in its obligation to provide 3 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees the legally required paid sick days at the legal rate pursuant 4 to Labor Code §§ 246(a),(b), which requires that “[a]n employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works 5 in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of 6 employment is entitled to paid sick days. . . at the rate of not less than one hour per every 30 hours 7 worked, beginning at the commencement of employment.” Labor Code § 246(l)(1) provides that paid 8 sick time for aggrieved employees must be “calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay 9 for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually 10 works overtime in that workweek.”

11 31. Additionally, Labor Code § 246(l)(2) states that the paid sick time must be “calculated 12 by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total 13 hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.” Finally, Labor Code §246(i) 14 requires employers to “provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid 15 sick leave available, or paid time off leave an employer provides in lieu of sick leave, for use on either 16 the employee’s itemized wage statement described in Section 226 or in a separate writing provided 17 on the designated pay date with the employee’s payment of wages.”

18 32. Here, at all relevant times, Defendant failed in its obligation to provide Plaintiff and 19 other aggrieved employees the legally required paid sick days at the legal rate, including all forms of 20 compensation, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 246(a), (b). As such, Defendant paid sick time below the 21 “regular rate of pay” as required by Labor Code §§ 246(l) (1-2). Based on the foregoing Labor Code 22 violations, Plaintiff seeks all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code 23 § 2699(f)(2), and for attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

24 33. Moreover, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were denied 25 compliant and timely 30-minute off-duty meal periods as mandated by California law. Due to 26 Defendant’s uniform meal period policies/practices, operational requirements, and work demands, 27 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees often could not take timely and uninterrupted net 30-minute 28 first meal periods before the end of the fifth hour of work. Further, when Plaintiff and other aggrieved

1 employees worked more than 10.0 hours in a shift, they were not allowed and permitted to take a
2 mandated second meal period before the end of the tenth hour of work in violation of the Labor Code 3 and applicable Wage Orders. Indeed, Plaintiff's and other aggrieved employees' meal periods were 4 often interrupted and/or lasted fewer than 30 minutes due to Defendant's meal period 5 policies/procedures, operational requirements, and work demands.

6 34. In addition, for each missed or non-compliant meal period, Defendant failed and 7 continues to fail to maintain a mechanism by which aggrieved employees were paid meal period 8 premiums at the "regular rate of pay" pursuant to Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 9 5th 858 and Labor Code § 226.7.

10 35. Accordingly, due to Defendant's uniform meal period practices, aggrieved employees 11 were also regularly denied legally compliant meal periods in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 12 516, and applicable Wage Orders, and would be entitled to penalties under Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

13 36. Next, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were not provided 14 with all 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or a major fraction thereof, due to 15 Defendant's uniform rest period policies/practices, operational requirements and work demands. As 16 a result, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were and are often unable to take a net 10-minute 17 duty-free rest period for every major fraction of four hours worked. This includes a second rest period 18 for shifts in excess of six hours and a third rest period for shifts in excess of 10.0 hours in a workday.

19 37. By not relieving all aggrieved employees of all duties during rest periods, Defendant 20 failed to provide legally compliant rest periods. See Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 21 2 Cal. 5th 257, 269 [concluding that "during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 22 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time."] (Emphasis added). In Augustus, 23 the California Supreme Court expressly rejected the employer's assertion that it could provide an on-24 duty rest period to employees who worked as security guards and further explained: "that employers 25 [must] relinquish any control over how employees spend their break time and relieve their employees 26 of all duties." Id. at 273. Each time aggrieved employees could not take a compliant rest period; 27 Defendant failed and continues to fail to adequately pay rest period premium payments at the "regular 28 rate of pay" as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

1 38. Accordingly, due to Defendant's uniform rest period policies/practices, aggrieved 2 employees were regularly denied legally compliant rest breaks in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 3 512, and applicable Wage Orders, and would be entitled to penalties under Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

4 39. As a result of Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees for 5 all hours they were subject to the control of Defendant, including all minimum, overtime and sick 6 pay wages, and Defendant's failure to pay all meal and rest period premiums at the "regular rate of 7 pay," Defendant issued wage statements which failed to identify the gross wages earned accurately, 8 the total hours worked, the net wages earned, and the correct corresponding number of hours worked 9 at each hourly rate, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1, 2, 5, and 9).

10 40. Labor Code § 226.3 provides that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of 11 Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per 12 employee per violation in an initial violation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 13 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 14 deduction statement or fails to keep the required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

15 41. Thus, for the violations of Labor Code section 226 described above, Plaintiff and other 16 aggrieved employees may also recover Labor Code § 226.3 penalties for Defendant's violations of 17 Labor Code § 226(a). Consequently, because Defendant failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), 18 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees would be entitled to recover penalties under Labor Code § 19 226(e) and/or 2698 et seq.

20 42. Furthermore, because Defendant failed to pay all minimum, overtime, and sick pay 21 wages, and meal and rest period premiums at the "regular rate of pay," Defendant also failed and 22 continues to fail to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees all wages owed at their time of 23 separation from employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203. Thus, aggrieved employees 24 would be entitled to recover waiting time penalties under Labor Code §§ 201-203 and/or 2698 et seq.

25 43. Finally, at all relevant times, Defendant required Plaintiff and other aggrieved 26 employees to incur necessary expenses for work-related purposes but did not reimburse aggrieved 27 employees adequately for these necessary expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804.
28 Here, Defendant uniformly failed to reimburse aggrieved employees for the necessary costs incurred

1 in discharging their duties. (See Cochran v. Schwan's Home Service, Inc., (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 2 1137, 1144 ["[i]f an employee is required to make work-related calls on a personal cell phone, then 3 he or she is incurring an expense for the purposes of section 2802. It does not matter whether the 4 phone bill is paid for by a third person or at all...To show liability under section 2802, an employee 5 needs only to show that he or she was required to use a personal cell phone to make work-related 6 calls, and he or she was not reimbursed"].) Accordingly, due to Defendant's uniform failure to 7 adequately reimburse for necessary business expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804 8 and applicable Wage Orders. Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees would be entitled to civil 9 penalties under Labor Code § 2698 et seq

10 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

11 PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

12 (Plaintiff and Similarly Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants)

13 44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation outlined 14 in the preceding paragraphs.

15 45. Defendant has committed several Labor Code violations against Plaintiff and other 16 similarly aggrieved employees. Plaintiff, an "aggrieved employee" within the meaning of Labor Code 17 § 2698 et seq., acting on behalf of the State of California, brings this representative action against 18 Defendant to recover the civil penalties due to Plaintiff, other similarly aggrieved employees, and the 19 State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 (a) and (f) including, but not 20 limited to (1) $100 for each initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per 21 pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided 22 based on the following Labor Code violations:

- 23 a) Defendant's failure to record and pay for all hours worked;
- 24 b) Defendant's failure to pay all overtime wages at the "regular rate of pay" because 25 Defendant failed to include all forms of compensation, including, but not limited to, shift differential, 26 commissions, incentives, non-discretionary bonuses, and other forms of remuneration;
- 27 c) Defendant's failure to pay all sick pay at the "regular rate of pay";

28 ///

1 d) Defendant's failure to allow and permit legally compliant meal periods or compensation 2 at the "regular rate of pay" in lieu thereof;

3 e) Defendant's failure to allow and permit legally compliant rest periods or compensation 4 at the "regular rate of pay" in lieu thereof;

5 f) Defendant's failure to furnish legally compliant wage statements pursuant to Labor 6 Code § 226(a);

7 g) Defendant's failure to pay final wages to aggrieved employees in a timely manner at the 8 time of separation from employment was unlawful; and

9 h) Defendant's failure to reimburse aggrieved employees for all necessary business 10 expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804.

11 46. On or about April 6, 2026, Plaintiff notified Defendant Jingdong Logistics United 12 States Company ("Defendant") via certified mail and the California Labor and Workforce 13 Development Agency ("LWDA") via its website of Defendant's violations of the California Labor 14 Code § 2698 et. seq. with respect to violations of the California Labor Code identified in Paragraph 15 45 (a)-(h). Now that sixty-five days (65) have passed from Plaintiff notifying Defendant of these 16 violations, Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the 17 Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these violations.

18 47. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 19 protect his interests and the interests of other similarly aggrieved employees and to assess and collect 20 the civil penalties owed by Defendant. Plaintiff has, therefore, incurred attorneys' fees and costs, 21 which he is entitled to receive under California Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

22 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

23 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for himself and all others on whose behalf this 24 suit is brought against Defendant, as follows:

25 1. Upon the First Cause of Action, for civil penalties due to similarly aggrieved 26 employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 (a) and (f) 27 including, but not limited to: (1) $100 for each initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation 28 per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is

1 specifically provided under the Labor Code;

2 2. For attorneys' fees and costs as provided by Labor Code §§ 218.5, 226, 1194, Code 3 of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and 4 3. For such other relief that the Court may deem just and proper.
