1 TO THE COURT AND TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on May 21, 2026 at 3:00 p.m., in Department 2 Courtroom
3 K of the San Mateo County Superior Court, located at 1050 Mission Road, South San Francisco, 4 California 94080, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382 and California Rules of Court 3.769,
5 et seq., Plaintiff Jose Elias Quinteros (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) will move the Court
6 for an Order granting preliminary approval of the proposed $500,000.00 (the “Gross Settlement
7 Amount”), Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Agreement”) between Plaintiff
8 and the putative class members who worked in California in a non-exempt position at any time
9 during the Class Period (each a “Class Member” and collectively the “Class”) between September 10 28, 2019 through the date on which the Court issues an order preliminarily approving the 11 Settlement (the “Class Period”), and Defendant Sweet Production, Inc. (“Defendant,” and together 12 with Plaintiff, the “Parties”) to resolve the wage and hour class action and Private Attorneys 13 General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action between Plaintiff, 14 on behalf of the Class, and Defendant (the “Action”). Plaintiff further moves the Court for an 15 Order:

- 16 1. Granting preliminary approval of the Agreement;
- 17 2. Certifying the Class for settlement purposes;
- 18 3. Approving the proposed class notice (the “Class Notice”) and the plan for distribution 19 of the Class Notice;
- 20 4. Appointing Plaintiff Jose Elias Quinteros as Class Representative for settlement 21 purposes;
- 22 5. Appointing Plaintiff’s Counsel, Tyler J. Woods, Alan A. Wilcox, Lucy Nguyen, and 23 Conor Gomez of Wilshire Law Firm, PLC (“WLF”) as “Class Counsel” for settlement 24 purposes;
- 25 6. Appointing Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions as the “Settlement 26 Administrator”; and
- 27 7. Scheduling a final approval hearing.

28 The motion will be based upon this notice, the attached memorandum of points and

1 authorities, the Declarations of Alan A. Wilcox (the “Class Counsel Declaration”), filed 2 concurrently herewith, the records and files in the Action, and any other further evidence or 3 argument that the Court may properly receive at or before the hearing.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Jose Elias Quinteros (“Plaintiff”) respectfully moves for an Order granting Preliminary Approval of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Agreement”) entered into with Defendant Sweet Production, Inc. (“Defendant”) to resolve this Action on behalf of the Class and the State of California. The Agreement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 377 Class Members. As set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arm’s-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached the Settlement on January 18, 2026. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the Class, approve the proposed Class Notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff’s Claims

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide meal periods, failed to authorize and permit rest periods, failed to timely pay final wages, failed to furnish accurate wage statements, and failed to indemnify employees for expenditures. (Class Counsel Decl. ¶ 2.)

Based on these allegations, on September 28, 2023, Plaintiff filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code § 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized

1 wage statements (Labor Code § 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures
2 (Labor Code § 2802); and (8) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code §§ 3 17200, et seq.). Plaintiff sent a notice to Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce 4 Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the 5 PAGA on October 30, 2023. On January 3, 2024, Plaintiff filed a first amended class and 6 representative action complaint against Defendant for civil penalties under PAGA, Labor Code
7 §§ 2699, et seq. (Id. at ¶ 2.)

8 B. Discovery and Investigation

9 Following the filing of the Action, the Parties exchanged documents and information 10 before going to mediation. Defendant produced a sample of time and pay records for Class 11 Members. Defendant also provided documents of its wage and hour policies and practices during 12 the Class Period, and information regarding the total number of current and former employees
13 in its informal discovery responses. (Id. at ¶ 2.)

14 After reviewing documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices 15 and analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to evaluate 16 the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum monetary 17 exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 3.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding 18 the claims and defenses asserted in the Action. (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these records and 19 prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) This extensive investigation and discovery 20 allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently and effectively in negotiating the Settlement.

21 C. Settlement Negotiations

22 On March 27, 2025, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 23 action mediator Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 10.) The mediation was conducted via 24 Zoom. The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a 25 professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to 26 explore the potential for a settlement of the Action, but the Parties were also prepared to litigate 27 their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive 28 negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and

Defendant’s defenses, the Parties agreed to settle the Action, the material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 9, Ex. 1, Agreement.)

Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, just, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of the Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 9.)

Indeed, the Gross Settlement Amount represents approximately 48% of the realistic maximum recovery of $1,044,943.03. (Id. at ¶ 21.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant’s maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $5.2 million, when the risk of prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant’s realistic exposure was $1,044,943.03, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 14-28.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 28.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Settlement’s key terms include:

1. Class Period or Class Settlement Period: “means the period from September 28, 2019 through the date on which the Court issues an order preliminarily approving the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.13.)

2. Participating Class Member: “means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.37.)

3. Aggrieved Employees: “means all current and former employees of Defendant, either directly or through any predecessor, successor, assign, subsidiary, staffing agency, or professional employer organization, who worked for Defendant in a non-exempt position in California at any time during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement, § 1.4.)

1 4. Gross Settlement Amount or GSA: “$500,000.00, which is the total amount 2 Defendant agrees to pay under the Settlement, except as provided in Paragraph 8 below. The Gross
3 Settlement Amount, (“GSA”) shall be paid in two equal installments: The first installment payment
4 of $250,000.00 shall be made within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date, and the second 5 installment payment of $250,000.00 shall be made within one hundred and twenty (120) days of 6 the date on which the first installment payment is paid.” (Settlement, § 1.23.)

7 5. Uncashed Checks: “For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check 8 or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and canceled after the void date, the Administrator
9 shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed 10 Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no “unpaid residue” subject to the 11 requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).” (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

12 6. Release by Participating Class Members: “All Participating Class Members release 13 Released Parties from all claims arising during the Class Period that were alleged, or reasonably 14 could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint. Participating Class 15 Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful 16 termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, 17 disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the 18 Class Period (collectively the “Released Class Claims”).” (Settlement, § 5.2.)

19 7. Release by Aggrieved Employees: “All Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release 20 the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties arising during the PAGA Period that were 21 alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative 22 Complaint and the PAGA Notice (collectively the “Released PAGA Claims”).” (Settlement, § 23 5.3.)

24 8. No Reversion: “The GSA is non-reversionary and does not include employer-side 25 payroll taxes owed on the wage portions of the Individual Class Payments, which Defendant will 26 pay separately.” (Settlement, § 3.1.)

27 9. PAGA Penalties: “means the total amount of PAGA civil penalties to be paid from 28 the GSA ($25,000.00), allocated 25% to the Aggrieved Employees ($6,250.00) and 75% to LWDA

1 ($18,750.00) in settlement of PAGA claims. (Settlement, § 1.35.) Pursuant to Labor Code section 2 2699(1)(2), the Settlement was submitted to the LWDA contemporaneously with the filing of this 3 Motion. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 27 (d))

4 10. Net Settlement Amount: “means the GSA, less the following payments in the 5 amounts approved by the Court: PAGA Penalties payment, Enhancement, Class Counsel Fees 6 Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Costs Payment. The 7 remainder is to be paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments.”
8 (Settlement, § 1.29.)

9 11. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment is calculated by (a) dividing 10 the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class 11 Members during the Class Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each individual Participating 12 Class Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will 13 calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees’ 14 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($6,250.00) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by 15 all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each 16 individual Aggrieved Employee’s PAGA Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full 17 responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.” (Settlement, 18 § 3.2.5.1.)

19 12. Tax Allocation: “Twenty-five percent (25%) of each Participating Class Member’s 20 Individual Class Payment will be allocated to the Settlement of wage claims (the “Wage Portion”).
21 The Wage Portion is subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The 22 remaining seventy-five percent (75%) of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class 23 Payment will be allocated to the settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the “Non-Wage 24 Portion”). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on 25 IRS 1099 Forms.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

26 13. Enhancement Awards: “A payment for the Enhancement Award to Plaintiff of not 27 more than $10,000.00 in addition to any Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA 28 Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating Class Member. Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff's request for an Enhancement Award that does not exceed this amount."

(Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

14. Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment: "A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than thirty-five percent (35%) of the GSA, which is currently estimated to be $175,000.00, and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment for actual costs, not to exceed $25,000.00. Defendant will not oppose requests for these payments."
(Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

15. Administrator: "means Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions, the neutral entity the Parties have agreed to appoint to administer the Settlement." (Settlement, § 1.2.)

16. Administration Costs: "means the amount the Administrator Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions will be paid from the GSA to reimburse its reasonable fees and expenses in accordance with the Administrator's "not to exceed" bid submitted to the Court in connection with Preliminary Approval of the Settlement." (Settlement, § 1.3.)

17. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Class Notice sets forth in plain terms, a statement of the Action, the terms of the Agreement, the approximate amount of the Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and Class Representative Service Award being sought, and an explanation of how the Settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the Settlement. (Settlement, § 7.5.) The Settlement Administrator will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the Class Notice is provided to the current addresses of Class Members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the Class Notice to updated addresses. (Id., Ex. 2 Settlement Administrator Bid.)

III. DISCUSSION

To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed Settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.)

1 A. A Presumption of Fairness Exists Over The Settlement

2 Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; 3 (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is 4 experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Dunk at p. 1800.)

5 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Arm’s-Length Negotiations

6 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 7 evidence to the contrary is offered. No evidence to the contrary has been offered here; thus, there 8 is a presumption that the negotiations were conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg 9 on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)

10 The Parties participated in private mediation on March 27, 2025, before experienced class 11 action mediator Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq. The mediation was conducted via Zoom. The 12 settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 13 were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 14 settlement of the Action, but the Parties were also prepared to litigate their position through trial 15 and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. Settlement was reached only after extensive 16 adversarial negotiations. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 10.)

17 2. The Parties Conducted Sufficient Investigation

18 Prior to reaching this Settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 19 the claims set forth in the Action, such as a sample of Class Member timekeeping and payroll 20 records, Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 21 meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well 22 as information regarding the number of putative Class Members and the mix of current versus 23 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages 24 paid to Class Members. (Id. at ¶¶ 6-7.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, 25 Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 26 Action. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and Class Counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 27 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

1 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

2 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
3 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 4 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Id. at ¶¶ 38-61.) Although 5 Plaintiff and Class Counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the Action, they believe 6 the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of the Class.

7 4. The Percentage of Objectors Is Small

8 This factor cannot yet be determined unless and until the Court preliminarily approves the 9 Motion and the Class Notice. This factor will be properly addressed in Class Counsel’s Motion for 10 Final Approval of Class Action Settlement, should this Court grant the instant Motion.

11 B. The Settlement Is Fair, Just, Reasonable, and Adequate

12 In considering whether a settlement is fair, just, reasonable, and adequate the trial court 13 should consider relevant factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff’s case, the risk, 14 expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action 15 status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the 16 stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, ... and the reaction of the class 17 members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 18 116, 128.) Settlement is favored, and Agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
19 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236.)

20 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 21 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 22 proposed Settlement is fair, just, adequate, and reasonable.

23 1. Plaintiff’s Strengths and Risks of Continued Litigation

24 Based on Plaintiff’s discovery and investigation, Class Counsel reached the conclusion that 25 Defendant had a policy and practice of: requiring its employees to work “off-the-clock” prior to 26 clocking in for the workday, during meal periods, and after clocking out for the workday, time
27 which it did not pay for; not providing its employees with California compliant meal and rest 28

1 periods, which it did not pay appropriate premiums for; and failing to reimburse its employees for 2 business-related expenses. Defendant denies these claims. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 16.)

3 While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of their claims, a legitimate controversy exists as 4 to each cause of action. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 24-26.) Plaintiff recognizes that proving the 5 amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain
6 proposition. (Id.) Although the Parties had engaged in significant amount of investigation, informal 7 discovery and Class-wide data analysis, the Parties had not yet completed formal written discovery.
8 (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 26.) Plaintiff intended to depose corporate officers and managers of 9 Defendant. (Id.) Moreover, preparation for a class certification and a trial remained for the Parties
10 as well as the prospect of appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification ruling for Plaintiffs 11 and/or adverse summary judgment ruling. (Id.) Moreover, preparation for class certification and 12 trial remained for the Parties, along with the prospect of appeals following any class certification 13 ruling. Even if certification were granted, Defendant could seek reconsideration, move to decertify 14 based on a developed record, or pursue appellate review, prolonging the litigation and increasing 15 costs. As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys' fees and costs through trial.
16 (Id.) This Settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation. (Id.)

17 Balancing the strengths of Plaintiff's claims against the risks of continued litigation of the 18 Action, Plaintiff and Class Counsel determined that the proposed Settlement was in the best 19 interests of the Class.

20 2. The Gross Settlement Amount Is Reasonable

21 In order to approve a class action settlement, the Court must satisfy itself that the class
22 settlement is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. (Kullar, at 133.) The fact that a plaintiff 23 might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not to approve the 24 settlement. (Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447.) The record need not contain an 25 explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of 26 Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not require "an explicit 27 statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims", 28 but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of

1 outcomes of the litigation.”].)

2 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 3 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
4 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 5 and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement 6 is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no
7 bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement 8 in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

9 The proposed GSA represents a substantial recovery when compared to Plaintiff’s 10 reasonably forecasted recovery. (Class Counsel Decl. at ¶¶ 18-25.) Because of the proposed 11 Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 12 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 13 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 14 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the Settlement is within the “ballpark” of 15 reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Class
16 Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately $676.39. (Id. at ¶ 28.)

17 C. The Proposed Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation
18 Expenses Payment Are Reasonable

19 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 20 Counsel the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. These 21 amounts are disclosed to all Class Members in the proposed Class Notice and are reasonable.

22 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of the Class Counsel Fees Payment
23 Based on the “Common Fund” Method

24 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created 25 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that “when a number 26 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 27 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 28 may be awarded attorneys’ fees out of the fund.” (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34,

1 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

2 Class Counsel seeks approval of the Class Counsel Fees based on the “percentage of 3 recovery/common fund” theory. The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs 4 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 5 burden alone.” (Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v.
6 State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends 7 attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require 8 those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, 9 in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court 10 recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an 11 action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p.
12 110.)

13 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 14 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 15 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 16 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 17 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 18 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 19 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 20 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—21 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
22 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

23 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

24 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “[n]o general rule can be articulated on 25 what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually, 50% of the fund is the upper limit on 26 a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 27 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages
28 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)

Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

Class Counsel seeks approval of a Class Counsel Fees Payment not to exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount, consistent with the terms negotiated by the Parties and disclosed in the Class Notice, which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total Class recovery at the conclusion of this Action should it proceed. The Settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this Action. In fact, prosecution of this Action involved significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶¶ 35-37.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once Class Counsel undertook this Action on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns.

4. Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the Requested Fee Award

As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers

1 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Class 2 Counsel Decl., ¶¶ 34-52.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several 3 class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate
4 class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel’s requested 5 fee award is supported here.

6 Class Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 7 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the Settlement.
8 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 9 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class 10 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 11 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested Class 12 Counsel Fees are reasonable and fair.

13 D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

14 Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and “there is no 15 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other” class members, 16 such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr.
17 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for 18 PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement.
19 (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D.
20 Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v.
21 Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts 22 approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].)

23 Here, the LWDA PAGA Payment is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts 24 approved by the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See,
25 e.g., Zubia v. Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017
26 WL 10541431, at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, supra, 2009 WL 3385452, 27 at *1 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D.
28 Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving a PAGA

1 settlement of 0.27%].) The Parties negotiated the PAGA Penalties, 75% of which ($18,750.00) as 2 the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($6,250.00) to be distributed to the individual PAGA
3 Members. (Settlement, § 1.35.) The PAGA Penalties equate to approximately 5% of the GSA, 4 which far exceeds amounts that are routinely approved. The Parties negotiated to allocate 5% of 5 the Settlement to PAGA Penalties in good faith and this amount is reasonable considering that the 6 maximum PAGA penalties were estimated at $549,500.00 (which assumed $100 per pay period).
7 (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 27.)

8 E. The Enhancement Awards to Named Plaintiff Is Reasonable

9 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 10 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 11 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 12 of class action Agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are 13 necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the class 14 representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 15 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

16 Enhancement awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because 17 they promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy 18 is codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to 19 vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or 20 permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions” Nonetheless, the California 21 Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under 22 the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees.
23 (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should 24 be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v.
25 Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

26 Under the Agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay an 27 Enhancement Award in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff. This amount is also in exchange for 28 Plaintiff’s general release of all claims against Defendant. Courts routinely approve Enhancement

1 Awards of $10,000.00 for plaintiffs represented by counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v. Pretium
2 Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [“The Court concludes a 3 $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of America, National Association (N.D.
4 Cal., Jan. 11, 2024, No. 18-CV-01202-LB) 2024 WL 150721, at *4 [“The court approves awards 5 of $10,000 for each class representative.”].)

6 A 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class action plaintiffs from 7 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 and the median 8 award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action 9 Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308.) That same study found that 10 plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a 11 median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an 12 average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the 13 study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make 14 representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, 15 including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

16 Class Counsel represents that Plaintiff devoted a great deal of time and work assisting Class 17 Counsel litigate the Action, and Plaintiff communicated with Class Counsel during the mediation 18 and the preparation leading up to mediation. (See generally Plaintiff’s declaration; Class Counsel 19 Decl., ¶¶ 29-33.) The Class Representative Service Award is reasonable particularly in light of the 20 substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all Class Members and as compared to similarly situated 21 plaintiffs in other employment class and representative actions. (Id.)

22 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

23 A. Legal Standard

24 The proposed Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive from a 25 core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the reasons 26 set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the prerequisites for 27 certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when the question is one 28 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is

1 impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of 2 all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382). There are three requirements to section 382: Class certification 3 requires proof (1) of a sufficiently numerous, ascertainable class, (2) of a well-defined community 4 of interest, and (3) that certification will provide substantial benefits to litigants and the courts, i.e., 5 that proceeding as a class is superior to other methods. (In re Tobacco II Cases, (2009) 46 6 Cal.App.4th 298, 313.)

7 The California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to further 8 explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant 9 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 10 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc.
11 (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

12 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
13 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 14 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system.” (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 15 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in 16 favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

17 B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 18 Settlement Purposes.

19 1. The Class is Ascertainable and Numerous

20 A class is ascertainable if a plaintiff supplies a reasonable means of identifying potential 21 class members and the class is defined in terms of objective characteristics and common facts 22 sufficient to allow a class member to identify himself or herself as having a right to recover based 23 on that description. (ABM Industries Overtime Cases, (2017) 19 Cal.App.5th 277, 303.) Courts 24 also consider the size or numerosity of the class when determining whether or not it is 25 ascertainable. (Id. at 302).

26 a) *Class Definition

27 When defining a class, the terminology used must convey “sufficient meaning to enables 28 persons hearing to determine whether they are members of the class” and if the proposed class

1 definition offers an objective way to identify those who will be bound by the results of the 2 litigation. (Id. at 302-303.) Courts have routinely certified classes defined using language to that 3 here. (Faulkinbury v. Boyd & Associates, Inc. (2013) 216 Cal.App.4th 220, 227; see also Brinker 4 Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1019, defining several subclasses such 5 as employees “who worked one or more work periods in excess of three and a half hours without 6 receiving a paid 10 minute break” and those “who worked ‘off-the-clock’ or without pay.”)

7 Here, the Class definition (as stated above) is objective as it is limited in scope to a specific 8 time frame (during the Class Period) and is limited to the potential class members’ employment 9 classification (hourly or non-exempt employees). Further, there are common facts that exist here 10 (such as those employees who worked without pay, were not given proper meal or rest periods, 11 etc.) that are encapsulated by the causes of action alleged in the Action. This definition therefore 12 provides sufficiently clear information to allow current and former employees to readily and 13 reasonably determine whether or not they are a putative Class Member in this Action based upon 14 this definition. (ABM at 304, stating “As long as the potential class members may be identified 15 without unreasonable expense or time and given notice of the litigation, and the proposed class 16 definition offers an objective means of identifying the persons who will be bound by the results of 17 the litigation, the ascertainability requirement is met.”) Thus, the proposed Class that Plaintiff 18 seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes approximately 377 current and former 19 employees.

20 b) Numerosity

21 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 22 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 23 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action
24 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable
25 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 26 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries 27 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 28 574; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) If even as

1 little as 10 persons can constitute a class, then certainly the 377 Class Members here satisfy the 2 numerosity requirement.

3 2. There is a Well-Defined Community of Interest in the Questions of 4 Law and Fact

5 The community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant 6 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 7 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond supra, 29 Cal.3d at 8 p. 470.)

9 a) *There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which 10 Predominate

11 The Court should grant conditional Class certification for settlement purposes here on the 12 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all Class and subclass predominate over any 13 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 14 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 15 Cal.App.3d 605.)

16 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 17 policies and practices for all hours worked, including overtime wages; whether Defendant had 18 legally compliant policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether 19 Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees 20 to take rest periods; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether 21 payment of wages during employed was timely; whether final payment of wages was untimely and 22 excluded unpaid wages, including meal and rest period premium wages; whether wage statements 23 were consequently non-compliant; and whether Defendant failed to keep requisite payroll records.
24 Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all the identified Class Members, 25 including Plaintiff. Further, all Class Members suffered from, and seek redress for, the same 26 alleged injuries.

1 b) *Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

2 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 3 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 4 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 5 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 [“[t]he only requirements are that 6 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 7 situated” vis-à-vis the class.]) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they 8 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 9 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant; as such, 10 Plaintiff alleges that Plaintiff was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly 11 situated employees. Thus, Plaintiff's claims arise out of the same practices of Defendant and rest 12 on the same legal theories as those of the Class. Therefore, Plaintiff can easily meet the typicality 13 requirement in favor of certification.

14 c) *Plaintiff and Class Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

15 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 16 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 17 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 18 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

19 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained Class 20 Counsel, whom have extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar 21 class actions that previously settled. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶¶ 35-52.) Class Counsel 22 unquestionably is “qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation.” 23 (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and 24 Plaintiff has, with Class Counsel, litigated this Action and diligently reviewed the Settlement 25 terms, showing their dedication. Plaintiff's willingness to serve as Class Representative 26 demonstrates Plaintiff's serious commitment to bringing about the best results possible for the 27 Class, thereby demonstrating Plaintiff's interests are aligned with those of the Class and no conflict
28 exists. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

1 3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

2 Finally, in making its Class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 3 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
4 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 5 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 6 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-7 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 8 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 9 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th 10 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns 11 are essentially non-existent.

12 V. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

13 A. The Proposed Class Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

14 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 15 Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 16 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no
17 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this Action, 18 the Class Notice will be disseminated through direct U.S. first class mail to the last known address 19 for each Class Member. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he notice given should have a 20 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members” (Id. at p. 974.)
21 In this Action the Class Notice will be provided by direct mailing, which is the best possible form 22 of notice as it provides the most reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the 23 Class.

24 B. The Class Notice is Accurate and Informative

25 The proposed Class Notice is informative. It informs the Class Members of the terms of the 26 Settlement and their right to be Request for Exclusion from the Settlement. If there are Class 27 Members who wish to object to this proposed Settlement, they will have the opportunity to file 28 their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

1 The Class Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte &
2 Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date 3 and the terms and conditions of the Agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It makes 4 clear that the Agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the Defendant, who 5 denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits of the Action. It 6 also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The Class Notice thus 7 complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a combined 8 settlement-certification class notice.

9 C. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

10 The proposed Class Notice, in the form attached to the Agreement, should be approved for 11 dissemination to the Class. The Class Notice informs the Class of the terms of the Settlement and 12 of their rights to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class Members who wish to 13 object to the Settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the 14 Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Class Notice meets all the requirements of 15 Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court and should be approved.

16 VI. CONCLUSION

17 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 18 approval of the proposed Settlement and set a final approval hearing on October 1, 2026, pursuant 19 to the schedule set forth in the Proposed Order.

20 Respectfully submitted,
