JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

BY FAX

1 Plaintiff ISAAC DELGADO (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated,
2 the State of California, and the general public, complains and alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this class and representative action against Defendants OLDCASTLE
5 INFRASTRUCTURE, INC., a Washington corporation; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, 6 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for alleged violations of the California Labor Code and 7 California Business and Professions Code. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have:

- 8 a. failed to pay them overtime wages at the correct rate;
- 9 b. failed to pay them double time wages at the correct rate;
- 10 c. failed to pay them overtime and/or double time wages by failing to include all 11 applicable remuneration in calculating the regular rate of pay;
- 12 d. failed to provide them with meal periods;
- 13 e. failed to provide them with rest periods;
- 14 f. failed to pay them premium wages for missed meal and rest periods;
- 15 g. failure to pay proper vacation wages;
- 16 h. failed to provide them with accurate written wage statements;
- 17 i. failed to reimburse them with necessary business expenditures;
- 18 j. failed to pay them all their final wages following separation of employment.

19 Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class and 20 representative action to recover unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil and statutory penalties, 21 restitution, and related relief on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public.

22 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

23 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this case because the monetary
24 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff from Defendants’ conduct exceeds the minimal 25 jurisdiction of the Superior Court of the State of California.

26 3. Venue is proper in the County of San Joaquin pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
27 sections 395(a) and 395.5 in that liability arose this county because at least some of the transactions
28 that are the subject matter of this Complaint occurred therein and/or each defendant is found, maintains offices, transacts business and/or has an agent therein.

4. Venue is proper in San Joaquin County because Defendants' have at all times alleged herein, conducted business in San Joaquin County, and throughout California. As such, venue is proper in any county in California.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff ISAAC DELGADO is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant OLDCASTLE INFRASTRUCTURE, INC. is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a Washington corporation doing business in the State of California.

7. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that each of the fictitiously named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged herein and that Plaintiff's alleged damages were proximately caused by these defendants, and each of them. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times mentioned herein, some or all of the defendants were the representatives, agents, employees, partners, directors, associates, joint venturers, joint employers, owners, principals or co-participants of some or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting within the course and scope of such relationship and with the full knowledge, consent, and ratification by such other defendants.

9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times mentioned herein, some of the defendants pursued a common course of conduct, acted in concert and conspired with one another, and aided and abetted one another to accomplish the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged herein.

10. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest among the persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class action.

11. Relevant Time Period: The relevant time period is defined as the time period beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until judgment is entered.

- a. Hourly Employee Class: All persons employed by Defendants, collectively or separately, and/or any staffing agencies and/or any other third parties in hourly or non-exempt positions in California four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action (“Hourly Employee Class”).
- b. Meal Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked in a shift in excess of five hours during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- c. Rest Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked a shift of at least three and one-half (3.5) hours the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- d. Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who separated from their employment with Defendants during the period beginning three years before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.
- e. Vacation Pay Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who earned paid vacation time and/or paid time off without receiving compensation for all vested paid vacation time during the Relevant Time Period.
- f. Wage Statement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California during the period beginning one year before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.
- g. Expense Reimbursement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who incurred business expenses during the Relevant Time Period.
- h. UCL Class: All Hourly Employee Class and Expense Reimbursement Class members employed by Defendants in California during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.

12. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class definitions with greater specificity, by further division into sub-classes and/or by limitation to particular issues.

13. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that the individual joinder of each individual class member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact number of class members, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that the actual number exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California law.

14. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all class members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual class members. These common questions include, but are not limited to:

- a. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees with their rest periods;
- b. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees with their meal periods;
- c. Whether Defendants failed to pay premium wages to class members when they have not been provided with meal and rest periods at the appropriate rates of pay;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class members for all time worked;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay proper vacation wages;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage statements as a result of providing them with written wage statements with inaccurate entries for, among other things, amounts of gross and net wages, and total hours worked;
- g. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or incomplete final wage payments;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for all necessary business expenses incurred during the discharge of their duties;
- i. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code section 203; and
- j. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition;

15. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other class members' claims. Plaintiff

1 is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing
2 to comply with the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code as alleged in this 3 Complaint.

4 16. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative and 5 has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent class members
6 and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly and 7 adequately represent and protect the interests of the other class members.

8 17. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in that 9 they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent class members, are experienced in 10 wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf 11 of Plaintiff and absent class members.

12 18. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair and 13 efficient adjudication of the class members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and the 14 Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to simultaneously and 15 efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the unnecessary duplication of 16 effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In addition, the monetary amounts 17 due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively small and would thus make it
18 difficult, if not impossible, for individual class members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a 19 class action will serve an important public interest by permitting class members to effectively pursue
20 the recovery of monies owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent 21 or contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

22 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

23 19. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee during the relevant and 24 statutory periods.

25 20. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
26 and Class members proper wages and overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay.

27 21. Plaintiff and Class Members were consistently required to perform work, off-the-28 clock, for which they were not paid wages. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were required

1 to perform work during unpaid meal periods. The forgoing and uncompensated working time was 2 under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

3 22. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of 4 eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Plaintiff
5 and Class Members to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

6 23. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 7 Class Members the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with the California Law.
8 Specifically, Defendants had a common policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and Class Members
9 to perform work-related activities during unpaid meal periods. Further, Defendants failed to provide 10 Plaintiff and Class Members with the opportunity to take their meal periods prior to the completion 11 of their fifth hour of work.

12 24. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30)
13 minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal 14 period as part of each work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to 15 take their meal periods, or that advised Class Members of their meal and rest period rights; and (3)
16 Defendants' practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their meal and 17 rest periods due to the excessive workload.

18 25. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 19 Class Members the opportunity to take rest periods in compliance with the California Law. Plaintiff
20 and Class Members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4)
21 hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest
22 period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2)
23 no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods,
24 or that properly advised Plaintiff and Class Members of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy
25 and practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to 26 the excessive workload.

27 26. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members premium pay 28 wages at their appropriate regular rates of pay for each meal and rest period denied.

1 27. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with accurate wage statements as 2 mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226. Specifically, Defendants failed to issue wage 3 statements as “a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee’s wages, or 4 separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing.”
5 Additionally, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members were not recorded in “ink
6 or other indelible form.”

7 28. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as “gross wages 8 earned” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

9 29. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as “total hours worked 10 by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were 11 not included.

12 30. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as “net wages earned”
13 were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

14 31. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as “all applicable
15 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 16 hourly rate by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including 17 overtime, were not included.

18 32. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with paper pay 19 stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE Opinion Letters.
20 Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ wage statement were only provided in electronic format in violation 21 of Labor Code § 226.

22 33. Plaintiff and Class Members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in 23 executing their duties under Defendant’s employ. Specifically, Defendants failed to reimburse
24 Plaintiff and Class Members for necessary business expenses while requiring Plaintiff and Class
25 Members to work remotely from home during the COVID-19 pandemic. Plaintiff and Class Members
26 incurred expenses for home internet use, work technology, and utilities for Plaintiff’s and Class
27 Members’ home workspaces, including gas, water, electricity, and rent.

28 34. Finally, Defendants also had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to

1 pay Plaintiff and Class Members the requisite and accrued vacation time pay in accordance with 2 California Law. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members accrued vested vacation time and/or paid
3 time off. However, Defendants failed to pay all accrued vacation time and/or paid time off owed to 4 Plaintiff and Class Members upon their separation from employment.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

7 (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1174, and 1198)

8 (Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class)

9 35. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if 10 fully alleged herein.

11 36. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members have been 12 non-exempt employees of Defendant entitled to the full meal period protections of both the Labor
13 Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

14 37. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
15 Commission Wage Order impose an affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt
16 employees with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period
17 of five hours, and to provide them with two uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty 18 minutes for each work period of ten hours.

19 38. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
20 Commission Wage Order (“Wage Order”) both prohibit employers from requiring employees to work 21 during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of 22 premium wages on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required meal period.

23 39. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
24 Code section 200.

25 40. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 26 violate the applicable Wage Order.

27 41. Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order states:

28 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than

1 five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except 2 that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete
3 the day's work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 4 the employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty 5 during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 6 'on duty' meal period and counted as time worked. An 'on duty' meal period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.

7 42. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was not subject to a valid on-duty meal period
8 agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Meal Period Sub-Class
9 members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

10 43. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
11 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
12 Sub-Class with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5)
13 hour work period, as required by Labor Code section 512 and the applicable Wage Order.
14 Specifically, Defendants had a common policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and Meal Period
15 Sub-Class members to perform work-related activities during unpaid meal periods. Further, 16 Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members with the opportunity to 17 take their meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work.

18 44. Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were not provided with meal periods
19 of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not 20 scheduling each meal period as part of each work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that 21 encouraged employees to take their meal periods, or that advised Meal Period Sub-Class members
22 of their meal and rest period rights; and (3) Defendants' practice of requiring Meal Period Sub-Class
23 members to continue working through their meal and rest periods due to the excessive workload.

24 45. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
25 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium wages to Meal Period Sub-
26 Class members when they worked five (5) hours without clocking out for any meal period.

27 46. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
28 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period

1 Sub-Class with a second meal period when they worked shifts of ten (10) or more hours and failed
2 to pay them premium wages as required by Labor Code 512 and the applicable Wage Order.

3 47. Moreover, Defendants written policies fail to inform Meal period Class Members of 4 their meal period rights under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

5 48. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-
6 Class members additional premium wages, and/or were not paid premium wages at the employees'
7 regular rates of pay when required meal periods were not provided.

8 49. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6, 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff, on behalf of 9 himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest 10 thereon, and costs of suit.

11 50. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 12 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the 13 Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

14 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

15 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

16 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198)

17 (Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class)

18 51. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 19 herein.

20 52. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members have been 21 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of both the Labor
22 Code and the applicable Wage Order.

23 53. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on 24 employers to permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than ten 25 (10) minutes of net rest time for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, that must 26 be in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

27 54. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order both prohibit 28 employers from requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to

1 pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay, on each
2 workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

3 55. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
4 Code section 200.

5 56. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 6 violate the Wage Order.

7 57. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
8 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing members of the Rest Period Sub-Class
9 with net rest period of at least ten (10) uninterrupted minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or 10 major fraction thereof, as required by the applicable Wage Order.

11 58. Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were not provided with rest periods of 12 at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1)
13 Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second 14 rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that 15 encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Plaintiff and Rest Period
16 Sub-Class members of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring Rest
17 Period Sub-Class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to the excessive 18 workload.

19 59. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class 20 members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not provided.

21 60. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself
22 and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and 23 costs of suit.

24 61. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 25 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Rest
26 Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

27 ///

28 ///

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PAY HOURLY AND OVERTIME WAGES

3 (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

4 (Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class)

5 62. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
6 herein.

7 63. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members are or have been 8 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the 9 applicable Wage Order.

10 64. Section 2 of the applicable Wage Order defines “hours worked” as “the time during 11 which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, and includes all the time the employee 12 is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

13 65. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt
14 employees at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours 15 that an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

16 66. Labor Code section 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an 17 employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable Wage 18 Order.

19 67. Labor Code section 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated
20 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in addition 21 to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

22 68. Labor Code section 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less
23 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours worked during a 24 payroll period.

25 69. Labor Code section 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other 26 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent or employee of another person, to pay an 27 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

28 70. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under

1 conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

2 71. Labor Code section 204 requires employers to pay non-exempt employees their earned
3 wages for the normal work period at least twice during each calendar month on days the employer
4 designates in advance and to pay non-exempt employees their earned wages for labor performed in 5 excess of the normal work period by no later than the next regular payday.

6 72. Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower 7 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

8 73. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order require employees 9 to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half (1.5) times their 10 respective regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, all 11 hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight (8) hours 12 worked on the seventh consecutive day of one workweek.

13 74. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order also require 14 employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two (2) times their respective 15 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in one workday and for all 16 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on a seventh consecutive workday during the workweek.

17 75. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have applied
18 centrally devised policies and practices to him and Hourly Employee Class members with respect to 19 working conditions and compensation arrangements.

20 76. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay hourly wages to Plaintiff and Hourly
21 Employee Class members for all time worked, including but not limited to, overtime hours at 22 statutory and/or agreed rates.

23 77. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were not paid proper wages and 24 overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay.

25 78. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were consistently required to perform
26 work, off-the-clock for which they were not paid wages. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee
27 Class members were required to perform work-related activities during unpaid meal periods. The 28 forgoing and uncompensated working time was under the direction and control of Defendants, for

1 which no wages were paid.

2 79. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to 3 work in excess of eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week,
4 entitling Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to minimum and overtime wages, which 5 they were systemically denied.

6 80. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
7 members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the 8 full amount of wages earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period, 9 including overtime wages.

10 81. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 218.6, 223, 510, 1194 and 1194.2, Plaintiff, on 11 behalf of himself and Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover unpaid straight time and 12 overtime wages, interest thereon and costs of suit.

13 82. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 14 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 15 Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

16 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 FAILURE TO PAY VACATION WAGES

18 (Lab. Code § 227.3)

19 (Plaintiff and Vacation Pay Class)

20 83. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully alleged herein.

21 84. California Labor Code section 227.3 provides:

22 Unless otherwise provided by a collective-bargaining agreement, 23 whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for 24 paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off 25 his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as 26 wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of employment 27 or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served; provided, however, that an employment contract or employer policy shall not provide for forfeiture of vested vacation time upon termination. The Labor Commissioner or a designated representative, in the resolution of any dispute with regard to vested vacation time, shall apply the principles of equity and fairness.

28 85. At all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Plaintiff and members

1 of the Vacation Pay Class accrued vacation time, and/or paid time off, during their employment
2 with Defendants.

3 86. However, Defendants implemented a common policy and practice of failing to pay
4 Plaintiff and Vacation Pay Class members for all accrued vacation wages upon separation of 5 employment, in violation of Labor Code 227.3.

6 87. By reason of the above, Plaintiff and the members of the Vacation Pay Class are 7 entitled to restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of 8 the filing of the original Complaint until the date of entry of judgment.

9 88. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the members of the Vacation Pay Class, seeks 10 interest thereon pursuant to California Labor Code section 218.6, costs pursuant to California
11 Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil 12 Procedure section 1021.5.

13 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WRITTEN WAGE STATEMENTS

15 (Lab. Code § 226)

16 (Plaintiff and Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

17 89. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
18 herein.

19 90. Labor Code section 226(a) states:

20 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, 21 shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the 22 check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if 23 wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized
24 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours 25 worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the 26 number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 27 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that 28 all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all

1 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 2 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 3 employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if the employer is a temporary 4 services employer as defined in Section 201.3, the rate of pay and the 5 total hours worked for each temporary services assignment. The 6 deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or 7 other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, 8 and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be 9 kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of 10 employment or at a central location within the State of California. For 11 purposes of this subdivision, ‘copy’ includes a duplicate of the itemized 12 statement provided to an employee or a computer-generated record that 13 accurately shows all of the information required by this subdivision.

14 91. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) has sought to harmonize the 15 “detachable part of the check” provision and the “accurate itemized statement in writing” provision
16 of Labor Code section 226(a) by allowing for electronic wage statements so long as each employee
17 retains the right to elect to receive a written paper stub or record and that those who are provided with 18 electronic wage statements retain the ability to easily access the information and convert the electronic 19 statements into hard copies at no expense to the employee. (DLSE Opinion Letter July 6, 2006).

20 92. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
21 limitations period, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members
22 with written wage statements as described above. Additionally, the wage statements issued to class
23 members failed to account for the unpaid minimum wages, overtime, and premium pay wages 24 described above.

25 93. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class
26 Members with paper pay stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE
27 Opinion Letters. Plaintiff’s and Wage Statement Class members’ wage statements were only 28 provided in electronic format in violation of Labor Code § 226.

93. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ failure to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members with accurate written wage statements was intentional in that Defendants have the ability to provide them with accurate wage statements but have intentionally provided them with written wage statements that Defendants have known do not comply with Labor Code section 226(a).

95. Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members have suffered injuries, in that

1 Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them
2 about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage
3 statements has prevented immediate challenges to Defendants' unlawful pay practices, has required
4 discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused 5 difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the 6 submission of inaccurate information about wages and deductions to federal and state government 7 agencies.

8 96. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Wage
9 Statement Class members, seeks the greater of actual damages or $50.00 for the initial pay period in 10 which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for each subsequent pay period
11 in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of 12 $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

13 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

15 (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

16 (Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

17 97. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 18 herein.

19 98. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have 20 been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely payment of all wages 21 earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

22 99. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 201, employees who have been 23 discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

24 100. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 202, employees who have 25 resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours' notice of resignation have been entitled to 26 payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

27 101. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
28 limitations period, Defendants have failed to timely pay Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class

1 members all their final wages in accordance with the Labor Code.

2 102. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
3 limitations period, Defendants have maintained a policy or practice of paying Waiting Time
4 Penalties Sub-Class members their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code
5 sections 201 or 202 by failing to timely pay them all final wages.

6 103. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants' failure to 7 timely pay all final wages to him and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members has been willful
8 in that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 9 and/or 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practices that are incompatible with those 10 requirements.

11 104. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 12 Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seeks waiting time penalties from the dates that their 13 final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of thirty days, and interest thereon.

14 105. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
15 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-
16 Class members, seeks awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

17 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY

19 (Lab. Code § 2802)

20 (Plaintiff and Reimbursement Class)

21 106. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
22 herein.

23 107. Labor Code section 2802(a) states:

24 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary
25 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence 26 of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the 27 directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, 28 at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

27 108. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for 28 business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically,

1 Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members for necessary
2 business expenses while requiring Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members to work
3 remotely from home during the COVID-19 pandemic. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class
4 members incurred expenses for home internet use, work technology, and utilities for Plaintiff's and 5 Expense Reimbursement Class members' home workspaces, including gas, water, electricity, and 6 rent.

7 109. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members are entitled to 8 restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of the filing of 9 the Complaint and until the date of entry of judgment.

10 110. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, and Expense Reimbursement Class members, seeks 11 interest thereon and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees and 12 costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

13 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 UNFAIR COMPETITION

15 (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

16 (Plaintiff and UCL Class)

17 111. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 18 herein.

19 112. Business and Professions Code section 17200 defines "unfair competition" to include 20 any unlawful business practice.

21 113. Business and Professions Code sections 17203-17204 allow a person who has lost
22 money or property as a result of unfair competition to bring a class action in accordance with Code
23 of Civil Procedure section 382 to recover money or property that may have been acquired from 24 similarly situated persons by means of unfair competition.

25 114. California law requires employers to pay hourly, non-exempt employees for all hours 26 they are permitted or suffered to work, including hours that the employer knows or reasonable should 27 know that employees have worked.

28 115. Plaintiff and the UCL Class members re-allege and incorporate the FIRST, SECOND,

1 THIRD, FOURTH, and SEVENTH causes of action herein.

2 116. Plaintiff lost money or property as a result of the aforementioned unfair competition.

3 117. Defendants have or may have acquired money by means of unfair competition.

4 118. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that by committing the Labor
5 Code violations described in this Complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 215, 216, 225,
6 226.6, 226.7, 227.3, 354, 408, 512, 510, 553, 1175, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199,
7 and 2802 as well as applicable Wage Orders, which make it a misdemeanor to commit the violations
8 alleged herein.

9 119. Defendants have committed criminal conduct through their policies and practices of,
10 inter alia, failing to comport with their affirmative obligations as an employer to: provide non-exempt
11 employees with compliant meal and rest periods; pay for all hours worked at the proper rates of pay;
12 and reimbursement for necessary business expenditures.

13 120. Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged in this Complaint amounts to and constitutes 14 unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.
15 Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. protects against unfair competition and allows 16 a person who has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property as a result of an unfair, 17 unlawful or fraudulent business practice to seek restitution on his own behalf and on behalf of 18 similarly situated persons in a class action proceeding.

19 121. As a result of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code during the applicable
20 limitations period, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property in the form
21 of earned wages. Specifically, Plaintiff has lost money or property as a result of Defendants' conduct.

22 122. Plaintiff is informed and believes that other similarly situated persons have been 23 subject to the same unlawful policies or practices of Defendants.

24 123. Due to the unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code, 25 Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in 26 the State of California that comply with their legal obligations.

27 124. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") permits civil recovery and injunctive
28 relief for "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice," including if a practice or act

1 violates or is considered unlawful under any other state or federal law.

2 125. Accordingly, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200 and 17203,
3 Plaintiff requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
4 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
5 Code and applicable Wage Orders.

6 126. Accordingly, pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code sections 17200 and 17203, Plaintiff
7 requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
8 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
9 Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders; and upon a final hearing seeks 10 an order permanently enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their respective agents and 11 employees, from further violations of the Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission 12 Wage Orders.

13 127. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 14 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully
15 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful 16 and unfair business practices.

17 128. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
18 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
19 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

20 129. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 21 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully
22 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful 23 and unfair business practices.

24 130. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
25 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
26 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

13 alleged Labor Code violations during the applicable limitations period, is an aggrieved employee
14 within the meaning of Labor Code § 2699(c). Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt 15 hourly employee in California. Aggrieved Employees include all non-exempt hourly employees of
