1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 The parties to this action have reached a Settlement and the Court preliminarily approved the 3 Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Agreement”), a true and correct copy of which 4 is attached as Exhibit #2 to the Declaration of Norman Blumenthal (“Blumenthal Decl.”).¹ In 5 accordance with the Preliminary Approval Orders dated October 20, 2025 and January 13, 2026
6 (“Preliminary Approval Order”), the approved Class Notice has been disseminated to the Class.²

7 The purpose of this hearing is to determine whether the proposed settlement of the litigation 8 should be finally approved. Plaintiff Tikia Hopkins (“Plaintiff”) respectfully moves for final approval, 9 including attorneys’ fees, costs and the service awards, and the proposed entry of the Final Approval 10 Order and Judgment, submitted herewith. The settlement represents an excellent result for the Class 11 and avoids the delays, risks, and costs of further litigation. After disseminating the notice to the 12 members of the Class, there were no objections and only one (1) request for exclusion, which means 13 that nearly the entire Class (99.69%) has elected to participate in the Settlement. Blumenthal Decl. ¶5.
14 This is a positive response from the Class evidencing their collective approval of the settlement. As a 15 result, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the class settlement should be finally approved for the same 16 reasons that the Court preliminarily approved the settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate.

17 II. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

18 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid by Defendant 19 Child Action, Inc. ("Defendant") is One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) (the "Gross Settlement Amount") 20 (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.22 and 3.1.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the 21 following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members;
22 (2) Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration
23 Expenses Payment; (4) the Class Representative Service Payment to the Plaintiff; and (5) the PAGA
24 Penalties payment. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant’s

25 _____
26 ¹ Capitalized terms are defined in the Agreement.

27 ² The “Class” is defined as “all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant Child 28 Action, Inc. who were classified as non-exempt in the State of California during the Class Period.” The “Class Period” is “February 13, 2020 through April 14, 2025.” Preliminary Approval Order, ¶6.

1 share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no 2 reversion to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Blumenthal Decl. ¶4(b). The following is a table of the 3 key financial terms of the Settlement and the proposed deductions:

4 $1,000,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)

- 5 - $15,000 (Plaintiff's proposed service award - not to exceed amount)
- 6 - $28,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- 7 - $333,333 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
- 8 - $25,000 (PAGA Payment - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Aggrieved Employees)
- 9 - $8,250 (Administration Expenses Payment)

7 $590,417 (Net Settlement Amount)

8 The specific details of the Settlement were discussed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval and are 9 set forth again in the Declaration of Blumenthal at ¶¶ 4(c)-4(i).

10 The Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable to the class and should be finally approved for 11 the same reasons the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement, agreeing that the settlement 12 is "fair, adequate, and reasonable." (Preliminary Approval Order at 3:14-15.) In sum, the Settlement 13 valued at $1,000,000 is an excellent result for the Class. This result is particularly favorable in light 14 of the fact that liability and class certification in this case were far from certain in light of the defenses 15 asserted by Defendant. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses asserted, the uncertainty of 16 class certification, along with the uncertainties of proof at trial and appeal, the proposed settlement is 17 fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Blumenthal Decl. ¶4(j).

18 III. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL 19 OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

20 Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum, 52 Cal. App. 4th 259, 21 265 (1997). In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly 22 appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran.
23 v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1151 (2000) ("[V]oluntary conciliation and settlement are 24 the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation.")

25 The court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable 26 settlements, taking into account that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting 27 subjective, unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See 28 Wershba v. Apple Computer, 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 246 (2001) ("The proposed settlement is not to be

1 judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs 2 prevailed at trial.”) In Wershba, the Court explained that “the merits of the underlying class claims are 3 not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Id.; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

4 In these cases, courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that 5 the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 245. Courts should not substitute 6 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. at 246. The presumption of 7 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 8 act intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is 9 experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 10 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). Here, the facts and circumstances compel the conclusion that the 11 proposed settlement satisfies that standard and the presumption applies.

12 IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE AND ADEQUATE

13 The Court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford
14 Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996); see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n, 688
15 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement 16 is fair. Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117 (2009). “The well-recognized 17 factors that the trial court should consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement 18 agreement include 'the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 19 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 20 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views 21 of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the 22 proposed settlement.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008) (internal 23 citations omitted); see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L. A., 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408 24 (2010).

25 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
26 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.
27 Id. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the 28 agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties,

1 and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id.
2 “Ultimately, the [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, 3 gross approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]” Id.

4 These factors are analyzed seriatim below, and all support final approval of the class action 5 settlement before this Court, consistent with this Court’s Preliminary Approval Order.

6 A. The Settlement Satisfies the California Test for Fairness

7 1. The Investigation and Analysis of Documents are Sufficient to Allow Counsel 8 and the Court to Act Intelligently

9 Over the course of more than two years of litigation, the Parties engaged in the investigation of 10 the claims, including the production of documents, class data, and other information, allowing for the 11 full and complete analysis of liabilities and defenses to the claims in this Action. The procedural history 12 and investigation performed was detailed at length in support of the motion for preliminary approval.
13 The Parties participated in mediation on February 24, 2025 with Hon. David Rottman, which after arms’ 14 length negotiations both during and after the mediation, resulted in this Settlement. The details of the 15 litigation are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl. at ¶¶ 7(a)-7(g).

16 2. The Settlement was Reached Through Arm’s Length Bargaining

17 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations before 18 an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continue to deny any 19 wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiff and Class 20 Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released Class
21 Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement, based upon the experience of Class Counsel 22 who has previously litigated similar claims against other employers. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(a).

23 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with David Rottman, a respected jurist 24 and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement. In 25 preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with payroll and employment data 26 and other information regarding the Class Members, various internal documents, and other 27 compensation and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the assistance 28 of damages expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to the mediator. The 1 final settlement terms were negotiated and set forth in the Agreement. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(b).

2 The fact that the settlement was negotiated with the assistance of an experienced mediator
3 supports approval. Alberto v. GMRI, Inc., 252 F.R.D. 652, 666 (E.D. Cal. Jun 24, 2008); Glass v. UBS
4 Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476; 15 Wage & Hour Cas. 2d (BNA) 1330, at *15 (N.D. Cal.
5 2007) (“The settlement was negotiated and approved by experienced counsel on both sides of the 6 litigation, with the assistance of a well-respected mediator with substantial experience in employment 7 litigation[, and] this factor supports approval of the settlement”).

8 From May 2025 to July 2025, the initial settlement agreement and exhibits thereto were 9 finalized and executed. On October 20, 2025, the Court issued its Order granting preliminary approved 10 of the settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable to the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(c).

11 3. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

12 Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience and has represented thousands 13 of persons in class actions including employment litigation, wage and hour class actions, and complex 14 litigation. Class Counsel has previously litigated wage and hour class actions involving employees and 15 claims similar to this case and have been approved as experienced class counsel during contested 16 motions in state and federal courts throughout California. The experience of counsel and class action 17 cases managed and settled by the Class Counsel in this action is provided to the Court in the Blumenthal 18 Decl. at Exhibit #1. Class Counsel have participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and 19 have concluded the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class.
20 Blumenthal Decl. ¶ 4(j).

21 4. There Are No Objections and Only One (1) Request for Exclusion

22 The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. On January 16, 23 2026, the Administrator mailed the Court-approved Class Notice to the Class Members, which provided 24 each class member with the terms of the Settlement, including notice of the claims at issue and the 25 financial terms of the settlement, including the attorneys' fees, costs, and service award that were being 26 sought, how individual settlement awards would be calculated, and the specific, estimated payment 27 amount to that individual. See Declaration of Madely Nava (“Nava Decl.”) ¶ 7, Exh. A. In 28 disseminating the notice, the Administrator followed the notice procedures authorized by the Court in

1 its Preliminary Approval Order. Significantly, there have been no objections and only one (1) request 2 to opt-out. Nava Decl. ¶¶ 11-12. As such, the nearly the entire Class (99.69%) will participate in the 3 Settlement and will be sent a settlement check. See Nava Decl. at ¶¶ 11-14; Blumenthal Decl. ¶5.

4 The absence of any objector strongly supports the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the 5 Settlement. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation, 80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 (S.D.N.Y.
6 2000) ("If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as indicative of the 7 adequacy of the settlement."); Stoetznner v. U.S. Steel Corp., 897 F.2d 115, 118-119 (3d. Cir. 1990) (29
8 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"); Laskey v. Int'l Union, 638 F.2d 954 9 (6th Cir. 1981) (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed settlement should 10 be considered when determining fairness of settlement). Here, where there are no objections, the 11 approval of the class is evident.

12 5. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case

13 The Action generally alleges that Plaintiff and other Class Members were not properly paid all 14 overtime wages for hours worked and at the correct rate of pay, were not provided meal and rest periods 15 or paid premiums at the correct rate of pay in lieu thereof, were not timely paid earned wages, were not 16 provided reimbursement for required expenses, were not provided accurate itemized wage statements, 17 were not pay all sick wages and the correct rate of pay, and were not paid all wages at the time of 18 termination. The Action seeks unpaid wages, penalties, attorney fees, litigation costs, and any other 19 equitable or legal relief allegedly due and owing to Plaintiff and the other Class Members by virtue of 20 the foregoing claims. Blumenthal Decl. ¶6.

21 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
22 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by 23 Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Defendant 24 asserted that Defendant's practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant argued that 25 Class Members were paid for all time worked and that all work time was properly recorded and 26 compensation for that time was correctly compensated. Defendant argued that the rounding practices 27 were lawful, facially neutral and resulting in overpayment of wages. Defendant contends that its meal 28 and rest period policies fully complied with California law and Defendant did not fail to provide the

1 opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks. Defendant contends that there was no failure to 2 pay for business expenses and any cell phone usage was merely convenient and voluntary such that 3 reimbursement was not legally required. Finally, Defendant could argue that the Supreme Court 4 decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiff's claims, on liability, 5 value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also argues that based 6 on their facially lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if 7 accepted would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See 8 e.g. Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (May 6, 2024) ("if an employer 9 reasonably and in good faith believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in 10 compliance with the requirements of section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed to 11 comply with the wage statement law.") Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce 12 any recovery to the Class. While Plaintiff believes that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant 13 maintains these defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class.
14 Blumenthal Decl. ¶9(a).

15 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 16 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 (N.D. Cal. 2009), explained in approving an overtime class action settlement:

17 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued litigation are great.
18 Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' principal claim... [...]he gross 19 settlement amount and the Class Members' expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

20 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at *19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009); see also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 21 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In considering the strength of Plaintiff's case, legal 22 uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor 23 approval."). As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

24 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting 25 final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties of proving damages, recognize the 26 uncertainty of outcome, and believe defendant would appeal in the event of adverse 27 judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay 28 payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

1 Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.
2 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

3 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiff would be unable 4 to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on behalf 5 of any employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully opposed 6 the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification. Further, 7 as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 8 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even where the 9 class has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, 10 class certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class through trial 11 was by no means a foregone conclusion. Blumenthal Decl. ¶9(b).

12 In sum, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable result, and provides the Class with a significant 13 recovery, particularly when viewed in light of the fact that the Defendant asserted serious and 14 substantial defenses both to liability and to class certification. Currently, the maximum and average 15 class member allocation are $3,602.38 and $1,822.27, respectively. See Nava Decl. ¶ 16. Given the 16 complexities of this case, the defenses, along with the uncertainties of proof and appeal, the proposed 17 Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶9(e).

18 6. The Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely Duration of Further Litigation

19 As demonstrated by the decision in Duran, the complexities and duration of further litigation 20 cannot be overstated. There is little doubt that Defendant would post a bond and appeal in the event 21 of an adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal by Defendant would have required many more years 22 to resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case 23 could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh 24 an uncertain result three or more years in the future. Blumenthal Decl. ¶9(c).

25 Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of continuing to litigate and trying 26 this Action against Defendant through possible appeals which could take several years. Class Counsel 27 has also taken into account the uncertain outcome and risk of litigation, especially in complex class 28 actions such as this Action. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of 1 proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Moreover, post-trial motions 2 and appeals would have been inevitable. Costs would have mounted and recovery would have been 3 delayed if not denied, thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory. The Settlement confers 4 substantial benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have 5 determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class.

6 Blumenthal Decl. ¶9(c).

7 Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that their case has merit, which Defendant 8 continue to vigorously deny, they recognized the potential risks both sides would face if litigation of 9 the Action continued. As the federal court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar 10 to those in this litigation:

11 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 12 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of how 13 this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 14 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 15 litigating an appeal. "The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 16 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement."

17 Id. at *12.

18 7. The Amount Offered in Settlement

19 The Settlement in this case is fair, reasonable and adequate considering Defendant's defenses
20 to Plaintiff's claims. As set forth in the Declaration of Nordrehaug in support of preliminary approval 21 which discussed the value of the class claims in detail, the Gross Settlement Amount compares 22 favorably to the value of the claims. Based upon 324 Class Members who collectively worked 44,252 23 Workweeks (Nava Decl., at ¶¶ 14-15), the Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of 24 $3,030 per Class Member and $22.59 per Workweek and after deductions the Net Settlement Amount 25 provides an average recovery of $1,822.27 per Class Member and a recovery of $13.34 per Workweek.
26 Blumenthal Decl. at ¶9(d).

27 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation 28 were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiff's damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at issue in this Action, Plaintiff used this expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid wages for the employees. The maximum potential damages were calculated to be $101,488 for the 1 alleged unpaid wages due to rounding practices, $61,621 for the alleged underpaid overtime due for 2 shifts over 8 hours, $2,270 for the alleged unpaid overtime wages due to the miscalculation of the 3 regular rate, $48 for the alleged unpaid meal premiums due to the miscalculation of the regular rate, 4 $1,466,544 for alleged meal period damages based upon a 33.5% potential violation rate for shifts 5 observed in the time records and after deduction for meal premiums already paid by Defendant, and 6 $1,470,374 for alleged rest period damages based upon the same 33.5% potential violation rate observed 7 for meal breaks, $53,720 for alleged unreimbursed business expenses for personal cell phone usage at 8 $5 per month. As a result, the total damage valuation was calculated that Defendant was subject to a 9 maximum damage claim in the amount of $3,156,065. As to potential penalties, Plaintiff calculated 10 that potential waiting time penalties were a maximum of between $50,247 and $596,681, depending 11 on the predicate violation, and potential maximum wage statement penalties were $981,400.³

12 Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiff's calculations and exposure theories. Blumenthal Decl. ¶9(d).

13 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $1,000,000 represents more than 31% of the 14 maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.⁴
15 Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v.
16 Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for 17 waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the Class. The above maximum 18 calculations should then be adjusted in consideration for both the risk of class certification and the risk 19 of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the settlement as compared to 20

22 ³ While Plaintiff alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 226, 23 at mediation Plaintiff recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses asserted
24 by Defendant, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for meal or rest 25 periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiff and Class Members were 26 properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There 27 is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether 28 and when the wages were due.").

⁴ Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, Plaintiff has not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The PAGA claim was addressed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval in the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶33.

1 the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by Defendant, this settlement is fair
2 and reasonable.⁵ Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met. Blumenthal Decl. ¶9(d).

3 V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND SERVICE AWARD SHOULD 4 BE APPROVED

5 A. The Attorneys' Fees are Reasonable and Supported by the Percentage of the Fund
6 Method

7 Class Counsel seeks a fee award calculated at one-third (1/3) of the total value of the settlement 8 for the successful prosecution and resolution of this action. California state and federal courts have 9 recognized that an appropriate method for determining award of attorneys' fees is based on a percentage 10 of the total value of benefits to class members by the settlement. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91
11 Cal.App.4th 224, 254 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 12 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 557 F.2d 759, 769 (9th Cir. 1997). The 13 purpose of this equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust enrichment to the Class and to "spread litigation 14 costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 15 burden alone." Vincent, 557 F.2d at 769.

16 The California Supreme Court has provided guidance regarding the award of attorneys' fees in 17 wage and hour class action settlements. Under California law, the award of attorneys' fees in common 18 fund wage and hour class action settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v.
19 Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503 (2016) ("We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state
20 courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 21 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court

22 ⁵ See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 23 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 24 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 25 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents 26 approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Dunleavy v.
27 Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.), 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) (affirming approval of 28 a class settlement which represented "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery".) See also Viceral v.
Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D.
Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund
2 created”). Under the percentage of the fund method, a court’s objective remains to “mimic the market”
3 in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998).

4 First, the fee award representing one-third of the fund clearly falls within that range and is 5 consistent with other rulings of other courts and comprehensive surveys of class action settlements and 6 fee awards. Attorneys’ fees awards of one-third of the fund are within the expected range in the market
7 in legal services. See Fitzpatrick, An Empirical Study of Class Action Settlements and Their Fee Award, 8 7 J. Empirical Leg. Stud. 811, 833 (2010) (analyzing 444 cases between 2006-2007 and concluding that 9 “[m]ost fee awards were between 25 percent and 35 percent”). In Laffitte, the Court expressly approved 10 of a one-third fee award. Such similar awards by other Courts are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl. ¶12.

11 Second, the results delivered by Class Counsel also support the requested percentage of the fund.
12 Here, Plaintiff and her counsel secured a $1,000,000 settlement for the benefit of the Class, and not one 13 Class Member objected. The Settlement was possible only because Class Counsel was able to convince 14 Defendant that Plaintiff could potentially prevail on the contested issues regarding liability, maintain 15 class certification, overcome difficulties in proof as to monetary relief and take the case to trial if need 16 be. Blumenthal Decl. ¶11(f). In successfully navigating these hurdles Class Counsel displayed the 17 necessary skills in both wage and hour and class action litigation. Moreover, as discussed above, there 18 were significant risks to the contingent litigation. See Barbosa v. Cargill Meat Solutions Corp., 297 19 F.R.D. 431, 449 (E.D. Cal. 2013) (“Like this case, where recovery is uncertain, an award of 20 one-third of the common fund as attorneys' fees has been found to be appropriate.”)

21 Third, “the response of the class members to attorneys’ fee notice, though not decisive, is 22 relevant to the ... reasonable determination” regarding fees. Swedish Hospital v. Shalala, 1 F.3d 1261, 23 1272 (D.C. Cir. 1993). A positive response rate tends to suggest that the court’s “approximation of the 24 market” for fees is well supported. Id. at 1269. Here, the Class Notice specifically notified the Class that 25 Class Counsel would be seeking a one-third fee award. Again, there were no objections.

26 Fourth, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced attorney’s fees 27 reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. Here, it is clear that a settlement fund of 28 $1,000,000 has been created. For Class Counsel, the fees here were wholly contingent in nature and the

1 case presented far more risk than the usual contingent fee case. Among the risks was the cost inherent 2 in class action litigation, as well as a long battle with a corporate Defendant who had retained a premier 3 and highly experienced defense firm. Counsel retained on a contingency fee basis, whether in 4 private matters or in class action litigation, is entitled to a premium above their hourly rate in 5 order to compensate for both the risks and the delay in payment. See e.g. Stanger v. China Elec.
6 Motor, Inc., 812 F.3d 734, 741 (9th Cir. 2016) (courts "must" apply a risk enhancement); Stetson v.
7 Grissom, 821 F.3d 1157, 1166 (9th Cir. 2016) (abuse of discretion not to apply risk multiplier).

8 Fifth, the requested fee award is supported by the lodestar cross-check. The reasonableness of 9 the requested attorneys' fee of one-third equal to $333,333 is also established by reference to Class 10 Counsel's lodestar in this matter. The contemporaneous billing records for Class Counsel evidence 11 that through April 21, 2026, Class Counsel's lodestar is $154,600.00, with significant additional 12 fees still to be incurred to complete final approval and the settlement process. See Blumenthal 13 Decl. at ¶13 and Exhibit #3. The requested fee award is therefore currently equivalent to Class 14 Counsel's total lodestar with a reasonable multiplier cross-check of less than 2.2, and there will be 15 additional lodestar incurred by Class Counsel to complete the settlement process and manage the 16 settlement distribution and reports. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶13.) Such a multiplier is within the range 17 of multipliers approved in other cases such as Laffitte and Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 18 1051 (9th Cir. 2002).⁶ As noted in Laffitte, the lodestar multiplier cross-check "does not override the 19 trial court's primary determination of the fee as a percentage of the common fund" and Courts may only 20 consider adjustment when the "cross-check is extraordinarily high or low". Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal. 5th 21 at 505. For such reasons, Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees in the amount of one-third of the

v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (2008) (affirming multiplier of 2.53 as well within the approved range of 2 to 4); Taylor v. Fedex Freight, Inc., 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 142202 (E.D. Cal. 2016) (2.26 30, 2011) (4.3 multiplier is reasonable).

1 common fund is fair and reasonable, and should be approved.

2 B. The Reimbursement of Litigation Expenses

3 The Agreement provides at paragraph 3.2(b), that Class Counsel may seek a “Class Counsel 4 Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $28,000.” Class Counsel requests reimbursement for 5 incurred litigation expenses and costs in the amount of $25,295.76. Class Counsel have incurred 6 litigations expenses in the amount of $25,295.76 based upon counsel’s billing records, and these 7 litigation expenses include the expenses incurred for filing fees, mediation expenses, expert expenses 8 (Berger Consulting), federal express charges, and attorney service charges (Knox, OneLegal), all of 9 which are costs normally billed to and paid by the client.⁷ The details of the litigation expenses incurred 10 are set forth the Blumenthal Decl. at ¶13 and Exhibit #3. These costs were reasonably incurred in the 11 prosecution of the Action and should be granted.

12 C. The Service Award Is Reasonable and Should be Approved

13 Plaintiff respectfully submit that for her service as the sole class representative, Plaintiff should 14 be awarded the agreed service award of $15,000, in accordance with the Agreement for her time, risk 15 and effort expended on behalf of the Class as the class representative. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) 16 Defendant has agreed to this payment and there have been no objections to the requested service award.
17 The Blumenthal Decl., at ¶15, provides a long list of equivalent service awards approved in California
18 in similar cases, which further supports the request in this case. The Plaintiff’s Declaration is submitted 19 in support of this request and are attached as Exhibit #5 to the Blumenthal Decl.

20 As the only representative of the Class, Plaintiff performed her duties to the Class admirably and 21 without exception. Plaintiff worked extensively with Class Counsel during the course of the litigation, 22 responding to numerous requests, searching for documents, working with counsel, and reviewing the 23 settlement documentation. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶ 15.) The Plaintiff’s Declaration details the 24 involvement, stress and risks she undertook as a result of this Action. Plaintiff also assumed the serious

28 photocopying, long-distance telephone calls, computer legal research, postage, courier service, mediation, exhibits, documents scanning, and visual equipment are typically recoverable.” Rutti v. Lojack Corp., Inc., 2012 WL 3151077, at *12 (C.D. Cal. 2012).

1 risk that she might possibly be liable for costs and fees to Defendant, as well as the reputational risk of 2 being “blacklisted” by other future employers for having filed a class action on behalf of employees.
3 (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶15.) Without the Plaintiff’s participation, cooperation and information, no other 4 employees would be receiving any benefit. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶¶ 16-17).

5 The payment of a service award to a successful class representative is appropriate and the 6 amount of $15,000 is well within the currently awarded range for similar settlements. See, e.g., Andrews
7 v. Plains All Am. Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (service awards
8 of $15,000 each are appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, 9 at *19 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (granting $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 10 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was 11 $351); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 06, 2008)

13 *16-17 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award). Class Counsel respectfully request 14 approval of the Class Representative Service Payment in accordance with the Agreement.

15 VI. CONCLUSION

16 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness 17 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate 18 and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment, submitted herewith.

19 Respectfully submitted,
