and 2699

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

1 Plaintiff FRANCISCO PEREZ, as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other 2 aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, alleges as 3 follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against E & A PALLETS
7 SERVICE, INC., a California corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated 8 companies within the State of California ("E & A PALLETS"), INTERNATIONAL PALLETS, 9 INC., a California corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within 10 the State of California ("INTERNATIONAL PALLETS") and INTERNATIONAL WOOD 11 PALLETS, INC., a California corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated 12 companies within the State of California ("INTERNATIONAL WOOD") (collectively, and with 13 DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, "Defendants"), as a proxy of the Labor and 14 Workforce Development Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and 15 all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty 16 Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with 17 Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 18 227.3, Labor Code section 245, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, 19 whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the 20 Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

21 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 22 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

23 3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 24 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the 25 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 26 began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff 27 and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of 28 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants,

1 or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff
2 and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous 3 Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

4 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 5 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 6 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 7 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
8 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 9 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 10 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

11 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 12 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
13 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 14 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

15 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 16 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 17 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 18 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 19 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

20 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 21 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 22 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 23 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

24 8. On or around October 20, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 25 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 26 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 27 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

28 ///

1 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 2 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 3 calendar days of the October 20, 2023 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 4 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

5 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

6 10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 7 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 8 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 9 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 10 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime 11 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 12 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 13 limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to 14 clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendant's control due to completing pre-shift tasks before 15 clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue 16 working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the 17 clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock, failing to include all forms of remuneration, 18 including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, mask allowances, gift cards 19 and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was 20 worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate 21 of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries 22 to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay to the 23 detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

24 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy 25 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours 26 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 27 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to come early 28 to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under

1 Defendants' control due to completing pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after 2 clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to 3 don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the 4 clock; detrimental rounding of employee time entries; and editing and/or manipulation of time
5 entries to show less hours than actually worked. In addition, Employee and other aggrieved 6 employees were required to report to work, and did report, but were not put to work and/or were 7 furnished less than half their usual or scheduled day's work without being paid for half the usual or 8 scheduled work at their regular rate of pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 9 Employees.

10 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 11 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 12 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 13 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 14 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 15 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 16 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 17 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 18 periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 19 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

20 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 21 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 22 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 23 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 24 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 25 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 26 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 27 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.
28

1 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
2 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 3 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 4 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 5 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 6 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the 7 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 8 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

9 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
10 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 11 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
12 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 13 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 14 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 15 Aggrieved Employees.

16 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
17 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages
18 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
19 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 20 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

21 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 22 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 23 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 24 and applicable Wage Orders.

25 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 26 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 27 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for purchasing 28 uniforms and for the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct

1 consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, 2 as required by Labor Code 2802.

3 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 4 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 5 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 6 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment;
7 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 8 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 9 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants
10 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

11 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 12 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 13 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not 14 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 15 all other Aggrieved Employees.

16 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 17 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 18 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 19 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 20 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 21 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

22 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
23 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 24 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 25 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 26 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 27 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 28 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200,

1 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 2 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

3 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 4 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 5 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 6 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 7 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies
8 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 9 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 10 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

11 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 12 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 13 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 14 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 15 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 16 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 17 economic liberty.

18 25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 19 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 20 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 21 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

22 PARTIES

23 A. Plaintiff

24 26. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff 25 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-26 exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, truck driving. Plaintiff is 27 informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately August of 2019 28 through approximately October of 2022.

1 B. Defendants

2 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant E & A 3 PALLETS is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and 4 by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, 5 State of California.

6 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant 7 INTERNATIONAL PALLETS is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and 8 existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County
9 of Los Angeles, State of California.

10 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant 11 INTERNATIONAL WOOD is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and 12 existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County
13 of Los Angeles, State of California.

14 30. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 15 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, 16 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
17 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 18 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
19 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 20 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 21 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 22 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 23 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 24 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to “Defendants,” it shall 25 include E & A PALLETS, INTERNATIONAL PALLETS, INTERNATIONAL WOOD, and any 26 of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State of California, as well as DOES 27 1 through 100 identified herein.

28 ///

1 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

2 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 3 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 4 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 5 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 6 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

7 32. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 8 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 9 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 10 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 11 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 12 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 13 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 14 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 15 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

16 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 17 formation of the purported corporate existence of E & A, INTERNATIONAL PALLETS, 18 INTERNATIONAL WOOD and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (the "Alter Ego Defendants"), they, 19 and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 51 through 100 ("Individual Defendants"), and 20 each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following reasons:

21 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 22 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws
23 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 24 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 25 inequitable purpose;

26 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 27 and through the Alter Ego Defendants' unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 28 the funding source for the Individual Defendants' own personal expenditures;

1 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 2 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 3 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 4 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

5 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs
6 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 7 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 8 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 9 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 10 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 11 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

12 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 13 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 14 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 15 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be 16 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud 17 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

18 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 19 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 20 disregarded.

21 34. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 22 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

23 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

25 35. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 26 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

27 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

28 36. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that:

1 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 2 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 3 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 4 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

5 37. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 6 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 7 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 8 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 9 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 10 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 11 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

12 38. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 13 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 14 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 15 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor 16 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 17 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee 18 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 19 Code section 204.

20 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

21 39. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
22 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 23 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 24 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; 25 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 26 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 27 entity securing the employer’s services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 28 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

40. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

41. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

43. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

Violation of Labor Code § 558

44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows:

- (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

(2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

(3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any “doing business as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

46. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

47. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, or papers of the person.”

48. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

49. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required

1 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 2 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 3 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
4 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 5 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 6 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 7 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 8 earned.”

9 50. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully 10 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 11 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 12 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 13 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

14 51. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 15 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 16 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
17 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
18 under Labor Code section 1174.

19 52. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 20 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 21 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 22 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

23 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

24 53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other 25 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 26 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 27 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 28 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203 as follows:

- (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.
- (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.
- (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

54. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, entitling Plaintiff and other aggrieved Employees to actual and liquidated damages.

55. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each

1 subsequent violation.

2 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

3 56. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 4 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 5 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 6 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 7 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 8 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

9 57. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 10 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 11 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person 12 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 13 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 14 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

15 58. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 16 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for 17 the failure to: pay the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, 18 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by Defendants, the 19 name of the employer, including “doing business as” names used, the name, address, and telephone 20 number of the workers’ compensation insurance carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and 21 other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants under Labor Code section 22 2810.5, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick 23 leave required to be provided pursuant to California and local laws.

24 59. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California 25 whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs in 26 connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.
