Time: 8:30 a.m.
Dept: 63

Complaint Filed: October 23, 2023
FAC Filed: May 9, 2025
Trial Date: Not Set

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on November 17, 2025 at 8:30 a.m. in Department 63 of 3 the above-captioned Court located at Redding Main Courthouse, 1515 Court Street, Redding, 4 California 96001, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, Rule 3.769 of the 5 California Rules of Court, and California Labor Code section 2699(l), Joseph Amyot (“Plaintiff”) will 6 and hereby does move the Court for an Order granting final approval of the proposed class action and 7 Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq.
8 (“PAGA”) settlement between Plaintiff and Defendant Silverthorn Resort, Inc. (“Defendant”).

9 Plaintiff requests that the Court enter an Order:

- 10 1. Granting final approval of the class action and PAGA settlement;
- 11 2. Approving the settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the terms as set 12 forth in the Court-approved Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement 13 Agreement” or “Settlement”), including payment by Defendant of the escalated Gross Settlement 14 Amount of Nine Hundred Seventy-Nine Thousand Nine Hundred Seventeen Dollars and Zero Cents
15 ($979,917.00) equal to the amounts to pay (1) the Settlement Class Members and PAGA Employees 16 pursuant to the terms of the Settlement; (2) the Court-approved Attorneys’ Fees and Costs; (3) the 17 Court-approved Enhancement Payment; (4) the Court-approved Settlement Administration Costs; and 18 (5) the Court-approved payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency 19 (“LWDA”) pursuant to PAGA;
- 20 3. Approving Class Counsel’s request for one-third (1/3) of the escalated Gross 21 Settlement Amount, i.e., Three Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Six Hundred Thirty-Nine Dollars and 22 Zero Cents ($326,639.00) in attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement of actual costs and expenses in the 23 amount of Twenty Thousand Eight Hundred Thirty-Eight Dollars and Sixty-Five Cents ($20,838.65);
- 24 4. Approving the Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff in the amount of Ten Thousand 25 Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) in recognition of his services to the Class Members;
- 26 5. Approving the Settlement Administration Costs to ILYM Group, Inc. in the amount of 27 Nine Thousand Six Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($9,650.00); and 28 ///

6. Approving Thirty-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($37,500.00) to be paid to the LWDA as seventy-five percent (75%) of the Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,000.00) allocated to civil penalties under PAGA.

This Motion is made pursuant to Rule 3.769 and Rule 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of Court, which require approval by the Court of a class action settlement and permit the Court to extend the page limit for memoranda.

This Motion is based on the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Settlement Agreement, the Declarations of Class Counsel (Alexandra Rose), the Class Representative (Joseph Amyot), and the Settlement Administrator (Garvin Brown on behalf of ILYM Group, Inc.), the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter, and such evidence or oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: October 23, 2025

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Joseph Amyot (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) seeks final approval of the class 4 action settlement reached with Defendant Silverthorn Resort, Inc. (“Defendant”). Subject to Court 5 approval, Plaintiff and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) have settled the Released Class Claims and 6 Released PAGA Claims as defined in the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement
7 (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”) for a total amount of Nine Hundred Seventy-Nine 8 Thousand Nine Hundred Seventeen Dollars and Zero Cents ($979,917.00)¹ (“Gross Settlement 9 Amount”). (See Declaration of Alexandra Rose in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval 10 of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payment, and 11 Settlement Administration Costs (“Rose Decl.”, ¶ 14 and Exh. 1).

12 The Court conditionally certified, for settlement purposes only, the Class defined as: “All 13 current and former hourly paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State 14 of California at any time during the Class Period” (“Class” or “Class Members”). The “Class Period” 15 is defined as the period from October 23, 2019 through April 4, 2025. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.b; 16 Rose Decl., ¶ 12). The “Class Period” is defined as the period from October 23, 2019 through April 17 4, 2025. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.f; Rose Decl., ¶ 12). The “Settlement Class Members” consist 18 of all Class Members who did not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion. (Settlement 19 Agreement, ¶ 10.11; Rose Decl., ¶ 12). The “PAGA Employees” consist of “all current and former 20 hourly paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California at any 21 time during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.x; Rose Decl., ¶ 12). The “PAGA 22 Period” is defined as the period from October 20, 2022 through April 4, 2025. (Settlement Agreement, 23 ¶ 10.z; Rose Decl., ¶ 12).

24 As discussed herein, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for final settlement 25 approval under California law because it is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (Rose Decl., Exh. 1; See 26 also, Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-30; Dunk v. Ford Motor 27 Company (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 180 1). The response of the Class to the Settlement confirms

28

¹ The Escalator Clause of the Settlement Agreement was triggered. Accordingly, the Gross Settlement Amount was increased by approximately six percent (6%) (i.e., $55,467.00).

1 that final settlement approval is appropriate. There have been no objections to or to opt-out from the 2 Class Settlement. (Declaration of Garvin Brown of ILYM Group, Inc. Regarding Notice and 3 Settlement Administration [“ILYM Decl.”], ¶¶ 9 and 10).

4 Because the Settlement achieves outstanding results for the Settlement Class Members, the 5 PAGA Employees, and the State of California, Plaintiff respectfully requests, on behalf of the Class 6 and without opposition from Defendant, that the Court approve the Settlement as fair, adequate, and 7 reasonable, and enter judgment in accordance with the Settlement’s terms.

8 Plaintiff seeks the Court’s approval of an attorneys’ fee award of one-third (1/3) of the 9 escalated Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Three Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Six Hundred 10 Thirty-Nine Dollars and Zero Cents ($326,639.00), plus reimbursement of actual litigation costs and 11 expenses in the amount of Twenty Thousand Eight Hundred Thirty-Eight Dollars and Sixty-Five Cents 12 ($20,838.65) (together, “Attorneys’ Fees and Costs”). Class Counsel’s request for an award of 13 attorneys’ fees and costs is reasonable and appropriate in light of the outstanding work performed by 14 Class Counsel in the matter, the contingent nature of this action, and the results achieved under the 15 Settlement. (See Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19).

16 Plaintiff also requests the Court’s approval of the amount to be paid to Plaintiff in the amount 17 of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) (“Enhancement Payment”) for his services on 18 behalf of the Class. This amount proposed to be awarded to Plaintiff is fair and reasonable for the 19 reasons Plaintiff provided in his declaration. (See Declaration of Plaintiff Joseph Amyot in Support 20 of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, 21 Enhancement Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs [“Amyot Decl.”] filed concurrently 22 herewith). Courts approve incentive awards to plaintiffs when justified and appropriate to compensate 23 plaintiffs for their time, effort, and inconvenience. (See e.g., Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co.
24 (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294, 299).

25 Finally, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the payment of Nine Thousand Six Hundred 26 Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($9,650.00) (“Settlement Administration Costs”) to ILYM Group, Inc.
27 (“ILYM” or “Settlement Administrator”) as compensation for its administration services it has and 28 will provide in connection with the Settlement. (See, generally, ILYM Decl.).

1 In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to 2 grant final approval of the Settlement and award the Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Enhancement 3 Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs, Plaintiff also moves for an order permitting the filing 4 of this single consolidated memorandum, although it exceeds the page limit established by California 5 Rules of Court, Rule 3.1113(d), instead of filing several separate motions.

6 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7 Defendant is a resort on Shasta Lake, providing lodging rentals, marina services, retail shops, 8 dining facilities, and boat rentals to the public. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as an hourly-9 paid, non-exempt Dockhand from approximately May 2023 to approximately June 2023. (Amyot 10 Decl., ¶ 2).

11 On October 20, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice to the California Labor and Workforce 12 Development Agency ("LWDA") by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail, 13 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specified provisions of the California Labor 14 Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant ("PAGA Letter"). (Rose Decl., ¶ 2).

15 On October 23, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint for Damages in the action
16 entitled Joseph Amyot v. Silverthorn Resort, Inc., Shasta County Superior Court Case No. 23CV-17 203487 ("Action"), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant. (Id., ¶ 3).

18 On December 27, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Complaint for Enforcement Action Under the Private 19 Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code §§ 2698 Et Seq. in the action entitled Joseph Amyot v.
20 Silverthorn Resort, Inc., Shasta County Superior Court Case No. 23CV-203944 ("PAGA Action"), 21 which alleged one cause of action under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 pursuant to 22 California Labor Code Section 2698 et seq. ("PAGA") against Defendant. (Id., ¶ 4).

23 On February 29, 2024, Plaintiff propounded written formal discovery onto Defendant
24 (specifically, Form Interrogatories – General (Set One), Form Interrogatories – Employment Law (Set 25 One), Special Interrogatories (Set One), Requests for Admission (Set One), and Requests for 26 Production of Documents (Set One)), and served a proposed Belaire-West notice in the Action. (Id., 27 ¶ 5).

28 ///

1 On February 29, 2024, Plaintiff propounded written formal discovery onto Defendant
2 (specifically, Form Interrogatories – General (Set One), Form Interrogatories – Employment Law (Set
3 One), Special Interrogatories (Set One), Requests for Admission (Set One), and Requests for 4 Production of Documents (Set One)), and served a proposed Belaire-West notice in the PAGA Action.
5 (Id., ¶ 6).

6 On February 3, 2025, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Tagore 7 Subramaniam, Esq. (“Mediator”), a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in 8 complex wage and hour matters, and with the assistance of the Mediator’s evaluations, the Parties 9 were able to reach an agreement to resolve this dispute on a class and representative basis. (Id., ¶ 7).
10 The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the terms in a long form settlement 11 agreement. (Ibid.).

12 On April 14, 2025, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Id., ¶ 8 and Exh. 1).

13 On May 9, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint 14 (“Operative Complaint”) in the Action, which added the PAGA claims alleged in the PAGA Action.
15 (Id., ¶ 9). The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes of action for violations of the California 16 Labor Code for failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide 17 compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide compliant rest 18 periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure 19 to provide accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, and failure to 20 reimburse necessary business expenses, for violations of California Business & Professions Code 21 Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations, and for civil 22 penalties under PAGA based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations. (Ibid.).

23 On May 22, 2025, Plaintiff dismissed the PAGA Action without prejudice. (Id., ¶ 10).

24 On May 28, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA 25 Settlement (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”) and supporting documents. (Id., ¶ 11). On June 23, 26 2025, the Court entered the Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA 27 Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order”), thereby preliminarily approving the terms of the 28 Settlement Agreement, the Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class Notice”), and the proposed 1 administration procedures and associated deadlines. (Id., ¶ 11 and Exh. 2).

2 The Parties agree that the Class described herein may be certified for settlement purposes only.
3 If for any reason the Settlement is not approved, the certification will have no force or effect and will 4 immediately be revoked. The Parties further agree that certification for purposes of approving the 5 Settlement Agreement is in no way an admission that class certification is proper under the more 6 stringent standard applied for litigation and that evidence of this limited stipulation for settlement 7 purposes only will not be admissible for any purpose in this or any other proceeding.

8 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS AND PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

9 The Parties have agreed to settle the Class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative 10 Complaint for a non-reversionary escalated Gross Settlement Amount of Nine Hundred Seventy-Nine 11 Thousand Nine Hundred Seventeen Dollars and Zero Cents ($979,917.00)², which is exclusive of 12 employer-side payroll taxes. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.p; Rose Decl., ¶ 14). The escalated Gross 13 Settlement Amount includes: (1) Class Counsel's fees in the amount one-third (1/3) of the escalated 14 Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Three Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Six Hundred Thirty-Nine 15 Dollars and Zero Cents ($326,639.00); (2) Class Counsel's actual litigation costs and expenses, in the 16 amount of Twenty Thousand Eight Hundred Thirty-Eight Dollars and Sixty-Five Cents ($20,838.65); 17 (3) Settlement Administration Costs in the amount of Nine Thousand Six Hundred Fifty Dollars and 18 Zero Cents ($9,650.00); (4) Enhancement Payment in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero 19 Cents ($10,000.00); and (5) PAGA Amount in the amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents 20 ($50,000.00. (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 10.p, 13, 14, 15, and 16; Rose Decl., ¶ 14). After the above 21 Court-approved amounts are deducted from the escalated Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement 22 Class Members will share in a Net Settlement Amount of approximately Five Hundred Sixty-Two 23 Thousand Seven Hundred Eighty-Nine Dollars and Thirty-Five Cents ($562,789.35). (Rose Decl., ¶ 24 14).

25 ///

26 ///

28 ² See n.1.

1 The Settlement does not require Settlement Class Members to submit claims as a prerequisite 2 to receiving their pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount (“Individual Settlement Share”) nor 3 does it require PAGA Employees to submit claims as a prerequisite to receiving their pro rata share
4 of twenty-five percent (25%) of the PAGA Amount (“Individual PAGA Payment”). (Settlement 5 Agreement, ¶¶ 10.s and 10.q; Rose Decl., ¶ 15). Individual Settlement Shares are calculated by the 6 Settlement Administrator by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks 7 worked by all Settlement Class Members during the Class Period and multiplying the result by each 8 Settlement Class Member’s Workweeks worked during the Class Period. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9 18.b; Rose Decl., ¶ 15). Individual PAGA Payments are calculated by the Settlement Administrator 10 by dividing the amount of the PAGA Employees’ 25% share of PAGA Amount ($12,500.00) by the 11 total number of PAGA Workweeks worked by all PAGA Employees during the PAGA Period and 12 multiplying the result by each PAGA Employee’s PAGA Workweeks worked during the PAGA 13 Period. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Rose Decl., ¶ 15)

14 Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as twenty percent (20%) wages and eighty 15 percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 20; Rose Decl., 16 ¶ 17). The portion allocated to wages will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated 17 to penalties, interest, and non-wage damages will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by 18 the Settlement Administrator. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 20; Rose Decl., ¶ 17). The Settlement 19 Administrator will withhold the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wage 20 portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their 21 net payment of their Individual Settlement Share (“Individual Settlement Payment”). (Settlement 22 Agreement, ¶¶ 10.r and 20; Rose Decl., ¶ 17). Defendant will separately pay any and all employer 23 payroll taxes owed on the wage portion of the Individual Settlement Shares. (Settlement Agreement, 24 ¶ 20; Rose Decl., ¶ 17). Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent 25 (100%) penalties and will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement 26 Administrator. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 20; Rose Decl., ¶ 17).

27 ///

28 ///

1 Each Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and 2 negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and 3 thereafter, shall be canceled. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 38; Rose Decl., ¶ 18). Any funds associated 4 with such canceled checks will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to the State of 5 California's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Settlement Class Member and/or PAGA 6 Employee at issue. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 38; Rose Decl., ¶ 18).

7 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and all 8 Settlement Class Members will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, 9 compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of any and all claims, which were 10 alleged or which could have been alleged based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint, 11 arising during the Class Period, and shall specifically include claims for Defendant's alleged failure 12 to pay minimum and overtime wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium 13 payments, timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, provide accurate wage 14 statements, and reimburse necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code 15 Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 16 2802, the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order(s), and California Business and 17 Professions Code sections 17200, et seq (collectively, "Released Class Claims"). (Settlement 18 Agreement, ¶¶ 10.ee and 39).

19 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, the State 20 of California with respect to all PAGA Employees, and all PAGA Employees will be deemed to have 21 fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released 22 Parties of any and all claims arising from any of the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint 23 and PAGA Letter, arising during the PAGA Period, for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys' 24 General Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq., including all claims for attorneys' 25 fees and costs related thereto, for Defendant's alleged failure to pay minimum and overtime wages, 26 provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely pay wages during 27 employment and upon termination, provide accurate wage statements, maintain accurate payroll 28 records, and reimburse necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code

1 Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800,
2 and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order(s) (“Released PAGA 3 Claims”). (Id., ¶¶ 10.ee and 40).

4 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, 5 individually and on his own behalf, will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, 6 compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties from any and all claims, debts, 7 liabilities, demands, obligations, guarantees, costs, expenses, attorneys’ fees, damages, or causes of 8 action of any kind or nature whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, asserted or 9 unasserted, arising out of, relating to, or resulting from his employment and/or separation of 10 employment with Defendant, which Plaintiff, at any time up until the execution of the Settlement 11 Agreement, had or claimed to have or may have. (Id., ¶ 41). It is agreed that this is a general release 12 and is to be broadly construed as a release of all claims, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, 13 this Paragraph expressly does not include a release of any claims that cannot be released hereunder by 14 law. (Ibid.). Plaintiff understands and expressly agrees that the Settlement Agreement extends to 15 claims that he has against Defendant, of whatever nature and kind, known or unknown, suspected or 16 unsuspected, vested or contingent, past, present, or future, arising from or attributable to an incident 17 or event, occurring in whole or in part, on or before the execution of the Settlement Agreement. (Ibid.).
18 Any and all rights granted under any state or federal law or regulation limiting the effect of the 19 Settlement Agreement, including the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, ARE 20 HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVED. (Ibid.). Section 1542 of the California Civil Code reads as 21 follows: A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR 22 RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT 23 THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, 24 WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR 25 OR RELEASED PARTY. (Ibid.).

26 The “Released Parties” means Defendant and its current and former officers, directors, 27 members, insurers, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and assigns. (Id., ¶ 28 10.gg).

1 IV. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

2 ILYM has taken all necessary steps to effectuate the notice and settlement administration 3 process, as set forth in the Preliminary Approval Order.

4 On June 23, 2025, ILYM received the Court approved text for the Class Notice from Class 5 Counsel. (ILYM Decl., ¶ 4).

6 On August 11, 2025, ILYM received the Class List data file from Defendant’s counsel, which 7 contained the full name, Social Security number, last known mailing address, dates worked for each 8 individual, the number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period, and the number of PAGA 9 Workweeks worked during the PAGA Period for each Class Member. (Id., ¶ 5). The Class List data 10 file was uploaded to ILYM’s database and checked for duplicates and other possible discrepancies.
11 (Ibid.) The Class List contained five hundred and sixteen (516) individuals identified as Class 12 Members who worked 21,488.14 Workweeks during the Class Period and 237 individuals identified 13 as PAGA Employees who worked 8,731 PAGA Workweeks during the PAGA Period. (Id., ¶¶ 5 and 14 15).

15 As part of the preparation for mailing, all Class Members’ names and addresses contained in 16 the Class List were then processed against the National Change of Address (“NCOA”) database, 17 maintained by the United States Postal Service (“USPS”), for purposes of updating and confirming 18 the mailing addresses of the Class Members before mailing of the Class Notice. (Id., ¶ 6). The NCOA 19 contains requested change of addresses filed with the USPS. (Ibid.) To the extent that an updated 20 address was found in the NCOA database, the updated address was used for the mailing of the Class 21 Notice. (Ibid.) To the extent that no updated address was found in the NCOA database, the original 22 address provided by Defendant’s counsel was used for the mailing of the Class Notice. (Ibid.)

23 On August 20, 2025, the Class Notice was mailed, in both English and Spanish, via U.S. First 24 Class Mail, to all 516 individuals contained in the Class List. (Id., ¶ 7). 115 Class Notices were 25 returned to ILYM as undeliverable without a forwarding address. (Id., ¶ 8). ILYM performed a 26 computerized skip trace on the 115 returned Class Notices that did not have a forwarding address in 27 an effort to obtain an updated address for the purpose of re-mailing the Class Notice. (Ibid.) As a 28 result of this skip trace, 74 updated addresses were obtained and the Class Notice was promptly re-mailed to those Class Members, via U.S. First Class Mail. (Ibid.) A total of 41 Class Notices have 1 been deemed undeliverable as no updated address was found notwithstanding the skip tracing. (Ibid).

2 Class Members had sixty (60) calendar days after the Settlement Administrator mailed the 3 Class Notices to submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and/or Workweeks Dispute 4 (“Response Deadline”). (Preliminary Approval Order, ¶ 12). The Response Deadline was October 19, 5 2025. (ILYM Decl., ¶¶ 9-11). The Settlement Administrator did not receive any Requests for 6 Exclusion, Notice of Objections, and/or Workweeks Disputes. (Ibid).

7 The estimated average gross Individual Settlement Share is $1,082.61, the estimated highest 8 gross Individual Settlement Share is $7,394.30, and the estimated lowest gross Individual Settlement 9 Share is $3.71, the estimated average Individual PAGA Payment is $52.74, the estimated highest 10 Individual PAGA Payment is $184.69, and the estimated lowest Individual PAGA Payment is $1.43.
11 (Rose Decl., ¶ 16).³

12 V. COMPLIANCE WITH PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS OF PAGA

13 On April 15, 2025, Class Counsel submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA 14 through its online submission portal in compliance with California Labor Code § 2699(1)(2). (Rose 15 Decl., ¶ 19). The LWDA has not objected or otherwise responded to the submission. (Ibid).

16 VI. EVALUATION OF SETTLEMENT FOR FINAL APPROVAL

17 A. The Legal Standard for Final Approval

18 Before granting final approval of a class action settlement, the Court must review the 19 settlement for fairness. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(g); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 20 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801). A court must take into account relevant factors, including, for example, the 21 strength of the plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, 22 the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, 23 the experience and views of counsel, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.
24 (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 244-45; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 25 [“The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case”]; Officers for Justice v. Civil 26 Serv. Comm’n (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625). Considering such factors, a presumption of fairness

27
28 ³ The actual average, highest, and lowest Individual Settlement Shares will be larger than the amounts stated in the ILYM Decl. because the Net Settlement Amount is larger due to Class Counsel’s request for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in an amount that is less than $25,000.00 (the difference between the amount sought and the amount authorized under the Settlement, i.e., $4,161.35 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount).

exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802). "The settlement or fairness hearing is not to be turned into a trial or rehearsal for trial on the merits. [The trial court is not] to reach any ultimate conclusions on the contested issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, for it is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual settlements." (Officers for Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at 625).

B. The Settlement Should be Finally Approved

California courts recognize that "a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining." (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; see also Clark v. Am. Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, the Parties' settlement negotiations were at all times made at arm's-length and were adversarial. (Rose Decl., ¶ 20). The Parties engaged in extensive informal discovery prior to reaching a settlement at the mediation. (Id., ¶ 21).

C. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable

Courts typically assess the status of discovery in determining whether a class action settlement agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801). Prior to mediation, Defendant produced a random sampling of putative class members' time and pay data as well as Defendant's relevant wage and hour policies, and the putative class members' data points. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21). This allowed Class Counsel to conduct an informed assessment and analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the potential class-wide damages. (Ibid.). Plaintiff's investigation was sufficient to satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 and Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-130 ("Dunk/Kullar").

Based on the information exchanged, the Parties extensively briefed issues regarding class certification and liability and provided their analyses to the Mediator who helped the Parties debate the strengths and weakness of their respective positions. (Rose Decl., ¶ 22). At all times, Plaintiff was willing and prepared to litigate this matter through class certification and trial if the Parties had

1 been unable to reach a favorable resolution. (Ibid). Additionally, settlement negotiations were 2 conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel. (Ibid). Class Counsel are respected members 3 of the California State Bar with strong records of vigorous and effective advocacy and are experienced 4 in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Ibid). Accordingly, Class Counsel had 5 sufficient information and experience to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

6 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 7 trial, nor does the settlement have to obtain 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
8 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 9 must consider “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 10 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 11 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and 12 views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to 13 the proposed settlement.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).

14 Here, the reasonableness of the Settlement is underscored by the fact that Defendant has legal 15 and factual grounds for defending the Action. Based upon Class Counsel’s experience litigating 16 similar complex matters, Plaintiff reasonably expected a vigorous and lengthy defense to both class 17 certification and the merits of the Action absent a settlement.

18 Class Counsel is aware of Defendant’s defenses and arguments and has also taken into account 19 the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in 20 such litigation, including those involved in class and/or representative adjudication. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21 24). Plaintiff further recognizes the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability for the claims 22 asserted in the Action, Defendant’s defenses, and the difficulties in establishing entitlement to 23 monetary recovery. (Ibid). Plaintiff has also considered the Parties’ settlement discussions, as well 24 as the evaluations of the Mediator, who is experienced and well-regarded in complex labor and 25 employment matters. (Ibid).

26 Defendant denied and continues to deny any liability and wrongdoing of any kind associated 27 with the claims alleged in the Action, and further denies that class certification is appropriate for any 28 purpose other than the Settlement. (Id., ¶ 25). Defendant believes that it would ultimately prevail in

1 the Action. (Ibid). Defendant proffered defenses to both certification and to the merits of Plaintiff's 2 claims. (Ibid). Defendant contended that Plaintiff's claims are not suitable for class certification 3 because individual issues would predominate should this case go to trial. (Ibid). As with all class 4 actions, these complex cases raise difficult management and proof issues and, accordingly, there is a 5 significant risk that the Court may deny class certification. (Ibid).

6 Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, proving the 7 amount of wages due to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and extremely 8 uncertain proposition. (Id., ¶ 26). In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel would need 9 to request and analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members' contact 10 information, contact them, and obtain declarations at great expense. (Ibid). Obtaining the cooperation 11 of current employees would also be difficult, given the likely reluctance to aid prosecution of a lawsuit 12 against a current employer. (Ibid). On the other hand, Defendant would likely be able to obtain the 13 cooperation of its employees. (Ibid). Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and 14 trial, possible appeals would substantially delay any recovery by the Class. (Ibid).

15 In light of the Parties' respective legal positions and the risks of continued litigation, the 16 escalated Gross Settlement Amount for resolution of the Class and PAGA claims, is fair, adequate, 17 and reasonable. (Id., ¶ 27).

18 VII. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS ARE REASONABLE
19 AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

20 Class Counsel seeks one-third (1/3) of the escalated Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., 21 $326,639.00) for fees for the time spent litigating this matter and reimbursement of actual costs and 22 expenses totaling Twenty Thousand Eight Hundred Thirty-Eight Dollars and Sixty-Five Cents
23 ($20,838.65). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 13; Rose Decl., ¶ 28). The requested fees and costs are fair 24 compensation for undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-consuming litigation on a 25 contingent fee basis, especially in light of the substantial benefits achieved by Class Counsel for the 26 Class Members. (Ibid).

27 ///

28 ///

1 A. Plaintiff's Fee Request of One-Third (1/3) of the Escalated Gross
2 Settlement Amount is Proper Under the Common Fund Doctrine

3 Courts have long recognized the “common fund” or “common benefit” doctrine, under which 4 attorneys who create a common fund or benefit for a group of persons may be awarded their fees and 5 costs to be paid out of the fund. (See Serrano v. Priest (“Serrano III”) (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 6 quoting D’Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1; Glendale City Employees’
7 Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 328, 341 fn.19; Quinn v. State of California (1995)
8 15 Cal.3d 162, 16 7; see also Boeing Co. v. Van Gernert (1980) 444 U.S. 472,478; Mills v. Electric 9 Auto-Lite Co. (1970) 396 U.S. 375, 391-392).

10 The California Supreme Court has held that, “when a number of persons are entitled in 11 common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results 12 in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys’ fees 13 out of the fund.” (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34, quoting D’Amico, 11 Cal.3d 1; see also Boeing, 14 supra, 444 U.S. at 478 (“[A] lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit of persons other than 15 himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney’s fee from the fund as a whole.”); Mills, supra, 16 396 U.S. at 391-392 (United States Supreme Court endorsing the common fund approach in class 17 actions)). California Practice Guide: Civil Trials and Evidence (The Rutter Group) at § 17:172.3 18 explains the common fund doctrine as follows:

19 Where the lawsuit results in the recovery of a fund or property benefiting 20 others as well as plaintiff (e.g., a class action), the court has inherent 21 equitable power to order plaintiffs attorney fees paid out of the common fund or property [citations]. Such fee spreading assures that all of those benefited by the litigation pay their fair share of obtaining the recovery.

22 The percentage-of-the-fund approach appears to be the preferred method of awarding fees in 23 traditional common fund cases, such as this case. Where the settlement amount is a “certain or easily 24 calculable sum of money,” use of the percentage-of-the-fund method is appropriate. (Serrano III, 20 25 Cal. 3d at 35).

26 In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, a wage and hour class action wherein 27 class counsel obtained a $19 million non-reversionary settlement on behalf of the class, the California 28 Supreme Court approved the use of the percentage of fund or common fund method to award one-

1 third of the settlement amount or $6,333,333.33 to class counsel for attorneys' fees. The Court stated:

2 Whatever doubts may have been created by Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d 25, [], or the 3 Court of Appeal cases that followed, we clarify today that use of the percentage method 4 to calculate a fee in a common fund case, where the award serves to spread the attorney 5 fee among all the beneficiaries of the fund, does not in itself constitute an abuse of 6 discretion. We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding 7 that when class action litigation established a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 8 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of 9 that fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created. The recognized advantages of the percentage method - including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation [] convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.

10 11 (Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503).

12 In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, 167, the California Supreme Court stated:
13 “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive 14 benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” Similarly, 15 in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110-111, the California Supreme 16 Court recognized that the common benefit doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when 17 an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.”

18 Numerous appellate courts have similarly found. (See e.g., Knoff v. City and County of San 19 Francisco (1969) 1 Cal.App.3d 184, 203-204 (court upheld a “contingent percentage” award of 20 attorneys’ fees in a representative action as the proper exercise of the court’s broad equitable powers); 21 Rider v. County of San Diego (1992) 1 I Cal.App.4th 1410, 1423 (attorneys’ fees and expenses properly 22 awarded from common benefit composed of illegally imposed sales and use tax); Bank of America v.
23 Cory (1985) 164 Cal.App.3d 66, 89-92 (fees awarded from common benefit created by action 24 compelling state to claim dormant bank accounts); Parker v. Los Angeles (1974) 44 Cal.App.3d 556, 25 567-568 (court upheld fee award equal to one-third of the damages to owners of residential property 26 in an inverse condemnation action)).

27 The Supreme Court noted that several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative 28 “lodestar” approach for deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and often indecipherable time records. (Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503; see Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc.

(2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 31 n.5 citing In re Activision Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal 1989) 723 F. Supp. 1373, 1375). The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the demands on judicial resources. (In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 1378-79). The Ninth Circuit now routinely uses the percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney's fees. (Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 30-31; see e.g., In re Pac. Enters. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378-79 (approving attorney's fee of 33%)).

A fee of one-third (1/3) of the escalated Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Three Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Six Hundred Thirty-Nine Dollars and Zero Cents ($326,639.00) is easily within the range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have awarded percentage fees in the range of 20% to 50%, depending on the circumstances of the case. (See In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 1378). According to Professor Newberg: "No general rule can be articulated on what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund...Usually 50 per cent of the fund is the upper limit on a reasonable fee award from a common fund, in order to assure that fees do not consume a disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, though somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented." (Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed.), § 14.6). Class Counsel's requested fee is reasonable and falls well within the historical range of attorney's fee awards under the common fund theory. Based on Class Counsel's showing of reasonableness, the Court should approve the requested fees pursuant to the common fund approach.

B. The Circumstances of this Case Support a One-Third (1/3) Fee Award

Given the significant results achieved under the circumstances of this litigation, the requested fee award is reasonable. As discussed in Sumitomo Copper Litigation, supra, 74 F. Supp. 2d at 396:

No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent on the success of his services to charge, when successful, as little as he would charge a client who in advance of the litigation has agreed to pay for his services, regardless of success. Nor, particularly in complicated cases producing large recoveries, is it just to make a fee depend solely on the reasonable amount of time expended.

In that vein, this Court should consider the contingent nature of this case, the uncertainty of the outcome, the quality of the counsel, and the preclusion from other employment.

1 C. The Contingent Nature of This Matter

2 From the outset of the Action to the present, prosecution of this matter has involved significant 3 financial risk for Class Counsel. Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, 4 with no guarantee of recovery. Class Counsel has placed its own resources at risk to prosecute this 5 matter with no guarantee of success. The risks of this matter are apparent in that class certification 6 would likely have been a hard-fought issue, especially given the uncertainty regarding certification of 7 cases such as this. Moreover, even if class certification were granted over Defendant's opposition, 8 there was no assurance that Plaintiff would succeed at trial. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 22-26). Despite such 9 challenges, Class Counsel was able to persuade Defendant that it faced significant liability exposure 10 such that it was willing to pay the escalated Gross Settlement Amount to settle the Class Members' 11 claims.

12 D. The Experience, Reputation, Ability of Counsel, and Skill in Litigation

13 Class Counsel has substantial experience in wage-and-hour and other class action litigation, 14 including litigation involving the legal issues in this matter. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 31 and 32). Class 15 Counsel's skill in developing a factual record and convincing Defendant of its litigation exposure 16 under California law was essential to achieving the Settlement. Through its skill and reputation, Class 17 Counsel was able to obtain a settlement that provides an outstanding result for Class Members. (See 18 generally Rose Decl.).

19 E. The Results Achieved

20 The excellent results achieved by the Settlement support Class Counsel's request for attorneys' 21 fees. Class Members' support for the results achieved by Class Counsel is demonstrated by the 22 absence of any objections to either the Class Settlement or to Class Counsel's request for fees, both of 23 which were described clearly in the Class Notice. As of the date of this Motion, Settlement Class 24 Members will be paid, on average, approximately $1,082.61 each, which is intended to compensate 25 them for the alleged wage and hour violations they suffered during their employment. (Rose Decl., ¶ 26 16). This is a significant benefit for the Settlement Class Members here as it represents a recovery for 27 highly disputed claims. Equally important is the fact that the State of California will receive 28 $37,500.00 for enforcement of labor laws and education of employers. (Id., ¶ 38).

1 Furthermore, the efficiency with which this litigation was conducted and resolved should be 2 rewarded. After preparing and investigating the case prior to filing the Action, Class Counsel strongly 3 litigated and then resolved the case in an efficient manner. The Class Members will directly benefit 4 from the prompt and fair resolution of their claims. They will be receiving a significant award in a 5 relatively short period of time, as opposed to waiting years to recover some undetermined amount if 6 they succeeded at trial, which is an uncertainty in itself.

7 F. Preclusion of Other Employment

8 As California law recognizes, Class Counsel's commitment to this litigation should not be 9 assessed in a vacuum. (See Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 49). A relevant factor in determining 10 attorneys' fees is whether the litigation required Class Counsel to forego other employment. (See 11 ibid). Class Counsel had to consider its workload during this litigation when considering taking on 12 additional work that was available, and which Class Counsel had to forego in order to devote the time 13 necessary to pursue this litigation. (Rose Decl., ¶ 30).

14 G. The Requested Fees Are Also Justified Under the Lodestar Method

15 Fee calculations under the lodestar method would result in a similar award, demonstrating the 16 fairness of Class Counsel's percentage fee request. Under the lodestar method, a base fee amount is 17 calculated from a compilation of time reasonably spent on the case and the reasonable hourly 18 compensation of the attorney. The base amount is then adjusted by use of a multiplier in light of 19 various factors. (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). Class Counsel's hourly rates are summarized 20 in the (Rose Decl. at ¶¶ 31-32).

21 One difficulty in determining the hourly rate of attorneys of similar skill and experience in the 22 relevant community is the scarcity of hourly fee-paying clients in class action litigation. (Rose Decl., 23 ¶ 32). As a practical matter, few if any employees or consumers pay attorneys' fees on an hourly basis 24 for such extensive litigation, and thus retainer agreements in such cases are based on a stepped-up 25 contingency fee (with the percentage increasing from one third to forty-five – and sometimes even 26 fifty percent, which is on par with personal injury contingency fee agreements – if the case goes to 27 trial). (Ibid). Therefore, there is no customary hourly billing rate for work that is routinely based on 28 a contingent fee relationship, but the nature of class action work should be strongly considered by the

1 Court. (Ibid). Wage and hour work presents a specialized and challenging area of law that is not 2 within the knowledge of many lawyers. (Ibid). This kind of class action work requires specialized 3 learning and the willingness to take large risks. (Ibid).

4 Class Counsel has spent approximately 247.40 total hours litigating these claims to date.⁴
5 (Rose Decl., ¶ 32). Class Counsel expects to spend another 10 hours in connection with the final 6 approval process (including preparing for and attending the Final Approval Hearing, and managing 7 the Settlement through its conclusion, including anticipated communications with defense counsel, the 8 Settlement Administrator, our client, and Class Members). (Id., ¶ 33). In addition to time spent during 9 litigation, reasonable hours also include the time spent before the Action was filed, including time 10 spent interviewing the client, investigating the facts and the law, preparing the initial pleadings, as 11 well as litigating the case. (Webb v. Board of Educ. (1985) 471 U.S. 234). Further, the fee award 12 should include fees incurred to establish and defend the attorneys' fee claim. (Serrano v. Priest (1982) 13 32 Cal .3d 621, 639 ("Serrano IV"). Based on the rates of Class Counsel, the total fees incurred to 14 date are $221,150. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32). By the conclusion of this matter, the total fees are estimated 15 to be approximately $228,650. (Id., ¶ 33).

16 In cases where a common fund analysis is not used, once the court establishes the lodestar 17 amount, it should adjust the fee award by a multiplier in order to make an appropriate fee award.
18 (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). In applying the multiplier, Newberg on Class Actions states that 19 "[m]ultiples ranging from one to four frequently are awarded in common fund cases when the lodestar 20 method is applied. A large common fund award may warrant an even larger multiplier." (4 Newberg 21 on Class Actions 4th (4th ed. 2002) § 14.6). If the class members paid the fees that the market would 22 bear, they would pay a fee of anywhere from one-third to forty-five percent of any recovery. Since 23 this is the market rate, the lodestar calculation should be enhanced to reflect what the class members 24 would pay on the open market. (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48).

26 ⁴ In Martino v. Denevi (1986) 182 Cal.App.3d 553, 559, the court addressed the issue of what evidence is required in 27 California to support a fee application. The court held: "Testimony of an attorney as to the number of hours worked on a 28 particular case is sufficient evidence to support an award of attorney fees, even in the absence of detailed time records."
Id. There is no need to attach the voluminous invoices prepared in a case as a basis for an award of fees and costs. Id.
Through Class Counsel's declaration in support of this application, however, Plaintiff presents a thorough breakdown of the hours spent and costs incurred in prosecuting this class action. Pursuant to Martino, supra, this presentation is sufficient to support the amount requested.

1 In Lealao, the court held that trial courts should award lodestar fees by examining the 2 percentage-of-the-benefit and adjusting the lodestar calculation accordingly. (Id. at 49 and 53). The 3 court indicated that this is an upward adjustment and should be akin to a contingency fee recovery; 4 the court stated, “[a]n adjustment reflecting the amount of the class recovery is not significantly 5 different from an adjustment reflecting a percentage of that amount; and California courts have 6 evaluated a lodestar as a percentage of the benefit.” (Id. at 46). The Lealao method appears 7 particularly appropriate because class actions generally are contingency fee cases for plaintiffs - and 8 the class action clients do not expect to pay an hourly fee.

9 The rationale of Lealao comports with the purpose of the multiplier. The multiplier is 10 “primarily to compensate the attorney for the prevailing party at a rate reflecting the risk of 11 nonpayment in contingency cases.” (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1138). The Lealao 12 court reasoned:

13 Given the unique reliance of our legal system on private litigants to enforce 14 substantive provisions of law through class and derivative actions, attorneys 15 providing the essential enforcement services must be provided incentives 16 roughly comparable to those negotiated in the private bargaining that takes 17 place in the legal marketplace, as it will otherwise be economic for defendants to increase injurious behavior. It has therefore been urged (most persistently by Judge Richard Posner) that in defining a reasonable fee in such representative actions, the law should mimic the market.

18 In the class action context, that would mean attempting to award the fee that 19 informed private bargaining, if it were truly possible, might have reached.
20 The simplest way for the law to duplicate the bargain that informed parties would reach if agency costs were low is to look to fee award levels in actions brought by sophisticated private parties under the same or comparable statutes.

21 (Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48 (internal citations and quotations omitted)). The court added:

22 [T]rial judges need the flexibility Serrano III provides, as it enables them to 23 relate fee awards to the economic realities that determine the efficacy of the private enforcement contemplated by our civil justice system.

24 Accordingly, we hold that, in cases in which the value of the class recovery 25 can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty and it is not otherwise inappropriate, a trial court has discretion to adjust the basic lodestar through the application of a positive or negative multiplier where 26 necessary to ensure that the fee awarded is within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.

27 (Id. at 49-50).

28 ///

1 In looking at similar cases, including those set forth above, Class Counsel's requested fee 2 comports to the market. Based on the reasonable hourly rates suggested by Class Counsel and the 3 collective hours worked in this matter, the requested fee award would represent a modest multiplier of 4 approximately 1.5 over the current total fee lodestar. In this regard, Class Counsel's fee request is 5 reasonable.

6 H. No Class Member Objected to the Requested Attorneys' Fee Award

7 Class Counsel's intention to request the Court's approval for payment of attorneys' fees was 8 clearly disclosed to each Class Member in the Court-approved Class Notice. (Rose Decl., ¶ 35; See 9 also, ILYM Decl, Exh. A). As of the filing of this Motion, there has not been a single objection to the 10 request for attorneys' fees. (ILYM Decl., ¶ 10). It is fair to conclude that the Class approves of/does 11 not take issue with the requested award of attorneys' fees. Based thereon, Class Counsel's request for 12 one-third (1/3) of the escalated Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Three Hundred Twenty-Six 13 Thousand Six Hundred Thirty-Nine Dollars and Zero Cents ($326,639.00), should be granted.

14 I. Plaintiff's Cost Request is Reasonable

15 Class Counsel seeks reimbursement of a total amount of Twenty Thousand Eight Hundred 16 Thirty-Eight Dollars and Sixty-Five Cents ($20,838.65) in costs and expenses in this matter, which 17 includes reasonable future costs for filing the Motion. (Rose Decl., ¶ 34 and Exh. 4). All costs and 18 expenses were reasonably incurred in prosecution of this matter.

19 VIII. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT TO PLAINTIFF IS 20 REASONABLE

21 The named Plaintiff should be awarded an Enhancement Payment in the amount of Ten 22 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) for his services as the Class Representative and the 23 risks in connection with that role. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 14; Rose Decl., ¶ 36). Enhancement 24 awards in wage and hour cases typically range from $5,000.00 to $20,000.00, although some awards 25 are higher. (Ibid). Often, multiple class representatives receive awards in the above range. (See e.g., 26 Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412 [approving an 27 enhancement request of $10,000.00 per named plaintiff in a 188 member class]; Cook v. Niedert, 142 28 F.3d 1004, 1016 (7th Cir. 1998); Thornton v. East Texas Motor Freight, 497 F.2d 416, 420 (6th Cir.
1974) ["We also think there is something to be said for rewarding those drivers who protect and help

1 to bring rights to a group of employees who have been the victims of discrimination.”)]. Here, the 2 requested Enhancement Payment is modest, reasonable, and should be approved.

3 Plaintiff’s actions establish that: (1) he sought to protect the interests of the Class above his 4 own personal interests; (2) the Settlement Class Members will be benefitted from his actions by 5 receiving a payment without having to do anything; and (3) Plaintiff has put forth a significant amount 6 of time and effort pursuing the litigation and seeing it through to resolution. (See, generally, Amyot
7 Decl.; see also Clark v. American Residential Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 8 (discussing the criteria for determining class representative enhancement awards in concluding that a 9 requested award of $25,000 for two class representatives was too high)).

10 The requested award for Plaintiff is also reasonable given the financial and personal risk he 11 took in commencing the Action, and in light of the benefits that his actions have conferred upon the 12 Class. (See, generally Amyot Decl.; See also Van Vranken v. Atl. Richfield Co. (N.D.Cal. 1995) 901 13 F.Supp. 294, 299-300). Additionally, in considering a requested class representative enhancement 14 award, courts take into consideration a plaintiff’s reasonable fear of retaliation. (Staton v. Boeing Co.
15 (9th Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 977). Here, it is easy to see that a potential future employer could expend 16 little effort to discover Plaintiff brought the lawsuit – and based thereon, decline to offer Plaintiff 17 employment.

18 In sum, Plaintiff has performed considerable services on behalf of the Class during the 19 litigation. (See, generally, Amyot Decl.). Class Counsel cannot understate the importance of the role 20 of an employee who is willing to search out an attorney and step forward to assume the risk of litigation 21 and retaliation in order to represent a class and put the interests of the class before their own interests.
22 Plaintiff has understood that this is a class action where he is serving as the Class Representative and 23 must protect the Class Members’ interests. (Id., ¶ 10). Plaintiff was the catalyst to the benefit reached 24 for the Class Members, and has actively protected the Class Members’ interests during the pendency 25 of this matter and will continue to do so even if the case was required to go to trial. (Ibid.).

26 In contrast, without having to take on any of the risk incurred by Plaintiff or time spent by 27 Plaintiff in litigating this matter, Settlement Class Members will automatically be issued a payment 28 for their claims. It appears that the Settlement Class Members recognize this enhancement was 1 justified because since the time the Class received notice of the requested Enhancement Payment, no 2 one has objected to the request. Additionally, Plaintiff's estimated Individual Settlement Share is 3 Forty Dollars and Eighty-Five Cents ($40.85) and Individual PAGA Payment is Two Dollars and 4 Eighty-Six Cents ($2.86). (Id., ¶ 36). Thus, the Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff is warranted to 5 compensate him for his time and effort, the fear and stress associated with assuming the responsibility 6 of serving as the Class Representative, and the concrete risks he assumed as the Class Representative.

7 IX. THE REQUESTED SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE 8 REASONABLE

9 In Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff requested, and the Court approved, 10 Settlement Administration Costs not to exceed Eleven Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($11,000.00).
11 (Rose Decl., ¶ 37). ILYM Group, Inc. is the approved Settlement Administrator. (Ibid.). It is an 12 experienced class administrator and has adequately performed the administration tasks required by the 13 Preliminary Approval Order. ILYM Group, Inc.'s actual costs to administer the Settlement are only 14 Nine Thousand Six Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($9,650.00). (ILYM Decl., ¶ 16 and Exh.
15 B). Based thereon, the requested costs should be approved.

16 X. THE PROPOSED LWDA ALLOCATION IS REASONABLE

17 Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699(1), the Superior Court shall review and 18 approve the settlement of penalties sought under that California Labor Code Section. (Cal. Lab. Code 19 § 2699(1)). For all of the reasons stated above, the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and 20 should be approved. As part of the Settlement, Defendant has agreed to pay Fifty Thousand Dollars 21 and Zero Cents ($50,000.00) to settle the claims of the PAGA Employees brought pursuant to PAGA, 22 of which the payment of Thirty-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($37,500.00) 23 (75% of the PAGA Amount) will be paid to the LWDA for education and enforcement purposes.
24 (Rose Decl., ¶ 38).

25 It is extremely common in approved wage and hour class action cases that settle that only a 26 small portion of the total settlement is paid to PAGA penalties "in order to maximize payments to 27 class members." (Magadia v. Wal-Mart Assocs. (N.D. Cal. May 31, 2019, No. 17-CV-00062-LHK) 28 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 91732, *90-91, citing as examples Ceja-Corona v. CVS Pharm., Inc. (E.D.
Cal. Jan. 14, 2015) 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5118, 2015 WL 222500, at *2-3 [preliminarily approving

1 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $900,000]; Thio v. Genji, LLC (N.D.
2 Cal. 2014) 14 F. Supp. 3d 1324, 1330 [preliminarily approving $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a 3 total settlement amount of $1,250,000]; Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2012) 2012
4 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, 2012 WL 5941801, at *14 [granting final approval of $10,000 in PAGA 5 penalties out of a total settlement amount of $2,500,000]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal.
6 Oct. 31, 2012) 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [granting final approval of 7 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $3,700,000]; Chu v. Wells Fargo Invs.,
8 LLC (N.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15821, 2011 WL 672645, at *1 [granting final 9 approval of $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $6,900,000]). Like here, 10 in these approved settlements, the parties generally maximized statutory penalties and minimized 11 PAGA penalties to focus on claims to the class members, the persons who actually suffered the 12 California Labor Code violations. (Rose Decl., ¶ 39).

13 XI. THE CLASS RECEIVED THE BEST PRACTICABLE NOTICE

14 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice 15 program. (See California Civil Code § 1781; Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-16 74). To protect the rights of absent class members, the parties must provide class members with the 17 best notice practicable of a potential class action settlement. (Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts (1985)
18 472 U.S. 797, 811-12; Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin (1974) 417 U.S. 156, 174-76 [individual notice 19 must be sent to all class members who can be identified through reasonable efforts]; Mullane v. Central 20 Hanover Bank & Garretson Company (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 314 [best practicable notice is that which 21 is "reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of 22 the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections"]). The content and method of 23 the notice should be designed to apprise the class members of the terms of the proposed settlement 24 and of the class members' rights regarding the settlement. (See Mullane, supra, 339 U.S. at 314; 25 Philadelphia Housing Authority v. American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corp. (E.D. Pa. 1970) 323 26 F. Supp. 364, 378).

27 ///

28 ///

1 The Class Notice approved by the Court met these requirements: it identified the Parties and 2 described the Action, the Class, the escalated Gross Settlement Amount, the proposed method for 3 distribution of the escalated Gross Settlement Amount, the amounts proposed to be paid as the 4 Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff, the Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement
5 Administrator, and the Attorneys' Fees and Costs to Class Counsel. (Rose Decl., ¶ 40; see also ILYM 6 Decl., Exh. A thereto). The Class Notice described the proposed Settlement with enough specificity 7 to allow each Class Member to make an informed choice whether to accept and participate in it. (Ibid).
8 It also explained how and when Class Members may object to or opt out of the Class Settlement.
9 (Ibid). Finally, the Class Notice provided the date for the hearing on final approval of the Settlement 10 and informed Class Members how to obtain additional information about the Settlement. (Ibid).

11 XII. CONCLUSION

12 For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant Plaintiff's 13 Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, and approve: (1) the requested 14 attorneys' fees to Class Counsel of $326,639.00; (2) the requested reimbursement of actual costs and 15 expenses to Class Counsel of $20,838.65; (3) the requested Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff of 16 $10,000.00; and (4) the requested Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator of 17 $9,650.00; and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.
