SECTIONS 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $35,000.00]

1 Plaintiff DULCE ARMENTA, as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other 2 aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, alleges as 3 follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against Long Beach 7 Healthcare, LLC a California limited liability company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or 8 affiliated companies within the State of California ("LBH" and collectively with DOES 1 through 9 100, as further defined below, "Defendants"), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development 10 Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former 11 non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined 12 herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, 13 Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 14 245, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of 15 speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period 16 (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

17 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 18 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

19 3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 20 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the 21 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 22 began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff 23 and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of 24 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, 25 or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff 26 and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous 27 Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

28 4. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by

1 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 2 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 3 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
4 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 5 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 6 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

7 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 8 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
9 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 10 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

11 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 12 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 13 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 14 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 15 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

16 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 17 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 18 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 19 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

20 8. On or around October 18, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 21 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 22 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 23 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

24 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 25 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 26 calendar days of the October 18, 2023, postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 27 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

28 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

1 10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
2 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 3 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 4 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 5 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime 6 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 7 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 8 limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being 9 able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendant's control due to long lines for 10 clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking 11 out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don 12 and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off 13 the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock, and/or go through security screenings 14 and/or temperature checks off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, 15 including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, mask allowances, gift 16 cards and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where 17 overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of 18 calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing 19 and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying 20 straight pay instead of overtime pay to the detriment of Employee and other aggrieved 21 employees. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy 22 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours 23 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 24 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or 25 permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring 26 employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all 27 that time, to suffer under Defendant's control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete 28 pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal

1 periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the 2 clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls off the clock; 3 detrimental rounding of employee time entries; and editing and/or manipulation of time 4 entries to show less hours than actually worked , to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 5 Aggrieved Employees.

6 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
7 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 8 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 9 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 10 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal 11 periods; not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and/or second meal 12 periods; providing short meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or 13 walkie-talkies during meal periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; 14 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that 15 could not be auto-deducted by law or during which employees worked, as required by 16 California wage and hour laws.

17 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 18 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 19 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 20 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 21 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; 22 interrupting them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies 23 during rest periods not providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to 24 leave the premises; and otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by 25 California wage and hour laws.

26 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
27 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 28 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross

1 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 2 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 3 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the 4 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 5 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

6 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
7 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 8 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
9 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 10 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 11 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 12 Aggrieved Employees.

13 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
14 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 15 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
16 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 17 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

18 16. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 19 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 20 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 21 and applicable Wage Orders.

22 17. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 23 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 24 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for purchasing 25 uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the 26 purchase of tools and safety equipment \, for the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and 27 cellular phone plans, \ in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience 28 to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor Code 2802.

1 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 2 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft
3 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
4 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 5 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 6 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 7 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 8 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

9 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 10 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 11 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not 12 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 13 all other Aggrieved Employees.

14 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 15 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 16 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 17 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 18 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 19 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

20 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
21 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 22 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 23 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 24 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 25 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 26 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 27 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 28 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

22. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty.

24. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA.

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

25. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to: cooking, food preparation, cleaning facilities, and performing item inventories. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately January of 2023 through at least April of 2023.

B. Defendants

26. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant LBH is,

1 and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and existing under and 2 by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, 3 State of California.

4 27. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 5 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, 6 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
7 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 8 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
9 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 10 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 11 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 12 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 13 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 14 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 15 include LBH and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State of 16 California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

17 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

18 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 19 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 20 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 21 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 22 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

23 29. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 24 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 25 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 26 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 27 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 28 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant

1 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 2 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 3 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

4 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 5 formation of the purported corporate existence of DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (the “Alter Ego
6 Defendants”), they, and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 51 through 100 (“Individual 7 Defendants”), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following reasons:

8 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 9 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws
10 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 11 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 12 inequitable purpose;

13 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 14 and through the Alter Ego Defendants’ unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 15 the funding source for the Individual Defendants’ own personal expenditures;

16 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 17 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 18 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 19 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

20 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs 21 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 22 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 23 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 24 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 25 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 26 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

27 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 28

1 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 2 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 3 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be 4 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
5 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

6 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 7 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 8 disregarded.

9 31. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 10 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

11 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

13 32. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 14 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

15 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

16 33. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 17 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 18 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 19 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 20 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

21 34. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 22 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 23 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 24 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 25 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 26 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 27 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

28 35. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 1 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 2 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 3 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor 4 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 5 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee 6 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 7 Code section 204.

8 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

9 36. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
10 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 11 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 12 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; 13 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 14 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 15 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 16 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

17 37. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 18 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 19 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 20 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 21 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

22 38. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 23 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

24 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 25 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 26 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 27 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 28 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal

1 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's 2 services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor 3 Code section 226, subdivision (a).

4 40. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 5 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
6 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
7 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 8 period for each subsequent violation.

9 Violation of Labor Code § 558

10 41. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 11 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 12 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 13 penalty as follows:

14 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 15 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 16 to recover underpaid wages;

17 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 18 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 19 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

20 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

21 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 22 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 23 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 24 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 25 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any "doing business 26 as" names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance 27 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

28 43. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,

1 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
2 civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
3 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 4 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

5 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

6 44. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required

16 46. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 17 every person employing labor in California to "[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 18 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 19 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
20 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 21 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 22 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 23 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 24 earned."

25 47. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, "[a]ny person employing labor who willfully

2 48. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 3 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 4 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
5 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records

13 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 14 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or

5 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 6 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ minimum wages for all 7 hours worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 8 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 28 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved

1 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 2 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

3 55. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and

5 the failure to: pay the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, 6 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by Defendants, the
