MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Mushfiquir Chowdhury (“Plaintiff”) submits this Memorandum of Points and Authorities in support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class and PAGA Action Settlement (the “Motion”) with Defendant CWT US, LLC (“Defendant”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). Under the Settlement, Defendant has agreed to pay a non-reversionary Maximum Settlement Amount of $506,250.00 to the following Class comprised of 151 individuals:

All current and former California non-exempt employees of Defendant during the Class Period of October 17, 2019 through December 31, 2024.

In this non-reversionary class and PAGA action settlement, all Participating Class Members will receive automatic payments without the need to submit a claim form, resulting in an average Individual Class Settlement Share of approximately $1,842.48 to each Participating Class Member. This is an excellent result for the Class, especially in light of the significant litigation risks that Plaintiff faced. Moreover, after receiving notice of the proposed Settlement and projected estimated Individual Class Settlement Shares, not a single Class Member has objected to the Settlement or elected to opt-out of the Settlement, resulting in a 100% participation rate.

As explained further below, the Court should grant Plaintiff’s Motion in its entirety because (1) the Class continues to meet the requirements for certification for settlement purposes under Code Civ. Proc. § 382; (2) the Settlement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable compromise of the disputed claims in this case; and (3) the requested amounts for attorneys’ fees and costs, settlement administration costs, and class representative service payment are all fair, adequate, and reasonable. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Court should enter the Proposed Judgment and Order Granting Final Approval submitted herewith.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

A. THE PARTIES AND BRIEF PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Defendant owns and operates a business travel management company with non-exempt employees working remotely in California. Declaration of William C. Sung in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Sung Decl.”), ¶ 9. Plaintiff

1 worked for Defendant as a non-exempt, remote employee from approximately January 3, 2023 to 2 approximately September 1, 2023 as a Travel Experience Counselor in California. Declaration of 3 Mushfiquir Chowdhury in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and 4 PAGA Settlement ("Chowdhury Decl."), ¶ 2.

5 On October 17, 2023, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Class Action Complaint
6 alleging causes of action against Defendant for (1) Minimum Wage Violations; (2) Overtime Wage 7 Violations; (3) Meal Period Violations; (4) Rest Period Violations; (5) Wage Statement Penalties; 8 (6) Waiting Time Penalties; (7) Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses; (8) Unlawful Deductions;
9 and (9) Unfair Competition. Sung Decl., ¶ 10. On the same day, October 17, 2023, Plaintiff sent a 10 notice letter under the California Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") to the Labor and 11 Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Sung Decl., ¶ 11.

12 On December 20, 2023, Plaintiff filed the operative First Amended Complaint ("FAC") 13 adding a cause of action for Civil Penalties under PAGA. Sung Decl., ¶ 12.

14 B. DISCOVERY, MEDIATION, AND PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

15 In connection with mediation, the Parties engaged in informal discovery. Sung Decl., ¶ 13.
16 Defendant produced (1) class and PAGA statistics including number of Class Members and PAGA
17 Employees, former employees, and workweeks worked during the Class Period and pay periods 18 worked during the PAGA Period through mediation; (2) a random sampling of employee time and 19 payroll records exported on Excel and their contact information; (3) various policies and procedural 20 documents, including employee handbooks and relevant policies and procedures; and (4) Plaintiff's 21 personnel records. Ibid. Defendant produced a random sampling of time and payroll records and 22 contact information for 34 Class Members, including Plaintiff, which amounted to a 21.25%

24 In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's counsel contacted and interviewed Class Members 25 whose contact information was provided as part of the sampling and worked with an expert data 26 analyst to conduct a comprehensive analysis and extrapolation of the payroll and timekeeping data 27 produced by Defendant to create a detailed exposure analysis for all claims at issue. Sung Decl., ¶ 28 14. This discovery allowed the Parties to assess the merits and value of Plaintiff's claims, the 1 chances of certification of Plaintiff’s claims, and Defendant’s potential defenses. Ibid.

2 On October 27, 2024, the Parties participated in a full-day mediation with Gig Kyriacou, 3 Esq., a well-respected wage and hour class action mediator. Sung Decl., ¶ 15. During mediation, the 4 Parties vigorously debated their opposing legal positions, the likelihood of certification of Plaintiff’s
5 claims, and the legal basis for the claims and defenses. Ibid. The Parties reached a tentative class
6 and PAGA settlement at the mediation. Ibid. The terms of the Settlement are in the operative 7 Amended Joint Stipulation of Class Action and Private Attorneys General Act Settlement and 8 Release (“Settlement” or “Agreement”). Ibid., Ex. 1 (Agreement).

9 On January 31, 2025, Plaintiff submitted the proposed Settlement to this Court with 10 Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement. Sung Decl., ¶
11 16. On March 20, 2025, this Court issued its Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action 12 and PAGA Settlement. Ibid., Ex. 2 (Order Granting Preliminary Approval).

13 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT AND NOTICE ADMINISTRATION

14 A. CLASS DEFINITION

15 As noted, the Class is comprised of: “All current and former non-exempt employees of 16 Defendant in California during the Class Period.” The “Class Period” means the period from 17 October 17, 2019 through December 31, 2024. Order Granting Preliminary Approval, ¶ 5 (Ex. 2 to 18 Sung Decl.)

19 B. MONETARY TERMS

20 The Settlement provides for Defendant to pay a non-reversionary Maximum Settlement 21 Amount of $506,250.00. Agreement, § I.N. (Ex. 1 to Sung Decl.). The Class Employee Fund is the 22 amount remaining from the Maximum Settlement Amount after deducting requested attorneys’ fees
23 ($168,750.00) and litigation costs ($15,274.95), requested Class Representative Service Award 24 ($7,500.00), settlement administration costs ($7,000.00), and the amount set aside as PAGA civil 25 penalties ($30,000.00). Agreement, §§ III.A.-III.E.; Sung Decl., ¶ 17, Ex. 3. Based on these 26 requested amounts, the Class Employee Fund is estimated at $278,215.05. Declaration of Lindsay
27 Romo of Simpluris, Inc. in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA
28 Settlement (“Admin. Decl.”), ¶ 15.

Each Individual Class Settlement Share to Class Members will be determined by “converting the Class Employee Fund into a Work Week value. The Work Week value will be established by dividing the Class Employee Fund by all Work Weeks actually worked by the Class Employees in California during the Class Period. The Work Weeks actually worked by Class Employees during the Class Period will be determined by Defendant’s payroll records. The Individual Class Settlement Share for each Class Employee will be determined by multiplying the Work Week value by each Class Employee’s individual Work Weeks. Class Members who opt out pursuant to ¶ III.L.1 will not receive any Individual Class Settlement Share but will still receive their Individual PAGA Settlement Share (defined below). The Settlement Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Settlement Share in the Class Employee Fund for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.” Agreement, § III.F.1. In addition, 25% of the amount designated as PAGA Penalties (i.e., $7,500.00) will be distributed to all PAGA Employees who worked for Defendant who worked for Defendant from October 17, 2022 through December 31, 2024 (the “PAGA Period”) based on the proportionate number of pay periods worked during the PAGA Period. Agreement, § III.F.3.

All Individual Class Settlement Shares from the Class Employee Fund will be classified as 20% wages to be reported on a W-2 form, and 80% penalties and interest to be reported on a 1099 form. Agreement, § III.F.2. Defendant’s share of employer-side payroll taxes shall be paid by Defendant separate, and in addition to, the Maximum Settlement Amount. Agreement, § III.A.

C. SUMMARY OF THE NOTICE ADMINISTRATION

On April 3, 2025, Defendant’s counsel provided the Administrator with the Class List consisting of 151 Class Members’ names, social security numbers, last known mailing addresses, and dates of employment for each class member. Admin. Decl., ¶ 6. The Administrator conducted a National Change of Address (“NCOA”) search to ensure the accuracy and validity of the addresses before mailing Class Notices. Admin. Decl., ¶ 6. If an updated address was found in the NCOA database, the Administrator utilized that address; if no updated address was found, the Administrator utilized the original address. Admin. Decl., ¶ 7. On April 17, 2025, the Administrator mailed the Class Notice in English and Spanish to the Class Members via U.S. First Class Mail.

Admin. Decl., ¶ 8, Ex. A (Class Notice).

The Administrator received 27 returned Class Notices as undeliverable. Admin. Decl., ¶ 9. The Administrator conducted a computerized skip trace on the returned Class Notices, found 26 updated addresses, and re-mailed the Class Notices to the updated addresses. Ibid. Ultimately, 1 Class Notices is considered undeliverable as an updated address could not be found through a skip trace. Ibid.

The Administrator received no objections, no requests for exclusion, and no workweek disputes. Admin. Decl., ¶¶ 11-13. Thus, the participation rate by Class Member is 100%. Admin. Decl., ¶ 14. The average estimated Individual Class Settlement Share is approximately $1,842.48, with the highest estimated payment being $3,981.56 and lowest estimated payment being $14.97. Admin. Decl., ¶ 16. Additionally, 88 PAGA Employees who were employed during the PAGA Period will receive a portion of the $7,500.00 PAGA Penalties. Admin. Decl., ¶ 17. The average Individual PAGA Payment is approximately $84.23, with the highest estimated payment being $113.85 and the lowest estimated payment being $5.99. Admin. Decl., ¶ 18.

D. FUNDING OF THE SETTLEMENT AND UNCASHED SETTLEMENT CHECKS

Defendant shall deposit the Maximum Settlement Amount and the employer side payroll taxes with the Administrator within 14 calendar days of the Effective Date. Agreement, § III.G.1. Within 14 calendar days after Defendant funds the Maximum Settlement Amount and employer's share of payroll taxes, the Administrator will disburse all Individual Class Settlement Shares, all Individual PAGA Settlement Shares, the LWDA Payment, the Settlement Administration Costs, Class Representative Service Award, and Class Counsel Fees and Expenses. Agreement, § III.G.2.

After disbursement, Class Members will have 180 days to cash their checks. Agreement, § III.G.3. Funds remaining unclaimed after 180 days shall be sent to the California State Controller's Office in the Class Member's name to be held as unclaimed property for the Class Member. Ibid.

1 IV. LEGAL ARGUMENT

2 A. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS ALL REQUIREMENTS FOR CLASS
3 CERTIFICATION UNDER CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE § 382

4 Under Code of Civil Procedure § 382, a class may be certified if: (1) it is ascertainable and 5 its members are too numerous for joinder to be practical; (2) the representative and absent class 6 members share a community of interest, and questions of law and fact common to the class 7 predominate over questions unique to individual class members; (3) the representative's claims are 8 typical of the class's claims; and (4) the representative will fairly and adequately represent the 9 class's interests. Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 470.

10 Here, this Court found that the Class meets all the requirements for class certification for 11 settlement purposes when it granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. See generally Sung 12 Decl., Ex. 2. Subsequent to the Court's Order granting preliminary approval, no events have cast 13 doubt on the propriety of this determination, and in fact, the reaction of the Class has been 14 overwhelmingly supportive of the Settlement, with not a single objection and not a single request 15 for exclusion submitted, resulting in a 100% participating rate. See Admin. Decl., ¶¶ 11-12. This 16 Court should therefore confirm its conditional certification of the Class.

17 B. THE SETTLEMENT IS A FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE
18 COMPROMISE OF DISPUTED WAGE AND HOUR CLAIMS

19 California courts have a strong policy in favor of settlement. See, e.g., Stambaugh v. Superior
20 Court (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236. Unlike individual settlements, class action settlements 21 involve a court approval process that exists to prevent fraud, collusion, and unfairness to class 22 members. Malibu Outrigger Bd. of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-23 79. This approval process consists of preliminary settlement approval, notice being given to class 24 members, and a final fairness and approval hearing being held, at which class members have the 25 opportunity to be heard with respect to the settlement. Ibid. Now that notice has been provided to 26 the Class, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court finally approve the Settlement as fair, 27 adequate, and reasonable.

28 ///

1 1. The Settlement Was Reached Through Arms-Length Negotiation by 2 Experienced Counsel and Presumably Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

3 A class settlement is presumptively fair where it is reached through arm's-length bargaining, 4 based on sufficient discovery and investigation to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently, 5 counsel is experienced in similar litigation, and the percentage of objectors to the settlement is 6 small. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1802. In deciding whether to approve a 7 proposed settlement, a trial court has broad powers to determine if the proposed settlement is fair 8 under the circumstances of the case. Mallick v. Superior Court (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438. In 9 exercising these powers, the overriding concern is to ensure that a proposed settlement is "fair, 10 adequate, and reasonable." Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 (internal quotations omitted). Relevant 11 factors for the Court to consider include, but are not limited to:

12 [T]he strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 13 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 14 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

15 Id. These factors require balancing, are non-exhaustive and, as such, trial courts should tailor the 16 factors to each case and give due regard to "what is otherwise a private consensual agreement 17 between the parties." Id.

18 "In the context of a settlement agreement, the test is not the maximum amount a plaintiff 19 might have obtained at trial on the complaint, but rather whether the settlement is reasonable under 20 all of the circumstances." Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250.

21 Because settlements inherently involve compromise, even settlements providing for substantially 22 narrower relief than likely would be obtained if the suit were successfully litigated can be 23 reasonable because "the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which 24 each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation." Id. (quoting Air Line Stewards, etc., 25 Local 550 v. Am. Airlines, Inc. (7th Cir. 1972) 455 F.2d 101, 109). In addition, courts review the 26 discovery process and information received through it to aid them in assessing whether the parties 27 sufficiently developed the claims and their supporting factual bases before reaching settlement. See 28 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-31. Information is sufficient

1 where it allows the parties and the court to form “an understanding of the amount that is in 2 controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.” Clark v. Am. Residential Svcs.
3 LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 801. This requirement exists so that the parties can provide the 4 Court with “a meaningful and substantiated explanation of the manner in which the factual and legal 5 issues have been evaluated.” Kullar, 168 Cal.App.4th at 132-33.

6 2. The Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable in Light of the Risks
7 Faced by Plaintiff

8 While Plaintiff steadfastly maintains Plaintiff’s claims are meritorious, Plaintiff 9 acknowledges Plaintiff’s position included substantial risks and uncertainty, which justifies a 10 downward departure from the maximum exposure each claim potentially carried.

11 As detailed in Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval, there is a significant risk of non-12 certification and/or not prevailing on the merits with respect to each of Plaintiff’s claims. Sung 13 Decl., ¶ 18. For example, Plaintiff contends that Class Members, including Plaintiff, were 14 frequently unable to take any meal and rest periods or took their meal periods late (i.e., after the end 15 of the fifth hour) because of their high volume of work, need to take client calls, and lack of 16 coverage. Ibid. Defendant counters that it has maintained compliant written meal and rest period 17 policies throughout the Class Period and has always provided compliant meal and rest periods in 18 line with those policies. Ibid; see Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. Defendant 19 contends that meal periods for Class Members were programmed into their schedules, Class 20 Members answer customer calls that are routed to them and their system can go into a “do not 21 disturb” mode where no calls will be routed to them while they are taking their meal and rest 22 periods, and some Class Members are not required to record their meal breaks even though they 23 took them. Sung Decl., ¶ 18. Finally, Defendant maintains Plaintiff’s meal and rest period claim is 24 not suited for class certification since individual inquiries would be needed to assess which 25 employees, if any, took non-compliant meal and rest periods, how many meal and rest periods were 26 non-compliant, and the reasons why a particular employee did not take a meal and rest period on a 27 particular shift. Ibid.

28 ///

1 Plaintiff alleges that Class Members, including Plaintiff, due to Defendant's operational 2 needs and their workload, they sometimes worked off the clock without compensation. Sung Decl., 3 ¶ 19. Defendant argues it has compliant policies that prohibit working off the clock, require all 4 employees to receive wages for all hours worked, its payroll records show a substantial amount of 5 overtime premiums paid during the Class Period, and it had no knowledge that Class Members 6 worked off the clock because they worked remotely from home. Ibid. Defendant thus contends that 7 Plaintiff's off-the-clock work claim is individualized and not suited for class certification since 8 there is no evidence of a common policy or practice forcing Class Members to work off the clock 9 and numerous individual inquiries would be needed to assess which Class Members, if any, worked 10 off the clock, how often, the reasons why a particular Class Member worked off the clock, and 11 whether Defendant knew or should have known that Class Members who worked remotely from 12 home worked off the clock for the imposition of classwide liability. Ibid; see, e.g., Troester v.
13 Starbucks Corporation (C.D. Cal., Jan. 27, 2020, No. CV1207677CJCPJWX) 2020 WL 553572, at 14 *9 (denying certification of off-the-clock work claim because of individualized inquiries); Williams
15 v. Superior Court (2013) 221 Cal.App.4th 1353, 1369, as modified Dec. 24, 2013 (applying "know 16 or should have known" standard for liability for off-the-clock work).

17 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant underpaid overtime and paid sick leave wages to Class 18 Members, including Plaintiff, by failing to incorporate non-discretionary incentive compensation, 19 including bonuses and shift differentials into the regular rate of pay. Sung Decl., ¶ 20; see also 20 Alvarado v. Dart Container Corp. of California (2018) 4 Cal.5th 542, 554, as modified (Apr. 25, 21 2018) (stating the regular rate of pay includes incentive compensation); Labor Code § 246(l)(1) (the 22 paid sick leave rate is the same as the regular rate for overtime). In response, Defendant argues that 23 it properly factored incentive compensation into the regular rate for overtime. Sung Decl., ¶ 20. As 24 to paid sick leave, Defendant contends that there is no private right of action for paid sick leave 25 violations and Plaintiff cannot recover underpaid paid sick leave wages. Ibid; see Lab. Code §
26 248.5(e) (only the "Labor Commissioner or the Attorney General may bring a civil action . . .")

27 Plaintiff alleges that Class Members, including Plaintiff, were required to work remotely 28 from home because Defendant did not have any physical offices in California, and Defendant failed

1 to reimburse Class Members for the use of their home internet to perform their duties. Sung Decl., ¶ 2 21. Defendant counters that it reimbursed Class Members for their home internet expenses upon the 3 Class Members' submission of reimbursement requests to Defendant pursuant to its expense 4 reimbursement policy. Ibid. Defendant thus contends that Plaintiff's reimbursement claim is 5 individualized and not suited for class certification since there is no evidence of a common policy or 6 practice of failing to reimburse Class Members and numerous individual inquiries would be needed 7 to assess which Class Members, if any, incurred unreimbursed expenses, how often, whether the 8 Class Member submitted reimbursement requests, and whether and why the reimbursement requests 9 were not approved. Ibid.

10 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant made deductions from the wages of Class Members, 11 including Plaintiff, without their written consent for purported overpayment of wages. Sung Decl., ¶ 12 22. In response, Defendant argues that, while it overpaid wages to Plaintiff and deducted the 13 overpayment from Plaintiff's wages once, this was a one-off occurrence, as evidenced by 14 Defendant's payroll records. Ibid. Defendant thus contends that Plaintiff's unlawful deductions 15 claim is individualized and not suited for class certification since there is no evidence of a common 16 policy or practice of deducting overpayment of wages from Class Members and numerous 17 individual inquiries would be needed to assess which Class Members, if any, was overpaid, had 18 their wages deducted, and whether they approved the deduction. Ibid.

19 As to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory waiting time and wage statement penalties 20 under Labor Code §§ 203 and 226(e), Defendant denies liability for waiting time and wage 21 statements, and argues that it possesses strong, good faith defenses to Plaintiff's underlying claims, 22 thus precluding recovery of waiting time penalties that are only available for "willful" failure to pay
23 wages. Sung Dec., ¶ 23. Defendant further maintains that any alleged wage statement violations 24 were not "knowing and intentional," and that Plaintiff cannot show the Class "suffer[ed] injury" due 25 to these alleged violations as required by Labor Code § 226(e) for the imposition of penalties. Ibid.
26 Defendant relies on Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Services, Inc. (2024) 15 Cal.5th 1056, 1065, for 27 the proposition that an employer's good-faith defenses precludes a "willfulness" finding under 28 Labor Code § 203 and a "knowing and intentional" finding under Labor Code § 226(e) for the

1 imposition of statutory penalties. Sung Dec., ¶ 23. Defendant also claims that Plaintiff’s alleged 2 exposure for waiting time and wage statement penalties was grossly inflated because not every 3 employee experienced an alleged Labor Code violation. Ibid.

4 Finally, with respect to Plaintiff’s claim for civil penalties under PAGA, since Plaintiff’s
5 PAGA claim is derivative of Plaintiff’s underlying wage claims, Defendant asserts the PAGA claim 6 would fail with those claims. Sung Dec., ¶ 24; see Price v. Starbucks Corp. (2011) 192 Cal.App.4th
7 1136, 1147 (“Because the underlying causes of action fail, the derivative UCL and PAGA claims 8 also fail.”). Defendant further maintains that, given its good faith defenses, this Court would 9 exercise its discretion to substantially reduce any PAGA penalties if it were to find Defendant liable 10 for any of Plaintiff’s claims. Sung Dec., ¶ 24; see Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2); Thurman v. Bayshore
11 Transit Mgmt., Inc. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (affirming reduction of PAGA penalties); 12 Fleming v. Covidien Inc. (C.D. Cal. 2011) Case No. ED CV10-01487 RGK (OPx), 2011 WL 13 7563047, at *4 (reducing PAGA penalties by over 82% in part because employer “not aware” of 14 violations); Carrington v. Starbucks Corp. (2018) 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 529 (affirming PAGA civil 15 penalty of just $5 per pay period where employer made “good faith attempts” to comply with the 16 law).

17 These considerations not only bore heavily on the Parties’ negotiations, but also confirm that 18 the Settlement is a fair and reasonable compromise in view of the risk of further litigation. As 19 detailed in Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff carefully vetted the claims at issue 20 and conducted a detailed statistical analysis of classwide data with the help of a retained expert to 21 arrive at the calculated damages figures. Thus, while these risks are far from exhaustive, they 22 demonstrate the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable in view of them.

23 3. The Settlement Fairly, Reasonably, and Adequately Compensates Class
24 Members

25 As noted, the Individual Class Settlement Shares and Individual PAGA Settlement Shares
26 will be calculated based on the proportionate number of workweeks worked by each Participating 27 Class Member during the Class Period and based on proportionate number of pay periods worked 28 by each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period, respectively. Agreement, §§ III.F.1.; III.F.3.

1 This method of distribution compensates Class Members based on the estimated extent of their 2 injuries, as Class Members who worked more workweeks or pay periods would have been subject 3 to more of the alleged wage and hour violations than those who worked fewer workweeks. Thus, 4 the formula for compensating Class Members is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it is tethered to 5 the damages and penalties that could be recovered by them.

6 4. The Absence of Any Objections or Opt Outs Confirms that the 7 Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

8 Class members' response to a settlement is relevant in evaluating whether it merits final 9 approval. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801. The absence of objections and requests for exclusion 10 supports a fairness presumption. See 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp.
11 (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1152-53 (finding 9 objections and 80 opt-outs from a class of 5,454 12 showed a "particularly impressive" favorable response from class members).

13 Here, not a single Class Member has objected to the Settlement or elected to opt-out, 14 resulting in a 100% participation rate. Admin. Decl., ¶¶ 11-12. This extremely favorable response of 15 the Class further confirms that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

16 C. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES ARE REASONABLE AS A
17 PERCENTAGE OF THE COMMON FUND CONFIRMED BY A LODESTAR
18 "CROSS-CHECK"

19 Plaintiff and the Class, as the prevailing parties in settlement, are entitled to recover their 20 attorney's fees and costs for their wage claims. An attorney's fee award is justified where the legal 21 action has produced its benefits by way of a voluntary settlement. See e.g., Maria P. v. Riles (1987)
22 43 Cal.3d 1281, 1290-91; Westside Cmnty. for Independent Living, Inc. v. Obledo (1983) 33 Cal.3d 23 348, 352-53; see also Code Civ. Proc. § 1021.5. Here, Plaintiff submits that Plaintiff is entitled to 24 recover attorneys' fees under the common fund theory, as confirmed by a lodestar "cross-check."

25 1. Under the Common Fund Doctrine, It Is Proper to Compensate Class
26 Counsel Based on a Percentage of the Recovery Obtained for the Class

27 When a settlement results in a common fund for the benefit of a class, class counsel may be 28 awarded fees as a percentage of the common fund. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 254 (recognizing the

1 “percentage of recovery” method). The California Supreme Court confirmed in Laffitte v. Robert 2 Half Int’l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 that “[t]he percentage of fund method survives in 3 California class action cases.” Our Supreme Court held:

4 The recognized advantages of the percentage method—including relative ease of 5 calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better 6 approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it 7 provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the 8 litigation—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be 9 denied our trial courts.

10 Id. at 503; see also e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (“when a number of persons are 11 entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the 12 benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be 13 awarded attorney’s fees out of the fund.”); Serrano v. Unruh (1982) 32 Cal.3d 621, 627 (in 14 awarding a fee from the common fund obtained for the benefit of all parties, the trial court acts 15 within its equitable power to prevent the other parties’ unjust enrichment.); Rawlings v. Prudential- 16 Bache Properties, Inc. (6th Cir. 1993) 9 F.3d 513, 516 (percentage of fund method more accurately 17 reflects the results achieved for the putative class and “establishes reasonable expectations on the 18 part of plaintiffs’ attorneys as to their expected recovery; and it encourages early settlement, which 19 avoids protracted litigation.”); In re Rite Aid Corp. Sec. Litig. (3d Cir. 2005) 396 F.3d 294, 300 20 (“The percentage-of-recovery method is generally favored in common fund cases because it allows 21 courts to award fees from the fund ‘in a manner that rewards counsel for success and penalizes it for 22 failure.’”).

23 Here, Class Counsel’s fee request of $168,750.00 (one-third of the Maximum Settlement 24 Amount) is fair and reasonable based on a percentage of the recovery. First, “regardless whether the 25 percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-26 third of the recovery.” Chavez v. Netflix (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11. This is also consistent 27 with Class Counsel’s experience in similar matters. See Sung Decl., ¶ 25. Thus, the percentage 28 sought by Class Counsel (the same percentage approved in Laffitte) is reasonable.

1 2. The Fee Request Is Also Reasonable Based on a Lodestar “Cross-Check”

2 The California Supreme Court in Laffitte also held that trial courts have discretion to assess 3 the reasonableness of fee awards with tools such as the “lodestar cross-check,” whereby the trial 4 court calculates counsel’s lodestar and determines whether the “lodestar multiplier” needed to bring 5 the lodestar on par with the percentage of recovery is reasonable. Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503-06.
6 While a trial court may utilize the lodestar cross-check, it need not do so. Id. at 506 (“[w]e hold 7 further that the trial courts have discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a percentage fee, as 8 the court did here; they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other 9 means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee.”).

10 Under the lodestar method, the court multiplies the number of hours reasonably expended by 11 each attorney or legal staff member by their reasonable hourly rates, then enhances this lodestar 12 figure by a “multiplier” to account for a range of factors, such as the contingent nature of the case
13 and the degree of success achieved. See Serrano, 20 Cal.3d at 48-49; Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 14 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36; Thayer v. Wells Fargo Bank (2001) 92 Cal. App. 4th 819, 834 (“There is no 15 hard-and-fast rule limiting the factors that may justify an exercise of judicial discretion to increase 16 or decrease a lodestar calculation”).

17 Under California law, lodestar multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher. See, e.g., 18 Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 49-50 (approving multiplier of about 2.5); Coalition for L.A. County 19 Planning etc. Interest v. Bd. of Supervisors (1977) 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (approving multiplier of 20 about 12.8). In class actions such as this one, where the value of the benefit conferred to the class 21 “can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty,” the court may “adjust the lodestar in 22 comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and 23 within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” 24 Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557.

25 Here, Class Counsel have a lodestar of approximately $100,645.00, which results in a 26 multiplier of approximately 1.68 compared to the $168,750.00 fee request. See Sung Decl., ¶¶ 26-27 28, Ex. 5 (William Sung Time and Task Log) & Ex. 6 (Tiffany Luu Time and Task Log). The 28 multiplier well-below the 2.13 multiplier approved by the Supreme Court in Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at

1 487, with additional work to be performed, and within the recognized multiplier range of between 2
2 and 4. See, e.g., Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 (“multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even 3 higher.”); In re Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases (2009) 71 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (affirming 4 multiplier of 2.52 as “fair and reasonable); Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 66 (affirming multiplier of 5 2.53 as well within the approved range of 2 to 4).

6 A general summary showing the number of hours of work performed by each attorney is set 7 forth below. The billing rates used are reasonable in view of the evidence submitted herewith. Sung 8 Decl., ¶¶ 26-28, Ex. 4 (Laffey Matrix); Declaration of Tiffany L. Luu in Support of Motion for 9 Final Approval (“Luu Decl.”), ¶ 7.

Name	Rate	Hours	Lodestar
William C. Sung (14 th Year Attorney)	$850	94.70	$80,495.00
Tiffany L. Luu (5 th Year Attorney)	$500	40.30	$20,150.00
		Total Lodestar:	$100,645.00

15 The fee award requested here is justified because Class Counsel achieved a significant 16 monetary recovery for the Class in an uncertain and risky case while bearing the substantial burdens 17 of representation on a contingency basis, and the fees requested are in line with the market rate.
18 Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-51 (finding that exceptional results 19 in a contingency case, significant risk, and the absence of supporting precedents, are proper 20 considerations in awarding attorney’s fees). Class Counsel negotiated a substantial recovery for the 21 Class, resulting in a 100% participation rate, and not a single Class Member objected to the 22 Settlement, including Class Counsel’s requested fees.

23 In addition, the average estimated Individual Class Settlement Share in this case of 24 $1,842.48 far exceeds average payments in similar wage and hour class action settlements. See, e.g.,
25 Sorenson v. PetSmart, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2008) No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (wage and hour class 26 action settlement approved where average class member recovery was approximately $60); Schiller
27 v. David’s Bridal, Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 11, 2012) No. 1:10-cv-00616-AWI-SKO, 2012 WL 2117001
28 (finding that average payment to class members of less than $200 was a “good” result); Williams v.

1 Centerplate, Inc. (S.D. Cal. Aug. 26, 2013) No. 11-CV-2159 HKSC, 2013 WL 4525428 (granting 2 final approval of class action settlement where average recovery for each class member was 3 approximately $108 and describing result as “very favorable”). The fact that Class Counsel 4 achieved these results in the face of serious defense challenges and in an uncertain legal landscape, 5 confirms the strength of the results achieved.

6 As noted, this case presented significant risk as to both class certification and prevailing on 7 the merits. Accordingly, it is fair and reasonable to account for these risks in compensating Class 8 Counsel. Class Counsel should also be compensated for the risks involved in undertaking this 9 litigation and expending considerable effort, all while working on a pure contingency basis. Since 10 undertaking representation of Plaintiff in this litigation, Class Counsel have borne all the costs of 11 litigation since the filing of the Action without receiving any compensation to date. See Sung Decl., 12 Sung Decl., ¶ 29. During this time, Plaintiff’s counsel have incurred and/or will incur $15,274.95 in 13 litigation costs, and devoted substantial time to this litigation. Ibid.

14 Counsel’s efforts have included: pre-filing research and investigation; analyzing Plaintiff’s 15 claims and potential defenses to the same; conducting legal research; conducting extensive and 16 informal discovery; analyzing Class Members’ timekeeping and payroll records and other data and 17 documents with the help of a retained expert; creating a comprehensive damages model; preparing 18 for and attending mediation; negotiating and preparing the long-form Settlement Agreement; 19 preparing the Motion for Preliminary Approval; overseeing Notice administration; drafting this 20 Motion for Final Approval; and otherwise litigating this Action. Sung Decl., ¶ 30. Given the 21 considerable potential for adverse outcomes in this case, including but not limited to losing on class 22 certification and/or merits issues, the contingent risk borne by counsel in this case was great.

23 Class Counsel’s previous experience in litigating wage and hour class actions also supports 24 the reasonableness of the fee request. Class Counsel are well-versed in plaintiff and defense-side 25 wage and hour class action litigation, with two decades of combined experience litigating claims 26 similar to those raised in this case. See Sung Decl., ¶¶ 2-7; Luu Decl., ¶¶ 2-6. Class Counsel have 27 been certified as class counsel in a number of other cases. Sung Decl., ¶ 6; Luu Decl., ¶ 6. Their 28 experience in similar matters was integral in evaluating the claims against Defendant and the

1 reasonableness of the Settlement. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires 2 skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law, as well as the procedural law 3 of class action litigation. Because it is reasonable to compensate Class Counsel commensurate with 4 their skill, reputation, and experience, a fee award of one-third of the Maximum Settlement Amount 5 is reasonable. Thus, Plaintiff submits the requested fee award is fair, reasonable, and adequate and 6 should be approved.

7 D. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES ARE REASONABLE AS A
8 PERCENTAGE OF THE COMMON FUND CONFIRMED BY A LODESTAR
9 "CROSS-CHECK"

10 Plaintiff seeks $15,274.95 in litigation costs. Sung Decl., ¶ 17, Ex. 3. The requested 11 litigation cost award include $14,538.64 in costs incurred to date and future estimated costs of 12 $77.97 for filing this Motion, $16.17 for filing any supplemental briefing and/or amended proposed 13 order for this Motion, $171 in Case Anywhere system access fees through final approval, $16.17 for 14 filing the Administrator's declaration of compliance, and $455 for Case Anywhere system access 15 fees from final approval through a compliance hearing¹. See id., Ex. 3.

16 The cost request is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as the costs were reasonably incurred, and 17 the costs Plaintiff seeks are routinely approved by courts. See e.g., Harris v. Marhoefer (9th Cir.
18 1994) 24 F.3d 16, 19 (counsel should recover "those out-of-pocket expenses that would normally be 19 charged to a fee paying client"); Ashker v. Sayre (N.D. Cal. Mar. 7, 2011) No. 05-03759 CW, 2011 20 WL 825713 at *3 ("costs of reproducing pleadings, motions and exhibits are typically billed by 21 attorneys to their fee-paying clients"); Trustees of Const. Industry & Laborers Health and Welfare 25 overnight delivery costs reimbursable). In addition, not a single Class Member objected to the counsel requests that the Court issue an order directing Case Anywhere to close this matter out upon final approval so that said anticipated fees can be included in the Class Employee Fund and distributed to Class Members.

1 Settlement, including Class Counsel’s request of up to $20,000.00 in litigation costs. Because these 2 costs were reasonably incurred, and no Class Member has objected to them, the Court should grant 3 the request.

4 E. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVAL THE REQUESTED SETTLEMENT
5 ADMINISTRATION COSTS.

6 Plaintiff also requests that this Court approve $7,000.00 in settlement administration costs to 7 the Administrator. As detailed in the Admin. Decl., the Administrator performed duties that were 8 integral in effectuating the Settlement and the Notice process. Among other things, the 9 Administrator calculated each Class member’s Individual Class and PAGA Payments, updated 10 addresses contained in the class data supplied by Defendant, formatted and translated the Class 11 Notice for mailing, mailed Class Notices to all Class Members, kept the Parties informed of any 12 objections or requests for exclusion, and otherwise administered the Settlement. See Admin. Decl., 13 ¶¶ 3-18. For these reasons, the Administrator’s requested costs are fair, reasonable, and adequate, 14 and should be finally approved.

15 F. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVE PLAINTIFF’S REQUESTED CLASS
16 REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE AWARD

17 Courts routinely approve service payments to compensate named plaintiffs for the services 18 they provide and the risks they incur during class action litigation. See, e.g., Bell v. Farmers Ins.
19 Exchange (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (upholding “service payments” to named plaintiffs for 20 their efforts in bringing the case); Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.
21 Supp. 294 (approving $50,000 service payment). Indeed, “[i]ncentive awards are fairly typical in 22 class action cases.” Rodriguez v. West Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958. The Court 23 may award incentive payments “to compensate [Plaintiff] for work done on behalf of the class, to 24 make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action. Id. at 958-59.

25 Here, Plaintiff seeks a Service Award of $7,500.00 and Plaintiff and Class Counsel submit 26 that this request is reasonable given Plaintiff’s efforts in this case and the risks Plaintiff undertook 27 on behalf of the Class. See Chowdhury Decl., ¶¶ 4-6; Sung Decl., ¶ 30. Plaintiff expended 28 substantial time and effort on behalf of the Class, including providing factual information and

1 documents to counsel, attending meetings with counsel to discuss the claims and theories at issue in 2 the litigation, and otherwise actively participating in the prosecution of his claims. Chowdhury 3 Decl., ¶ 4.

4 Plaintiff also undertook the risk of being liable for Defendant’s costs if this case were lost, 5 as well as the reputational risk of being the named plaintiff in a wage and hour class action against 6 an employer. See, e.g., Deaver v. Compass Bank (N.D. Cal. Dec. 11, 2015) 2015 WL 8526982 at 7 *14-15 (approving incentive payment in wage and hour settlement, finding the award “particularly 8 appropriate in this wage and hour class action, where Plaintiff undertook a significant ‘reputational 9 risk’ in bringing this action against his former employer”). Plaintiff is also agreeing to a much 10 broader release than other Class Members, including a waiver of Civil Code § 1542. See 11 Agreement, § III.I.2.; see also Bellinghausen v. Tractor Supply Co. (N.D. Cal. 2015) 306 F.R.D.
12 245, 268 (approving $15,000 total award to named plaintiff in wage and hour class action 13 settlement, including $10,000 incentive award plus an additional $5,000 for plaintiff’s release of 14 claims).

15 Finally, after receiving notice of the proposed Class Representative Service Award for 16 Plaintiff, no Class Member objected to the amount. Given Plaintiff’s significant contributions to this 17 case, the risks Plaintiff undertook, and the lack of any objection from Class Members, Plaintiff’s 18 requested Service Award is appropriate and justified as part of the Settlement and should be finally 19 approved.

20 V. CONCLUSION

21 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully submits that this Court should grant 22 Plaintiff’s Motion in its entirety and adopt the Proposed Judgment and Order Granting Final 23 Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement submitted herewith.
