DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff JOSE MEJIA (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) against Defendants DYNAMIC SUPPORT SERVICES INC., a California corporation, and DOES 1 to 50 inclusive (collectively “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 432, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1198.5, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order 4-2001 (“Wage Order 4”), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution. This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.

2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including Orange County, and some of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in Orange County. Furthermore, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within Orange County.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs complained of

1 herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et
2 seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 432, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 3 1197, 1198, 1198.5, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Wage Order 4.

4 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 5 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
6 Defendants engage in and continue to engage in business, and employed Plaintiff and other,
7 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Orange County, and the State of California and,
8 therefore, were (and are) doing business in Orange County and the State of California.

9 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 10 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
11 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 12 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed,
13 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
14 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, 15 and proximately caused Plaintiff, the Classes (as defined below), and Aggrieved Employees (as 16 defined below) to be subject to the unlawful employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages 17 complained of herein.

18 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 19 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
20 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other
21 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 22 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

23 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
24 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 25 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 26 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
27 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining
28 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

1 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 2 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 3 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

4 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and 5 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 6 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

7 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8 10. Defendants own and operate a security services company in the State of California.
9 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in the position of security guard
10 in Huntington Beach, California from approximately September 1, 2023 to approximately October 11 10, 2023.

12 11. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping
13 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being 14 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly 15 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. During the relevant time 16 period, Defendants engaged in time-shaving and failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-17 exempt employees for all time worked and recorded on timesheets. For example, Plaintiff worked 18 and recorded 16 hours of work on September 1 and September 2, 2023 and was not paid for all
19 hours he worked. Defendants also required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to perform 20 work before clocking in and after clocking out, and failed to compensate aggrieved employees for 21 this time. For example, Plaintiff routinely spent 15 minutes before clocking in and 20 minutes after 22 clocking out to meet with his supervisor and was not compensated for the time. As a result, 23 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not compensated for all earned minimum and 24 overtime wages.

25 12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all 26 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 27 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes), 28 and/or missed meal periods. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their

1 legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants and were required to
2 take their meal periods on duty. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees
3 were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled, Defendants
4 failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the required meal period
5 premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code §
6 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of meal
7 period premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7 in the event that a legally compliant
8 meal period was not provided to their non-exempt employees.

9 13. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 10 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 11 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
12 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest
13 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. Additionally, although Plaintiff and other 14 non-exempt employees occasionally worked shifts in excess of 10 hours, Plaintiff and other non-15 exempt employees were not authorized and permitted a third rest period during shifts in excess of 16 10 hours. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized
17 and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods to which they were entitled, Defendants
18 failed to compensate them with the required rest period premium(s) for each workday there was a
19 rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants
20 maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period premium payments as required by Labor
21 Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest period was not authorized and permitted to 22 their non-exempt employees.

23 14. Upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by failing to 24 incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration into the paid sick leave 25 pay rate.

26 15. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, failure to 27 pay all meal and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as 28 alleged above, Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage

1 statements to Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees. As a further result of Defendants' failure to
2 pay all minimum and overtime wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants failed
3 to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and other former non-exempt employees upon their 4 separation of employment from Defendants.

5 16. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to use
6 their personal cellphone to communicate about issues arising during their shifts. Despite requiring 7 employees to incur these necessary business expenses, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and 8 other non-exempt employees for the cost of their personal cellphone usage.

9 17. On October 12, 2023, Plaintiff submitted a request for inspection or copy of his 10 payroll and time records and all documents he signed relating to the obtaining or holding of 11 employment under Labor Code §§ 226(b) and 432 to Defendant DYNAMIC SUPPORT
12 SERVICES INC. As of the date of this Complaint, Defendants have failed to permit Plaintiff to 13 inspect or copy his employment records.

14 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

15 18. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following 16 Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- 17 a. Minimum Wage Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
18 in the State of California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll 19 policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of 20 this action through the present.
- 21 b. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 22 State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per 23 week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during 24 the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 25 c. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 26 the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours;
27 and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years
28 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

- 1 d. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 2 the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, during the 3 four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 4 e. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
5 in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year
6 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 7 f. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the 8 Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, and/or Meal Period Class 9 during the three years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the 10 present.
- 11 g. Expense Reimbursement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of 12 Defendants in the State of California who were not reimbursed for all necessary 13 business expenses, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this 14 action through the present.

15 19. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that 16 joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is 17 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number
18 greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection
19 of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

20 20. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of 21 Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of 22 the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, 23 without limitation to:

- 24 a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime
25 Class;
- 26 b. Whether Defendants paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked to 27 members of the Minimum Wage Class;

28 ///

- c. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- d. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
- e. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226;
- f. Whether Defendants reimbursed members of the Expense Reimbursement Class for all necessary business expenses pursuant to Labor Code § 2802; and
- g. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

21. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s) of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein, Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all minimum and overtime wages owed due to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, was not provided all required meal periods, was not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-compliant meal and rest periods, was not paid all final wages upon separation of employment, was not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements, and was not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses.

22. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's

1 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes
2 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 3 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 4 members of the Classes.

5 23. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important
6 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 7 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 8 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 9 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this
10 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class 11 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 12 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 13 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited
14 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

15 24. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
16 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file 17 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 18 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
19 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution
20 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

21 25. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members,
22 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
23 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 24 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 25 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest 26 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 27 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified 28 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS
(Against All Defendants)

26. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

27. Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1197, and Wage Order 4, § 4 establish the right of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state or local law. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and Wage Order 4.

28. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code § 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

29. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid wages, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 218.6, 558, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS
(Against All Defendants)

30. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

31. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and Wage Order 4, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages and compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

32. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 4. Wage Order 4, § 3 requires an employer to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime hours actually worked.

33. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS
(Against All Defendants)

34. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including

1 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 2 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Order 4, § 11.

3 36. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 4 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 5 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

6 37. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 7 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
8 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code
9 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Order 4, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

10 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

12 (Against All Defendants)

13 38. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
14 fully set forth herein.

15 39. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Order 4, § 12 and establish the right of 16 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period
17 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 18 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
19 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals 20 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 21 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

22 40. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 23 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
24 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
25 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Order 4, and Civil Code §§
26 3287 and 3289.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES
(Against All Defendants)

41. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226.

43. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest period premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies in Defendants' reported payroll data.

44. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
WAITING TIME PENALTIES
(Against All Defendants)

45. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

46. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their

1 intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit,
2 said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last 3 date of employment.

4 47. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
5 to timely pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their 6 separation from employment, including unpaid minimum and overtime wages as well as unpaid
7 meal and rest period premium wages.

8 48. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a 9 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and members of 10 the Waiting Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to 11 the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

12 49. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor
13 Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay Plaintiff and the members of the Waiting 14 Time Class their earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of 15 daily wages up to thirty days from the time the wages were due.

16 50. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 17 Waiting Time Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 18 203.

19 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENSES

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 51. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
23 fully set forth herein.

24 52. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2802, which 25 states that "an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or 26 losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his 27 or obedience to the directions of the employer."

28 53. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and

1 members of the Expense Reimbursement Class all necessary business expenses they incurred in the 2 performance of their job duties.

3 54. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 4 class seek recovery of unreimbursed business expenses, including interest thereon, reasonable
5 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802.

6 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 UNFAIR COMPETITION

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 55. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
10 fully set forth herein.

11 56. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business
12 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

- 13 a. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum 14 wages due;
- 15 b. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
- 16 c. failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal
17 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium
18 wages due;
- 19 d. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest
20 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period premium
21 wages due;
- 22 e. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of 23 the Wage Statement Class;
- 24 f. failing to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time
25 Penalty Class; and
- 26 g. failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses to Plaintiff and members of the 27 Expense Reimbursement Class.
