1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on November 12, 2025 at 1:30 p.m., or as soon
3 thereafter as the matter may be heard in Department J4 of the above-entitled Court, 4 located at 4353 E. Vineyard Avenue, Oxnard, California 93036, Plaintiff Jose Campos
5 (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby do move this Court for an Order:

- 6 1. Granting preliminary approval of the proposed Class Action and PAGA Settlement
7 Agreement (“Settlement”);
8 2. Conditionally certifying the proposed Class for settlement purposes only; 9 3. Appointing Plaintiff as the Class Representative;
10 4. Appointing Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel; 11 5. Appointing ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator; and 12 6. Setting a final approval hearing date.

13 Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), this Motion is made on the 14 grounds that the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for preliminary approval and falls well 15 within the range of reasonableness. The Settlement was reached through informed, arm’s length 16 bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of an experienced neutral, and 17 Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s Counsel will fairly and adequately represent the Class.

18 This Motion is based on this Notice of Motion, the accompanying Memorandum of 19 Points and Authorities, the Declaration of John G. Yslas, and on all records and documents on 20 file, together with such oral and documentary evidence that may be presented at the hearing on 21 this matter.

Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382.....	12
California Rules of Court, Rule 3.766.....	8

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of the Parties' Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Settlement Agreement"), resolving the wage and hour claims, including a representative claim brought under the Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), brought against Defendant Precision Construction and Painting, Inc. dba Precision Painting (formerly known as E and E Murray Incorporated) ("Defendant"). The proposed Class is defined as all non-exempt, hourly individuals that worked for Defendant in California ("Class Members") at any time during the Class Period from January 2, 2023 through May 13, 2025 ("Class Period"). The main terms of the Settlement are as follows:

1. A Gross Settlement Amount of $679,800.00, which will be distributed to approximately 536 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the total workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period;
2. Attorneys' fees of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently $226,600.00) and in reimbursement of litigation costs to Plaintiff's Counsel up to $25,000.00;
3. A Class Representative Service Payment of up to $10,000.00 to Plaintiff;
4. Costs of settlement administration of up to $8,950.00; and
5. Allocation of $50,000.00 to PAGA penalties, seventy-five percent (75%) of which ($37,500.00) will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"), and twenty-five percent (25%) of which ($12,500.00) will be paid to all non-exempt, hourly individuals that worked for Defendant in California at any time during the PAGA Period from January 2, 2023 through May 13, 2025.

The Settlement meets all criteria for preliminary approval and falls within the range of reasonableness given the risks and expenses of further litigation. The Settlement was reached through informed, arm's length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of an experienced neutral. As such, Plaintiff request that the Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative, appoint Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel, appoint ILYM Group,

1 Inc. (“ILYM”) as the Settlement Administrator, authorize the Settlement Administrator to 2 administer notice of the Settlement to the Class, and set a final approval hearing date.

3 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

4 On May 31, 2023, Plaintiff filed this action as a putative class action against Defendant 5 alleging: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; 6 (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to 7 timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; 8 (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; (8) failure to produce requested employment
9 records; and (9) unfair business practices (“Class Action”). Declaration of John G. Yslas in Support 10 of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Yslas 11 Decl.”) at ¶ 3.

12 On October 11, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendant of his 13 intention to file a PAGA claim. Id. at ¶ 4, Exhibit 3. The LWDA did not notify Plaintiff that it 14 intended to investigate. Id. Therefore, on March 8, 2024, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Representative 15 Action seeking civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq. (“PAGA Action”). Id.

16 On March 20, 2024, Plaintiff’s individual claims were compelled to arbitration, and 17 Plaintiff’s class claims were dismissed without prejudice and Plaintiff’s representative PAGA 18 claims were stayed pending the outcome of arbitration. Id. at ¶ 5. Plaintiff submitted his individual 19 class claims and PAGA claims to binding arbitration on April 30, 2024. Id. The Parties, as part of 20 the settlement, will enter into a stipulation to re-assert Plaintiff’s class claims and representative 21 PAGA claims. Id.

22 The Parties subsequently participated in a private mediation with mediator Steven G. Mehta 23 on March 11, 2025. Id. at ¶ 6. The parties were ultimately able to reach an agreement on general 24 settlement terms. Id. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm’s length, and tempered 25 by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id. The Parties negotiated the terms 26 of the Settlement over the next several months, which was finalized in August 2025. Id. at ¶ 7, 27 Exhibit 1 (“Settlement Agreement”). On August 27, 2025, the Parties filed the First Amended 28 Class and PAGA Representative Complaint (“FAC” or “Operative Complaint”) consolidating the

1 Class Action and PAGA Action. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 8. On September 29, 2025, Plaintiff submitted a 2 copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA. Id., Exhibit 2.

3 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

4 A. Terms of the Proposed Settlement

5 The Parties have agreed to settle the claims alleged in this case for a Gross Settlement 6 Amount of $679,800.00. Settlement Agreement at § 3.1. Subject to Court approval, the following 7 payments will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount: (1) class representative service 8 payment of up to $10,000.00 Plaintiff; (2) attorneys' fees of up to one-third (1/3) of the Gross 9 Settlement Amount (currently $226,600.00) and reimbursement of actual litigation costs to 10 Plaintiff's Counsel currently estimated not to exceed $25,000.00; (3) costs of settlement
11 administration of up to $8,950.00 to ILYM; and (4) PAGA penalties in the amount of $50,000.00, 12 which will be allocated 75% to the LWDA ($37,500.00) and 25% to Aggrieved Employees 13 ($12,500.00). Settlement Agreement at §§ 3.2.1-3.2.5. After all requested deductions are made, the 14 remaining Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $359,250.00.

15 Individual Class Payments will be calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount 16 by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class 17 Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each individual Participating Class Member's 18 Workweeks. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.4. For tax purposes, the individual class payments will 19 be allocated 20% to wages and 80% to penalties and interest. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.4.1.
20 Defendant will separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the wage portions of the 21 Individual Class Payments separate from the Gross Settlement Amount. Settlement Agreement at 22 § 3.1.

23 Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees will be calculated by dividing the Net 24 PAGA Distribution Amount (the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties of 25 $12,500.00) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods by all PAGA Members. Settlement 26 Agreement at § 3.2.5.1. Each PAGA Member shall receive an Individual PAGA Payment equal to 27 his or her individual PAGA Periods multiplied by the value of a single PAGA Pay Period. Id.
28

1 Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their 2 Individual PAGA Payment. Id.

3 Any deductions not approved by the Court will be retained by the Settlement Administrator 4 in the Net Settlement Amount. See Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.1-3.2.5. Funds from any 5 uncashed checks will be transmitted by the Administrator to the California Controller’s Unclaimed 6 Property Fund in the name of the Class Member, thereby leaving no “unpaid residue” subject to 7 the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b). Settlement 8 Agreement at § 4.4.3. None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. Settlement 9 Agreement at § 3.1.

10 B. Proposed Settlement Administration

11 The Parties’ proposed Class Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of 12 Court, Rule 3.766(d). See Exhibit A to Settlement Agreement. It provides information regarding 13 the nature of this lawsuit, a summary of the settlement terms, the formula used for calculating 14 individual class and PAGA payments and instructions to dispute the calculations, instructions on 15 how to opt-out of or object to the Settlement, the date, time, and location of the final approval 16 hearing, and the amounts sought for the class representative service payment, attorneys’ fees and 17 litigation costs, and settlement administration costs. See generally, id. The Class Notice also 18 notifies Class Members that they do not need to submit a claim in order to participate in the 19 Settlement and receive a payment. See id. The Settlement Administrator will mail Class Members 20 the Class Notice by first-class mail. Settlement Agreement at § 7.4.2.

21 If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the 22 Class Notice on or before the Response Deadline to the forwarding address provided by the U.S.
23 Postal Service. Settlement Agreement at § 7.4.3. If no forwarding address is provided, the 24 Settlement Administrator will conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Class 25 Notice to the most current address obtained. Id. The deadline to opt-out of the Settlement or to 26 submit an objection or dispute will be extended by an additional fourteen (14) days for all Class 27 Members whose Class Notice was remailed. Settlement Agreement at § 7.4.4.

28 ///

1 C. Proposed Release

2 Released by Participating Class Members: All Participating Class Members, on behalf of 3 themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, 4 administrators, successors and assigns, release Released Parties from all claims, rights, demands, 5 liabilities, and causes of action alleged or which could have reasonably been alleged, based on the 6 facts alleged in the Actions, including, e.g. (a) any and all claims involving an alleged failure to 7 pay minimum and/or overtime wages; (b) any and all claims involving an alleged failure to provide 8 rest breaks and meal breaks; (c) any and all claims involving alleged failure to pay wages due upon 9 termination or resignation of employment; (d) any and all claims involving an alleged failure to 10 provide compliant wage statements; (e) failure to reimburse all necessary business expenses; and 11 (f) any and all claims alleging violations of California's Unfair Competition Law, California 12 Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq. The Released Class Claims are all those that 13 accrued during the Class Period. Settlement Agreement at § 5.2.

14 Release by Aggrieved Employees: All Aggrieved Employees (regardless of whether they 15 are Participating Class Members or Non-Participating Class Members) are deemed to release, on 16 behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, 17 heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA civil 18 penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the 19 Actions and the PAGA Notice. The Released PAGA Claims are those accrued during the PAGA 20 Period. Settlement Agreement at § 5.3.

21 IV. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT MEETS ALL CRITERIA FOR 22 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

23 A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

24 Class certification is appropriate when there is: (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently 25 numerous class; (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members; and (3) substantial 26 benefits from certification that render proceeding as a class superior to the alternatives. Brinker 27 Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1021 (2012). Although courts still need to 28 review and consider each element for certification, a lesser standard can be used to provisionally certify a settlement class. Global Minerals & Metals Corp. v. Superior Court, 113 Cal.App.4th 836, 859 (2003).

1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

“Ascertainability” is determined by examining the class definition and the size of the class, and may also involve examining the means available to identify class members. Noel v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., 7 Cal.5th 955, 980-981, 985-986 (2019). As the settlement eliminates the need for trial, “the case management issues inherent in the ascertainable class determination need not be confronted.” Global Minerals, 113 Cal.App.4th at 859. Further, under California law, there is no minimum number of class members for maintenance of a class action. Hendershot v. Ready to Roll Transp., Inc., 228 Cal.App.4th 1213, 1222 (2014). Class sizes as small as 10 have been permitted. Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981), disapproved on other grounds by Noel, 7 Cal.5th at 986.

The Class here consists of all non-exempt, hourly individuals that worked for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period from January 2, 2023 through May 13, 2025. See Settlement Agreement at §§ 1.5, 1.13. The Class is also readily ascertainable from Defendant’s business records, because all Class Members are or were employees of Defendant. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10. Defendant’s records show there are approximately 536 Class Members, making joinder of all Class Members impracticable. Id.

2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists

The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. Brinker, 53 Cal.4th at 1021.

a. Common Questions Predominate

In determining whether common issues “predominate,” courts consider both plaintiff’s legal theories and defendant’s affirmative defenses. Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat’l Ass’n, 59 Cal.4th 1, 28-29 (2014). The “predominate common questions” factor does not require that all class members have identical claims. Ayala v. Antelope Valley Newspapers, Inc., 59 Cal.4th 522, 530 (2014). Rather, the focus is on whether issues shared by the class members are sufficiently uniform to 1 permit class-wide assessment, and whether individual variations in proof on those issues are 2 manageable. Id.

3 Plaintiff has alleged that Defendant maintained common employment policies and/or 4 practices that unlawfully deprived Class Members of wages, meal periods, rest periods, 5 reimbursements for business expenses, accurate wage statements, and timely payment of wages
6 upon separation of employment. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. These allegations present common factual 7 and legal questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, 8 pay, meal period, rest period, and reimbursement policies to all Class Members, whether these 9 policies and practices resulted in Labor Code violations, whether Defendant's conduct was 10 intentional, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and/or penalties. Id. These 11 common questions could be resolved using Class Members' time records, payroll records, 12 testimony from Defendant's designated representative(s), and Class Members' testimony. Id.
13 Therefore, the Court can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class certification 14 for settlement purposes.

15 b. Plaintiff is Typical of the Class

16 Typicality does not require that the representative plaintiff's claims and those of the class 17 members be identical or perfectly aligned. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 18 228 (2001), disapproved on other grounds by Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc., 4 Cal.5th 19 260, 269-280 (2018). Typicality does not require that a plaintiff's claims be identical to those of 20 other class members, only that their claims and the defenses applicable to them are sufficiently 21 similar to those of other class members that a named plaintiff is able to adequately represent the 22 class and focus on common issues. Medraza v. Honda of North Hollywood, 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 23 99 (2008).

24 Plaintiff has alleged that he and Class Members were employed by the same Defendant and 25 injured by Defendant's common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendant's 26 scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, and reimbursement policies. See Yslas 27 Decl. at ¶ 11. Through informal discovery, including the production of documents by Defendant, 28 Plaintiff confirmed that these challenged policies and practices applied to Plaintiff as well as Class

Members. See id. at ¶ 9. Therefore, Plaintiff’s claims and Class Members’ claims arise from the same challenged employment policies and practices and are based on the same legal theories.

c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Class

Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative and of the proposed class counsel. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. “Only a conflict that goes to the very subject matter of the litigation will defeat a party’s claim of representative status.” Richmond v. Dart Industries, 29 Cal.3d 462, 470 (1981). Only conflicts that are “irreconcilable” can defeat adequacy. Nat’l Solar Equip. Owners’ Ass’n v. Grumman Corp., 235 Cal.App.3d 1273, 1286 (1991). The proposed class representatives and proposed Class Counsel present no such conflict.

Plaintiff’s interests are coextensive with Class Members’ interests. Declaration of Jose Campos in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval (“Campos Decl.”) at ¶ 6. Plaintiff has demonstrated an ability to advocate for the interests of Class Members by initiating this lawsuit, gathering documents and information, keeping in regular contact with his attorneys, making himself available on the day of mediation and meeting with his attorneys to understand the claims and theories of liability at issue, and reviewing the proposed Settlement. Campos Decl. at ¶ 7.

Likewise, Wilshire Law Firm, PLC has expended considerable time and effort on this case and will continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Yslas Decl. Therefore, Plaintiff should be appointed Class Representative, and his counsel should be appointed Class Counsel.

3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

Courts have held that class treatment of wage and hour claims is clearly “superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.” Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc. v. Superior Court, 211 Cal.App.3d 758, 772-773 (1989). This is so because “[p]ublic policy has long favored the ‘full and prompt payment of wages due an employee.’” Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 340 (2004). Here, a class action is superior to a multitude of individual lawsuits. Given the size and amount of each Class Members’ claim, Class Members have little incentive to litigate their claims on an individual basis because the out-of-pocket expenses and personal commitment necessary to litigate each claim likely outweighs any

1 potential recovery. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10. Therefore, a class action is the superior method for seeking 2 relief.

3 B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

4 The moving party must demonstrate that “the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable.”
5 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 126 (2008). “In determining whether a 6 class settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors, 7 such as the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 8 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, 9 the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of 10 counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the 11 proposed settlement.” Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 244-245 (internal quotations and citations 12 omitted).

13 1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

14 A settlement is entitled to “a presumption of fairness . . . where: (1) the settlement is reached 15 through arm’s length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel 16 and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the 17 percentage of objectors is small.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996).
18 The Settlement here satisfies the first three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at final 19 approval after Class Members have been notified of the Settlement and provided with an 20 opportunity to object.

21 a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm’s Length Negotiation

22 Courts have recognized that the involvement of a respected mediator provides a high degree 23 of assurance that the settlement is the result of arm’s length bargaining. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 24 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-53 (2008). The Settlement in this matter was achieved with the assistance 25 of a respected mediator following a full day of mediation. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 6. The negotiations were 26 adversarial, conducted at arm’s length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the 27 interests of their clients. Id.

28 ///

1 b. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery Have Been Conducted

2 Prior to attending mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims, 3 applicable laws, and potential defenses. Id. at ¶ 9. Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value to the 4 class claims using the documents and data Defendant produced in informal discovery, including 5 class data providing the dates of employment for Class Members, Plaintiff's personnel file, 6 employment handbooks and policies, job descriptions, and time and payroll records. Id.

7 c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

8 Plaintiff is represented by Wilshire Law Firm, PLC. Id. at ¶ 19. Plaintiff's Counsel has 9 extensive experience litigating wage and hour class actions on behalf of employees. See id. at ¶¶ 10 20-34. Plaintiff's Counsel have been involved as counsel in numerous class actions that have 11 resulted in millions of dollars in recovery. See id.

12 2. *The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's Claims
13 and the Risks and Expense of Further Litigation

14 A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered fair 15 and reasonable. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Although 16 the exposure Plaintiff's Counsel calculated is substantial, the various risks at succeeding at class
17 certification and through trial affected the valuation of the claims for settlement purposes. Yslas
18 Decl. at ¶ 12.

19 Minimum and Overtime Wages: Plaintiff's unpaid minimum and overtime wage claims 20 were based on the allegation that Defendant required Class Members to perform work duties before 21 clocking in. Id. at ¶ 13. Based on Plaintiff's estimate that he worked a total of 1 hour off-the-clock
22 each week, Plaintiff's Counsel assumed each Class Member worked 1-hour off-the-clock per week 23 in calculating potential exposure to be approximately $930,306.30 for these claims. Id. However, 24 Defendant argued that any off-the-clock time was undocumented and unknown to Defendant, and 25 that Defendant was therefore not obligated to pay for this time. Id. Because this claim would have 26 relied heavily on Class Member testimony and would not be evidenced in Defendant's time and 27 payroll records, the risk of succeeding at class certification was substantial. Id. Accordingly, 28 Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 40% chance of succeeding at class

1 certification and a 35% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage 2 estimate of approximately $130,242.88 ($$930,306.30 \times 40\% \times 35\%$), or approximately 19% of the 3 Gross Settlement Amount. Id.

4 Meal Periods: Plaintiff's meal period claim was based on the allegation that Defendant
5 failed to maintain a policy and practice of paying meal period premiums when Class Members' 6 meal periods were late, short, or missed. Id. at ¶ 14. Plaintiff's meal period claim was further based 7 on the allegation that Defendant's implemented an automatic meal period deduction as reflected in 8 Defendant's records which evidenced that more than 99% of all recorded meal periods were exactly 9 30 minutes or exactly 60 minutes, which is highly unrealistic. Id. As such, Plaintiff's Counsel 10 found a violation rate of approximately 100% and calculated potential exposure on this claim to 11 be approximately $2,692,441.64. Id. However, Defendant argued that Wage Order 16 permits
12 employer's to not record meal breaks when "operations cease." Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's 13 Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 40% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 14 30% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of 15 approximately $323,093.00 ($$2,692,441.64 \times 40\% \times 30\%$), or approximately 48% of the Gross 16 Settlement Amount. Id.

17 Rest Breaks: Plaintiff's meal period claim was based on the allegation that Defendant failed 18 to provide Class Members rest periods and/or unlawfully told Class Members to combine their rest
19 and meal breaks. Id. at ¶ 15. Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 100% violation rate to all shifts over 3.5
20 hours and calculated a potential exposure of $2,692,441.64 for this claim. Id. However, Defendant 21 argued that a 100% violation rate was unrealistic. Id. Because this claim would have relied 22 exclusively on Class Member testimony, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 23 20% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 15% chance of succeeding at trial on the 24 merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $80,773.25 ($$2,692,441.64 \times 20\% \times$ 25 15%), or approximately 12% of the Gross Settlement Amount. Id.

26 Reimbursements: Plaintiff's reimbursement claim was based on the allegation that 27 Defendant required Class Members to use their personal cell phones and purchase their own gear 28 to carry out their job duties (e.g., masks, brushes, and clothing). Id. at ¶ 16. Based on Plaintiff's

1 estimate that he incurred $30 in unreimbursed expenses per month, Plaintiff's Counsel assumed 2 each Class Member incurred $30 in unreimbursed expenses per month in calculating potential 3 exposure to be approximately $169,950.00 for this claim. Id. However, Defendant argued that these 4 expenses were not required by Defendant and highly individualized. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's 5 Counsel could not attribute any value to this claim in terms of settlement value. Id.

6 Derivative Penalties: Plaintiff alleged that as a result of Defendant's alleged failure to pay 7 all wages and meal and rest period premiums owed, Defendant owed waiting time penalties and 8 wage statement penalties. Id. at ¶ 17. However, Defendant argued that it had good faith defenses 9 that made the imposition of these penalties unwarranted. Id. Moreover, Plaintiff could not recover 10 these penalties if he failed to prove the underlying claims. Plaintiff's Counsel calculated that 11 potential exposure for the waiting time penalty claim was approximately \$1,944,364.80 (assuming 12 30 days per employee at 8.0 hours per day, based on the average hours per shift), and approximately 13 \$2,144,000.00 for the wage statement penalty claim (based on \$50 for the first violations and \$100 14 for subsequent violations, with a \$4,000 employee maximum). Id. However, considering that the 15 underlying claims are realistically estimated to be approximately \$534,109.13, such a 16 disproportionate award would also raise due process concerns. Id. As such, Plaintiff discounted the 17 figure to account for the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation 18 of approximately \$58,330.94 ($\$1,944,364.80 \times 20\% \times 15\%$) for waiting time penalty claims, or 19 approximately 9% of the Gross Settlement Amount and approximately \$64,320.00 ($\$2,144,000.00$ 20 $\times 20\% \times 15\%$) for wage statement penalty claims, or approximately 9% of the Gross Settlement 21 Amount. Id.

22 PAGA: For the PAGA claim, Plaintiff's Counsel determined that Defendant's potential 23 exposure could potentially reach $2,266,000.00, assuming the initial $100 penalty would apply for 24 each of the 22,660 pay periods in the PAGA Period. Id. at ¶ 18. However, even assuming success 25 on the merits of each claim, PAGA gives the Court discretion to reduce penalties for a variety of 26 reasons, including whether the amount of the award would be unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 27 confiscatory. Id. As such, Plaintiff allocated $50,000.00 of the Gross Settlement Amount to settle 28 the PAGA claims, or 7.4% of the Gross Settlement Amount. Id.

1 C. The Requested Service Payment is Reasonable

2 Plaintiff seeks a Class Representative Service Payment of up to $10,000.00 for accepting 3 the responsibilities of representing the interests of the Class and potential costs that were not borne 4 by any other Class Member. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.1. A named plaintiff is eligible for 5 payment that reasonably compensates her for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to 6 represent absent class members. See Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 7 1393 (2010); Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (2004).

8 Throughout this case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in gathering evidence necessary to 9 prosecute the claims, maintained regular contact with counsel, and reviewed the Settlement to 10 ensure it was fair to the Class. Campos Decl. at ¶ 7. No action would likely have been taken by 11 Class Members individually and no compensation would have been recovered for them, but for 12 Plaintiff's services on behalf of the Class. By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff furthered the 13 California public policy goal of enforcing the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On, 34 Cal.4th 14 at 340. The requested Class Representative Service Payment is reasonable and should be 15 preliminarily approved. Plaintiff has provided a declaration regarding his work performed to date 16 and will provide additional information as requested or required by the Court at final approval.

17 D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

18 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who 19 invested in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the 20 class. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees equaling one-third or more of the potential 21 value of the common fund. See Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 66, fn. 11 ("Empirical studies show 22 that, regardless of whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in 23 class actions average around one-third of the recovery.").

24 Plaintiff seeks appointment of Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel. The attorneys 25 performed significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting this matter with no 26 guarantee of payment. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 19. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks preliminary approval for 27 $226,600.00 in attorneys' fees, which is up to one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, and 28 reimbursement of actual litigation costs not to exceed $25,000.00. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.2.

1 Given the work performed in this matter, the extensive information exchange, and the substantial 2 recovery obtained on behalf of the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel achieved a settlement through 3 efficient and diligent work. See generally, Yslas Decl. At final approval, Plaintiff's Counsel will 4 fully brief the merits of their request for the award of attorneys' fees and litigation costs.

5 V. CONCLUSION

6 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of the class claims in light of 7 the risks presented in this case. Plaintiff has presented the materials and information necessary to 8 demonstrate that the requirements for preliminary approval have been met, and therefore 9 respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement and schedule a date for 10 the final approval hearing.
