JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff ALFRED GARZA (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated,
2 the State of California, and the general public, complain and allege as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this class and representative action against Defendants AMERIT
5 FLEET SOLUTIONS, INC., a California corporation; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, 6 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for alleged violations of the California Labor Code and 7 California Business and Professions Code. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have:

- 8 a. failed to pay them overtime wages at the correct rate;
- 9 b. failed to pay them double time wages at the correct rate;
- 10 c. failed to pay them overtime and/or double time wages by failing to include all 11 applicable remuneration in calculating the regular rate of pay;
- 12 d. failed to provide them with meal periods;
- 13 e. failed to provide them with rest periods;
- 14 f. failed to pay them premium wages for missed meal and rest periods;
- 15 g. failed to pay them proper sick time pay;
- 16 h. failed to provide them with accurate written wage statements;
- 17 i. failed to reimburse them with necessary business expenditures;
- 18 j. failed to pay them all of their final wages following separation of employment.

19 Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class and 20 representative action to recover unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil and statutory penalties, 21 restitution and related relief on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public.

22 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

23 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this case because the monetary
24 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff from Defendants conduct exceeds the minimal jurisdiction
25 of the Superior Court of the State of California.

26 3. Venue is proper in the County of Contra Costa pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
27 sections 395(a) and 395.5 in that liability arose this county because at least some of the transactions
28 that are the subject matter of this Complaint occurred therein and/or each defendant is found, maintains offices, transacts business and/or has an agent therein.

4. Venue is proper in Contra Costa County because Defendants' have at all times alleged herein, conducted business in Contra Costa County, and throughout California. As such, venue is proper in any county in California.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff ALFRED GARZA is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant AMERIT FLEET SOLUTIONS, INC. is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a California corporation doing business in the State of California.

7. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that each of the fictitiously named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged herein and that Plaintiff's alleged damages were proximately caused by these defendants, and each of them. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times mentioned herein, some or all of the defendants were the representatives, agents, employees, partners, directors, associates, joint venturers, joint employers, owners, principals or co-participants of some or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting within the course and scope of such relationship and with the full knowledge, consent and ratification by such other defendants.

9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times mentioned herein, some of the defendants pursued a common course of conduct, acted in concert and conspired with one another, and aided and abetted one another to accomplish the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged herein.

1 10. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to Code
2 of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest among the 3 persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because Plaintiff is 4 unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class action.

5 11. Relevant Time Period: The relevant time period is defined as the time period
6 beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until judgment is entered.

- 7 a. Hourly Employee Class: All persons employed by Defendants, collectively or 8 separately, and/or any staffing agencies and/or any other third parties in hourly or 9 non-exempt positions in California four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action (“Hourly Employee Class”).
- 10 b. Meal Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked in 11 a shift in excess of five hours during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 12 c. Rest Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked a 13 shift of at least three and one-half (3.5) hours the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 14 d. Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who 15 separated from their employment with Defendants during the period beginning 16 three years before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.
- 17 e. Sick-Pay Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who, at any 18 time from four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that 19 final judgment is entered in this action, worked for more than 30 days for Defendants, and were not paid for at least one hour of sick time for every 30 hours of work thereafter, or at least 3 days of sick time for every 12-month period of employment.
- 20 f. Wage Statement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California during 21 the period beginning one year before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.
- 22 g. Expense Reimbursement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in 23 California who incurred business expenses during the Relevant Time Period.
- 24 h. UCL Class: All Hourly Employee Class and Expense Reimbursement Class 25 members employed by Defendants in California during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.

26 12. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves the right
27 to amend or modify the class definitions with greater specificity, by further division into sub-classes 28 ///

1 and/or by limitation to particular issues.

2 13. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that the individual joinder of each
3 individual class member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact number of 4 class members, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that the actual number 5 exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California law.

6 14. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all
7 class members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual class members.
8 These common questions include, but are not limited to:

- 9 a. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 10 employees with their rest periods;
- 11 b. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 12 employees with their meal periods;
- 13 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay premium wages to class members when they 14 have not been provided with meal and rest periods at the appropriate rates of pay;
- 15 d. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class 16 members for all time worked;
- 17 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage 18 statements as a result of providing them with written wage statements with 19 inaccurate entries for, among other things, amounts of gross and net wages, and 20 total hours worked;
- 21 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay proper sick time pay;
- 22 g. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or 23 incomplete final wage payments;
- 24 h. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for all necessary business 25 expenses incurred during the discharge of their duties;
- 26 i. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under 27 Labor Code section 203; and
- 28 j. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that

Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition;

15. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other class members' claims. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing to comply with the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code as alleged in this Complaint.

16. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative and has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent class members and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the other class members.

17. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in that they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent class members, are experienced in wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of Plaintiff and absent class members.

18. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair and efficient adjudication of the class members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and the Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to simultaneously and efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In addition, the monetary amounts due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively small and would thus make it difficult, if not impossible, for individual class members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a class action will serve an important public interest by permitting class members to effectively pursue the recovery of monies owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee during the relevant and statutory periods.

20. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff and Class members proper wages and overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay.

1 21. Plaintiff and Class Members were consistently required to perform work, off-the-
2 clock, for which they were not paid wages. First, Plaintiff and Class Members were systemically
3 required to check emails, review schedules, and be available to respond to calls, both before and after 4 the start of their shifts, for which no wages were paid. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members were 5 required to use their personal cellular phones, prior to clocking in and after clocking out for the day,
6 part of their work responsibilities. Furthermore, Plaintiff and Class Members were systemically 7 required to perform work during unpaid meal periods, including having to keep and monitor their 8 cellular phones. Defendants implemented of common policy and practice of automatically deducting 9 30 minutes of wages for alleged meal periods which were systemically denied. The forgoing and 10 uncompensated working time was under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages 11 were paid.

12 22. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of 13 eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Plaintiff
14 and Class Members to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

15 23. Defendants also failed to Plaintiff and Class Members overtime wages at the proper 16 and applicable regular rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members earned performance-
17 based non-discretionary bonuses in addition to their hourly pay. However, these supplemental 18 earnings were not accounted for when determining Plaintiff and Class Members' regular rates of pay, 19 and respective and proper overtime rates of pay.

20 24. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 21 Class Members the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with the California Law.
22 Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and Class Members were denied the 23 opportunity to take meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work. In fact, Plaintiff
24 and Class Members were regularly denied compliant meal periods altogether. Plaintiff and Class
25 Members were required to perform work-related activities during unpaid meal periods, including 26 having to keep and monitor their cellular phones during breaks. Defendants implemented of common 27 policy and practice of automatically deducting 30 minutes of wages for alleged meal periods which 28 were systemically denied.

1 25. Furthermore, Plaintiff and Class Members were denied the opportunity to take second 2 meal periods prior to the completion of the tenth hour of work.

3 26. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30)
4 minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal
5 period as part of each work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to 6 take their meal periods, or that advised Class Members of their meal and rest period rights; and (3)
7 Defendants' practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their meal and 8 rest periods due to the excessive workload.

9 27. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 10 Class Members the opportunity to take rest periods in compliance with the California Law. Plaintiff
11 and Class Members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4)
12 hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest
13 period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2)
14 no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods,
15 or that properly advised Plaintiff and Class Members of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy 16 and practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to 17 the excessive workload, including having to keep and monitor their cellular phones during breaks.

18 28. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members premium pay 19 wages at their appropriate regular rates of pay for each meal and rest period denied.

20 29. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with accurate wage statements as 21 mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226. Specifically, Defendants failed to issue wage 22 statements as "a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or 23 separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing."
24 Additionally, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members were not recorded in "ink 25 or other indelible form."

26 30. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as "gross wages 27 earned" were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

28 31. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as "total hours worked

1 by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were 2 not included.

3 32. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as “net wages earned”
4 were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

5 33. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as “all applicable
6 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 7 hourly rate by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including 8 overtime, were not included.

9 34. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with paper pay 10 stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE Opinion Letters.
11 Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ wage statement were only provided in electronic format in violation 12 of Labor Code § 226.

13 35. Plaintiff and Class Members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in 14 executing their duties under Defendant’s employ. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were 15 required to pay the costs acquiring and maintaining all tools and equipment necessary to perform their 16 duties under Defendants’ employ. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to use
17 their personal cellular phones for work purposes, both on and off the clock. Plaintiff and Class 18 members were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

19 36. Finally, Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay 20 Plaintiff and Class Members the requisite sick time pay in accordance with California Law.
21 Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members worked for Defendants for more than 30 days, but were not 22 paid at least one hour of sick pay for every 30 hours of work, or at least 3 days of sick time for every 23 12 month period of work. Additionally, the sick pay paid to Plaintiff and Class Members did not 24 account for the shift differential pay as well as performance-based non-discretionary bonuses, which 25 were never factored into the rate upon which sick pay was accrued and paid.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

3 (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1174, and 1198)

4 (Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class)

5 37. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if 6 fully alleged herein.

7 38. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members have been 8 non-exempt employees of Defendant entitled to the full meal period protections of both the Labor
9 Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

10 39. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
11 Commission Wage Order impose an affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt
12 employees with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period
13 of five hours, and to provide them with two uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty 14 minutes for each work period of ten hours.

15 40. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
16 Commission Wage Order (“Wage Order”) both prohibit employers from requiring employees to work 17 during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of 18 premium wages on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required meal period.

19 41. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor 20 Code section 200.

21 42. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 22 violate the applicable Wage Order.

23 43. Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order states:

24 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than 25 five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except 26 that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete 27 the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 28 the employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an ‘on duty’ meal period and counted as time worked. An ‘on duty’ meal period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written

1 agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed
2 to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.

3 44. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was not subject to a valid on-duty meal period
4 agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Meal Period Sub-Class
5 members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

6 45. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
7 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
8 Sub-Class with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5)
9 hour work period, as required by Labor Code section 512 ad the applicable Wage Order. Specifically,
10 due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were 11 denied the opportunity to take meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work. In fact,
12 Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were regularly denied compliant meal periods
13 altogether. Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were required to perform work-related 14 activities during unpaid meal periods, including having to keep and monitor their cellular phones
15 during breaks. Defendants implemented of common policy and practice of automatically deducting 16 30 minutes of wages for alleged meal periods which were systemically denied.

17 46. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
18 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium wages to Meal Period Sub-
19 Class members when they worked five (5) hours without clocking out for any meal period.

20 47. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
21 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
22 Sub-Class with a second meal period when they worked shifts of ten or more hours and failed to pay 23 them premium wages as required by Labor Code 512 and the applicable Wage Order.

24 48. Moreover, Defendants written policies fail to inform Meal period Class Members of 25 their meal period rights under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

26 49. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-
27 Class members additional premium wages, and/or were not paid premium wages at the employees'
28 regular rates of pay when required meal periods were not provided.

50. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6, 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seek to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and costs of suit.

51. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seek to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

(Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198)

(Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class)

52. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

53. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members have been non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of both the Labor Code and the applicable Wage Order.

54. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on employers to permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than ten minutes of net rest time for each four hour work period, or major fraction thereof, that must be in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

55. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order both prohibit employers from requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay, on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

56. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor Code section 200.

57. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that violate the Wage Order.

58. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,

1 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing members of the Rest Period Sub-Class
2 with net rest period of at least ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hour work period, or major
3 fraction thereof, as required by the applicable Wage Order.

4 59. Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were not provided with rest periods of 5 at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1)
6 Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second 7 rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that 8 encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Rest Period Sub-Class
9 members of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring Rest Period
10 Sub-Class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to the excessive workload and 11 maintaining and monitoring their cellular phones during breaks, including having to keep and monitor
12 their cellular phones during breaks

13 60. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class
14 members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not provided.

15 61. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself 16 and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seek to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and 17 costs of suit.

18 62. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 19 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Rest
20 Period Sub-Class members, seek to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

21 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FAILURE TO PAY HOURLY AND OVERTIME WAGES

23 (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

24 (Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class)

25 63. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 26 herein.

27 64. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members are or have been 28 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the

1 applicable Wage Order.

2 65. Section 2 of the applicable Wage Order defines “hours worked” as “the time during 3 which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, and includes all the time the employee
4 is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

5 66. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt
6 employees at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours 7 that an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

8 67. Labor Code section 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an 9 employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable Wage 10 Order.

11 68. Labor Code section 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated
12 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in addition 13 to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

14 69. Labor Code section 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less
15 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours worked during a 16 payroll period.

17 70. Labor Code section 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other 18 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent or employee of another person, to pay an 19 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

20 71. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under 21 conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

22 72. Labor Code section 204 requires employers to pay non-exempt employees their earned 23 wages for the normal work period at least twice during each calendar month on days the employer 24 designates in advance and to pay non-exempt employees their earned wages for labor performed in 25 excess of the normal work period by no later than the next regular payday.

26 73. Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower 27 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

28 74. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order require employees

1 to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half times their respective 2 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight hours in one workday, all hours worked in 3 excess of forty hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight hours worked on the seventh 4 consecutive day of one workweek.

5 75. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order also require 6 employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two times their respective 7 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve hours in one workday and for all hours 8 worked in excess of eight hours on a seventh consecutive workday during the workweek.

9 76. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have applied
10 centrally devised policies and practices to her and Hourly Employee Class members with respect to 11 working conditions and compensation arrangements.

12 77. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay hourly wages to Plaintiff and Hourly
13 Employee Class members for all time worked, including but not limited to, overtime hours at 14 statutory and/or agreed rates.

15 78. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were not paid proper wages and 16 overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay.

17 79. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were consistently required to perform
18 work, off-the-clock for which they were not paid wages. First, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
19 members were systemically required to check emails, review schedules, and be available to respond
20 to calls, both before and after the start of their shifts, for which no wages were paid. Additionally,
21 Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were required to use their personal cellular phones,
22 prior to clocking in and after clocking out for the day, part of their work responsibilities. Furthermore,
23 Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were systemically required to perform work during 24 unpaid meal periods, including having to keep and monitor their cellular phones. Defendants 25 implemented of common policy and practice of automatically deducting 30 minutes of wages for 26 alleged meal periods which were systemically denied. The forgoing and uncompensated working time 27 was under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

28 80. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to

1 work in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week,
2 entitling Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to minimum and overtime wages, which 3 they were systemically denied.

4 81. Defendants also failed to Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members overtime
5 wages at the proper and applicable regular rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee
6 Class members earned commissions and/or performance-based non-discretionary bonuses in addition
7 to their hourly pay. However, these supplemental earnings were not accounted for when determining 8 Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members' regular rates of pay, and respective and proper 9 overtime rates of pay.

10 82. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class 11 members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the 12 full amount of wages earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period, 13 including overtime wages.

14 83. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 218.6, 223, 510, 1194 and 1194.2, Plaintiff, on 15 behalf of himself and Hourly Employee Class members, seek to recover unpaid straight time and 16 overtime wages, interest thereon and costs of suit.

17 84. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 18 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 19 Hourly Employee Class members, seek to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

20 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PAY PROPER SICK PAY

22 (Lab. Code § 246)

23 (Plaintiff and Sick Pay Class)

24 85. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporate all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 25 full herein.

26 86. Labor Code Section 246 affords an employee "who works in California for 30 or 27 more days within a year from the commencement of employment [] paid sick days . . . of not less
28 than one hour per every 30 hours worked" and "no less than 24 hours of accrued sick leave or paid

1 time off by the 120th calendar day of employment or each calendar year, or in each 12-month
2 period.”

3 87. Additionally, Subsection (l) of Section 246 provides:

4 For the purposes of this section, an employer shall calculate paid sick leave
5 using any of the following calculations:

6 (1) Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated in the same
7 manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee
8 uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime 9 in that workweek.

10 88. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
11 and Sick Pay Class Members the requisite sick time pay in accordance with California Law.
12 Specifically, Plaintiff and Sick Pay Class Members worked for Defendants for more than 30 days,
13 but were not paid at least one hour of sick pay for every 30 hours of work, or at least 3 days of sick
14 time for every 12 month period of work. Additionally, the sick pay paid to Plaintiff and Sick Pay
15 Class Members did not account for the performance-based non-discretionary bonuses, which were 16 never factored into the rate upon which sick pay was accrued and paid.

17 89. Therefore, Sick Pay Class Members are owed the unpaid balance of said wages
18 pursuant to the Wage order according to proof at trial, interest pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218.6 and 19 1194(a), Civil Code §§ 3287 and § 3289, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and/or penalties
20 pursuant to Labor Code § 558(a).

21 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WRITTEN WAGE STATEMENTS

23 (Lab. Code § 226)

24 (Plaintiff and Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

25 90. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 26 herein.

27 91. Labor Code section 226(a) states:

28 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized

1 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
2 worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the 3 number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 4 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that 5 all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be 6 aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 7 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 8 name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social 9 security number or an employee identification number other than a 10 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that 11 is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as 12 defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the 13 legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all 14 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 15 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 16 employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if the employer is a temporary 17 services employer as defined in Section 201.3, the rate of pay and the 18 total hours worked for each temporary services assignment. The 19 deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or 20 other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, 21 and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be 22 kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of 23 employment or at a central location within the State of California. For 24 purposes of this subdivision, 'copy' includes a duplicate of the itemized 25 statement provided to an employee or a computer-generated record that 26 accurately shows all of the information required by this subdivision.

92. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement ("DLSE") has sought to harmonize the "detachable part of the check" provision and the "accurate itemized statement in writing" provision of Labor Code section 226(a) by allowing for electronic wage statements so long as each employee retains the right to elect to receive a written paper stub or record and that those who are provided with electronic wage statements retain the ability to easily access the information and convert the electronic statements into hard copies at no expense to the employee. (DLSE Opinion Letter July 6, 2006).

93. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants have failed to provide Wage Statement Class members with written wage statements as described above. Additionally, the wage statements issued to class members failed to account for the unpaid minimum wages, overtime, and premium pay wages described above.

94. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class
Members with paper pay stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE
Opinion Letters. Plaintiff's and Wage Statement Class members' wage statement were only 1 provided in electronic format in violation of Labor Code § 226.

2 95. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' failure to provide her and Wage
3 Statement Class members with accurate written wage statements were intentional in that Defendants
4 have the ability to provide them with accurate wage statements but have intentionally provided them
5 with written wage statements that Defendants have known do not comply with Labor Code section 6 226(a).

7 96. Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members have suffered injuries, in that 8 Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them
9 about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage
10 statements have prevented immediate challenges to Defendants' unlawful pay practices, has required
11 discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused 12 difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the 13 submission of inaccurate information about wages and deductions to federal and state government 14 agencies.

15 97. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Wage
16 Statement Class members, seek the greater of actual damages or $50.00 for the initial pay period in 17 which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for each subsequent pay period
18 in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of 19 $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

20 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

22 (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

23 (Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

24 98. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 25 herein.

26 99. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have 27 been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely payment of all wages
28 earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

100. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 201, employees who have been discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

101. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 202, employees who have resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours notice of resignation have been entitled to payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

102. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant time during the applicable limitations period, Defendants have failed to timely pay Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members all of their final wages in accordance with the Labor Code.

103. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants have maintained a policy or practice of paying Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code sections 201 or 202 by failing to timely pay them all final wages.

104. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that Defendants' failure to timely pay all final wages to her and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have been willful in that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and/or 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practices that are incompatible with those requirements.

105. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seek waiting time penalties from the dates that their final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of thirty days, and interest thereon.

106. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seek awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY

(Lab. Code § 2802)

(Plaintiff and Reimbursement Class)

107. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged

1 herein.

2 108. Labor Code section 2802(a) states:

3 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary
4 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence 5 of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the 6 directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, 7 at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

8 109. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for 9 business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically, Plaintiff
10 and Expense Reimbursement Class members were required to pay the costs acquiring and 11 maintaining all tools and equipment necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ.
12 Additionally, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were required to use their 13 personal cellular phones for work purposes, both on and off the clock. Plaintiff and Expense
14 Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

15 110. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class Members were not reimbursed for 16 these necessary work-related expenses.

17 111. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members are entitled to 18 restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four years of the date of the filing of the 19 Complaint and until the date of entry of judgment.

20 112. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, and Expense Reimbursement Class members, seeks 21 interest thereon and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees
22 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

23 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 UNFAIR COMPETITION

25 (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

26 (Plaintiff and UCL Class)

27 113. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 28 herein.

any unlawful business practice.

1 115. Business and Professions Code section 17203-17204 allow a person who has lost
2 money or property as a result of unfair competition to bring a class action in accordance with Code
3 of Civil Procedure section 382 to recover money or property that may have been acquired from 4 similarly situated persons by means of unfair competition.

5 116. California law requires employers to pay hourly, non-exempt employees for all hours
6 they are permitted or suffered to work, including hours that the employer knows or reasonable should 7 know that employees have worked.

8 117. Plaintiff and the UCL Class members re-alleges and incorporates the FIRST,
9 SECOND, THIRD, FOURTH and SEVENTH causes of action herein.

10 118. Plaintiff lost money or property as a result of the aforementioned unfair competition.

11 119. Defendants have or may have acquired money by means of unfair competition.

12 120. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that by committing the Labor
13 Code violations described in this Complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 215, 216, 225, 14 226.6, 226.7, 246, 354, 408, 512, 510, 553, 1175, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and 15 2802 as well as applicable Wage Orders, which make it a misdemeanor to commit the violations 16 alleged herein.

17 121. Defendants have committed criminal conduct through their policies and practices of,
18 inter alia, failing to comport with their affirmative obligations as an employer to: provide non-exempt
19 employees with compliant meal and rest periods; pay for all hours worked at the proper rates of pay;
20 proper sick time pay; reporting time pay; and reimbursement for necessary business expenditures.

21 122. Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged in this Complaint amounts to and constitutes

27 123. As a result of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code during the applicable
28 limitations period, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property in the form

1 of earned wages. Specifically, Plaintiff has lost money or property as a result of Defendants' conduct.

2 124. Plaintiff is informed and believes that other similarly situated persons have been 3 subject to the same unlawful policies or practices of Defendants.

4 125. Due to the unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code,
5 Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in 6 the State of California that comply with their legal obligations.

7 126. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") permits civil recovery and injunctive
8 for "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice," including if a practice or act violates 9 or is considered unlawful under any other state or federal law.

10 127. Accordingly, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200 and 17203,
11 Plaintiffs request the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
12 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
13 Code and applicable Wage Orders.

14 128. Accordingly, pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code sections 17200 and 17203, Plaintiff
15 requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
16 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
17 Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders; and upon a final hearing seek an 18 order permanently enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their respective agents and 19 employees, from further violations of the Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission

21 129. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 22 himself and UCL Class members, seek declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully 23 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful 24 and unfair business practices.

25 130. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
26 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover 27 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

28 131. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of

[] (BY MAIL) I placed such envelope with postage thereon fully paid in the United States mail at Glendale, California. I am “readily familiar” with this firm’s practice of collecting and processing correspondence for mailing. It is deposited with U.S. Postal Service on that same day in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than 1 day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.

[X] (BY ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION) by use of email by scanning the documents and any and all documents and emailing them to email addresses above.

[] (BY OVERNIGHT DELIVERY) I enclosed the documents in an envelope or package provided by an overnight delivery carrier and addressed to the persons at the address above. I placed the envelope or package for collection and overnight delivery at an office or a regularly utilized drop box of the overnight delivery carrier.

[X] (STATE) I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on December 14, 2023, at Glendale, California.
