CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION

DECLARATION OF KANE MOON IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS
AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION
SETTLEMENT

*[Filed with Plaintiff's Notice of Motion and Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declaration of Plaintiff, and [Proposed]
Preliminary Approval Order]*

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL HEARING:

Date: December 17, 2026

Time: 1:30 p.m.

Dept.: 22

Judge: Hon. Beth McGowen

Action Filed: October 12, 2023

Trial Date: Not set

I, KANE MOON, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at law duly licensed to practice as such before all Courts of the State of California and am one of the attorneys of record for Plaintiff Daniel Dauzon (“Plaintiff”) and the putative Class. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein and if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently to the facts described herein.

CASE BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

2. This is a wage-and-hour class and representative action for alleged Labor Code violations and claims for civil penalties pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all individuals who worked for Defendant Clarmil Manufacturing Corporation (“Defendant”) in California as hourly, non-exempt employees at any time during the Class Period, as set forth in the Class and Representative Action Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement”). A true and correct copy of the Settlement is attached to the instant Declaration as Exhibit 1. The proposed Class Notice is attached to the Settlement as Exhibit A.

3. Defendant is a commissioned licensed manufacturer of Goldilocks products operating a commissary in Hayward, California. Defendant employed Plaintiff and other non-exempt, hourly-paid employees during the Class Period. Plaintiff contends he and his coworkers were subjected to the same unlawful labor practices, including failure to pay wages for all hours worked.

4. Plaintiff's claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages stem from allegations that Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and others for off-the-clock work and failed to incorporate all remuneration into employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime, meal premium, and sick pay, and that Defendant rounded employees' time to their detriment. Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work, Class Members' breaks were often short, late, interrupted, and sometimes missed altogether, and that Defendant did not pay all premium wages for non-compliant breaks. Plaintiff further brings a claim for unreimbursed necessary business expenses based on allegations that Class Members were required to purchase safety gear and tools, face masks, and gloves, and use their personal cellphone for work purposes without reimbursement from Defendant. Finally, Plaintiff

1 also brings derivative claims for waiting time penalties, wage statement violations, unfair business practices, 2 and civil penalties under PAGA.

3 5. Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, Plaintiff 4 filed a class action on October 12, 2023, which alleges Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum 5 wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize 6 and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final 7 wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair 8 business practices.

9 6. Pursuant to PAGA, on October 8, 2023, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California Labor 10 and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, with certified 11 mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s PAGA 12 Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. On December 26, 2023, Plaintiff timely filed a First Amended Class 13 and Representative Action Complaint to add a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA (the 14 “Operative Complaint”). Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently submitted to the 15 LWDA a file-stamped copy of the Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned case number. To 16 date, the LWDA has not indicated its intent to investigate the alleged violations or intervene in this Action.

17 7. Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
18 Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including compensating Class Members 19 for any and all off-the-clock work and overtime work, and therefore, Plaintiff and other Class Members were 20 paid all wages owed. Defendant argues it did not fail to incorporate any non-discretionary bonuses into the 21 regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime, meal premium, or sick pay, and that all bonuses were 22 discretionary. Defendant argues its time-rounding practice is neutral on its face and in compliance with 23 California law. Defendant maintains compliance with all its meal and rest period obligations. Defendant 24 asserts it complied with all its reimbursement obligations, and that Plaintiff and other employees were 25 compensated for any and all business expenses necessarily incurred. To the extent employees received wage 26 statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered no actual damage or harm 27 as a result. (See, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013, No. C 12–05860 CRB) 2013 28

1 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s failure to 2 provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not 3 sufficient.”].) With respect to Plaintiff’s claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges its good-faith 4 belief that it paid all wages precludes the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff cannot prove 5 Defendant’s alleged failure to pay all final wages at the time of separation was “willful.” (See, e.g., Pedroza 6 v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For 7 these reasons, among others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, and further claims it 8 did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA. Defendant also maintains 9 the claims are improper for class treatment, in part, due to the individualized and testimony-intensive nature 10 of the wage claims that could bar class certification or significantly reduce Defendant’s overall liability.

11 DISCOVERY AND INVESTIGATION

12 8. The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Marc Feder, Esq., an experienced class and 13 PAGA action mediator. In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol for an informal 14 production of documents and information before mediation. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained from 15 Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were necessary and helpful to evaluate the 16 claims asserted in this action. Defendant produced a statistically sound sample of time and pay records for 17 the putative Class, Plaintiff’s personnel file and time and pay records, and Defendant’s written employment 18 policies in effect during the Class Period. Defendant also provided information regarding the estimated 19 number of current and formerly employed Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and PAGA Pay Periods.

20 9. In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff’s Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information 21 Defendant provided, including the sample records and documents regarding Defendant’s wage-and-hour 22 policies. Plaintiff’s Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the sample records and prepare a damage 23 analysis prior to the mediation. The sample time and pay records analyzed contained 28,037 actual shifts 24 worked (representing roughly 18% of total shifts worked in the Class Period), which allowed Plaintiff’s 25 expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty. In conjunction with their extensive factual 26 investigation, Plaintiff’s Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses 27 asserted in the litigation. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class 28

1 certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims.
2 Thus, Plaintiff’s and his Counsel’s familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the 3 pleadings allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

4 SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS AND NOTICE TO THE LWDA

5 10. On October 23, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with Marc Feder, 6 Esq. The negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were 7 adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, 8 but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been 9 reached. After a full discussion regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s 10 defenses and with the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached a resolution, the material terms of which 11 are set out in the Settlement.

12 11. In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 13 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff’s preliminary approval 14 motion and the hearing date. A true and correct copy of the LWDA’s email confirming receipt thereof is 15 attached hereto as Exhibit 3. To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement.

16 KEY TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

17 12. GSA and Funding: The Gross Settlement Amount (“GSA”) is $300,000.00, subject to potential 18 increase under an Escalator Clause, and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.) Defendant will separately 19 pay its employer-side payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments. (Id.) Defendant 20 will fully fund the GSA, and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant’s share of payroll taxes 21 by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than the later of: (a) the date on which the Court enters 22 Final Approval Order, or (b) December 31, 2026. (Id. at ¶ 4.1.)

23 13. Escalator Clause: The Settlement provides an escalator clause under which should the number 24 of Class Period Workweeks increases by more than 10% of the original estimate of 25,004 (i.e., the total 25 number of workweeks exceed 27,504), then Defendant shall elect to either: (1) Pay a pro-rata increase in the 26 Gross Settlement Amount equal to the percentage increase in workweeks above 27,504, or (2) roll back the 27 Class Period to a date whereby the workweek total is fewer than 27,504. (Id. at ¶ 8.) The Parties agree that, 28

1 before Plaintiff files the motion for preliminary approval—and sufficiently in advance of the preliminary 2 approval hearing—Defendant shall provide the Settlement Administrator selected by the Parties with 3 complete and accurate class data. (Id.)

4 14. Class Representative Service Payment: The Settlement includes a payment up to $7,500.00
5 payable from the GSA, subject to the Court’s approval, to Plaintiff as the Class Representative, in addition 6 to the amount he is eligible to receive as a Class Member. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.14, 3.2.1.) This award is for initiating 7 the Action and providing services in support of the Action. (Id. at ¶ 1.14.) In the event the award finally 8 approved is less, the difference will revert to Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.1.)

9 15. Class Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments: The Settlement permits a fee application of not 10 more than 33 1/3% of the GSA (currently estimated to be $100,000.00), subject to the escalator clause, for 11 reasonable attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs not to exceed $25,000.00, payable 12 to Class Counsel from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.2.) In the event the amounts finally approved are less, the 13 difference will revert to Participating Class Members. (Id.) To date, my firm has incurred $20,653.91 in 14 actual litigation costs, and a true and correct copy of a report showing current costs is attached hereto as 15 Exhibit 4.

16 16. Administration Costs Payment: The Settlement provides an Administration Expenses Payment 17 to the Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount not to exceed $10,000.00, except for a showing 18 of good cause and as approved by the Court. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.3.) In the event the amount of actual administration 19 costs is less and/or the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be allocated
20 to the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) The Parties jointly selected Phoenix Class Action Administration 21 Solutions (“Phoenix”) as the neutral entity to administer this Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.1, 7.1.) A true and correct 22 copy of Phoenix’s bid of $8,500.00 is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

23 17. Aggrieved Employees; PAGA Period: Aggrieved Employees is defined as all individuals who 24 worked for Defendant in California as hourly, non-exempt employees at any time during the PAGA Period.
25 (Id. at ¶ 1.4.) For purposes of Settlement, the “PAGA Period” is October 12, 2023 to February 1, 2024.
26 (Settlement, ¶ 1.30.)
27
28

1 18. PAGA Penalties; Individual PAGA Payments: The Settlement allocates $25,000.00 from the 2 GSA for settlement of the Released PAGA Claims, which will be distributed 75% ($18,750.00) to the LWDA
3 and 25% ($6,250.00) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff’s claims.¹ (Id. at 4 ¶¶ 1.33, 3.2.5.) Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of the 25% share of the PAGA 5 Penalties directly proportional to their number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.5.1.) This results in an 6 average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $42.52 for each of the estimated 147 Aggrieved Employees
7 ($6,250.00 / 147), and a PAGA Pay Period value of roughly $0.83 for each of the 7,529 estimated Pay Periods 8 in the PAGA Period ($6,250.00 / 7,529).

9 19. Net Settlement Amount: After deducting the Class Representative Service Payment, the Class 10 Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments, the PAGA Penalties allocation, and the Administration Expenses 11 Payment from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts 12 requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to 13 Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be no less than 14 $132,500.00 for an estimated Class of 272 individuals.²

15 20. Class Members/Period: The Settlement Class is defined as all individuals who worked for 16 Defendant in California as hourly, non-exempt employees at any time during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 1.5.)
17 For purposes of Settlement, the “Class Period” is October 12, 2019, to February 1, 2024. (Settlement, ¶ 1.12.)

18 21. Individual Class Payments: Each Class Member who does not opt-out will be entitled to a pro 19 rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that is directly proportional to the number of Workweeks worked 20 during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.4.1.) The estimated $132,500.00 Net Settlement Amount results in an
22

23 ¹ On July 1, 2024, new legislation was enacted to amend PAGA in several respects, including as to 24 the recovery split for civil penalties. (Stats. 2024, ch. 44 (Assem. Bill No. 2288), § 1, eff. Jul. 1, 2024.)
25 As amended, PAGA now provides for a 65%-LWDA/35%-aggrieved employee split. (Lab. Code § 2699(m).) However, PAGA reform only applies to PAGA actions initiated on or after June 19, 2024. (Id. at § 2699(v)(1).)

26 ² The Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following from the $300,000.00 GSA:
27 $7,500.00 for the Class Representative Service Payment, up to $10,000.00 for the Administration Expenses 28 Payment, $25,000.00 for the PAGA Penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, $100,000.00 for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, and up to $25,000.00 for the Class Counsel Expenses Payment. (Settlement, ¶¶ 3.2–3.2.5.)

1 average Individual Class Payment of roughly $487.13,³ for each of the estimated 272 Class Members
2 ($132,500.00 / 272), and a Workweek value of roughly $5.30 for each of the 25,004 estimated Workweeks 3 in the Class Period ($132,500.00 / 25,004).

4 22. Tax Allocations: Individual Class Payments will be allocated as 15% as wages and 85% as 5 penalties and interest for tax purposes. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.4.1.)

6 23. Disbursement and Uncashed Funds: Within fourteen (14) calendar days after Defendant funds 7 the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual Class Payments, all 8 Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the Class
9 Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class Representative 10 Service Payment. (Id. at ¶ 4.2.) Class Members will not need to submit any claim form as a condition of 11 receiving individual settlement payments. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.) Any funds remaining uncashed after 180 days from 12 issuance will be transmitted to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of each 13 individual who failed to timely cash his or her check. (Id. at ¶¶ 4.2.1, 4.2.3.)

14 24. Released Class Claims by Participating Class Members: All Participating Class Members, on 15 behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, 16 administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from any and all class claims that were 17 asserted in First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint in the Action ("FAC") or that could 18 have arisen out of the allegations made in the FAC, for the duration of the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 5.2.)

19 25. Released PAGA Claims by PAGA Members and LWDA: All Aggrieved Employees and the 20 LWDA will release all claims for civil penalties under PAGA asserted in the FAC, or that could have arisen 21 out of the allegations made in the FAC, and the PAGA Notice or claims for civil penalties under PAGA that 22 arise based on the allegations in the FAC and the PAGA Notice, for the duration of the PAGA Period. (Id.
23 at ¶ 5.3.)

25
26 ³ At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees are unknown and will 27 be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class 28 Data. (Settlement, ¶ 6.1.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval.

1 26. Plaintiff's Release and Section 1542 Release: Plaintiff releases and discharges Released Parties 2 from all claims, transactions, or occurrences, known or unknown, including, but not limited to: (a) all claims 3 that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged, based on the facts contained, in the Operative Complaint 4 and (b) all PAGA claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged based on facts contained in 5 Plaintiff's PAGA Notice. ("Plaintiff's Release.") (Id. at ¶ 5.1.1.) Plaintiff's Release does not extend to any 6 claims or actions to enforce this Agreement, or to any claims for vested benefits, unemployment benefits, 7 disability benefits, social security benefits, workers' compensation benefits that arose at any time, or based 8 on occurrences outside the Class Period. (Id.) Plaintiff acknowledges that Plaintiff may discover facts or law 9 different from, or in addition to, the facts or law that Plaintiff now knows or believes to be true but agrees, 10 nonetheless, that Plaintiff's Release shall be and remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such 11 different or additional facts or Plaintiff's discovery of them. (Id.) Under the Settlement, Plaintiff has agreed 12 to a general release of any and all claims related to his employment, including all claims alleged in the Action, 13 and release of rights pursuant to California Civil Code section 1542. (Id. at ¶ 5.1.2.)

14 27. Effective date of claims releases: Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire 15 Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual 16 Class Payments, Plaintiff, Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties.
17 (Id. at ¶ 5.)

18 28. Released Parties: Defendant, and all related companies, subsidiaries, owners, shareholders, 19 board members, officers, members, agents, former and present representatives, attorneys, heirs, 20 administrators, former and present employees, predecessors, successors, and assigns. (Id. at ¶ 1.40.)

21 29. Class Notice; Disputes, Requests for Exclusion, Objections: The Class Notice will be mailed 22 via first-class U.S. mail in English and Spanish to the current address of each Class Member. (Id. at ¶ 7.5.)
23 The proposed Class Notice sets forth, in plain terms, a statement of case, the terms of the Settlement, the 24 approximate amounts of attorneys' fees, costs, PAGA Penalties, and service award being sought, an 25 explanation of how the individual payments are calculated, the Final Approval Hearing information, the 26 procedure for disputing the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to each Class Members, 27

and how Class Members may, should they choose, opt-out or otherwise object to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 7.5.3.-7.5.5., Ex. A.)

30. No Related Actions: To the best of my knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, nor has Defendant pointed to any.

THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

31. Plaintiff's Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. As previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arm's-length negotiations, private mediation, and the assistance of a statistics expert. Based on Defendant's informal class-wide discovery production, on Plaintiff's Counsel independent investigation and evaluation, and on their extensive experience in wage-and-hour litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial risk, appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA.

32. Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by Defendant, on Plaintiff's expert's analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted exposure that Defendant faced. Based on a review of Defendant's records, it is estimated that there are approximately 272 Class Members who collectively worked 25,004 Workweeks during the Class Period. (Settlement, ¶ 8.) There are also an estimated 147 Aggrieved Employees who collectively worked 7,529 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. Additionally, there are an estimated 132 former employees falling within the three-year statute of limitations ("SOL") period for waiting time penalties, that Class Members' average hourly rate was $16.94, and that the average regular hourly rate was $16.94.

Accordingly, we calculated Defendant's potential exposure as follows:

Claim	Relevant Time Period	Rate	Number of Violations	Realistic Recovery
Unpaid Wages (Rounding)	25,004 Workweeks	$16.94 average hourly rate	1,536 net unpaid hours	$13,009.92*

Unpaid Wages (Regular Rate)	25,004 Workweeks	$16.94 average regular rate	Based on Expert Analysis of Records	$175.80
Unpaid Wages (Off the Clock)	25,004 Workweeks	$16.94 average hourly rate	12,864 net unpaid hours (assuming 5 minutes per shift) (83.3% overtime)	$30,867.82
Meal Period Violations	25,004 Workweeks	$16.94 average hourly rate	78,520 unique meal break violations	$199,519.32
Rest Period Violations	25,004 Workweeks	$16.94 average hourly rate	96,597 unique rest break violations	$163,635.32
Unreimbursed Business Expenses Violations	25,004 Workweeks	$25.00 per month	Assumes $25.00 per month	$15,627.50
Labor Code § 203	Based on approx. 132 terminated employees within the 3-year SOL	$16.94 average hourly rate / 30-day max.	Assumes 8.1 hours / day	$27,281.30
Labor Code § 226	Based on approx. 147 employees within the 1-year SOL	$50 per initial pay period / $100 per subsequent pay periods / $4,000 employee max.	Based on 7,529 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$29,400.00
PAGA	Based on 7,529 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$100.00 per pay period	Based on 7,529 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$37,645.00

and on the merits.⁴

33. Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is due in part to allegations that Defendant implemented a rounding practice during the statutory period that resulted in employees being paid based on rounded time rather than actual time worked. Although Defendant had the ability to record and pay time to the minute, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant rounded employees' recorded time during part of the Class Period. Plaintiff's expert's analysis indicates that more than 36% of shifts reflected underpayment due to rounding, and that 54.2% of PCMs were negatively impacted by the practice. Based on this theory, Plaintiff estimates potential unpaid wages of approximately $38,289, exclusive of any derivative penalties. However, Defendant argues its rounding policy is in accordance with California law and neutral on its face as some employees were overpaid due to rounding. After accounting for any overpaid hours, Plaintiffs' expert calculated there were a net 1,536 unpaid hours, resulting in $26,019.84 unpaid wages. Although I believe there is merit to this claim, I acknowledge there is risk with certifying this claim and proof on the merits. Therefore, for purposes of settlement, I applied a 50% discount to the maximum exposure figure; accordingly, I arrived at a realistic damage estimate of $13,009.92 for the rounding claim.

34. Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is also based on allegations that Defendant failed to incorporate all remuneration, including bonus payments, into Class Members' regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating overtime and sick pay. Plaintiff contends that PCMs received additional non-discretionary compensation labeled as "BONUS," but that these payments were not consistently included in the regular rate calculation. Based on Plaintiff's analysis, the alleged underpayment consists of approximately $907.00 in overtime wages and $256.00 in sick pay, with nearly 7% of pay periods reflecting bonus payments issued in the same period in which overtime was worked. Defendant's maximum exposure is estimated to be $1,172.00. However, Defendant argues bonuses were discretionary, and therefore Defendant was not required to incorporate those payments into the regular rate. Additionally, Defendant argues that to the extent it failed to incorporate any of the additional payments into the regular rate of pay, this results in nominal

⁴ It is reasonable to apply discounts to account for risks at certification and trial, in part, because the Judicial Council of California found that only 21.4% of all class actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as part of a contested certification motion. (See Findings of the Study of California Class Action Litigation, 2000-2006, available at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf>.) Further, the likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its overall exposure.

1 exposure. Due to the lack of written policies regarding criteria for bonus payments and Defendant's de
2 minimis exposure, I acknowledge the foregoing presents significant risk with certifying this claim and proof
3 on the merits. Therefore, I applied an 85% discount to the maximum exposure figure; accordingly, I arrived 4 at a realistic damage estimate of $175.80 for the regular rate claim.

5 35. Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is based on allegations that Defendant failed to pay all minimum 6 and overtime wages due to off-the-clock work associated with time spent waiting to clock in and out. Plaintiff 7 alleges that, during the Class Period, PCMs were required to record their time using fingerprint scanners, but 8 Defendant maintained only two timekeeping stations for employees to use at the start and end of shifts and 9 for meal and rest breaks. Plaintiff contends that the limited number and location of these stations created 10 delays, causing employees to wait several minutes, and sometimes five minutes or more, before recording 11 their time. Therefore, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated Class Members spent an average 5 minutes off the 12 clock per shift. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel and the data expert estimated Defendant failed to pay 13 Class Members for approximately 12,864 hours, 83.3% of which should have been paid at the overtime 14 rate. From this, and in light of the average rates of the Class Members, Defendant's estimated maximum 15 potential liability is $308,678.24 Defendant contends that all time worked was compensated, that the time
16 spent waiting to clock in and out of work was de minimis, that Class Members were not permitted to work 17 off-the-clock, and that this claim is highly individualized and not susceptible to class-wide treatment. I 18 acknowledge that "off-the-clock" claims are difficult to be tried on a class wide basis because there is no 19 apparatus that can be used to prove this claim—there are no records to be used as evidence. In light of these 20 defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted the maximum potential liability by 90%. Plaintiff's 21 realistic recovery estimate for the unpaid wages claim due to off-the-clock work is therefore 22 $30,867.82.

23 36. Plaintiff's meal period claim is based on allegations that Defendant did not provide or maintain 24 sufficient meal period practices, such that Class Members were not always permitted or able to take meal 25 periods and/or were sometimes subjected to late, short and/or interrupted meal periods without compensation 26 in lieu thereof. The sample of time and corresponding payroll records for the putative Class indicated that 27 Defendant either failed to provide a meal period or provided a short and/or untimely meal period 78,520 28

1 times throughout the Class Period, for a 52% violation rate. Plaintiff's Counsel and the data expert then 2 calculated that, in light of these violations and the average hourly rate of the putative Class, that Defendant 3 had a potential liability of $1,330,128.80 (78,520 unique violations x $16.94 avg. hourly rate). Defendant 4 nonetheless contends that many meal breaks were taken and, where a violation appears, it was a result of 5 the Class Member voluntarily choosing to forego a meal period, to take it after the end of the fifth hour, or 6 to stop his or her break early to return to work. Moreover, certification and proof of this claim would require 7 declarations from Class Members and obtaining such declarations potentially would reveal that each Class 8 Member had a different experience with respect to meal periods. In light of these defenses, and for purposes 9 of settlement, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it reasonable to apply an 85% discount to the potential liability.
10 Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the meal period claim is therefore $199,519.32.

11 37. The rest break claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not provide or maintain 12 sufficient rest break practices, such that Class Members were regularly required to work in excess of four 13 consecutive hours a day, or a major fraction thereof, without authorization or permission to take a ten-minute, 14 continuous and uninterrupted rest period or without compensation in lieu thereof. The sample of time and 15 corresponding payroll records for the putative Class indicated that Defendant either failed to provide a rest 16 break approximately 96,597 times throughout the Class Period, affecting 38.8% of pay periods. As a result, 17 Defendant's potential liability is approximately $1,636,353.18 (96,597 unique rest break violations x $16.94 18 per hour). Defendant nonetheless contends rest periods do not have to be recorded, that Class Members 19 voluntarily chose to forego some rest breaks and, significant for purposes of class certification, that this claim 20 is individualized in nature and therefore would require declarations indicating the majority of Class Members 21 experienced issues as to rest breaks. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted 22 Defendant's potential liability by 90%. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the rest break claim is 23 therefore $163,635.32.

24 38. The unreimbursed business expenses claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not 25 reimburse Class Members for all expenses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of duties, 26 including the purchase of safety gear and tools, including face masks and gloves, and use of their personal 27 cellphone for work purposes. The precise value of all necessary business expenses Class Members incurred 28

1 could not be calculated. Therefore, in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated Defendant
2 owed approximately $25.00 a month to each Class Member in the statutory period and that Defendant's 3 potential liability is $156,275.00. Defendant contends it complied with all its reimbursement obligations, 4 that it provided Class Members with necessary tools, that cellphone use was not required for work, and 5 further, that the reimbursement claim would be difficult to certify, given the individualistic nature of this 6 claim. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential liability 7 by 90%. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the unreimbursed expenses claim is therefore 8 $7,813.75.

9 39. With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory and civil penalties, Plaintiff estimates 10 Defendant's maximum potential recovery, prior to risk-adjustment, is $1,886,526.00, which breaks down as 11 follows: $545,626.00 for waiting time penalties for approximately 132 terminated Class Members in the 3-12 year SOL; a $588,000.00 penalty for inaccurate wage statements based on approximately 147 Class Members 13 in the 1-year SOL; and $752,900.00 for PAGA penalties based on 7,529 Pay Periods and the Court assessing 14 a $100.00 penalty for each pay period containing a violation. However, I believe it would be unrealistic to 15 expect the Court to award the full exposure amount given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties and 16 given Defendant's defenses, including without limitation, that any failure to pay all final wages at the time 17 of separation was not willful or intentional and that to the extent Plaintiff received wage statements that were 18 allegedly inaccurate, Plaintiff suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. Moreover, I understand the 19 individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims could bar class certification or otherwise 20 significantly reduce Defendant's overall liability for statutory and civil penalties. Furthermore, considering 21 the underlying wage claims are realistically estimated to be $422,835.68, awarding such a disproportional
22 amount in penalties would also raise Due Process concerns. Weighing these factors, I applied a 95% discount 23 to each penalty (resulting in $27,281.30 for waiting time penalties, $29,400.00 for inaccurate wage statement 24 penalties, and $37,645.00 for PAGA penalties) and accordingly arrived at a realistic recovery estimate of 25 $94,326.30 for statutory and civil penalties.

26 40. Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff predicted the realistic (risk-adjusted) recovery for all 27 claims, including penalties, is $517,161.98. This means the $300,000.00 gross settlement figure 28

1 represents roughly 58% of the total realistic recovery. This is an excellent result for the Class, particularly 2 because, under the Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, avoiding the risk of 3 not being able to recover anything.

4 41. With regards to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies 5 PAGA's dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved 6 Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. As a result of this litigation, Defendant has 7 had to hire legal counsel, engage in informal class-wide discovery, and participate in mediation.
8 Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties to the LWDA under the Settlement, assuming final 9 settlement approval is granted. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.5.) Not including its own attorneys' fees and costs as 10 well as the employer's share of payroll taxes, Defendant will pay no less than $300,000.00 to resolve 11 this matter—of which $25,000.00 is allocated toward the PAGA claims and will be distributed, in 12 compliance with Labor Code section 2699 as 75% ($18,750.00) to the LWDA and 25% ($6,250.00) to 13 Aggrieved Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved 14 Employees from pursuing any individual claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released 15 Parties. Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, 16 there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits 17 due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. In other words, were this matter to go 18 to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction.

19 42. Further, Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a 20 representative basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, 21 penalties would likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and 22 in light of other defenses available to Defendant. Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would 23 be successful at trial, assuming he is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues 24 presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the 25 Settlement. In sum, the $25,000.00 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes genuine and 26 meaningful relief.

1 43. Here, the Settlement represents a substantial recovery when considered against the risk and 2 uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to certify the claims and 3 establish liability, and the probability of appeal. While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a 4 legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount 5 owed to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition.

6 44. The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or some 7 of Plaintiff's claims. Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing at trial due to low or 8 no participation by Class Members. Indeed, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the claims 9 could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise significantly reduce any recovery 10 whatsoever. For example, the unreimbursed expense claims is a testimony-driven claim and assumes a 100% 11 violation rate, which would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as it assumes either the participation of a 12 majority or all employees (which would be difficult given the reality that many, if not all, employees would 13 be unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation), or alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical data as 14 a surrogate (which would still require the participation of a majority of employees to establish a sound 15 representation of all non-exempts). Even assuming employees would be willing to participate, obtaining 16 declarations would potentially reveal that each individual employee had a different experience.

17 45. Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue his claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 18 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and 19 possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. Although the Parties 20 have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, and class-wide data analysis, they 21 have not conducted extensive formal discovery. Moreover, preparation for class certification and a trial 22 would remain for the Parties as well as the prospect of appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification 23 ruling for Plaintiff and/or any summary judgment ruling. As a result, the Parties would incur considerably 24 more attorneys' fees and costs through trial. In sum, this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the 25 accompanying expense of further litigation.

26 46. The proposed $300,000.00 Settlement represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 27 reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability of appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and that preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133; see Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)
28

THE REPRESENTATIVE PAYMENT TO PLAINTIFF IS REASONABLE

47. Throughout this litigation, Plaintiff, who was a former employee of Defendant, has cooperated immensely with my office and has taken many actions to protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff provided valuable information regarding his hours worked, and what duties were performed during those hours. Plaintiff also provided information regarding meal periods taken and missed by Plaintiff and other Class Members. Plaintiff participated in decisions concerning this action, assisted in preparation for the mediation, and provided my office with the names and contact information of potential witnesses in this action. Before we filed this case, Plaintiff worked with my office to determine the viability of his claims. Plaintiff also provided information and documents relating to his employment by Defendant. The information and documentation provided by Plaintiff was instrumental in establishing the wage-and-hour violations alleged in this action, and the recovery provided for in the Settlement would have been impossible to obtain without his participation.

48. At the same time, Plaintiff faced many risks in adding himself as the named Plaintiff in this matter. Plaintiff faced actual risks with his future employment, as putting himself on public record in an employment lawsuit could also very well affect his likelihood for future employment. For example, a search of Plaintiff’s name will reveal this action, and as a result, many employers may likely forego hiring Plaintiff in learning he sued a former employer.

49. In turn, Class Members can now participate in a settlement, reimbursing them for wage violations they may have never known about or been willing to pursue on their own. If each Class Member would have tried to pursue legal remedies on their own, that would have resulted in each having to expend a

1 significant amount of their own monetary resources and time, not to mention limited judicial resources, which 2 were obviated by Plaintiff putting himself on the line on behalf of the Class.

3 50. This class action would not have been possible without the aid of Plaintiff, who put his own 4 time and effort into this litigation and placed himself at risk for the sake of the Class. The requested 5 enhancement award to Plaintiff for his service as the Class Representative is a relatively small amount of 6 money considering the time and effort put into the litigation and compared to enhancements granted in other 7 class actions. The requested enhancement award is therefore reasonable to compensate Plaintiff for his active 8 participation in this lawsuit, in addition to his general release of claims, both known and unknown, and waiver 9 of section 1542 rights.

10 MY EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

11 51. I received a B.A. in History in 1998 from UCLA, and my J.D. from Loyola Marymount Law 12 School in 2006. I became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in June 2007 and have been an 13 Active Member in good standing continuously since then. I have been selected to Super Lawyers each year 14 from 2019 to 2025.

15 52. I co-founded Moon & Yang, APC—now Moon Law Group, PC—in March 2010. My practice 16 is focused exclusively on advocating for the rights of employees in wage-and-hour litigation, almost entirely 17 in class and/or representative actions.

18 53. For the past decade, I have built my practice to have an emphasis on employment and related 19 civil litigation cases and have both prosecuted and defended employment-related litigation cases. I have been 20 heavily, successfully, and continuously involved in active litigation and trial work, and have conducted bench 21 and jury trials on behalf of both employees and employers in wage-and-hour cases.

22 54. My current billing rate is $950.00 per hour, which is my usual hourly rate in wage-and-hour 23 litigations. A $950.00 per hour rate is reasonable considering my years of experience practicing in the 24 highly specialized area of employment and labor law and my Laffey Matrix rate (The Laffey Matrix, 25 <http://www.laffeymatrix.com/see.html> [last visited May 28, 2026].) The Laffey Matrix is a “well-26 established objective source for rates that vary by experience” used by the District of Columbia. (In re 27 HPL Tech., Inc. Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 2005) 366 F. Supp 2d 912, 921.) A true and correct copy of the 28

1 Laffey Matrix is attached hereto as Exhibit 6. California Courts have adjusted the Laffey Matrix rate 2 upwards based on “locality pay differentials” and the location of counsel’s office in California to determine
3 whether counsel’s rates are reasonable. (See, e.g., id. [applying a 9% upward adjustment to the Laffey 4 Matrix rate based on an approximate difference of 9% between the locality pay differential of the District
5 of Columbia and San Francisco, California, where counsel’s office was located].) To determine the locality 6 pay differential, the Court in In re HPL Technologies, Inc. utilized the locality pay differentials within the 7 federal courts. (Id. at pp. 921–22.) Using the same method here and based on my firm’s location in Los 8 Angeles, California, the locality pay differential of the Los Angeles-Long Beach area is 36.47% and the 9 locality pay differential of the Washington-Baltimore-Arlington area is 33.94%, which results in a 10 difference of approximately 2.53%. (Compare Judiciary Salary Plan of Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA, 11 Effective January 12, 2026, with Judiciary Salary Plan of Washington-Baltimore-Arlington, Effective 12 January 12, 2026.) True and correct copies of the Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA and Washington-13 Baltimore-Arlington salary plans are attached hereto as Exhibit 7 and Exhibit 8, respectively. Based on 14 my 19+ years of experience out of law school, my Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78
15 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). Accordingly, my current billing rate of $950.00 16 per hour is reasonable.

17 55. I am experienced in prosecuting and defending employment matters, particularly class actions 18 and PAGA representative actions. My firm has focused a substantial percentage of its practice on wage, hour, 19 and working conditions violations. In addition to the present case, I am also class counsel for other wage-20 and-hour class action lawsuits pending in various California counties, including in state and federal courts.
21 The following is a list of some of our recent class action settlements that have received preliminary and final 22 approval: Aparicio v. Lineage Logistics, LLC (LASC No. BC722764) (class size approx. 155; lead counsel);

4 lead counsel) (in approving my hourly rate in that case, the Court found: “Class Counsel’s declarations show 5 that the attorneys are experienced and successful litigators. Other courts have approved the attorneys’ current 6 rates for the Moon & Yang, APC attorneys”); Martinez v. Bail Hotline Bail Bonds, Inc. (LASC No.

14 lead counsel); Vertti v. Bagcraft Papercon III, LLC (LASC No. 19STCV12729) (class size approx. 260; lead 15 counsel); and Wallick v. Campbell Soup Supply Co., LLC (San Joaquin No. STK-CV-UOE-2021-0000865) 16 (class size 435; lead counsel).

17 ENZO NABIEV’S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

18 56. Enzo Nabiev is an associate attorney at Moon Law Group, PC. Mr. Nabiev represents 19 employees in all aspects of employment litigation, including wage and hour class action and representative 20 actions involving claims related to overtime and minimum wages, meal and rest break violations, improper 21 wage statements, the California Private Attorneys General Act and unfair business practices.

22 57. Mr. Nabiev received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of California, 23 Berkeley and his Juris Doctorate from The George Washington University Law School, where he served as 24 a member of the Federal Circuit Bar Journal. He also served as a Judicial Extern for the Honorable William 25 Nooter of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia.

26 58. Mr. Nabiev is a member in good standing with the California State Bar and in the United States 27 District Court for the Central and Northern Districts. Mr. Nabiev’s billing rate is $850 per hour. Based on 28

1 his 6 years of experience out of law school, his Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $640.81 per 2 hour ($625 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $625)). Based on his Laffey Matrix rate and considering his 3 experience, Mr. Nabiev's current billing rate of $850.00 per hour is reasonable

4 59. During his employment with Moon Law Group, PC, he has played a critical role in obtaining 5 outstanding results for employees who have been wronged by their employers. His litigation experience 6 includes, but is not limited to:

- 7 (a) In August 2025, he fully briefed a motion for class certification in Slaughter v. Finelite, 8 Inc. (Case No. 22CV018565), where class certification was granted in part.
- 9 (b) In March 2023, he prepared the briefing in AGUIRRE, JR., v. BW PACKAGING 10 SYSTEMS, INC. et al., No. 222CV04980ODWGJSX, 2023 WL 2605016 (C.D. Cal.
11 Mar. 22, 2023), which resulted in a remand order where defendant's removal was based 12 on CAFA jurisdiction.
- 13 (c) In April 2022, he fully briefed, argued, and won in the Court of Appeal in the Fourth 14 Appellate District, regarding the issue of whether a pre-dispute arbitration agreement is 15 enforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act when it includes a contractual waiver of 16 representative claims under PAGA.
- 17 (d) In March 2022, as the lead attorney, he successfully resolved an individual wage & hour 18 case resulting in a settlement of over $56,000 for his client who was earning minimum 19 wage per hour.
- 20 (e) In February 2022, he fully briefed a motion for class certification in Brown v. NTI-CA, 21 Inc. (LASC No. 21STCV04397) where Defendant elected to file bankruptcy.
- 22 (f) In September 2021, he fully briefed, argued, and won an Opposition to a Motion for 23 Summary Adjudication in the matter of Dorsey v. Circa Tile & Stone, Inc. (LASC Case 24 No: 19STCV08365) where Defendant attempted to release individual claims under 25 PAGA on behalf of each employee who executed a release agreement.
- 26 (g) In May 2021, he fully briefed and won an Opposition to a Motion to Compel Arbitration 27 in the matter of Morales v. Precision Aerospace Corp. (Case No: CIV-DS2006541) 28

1 where Defendant attempted to compel individual arbitration and dismiss class action 2 claims based on Plaintiff's signed arbitration agreement within an employee handbook.
3 There, the matter was settled on a class-wide basis for $900,000.00.

4 (h) In December 2020, he fully briefed, argued, and won an Opposition to a Motion for 5 Summary Judgment in the matter of Gonzalez v. Lipscomb (LASC Case No: 6 19STCV10352) where he successfully established triable issues of material facts of 7 whether a general manager of a hotel is considered a joint employer for purposes of 8 liability for wage & hour violations

9 60. He has participated in the litigation and resolution of approximately 50 wage and hour class 10 actions, including obtaining preliminary and final approval of settlements on the first attempt.

11 CLASS COUNSEL'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

12 61. As demonstrated by the foregoing, my office is qualified to handle this litigation because we 13 are experienced in litigating Labor Code and Wage Order violations in individual, class, and representative 14 actions. The attorneys at my office have been appointed as lead or co-lead counsel in numerous wage-and-15 hour class and/or PAGA actions in state and federal courts by way of motion for settlement approval.
16 Including myself, Moon Law Group, PC is comprised of approximately 35 attorneys, all of whom are 17 actively and continuously practicing employment litigation, representing almost entirely employee-18 plaintiffs, in both individual and class and/or PAGA actions, in this Superior Court and other Superior Courts 19 throughout the State, in the Courts of Appeal, and in various federal courts. The attorneys at my firm have a 20 high level of skill and knowledge in wage-and-hour class actions, PAGA representative actions, and labor 21 and employment law generally, the substantive (state and federal) and procedural law of which is 22 frequently evolving.

23 62. Moon Law Group, PC has been engaged in the practice of employment and labor law for over 24 a decade, and presently focuses exclusively on plaintiffs' employment law. The firm and its lawyers have 25 tried both bench and jury trials (representing both plaintiffs and defendants) relating to employment matters.
26 As noted above, Moon Law Group, PC has been appointed lead or co-lead class counsel in federal and state 27
28

1 courts in California. Also, the firm and its lawyers have successfully settled hundreds of cases during that 2 time, including wage-and-hour class and/or PAGA actions.

3 63. The foregoing experience of myself and other attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC is helpful in 4 assessing the reasonableness of settlements, such as the one at issue here, and from this experience we 5 concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than provided under the Settlement.

6 64. I respectfully submit that the attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC, myself included, are well 7 suited to act as Class Counsel in this action, and we have, and will continue to, vigorously represent the 8 interests of the Class. To my knowledge, we do not have any conflicts of interest with Plaintiff, other Class 9 Members, or the proposed Administrator, and we are not related to Plaintiff. We respectfully request to be 10 appointed as Class Counsel, for settlement purposes.

11 THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS IS REASONABLE

12 65. The Settlement provides for attorneys' fees payable to Class Counsel in an amount up to 33
13 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount or $100,00.00, subject to the escalator clause, and litigation costs up 14 to $25,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2.) The proposed award of attorneys' fees can be justified under either the 15 lodestar method or the percentage/common-fund recovery method. however, we base the proposed fees 16 award on the percentage method, as many of the entries in the time records will have to be redacted to 17 preserve attorney-client and attorney work product privileges.

18 66. I am informed and believe that the fees and costs provision in the Settlement is reasonable. The 19 fee percentage requested is less than that charged by my office for most employment cases. Moreover, my 20 office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the end of the case, and 21 then, of course, contingent on the outcome.

22 67. It is further estimated that my office will need to expend at least another 50 to 100 hours to 23 monitor the administration process leading up to the final approval, prepare for final approval, and oversee 24 distribution to the Class following final approval. My office also bears the risk of taking whatever actions 25 are necessary should Defendant fail to pay.

26 68. The risk to my office has been very significant, particularly if we would not be successful in 27 pursuing this class action. In such instance, we would have been left with no compensation for all the time 28

1 taken in litigating this case due to the contingency fee arrangement. Indeed, I have taken on a number of class 2 action cases that have resulted in thousands of attorney hours being expended and ultimately having the 3 defendant company going bankrupt during litigation. The contingent risk in these types of cases is very real 4 and occurs regularly. Furthermore, we were precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which 5 could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain.

6 69. Because most individuals cannot afford to pay for representation in litigation on an hourly basis, 7 Moon Law Group, PC represents virtually all its employment law clients on a contingency fee basis, 8 including Plaintiff in this matter. Pursuant to this arrangement, we are not compensated for our time unless 9 we prevail at trial or successfully settle our clients' cases. Because Moon Law Group, PC is taking the risk 10 that we will not be reimbursed for our time unless our client settles or wins his or her case, we cannot afford 11 to represent an individual employee on a contingency basis if, at the end of our representation, all we are to 12 receive is our regular hourly rate for services. It is essential that we recover more than our regular hourly rate 13 when we win if we are to remain in practice so as to be able to continue representing other individuals in 14 civil rights employment disputes.

15 70. As of the drafting of this motion, my office has incurred $20,653.91 in expenses litigating this 16 action, and we anticipate accruing additional costs up to final approval. These expenses were reasonably 17 necessary to the litigation and were actually incurred by my office. Moreover, because total litigation costs 18 are below the maximum amount allowed under the Settlement, the difference will revert to Participating 19 Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.2.) Therefore, our costs should be reimbursed in full.

20 71. My office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the 21 end of the case, and then, of course, contingent on the outcome. My office's efforts have included, and will 22 include following preliminary and final approval, without limitation, the following:

- 23 (a) Numerous interviews with Plaintiff and review of documents provided by him;
- 24 (b) Legal research and investigation regarding Defendant's business and employment practices 25 at numerous points in the litigation;
- 26 (c) Preparation and submission of Plaintiff's PAGA notice;

- (d) Preparation, finalization, and filing of multiple drafts of the original class action complaint and subsequent first amended complaint;
- (e) Extensive “meet and confer” correspondence and discussions with Defense Counsel regarding mediation and to obtain relevant documents and information through informal discovery;
- (f) Research and preparation of Plaintiff’s mediation brief;
- (g) Analysis of the discovery production and preparation of a damages model with the aid of a statistics expert;
- (h) Attendance and active participation at a full day of mediation;
- (i) Drafting, negotiating, and reviewing multiple drafts of the Settlement and Class Notice;
- (j) Preparation of the motion for preliminary approval and the accompanying filings;
- (k) Anticipated preparation for and attendance at the preliminary approval hearing;
- (l) Anticipated conferring with Defense Counsel and the Administrator regarding the Class Notice mailing, Class responses, and preliminary and final calculations;
- (m) Anticipated preparation, finalization, filing, and service of a motion for final approval and accompanying filings;
- (n) Anticipated preparation for and anticipated attendance at the final approval hearing, and then monitoring of the distribution of funds following final approval; and
- (o) Anticipated responding to Class Member inquiries and communicating with Plaintiff regarding the case.

72. Through the efforts of my office and Plaintiff in this case, a fair and reasonable joint resolution has been reached that includes a gross, non-reversionary payment by Defendant of no less than $300,000.00 to compensate Class Members for the alleged unlawful wage-and-hour practices. I am informed and believe that, without the efforts of my office or Plaintiff, the Labor Code and Wage Order violations alleged in the Operative Complaint would have gone completely unremedied.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California and the United States that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on May 28, 2026, at Los Angeles, California.
