the Declaration of Plaintiff, and [Proposed]
Preliminary Approval Order]*

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL HEARING:

Date: December 17, 2026

Time: 1:30 p.m.

Dept.: 22

Judge: Hon. Beth McGowen

Action Filed: October 12, 2023

Trial Date: Not set

1 TO THE COURT, AND TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on December 17, 2026 at 1:30 p.m. in Department 22 of this 3 Court located at 191 North First Street, San Jose, California 95113 pursuant to Code of Civil 4 Procedure section 382 and California Rules of Court, rule 3.769 et seq., Plaintiff Daniel Dauzon 5 (“Plaintiff”) will, and hereby does, move the Court for an order granting preliminary approval of the 6 proposed class action settlement between Plaintiff and Defendant Clarmil Manufacturing 7 Corporation. Specifically, Plaintiff moves the Court for an order:

- 8 1. Granting preliminary approval of the Class and Representative Action Settlement 9 Agreement;
- 10 2. Certifying a Class, for settlement purposes only;
- 11 3. Approving the Class Notice and plan for its distribution;
- 12 4. Appointing Plaintiff as the Class Representative, for settlement purposes only;
- 13 5. Appointing Moon Law Group, PC as Class Counsel, for settlement purposes only;
- 14 6. Appointing Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions as the Administrator; and
- 15 7. Scheduling a Final Approval Hearing no earlier than 120 days from the date of 16 preliminary approval.

17 The motion will be based upon this notice, the attached memorandum of points and 18 authorities, the supporting declarations and attachments thereto, the record and files in this action, 19 and any other further evidence or argument that the Court may properly receive at or before the 20 hearing.

21 As this Motion is unopposed, the Parties respectfully request relief from the page limit 22 requirement set by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1113(d).

23 Respectfully submitted,

24 Dated: May 28, 2026

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Daniel Dauzon (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $300,000.00
4 non-reversionary, wage-and-hour class action settlement (the “Settlement”) with Clarmil
5 Manufacturing Corporation (“Defendant”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). The Settlement 6 will provide substantial monetary payments to an estimated 272 Class Members who worked an 7 estimated aggregate of 25,004 Workweeks, of which roughly 147 are Aggrieved Employees who 8 worked an estimated aggregate of 7,529 PAGA Pay Periods. As set forth more fully below, the 9 proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The 10 Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, informal discovery, and negotiations 11 between the Parties. The negotiations were at arm’s-length and were facilitated through private 12 mediation by an experienced and neutral class action mediator, Marc Feder, Esq. Accordingly, 13 Plaintiff requests the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement, certify the proposed Class, 14 approve the proposed Class Notice to Class Members, and set a final approval hearing no earlier 15 than 120 days from the date of preliminary approval.

16 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

17 A. Plaintiff’s Claims and Procedural History

18 This is a wage-and-hour class action and representative action for alleged Labor Code 19 violations and claims for civil penalties pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, 20 Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). (Declaration of Kane Moon in Support of Plaintiff’s 21 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Representative Action Settlement 22 [“Moon Decl.”], ¶ 2.) Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all individuals who worked for 23 Defendant in California as hourly, non-exempt employees at any time during the Class Period, as 24 set forth in the Class and Representative Action Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement”). (Id.)

25 Defendant is a commissioned licensed manufacturer of Goldilocks products operating a 26 commissary in Hayward, California. (Id. at ¶ 3.) Defendant employed Plaintiff and other non-27 exempt, hourly-paid employees during the Class Period. (Id.) Plaintiff worked for Defendant from 28 approximately November 2017 to February 2023 as a janitor, in a non-exempt, hourly-paid

1 position. (Declaration of Plaintiff Daniel Dauzon in Support of Class Action and PAGA
2 Representative Action Settlement [“Plaintiff Decl.”], ¶ 2.) Plaintiff contends he and his coworkers 3 were subjected to the same unlawful labor practices, including failure to pay wages for all hours
4 worked. (Id. at ¶ 5; Moon Decl., ¶ 3.)

5 Plaintiff’s claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages stem from allegations that 6 Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and others for off-the-clock work and failed to incorporate all 7 remuneration into employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime, meal premium, and 8 sick pay. (Moon Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff’s meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that 9 due to the nature of their work, Class Members’ breaks were often short, late, interrupted, and 10 sometimes missed altogether, and that Defendant did not pay all premium wages for non-11 compliant breaks. (Id.) Plaintiff further brings a claim for unreimbursed necessary business 12 expenses based on allegations that Class Members were required to purchase safety gear and tools, 13 face masks, and gloves, and use their personal cellphone for work purposes without reimbursement 14 from Defendant. (Id.) Finally, Plaintiff also brings derivative claims for waiting time penalties, 15 wage statement violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

16 Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, 17 Plaintiff filed a class action on October 12, 2023, which alleges Defendant systematically: (1) 18 failed to pay minimum wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal 19 periods, (4) failed to authorize and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business 20 expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate 21 itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair business practices. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

22 Pursuant to PAGA, on October 8, 2023, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California Labor 23 and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, with 24 certified mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. (Id. at ¶ 6, Ex. 2.) On 25 December 26, 2023, Plaintiff timely filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action 26 Complaint to add a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA (the “Operative 27 Complaint”). (Id. at ¶ 6.) Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently 28 submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned

1 case number. (Id.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated its intent to investigate the alleged 2 violations or intervene in this Action. (Id.)

3 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
4 (Id. at ¶ 7.) Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including 5 compensating Class Members for any and all off-the-clock work and overtime work, and therefore, 6 Plaintiff and other Class Members were paid all wages owed. (Id.) Defendant argues it did not fail 7 to incorporate any non-discretionary bonuses into the regular rate of pay for purposes of paying 8 overtime, meal premium, or sick pay, and that all bonuses were discretionary. (Id.) Defendant
9 maintains compliance with all its meal and rest period obligations. (Id.) Defendant asserts it 10 complied with all its reimbursement obligations, and that Plaintiff and other employees were 11 compensated for any and all business expenses necessarily incurred. (Id.) To the extent employees
12 received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered no 13 actual damage or harm as a result. (Id.; see, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 14 2013, No. C 12–05860 CRB) 2013 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an 15 injury arising from an employer’s failure to provide full and accurate wage statements, and the 16 omission of the required information alone is not sufficient.”].) With respect to Plaintiff’s claim 17 for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes
18 the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff cannot prove Defendant’s alleged failure 19 to pay all final wages at the time of separation was “willful.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 7; see, e.g., Pedroza 20 v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL 9506073, 21 *5.) For these reasons, among others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, 22 and further claims it did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under 23 PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7.) Defendant also maintains the claims are improper for class treatment, 24 in part, due to the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims that could bar
25 class certification or significantly reduce Defendant’s overall liability. (Id.)

26 B. Discovery and Investigation

27 The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Marc Feder, Esq., an experienced class and 28 PAGA action mediator. (Id. at ¶ 8.) In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol for

1 an informal production of documents and information before mediation. (Id.) Prior to mediation, 2 Plaintiff obtained from Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were 3 necessary and helpful to evaluate the claims asserted in this action. (Id.) Defendant produced a 4 statistically sound sample of time and pay records for the putative Class, Plaintiff's personnel file
5 and time and pay records, and Defendant's written employment policies in effect during the Class 6 Period. (Id.) Defendant also provided information regarding the estimated number of current and 7 formerly employed Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and PAGA Pay Periods. (Id.)

8 In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information 9 Defendant provided, including the sample records and documents regarding Defendant's wage-and-10 hour policies. (Id. at ¶ 9.) Plaintiff's Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the sample records 11 and prepare a damage analysis prior to the mediation. (Id.) The sample time and pay records analyzed 12 contained 28,037 actual shifts worked (representing roughly 18% of total shifts worked in the Class 13 Period), which allowed Plaintiff's expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty.
14 (Id.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Plaintiff's Counsel also investigated 15 the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Accordingly, 16 Plaintiff's Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, 17 and Defendant's maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff's and 18 his Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the pleadings allowed 19 them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

20 C. Settlement Negotiations and Notice of Settlement to the LWDA

21 On October 23, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with Marc 22 Feder, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 10.) The negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a 23 professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore 24 the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their 25 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After a full discussion 26 regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses and with 27 the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached a resolution, the material terms of which are set 28 out in the Settlement. (Id., Ex. 1.)

1 In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 2 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff’s preliminary 3 approval motion and the hearing date. (Id. at ¶ 11, Ex. 3.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated
4 any objection to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 11.)

5 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

6 Under the Settlement, Defendant will pay a non-reversionary amount of no less than 7 $300,000.00 (“GSA”), subject to potential increase under an Escalator Clause, to resolve this 8 action. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.) Defendant will separately pay its employer-side payroll taxes owed on 9 the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments. (Id.) Other key terms of the Settlement are 10 outlined in the counsel declaration submitted concurrently herewith. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 12–30.) The 11 proposed Settlement Administrator— Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions —was 12 jointly selected by the Parties based on its bid of $8,500.00. (Id. at ¶ 16, Ex. 5; Settlement, ¶¶ 1.2, 13 7.1.)

14 The Class is defined as all individuals who worked for Defendant in California as hourly, 15 non-exempt employees at any time from October 12, 2019, to February 1, 2024. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.5, 16 1.12.) “Aggrieved Employees” is defined as all individuals who worked for Defendant in 17 California as hourly, non-exempt employees at any time from October 12, 2023 to February 1, 18 2024. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.4, 1.30.) The Settlement allocates $25,000.00 from the GSA for settlement of 19 the Released PAGA Claims, which will be distributed 75% ($18,750.00) to the LWDA and 25%
20 ($6,250.00) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff’s claims.<sup>1</sup> 21 (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.33, 3.2.5.) Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of the 22 25% share of the PAGA Penalties directly proportional to their number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id.
23 at ¶ 3.2.5.1.) This results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $42.52 for each of

25
26 <sup>1</sup> On July 1, 2024, new legislation was enacted to amend PAGA in several respects, including as to 27 the recovery split for civil penalties. (Stats. 2024, ch. 44 (Assem. Bill No. 2288), § 1, eff. Jul. 1, 2024.)
28 As amended, PAGA now provides for a 65%-LWDA/35%-aggrieved employee split. (Lab. Code § 2699(m).) However, PAGA reform only applies to PAGA actions initiated on or after June 19, 2024.
(Id. at § 2699(v)(1).)

1 the estimated 147 Aggrieved Employees ($6,250.00 / 147), and a PAGA Pay Period value of 2 roughly $0.83 for each of the 7,529 estimated Pay Periods in the PAGA Period ($6,250.00 / 7,529).
3 (Moon Decl., ¶ 18.)

4 After deducting the Class Representative Service Payment, the Class Counsel Fees and 5 Expenses Payments, the PAGA Penalties allocation, and the Administration Expenses Payment 6 from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts 7 requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution 8 to Participating Class Members. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will 9 be no less than $132,500.00 for an estimated Class of 272 individuals.<sup>2</sup> (Moon Decl., ¶ 19.) Each 10 Class Member who does not opt-out will be entitled to a pro rata share of the Net Settlement 11 Amount that is directly proportional to the number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period.
12 (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.1.) The estimated $132,500.00 Net Settlement Amount results in an average 13 Individual Class Payment of roughly $487.13 for each of the estimated 272 Class Members ($132,500.00 14 / 272),<sup>3</sup> and a Class Workweek value of roughly $5.30 for each of the 25,004 estimated Workweeks in 15 the Class Period ($132,500.00 / 25,004). (Moon Decl., ¶ 21.)

16 To the best of Plaintiff's knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving similar 17 claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, nor has 18 Defendant pointed to any. (Moon Decl., ¶ 30.)

19 III. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

20 The law favors the settlement of lawsuits, particularly in class actions and other complex 21 cases. (See, e.g., Neary v. Regents of Univ. of Cal. (1992) 3 Cal.4th 272, 277–81.) To prevent fraud, 22 collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v.

23
24 <sup>2</sup> The Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following from the $300,000.00 25 GSA: $7,500.00 for the Class Representative Service Payment, up to $10,000.00 for the 26 Administration Expenses Payment, $25,000.00 for the PAGA Penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved
Employees, $100,000.00 for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, and up to $25,000.00 for the Class
Counsel Expenses Payment. (Settlement, ¶¶ 3.2–3.2.5.)

27 <sup>3</sup> At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees are unknown 28 and will be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class Data. (Settlement, ¶ 6.1.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval. (Moon Decl., ¶ 21, n.3.)

1 Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800–01 [citing authority omitted].) To approve a 2 settlement, the Court must find “the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.” (Id.) This Court
3 has wide discretion in making this determination. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 4 438.) Fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness are presumed, as here, when: “(1) the settlement is 5 reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow 6 counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the 7 percentage of objectors is small.” (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1802 [citing Newberg, Newberg on 8 Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 11.41].)

9 In evaluating a settlement, the trial court considers the following factors: (1) the strength of 10 plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk 11 of maintaining class action status through trial; (4) the settlement amount offered; (5) the extent of 12 discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; (6) counsel’s experience and views; (7) the 13 presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the class members’ reaction to the proposed 14 settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) To approve a class 15 action settlement, “the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of 16 reasonableness.” (Id. at p. 133.) The record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum 17 theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 18 408–09 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the 19 plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding 20 of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

21 As discussed below, Plaintiff’s Counsel have provided materials and information exceeding 22 the threshold required for this Court to conclude the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

23 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of Investigation, 24 Litigation, and Negotiation

25 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, Informed and Non- 26 Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations, and Realistic Claims Analysis

27 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 28 evidence to the contrary is offered. (Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 11.51.)

1 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super. Ct.
2 (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The fact that 3 the plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not to approve 4 the settlement.”].) Thus, there is a presumption here that negotiations were conducted in good faith.

5 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case.
6 (Moon Decl., ¶ 31.) As previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arms’-length
7 negotiations, private mediation, and the assistance of a statistics expert. (Id.) Based on Defendant’s 8 informal class-wide discovery production, on Plaintiff’s Counsel independent investigation and 9 evaluation, and on counsel’s extensive experience in wage-and-hour litigation, Plaintiff’s Counsel are 10 of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Id.)

11 Based on Plaintiff’s Counsel’s review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by 12 Defendant, on Plaintiff’s expert’s analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on 13 information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted 14 exposure that Defendant faced. (Id. at ¶ 32.) Specifically, based on the information provided for 15 mediation, the total estimated realistic recovery (adjusted for risks at certification and proof on the 16 merits) for the alleged claims, including penalties, is estimated to be $517,161.98. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 17 32, 40.) This amount was calculated as follows: $13,009.92 (50% discount) for the rounding claim; 18 $175.80 (85% discount) for the regular rate claim; $30,867.82 (90% discount) for the off-the-clock 19 work claim; $199,519.32 (85% discount) for the meal period claim; $163,635.32 (90% discount) for 20 the rest period claim; $15,627.50 (90% discount) for the unreimbursed business expenses claim; 21 $27,281.30 (95% discount) for the waiting time penalties claim; $29,400.00 (95% discount) for the 22 wage statement claim; and $37,645.00 (95% discount) for the PAGA penalties claim. (Id. at ¶¶ 32– 23 38.) The foregoing discounts were based on the evidence presented for mediation and arguments 24 made during arm’s-length settlement negotiations. (Id.)

25 The $300,000.00 gross settlement figure represents roughly 58% of the total realistic 26 recovery. (Id. at ¶ 40.) This is an excellent result for the Class, particularly because, under the 27 Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, avoiding the risk of not being 28 able to recover anything. (Id.)

1                   2. The Class Settlement Is Fair Considering the Parties’ Respective Positions
2                   and Significant Risks to Certification and Proof on the Merits

3           A settlement is not judged against what a plaintiff might recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 4 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba
5 v. Apple Comp., Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent and necessary 6 in the settlement process . . . even if ‘the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially 7 narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated,’ this is no bar to a class 8 settlement because ‘the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each 9 side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.’”] [quoting Air Line Stewards v. Am. Airlines, 10 Inc. (7th Cir. 1972) 455 F.2d 101, 109].)

11           Here, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial risk, 12 appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the 13 Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 31.) While Plaintiff is 14 confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id.
15 at ¶ 43.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount owed to each Class Member would be an 16 expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.)

17           The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or 18 some of Plaintiff’s claims. (Id. at ¶ 44.) Plaintiff’s Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing 19 at trial due to low or no participation by Class Members. (Id.) Indeed, the individualized and testimony-20 intensive nature of the claims could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise 21 significantly reduce any recovery whatsoever. (Id.) For example, the unreimbursed expense claim is 22 a testimony-driven claim and assumes a 100% violation rate, which would not likely be demonstrated 23 at trial, as it assumes either the participation of a majority or all employees (which would be difficult 24 given the reality that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to participate due to fear of 25 retaliation), or alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would still 26 require the participation of a majority of employees to establish a sound representation of all non-27 exempts). (Id.) Even assuming employees would be willing to participate, obtaining declarations would 28 potentially reveal that each individual employee had a different experience. (Id.)

1 Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue his claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 2 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial
3 and possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. (Id. at ¶ 4 45.) Although the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, 5 and class-wide data analysis, they have not conducted extensive formal discovery. (Id.) Moreover, 6 preparation for class certification and a trial would remain for the Parties as well as the prospect of 7 appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification ruling for Plaintiff and/or any summary judgment
8 ruling. (Id.) As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys’ fees and costs through 9 trial. (Id.) In sum, this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further 10 litigation. (Id.)

11 The proposed $300,000.00 Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when 12 compared to the reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 46.) When considering the 13 risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary 14 to establish liability, and the probability of appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the 15 “ballpark” of reasonableness, and that preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.; (Kullar, 16 supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 133; see Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at pp. 408–09.)

17 3. The PAGA Settlement Is Fair Considering the Parties’ Respective Positions 18 and Significant Risks

19 With regards to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that 20 satisfies PAGA’s dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and 21 providing Aggrieved Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Moon Decl., ¶ 41; 22 Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage 23 in informal class-wide discovery, and participate in mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 41.) Defendant will also 24 have to pay civil penalties to the LWDA under the Settlement, assuming final settlement approval is 25 granted. (Id.; Settlement, ¶ 3.2.5.) Not including its own attorneys’ fees and costs as well as the 26 employer’s share of payroll taxes, Defendant will pay no less than $300,000.00 to resolve this matter—27 of which $25,000.00 is allocated toward the PAGA claims and will be distributed, in compliance with 28 Labor Code section 2699 as 75% ($18,750.00) to the LWDA and 25% ($6,250.00) to Aggrieved

1 Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees
2 from pursuing any individual claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties.
3 (Moon Decl., ¶ 41.)

4 Moreover, Plaintiff’s Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly 5 contested, there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff
6 prevailed on the merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id.) 7 Indeed, under PAGA, a Court can reduce penalties “if, based on the facts and circumstances of the 8 particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 9 confiscatory.” (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award 10 granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction. (Moon Decl., ¶ 11 41.) Further, Plaintiff’s Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative 12 basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, penalties would 13 likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and in light of other 14 defenses available to Defendant. (Id. at ¶ 42.) Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be 15 successful at trial, assuming he is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues 16 presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the 17 Settlement. (Id.)

18 In sum, the $25,000 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes “genuine and 19 meaningful” that is “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.” (See 20 O’Connor v. Uber Tech., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1133–35 [denying settlement 21 approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of the estimated full worth].)

22 4. Plaintiff’s Counsel Have Extensive Experience in Class and PAGA Action
23 Litigation, Which Was Integral to Negotiating the Settlement

24 The Settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable counsel with considerable 25 experience and demonstrated competence with litigating wage-and-hour class actions. (Moon Decl., 26 ¶¶ 51–60.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their 27 clients and are experienced in handling complex wage-and-hour class action litigation. (Id.) Their 28 experience was helpful in assessing the reasonableness of the Settlement at issue here, and from this

1 experience they concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than 2 provided under the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 61.) Although Plaintiff and his counsel were prepared to try 3 the claims alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interest
4 of the Class based on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed against the risks, 5 expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation. (Id. at ¶¶ 10, 31.)

6 B. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

7 Subject to the Court's approval, the Settlement provides a fee application of one-third of the 8 GSA for Class Counsel's attorneys' fees or $100,000.00, subject to the escalator clause, plus 9 reimbursement for out-of-pocket litigation costs not to exceed $25,000.00.<sup>4</sup> (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2.)
10 These amounts are disclosed to Class Members in the proposed Class Notice and are reasonable. (Id.
11 at Ex. A.)

12 1. Counsel Request a Fees Award Based On the "Common Fund" Method

13 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created by 14 counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25.)
15 The California Supreme Court has held, "when a number of persons are entitled in common to a 16 specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the 17 creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorney's fees out 18 of the fund." (Id. at p. 34.)

19 Plaintiff's Counsel seek an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/common 20 fund" theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 64.) The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs 21 proportionately among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 22 burden alone." (Vincent v. Hughes Air W., Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State 23 of California (1975) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated, "one who expends 24 attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits, may require 25 those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in 26

27
28 <sup>4</sup> Plaintiff's Counsel's current litigation costs are $20,653.91, and they anticipate incurring additional costs up to final approval. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 15, 70, Ex. 4.)

1 City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court 2 recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an 3 action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons[ ] are entitled to share.” (Id. at pp.
4 110–11 [pincite omitted].)

5 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half International Inc. (2016) 1 6 Cal.5th 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 7 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 8 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 9 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 10 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 11 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it 12 provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation[ ]— 13 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.” (Id.
14 [internal citations omitted].) This line of legal authority supports a request for attorneys’ fees based 15 on the percentage of recovery/common fund method.

16 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

17 According to a leading treatise on class actions: “No general rule can be articulated on what 18 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 19 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 20 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 21 are not unprecedented.” (Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 14.03.) Attorneys’ 22 fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty 23 percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also Van 24 Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 297 [stating that most cases 25 where 30–50% was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

26 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fees request for one-third of the GSA, is in line with the prevailing 27 guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in 28 California. (Compare Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2, with Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiff requests the Court preliminarily approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the Parties.

3. This Matter Involves a “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code sections 218.5, 226, 1194, 2699, and 2802 provide for the recovery of reasonable fees and costs of suit, for the claims made in this action. (Lab. Code §§ 218.5, 226, 1194, 2699(k)(1), 2802(d).) Under these sections, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. (Id.) This Settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Plaintiff’s Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter on a contingent basis with no guarantee of recovery. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 68-72.) In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Plaintiff’s Counsel. (Id.) Once Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook this litigation, they committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing their fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns. (Id. at ¶ 72.)

4. Counsel’s Experience, Reputation, and Ability Support the Fees Request

As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers and employees, Plaintiff’s Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 51–60.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in numerous class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) As noted above, their experience in wage-and-hour litigation was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 61.) Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal) as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. (Id. at ¶ 61.) Based on these and other factors, Plaintiff’s Counsel have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. (See id. at ¶¶ 55, 59.) Because it is reasonable to compensate counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, the requested fee award is supported here.

1           C. The Enhancement Award to Plaintiff Is Reasonable

2           Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 3           compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members
4           of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class 5           action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are 6           necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the class
7           representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 8           563 F.3d 948, 958–59.) Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage-and-hour cases 9           because they promote the important public policies underlying the wage-and-hour laws. This strong 10          policy is codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “[i]t is the policy of this 11          state to vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required 12          or permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions . . .” (Lab. Code § 90.5.) Nonetheless, 13          the California Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory 14          rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect 15          employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460–61.) In this context, class 16          representatives should be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members.
17          (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

18          Under the Settlement here, subject to the Court’s approval, a Class Representative Service 19          Payment of $7,500.00 will go to Plaintiff, in addition to his amount as a Class Member. (Settlement, 20          ¶¶ 1.14, 3.2.1.) This award is for his services in support of the Action and General Release. (Id. at ¶ 21          1.14.) Plaintiff has devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case and 22          communicated with counsel frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 23          47–50; Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 11–21.) The requested award is fair and reasonable, particularly considering 24          the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all Class Members. (Moon Decl., ¶ 47–50.)

25          When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested 26          here is particularly reasonable. A 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class 27          action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was 28          $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive

1 Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1307–08.)
2 The same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an 3 average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other 4 employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id.
5 at p. 1333.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the 6 “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of 7 their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

8 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

9 A. Legal Standard

10 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. The claims all derive from 11 a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 12 4–5.) For the reasons set forth more fully below, the Class, for purposes of Settlement, satisfies the 13 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382. (Code Civ. Proc. § 382.) 14 Section 382 provides that “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many 15 persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, 16 one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Id.) There are two requirements to section 17 382: “(1) there must be an ascertainable class[ ]; and (2) there must be a well defined community of 18 interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v.
19 Yellow Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [internal citations omitted].) To clarify these 20 requirements, the California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to 21 explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant 22 common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the 23 class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart 24 Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

25 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
26 (Id. at pp. 469–73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 27 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of consumers 28 are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the

1 appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 2 Cal.3d at pp. 473–75.)

3 B. The Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied

4 1. The Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

5 When determining whether a class is ascertainable, California courts focus on the following 6 three factors: “(1) the class definition, (2) the size of the class and (3) the means of identifying class 7 members.” (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 873.) Here, Plaintiff maintains there is an 8 easily ascertainable Class, defined by objective and precise criteria. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.5, 1.12.) The 9 proposed Class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is ascertainable because (1) the Class definition is 10 sufficiently precise, (2) the Class consists of about 272 individuals, and (3) Class Members can be 11 readily identified by Defendant’s records. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.5, 1.12.) Because Class Members are identified 12 using specific criteria in the regular business records of Defendant—their employment by Defendant 13 in California, non-exempt classification, hourly wage, and actual work during the Class Period—the 14 Class is ascertainable. (See Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co. (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959–60 [class 15 membership defined by ownership of product that is the subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make 16 the class ascertainable].) “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be 17 ‘many’ parties to a class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of 18 Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ 19 persons, an action may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is 20 in fact practicable to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the 21 maintenance of a class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 22 10 beneficiaries of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id. [citing Bowles v. Super. Ct.
23 (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574]; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a class of 9 plaintiffs 24 and 35 members].) Therefore, numerosity is plainly satisfied.

25 2. There Are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

26 To satisfy the community of interest requirement, a proponent must show (1) common 27 questions of law and fact that predominate over individual issues, (2) class representatives have 28 claims or defenses typical of the class, and (3) class representatives adequately represent the class.

1 (Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1806.) This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently 2 cohesive to rationally warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE 3 Corp. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 605, 611–12.)

4 Here, Plaintiff’s claims satisfy all three requirements. The employment practices at issue 5 include whether Defendant: paid employees all minimum, overtime, double time, meal premium, and 6 sick pay wages owed; reimbursed employees for necessary business expenses; provided employees 7 with and authorize meal and rest periods or paid premiums for non-compliant breaks; paid all final 8 wages to employees at the time of termination; intentionally failed to pay all final wages; provided 9 inaccurate itemized wage statements and whether Class Members were harmed; engaged in unfair
10 business practices; and violated civil penalty provisions under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 4–5.) Plaintiff 11 contends the factual and legal issues are the same for all Class Members, and further that all Class
12 Members suffered from and seek redress for the same alleged injuries. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 5–6.) 13 Considering Class Members would need to prove the same issues of law and fact to prevail, and their 14 legal remedies are identical, it would be preferable to resolve all claims through a settlement than to 15 force each Class Member to litigate their own individual claims. Thus, the Court should grant 16 conditional class certification for settlement purposes because common questions of law and fact 17 predominate over any individual questions within the Class.

18 3. Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

19 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 20 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather, upon the 21 typicality of the proposed representative’s claims as they relate to the defendant’s conduct and 22 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 [“The only requirements are [sic] that 23 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly situated” 24 vis-à-vis the class.] [emphasis in original].) A representative plaintiff’s claims are typical of the class 25 if they arise from the same event, practice, or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same 26 legal theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant and 27 alleges he was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated employees.
28 (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 2–6.)

1                   4. Plaintiff and His Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

2           The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: (1) a named 3 plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation, and (2) a named 4 plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of Am. (1976) 60 5 Cal.App.3d 442, 450.)

6           Here, all requirements are met. Plaintiff retained counsel with extensive experience in 7 prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that previously settled. (Moon 8 Decl., ¶¶ 50–59.) Based on their experience, Plaintiff's Counsel unquestionably are "qualified, 9 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller, supra, 148 Cal.App.3d 10 at p. 874.) Plaintiff has, with counsel, litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, 11 showing dedication, and with full knowledge and acceptance of duties, he has committed to his role 12 as Class Representative. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 11–21.) In addition, Plaintiff and his Counsel have no 13 conflicts with one another, other Class Members, or the proposed Administrator. (Id. at ¶¶ 8–10; 14 Moon Decl., ¶ 61.)

15                   5. A Class Action Is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

16           Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class action 17 would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation. (See 18 Leyva v. Medline Indus. Inc. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 514–15.) By consolidating many potential 19 individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court's use of the class action device enables it to 20 manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of time, effort, and expense for the 21 litigants and the judicial system. (Id.) Absent class treatment, similarly situated employees with 22 small, but nevertheless meritorious, claims for damages would, as a practical matter, have no means 23 of redress because of the time, effort, and expense required to prosecute individual actions. (Id. at p.
24 515; Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457–62.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority 25 concerns are essentially non-existent. (See generally, e.g., Stamburgh, supra, 62 Cal.App.3d.)

1     V.     THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND AND 2     SATISFIES RULES OF COURT

3           Class Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 4 rule 3.766(e)–(f), rule 3.769(f).) Here, the proposed Class Notice, in the form attached to the 5 Settlement as Exhibit A, meets all the requirements of California Rules of Court. The Notice 6 summarizes the proceedings to date and the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement in an 7 informative and coherent manner. (Settlement, ¶ 7.5.2, Ex. A.) It also states that the final approval
8 decision has yet to be made, and provides the date, time, and location of the Final Approval Hearing.
9 (Id.) It explains the right and procedures to opt-out or submit any written objections and/or arrange 10 to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and verbally state any objections. (Settlement, ¶ 7.9.1.) It 11 makes clear the Settlement does not constitute an admission of liability by Defendant, who denies all 12 liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits of the action. (Settlement, Exh.
13 A.) Thus, the proposed Notice meets all the requirements of California Rule of Court 3.769(f). (Cal.
14 Rules of Court, rule 3.769(f).)

15           The Class Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Newberg, 16 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 8.39.) Accordingly, the Notice complies with the 17 standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification 18 class notice.

19           California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice 20 program. (Cartt v. Super. Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 970, 973–74.) There is no statutory or due 21 process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, Class Members 22 will receive direct mailed notice, which is the best possible form of notice under the circumstances.
23 (Settlement, ¶ 7.9.1.) As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he notice given should have a 24 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class Members . . .” (Cartt, 50 25 Cal.App.3d at p. 974.)

1     VI.     CONCLUSION

2             For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court grant this motion, enter the 3 proposed order submitted herewith regarding preliminary approval, and set a final approval hearing 4 no earlier than 120 days from the preliminary approval order.

5                                     Respectfully submitted,
