1 TO THE COURT AND DEFENDANTS AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on May 6, 2026, at 9:00 a.m. in Department 11B of the 3 above-entitled Court, located at 180 E Weber Ave., 2nd Floor, Stockton, CA 95202, Plaintiff 4 Deysi Campos (“Plaintiff” or “PAGA Representative”), on behalf of herself, the State of 5 California, and all aggrieved employees (the “Aggrieved Employees”), will and hereby does 6 move this Court pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq. for an order approving the 7 settlement agreement between Plaintiff and Defendants Full Steam Staffing LLC (“Full Steam”) and 8 Musco Olive Products, Inc. (“Musco”) (collectively, “Defendants”) which will accomplish 9 the following: approve the representative action settlement embodied in the PAGA Settlement 10 Agreement; approve PAGA Counsel’s application for attorney’s fees and litigation costs and 11 costs for the Administrator; and enter judgment approving the PAGA Settlement Agreement (the 12 “Motion”).

13 The grounds for this Motion, as set forth in the attached Memorandum of Points and 14 Authorities and supporting Declaration, are that this is a fair and reasonable settlement that 15 benefits the Aggrieved Employees and was the product of informed, non-collusive negotiations 16 by the parties who were represented by experienced and able counsel. See Wershba v. Apple

19 Defendants do not oppose this Motion. Plaintiff bases this Motion on this Notice and the 20 accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declaration of Enoch J. Kim (“Kim 21 Decl.”), the complete pleadings, records and files in the case, and such other further oral and 22 documentary evidence which may be submitted at or before the hearing on this Motion.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Through this Motion, Plaintiff Deysi Campos (“Plaintiff”) requests that the Court grant 4 approval of the PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”)
5 reached between the parties to resolve claims brought exclusively under the Private Attorneys 6 General Act of 2004, Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) seeking civil penalties for various 7 violations of the California Labor Code and Industrial Wage Commission’s Wage Orders.
8 Pursuant to the Settlement, Defendants Full Steam Staffing LLC (“Full Steam”) and Musco 9 Olive Products, Inc. (“Musco”) (collectively, “Defendants”) will pay the Gross Settlement
10 Amount of $291,528.00. (Declaration of Enoch J. Kim (“Kim Decl.”), Exhibit 1, ¶ 3.1.)

11 For purposes of the Settlement, there are two groups of Aggrieved Employees included 12 in the Settlement: (1) all individuals who were employed by Full Steam in California as a non-13 exempt employee and assigned to Musco during the PAGA Period, and who worked at least one 14 day at Musco in California during the Full Steam PAGA Period (“Full Steam Aggrieved 15 Employees”), and (2) all direct employees of Musco employed as a non-exempt employee in 16 California who worked at least one day during the Musco PAGA Period (“Musco Aggrieved 17 Employees”). (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, ¶¶ 1.4, 1.12, and 1.19.) Based on its records, Defendants 18 estimate that there are approximately 518 Aggrieved Employees who collectively worked a total 19 of 16,196 pay periods during the PAGA Period. (Kim Decl., ¶ 11.)

20 As further explained below, Plaintiff and her counsel believe that the Settlement is fair, 21 reasonable, and in the best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State. Accordingly, 22 Plaintiff requests that the Court “review and approve” the Settlement pursuant to Labor Code § 23 2699(l)(2). If the Court deems the Settlement fair and acceptable, Plaintiff requests that the 24 Court enter an order approving the Settlement in the form lodged herewith ordering the parties 25 and Administrator to carry out the terms of the Settlement Agreement and enter a Final 26 Judgment thereon.¹

27 _____
28 ¹ Plaintiff has submitted the Settlement Agreement and this Motion to the LWDA by uploading it on the LWDA’s website concurrently with the filing of this Motion as required by Labor Code § 2699(l)(2).

II. RELEVANT BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A. Litigation Overview and Procedural History

On October 5, 2023, Plaintiff filed a class-action complaint in the San Joaquin County Superior Court, Case No. STK-CV-UOE-2023-10580, against Defendants alleging claims under the California Labor Code (the “Labor Code”) for (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages; (2) Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime Under Labor Code § 510; (3) Meal Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (4) Rest-Break Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (5) Violation of Labor Code § 226(a); (6) Violation of Labor Code § 203; (7) Violation of Labor Code § 204; (8) Failure to Keep Required Payroll Records under Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5; and (9) Violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq (the “Action”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 4.)

On or about October 5, 2023, Plaintiff submitted her PAGA letter to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendants, alleging that Defendants committed various wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and were entitled to civil penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

On or about December 8, 2023, Plaintiff filed her First Amended Complaint, adding a cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA against Defendants (“Operative Complaint”). (Id. at ¶ 6.)

B. Mediation and Settlement

Prior to mediation, Plaintiff conducted extensive informal discovery and Defendants provided data, numbers, and documents, including electronic payroll and timekeeping data for a sampling of Aggrieved Employees, information and documentation regarding Defendants’ wage and hour policies, expense report data and information, and meal period information. (Kim Decl., ¶ 8.) The information and data exchanged by Plaintiff and Defendants prior to and during mediation and settlement negotiations were sufficient to reliably assess the merits of the parties’ respective positions, to compromise the issues on a fair and equitable basis, and to devise a formula for distribution of civil penalties among the Aggrieved Employees that took into consideration the strength of the PAGA claims. (Id.)

(Declaration of Enoch J. Kim (“Kim Decl.”) ¶ 44, Exhibit 2.)

1 On June 25, 2024, the Parties attended an all-day mediation with experienced mediator 2 Darren Cohen, Esq. and subsequently settled the Action. (Id. at ¶ 7.) The general terms for 3 settling this Action were memorialized in the long-form Settlement Agreement now before the 4 Court for approval, which was fully executed on January 20, 2026. (Kim Decl., ¶ 9.)

5 The parties believe and agree that the Settlement provides for a fair, adequate, and 6 reasonable resolution of the Action and have arrived at the Settlement in extensive, arm's length 7 negotiations, considering all relevant factors, present and potential. (Kim Decl., ¶ 10.) PAGA 8 Counsel believes that the Settlement confers real benefits upon Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 9 Employees and that an independent review of the Settlement by the Court in the approval 10 process will confirm this conclusion. (Id.)

11 III. PAGA ACTIONS AND THE REQUIREMENTS

12 A. The PAGA Statutory Scheme

13 PAGA creates a means of “deputizing” citizens as private attorney generals to enforce 14 the Labor Code on behalf of the LWDA. Brown v. Ralphs Grocery Co. (2011) 197 Cal. App.
15 4th 489, 501, review den. (Oct. 19, 2011, No. S195850), cert. denied 132 S.Ct. 1910 (Apr. 16, 16 2012). A plaintiff may not — and Plaintiff here does not — bring a PAGA claim simply on her 17 or her own behalf as an individual claim, but “as the proxy or agent of the state’s labor law 18 enforcement agencies.” Id., at 986; see also Reyes v. Macy’s, Inc. (2011) 202 Cal. App. 4th 19 1119, 1123-1124; Iskanian v. CLS Transp. Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348, 380.
20 When an aggrieved employee brings a PAGA claim, “the government is always the real party in 21 interest.” Securitas Sec. Servs. USA, Inc. v. Sup. Ct. of San Diego Cnty. (2015) 234 Cal. App.
22 4th 1109, 1119; Montano v. The Wet Seal Retail, Inc. (2015) 232 Cal. App. 4th 1214, 1222
23 (“[A] PAGA action is a dispute between an employer and the State agency.”). Accordingly, a 24 plaintiff that brings a PAGA claim represents “the same legal right and interest as state labor 25 law enforcement agencies,” in that the plaintiff seeks to recover those civil penalties that the 26 LWDA otherwise would assess and collect. Arias v. Super. Ct. (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 986; 27 Labor Code § 2699(a) & (f); Securitas, supra, 234 Cal. App. 4th at 1119; see also Medina v.
28 Vander Poel (E.D. Cal. 2015) 523 B.R. 820, 825 (holding “PAGA plaintiffs do not have property rights in their cases.”), and Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-CIO v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 993, 1003.

Therefore, when a plaintiff brings a PAGA claim, he or she is properly viewed as a private attorney general prosecuting violations of California’s labor laws on behalf of the state. An employee may commence a PAGA action by fulfilling the requirements of California Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(1), which simply states: “The aggrieved employee or representative shall give written notice by certified mail to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and the employer of the specific provisions of this code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violation.” Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(1). As explained above, Plaintiff complied with the notice requirements and properly pled a PAGA claim. (Kim Decl. ¶¶ 5-6.)

B. The Court Has Discretion When Awarding the Amount of Penalties.

The Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code § 2699 et seq., provides for penalties in the amount of $100 for each violation per aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and $200 for each violation per aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation. Labor Code § 2699(f)(2). “PAGA penalties...are mandatory, not discretionary” and must be awarded upon a showing that Defendants violated the Labor Code. Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1213. However, the Private Attorneys General Act provides the Court with discretion when it finds liability and awards these penalties as part of a judgment. Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) states that “a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.”

C. PAGA Authorizes the Payment of PAGA Counsel’s Fees and Costs

The Private Attorneys General Act provides for the recovery of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs. Labor Code § 2699(g)(1) (“Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, including any filing fee paid...”). The monetary settlement and programmatic relief make Plaintiff a “prevailing party.” Folsom

1 v. Butte County Ass'n of Gov'ts (1982) 32 Cal. 3d 668,671; Santisas v. Goodin (1998) 17 2 Cal.4th 599, 621. Even if Labor Code § 2699(g)(1) did not authorize fees, Plaintiff would be 3 entitled to fees as a Private Attorney General under Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 because 4 Plaintiff brought this action to, and the action does, benefit the public. Arias, 46 Cal.4th at 985– 5 986.

6 IV. THE SETTLEMENT

7 Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Defendants will pay the Gross Settlement 8 Amount of $291,528.00 in full and final settlement of the PAGA claim alleged in the Action.
9 Full Steam shall pay $147,708.00 of the GSA, and Musco shall pay $143,820.00 of the GSA 10 (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, ¶ 3.1).

11 Pending Court approval, the Gross Settlement Amount will be allocated as follows: (1) 12 attorneys' fees of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount which is $97,176.00 ("PAGA 13 Counsel Fees Payment") (Kim Decl., ¶ 12.); (2) actual litigation costs incurred in this matter in 14 the amount of $17,035.09 ("PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment") (Id.); (3) settlement 15 administration costs of up to $4,550.00 to be paid to the Settlement Administrator, ILYM 16 Group, Inc. ("ILYM"), for sending notices and for calculating settlement shares and preparing 17 all checks and mailings ("Administration Expenses Payment") (Id.); and (4) PAGA Penalties in 18 the amount of $172,414.91, with 75% ($129,311.18) allocated to the LWDA ("LWDA PAGA
19 Payment") and 25% ($43,103.73) allocated to the Aggrieved Employees ("Individual PAGA 20 Payments"). (Id.) The Individual PAGA Payments will be calculated by (a) dividing the amount 21 of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties by the total number of PAGA Pay 22 Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period for each Defendant and 23 (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Pay Periods for each 24 Defendant. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, ¶ 3.2.3.1.)

25 Based on its records, Defendants estimate that there are approximately 518 Aggrieved 26 Employees who collectively worked 16,196 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (Id. at 27 ¶ 11.) If the actual number of PAGA Pay Periods is more than 10% greater than the number 28 represented by a Defendant for their respective PAGA Period, then the GSA for that Defendant

1 will be increased proportionately. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, ¶ 8.) For example, if the number of 2 PAGA Pay Periods is 11% higher for a Defendant, the GSA for said Defendant will be 3 increased by 1%. In the alternative, said Defendant may elect, in its sole discretion, to shorten 4 its release period to stay within the 10% cushion. (Id.)

5 Based on this information, and using a straight average, Plaintiff estimates that on 6 average Aggrieved Employees will receive a payment of approximately $83.21 ($43,103.73 7 divided by 518 Aggrieved Employees). (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 11, 12.)

8 V. ARGUMENT

9 A. The Court Should Approve the Settlement Agreement.

10 Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(I), the parties must obtain Court approval of a settlement 11 of a PAGA action on a representative basis. However, as explained in Arias v. Superior Ct.
12 (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, the parties need not follow the class action procedural rules in PAGA 13 cases and therefore need not obtain approval of the PAGA settlement through a motion for 14 preliminary or final approval. Nonetheless, to comply with the requirements of Labor Code 15 section 2699, Plaintiff submits this Motion and the Settlement Agreement for Court approval.

16 B. The Risks of Moving Forward with Plaintiff's PAGA Claim

17 To help the Court evaluate the fairness of the Settlement, below is a discussion of the 18 risk evaluation made by Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel. Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel considered 19 the arguments and defenses asserted by Defendants at mediation, assessed the risks of moving 20 forward to trial and what this Court could do in awarding penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed at 21 trial.

22 Plaintiff estimated that the maximum potential exposure on the PAGA claim is 23 $1,619,600.00 calculated by multiplying the total number of PAGA Pay Periods (16,196) by 24 $100 per violation. (Kim Decl., ¶ 18.) Plaintiff's calculation of the total potential exposure on 25 the PAGA claim was based on one PAGA penalty per Pay Period (i.e., Plaintiff did not stack 26 the PAGA penalties in her damages calculation). (Id.) Case law supports the notion that it is 27 inappropriate to "stack" penalties for multiple violations, particularly when those violations all 28 stem from the same alleged "injury." (Id. at ¶ 19.)

1 C. Trial of Plaintiff’s PAGA Claims Would Have Presented Many Hurdles.

2 Defendants denied and continue to deny all of the claims made by Plaintiff in this 3 Action and contend that it acted at all relevant times in conformance with the law. (Id. at ¶ 16.)
4 Defendants contend that Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were paid for all hours worked, 5 that Defendants prohibited Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees from working beyond their 6 scheduled shifts, and that any “off-the-clock” work was performed without Defendants’ 7 knowledge and de minimis; that Defendants provided lawfully compliant meal and rest periods 8 (and in fact provided longer breaks than required by law) and that any deviations were at the 9 voluntary election of Plaintiff and/or the Aggrieved Employees and not at the request of 10 Defendants or due to work requirements; that Defendants paid all wages due on a timely basis 11 and using Labor Code compliant instruments; that Defendants’ wage statements complied with 12 the law; and that neither Plaintiff nor any Aggrieved Employees incurred reasonable business 13 related expenses for which they were not reimbursed. (Id.) As a result, PAGA Counsel had to 14 appropriately discount the amount recoverable from Defendants in a settlement. (Id.)

15 D. The Court May Have Exercised Its Discretion to Reduce Civil Penalties.

16 “PAGA penalties...are mandatory, not discretionary” and the Court must award 17 penalties upon a showing that Defendants violated the Labor Code. Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No.
18 2 (2008) 163 Cal. App. 4th 1157, 1213; Moreno v. Autozone, Inc. (N.D. Cal. June 5, 2007) No.
19 C05-04432 MJJ, 2007 WL 1650942, at *3. However, PAGA does provide the Court with 20 discretion when it awards these penalties. In departing from the $100/pay period calculation to 21 arrive at the $291,528.00 Gross Settlement Amount in this case, Plaintiff considered various 22 reasons why the Court may reduce any eventual recovery at its discretion and considered that 23 PAGA penalties are not mandatory but permissive. (Kim Decl., at ¶ 20.)

24 Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) states that “a court may award a lesser amount than the 25 maximum civil penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of 26 the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and 27 oppressive, or confiscatory.” (See Thurman v. Bayshore (2012) 203 Cal. App. 4th 1112 28 (substantially reducing PAGA penalties by 30% under this provision) (emphasis added); see

1 also Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal. App. 5th 504, 529 (2018) (affirming penalty 2 reduction of 90% for practice that resulted in meal periods occasionally starting minutes after 3 the fifth hour of work); Sanchez v. McDonald's Corp. (2017), LASC Case No. No. BC 499888
4 (98% reduction from $41 million to $775,000); Ghrdilyan v. RJ Financial (2012), LASC Case 5 No. BC430633 (94% reduction from $5.4 million to $325,000); Fleming v. Covidien, Inc.
6 (2011), USDC Case No. ED CV 10-01487-RGK (OPx) (87% reduction from $2.8 million to 7 $375,000).). In departing from the $100/pay period calculation to arrive at the $78,275.00 Gross 8 Settlement Amount in this case, Plaintiff considered what the realistic potential exposure could 9 be and why the Court may reduce any eventual recovery at its discretion, including Defendant's 10 defenses to the claims and the potential manageability issues with PAGA claims at trial. Based 11 on those considerations, Plaintiff applied a discount of 70% to the maximum potential exposure 12 (which equates to $30 penalty per pay period) to get a realistic potential exposure of 13 $485,880.00 (16,196 pay periods x $30 penalty per pay period). (Kim Decl., at ¶ 20.)

14 The Gross Settlement Amount of $291,528.00 is approximately 60% of the maximum 15 potential realistic exposure of $485,880.00. PAGA Counsel believes this is an excellent result 16 for the Aggrieved Employees and the State in light of the strengths and weaknesses of the case
17 and the risks and delays posed by further litigation. (Kim Decl., at ¶ 21.)

18 VI. THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

19 A. The Court Should Approve the Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs

20 Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, PAGA Counsel is requesting an award of 21 attorneys' fees in the amount of $97,176.00 and an award of litigation costs to PAGA Counsel 22 of $17,035.09. (Kim Decl., at ¶ 22.)

23 Prior to enactment of PAGA, when the State had the resources to seek civil penalties on 24 behalf of the public, it paid its employees (including their attorneys) their salaries and benefits 25 for pursuing such penalties. The Legislature enacted PAGA because the Labor Commissioner 26 and other agencies were hampered in their enforcement of civil penalties by inadequate funding 27 and staffing constraints. Iskanian, supra, 59 Cal.4th at 379. To facilitate broader enforcement, 28 the Legislature enacted PAGA, authorizing "aggrieved employees" to pursue civil penalties on

1 the state’s behalf. Labor Code § 2699(a). In creating PAGA, the Legislature expressly provided 2 that the private counsel retained by the Plaintiff to represent the public’s interest can recover 3 fees if the Plaintiff is the prevailing party. Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

4 1) PAGA Counsel Are Entitled to Fees from the Civil Penalties Recovered

5 As previously indicated, this is not a class action. However, like a class action, it is a 6 representative action where instead of a class, the Plaintiff represents the State and the public.
7 As a matter of law and substance, counsel’s client is the public at large and the State of 8 California. The Plaintiff is simply a “proxy” for the State. On August 11, 2016, the California 9 Supreme Court decided Laffitte v. Robert Half International, which addressed, in a class action 10 context, the correct methodology for awarding fees in a representative action settlement. Laffitte
11 v. Robert Half Intern. Inc. (2016) 205 Cal.Rptr.3d 555, 573. The Laffitte Court approved 12 awarding fees as a percentage of the settlement fund.:

13 We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding that when class 14 action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and 15 the trial court in its equitable powers awards Class Counsel a fee out of that fund, the 16 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate 17 percentage of the fund created.

18 Id. at p. 573.

19 Here, the $291,528.00 common fund created for the benefit of the public is, with 20 Plaintiff as a proxy for the State, not unlike the fund created in class action settlements, with the 21 public the equivalent of the class referenced in Laffitte.

22 The Court, in Laffitte, pointed out several reasons why the percentage-of-the-fund 23 method is preferred over the alternative lodestar-multiplier approach in California courts:

24 The recognized advantages of the percentage method—including relative ease of 25 calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better 26 approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it 27 provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the 28 litigation [citations]—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should 1 not be denied our trial courts.

2 Id. at 573.

3 An award of one-third of the civil penalties realized in the Settlement is appropriate here 4 under the “substantial benefit” theory. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 5 1810; Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 254. That theory permits a 6 litigant who has sued in a representative capacity to recover fees from the beneficiaries of that 7 representation. Courts exercise their inherent equitable powers to assess attorneys’ fees against 8 the entire fund, thereby spreading the cost of those fees among the public who benefits from 9 PAGA actions. Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 35 (Serrano III). As this approach “better 10 approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach,” there is “a greater 11 judicial willingness to evaluate a fee award as a percentage of the recovery.” Lealao v.
12 Beneficial Calif., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal. App. 4th 19, 31, 48.

13 2) The Attorneys’ Fees Request Is Within the Range of Reasonable Fees

14 PAGA Counsel at D.Law, Inc. are experienced employment attorneys with expertise in 15 wage and hour class and representative actions. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 31-40). Throughout this case, 16 PAGA Counsel have borne, and continue to bear, the entire risk and cost of litigation associated 17 with this Action on a purely contingency basis. (Kim Decl., ¶ 24.) As a result, PAGA Counsel 18 have yet to receive any compensation for the amount of time and money invested in the case to 19 date. (Id.) Moreover, courts have approved attorneys’ fees awards in other PAGA settlements 20 on a common fund basis at higher percentages than the one-third Plaintiff is requesting here.
21 (Id. at ¶¶ 26-27.)

22 For these reasons, PAGA Counsel’s requested fee of one-third of the Gross Settlement 23 Amount is well within the range of reasonableness and is fair compensation for undertaking this 24 complex and risky litigation on a contingent basis.

25 3) PAGA Counsel’s Fee Request Is Reasonable Under the Lodestar 26 Crosscheck.

27 PAGA Counsel’s fee request is reasonable when calculated using the lodestar method.
28 Under the lodestar method, a base fee amount is calculated from a compilation of time

1 reasonably spent on the case and the reasonable hourly compensation of the attorney. Serrano v.
2 Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48. The court then may enhance this lodestar figure by a 3 “multiplier” to account for a range of factors, such as the novelty and difficulty of the case, its 4 contingent nature, and the degree of success achieved. Id. at 49; see also Ketchum v. Moses 5 (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36; Thayer v. Wells Fargo Bank (2001) 92 Cal. App. 4th 819, 6 834, (“[t]here is no...rule limiting the factors that may justify an exercise of judicial discretion 7 to [adjust the] lodestar”).

8 Here, the lodestar cross check establishes that the fees requested are significantly less 9 than the amount warranted by lodestar analysis; therefore, the factors warranting positive 10 multipliers do not come into play, even though they were apparent in this case.

11 PAGA Counsel worked at least 173.3 hours on this matter at rates reflecting those 12 currently earned in the marketplace. Senior Attorney Enoch J. Kim’s records indicate at least 13 10.1 hours on this matter with an hourly rate of $1,045. (Kim Decl. ¶ 29.) Senior Attorney 14 Natalie Haritoonian spent approximately 46.2 hours on this matter and her current billing rate is 15 $925. (Id.) Attorney Matthew Carraher’s records indicate at least 44.6 hours on this matter with 16 an hourly rate of $475. (Id.) Attorney Antonia McKee’s records indicate at least 19.9 hours on 17 this matter with an hourly rate of $585. (Id.) Paralegal Jose Lopez’s records indicate at least 18 20.1 hours on this matter with an hourly rate of $300. (Id.) Paralegal Silvia Pimentel’s records 19 indicate at least 15.3 hours on this matter with an hourly rate of $350. (Id.) Paralegal Anne 20 Beuttel’s records indicate at least 4.6 hours on this matter with an hourly rate of $275. (Id.)
21 Paralegal Katheryn Perez’s records indicate at least 1.4 hours on this matter with an hourly rate 22 of $250. (Id.) Paralegal Sasha Zambrano’s records indicate at least 1.4 hours on this matter with 23 an hourly rate of $250. (Id.) Paralegal Anuvir Purewal’s records indicate at least 0.3 hours on 24 this matter with an hourly rate of $250. (Id.) Paralegal Jonathan Morataya’s records indicate at 25 least 0.1 hours on this matter with an hourly rate of $300. (Id.) The lodestar for D.Law PAGA 26 Counsel is $99,571.00 ($10,554.00 for Enoch J. Kim’s time, $42,735.00 for Natalie 27 Haritoonian’s time, $21,185.00 for Matthew Carraher’s time, $11,641.50 for Antonia McKee’s 28 time, and $13,455.00 for paralegal time.) (See also the Declaration of David Yeremian filed

1 concurrently herewith).

2 Thus, consideration of the lodestar method as a cross-check to the percentage figure 3 sought strongly supports the reasonableness of the requested fee award. PAGA Counsel 4 respectfully request the Court grant its request for $97,176.00 in fees, which requires no 5 multiplier.

6 4) The Court Should Approve the Reimbursement of PAGA Counsel's 7 Costs.

8 The litigation expenses incurred by PAGA Counsel in this Action are also to be 9 reimbursed under the Settlement Agreement. PAGA Counsel seek $17,035.09 in reimbursement 10 for litigation costs (Kim Decl., ¶ 22.) The lion's share of these costs were incurred in connection 11 with mediation, and the others listed were all reasonably incurred and necessary to the 12 prosecution of this Action. Thus, PAGA Counsel respectfully request the Court approve their 13 request for reimbursement in the amount of $17,035.09.

14 VII. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVE THE COSTS OF ADMINISTRATION

15 The parties agreed to use ILYM Group, Inc. ("ILYM") as the third-party settlement 16 administrator in this case. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13.) Apex will be responsible for updating the 17 addresses for the Aggrieved Employees, mailing the Notice of Settlement (which is attached as 18 Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement) and calculating and distributing the settlement checks, 19 among other duties. (Id.) ILYM capped its fees at $4,550.00 for administering the Settlement, 20 and based on PAGA Counsel's experience in other class and PAGA settlements, ILYM's costs 21 for administering this Settlement are fair and reasonable. (Id.)

22 VIII. CONCLUSION

23 Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel submit that the proposed Settlement as documented in the 24 Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate, reasonable, and in the best interest of Plaintiff, 25 Defendants, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California. Plaintiff respectfully 26 requests that the Court approve the Settlement and order the Parties to carry out the Settlement 27 according to the terms of the Settlement Agreement and enter the concurrently filed [Proposed] 28 Order Granting Approval and Judgment to that end.
