Manual for Complex Litigation (Third) § 30.41.....6

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 The Parties have reached a resolution of this class action and representative action and 4 hereby submit their Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims (“Settlement”) for the Court’s 5 approval. The Settlement is made and entered into by and between Plaintiff Maurice Mack 6 (“Plaintiff” or “Mack”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, and Defendant
7 KOBO EVENTS LLC, a California limited liability company, doing business as 4DIAMOND 8 EVENTS and TITANIUM (“Defendant”).

9 The Settlement occurred as a result of extensive arm’s-length negotiations by experienced 10 counsel with the assistance of a respected mediator with experience in the area of employment class 11 actions. Most importantly, the Settlement will result in significant financial benefit to the 12 participating claimants, on terms that are by any measure fair, reasonable and adequate. See 13 Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1801-02. The proposed Settlement provides 14 for a non-reversionary class settlement in the gross amount of $250,000 to a settlement class of 15 approximately 357 Settlement Class Members, yielding a gross recovery of nearly $833.33 each.
16 As detailed below, the Settlement is in the best interests of the class in light of all of the facts and 17 circumstances and the risks and delays of further litigation.

18 For the foregoing reasons, the Parties respectfully request that the Court: (a) grant 19 preliminary approval of the Settlement and preliminarily find that the Settlement falls within the 20 range of reasonableness; (b) conditionally grant certification of the proposed Settlement Class, for 21 settlement purposes only; (c) provisionally approve the appointment of Plaintiff Maurice Mack as 22 Class Representative; (d) provisionally approve the appointment of Gaines Law Corporation as 23 Class Counsel; (e) provisionally approve appointment of ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement
24 Administrator; (f) authorize the mailing of the proposed class action notice packet; and (g) schedule 25 a final fairness and approval hearing.

1 II. BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

2 On October 5, 2023, Plaintiff exhausted the pre-filing requirements of the Labor Code
3 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”). Declaration of Evan S. Gaines (“Gaines Decl.”) 4 at ¶ 6.

5 On January 16, 2024, Plaintiff initiated his Action in the San Diego County Superior Court
6 by filing a Class and Representative Action Complaint, pursuant to PAGA, on behalf of himself, 7 all others similarly situated, on behalf of the general public, and Aggrieved Employees 8 (“Complaint”). Gaines Decl. at ¶ 7.

9 The Complaint asserts claims against Defendant for (1) failure to pay all minimum and 10 overtime wages due (Labor Code §§ 510, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, and 1198); (2) failure to 11 provide compliant rest periods or correct compensation in lieu thereof (Labor Code § 226.7; IWC 12 Wage Order 4-2001); (3) failure to provide compliant meal periods or correct compensation in lieu 13 thereof (Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1174, 1174.5, and 1198; IWC Wage Order 4-2001); (4) failure 14 to reimburse all business-related expenses (Labor Code § 2802); (5) failure to provide access to 15 payroll records (Labor Code § 226(c)); (6) failure to provide access to personnel records (Labor 16 Code §§ 432 and 1198.5); (7) failure to comply with itemized employee wage statement provisions 17 (Labor Code § 226(a), (e)); (8) failure to timely pay wages due at the separation of employment 18 (Labor Code §§ 201-203 and 227.3); (9) violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200 for 19 underlying violations of the Labor Code as set forth in the Action; and (10) civil penalties pursuant 20 to PAGA for underlying violations of the Labor Code as set forth in the Action. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 21 8.

22 Defendant denies any liability or wrongdoing of any kind whatsoever in connection with 23 the claims in the Action and further denies that, for any purpose other than settling this Action, this 24 Action is appropriate for class action or representative treatment. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 9.

25 The Class Representative contends that Defendant violated the California Labor Code and 26 Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order(s), and that this case is appropriate for class 27 certification. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 10.

1 III. INVESTIGATION AND SETTLEMENT DISCUSSIONS

2 Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation into the facts and law during the 3 prosecution of this class action case, including the exchange of limited informal discovery, 4 including but not limited to documents regarding Defendant's employment/workplace policies in 5 place during the applicable period and a sample of time records and wage records relating to the 6 wage statements contents and wages paid to Defendant's non-exempt employees during the 7 relevant time periods, and the review and verification of other facts and information provided by 8 Defendant. Class Counsel also represents that he has investigated the applicable law as applied to 9 the facts discovered regarding the alleged claims of Plaintiff and potential defenses thereto, and the 10 damages and other losses claimed by Plaintiff. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 11.

11 On March 28, 2025, the Parties participated in a mediation with Mike Ludwig, Esq., 12 wherein a settlement of Plaintiff's individual, class, and representative wage and hour claims.
13 Gaines Decl. at ¶ 12.

14 Plaintiff's Counsel created a damage analysis using sampling information obtained through 15 informal discovery. This damage analysis reveals that the negotiated settlement falls within a 16 realistic range of recovery on Class Members' claims. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 13.

17 Based on his own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion
18 (and will so represent to the Court) that settlement for the consideration and on the terms set forth 19 in this Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the 20 Settlement Class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant 21 delay, the risk the Settlement Class will not be certified by the Court, and the defenses asserted by 22 Defendant. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 14.

23 The Parties agree that the Settlement Class described herein may be certified for settlement 24 purposes only and that any motion for approval seeking, inter alia, certification of the Settlement 25 Class is for purposes of the settlement only. If for any reason the Settlement is not approved, the 26 certification will have no force or effect and will immediately be revoked. The Parties further agree 27 that certification for purposes of the settlement is in no way an admission that class certification is 28 proper under the more stringent standard applied for litigation and that evidence of this Settlement

1 Agreement is for settlement purposes only and will not be admissible for any purpose in this or any 2 other proceeding. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 15.

3 IV. LEGAL ANALYSIS

4 A. The Proposed Settlement Terms

5 1. The Settlement Class

6 The Parties have agreed to a settlement class composed of “all non-exempt employees of 7 Defendant KOBO EVENTS LLC in California at any time between January 16, 2020 and March 8 28, 2025.” Settlement at A.4.

9 2. Allocations to be Paid from the Gross Settlement Amount

10 The Parties agree to settle the Action for a Gross Settlement Amount of $250,000 (the 11 “Gross Settlement Amount”).¹ The Gross Settlement Amount includes: (a) payments to 12 Settlement Class Members (excluding any appropriate and lawfully required employer-side 13 payroll taxes owed by Defendant on such payments, which Defendant shall separately be 14 responsible for apart from the Gross Settlement Amount); (b) the Enhancement/General Release 15 Award to the Class and PAGA Representative; (c) the PAGA Payment; (d) the Settlement 16 Administrator’s fees and costs, and (e) Class Counsel’s approved attorneys’ fees and 17 costs/expenses. In no circumstance shall Defendant be required to pay any additional monies 18 beyond the Gross Settlement Amount plus the employer-side payroll taxes. Settlement at ¶ C(1).

19 From the Gross Settlement Amount, Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff’s counsel’s
20 application to the Court for up to 33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount for attorneys’ fees 21 (projected to be $83,333.33). Settlement at C(1)(g).

22 From the Gross Settlement Amount, Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff’s counsel’s
23 application to the Court for up to $12,000 in reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses.

24 _____
25 ¹ The Gross Settlement Amount was calculated with, and is premised on, the understanding that the 26 Class Members and PAGA Employees worked approximately 8,000 workweeks during the Class 27 Period. The Parties agree that if the total number of pay periods during the Class Period exceeds 28 One Hundred Ten Percent (110%) of the estimated 8,000 workweeks (i.e., exceeds 8,800 workweeks), Defendant will proportionately increase the Gross Settlement Amount commensurate with the percentage increase in the number of total pay periods beyond ten percent (10%). As an example, and for the avoidance of doubt, if the total pay periods increases to 2% above 8,960 pay periods, then the Gross Settlement Amount shall increase by 2%. Settlement at ¶ H.17.

1 Settlement at C(1)(h).

2 From the Gross Settlement Amount, Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff's counsel's 3 application to the Court for Enhancement/General Release Award to Plaintiff Maurice Mack in the 4 gross amount of $10,000, in consideration for his efforts in instituting and participating in the 5 Action. Settlement at C(1)(f).

6 From the Gross Settlement Amount, settlement administration fees paid to ILYM Group, 7 Inc. will be no more than $5,550. Settlement at C(1)(i).

8 From the Gross Settlement Amount, the portion to be allocated for settlement of any and all 9 claims for penalties under the PAGA is $20,000 ("PAGA Payment"), 75% ($15,000) shall be paid
10 directly to the LWDA and 25% ($5,000) shall be distributed to the PAGA Employees as PAGA 11 Employee Payments. Settlement at C(1)(e).

12 The Gross Settlement Amount shall encompass the following: (1) Class Counsel's fees, 13 costs, and expenses; (2) the Enhancement/General Release Award; (3) the Settlement 14 Administrator's fees and costs; (4) the PAGA Payment; and (5) the Net Settlement Amount (the 15 "NSA"). After the deduction of the amounts approved for the Enhancement/General Release 16 Award, the PAGA Payment, the Settlement Administrator's fees and costs, and Class Counsel's 17 fees, costs, and expenses from the Gross Settlement Amount, the remainder shall be referred to as 18 the Net Settlement Amount. Settlement at C(1)(a).

19 3. Settlement of Claims Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 et seq. (PAGA)

20 Pursuant to PAGA, the Parties have agreed that $6,000 of the Gross Settlement Amount 21 will be allocated to settle the claims brought under Labor Code § 2699 et seq. Pursuant to Labor 22 Code § 2699(i), "civil penalties recovered by aggrieved employees shall be distributed as follows:
23 75 percent to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency...and 25 percent to the aggrieved 24 employees." As such, 75% of the apportioned PAGA settlement amount ($20,000) – or $15,000 –
25 shall be paid directly to the LWDA, and 25%, i.e., $5,000, shall be distributed to the PAGA 26 Employees as PAGA Employee Payments. Settlement at C(1)(e).

27 ///

28 ///

1 B. Two-Step Approval Process

2 Any settlement of class litigation must be reviewed and approved by the Court. Cal. R. Ct.
3 3.769; Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e).² This is done in two steps: (1) an early (preliminary) review by the 4 trial court, and (2) a final review after notice has been distributed to the Class Members informing 5 them of the terms of the settlement and allowing them to exclude themselves from, participate in 6 and/or object to the settlement. The Manual for Complex Litigation (Third) § 30.41 states:

7 Approval of class action settlements involves a two-step process.
8 First, counsel submit the proposed terms of settlement and the court 9 makes a preliminary fairness evaluation. If the preliminary 10 evaluation of the proposed settlement does not disclose grounds to 11 doubt its fairness or other obvious deficiencies, such as unduly 12 preferential treatment of class representatives or of segments of the class, or excessive compensation for attorneys, and appears to fall within the range of possible approval, the court should direct that notice ... be given to the class members of a formal fairness hearing, at which arguments and evidence may be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement.

13 Thus, the preliminary approval by the trial court is simply a conditional finding that the 14 settlement appears to be within the range of acceptable settlements. See Wershba v. Apple 15 Computer (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234-35. “The strength of the findings made by a judge at a 16 preliminary hearing or conference concerning a tentative settlement proposal may vary. The court 17 may find that the settlement proposal contains some merit, is within the range of reasonableness 18 required for a settlement offer, or is presumptively valid subject only to any objections that may be 19 raised at a final hearing.” 4 Alba Conte & Herbert B. Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions, § 11.26 20 (4th ed. 2002).

21 The procedures for the Parties’ submission of a proposed settlement for preliminary 22 approval by the Court also are discussed in 4 Newberg on Class Actions:

23 When the parties to an action reach a monetary settlement, they will 24 usually prepare and execute a joint stipulation of settlement, which 25 is submitted to the court for preliminary approval. The stipulation 26 should set forth the essential terms of the agreement, including but not limited to, the amount of settlement, form of payment, manner of determining the effective date of settlement and any recapture clause.

27 ² The California Supreme Court has authorized California's trial courts to use Federal Rule 23 and 28 cases applying it for guidance in considering class issues. See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal.3d 800, 821; Green v. Obledo (1981) 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146. Where appropriate, therefore, Plaintiff cites Federal Rule 23 and federal case law in addition to California law.

1 Id. at § 11.24.

2 Here, the Parties have reached such an agreement and have submitted the Settlement 3 herewith. See Gaines Decl., Exhibit B; Gaines Decl. ¶ 16.

4 C. Procedures for Settlement Before Class Certification.

5 Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d), parties also may, at the preliminary 6 approval stage, request that the court provisionally approve certification of the class – conditioned 7 upon final approval of the settlement. “[P]re-certification settlements are routinely approved if 8 found to be fair and reasonable.” Wershba, supra, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 240. Accord Dunk, supra, 9 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1803 (although the settlement was reached before any “adversary certification,” 10 the court was satisfied that it was “fair, adequate and reasonable.”). See also In re Baldwin-United 11 Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1984) 105 F.R.D. 475, 478³ (“many courts have employed this practice in the 12 name of judicial efficiency in order to facilitate apparently beneficial settlement proposals.”)

13 The strength of the findings made by a judge at a preliminary hearing 14 or conference concerning a tentative settlement proposal . . . may be 15 set out in conditional orders granting tentative approval to the various 16 items submitted to the court. Three basic rulings are often conditionally entered at this preliminary hearing. These conditional rulings may approve a temporary settlement class, the proposed settlement, and the class counsel’s application for fees and expenses.

17 4 Newberg on Class Actions, at § 11.26.

18 As required by Labor Code § 2699(1)(2), concurrent with Plaintiff’s submission of the 19 Settlement to the Court, his counsel is transmitting it, together with this Motion, to the LWDA.
20 Gaines Decl. at ¶ 32.

21 1. The Settlement Class Should Be Certified for Settlement Purposes

22 It is well established that trial courts should use a lower standard for determining the 23 propriety of certifying a settlement class, as opposed to a litigation class. Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.
24 App. 4th at 1807, n. 19. The reason for this is that no trial is anticipated in a settlement class, so 25 the case management issues inherent in determining if the class should be certified need not be 26 confronted. Amchem Products, Inc. v. Windsor (1987) 521 U.S. 591, 620. The proposed

27 _____
28 ³ In determining the fairness and reasonableness of a proposed settlement, California courts may look to federal cases for guidance. See Wershba, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 239-40.

1 Settlement Class meets all requirements for certification, as discussed below.

2 a. The Settlement Class is Ascertainable

3 The proposed Settlement Class is ascertainable. The class definition, the size of the Class, 4 and the means for identifying the members of the class determine whether the class is ascertainable.
5 Reyes v. Board of Supervisors (1987) 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1274. In this case, the Class Members
6 are identifiable from Defendant's employment and payroll records. Further, the Settlement Class
7 is sufficiently numerous to warrant certification. According to Defendant's records, the Class 8 comprises approximately 357 members. Gaines Decl. ¶ 28.

9 b. Questions of Law or Fact Common to Members of the Settlement
10 Class Predominate

11 The Class Members' claims all stem from a common source: members of the Settlement 12 Class allege that Defendant violated the same Labor Code provisions in connection with their 13 employment in non-exempt positions. All members of the Class seek the same relief under the same 14 California laws (related to failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages due, provide meal and 15 rest periods, inaccurate or incomplete wage statements, failure to timely pay wages due upon 16 separation, failure to reimburse business expenses; failure to provide access to payroll records and 17 personnel records; and derivative claims). Under these circumstances, the commonality 18 requirement is satisfied for purposes of certifying the Settlement Class for settlement purposes.
19 Gaines Decl. ¶ 29.

20 c. The Proposed Class Representative's Claims Are Typical of the 21 Class Members' Claims

22 A class representative's claims are typical when they arise from the same event or course 23 of conduct that gives rise to the claims of the class, and are based on the same legal theory.
24 Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal. App. 3d 27, 46-47. In this case, named Plaintiff and proposed 25 Class Representative Maurice Mack is a former non-exempt employee who worked for Defendant 26 in the State of California during the Class Period. He contends that Defendant failed to pay all 27 wages due, failed to provide meal and rest periods, failed to comply with itemized employee wage 28 statement provisions, and failed to timely pay wages at the separation of employment, in violation

1 of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 432, 510, 512, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 2 1194.2, 1198, 1198.5, 2698, 2699, and 2802 among other Labor Code provisions. He has the same 3 claims as those that the members of the Settlement Class would reasonably be expected to bring 4 based on the course of conduct alleged herein. Gaines Decl. ¶ 30.

5 Plaintiff has also demonstrated that he will aggressively and competently assert the interests
6 of the proposed Settlement Class; he has taken an active role in the litigation and has no apparent
7 conflicts with other class members. Gaines Decl. ¶ 31; Declaration of Maurice Mack (“Mack 8 Decl.”). Furthermore, Plaintiff has retained competent counsel, experienced in litigating class 9 action claims in the employment context. See Gaines Decl. ¶¶ 2-5.

10 D. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable and Not the Result of Fraud or 11 Collusion

12 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement unless 13 evidence to the contrary is offered. Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447; Mars
14 Steel Corp. v. Continental Illinois Nat’l Bank & Trust Co. (7th Cir. 1987) 834 F.2d 677, 682; In re 15 Chicken Antitrust Litig. (N.D. Ga. 1980) 560 F. Supp. 957, 962. Courts do not substitute their 16 judgment for that of the proponents, particularly where, as here, settlement has been reached with 17 the participation of experienced counsel familiar with the litigation. Nat’l Rural Telecomms.
18 Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal. 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 528; Hammon v. Barry (D.D.C. 1990)
19 752 F. Supp. 1087, 1093; Steinberg v. Carey (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 470 F. Supp. 471, 478; In re Armored 20 Car Antitrust Litig. (N.D. Ga. 1979) 472 F. Supp. 1357, 1368; Sommers v. Abraham Lincoln
21 Federal Sav. & Loan Ass’n (E.D. Pa. 1978) 79 F.R.D. 571, 580.

22 While the recommendations of counsel proposing the settlement are not conclusive, the 23 Court can properly take them into account, particularly where, as here, such counsel have been 24 involved in informal discovery and negotiations for some period of time, appear to be competent, 25 have experience with this type of litigation, and have exchanged substantial evidence with the 26 opposing party. See Newberg on Class Actions, supra, § 11.47; In re Paine Webber Ltd. P’ships
27 Litig. (S.D.N.Y. 1997) 171 F.R.D. 104, 125 (“[s]o long as the integrity of the arm’s-length 28 negotiation process is preserved, however, a strong initial presumption of fairness attaches to the

1 proposed settlement . . . [citations] and ‘great weight’ is accorded to the recommendations of 2 counsel, who are most closely acquainted with the facts of the underlying litigation”); see Gaines
3 Decl. ¶¶ 2-5, 13-27.

4 Here, the Parties’ counsel have a great deal of experience in class action litigation and 5 specialize in employment wage and hour matters. Moreover, counsel for both Parties conducted 6 an extensive investigation of the factual allegations involved in this case. The Parties have engaged 7 in a broad exchange of documents, data, records and other information. Each side has apprised the 8 other, informally and at a formal mediation, of their respective factual contentions, legal theories 9 and defenses, resulting in extensive arm’s-length negotiations taking place among the Parties. See 10 Gaines Decl. ¶¶ 2-5, 13-27.

11 1. The Settlement Falls Within The “Ballpark” of Reasonableness

12 The Court must make an “independent assessment of the reasonableness of the terms of the 13 settlement” prior to granting preliminary and final approval. Clark v. American Residential 14 Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168
15 Cal.App.4th 116, 127-28, 130, 133. To do so requires the Parties to submit “basic information 16 about the nature and magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the 17 consideration being paid for the release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise.” 18 Clark, supra, 175 Cal.App.4th at 800. However, the Court should not “attempt to decide the merits 19 of the case or to substitute its evaluation of the most appropriate settlement for that of the attorneys.”
20 Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at 133.

21 Plaintiffs’ counsel created a damage analysis using information obtained through informal 22 discovery—however, due to a lack of time records (which formed the basis for the vast majority of 23 claims), Plaintiff is unable to determine the actual violations at issue and requires testimony to 24 determine the respective damages for each cause of action. This analysis reveals that the negotiated 25 settlement falls within a realistic range of recovery on Class Members’ claims. Gaines Decl. ¶ 13.

26 Plaintiff claims that Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all minimum and 27 overtime wages earned during the course of employment, in violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1174, 28 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, and 1198. Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to be on on-call

1 all day, but they were never paid for this on-call time. Furthermore, Defendant paid Plaintiff and 2 Class Members straight time wages only, with no adjustment for premium overtime wages by 3 requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of 8 hours per day and 40 hours per week, 4 but were not always properly compensated for work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in a 5 workday at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Plaintiff and Class 6 Members were also required to work off-the-clock, without pay. They were not compensated for 7 time spent completing pre-shift and post-shift activities, or for time spent responding to phone calls 8 and text messages from Defendant regarding work-related matters, all outside of their scheduled 9 shift. Defendant also failed to maintain accurate records, including for employees' start and end 10 times for every shift, including on-call shifts. Due to a lack of records exhibiting this claim, Plaintiff 11 was unable to precisely value these violations. Plaintiff estimates the damage liability for this claim 12 based on 30 minutes of unpaid wages per day at up to approximately $417,312 and PAGA civil 13 penalty liability for this claim at $190,700. Gaines Decl. ¶ 17.

14 Plaintiff also asserts that Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members premium 15 wages for missed, denied and unauthorized rest periods in violation of Labor Code § 226.7 and 16 IWC Wage Order 5-2001. Plaintiff and other Class Members contend that they were denied, and 17 therefore unable to take, 10-minute on-the-clock rest periods for every four hours of work or major 18 fraction thereof, but were not paid premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed, denied and 19 unauthorized rest period. When they were able to take a rest period, they allege that they were 20 oftentimes on-duty, late or cut short. Based on a 50% violation rate, estimated based on Plaintiff's 21 experience, he calculates the damage liability for this claim at up to $297,630.00 and PAGA civil 22 penalty liability totaling up to $95,350. Gaines Decl. ¶ 18.

23 Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to permit or authorize Plaintiff and Class 24 Members to take timely 30-minute meal periods for shifts greater than 5 hours in length, in violation 25 of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558 and IWC Wage Order 5-2001. Based on an analysis of a 26 sampling of Defendant's records, Plaintiff has ascertained a meal period violation rate of 54.5%.
27 Plaintiff calculates premium wages on this claim at up to $317,538 and PAGA civil penalty liability 28 for this claim at $104,000. Gaines Decl. ¶ 19.

1 Plaintiff also contends that Defendant failed to reimburse all business expenses incurred by 2 Plaintiff and Class Members, in violation of Labor Code § 2802. Plaintiff and Class Members were 3 required to use their personal cell phones to perform work for Defendant, but were not fully 4 reimbursed for these expenses. Plaintiff calculates the PAGA civil penalty liability for this claim at 5 $190,700.00 (class wide damages are simply not calculable). Gaines Decl. ¶ 20.

6 Plaintiff also contends that Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members access 7 to payroll records and personnel records, in violation of Labor Code 226(c), 432, and 1198.5.
8 Plaintiff requested to inspect or receive a copy of his payroll records and personnel records by 9 written request, but Defendants failed to timely provide him access. Plaintiff, however, is unable to 10 calculate damage liability on these claims, but any liability is nominal. Gaines Decl. ¶ 21.

11 Plaintiff also argues that Defendant failed to issue Plaintiff and Class Members accurately 12 itemized wage statements. This is a derivative claim premised on the unpaid wages claims alleged.
13 As such, the wage statements provided by Defendants failed to accurately state all gross wages 14 earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1) total hours worked, in violation of Labor Code §
15 226(a)(2), net wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5), and all applicable hourly rates
16 in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of Labor 17 Code § 226(a)(9). Plaintiff calculates the statutory penalty liability for this claim at up to $145,350 18 and PAGA civil penalty liability for this claim at $190,700. Gaines Decl. ¶ 22.

19 Defendant also allegedly failed to pay Plaintiff and certain Class Members all wages due 20 timely upon separation of employment, in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203 and 227.3. When 21 Plaintiff left his employment with Defendants, he was not paid all his accrued, but unused, vacation
22 wages (which may have been an individual claim to Plaintiff only). Thus, this is a derivative claim 23 for which Plaintiff calculates the statutory penalty liability at $993,600 and PAGA civil penalty 24 liability at $13,600. Gaines Decl. ¶ 23.

25 Finally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due and owing during 26 employment, in violation of Labor Code §§ 201.3(b)(6), 204(d), 204b, and 210. Aggrieved 27 Employees were employed as security guards who were placed at various clients of Defendants in 28 California. As a result of this arrangement, they were required to be paid their wages on a weekly

1 basis. Defendants, however, failed to do so—instead, they paid Aggrieved Employees on a bi-2 weekly basis, and their wages were therefore issued far more than 7 days after the conclusion of 3 the weekly pay period in which they worked. Separately, Aggrieved Employees were also not 4 timely paid all wages due during their employment, as Defendants paid Aggrieved Employees on 5 a bi-weekly basis, but sometimes failed to issue them all their wages within seven calendar days of 6 the conclusion of the payroll period. Defendants would sometimes forget to pay Aggrieved 7 Employees for all hours worked during a pay period. Defendants would wait until the next pay 8 period to issue these owed wages to Aggrieved Employees. This claim was alleged pursuant to 9 PAGA only and affects every pay periods, yielding PAGA civil penalty liability of $190,700.
10 Gaines Decl. ¶ 24.

11 The compromise reached here is fair and reasonable considering the factual and legal 12 disputes among the Parties, the defenses raised by Defendant as to class certification and the merits 13 of Plaintiff’s claims, and the risk the Court would reduce or eliminate any award of penalties, and 14 the fact that Defendant has a limited ability to pay any judgment due to considerable financial 15 constraints. Defendant strongly contends that its policies and practices do not violate any laws. It 16 contends that it properly paid all wages due during employment and upon separation of 17 employment, provided all applicable meal and rest periods, and that the wage statements it provided 18 to its employees were fully compliant with California law. Gaines Decl. ¶ 25.

19 When the costs and risks of non-certification and loss on the merits are considered, 20 Plaintiff’s counsel are of the opinion that the Settlement reached is clearly a favorable one. Gaines 21 Decl. ¶¶ 13-27.

22 The settlement for each Class Member is fair, reasonable and adequate, given the inherent 23 risk of litigation, the risk relative to class certification and the costs of pursuing such litigation. The 24 settlement shall finally resolve all claims of the Class Members as alleged in the Action. Gaines 25 Decl. ¶ 27.

1 2. Despite the Asserted Fairness of the Settlement Terms, Class Members
2 May Request Exclusion From, Or Object To, The Settlement

3 Despite the asserted fairness of the settlement terms, any potential Class Member who 4 objects to the terms of the settlement set forth in the Settlement has the right to submit a request for 5 exclusion (i.e., opt out) from the settlement, pursuant to which the Class Member would otherwise 6 retain any claim he or she may have against Defendant.

7 Moreover, Class Members who do not opt out may, upon providing proper notice to the 8 Parties and the Court, attend the final fairness and approval hearing for the purpose of objecting to 9 one or more of the settlement terms set forth in the Settlement.

10 V. CONCLUSION

11 Based on the foregoing, as part of its preliminary approval of the settlement, the Parties 12 request that the Court enter an order:

- 13 1. Preliminarily finding that the settlement falls within the range of reasonableness and 14 approving the proposed settlement;
- 15 2. Conditionally certifying, for settlement purposes only, the Settlement Class;
- 16 3. Provisionally appointing Plaintiff Maurice Mack as the Class Representative;
- 17 4. Provisionally appointing Gaines Law Corporation as Class Counsel;
- 18 5. Provisionally approving ILYM Group, Inc. as Settlement Administrator;
