If called as a witness, I could and would competently testify to those facts under oath.

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL AND NOTICE TO CLASS MEMBERS

4. Pursuant to the Order, on June 5, 2025, the settlement administrator Phoenix Settlement Administrators (“Phoenix”), mailed the Class Notice to the 1,330 class members. (See Declaration of Jarrod Salinas).

6. No class members have objected to the Settlement, and not one class member has requested exclusion from the Settlement. The average payment to each class member is approximately $735.

- (3) Settlement administrator expenses of $14,950;

- (5) Class representative enhancement: $10,000 for the named Plaintiff.

8. This case arises out of wage and hour violations by Defendant GLS US Freight, Defendant”) against its current and former California employees. On November 30, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint, and thereafter amended the Complaint to include a California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA) claim action on May 29, 2024. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s First Amended Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

10. Prior to attending Mediation, Defendant provided Plaintiffs with class-wide data which Plaintiffs' Counsel could extrapolate a damage analysis in preparation of mediation. There are a total of 1,330 Class Members and 102,450 workweeks in the Class Period. There are 81 aggrieved employees and 18,427 pay periods within the PAGA Period. (Salinas Decl. ¶¶ 10-11)

DECLARATION OF AARON A. BARTZ IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT

Waiting Time Penalties; 3) Failure to Provide Meal Periods; 4) Failure to Authorize and Permit Proper Rest Periods; 5) Failure to Properly Maintain and Submit Itemized Wage Statements; 6) Unfair Business Practices; 7) Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses; and 8) Violation of Labor Code § 2699 (PAGA). Plaintiff further alleges that he and the Class are entitled to damages, restitution, wages, attorneys' fees, and interest, among other remedies. The reasonable exposure and the reasonable settlement value for each of the alleged claims are as follows:

CLAIM	TOTAL EXPOSURE	SETTLEMENT VALUE
Failure to Pay Wages	$2,747,540	$274,754
Meal	$5,273,022	$527,302
Rest	$6,015,334	$601,533
Waiting time	$5,618,793	$561,879
Paystub	$1,606,450	$160,645
Reimbursement	$1,519,608	$151,960
PAGA	$11,316,300	$565,815
TOTAL	$34,097,047	$2,843,888

a. Overtime/Off-the Clock Wage Violations

Labor Code § 510 provides that “[a]ny work in excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek. . . shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee.” Further, “[a]ny work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay . . ., [and] any work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of an employee.”

Labor Code § 1194 states any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage is entitled to recover the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

1 Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to pay all wages due in numerous respects. First,
2 Plaintiff asserts and will testify that Plaintiff and the class were trained and required to do pre-trip
3 vehicle inspections prior to clocking in for their shifts and were not compensated for this off-the-
4 clock time. Off-the-clock time is compensable when an employer knows or should have known
5 the employees are working off-the-clock time. See Morillion v. Royal Packing Co., 22 Cal.4th 575,
6 585 (2000). Plaintiff asserts that such pre-trip inspection time is unquestionably compensable
7 because Plaintiff and other drivers were instructed by Defendant's supervisors and managers to 8 arrive before their shifts and perform such inspections to maximize their ability to meet strict
9 delivery schedules which resulted in violations of Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194, and the relevant
10 California Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

11 Second, Plaintiff contends that he and other drivers were subject to Defendant's unlawful 12 10 hour per day and 50 hour per week overtime policy and were not compensated for shifts
13 longer than 10 hours per day or workweeks longer than 50 hours. Defendant argues that Plaintiff 14 and other drivers were not subject to overtime requirements because they were subject to 15 Department of Transportation regulations and the Motor Carrier Act. However, Plaintiff asserts 16 that simply because the "interstate commerce" requirement may be met for certain purposes,
17 does not mean that interstate commerce is met for the purposes of receiving overtime. Baird v.
18 Wagoner Transp. Co., 425 F.2d 407, 410 (6th Cir. 1970). Further, "[i]f the truck does not cross
19 state lines, and if the goods the truck is carrying do not constitute goods in interstate commerce. .
20 ., the driver is not exempt under the federal regulations." (See DLSE Policies and Interpretations 21 Manual, § 50.8.4.) The Interstate Commerce Commission has held that interstate commerce is 22 not found where, among other things, "the terminal storage is a distribution point or local 23 marketing facility from which specific amounts of the product are sold or allocated," and 24 "transportation in the furtherance of this distribution within the single State is specifically 25 arranged only after sale or allocation from storage." See 29 C.F.R. 782.7(b)(2). As such 26 Plaintiff continues to assert that many drivers, including Plaintiff, who drove local routes 27
28

1 between fixed terminals, and only performed intrastate deliveries, should be entitled to overtime
2 and were not compensated for such overtime.

3 Class Counsel and their expert analyzed payroll and time records for the class members
4 and calculated that the total verdict value for this claim is approximately $2,747,540. Class
5 Counsel and their expert assumed 15 minutes per shift of unpaid hours, based on discussions
6 with the Plaintiff and other class members. Plaintiff's expert reviewed payroll records for the 7 class, including pay period counts per year, and a weighted average rate of pay. Based on the 8 defenses alleged, as well as fact that the failure to pay wage claims will rest on testimony from 9 Plaintiff and class members, and documented evidence of such violations is scant, Plaintiff
10 placed a reasonable settlement value of the overtime/minimum wage claim at ten percent of the 11 total verdict value, or $274,754. This valuation takes into consideration Class Counsel's analysis
12 of the law, and evidence produced by the Defendant.

13
14 b. Meal and Rest Period Claims

15 i. Meal period liability and damages

16 Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and class members with a
17 duty-free 30-minute meal period for every five hours of work as is required by Labor Code § 512
18 and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) and in violation of Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior
19 Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004 (2012). Failure to provide a meal in accordance with the applicable Wage
20 Order(s) results in payment by the employer of one additional hour of pay at the employee's
21 regular rate of pay for each workday that the rest or meal period is not provided. (Labor Code §
22 226.7.) Defendant also cannot create "incentives to forego, or otherwise encourage[] the skipping
23 of legally protected breaks." Brinker, supra, 53 Cal.4th at 1040. Moreover, when time records
24 show short, missed, and late meal periods, there is a presumption that an employer violated
25 California's meal period requirements. See Donohue v. AMN Services, LLC, 11 Cal.5th 58, 78
26 (2021) ("If time records show noncompliant meal periods, then a rebuttable presumption of 27 liability arises.")

1 Plaintiff contends that, although Defendant's meal period policies are facially valid,
2 Defendant's practice of administering these policies is unlawful. First, Plaintiff contends that
3 Defendant's time records show substantial violations, which under Donahue, create a
4 presumption that Defendant was not in compliance with the law.

5 Second, Plaintiff asserts that, despite the substantial violations in the time records, there
6 were infrequent meal period premiums paid during the class period and that the dearth of meal
7 period premiums paid demonstrates that Defendant had a pattern and practice of neglecting to 8 pay meal period premiums for meals which were late, short, interrupted, missed, or on-duty.

9 Notwithstanding the above, Defendant contends that Plaintiff and class members had the 10 ability and in fact did take meal periods, and that if they did not, it was their own choice, and 11 therefore not actionable. Defendant further contends that that truck drivers are not entitled to 12 meal periods, as the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration's (FMCSA) orders preempt
13 California's meal period rules.

14 In response to Defendant's contentions, Plaintiff asserts that the FMCSA's orders apply
15 to interstate commerce, not to purely intrastate travel such as Plaintiff's and other drivers.
16 Further, Plaintiff contends that Defendant has obligated itself within its own policies and 17 procedures to provide meal periods, so Defendant cannot after the fact argue that it does not need 18 to comply with its own policies.

19 Class Counsel and their expert calculated the maximum verdict value of the meal break
20 claim to be approximately $5,273,022. This calculation is based on a 40% violation rate for the 21 class members, and average rate of pay based on the payroll data for the class. Based on 22 discussions with Plaintiff and interviews of other Class Members, and the defenses raised,
23 Plaintiff believes he had a ten percent probability of recovering all of these damages.
24 Accordingly, Plaintiff contends the reasonable exposure of the meal break claim is 25 approximately $527,302.

26 ii. Rest period liability and damages

27 Section 12(A) of the IWC Wage Order(s) states: "Every employer shall authorize and 28

1 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of
2 each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily
3 at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof. However,
4 a rest period need not be authorized for employees whose total daily work time is less than three
5 and one-half (3½) hours. Authorized rest period time shall be counted as hours worked for which 6 there shall be no deduction from wages.”

7 Section 12(B) of the IWC Wage Order(s) states: “If an employer fails to provide an 8 employee a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer
9 shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for 10 each workday that the rest period is not provided.” Moreover, during rest periods, “employees 11 must not only be relieved of work duties, but also be freed from employer control over how they 12 spend their time.” Augustus v. ABM Sec. Servs., Inc., 2 Cal.5th 257, 270 (2016). Further, when 13 an employer adopts common policies that prevent employees from taking their rest breaks, it
14 presents a common factual issue by which liability may follow. See Jaimez v. Daiohs USA, Inc., 15 181 Cal.App.4th 1286, 1304 (2010). Indeed, “[t]he wage orders and governing statute do not 16 countenance an employer’s exerting coercion against the taking of, creating incentives to forego, 17 or otherwise encouraging the skipping of legally protected breaks.” Brinker, supra, 53 Cal.4th at 18 1040.

19 Plaintiff contends that Defendant did not authorize or permit Plaintiff or the class
20 members duty-free rest periods for several reasons. First, with respect to Plaintiff and other 21 drivers, Plaintiff asserts that when Plaintiff and other drivers attempted to take rest periods, they
22 were admonished for doing so, as Defendant required Plaintiff and other drivers to carry a tablet
23 with them tracking their location and delivery time. Whenever Plaintiff and other drivers
24 detoured from their expected deliveries, they were immediately contacted on their personal cell
25 phones and questioned about why they were taking a break. As such, Plaintiff and other drivers
26 simply did not take their rest periods, because if they did, they were disciplined.

1 Second, Plaintiff's damages analysis fairly estimates the same violation rate of 40% as
2 applied to the meal periods. Defendant's record sampling reflected that no premium payments
3 were attributed to any rest period violations. A complete lack of premium pay "would require
4 perfection or, more likely, a 'deep, system-wide error' in failing to pay such premiums." In re
5 Tea Station Inv., 2021 Bankr. LEXIS 2985, at *22 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 26, 2021). In Safeway v.
6 Superior Court (2015) 238 Cal. App. 4th 1138, 1153, the Court counseled against arguments that 7 are based on human perfection.

8 Defendant again argues that the FMCSA orders preempt drivers' rest period claims. For 9 the same reasons as stated above, Plaintiff believes that the FMCSA orders are inapplicable here.

10 Class Counsel and their expert assumed a 40% violation rate for all shifts by class
11 members of 3.5 hours or more. Based on that assumption, Class Counsel calculated total 12 violations across the class, multiplied by an average rate of pay for the class members. As such,
13 Class Counsel calculated the maximum verdict value of the rest period claims to be 14 approximately $6,015,334. Based on the defenses raised, the difficulty of proving rest period
15 violations on a class wide basis, and the lack of objective evidence proving such violations,
16 Plaintiff believes he had a ten percent chance of recovering all of the rest period damages. As 17 such, Plaintiff believes the reasonable exposure of the rest break claim is approximately 18 $601,533.

19 c. Waiting Time Penalty

20 The waiting time penalty claim is purely derivative. Class Counsel analyzed the data to 21 find that there are approximately 987 former employees included in the putative class that would 22 be eligible for the Labor Code §203 penalties. Class Counsel calculated the total verdict value at 23 approximately $5,618,793. This amount was calculated by multiplying the average daily rate of 24 pay during the statutory period by 30, which is the maximum number of days allowable as 25 waiting time penalties under section 203, and then multiplying that by the total number of former 26 employees. Plaintiff further discounted the waiting time penalty claim based on risk and the fact
27 that waiting time penalties are not awarded if a good faith dispute exists as to whether the wages were owing, including whether in fact non-California based employees would be entitled to waiting time penalties. Further, the class would have the burden of proving a “willful” withholding of wages. Plaintiff considered that under Labor Code §203 there is only a penalty if "an employer willfully fails to pay" all wages due to an employee upon separation. Willfulness does not exist if there is a "good faith dispute," in fact or law that wages were due, even if the employer's reasoning ultimately proves incorrect. Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1204; 8 Cal. Code Regs. § 13520 ("A 'good faith dispute' that any wages are due occurs when an employer presents a defense, based in law or fact which, if successful, would preclude any recover on the part of the employee. The fact that a defense is ultimately unsuccessful will not preclude a finding that a good faith dispute did exist.")

Once Plaintiff determined the maximum reasonable exposure of the claim, Plaintiff placed a settlement value of $561,879 or approximately ten percent of the reasonable exposure value, based upon the above discounts applied to the reasonable value of the claim.

d. Paystub

As to the paystub penalty, which is derivative of the other claims identified above, Class Counsel arrived at a maximum reasonable exposure of this claim of approximately $1,606,450. This figure was arrived at by assuming that each wage statement that was provided to the class members violated LC §226, and multiplying the number of pay periods during the statutory period by $50 for initial violations, and $100 for subsequent violations.

Defendant argues that, even assuming there are any violations, which they deny, the fact that derivative violations were minor and that the Defendant had presented evidence of a good faith dispute as to any violation. Hurst v. Buczek Enters., LLC (N.D. Cal. 2012) 870 F.Supp.2d 810, 829 (no section 226 violation where the employer "makes a good faith claim" in its defense); Harris v. Vector Mktg. Corp. (2009) 656 F.Supp.2d 1128, 1146 (N.D. Cal. 2009) (the "employer did not knowingly and intentionally fail to provide itemized wage statements" where there was a "good faith dispute").

Based on the raised defenses, as well as the risk of certification and related risks of 1 proving all violations, Plaintiff has placed a reasonable settlement value of $160,645 or ten

2 percent of the reasonable exposure of the pay stub claim.

3 e. Reimbursement Claim

4 California Labor Code section 2802(a) provides:

5 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures
6 or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his 7 or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even 8 though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, 9 believed them to be unlawful.

10 Plaintiff contends that that he and other class members also used their personal cell
11 phones to review their shift schedules and communicate with managers and supervisors about 12 work business, without reimbursement. See Cochran v. Schwan's Home Serv., Inc., 228 Cal.
13 App. 4th 1137, 1144 (2014) (finding that reimbursement for personal cell phone usage required 14 when mandatory for performing one's job).

16 In Cochran, the court stated: "The threshold question in this case is this: Does an 17 employer always have to reimburse an employee for the reasonable expense of the mandatory
18 use of a personal cell phone, or is the reimbursement obligation limited to the situation in which
19 the employee incurred an extra expense that he or she would not have otherwise incurred absent
20 the job? The answer is that reimbursement is always required. Otherwise, the employer would 21 receive a windfall because it would be passing its operating expenses on to the employee. Thus,
22 to be in compliance with section 2802, the employer must pay some reasonable percentage of the 23 employee's cell phone bill." Id. at 1144.

24 Defendant contends that it paid for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by 25 Plaintiff and class members, and that the reimbursement claim has little to no value.

26 Plaintiff contends that this claim is valued at $1,519,608 based upon expenses per month
27 calculations throughout the class period. Given the fact that there are individualized issues in 28

1 proving reimbursement violations and damages, Plaintiff believes this claim's reasonable value
2 is $151,960, or ten percent of the total value.

3 f. PAGA

4 Plaintiff contends that PAGA penalties are owed based on the numerous alleged Labor
5 Code violations identified above. Once a PAGA violation is found, a court must award civil 6 penalties. See Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1211-1213.

7 Nevertheless, a court has discretion to reduce the award of civil penalties if it finds that "based
8 on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award
9 that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory." Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).

10 Significantly, moreover, because it is an open question regarding the Defendant's
11 liability, there is a very real possibility that a court would substantially reduce the penalties, even 12 if they are proven. See, e.g., Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., 2011 WL 7563047, *3-4 (C.D. Cal.
13 2011) (reducing penalties from $2.8 million to $500,000 based on wage statement violations
14 because to assess full penalties would be unjust and arbitrary); Thurman v. Bayshore Transit
15 Mgmt., Inc., 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1134 (2012) (reduction of PAGA penalties by 30% affirmed 16 on appeal).

17 Class Counsel and their expert calculated the reasonable PAGA penalties to be valued at 18 $11,316,300, which includes the stacking of penalties for numerous violations, as set forth
19 above. Based on the uncertainty of recovery on Plaintiff's claims, Plaintiff believes the PAGA
20 claim's reasonable value is five percent of the total value, or approximately $565,815.

21 g. Total Damage Exposure¹

22 Plaintiff believes that the $1,600,000 settlement achieved in this case is very good for the 23 class members. Based upon a reasonable exposure value of $2,843,888, the settlement
24

25 ¹ The Unfair Competition claim is subsumed into the Kullar analysis above. The Unfair
26 Competition claim is based upon the wage and hour violations, and adds an extra year of 27 damages, and is included within the above analysis.
28

1 represents approximately 56% of that total value. Given the many defenses raised, the
2 uncertainty of the certifiability of any class, and the risks of going to trial, Class Counsel believe
3 this settlement is a very good result for all of the class members.

4 12. Plaintiff submits this amount is reasonable under the circumstances and in line with 5 comparable settlements in other wage and hour class actions in California. E.g., Van Kempen v.
6 Matheson Tri-Gas, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Aug. 25, 2017) 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 137182 (granting final
7 approval of $5,000 PAGA penalty from $370,000 settlement, or 1.4 percent of total settlement);
8 Slavkov v. First Water Heater Partners I (N.D. Cal. July 25, 2017) 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 116303
9 (finding a $7,500 PAGA payment reasonable when measured against the overall settlement of 10 $345,000 and the possible weaknesses in plaintiffs' case, or 2.2 percent of total settlement).
11 Additionally, the LWDA has been informed of the terms of the PAGA portion of the settlement,
12 and will be able to weigh in as necessary. Jennings v. Open Door Mktg. Inc. (N.D. Cal. Oct. 3,
13 2018) 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 171356, at *27 (approving settlement with PAGA penalties of 0.6%
14 where "[p]laintiffs [have] submitted the settlement agreement to the LWDA, and the LWDA has 15 not objected to the settlement.

16 13. Thus, Plaintiff and his counsel discounted the value of the class claims consistent
17 with the risks discussed above. They carefully weighed the likelihood of the class receiving 18 substantially greater benefit if the litigation continued, and concluded – in light of these very real
19 and substantial risks – settlement on the proposed terms and without prolonged and costly litigation
20 was in the best interests of the class. The overall $1,600,000 recovery represents a significant 21 percentage of Defendant's potential exposure and, given Defendant's multi-layered defenses and 22 all other potential risks of continued litigation, a total recovery for the class of $1,600,000, which 23 will result in average award of at least $735 per class member, plus additional sums under PAGA,
24 is a significant result well within the range of reasonableness considering all potential outcomes,
25 and it will provide direct monetary awards to all Class Members without further delay.

15. I graduated from Vanderbilt University in 1992 with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and English, and graduated from Southwestern Law School in 1998. Since becoming a lawyer in 1998, my practice has focused on complex litigation matters, and for more than a decade, complex employment law and wage and hour matters.

16. I am a member of the California State Bar, the Orange County Bar Association, Los Angeles County Bar Association, and California Employment Lawyers Association. I have an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell, the highest possible rating for a lawyer. During my 27+ year career, I have handled many successful employment law matters both at the trial and appellate levels. I estimate that I have represented plaintiffs in hundreds of employment cases, the vast majority of which have resulted in favorable settlements, awards and/or verdicts for my clients. I have successfully prosecuted and obtained significant recoveries in several class action lawsuits and other lawsuits involving complex legal and factual issues. In 2015, I was co-lead counsel in Walsh v. Pacific Bell, which settled for $16,800,000. Recently, in October 2023, I was also co-lead counsel in Skerl v. Sutter Bay Hospitals, in which final approval was granted for a $12,000,000 settlement for health care workers. I have also been involved in many other million and multi-million dollar verdicts and settlements over the years.

17. In addition to myself, Rex J. Phillips, an attorney with over 19 years of experience, also assisted me with the prosecution of this case. Mr. Phillips graduated with Honors from Glendale University College of Law, achieved a B.A. in English from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, and has many years of experience prosecuting employment actions, including wage and hour class and representative actions.

18. Moreover, assisting Mr. Phillips and I on this case were paralegals Nestor Mejia and Leanne Nguyen-Phuoc. Mr. Mejia has an AA from West Los Angeles College in Business Administration, and has many years of experience working on employment and wage and hour matters, including PAGA and complex class actions, for my firm and others within California. Ms. Nguyen-Phuoc has a BA from University of California, Irvine (UCI), and attained a paralegal certificate from UCI in 2023. Ms. Nguyen-Phuoc has worked on various employment and wage and hour matters for the past year.

CLASS REPRESENTATIVE ENHANCEMENT

19. Plaintiff Stetson Whitehead has been intimately involved in the prosecution of this case from the beginning. Prior to filing this case, I spent numerous hours talking to Plaintiff about the wage and hour issues that he experienced while working for Defendant, and worked with him in developing the theories of the case. Mr. Whitehead was very helpful in connecting Class Counsel to other putative class members who experienced similar wage and hour violations, and assisted with interpreting the documents produced in informal discovery. Plaintiff also assisted in the preparation for mediation, and has produced payroll and other employment records to assist Class Counsel in pursuing the claims in this case.

1 20. In addition, Mr. Whitehead is releasing all claims, not just wage and hour claims,
2 as part of his release in this case. As such, Plaintiff's release includes a waiver of unknown
3 claims and their rights under California Civil Code § 1542.

4 21. Mr. Whitehead has been diligent in every aspect of this case, throughout the pre-
5 filing and discovery, attending mediation, and ensuring that the class received the best resolution
6 possible in this case.

7 22. Based on the work that he has done for the class in this case, the risks of this
8 litigation, I believe Mr. Whitehead is entitled to his enhancement award of $10,000.

9 ATTORNEYS FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES

10 23. Percentage of the Benefit Method. This Settlement is a $1.6 million non-11 reversionary common fund, and Class Counsel's request is for one-third of the settlement, or 12 $533,333. Based on my experience, fee awards of one-third of a common fund class action are 13 common and within the range regularly awarded by Courts throughout California.

14 24. Based on my experience, attorneys' fees equal to one-third of the money
15 recovered by settlement likewise replicate the most common contingency arrangement in the 16 legal marketplace. The most common contingency arrangement is between one-third and 40% of 17 the recovery, based on my professional experience, and in fact, the fee agreements entered into 18 between Class Counsel and Plaintiffs also call for a contingency percentage of up to 40%.

19 25. Lodestar Cross-Check Method. Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees, if 20 cross-checked under the lodestar method, currently includes a 3.6 multiplier. Specifically:

21 a. Class Counsel, including attorneys and paralegals from my firm, Bartz
22 Law Group, APC and United Employees Law Group PC, have collectively spent over 170 hours
23 on this matter to date, with a collective lodestar of approximately $146,000. Based on 24 experience, I anticipate that Class Counsel will spend at least 25 hours preparing for the hearing
25 on the motion for final approval, talking to class members, working with the settlement 26 administrator, preparing for and attending the final approval hearing, and preparing responses to 27 any potential objections. Attached as Exhibit 4 is a true and correct copy of the attorneys' fees
28

1 incurred by Bartz Law Group APC in this case. The fees incurred were reasonable and
2 necessary in order to prosecute this case. These rates are well within reasonable market rates in 3 Southern California, and generally modest when compared to other employment law attorneys
4 with comparable experience, and do not reflect the risk with this being a contingency case.

5 b. Class Counsel has also exercised billing discretion, and not billed for 6 every phone call, email reviewed, and the like. Moreover, Class Counsel has cut duplicative
7 hours that were not reasonably necessary to the resolution of this case.

8 c. Class Counsel consisting of Bartz Law Group, APC (“BLG”) and United 9 Employees Law Group PC (“UELG”) have agreed to split the fees in this case as follows: 2/3 to 10 BLG and 1/3 to UELG. Plaintiff has agreed to this fee split, and attached as Exhibit 5 is a true
11 and correct copy of the fee split agreement.

12 e. Based on my professional experience and expertise in class actions and 13 class litigation, the factual and legal complexity of this case required that it be actively litigated
14 by experienced counsel. As such, I performed the lion’s share of work in this case to ensure a 15 successful outcome for the class members.

16 f. I believe a multiplier of 3.6 is fully justified and reasonable in this case.
17 That is my belief for a number of reasons, including:

18 i. Class Counsel took this case on a full contingency basis, and in 19 doing so expected a risk enhancement if we prevailed.

20 ii. Class Counsel’s hourly rates do not reflect the risk associated with 21 this being a contingency case.

22 iii. As noted above, based on my experience these rates are reasonable
23 and commensurate with prevailing market rates for attorneys of Class Counsel’s experience, skill
24 and expertise.

25 iv. I know from experience that class action litigation is risky. Class 26 action litigation is performed on a contingency basis (i.e., we only get paid if we recover for 27 plaintiff and the class) and requires us to advance all litigation costs. This particular case involved many legal uncertainties, including whether federal law preempted many of the claims, as discussed above, which made the case especially risky. Moreover, when we took this case, we committed ourselves to fronting all the expenses through trial and appeal without any guarantee of repayment.
28

v. The complexity and novelty of the issues presented was substantial, as discussed above.

vi. Despite the novel and complex issues involved, we staffed this case very lean, with myself, Mr. Haines and an associate performing the bulk of the work, to ensure that we were as efficient as possible, and to avoid duplication of work.

vii. Class Counsel displayed skill and efficiency in proving the claims against Defendant, and Class Counsel was able to settle this case for a sizable amount in far less time than would be required had less experienced and skillful attorneys handled this case, based on my observations of other class action settlements over the many years I have been practicing.

viii. Based upon my experience, Class Counsel's current requested 3.6 multiplier is in line with other complex cases, including those within the wage and hour context.

26. Class Counsel has also incurred reasonable and necessary costs to prosecute this action, including filing fees, mediation fees, and expert fees, among others. Class Counsel therefore requests costs of $14,000. Attached as Exhibit 6 are Bartz Law Group APC attorneys' costs incurred in connection with this case.

27. The settlement administrator Phoenix requests 14,950 in fees and costs to administer the settlement. Based on my experience in prosecuting wage and hour class actions, Phoenix's expenses of $14,950 to administer the settlement is fair and reasonable, and should be approved.

1 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the foregoing is true
2 and correct. Executed on September 4, 2025, at Irvine, California.

3. MONETARY TERMS.

- 3.1. Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant promises to pay One Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,600,000.00) and no more as the Gross Settlement Amount, and to separately pay any and all applicable employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments. Defendant agrees to pay the Gross Settlement Amount, which is the total and all-inclusive amount that Defendant will be obligated to pay under the Settlement embodied by this Agreement. Except as set forth in Paragraph 9, under no circumstances shall the Settlement sum exceed the sum of $1,600,000.00, inclusive of class payments, PAGA penalties, and attorney fees and costs. Defendant has no obligation to pay the Gross Settlement Amount (or any payroll taxes) prior to the deadline stated in Paragraph 4.3 of this Agreement. The Administrator will disburse the entire Gross Settlement Amount without asking or requiring Participating Class Members or Aggrieved Employees to submit any claim as a condition of payment. None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.
- 3.2. Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. The Administrator will make and deduct the following payments from the Gross Settlement Amount, in the amounts specified by the Court in the Final Approval:
- 3.3. To Plaintiff: Class Representative Service Payment in the amount of not more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) to the Class Representative, in addition to any Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating Class Member. Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff's request for the Class Representative Service Payment that does not exceed the above amount. If the Court approves a Class Representative Service Payment less than the amount requested, the remainder shall be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will pay the Class Representative Service Payment using IRS Form 1099. Plaintiff assumes full responsibility and liability for employee taxes owed on the Class Representative Service Payment.
- 3.4. To Class Counsel: A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than one-third, which is currently estimated to be Five Hundred Thirty-Three Thousand Three Hundred Thirty-Three Dollars ($533,333.00) and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than Twenty Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00). Defendant will not oppose requests for these payments provided that they do not exceed these amounts. If the Court approves a Class Counsel Fees Payment and/or a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment less than the amounts requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. Released Parties shall have no liability to Class Counsel or any other Plaintiff's Counsel arising from any claim to any portion of the Class Counsel Fees Payment and/or Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. The Administrator will pay the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment using one or more IRS 1099 Forms. Class Counsel assumes full responsibility and liability for taxes owed on the Class Counsel Fees Payment and the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment.
- 3.5. To the Administrator: An Administrator Expenses Payment not to exceed Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. To the extent the Administration Expenses are less or the Court approves payment less than $15,000, the Administrator will allocate the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount.

- 3.6. To Each Participating Class Member: An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.

3.6.1. Tax Allocation of Individual Class Payments. 20% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The 80% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.

3.6.2. Effect of Non-Participating Class Members on Calculation of Individual Class Payments. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Payments in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.

- 3.7. To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: PAGA Penalties in the amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, with 75% ($37,500.00) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($12,500.00) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.

3.7.1. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties of $12,500.00 by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.

3.7.2. If the Court approves PAGA Penalties of less than the amount requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

4. SETTLEMENT FUNDING AND PAYMENTS.

- 4.1. Class Workweeks and Aggrieved Employee Pay Periods. Based on a review of its records to date, Defendant estimates there are approximately 1,518 Class Members who collectively worked a total of 107,105 Workweeks from November 30, 2019 to September 1, 2024, and 871 PAGA Aggrieved Employees who worked a total of 19,618 PAGA Pay Periods from October 3, 2022 to September 1, 2024.

- 4.2. Class Data. Not later than 15 days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will simultaneously deliver the Class Data to the Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. To protect Class Members' privacy rights, the Administrator must maintain the Class Data in confidence, use the Class Data only for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Class Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Class Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. Defendant has a continuing duty to immediately notify Class Counsel if it discovers that the Class Data omitted class member identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Class Data as soon as reasonably feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which Defendant must send the Class Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted Class Data.

- 4.3. Funding of Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount within 20 days of the Effective Date. Defendant shall also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant's share of payroll taxes. All such funds shall be transmitted to the Administrator in accordance with the above schedule.
- 4.4. Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. Within 10 days after the Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual Class Payments, all Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class Representative's Service Payment.
 - 4.4.1. The Administrator will issue checks for the Individual Class Payments and/or Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class Members via First Class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid. The face of each check shall prominently state the date (not less than 180 days after the date of mailing) when the check will be voided. The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. The Administrator will send checks for Individual Settlement Payments to all Participating Class Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as Aggrieved Employees (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator may send Participating Class Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.
 - 4.4.2. The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class Members whose checks are returned undelivered without a USPS forwarding address. Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class

Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.

- 4.4.3. For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).
- 4.4.4. The payment of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments shall not obligate Defendant to confer any additional benefits or make any additional payments to Class Members (such as 401(k) contributions or bonuses) beyond those specified in this Agreement.

5. RELEASES OF CLAIMS. Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff, Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

- 5.1. Plaintiff's Release. Plaintiff fully releases and forever discharges Defendant and the Released Parties from any and all claims, causes of action, damages, wages, benefits, expenses, penalties, debts, liabilities, demands, obligations, attorney's fees, costs, and any other form of relief or remedy in law, equity, or whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected that arise from or are related to Plaintiff's employment by Defendant or the Action, including but not limited to: (1) the Action and any claims arising out of or related to the Action; (2) any claims under federal, state or local law for or relating to wages, benefits, compensation, vacation or other paid time off, and claims for liquidated damages, penalties, or costs and fees associated therewith, including under the California Labor Code; (3) wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation, including under the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Family Medical Leave Act, the California Family Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Equal Pay Act, the California Labor Code, the California Government Code, (4) any act, omission, or occurrence or claim arising out of or related to the Action or Plaintiff's employment or termination thereof with Defendant taking place on or before the Effective Date; and (5) any other form of relief or remedy of any kind, nature, or description whatsoever, whether premised on statute, contract, tort, or other theory of liability under state, federal, or local law. Plaintiff's Release does not extend to any claims or actions to enforce this Agreement, or to any claims for vested benefits, unemployment benefits, disability benefits, social security benefits, workers' compensation benefits that arose at any time, or based on occurrences outside the Class Period. Plaintiff acknowledges that Plaintiff may discover facts or law different from, or in addition to, the facts or law that Plaintiff now knows or believes to be true but agrees, nonetheless, that Plaintiff's Release shall be and remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such different or additional facts or Plaintiff's discovery of them.
- 5.2. Plaintiff's Waiver of Rights Under California Civil Code Section 1542. For purposes of Plaintiff's Release, Plaintiff expressly waives and relinquishes the provisions, rights, and benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, and that if known by him or her would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or Released Party.

- 5.3. Released Class Claims By Participating Class Members: All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Action and Plaintiff's PAGA Notice, including claims under the California Labor Code, California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, regulations, and/or other provisions of law, failure to pay wages (including, but not limited to, minimum wages, regular wages, overtime wages, failure to pay overtime at the regular rate, and double time wages), failure to provide compliant meal periods and associated premium pay, failure to provide compliant rest periods and associated premium pay, failure to provide compliant wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination of employment, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to maintain requisite payroll records, failure to reimburse expenses, including Labor Code sections 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1198, 2699, and 2802, and unfair or unlawful business practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The Released Class Claims also mean any claims, rights, demands, liabilities, damages, wages, benefits, expenses, penalties, debts, obligations, attorneys' fees, costs, any other form of relief or remedy in law, equity, or whatever kind or nature, and causes of action, that could potentially arise from the receipt of any monies as a result of this Settlement by any member of the Class.
- 5.3.1. Except as set forth in Paragraph 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.
- 5.4. Released PAGA Claims by Aggrieved Employees: All Aggrieved Employees, the State of California and Plaintiff shall be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, released, and discharged Released Parties from the claims for civil penalties that could have been sought by the Labor Commissioner for the violations of the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 identified or alleged in the PAGA Notice and/or the Action, or which could have been alleged based on the facts, allegations or claims in the PAGA Notice and/or the Action, during the PAGA Period. The Aggrieved Employees will be issued a check for their share of the individual PAGA payment and will not have the opportunity to opt out of, or object to, the individual PAGA payment and release of the PAGA claims set forth herein. The Aggrieved Employees are bound by the release of the PAGA claims regardless of whether they cash or deposit their individual PAGA payment or opt out of being a Class Member.

6. MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL. The Parties agree Plaintiff will prepare and file a motion for preliminary approval (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”).

- 6.1. Plaintiff’s Responsibilities. Plaintiff will prepare and deliver to Defense Counsel all documents necessary for obtaining Preliminary Approval, including: (i) a draft of the notice, and memorandum in support, of the Motion for Preliminary Approval that includes an analysis of the Settlement under Dunk/Kullar and a request for approval of the PAGA Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. (s)(2)); (ii) a draft proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval and Approval of PAGA Settlement; (iii) a draft proposed Class Notice; (iv) a signed declaration from the Administrator attaching its “not to exceed” bid for administering the Settlement and attesting to its willingness to serve; competency; and operative procedures for protecting the security of Class Data, and other documents reasonable and necessary to secure approval of the Settlement.
- 6.2. Responsibilities of Counsel. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel are jointly responsible for expeditiously finalizing and filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval no later than 30 days after the full execution of this Agreement; obtaining a prompt hearing date for the Motion for Preliminary Approval; and for appearing in Court to advocate in favor of the Motion for Preliminary Approval. Class Counsel is responsible for delivering the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order to the Administrator.
- 6.3. Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed Motion for Preliminary Approval, proposed Judgment, and/or the supporting declarations and documents, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to modify the Agreement and otherwise satisfy the Court’s concerns.
- 6.4. Plaintiff’s Counsel shall submit a copy of the proposed settlement to the LWDA at the same time that it is submitted to the Court pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(s)(2). Additionally, Plaintiff’s Counsel shall submit a copy of the court’s order granting the motion for final approval and Judgment to the LWDA within ten (10) days after entry of the order or Judgment pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(s)(3).

7. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

- 7.1. Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected Phoenix to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, Phoenix agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.

- 7.2. Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports to state and federal tax authorities.
- 7.3. Qualified Settlement Fund. The Administrator shall establish a settlement fund that meets the requirements of a Qualified Settlement Fund (“QSF”) under US Treasury Regulation section 468B-1.
- 7.4. Notice to Class Members.
- 7.4.1. No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the Class Data, the Administrator shall notify Class Counsel that the list has been received and state the number of Class Members, PAGA Members, Workweeks, and Pay Periods in the Class Data.
- 7.4.2. Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service (“USPS”) mail, the Class Notice, substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if applicable) used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.
- 7.4.3. Not later than 5 business days after the Administrator’s receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.
- 7.4.4. If the Administrator, Defendant or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, whichever are later.
- 7.5. Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).
- 7.5.1. Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement must send the Administrator, by fax or mail, a signed written Request for Exclusion not later than 45 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice. A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member's election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address and email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

7.5.2. The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

7.5.3. Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Paragraphs 5.3 and 5.4 of this Agreement, regardless of whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

7.5.4. Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment or have the right to object to the class action components of the Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 5.4 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

7.6. Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have 45 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax or mail. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, redacting all identifying information, to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination of the challenges. The Court will have the final authority in the event that challenges from Class Members remain unresolved.

7.7. Objections to Settlement.

7.7.1. Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Class Representative Service Payment.

- 7.7.2. Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than 45 days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Objections, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Objections; and (b) copies of all Objections submitted (whether valid or invalid).
- 7.7.3. Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.
- 7.8. Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.
 - 7.8.1. Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish and maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval, the Class Notice, the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and Class Representative Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.
 - 7.8.2. Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing the number of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion ("Exclusion List"). Unless otherwise instructed by the Court, the Class Administrator shall keep all class contact information confidential.
 - 7.8.3. Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received with all identifying information redacted, objections received with all identifying information redacted, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved with all identifying information redacted, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments ("Weekly Report”). The Weekly Reports must include the Administrator’s assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach redacted copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.

- 7.8.4. Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator’s decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge, unless the Court determines otherwise.
- 7.8.5. Administrator’s Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the redacted Exclusion List (unless the Court later requires identification of individuals on the Exclusion list). The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court, including as to disclosure of the identity of individuals who opted out of the settlement class. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator’s declaration(s) in Court.
- 7.8.6. Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

8. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (s)(2), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively “Motion for Final Approval”). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than five days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval and proposed Judgment.

- 8.1. Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than five court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.

- 8.2. Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court's concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administrator Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.
- 8.3. Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.
- 8.4. Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement or later revisions or amendments thereto, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.
- 8.5. Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.
9. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES AND ESCALATOR CLAUSE. Based on its records, Defendant estimates that during the Class Period, there are 1,518 Class Members and 107,105 Workweeks. Should the final Workweek Amount increase by more than 10% (i.e. more than 10,711 additional work weeks such that the final workweeks being released are greater than 117,816) for the Class Period, Defendant shall have the option to either: (1) increase the Gross

Settlement Amount proportionally by the number of workweeks in excess of 117,816 such that, for instance, if the total number of workweeks are 12% greater than the 117,816, the Gross Settlement Amount will increase by 2%; or (2) elect to move the end date for the Class Period to the latest date before September 1, 2024 that the workweek count does not exceed 117,816 workweeks.

10. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit a proposed amended judgment.

11. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO RESCIND. Defendant retains the right, in the exercise of its sole discretion, to rescind this Settlement Agreement within ten (10) days after the expiration of the opt out period in section 7.5 above, if ten percent (10%) or more of Class Members opt out of this Settlement. All signatories and their counsel must not encourage opt-outs. All signatories and their counsel specifically agree not to solicit opt-outs, directly or indirectly, through any means. In the event that Defendant exercises the right to rescind pursuant to this paragraph, Defendant shall be responsible for all Administrator costs incurred to the date of the rescission.

12. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

12.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that any of the allegations in the Action have merit or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendant's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reason, and Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

12.2. Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency.

12.3. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel,

Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, with any third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that “the matter was resolved,” or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel’s communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel’s ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

- 12.4. No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel’s ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel’s ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 12.5. Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.
- 12.6. Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 12.7. Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.
- 12.8. No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity any portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 12.9. No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 12.10. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 12.11. Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.

- 12.12. Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the State of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 12.13. Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 12.14. Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during the Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 12.15. Use of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court.
- 12.16. Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 12.17. Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to “days” in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 12.18. Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

- 12.19. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts by facsimile, electronically (i.e. DocuSign), or email which for purposes of this Agreement shall be accepted as an original. All executed counterparts and each of them will be deemed to be one and the same instrument if counsel for the Parties will exchange between themselves signed counterparts. Any executed counterpart will be admissible in evidence to prove the existence and contents of this Agreement.

12.20. Stay of Litigation. The Parties agree that upon the execution of this Agreement the litigation shall be stayed, except to effectuate the terms of this Agreement. The Parties further agree that upon the signing of this Agreement that pursuant to CCP section 583.330 to extend the date to bring a case to trial under CCP section 583.310 for the entire period of this settlement process.

12.21. No Additional Contribution by Defendant. Defendant's monetary obligation under this Agreement is limited to the Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant shall not be required to pay more than the Gross Settlement Amount to obtain the relief (including, but not limited to, the Settlement, releases of Claims and, issuance of the final order and Judgment) provided in this Agreement or to fully and finally settle and resolve the class action claims, individual claims, and PAGA claims.

Notwithstanding the above, in the event that this Agreement is voided or nullified, in whole or in part, however that may occur, or the Settlement of the Action is barred by operation of law, or invalidated, or ordered not to be carried out by a court of competent jurisdiction, Defendant will cease to have any obligation to pay any portion of the Gross Settlement Amount to anyone under the terms of this Agreement.

12.22. Taxes. Plaintiff and each Participating Class Member and aggrieved employee will be responsible for paying all applicable state, local, and federal income taxes on their respective amounts received pursuant to this Settlement, and they shall not seek any indemnification from Defendant or the Released Parties in this regard. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel shall cooperate with Defendant and provide documentation to the extent possible and as reasonably requested to demonstrate any payment of taxes made by Plaintiff and/or any Participating Class Member and aggrieved employee should any taxing authority challenge the allocation of any payments under this Agreement.

12.23. In the event that any portion of this Agreement is deemed illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect, then such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other provision of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall be construed as though such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein, unless a court determines the primary purpose of this Agreement would be frustrated.

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Stetson Whitehead v. GLS US Freight, Inc.

Case No. STK-UOE-2023-0012910

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!

It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against GLS US Freight, Inc. (“Defendant”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by former employee Stetson Whitehead (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) past due wages and other relief for a class of all current and former non-exempt employees (“Class Members”) who worked for Defendant during the Class Period (November 30, 2019 to September 1, 2024); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) for all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period (October 3, 2022 to September 1, 2024) (“Aggrieved Employees”).

Defendant denies these allegations and maintains that it complied with the law at all times. Defendant believes that Plaintiff’s claims are without merit.

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $_ (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $_____. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you worked ____ workweeks during the Class Period and you worked _____ workweeks during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section D of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Defendant.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting a written request for exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Defendant will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is _____	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section F of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendant must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).

Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by _____	All Class Members who do not opt-out (“Participating Class Members”) can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court’s decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section G of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the _____ Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on _____. You don’t have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section H of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by _____	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number of Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Defendant’s records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by _____. See Section D of this Notice.

A. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant. The Action accuses Defendant of violating California labor laws by failing to pay overtime wages, minimum wages, wages due upon termination and failing to provide meal periods, rest breaks, reimbursement of expenses and accurate itemized wage statements. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) (“PAGA”). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Bartz Law Group APC and United Employees Law Group PC (“Class Counsel.”) Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends that it complied with all applicable laws.

B. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant attended Mediation with the Hon. Carl J. West (Ret.), to resolve the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations at the Mediation were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s

Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims. Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

C. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant will pay One Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,600,000.00) as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Defendant has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorney's fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement no later than 10 days after the Judgment is entered by the Court becomes final. The Judgment will be final on the date it is entered, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - a. Up to Five Hundred Thirty Three Thousand Three Hundred Thirty-Three Dollars ($533,333.00) (one-third of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to Twenty Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - b. Up to Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) to Plaintiff as a Class Representative Service Payment for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. The Class Representative Service Payment will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payments and any Individual PAGA Payments.
 - c. Up to Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - d. Up to Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment ($37,500.00) and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments ($12,500.00) to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods. Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 20% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 80% to interest and penalties (“Non-Wage Portion”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be sent to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member.
6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [DATE], that you wish to opt-out. In order to opt-out of the Settlement, you should set forth your name, present address, telephone number, and request exclusion from the settlement to the Administrator by the date set forth above. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendant.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendant based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, [INSERT] (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class

Members' Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section I of this Notice.

9. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement. The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Action and Plaintiff's PAGA Notice, including claims under the California Labor Code, California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, regulations, and/or other provisions of law, failure to pay wages (including, but not limited to minimum wages, regular wages, overtime wages, failure to pay overtime at the regular rate, and double time wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and associated premium pay, failure to provide compliant rest periods and associated premium pay, failure to provide compliant wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination of employment, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to reimburse expenses, failure to maintain requisite payroll records, including Labor Code sections 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1198, 2699, and 2802, and unfair or unlawful business practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The Released Class Claims also means any claims, rights, demands, liabilities, damages, wages, benefits, expenses, penalties, debts, obligations, attorneys' fees, costs, any other form of relief or remedy in law, equity, or whatever kind or nature, and causes of action, that could potentially arise from the receipt of any monies as a result of this Settlement by any member of the Class.

10. Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Release. After the Court's judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendant, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendant or its related persons and entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this

Settlement. The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Aggrieved Employees, the State of California and Plaintiff shall be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, released and discharged Defendant and Released Persons from the claims for civil penalties that could have been sought by the Labor Commissioner for the violations of the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 identified or alleged in the PAGA Notice and/or the Action, or which could have been alleged based on the facts, allegations or claims in the PAGA Notice and/or Action. The Aggrieved Employees will be issued a check for their share of the individual PAGA payment and will not have the opportunity to opt out of, or object to, the individual PAGA payment and release of the PAGA claims set forth herein. The Aggrieved Employees are bound by the release of the PAGA claims regardless of whether they cash or deposit their individual PAGA payment or opt out of being a Class Member.

D. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $12,500 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendant's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until DATE to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail or fax. Section I of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Defendant's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

E. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.

2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section I of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

F. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by DATE, or it will be invalid. Section I of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

G. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. If you wish to remain a Class Member, but you object to the proposed settlement (or any of its terms) and wish the Court to consider your objection at the Final Approval Hearing, you may object to the proposed settlement in writing. You may also appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either in person or through an attorney at your own expense. All written objections, supporting papers, and/or notices of intent to appear at the Final Approval Hearing must clearly identify the case name and number and be mailed to the Settlement Administrator, _____, at _____. Objections must be postmarked no later than _____. You still may appear at the Final Approval Hearing and raise an objection to the settlement even if you did not submit written objections within this deadline.

H. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You can, but don't have to, attend the Final Approval Hearing on DATE at TIME in Department 11B, of the San Joaquin Superior Court, located at 180 E. Weber Ave., Stockton, California 95202. At the Hearing, the judge will decide whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement and how much of the Gross Settlement will be paid to Class Counsel, Plaintiff, and the Administrator. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will hear all objections, as well as arguments for and against the proposed Settlement. You have a right to attend this hearing, but you are not required to do so. You also have the right to hire an attorney to represent you, at your own expense, or to enter an appearance and represent yourself.

Case No. STK-UOE-2023-0012910

[Assigned for All Purposes to the Hon. Robert
T. Waters, Dept. 11B]

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT

Date: 5/7, 2025
Time: 9:00 a.m.
Dept: 11B

1 This matter came on for hearing on May 7, 2025, at 9:00 a.m. in Department
2 11B of the above-referenced Court, located at 180 E. Weber Avenue, Stockton, California
3 95202, on the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement ("Motion").
4 Plaintiff STETSON WHITEHEAD ("Plaintiff") appeared through his attorneys of record.
5 Defendant GLS US Freight, Inc. ("Defendant") appeared through its counsel of record.

6 Having fully reviewed and considered the Motion and moving papers, and having
7 analyzed the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Settlement Agreement") attached
8 as Exhibit A to the Declaration of Aaron A. Bartz filed with the Motion, THE COURT HEREBY 9 MAKES THE FOLLOWING DETERMINATIONS AND ORDERS:

10 1. This Order incorporates by reference the definitions in the Settlement Agreement
11 attached as Exhibit A to the Declaration of Aaron Bartz in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for 12 Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and all terms defined therein shall 13 have the same meaning in this Order.

14 2. The Court preliminarily approves the proposed Settlement Agreement as being 15 fair, reasonable, and adequate; and finds on a preliminary basis that the Settlement Agreement
16 appears to be within the range of reasonableness of a settlement which the Court could ultimately 17 give final approval.

18 3. The Court finds that the elements of numerosity, commonality, typicality and 19 adequacy have been established to support conditional certification of the Settlement Class for 20 settlement purposes. Solely for the purposes of the proposed Settlement, a Class is provisionally
21 certified pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and defined as follows:

22 All non-exempt current and former employees who worked in California
23 for Defendant during the Class Period.

24 4. Solely for the purposes of the proposed Settlement, the Court preliminarily
25 approves (a) Bartz Law Group, APC and United Employees Law Group, PC as Class Counsel;
26 and (b) Stetson Whitehead as Class Representative. The Court appoints Phoenix Settlement
27 Administrators as Settlement Administrator.
28

1 5. The Court shall hold a final approval hearing (the "Final Approval Hearing") on
2 October 1, 2025, at 9:00 AM, to review the notice process and 3 objections to the Settlement, if any; and to determine whether the proposed Settlement on the 4 terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and
5 should be finally approved by the Court; to determine whether the Court should enter the 6 Judgment as provided in the Settlement Agreement; and to determine the amount of attorneys'
7 fees and costs to approve for Class Counsel and the amount of the enhancement award to 8 approve for the Class Representative.

9 6. The Court approves, as to form and content, the Court Approved Notice of Class
10 Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval (the "Settlement Notice"),
11 attached to the Settlement Agreement. The Court finds that distribution of the Settlement Notice
12 substantially in the manner set forth in the Settlement Agreement and Settlement Notice meets
13 the requirements of California law and due process, is the best notice practicable under the 14 circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

15 7. The Settlement Administrator shall supervise and administer the notice procedure
16 as set forth in the Settlement Agreement as follows:

17 a. After entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, Defendant shall provide 18 the Settlement Administrator with the Class Data for purposes of mailing the Settlement
19 Notices to Class Members. Defendant shall have up to fifteen (15) days to provide the 20 Class Data after entry of the Preliminary Approval Order;

21 b. Upon receipt of the Class Data, the Settlement Administrator shall 22 perform a search based on the National Change of Address Database maintained by the 23 United States Postal Service to update and correct any known or identifiable address
24 changes. Within fourteen (14) calendar days after receiving the Class Data from 25 Defendant as provided herein, the Settlement Administrator shall mail copies of the 26 Settlement Notice to all Class Members via regular First-Class U.S. Mail. The Parties
27 agree that this procedure for notice provides the best notice practicable to Class Members
28 and fully complies with due process;

1 c. Any Settlement Notice returned to the Settlement Administrator as non-
2 deliverable on or before the Response Deadline shall be re-mailed to the forwarding
3 address affixed thereto within five (5) business days of receipt of the returned Settlement
4 Notice by the Settlement Administrator. If no forwarding address is provided, the 5 Settlement Administrator shall attempt to determine a correct address by conducting a
6 Class Member Address Search;

7 d. The Settlement Administrator shall perform all other obligations required
8 under the Settlement Agreement, including those under section 7 of the Settlement
9 Agreement.

10 8. In order for any Settlement Class member to object to this Settlement, or any term
11 of it, the person making the objection may submit the objection to the Settlement Administrator
12 by no later than the Response Deadline specified in the Settlement Notice setting forth the 13 grounds of objection. Any objection shall be sent to the Settlement Administrator, not to the 14 Court. A Class Member may also appear personally or through an attorney, at his or her own
15 expense, at the Final Approval hearing to present his or her objection directly to the Court.

16 9. In order for any Settlement Class member to validly exclude themselves from the 17 Settlement Class and this Settlement (i.e., to validly opt out), a written request for exclusion must 18 be submitted to the Settlement Administrator postmarked no later than the Response Deadline.
19 Any Request for Exclusion shall be submitted to the Settlement Administrator, not to the Court.
20 A Class Member who timely submits a valid Request for Exclusion shall not participate in, or be 21 bound by, the Settlement or the Final Judgment in any respect. Individuals who submit a 22 Request for Exclusion shall not be permitted to file or pursue objections to the Settlement or 23 appear at the Final Approval Hearing to voice any objections to the Settlement.

24 10. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court shall finally determine whether the 25 proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate; and shall also rule on Class Counsel's
26 application for attorneys' fees, the Class Representative enhancement award, reimbursement of 27 Class Counsel's costs, and the Settlement Administrator expenses for administering the 28 Settlement.

1 11. The Court's preliminary approval of the Settlement is not to be deemed an
2 admission of liability or fault by Defendant, or a finding as to the validity of any claims or 3 defenses asserted in the Action.

4 12. The Court reserves the right to adjourn or continue the date of the Final Approval
5 Hearing without further notice to the Class Members, and it will retain jurisdiction to consider all
6 further applications arising out of or connected with the proposed Settlement. In the event that 7 the Final Approval Hearing is continued, Class Counsel or the Settlement Administrator shall 8 give notice of the continuance to any objectors to the Settlement.

9 13. If for any reason the Settlement ultimately does not become final, the parties will 10 return to their respective positions in this Action as those positions existed immediately before
11 the Parties executed the Settlement, and nothing stated in the Settlement or any other papers filed
12 with this Court in connection with the Settlement will be deemed an admission of any kind by 13 any of the parties or used as evidence against, or over the objections of, any of the parties for any 14 purpose in this Action or in any other action.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff STETSON WHITEHEAD, on behalf of himself and all other persons
2 similarly situated (hereinafter, "Plaintiffs"), hereby complains against Defendant, GLS US
3 FREIGHT, INC., a California corporation ("GLS"); and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive
4 (hereinafter GLS and Does 1-100 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants"), and on 5 information and belief allege as follows:

6 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

7 JURISDICTION

8 1. This is a civil action seeking recovery of unpaid wages, waiting time penalties,
9 pay stub penalties and meal and rest period premiums under California Labor Code §§ 510,
10 1194 et seq., 201 et seq., 226 and 226.7. Plaintiffs bring an action for monetary damages for 11 failure to pay wages as well as for restitution for Defendants' violations of Business and 12 Professions Code (B&PC) §17200, et seq., including full restitution of all compensation
13 retained by Defendants as a result of their unlawful, fraudulent and unfair business practices.
14 Plaintiffs seek all available relief, including full restitution of all compensation retained by 15 Defendants as a result of their unlawful and unfair business practices. Further, Plaintiffs seek 16 injunctive relief under B&PC §17200, et seq.

17 VENUE

18 2. Venue as to each of the Defendants is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 19 California Code of Civil Procedure (CCP) §§ 395(a) and 395.5, as at least some of the acts
20 complained of herein occurred in the County of San Joaquin. Each defendant either owns,
21 maintains offices, transacts business, has an agent or agents within the County of San Joaquin,
22 or otherwise is found within the County of San Joaquin, and each defendant is within the 23 jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

24 PARTIES

25 3. Stetson Whitehead ("Whitehead") is an individual over the age of eighteen
26 (18). At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff Whitehead worked for Defendants within the State
27 of California.
28

1 4. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times
2 mentioned herein, defendant GLS is and was a California corporation.

3 5. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times
4 mentioned herein, Defendant GLS was authorized to do business in the State of California,
5 County of San Joaquin, and performing freight transportation services. Thus, each named
6 defendant and DOES 1 to 100 are subject to B&PC §17200, et seq. (Unfair Competition Law)
7 and the Labor Code, as hereinafter alleged.

8 6. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities, whether individual,
9 partner, or corporate, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 100, inclusive, and for that 10 reason, those defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiffs will seek from 11 this Court leave to amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered.
12 Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each of the Defendants and each 13 fictitious defendant, whether individual, partners, or corporate, was responsible in some 14 manner for the circumstances alleged herein, and proximately caused Plaintiffs and all others
15 similarly situated hereinafter alleged and the general public to be subjected to the unlawful 16 employment practices, wrongs, injuries and damages complained of herein.

17 7. At all times herein mentioned, each of the Defendants participated in the doing
18 of the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendants; and furthermore,
19 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each and every 20 one of the other Defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein
21 mentioned were acting within the course and scope of said agency and employment. Plaintiffs 22 herein allege that Defendants and each of them is the joint employer of Plaintiffs and the 23 classes.

24 8. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of 25 and engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the 26 course and scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common 27 enterprise.

9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and every one of the other Defendants in proximately causing the complaints, injuries and damages alleged herein.

10. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, and/or otherwise ratified each and every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of each and every one of the other Defendants, thereby proximately causing the damages, as herein alleged.

11. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because both the individual and aggregate monetary damages and restitution sought herein exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established at trial, according to proof. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because Plaintiffs and the putative classes herein worked within the State of California, and were subject to California's wage and hour laws.

PLAINTIFF CLASSES

12. The class representative Plaintiff who worked in the position of an hourly non-exempt employees or other similar title while employed by Defendants within the State of California, is as follows:

a. Stetson Whitehead

Plaintiff Whitehead worked within California as a freight driver for Defendants until July 2023.

13. At all times mentioned herein, Plaintiffs and the entirety of the hourly Class identified herein are current and former employees of Defendants who were not properly paid all their wages, including but not limited to, proper premium overtime, and/or double time due to Defendants' failure to properly calculate the regular rate and/or include all hours worked in a week to determine hours over eight (8) in a given day, or forty (40) in a week.

Class 1:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2019 through the date of judgment, who were not paid premium overtime and/or double time at the employee's regular rate of pay.

Subclass 1:

Class 2:

Class 3:

Class 4:

-4-

1 Class 5:

2 All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from
3 2019 through the present who were not provided legally-compliant rest breaks (Rest Break
4 Class);

5 Class 6:

6 All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 7 2022 through the present who were provided a paystub (a.k.a. wage statement) which failed to 8 list all hours actually worked and wages owed (Pay Stub Class).

9 Class 7:

10 All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 11 2019 through the present who were not reimbursed for their necessary and reasonable 12 business expenses (Reimbursement Class).

13 The members of the classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be 14 unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the classes are unknown to Plaintiffs at 15 this time; however, it is estimated that the classes number greater than 100 individuals. The 16 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants'
17 employment records.

18 15. There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiffs and all others
19 similarly situated which predominate over questions affecting only individual members 20 including, without limitation to:

- 21 i. Whether Defendants paid their employees proper premium overtime 22 and/or double time at the employees' regular rate for hours over eight 23 (8) in a day and/or forty (40) hours in a week, in paying their hourly
24 non-exempt employees;
- 25 ii. Whether Defendants violated the applicable Labor Code provisions 26 including §510, 1194, and 203 by requiring substantial overtime work 27 and not paying for said work according to the overtime laws of the 28 State of California;

- 1 iii. Whether Defendants failed to pay the appropriate premium overtime
- 2 compensation to the hourly employees;
- 3 iv. Whether Defendants improperly retained, appropriated or deprived
- 4 Plaintiffs and the class members of the use of monies or sums to which
- 5 Plaintiffs and the class were legally entitled;
- 6 v. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices;
- 7 vi. Whether Defendants, and each of them, were participants in the alleged
- 8 unlawful conduct;
- 9 vii. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 10 viii. The effect upon and the extent of injuries suffered by Plaintiffs and all
- 11 others similarly situated and the appropriate amount of compensation;
- 12 ix. The appropriate amount of monetary penalties allowed by Labor Code
- 13 §201, et. seq.;
- 14 x. Whether Defendants pay and continue to pay for missed meal and rest
- 15 period premiums at an allegedly "reduced" rate of pay in violation of
- 16 Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders;
- 17 xi. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §226 and relevant IWC
- 18 Wage Orders by failing to, among other violations, accurately report
- 19 total hours worked, premium pay at the regular hourly rate for meal and
- 20 rest periods, all applicable hourly rates in effect during each pay period
- 21 and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly work, by
- 22 Plaintiffs and the members of the Class;
- 23 xii. Whether Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to maintain
- 24 records for Plaintiffs and members of the Class as required by Labor
- 25 Code § 1174 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders;
- 26 xiii. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the
- 27 class members for necessary expenditures incurred in the performance
- 28 of their work for Defendants;

1 16. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of all members of the classes and
2 subclasses mentioned herein. Plaintiffs, as representative parties, will fairly and adequately
3 protect the interest of the classes by vigorously pursuing this suit through their attorneys who
4 are skilled and experienced in handling matters of this type. Plaintiffs have no claim or 5 interest that is antagonistic to any class member.

6 17. The nature of this action and the nature of laws available to the members of the 7 classes and subclasses identified herein make use of the class action format a particularly 8 efficient and appropriate procedure to afford relief to Plaintiffs for the wrongs alleged herein.
9 Further, this claim involves a large corporate employer, Defendant GLS, and a large number
10 of individual employees (Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated) with many relatively 11 small claims with common issues of law and fact. If each employee were required to file an 12 individual lawsuit, the corporate defendants would necessarily gain an unconscionable
13 advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each
14 individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources. Requiring each 15 class member to pursue an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful
16 claims by employees who would be disinclined to pursue an action against their present
17 and/or former employer for an appreciable and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent 18 damage to their careers at present and/or subsequent employment. Proof of a common 19 business practice or factual pattern, of which the Plaintiffs experienced, is representative of 20 the class mentioned herein and will establish the right of each of the members of the named 21 class to recovery on the causes of action alleged herein.

22 18. The prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members, even if 23 possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
24 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would 25 establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or (b) legal 26 determinations with respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, 27 be dispositive of the interest of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which 28 would substantially impair or impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests.

1 Further, the claims of the individual members of the class are not sufficiently large to warrant
2 vigorous individual prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses
3 attending thereto.

4 19. Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated are entitled to the wages and other
5 monies unlawfully withheld. This action is brought for the benefit of the public.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Violation of B&PC §17200, et seq.)

8 20. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
9 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

10 21. Beginning on an exact date unknown to Plaintiffs but believed to have 11 occurred from 2019 on, Defendants have engaged in a pattern and practice of acts of unfair
12 competition in violation of B&PC §17200, including the practices alleged herein.

13 22. Defendants, and each of them, provide freight transportation services within 14 California, and have engaged in the practice of paying their non-exempt employees, in a 15 fashion that circumvents California's wage and hour laws.

16 FAILURE TO PAY PROPER WAGES AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION

17 23. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that as part of 18 Defendants' ongoing unfair business practices, Defendants' hourly employees worked in 19 excess of eight (8) hours per day, and in excess of forty (40) hours per week without receiving
20 the proper regular rate of pay and/or minimum wage rate because Plaintiffs regularly conduct
21 pre-trip and post-trip inspections of their vehicles, without payment. Defendants are therefore 22 in violation of Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194, and the relevant California Industrial Welfare
23 Commission Orders.

24 24. Defendants, and each of them, consistently administered a corporate policy
25 regarding off-the-clock and on-call time, which required that employees work overtime
26 without proper premium overtime pay, the regular rate of pay, and/or minimum wage. This 27 corporate policy and pattern of conduct is accomplished with the advanced knowledge and 28 designed intent to avoid paying non-exempt employees for all hours worked. Accordingly,

1 Plaintiffs and the class members are entitled to all unpaid wages due under California law.
2 Further, Plaintiffs and the class are entitled to restitution of these wages obtained by
3 Defendants, and each of them.

4 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 200, ET SEQ.

5 25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that as part of 6 Defendants' ongoing unfair business practices, Defendants failed to provide all employees all
7 wages at the time of their separation in violation of Labor Code § 200, et. seq., including but 8 not limited to, §§201, 202, 203 & 204.

9 26. Labor Code § 200, et seq. provides that an employer is required to pay an
10 employee all wages (including accrued vacation) immediately upon the employee's 11 involuntary separation from employment; immediately upon his or her voluntary separation if 12 the employee gave at least seventy-two (72) hours notice, and within seventy-two (72) hours,
13 if the employee voluntarily separated, but did not give at least seventy-two (72) hours notice.

14 27. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that all employees who 15 have been separated from Defendants did not timely receive a final paycheck detailing the 16 proper amount of pay from Defendants in violation of Labor Code § 200, et. seq.

17 28. Pursuant to Labor Code § 200, et seq. employees that no longer work for 18 Defendants, and who were not timely paid, are entitled to one (1) day of pay in penalties for 19 each day that he or she was paid late, until payment was made, up to a maximum of thirty (30)
20 days.

21 VIOLATION OF MEAL AND REST PERIOD PROVISIONS

22 29. Defendants' improper meal and rest period policies are in violation of 23 California law including, but not limited to Labor Code § 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC
24 Wage Orders. Plaintiffs and the class were entitled to 1 hour of pay for each meal and rest
25 break violation at their regular rate of pay. Defendants failed and continue to fail to pay for 26 meal and rest period violations at the employees' regular rate of pay in violation of Section 11
27 of the applicable Wage Orders.

28 30. Plaintiffs seek restitution and injunctive relief for said violations.

1 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times herein
2 mentioned, Defendants have engaged in unlawful, deceptive, and unfair business practices
3 prohibited by California B&PC §17200, thereby depriving their employees and the putative
4 class the minimum working standards and conditions due to them under the California labor
5 laws and Industrial Welfare Commission wage orders as specifically described herein.
6 Plaintiffs seek an injunction preventing Defendants from continuing their unfair business
7 practice of improperly depriving their employees of overtime pay, and payment of their
8 regular rate of pay for meal and rest period premiums. Plaintiffs further seek an order
9 requiring Defendants to identify by full name, telephone number, and last known address
10 employees who worked or still work for Defendants between 2019 through the date of 11 judgment; Plaintiffs further seek an order requiring Defendants to timely pay restitution to all 12 current and former employees, including back wages, premium payments, and interest.

13 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

14 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that as part of 15 Defendants' ongoing unfair business practices, Defendants, and each of them, fail to provide 16 their employees with proper and understandable itemized wage statement, as required by Labor
17 Code § 226.

18 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants, and 19 each of them, fail to provide each employee with an itemized statement which states the actual 20 regular rate paid, the total hours worked by the employee, the gross and net wages earned, and 21 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of 22 hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

23 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE EXPENSES

24 34. Defendants have adopted and implemented an illegal reimbursement policy
25 that fails to compensate Plaintiffs for all of their necessary business expenses incurred in 26 discharging their duties for Defendants.

27 35. Defendants' conduct in failing to reimburse Plaintiffs and the class for their 28 necessary business expenses is also unfair within the meaning of Business and Professions

1 Code §17200 because it is against established public policy and has been pursued to attain an
2 unjustified monetary advantage for Defendants by unfairly and unlawfully reducing Plaintiffs'
3 and the other class members' compensation, as Plaintiffs and the class are required to come
4 out of pocket for such expenses. As such, Defendants' business practices, including their
5 illegal reimbursement policy and practice, is unfair, illegal and fraudulent, in that such policy
6 and practice was intended to reduce Plaintiffs' and the class' due and owing compensation.

7 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

8 RECOVERY OF UNPAID WAGES & PENALTIES

9 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194 and 1198)

10 36. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
11 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

12 37. Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated identified herein were and are 13 employed and scheduled as a matter of established company policy to work and in fact
14 worked as non-exempt hourly employees in excess of eight (8) hours per day and/or in excess
15 of forty (40) hours per week. Defendants employed and scheduled all employees without 16 providing overtime compensation for such excess hours worked in violation of Labor Code §§
17 510 and 1194 and the relevant California Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) orders.
18 Labor Code § 204 establishes the fundamental right of all employees in the State of California
19 to be paid the proper amount of wages in a timely fashion for their work, including overtime.
20 Defendants always had a written and verbal agreement to pay overtime and double time based 21 on the Plaintiffs' and classes' regular rate of pay.

22 38. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218 and 1194(a), Plaintiffs may bring a civil action
23 for overtime wages directly against the employer without first filing a claim with the Division
24 of Labor Standards Enforcement (hereinafter "DLSE") and may recover such wages, together
25 with interest thereon, penalties, attorneys' fees and costs.

26 39. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants have failed to pay to Plaintiffs and all 27 persons similarly situated wages when due as required by Labor Code § 204.
28

1 40. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for longer
2 than the hours set by the IWC or under conditions prohibited by the applicable IWC Wage
3 Orders.

4 41. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon
5 allege that Defendants have treated Plaintiffs as hourly non-exempt employees. Despite this 6 classification, Defendants have willfully violated the Labor Code with respect to meeting the 7 requirements of paying one (1) regular rate of pay and calculating overtime and double time
8 based on that regular rate, as herein before alleged. Defendants have failed to properly pay
9 premium overtime for hours worked in a week, and as such, Defendants are able to reduce 10 their overhead and operating expenses and gain an unfair advantage over competing
11 companies complying with state law. Furthermore, Defendants have failed to include all 12 items of remuneration when determining the employees' regular rate of pay, as described 13 above.

14 42. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants 15 consistently administered a corporate policy regarding both staffing levels and duties and 16 responsibilities of the members of the classes which required the entirety of all classes to work
17 overtime without proper premium pay, and to fail all wages for hours worked. This corporate 18 policy and pattern of conduct was/is accomplished with the advance knowledge and design of 19 all Defendants herein. Thus, Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated routinely, regularly 20 and customarily performed overtime work and/or work that they failed to be compensated at 21 the appropriate hourly wage.

22 43. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that the obligations and 23 responsibilities of the class employees are irrelevant because Plaintiffs and all others similarly 24 situated merely allege wrongdoing with Defendants' pay plans, policies and practices.
25 Further, the duties of Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated are not relevant in certifying
26 any of the classes.

27 44. Defendants, and each of them, had a consistent and uniform policy, practice
28 and procedure of willfully failing to pay the earned and unpaid wages of all such non-exempt

1 employees. Defendants have willfully failed to pay the earned and unpaid wages of such
2 individuals, including, but not limited to regular pay, premium pay, and other wages earned
3 and remaining uncompensated according to amendment, or proof.

4 45. The pattern, practice and uniform administration of corporate policy regarding 5 illegal employee compensation as described herein is unlawful and creates an entitlement to 6 recovery by Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated, in a civil action, for the unpaid balance
7 of the full amount of all wages owing, including the proper calculation of the regular rate and 8 the proper overtime premiums calculated at 1.5 or 2 times the legal regular rate which are 9 owing, including interest thereon, willful penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of 10 suit according to the mandate of Labor Code § 1194, et. seq.

11 46. Likewise, Defendants have a pattern, practice and uniform administration of 12 corporate policy regarding failure to comply with the required provisions of Labor Code §
13 226.7, in failing to pay Plaintiffs and the class the meal and rest period premium payments at 14 the regular rate.

15 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 200, et. seq.)

17 47. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
18 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

19 48. Labor Code §§ 200, et. seq., provides that an employer is required to pay an
20 employee all wages (including accrued vacation) immediately upon an employee's 21 involuntary separation from employment; immediately upon her voluntary separation if the 22 employee gave at least seventy-two (72) hours notice, and within seventy-two (72) hours, if 23 the employee voluntarily separated, but did not give at least seventy-two (72) hours notice.

24 49. Plaintiff Whitehead and other former employees of Defendants employed in 25 the State of California separated from employment with Defendants, and did not timely
26 receive a final pay check with all of their wages due from Defendants in violation of Labor
27 Code §§
28

1 200, et seq. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants also
2 violated the mandates of Labor Code §§ 200, et seq., as to other employees whose 3 employment ended during the period of time covered by this action.

4 50. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 200, et. seq., each member of the class that no
5 longer works for Defendants, and who was not timely paid all of his or her wages due is 6 entitled to one (1) day of pay in penalties for each day that he or she was paid late, until 7 payment was made, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

8 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 FAILURE TO PAY MEAL AND REST PERIOD PREMIUMS AT THE PROPER
10 REGULAR RATE OF PAY

11 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 & 512, et seq.)

12 51. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
13 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

14 52. Plaintiffs believe and thereon allege that Labor Code §226.7 requires an 15 employer to pay an additional hour of compensation at the employee's regular rate of pay for 16 each meal period and rest period violation. During the class period, Plaintiffs are informed 17 and believe, and based thereon allege that Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiffs and the 18 class members meal period and rest period premium pay at their regular rate of pay.
19 Defendants' improper meal and rest period practices and policies are in violation of California
20 law including, but not limited to Labor Code § § 226.7, 512, and the IWC Wage Orders.

21 53. Pursuant to Labor Code §226.7, Plaintiffs are entitled to damages in an amount
22 equal to one (1) hour of the employee's regular rate of pay per each meal and rest period
23 violation, in a sum to be proven at trial.

24 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

26 (Violation of Labor Code § 226)

27 54. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
28 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

1 55. Labor Code §226(a) provides, in pertinent part:

2 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, shall 3 furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or 4 voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if wages are paid by 5 personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1)
6 gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except as 7 provided in subdivision (j), (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any 8 applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all 9 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 10 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6)
11 the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name
12 of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security
13 number or an employee identification number other than a social security 14 number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if
15 the employer is a farm labor contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 16 1682, the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the 17 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 18 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 19 employee. . .

20 56. During the Class Period, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to 21 provide the Class Members, including Plaintiff Whitehead, with timely and accurate wage and 22 hour statements showing gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions made, net
23 wages earned, the name and address of the legal entity employing that Class Member, meal
24 and rest period premium payments, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during each pay
25 period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by that Class
26 Member.

27 57. The Class Members, including Plaintiffs, suffered injury as a result of 28 Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to provide the Class Members, with the wage and 29 hour statements required by law.

30 58. Based on Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Defendants are liable for actual
31 damages, statutory damages and/or statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §
32 226, attorney's fees and costs and other applicable provisions of the Labor Code and 33 applicable Wage Order.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS
(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512)

59. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

60. California Labor Code § 512 and IWC Wage Orders state that an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, and an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. California Labor Code § 226.7(a) further states that no employer shall require any employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the IWC.

61. Employers are prohibited from exerting coercion against the taking of, creating incentives to forego, or otherwise encouraging the skipping of legally protected breaks.

62. Plaintiffs and members of the Class were not provided with or given the opportunity to take the requisite meal periods before the end of the first 5 hours of work, nor were they provided with or given the opportunity to take a proper second meal period during the days when they worked more than 10 hours in a day. Defendants coerced Plaintiffs and the members of the Class to forego meal periods by disciplining and/or threatening disciplinary action against them if they attempted to take meal periods, created incentives to forego meal breaks, and encouraged the skipping of meal periods by scheduling work to coincide with the meal periods, among other things. In addition, Defendants placed unnecessarily tight timelines on Plaintiffs' work, forcing them to miss their meal periods in order to complete their jobs. As a result, Plaintiffs and members of the Class were required to work and/or were not relieved of all duties during any meal period taken, and thus were

1 considered "on duty;" however, Defendants failed to count as time worked any "on duty"
2 meal period taken by Plaintiffs and the members of the Class.

3 63. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226.7(c) and IWC Wage Orders, if an
4 employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable
5 provisions of the IWC Wage Orders, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay
6 at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that the meal period is not provided.
7 As such, Plaintiffs and members of the Class are entitled to an additional one hour's pay for
8 each day in which Plaintiffs and members of the Class were not provided a proper meal break
9 under the above-described authorities.

10 64. Plaintiffs and the members of the Class request that the Court award interest on
11 all unpaid wages at the legal rate specified by California Civil Code § 3289(b), accruing from 12 the date the wages were due and payable pursuant to Labor Code § 218.6.

13 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 FAILURE TO AUTHORIZE OR PERMIT REST PERIODS

15 (Violation of Labor Code § 226.7)

16 65. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the 17 allegations of the preceding paragraphs.

18 66. The applicable IWC Wage Orders state that every employer shall authorize and 19 permit all employees to take rest periods. The authorized rest period time shall be based on 20 the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four hours of 21 work, or major fraction thereof. An employer must provide employees with 10 minutes' rest
22 for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 23 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.

24 67. Plaintiffs and Class Members were not permitted to take rest periods, were 25 required to work during their rest periods, and/or were disciplined and/or were advised that 26 they would be disciplined if they took rest periods during work hours, in contravention of 27 California law.
28

1 68. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226.7(c) and the applicable IWC Wage
2 Orders, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in accordance with the 3 applicable IWC Wage Orders, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the 4 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.

5 69. As such, Plaintiffs and the Class members are entitled to an additional one
6 hour's pay for each day in which they were not provided a proper rest period under the above-
7 described authorities.

8 70. Plaintiffs and the members of the Class request that the Court award interest on
9 all unpaid wages at the legal rate specified by California Civil Code § 3289(b), accruing from 10 the date the wages were due and payable pursuant to Labor Code § 218.6.

11 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE EXPENSES

13 (Violation of (Labor Code § 2802)

14 71. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the 15 allegations of the preceding paragraphs.

16 72. California Labor Code § 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his 17 or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 18 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties."

19 73. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that at all 20 relevant times Plaintiffs and the class members incurred certain expenses for their jobs with 21 Defendants, including but not limited to using their own personal cell phone to remain in 22 direct communication with work at all times. Despite this, Defendants failed and refused to 23 indemnify Plaintiffs and the class for all of their expenditures in carrying out their duties for 24 Defendants.

25 74. As a result of Defendants' failure to indemnify Plaintiff and the class members, 26 they have suffered losses according to proof, including prejudgment interest, costs, and 27 attorneys' fees in prosecuting this case.

1 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

3 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699)

4 75. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the
5 allegations of the preceding paragraphs.

6 76. On or about October 3, 2023, Plaintiff Whitehead provided written notice to 7 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and Defendants of the specific 8 provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 9 support the alleged violations.

10 77. The LWDA failed to respond to Plaintiffs' counsel's correspondence and failed
11 to notify Plaintiffs' counsel as to whether it would investigate the allegations contained
12 therein, within the time period requirements of the Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA),
13 under Labor Code §2699.3. Plaintiffs have fully complied with the notice requirements set
14 forth in Labor Code §2699.3 in order to commence a civil action against an employer
15 pursuant to Labor Code §2699.

16 78. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs for all hours worked, minimum wages,
17 overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest
18 periods, failure to pay all wages upon termination or resignation, and failure to provide 19 accurate itemized wage statements, failure to reimburse expenses, will subject Defendants to 20 civil penalties pursuant to, without limitation, Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 510,
21 512, 1174, 1194, 1198, 2802, and IWC Wage Orders.

22 79. Plaintiffs are aggrieved employees as defined in Labor Code §§2699(a) and 23 (c), and related Labor Code provisions. Plaintiffs bring this cause of action on behalf of 24 themselves, as private attorneys general, and in a representative capacity on behalf of other 25 aggrieved employees, affected by the labor law violations alleged herein.

26 80. Defendants committed numerous violations of the California Labor Code and 27 IWC Wage Orders against the Plaintiffs, and on information and belief, against members of 28 the Class and other current and former employees while they were employed by Defendants,

1 including but not limited to:

2 a. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 510, 511, 1194 and/or IWC Wage Orders
3 by failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and belief, other
4 current and former employees of Defendants, all minimum, straight time and overtime wages
5 owed in compliance with California law;

6 b. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 1194, 1197 and/or IWC Wage
7 Orders by failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class by failing to pay for a missed
8 meal or rest period at the regular rate of pay;

9 c. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 10 failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and belief, other 11 current and former employees of Defendants, all minimum wages owed in compliance with 12 California law;

13 d. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1194, 204, 510, 511 and/or IWC Wage
14 Orders by failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and 15 belief, other current and former employees of Defendants, all wages owed in a timely manner
16 in compliance with California law;

17 e. Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7, 512, and /or IWC Wage Orders by 18 failing to provide Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and belief, other
19 current and former employees of Defendants, the opportunity to take the requisite meal
20 periods in compliance with California law;

21 f. Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 22 failing to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information
23 and belief, other current and former employees of Defendants, the opportunity to take the 24 requisite rest periods in compliance with California law;

25 g. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226, 1174 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 26 failing to properly maintain accurate employment time and records, maintain and/or submit 27 accurate itemized wage statements on behalf of Plaintiffs, members of the Class, and on 28 information and belief, on behalf of other current and former employees of Defendants as described herein; and

h. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and/or IWC Wage Orders by

1 failing to pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and on information and belief, other current and former
2 employees of Defendants as described herein;

3 i. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 and/or the IWC Wage Orders by 4 failing to pay Plaintiffs and other members of the Class all of their reasonable and necessary
5 expenses.

6 81. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiffs, members of the Class, and all other
7 aggrieved current and former employees seek to recover civil penalties, as otherwise provided
8 by statute and wage order, for which Defendants are liable as a result of their violations of the 9 California Labor Code and applicable wage order(s) in an amount to be proven at trial. These 10 penalties include, but are not limited to, those provided by Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204,
11 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1194, 1197, 2699, and IWC Wage Orders.
12 Plaintiffs and aggrieved current and former employees further seek and award of reasonable
13 attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 and 2699.

Legal Representation Agreement

I, Stetson Whitehead ("Client"), hereby retain the law firms of United Employees Law Group, PC and The Bartz Law Group (or any successors or predecessors) as my attorneys ("Law Firms" or "Attorney(s)"). Most legal services provided by United Employees Law Group are performed in Huntington Beach, California although meetings are available at our satellite offices by appointment when necessary.

1. The purpose of this Agreement is to set forth the terms under which the Law Firms will furnish legal representation to Client in connection with a class action or collective action against GLS Parcel and Freight related entities, for among other things, violation of overtime laws, missed meal breaks, expense reimbursement, payroll violations, illegal deductions, penalties, private attorneys general action (PAGA) and other related claims, as applicable. Client does not retain attorneys for claims of disability, discrimination, failure to promote, workmans compensation claim, wrongful termination, sexual harassment, or any other matter. Attorneys cannot and will not offer any tax-related advice. This written agreement supersedes any and all previous agreements between the parties, if any.

2. Scope and Duties. This action will be prosecuted as a class action or collective action or multiple plaintiff action against on behalf of all persons affected by its violation of employment statutes. It is understood by Client(s) that Law Firms are obligated to represent the interests of all class members, not solely the interests of the named class representatives, and that attorneys are obligated to treat the rights of such class representatives the same as the rights of the other members of the class. For this reason, it is understood and agreed that Law Firms shall have ultimate authority to make decisions concerning the conduct of the litigation, including decisions such as the theories and remedies to pursue, motions to make, and retention of experts. Also, any settlement agreed to by Client(s) and the Law Firms must be approved by the Court as being in the best interest of the class. It is understood that to achieve this goal, Attorneys may determine it to be in the best interests of the class to recommend and settle the lawsuit for less than what might be achieved assuming the case were to be litigated successfully and to pursue a cash or structured settlement.

3. Limited Representation. Law Firms focus their practice in employee class/multiple plaintiff actions, and as such, generally do not litigate or arbitrate matters on an individual basis. Therefore, absent an express agreement otherwise, Law Firms limit the scope of its representation to a class action/multiple plaintiff/representative action. Client understands that if Law Firms are not permitted to pursue this matter as a class action/multiple plaintiff/representative action, for various reasons including, but not limited to, information discovered in the statutory personnel file request, including the existence of a mandatory arbitration agreement and/or a class action waiver, or any other information which in Law Firms' judgment prevents the prosecution of this action, Law Firms will withdraw its representation of the Client. (Initials)

In the event the action proceeds as a class action but is not certified as a class action, Law Firms may continue to represent Client as to his or her individual wage and hour claims (i.e. unpaid overtime, meal and rest break violations, etc.) and so notify the client. If not, then the Client will need to seek successor counsel if he or she decides to pursue any individual claims he or she may have. In the event this should occur; Law Firm will fully cooperate in transferring any files or information that may aid in Client's representation by successor counsel. Separate arrangements must be made for any appeal or execution proceedings that client wishes to pursue after judgment, or any other matters for which Client wishes to employ Attorneys other than the matter described above.

4. Client Responsibilities. Client agrees to be truthful and cooperative with Law Firms and keep Law Firms advised of information and developments pertaining to the Case and of his/her current address and telephone number. Client agrees to assist Law Firms in the prosecution of this action and to cooperate fully by attending meetings, answering questions posed by the defendants, appearing for deposition and/or trial, or otherwise participating in the litigation.

5. Costs and Legal Fees. The Bartz Law Group shall advance all case costs it deems are required including, but not limited to, filing fees, fees for serving papers, investigators, expert consultants, court costs, juries, witnesses, deposition costs, client travel costs, copy and fax costs, mail and delivery costs, court reporter fees and expert witness fees (e.g., an economist) subject to reimbursement as set forth below.

Any legal fees to be paid to the Law Firms shall be contingent on settlement, judgment or other recovery, and, in the case of a class action, collective action or Private Attorney General Act (PAGA) claim such fees will be subject to Court approval. Client agrees to pay the Law Firm(s) from any such recovery 33 1/3% although in the event the Client is represented as to her or his individual claim such fee shall be 40% based on the total amount of money recovered or of the value obtained. If said fee must be approved by the Court, then the Courts determination shall control or is limited to the maximum allowed by law or regulation.

In the event that the Client and/or Law Firms receive an award of attorney fees, expenses and/or costs pursuant to a statute, under the common fund doctrine, or under any other legal principle, the entire amount of such awards shall go to the Law Firms and the Client assigns all rights to receive attorney fees, litigation expenses, and costs to the Law Firms.

Law Firms will have a lien on any recovery made on Client's behalf or on behalf of the Class or under a collective action to the extent of any sums due for costs, expenses and attorneys' fees. In the event the Lawsuit results in a settlement or judgment in favor of Client as an individual, Attorneys shall be entitled to recover their costs and either 40% of the total recovery (inclusive of costs) obtained or a specific amount of fees set forth in a settlement agreement between Client and Defendant which provides for attorney's fees separate and apart from the amount of money payable to Client directly and agreed to by Law Firms.

If the total legal fees received in this case are $250,000.00 or greater, it is agreed that United Employees Law Group shall receive 33 and 1/3% of the total legal fees received and the Bartz Law Group shall receive the remaining 66 and 2/3% of the total legal fees received. If the total legal fees received in this case are less than $250,000.00, it is agreed that United Employees Law Group shall receive 25% of the total legal fees received and the Bartz Law Group shall receive the remaining 75% of the total legal fees received.

Sanctions Awarded by a Court or Arbitrator. Client acknowledges and understands that in litigated cases, the Court or an arbitrator may award "sanctions" against the opposing party(ies) and/or their attorney(s) for discovery or other abuses. Such sanctions are typically awarded to compensate counsel for extraordinary time and effort in compelling the other side to act or respond appropriately. Any sanction awarded by the Court or arbitrator are the property of Attorneys and is not considered to be any part of recovery by or on behalf of Client.

Client understands and acknowledges that pursuant to the Rules of Professional Conduct of the State Bar of California, Attorneys have agreed to share the ultimate amount of attorneys' fees recovered in this matter. This does NOT increase the amount of attorneys' fees stated above, but is merely an agreement between Attorneys to split any attorneys' fees obtained.

Each firm shall receive its share of fees and reimbursed expenses directly from the claims administrator, debtor or opposing counsel as the case may be and may provide binding instructions as to method of transmittal of said funds.

Assuming that the money recovered by way of settlement or judgment is insufficient to pay all costs incurred, all counsel will first be reimbursed all ordinary and necessary direct out of pocket costs incurred and actually paid before any fee allocation is made. If there is no recovery in the matter, United Employees Law Group, PC shall not be responsible for any costs other than those it advanced. Costs incurred for computer research that is covered under a flat fee contract from Lexis, Westlaw, or other similar service; nor are any fees paid for legal or paralegal services recoverable unless there is an express agreement between Law Firms or approved by the court as a cost.

By initialing here, Client acknowledges that full disclosure has been made regarding the division of attorney's fees and the terms of that division, and Client hereby knowingly and voluntarily consent to that division. (Initials)

6. No Guaranty. Nothing in this Agreement and nothing in Law Firm(s)' statements to Client shall be construed as a promise or guarantee about the outcome of this matter. Law Firm(s) make no such promises or guarantees. Law Firms' comments about the outcome of this matter are expressions of opinion only.

7. Negotiated Fee. The fee provided herein is not provided for by law, but is negotiable between Law Firm and Client, and has been so negotiated and agreed.

8. Client Confidentiality. An attorney who represents a client is required to maintain the confidences of his or client. This duty of attorney-client confidentiality prevents an attorney from telling anyone about confidential information provided to the attorney by the client. In addition, the attorney cannot testify, under most circumstances, in a lawsuit about the contents of confidential communications with his or her clients unless the client waives this protection. This is called the attorney-client privilege. When an attorney represents more than one client in the same case, however, the attorney must be able to tell one client what the other client said. Otherwise, the attorney may not be able to represent those clients effectively. Because Law Firm(s) are representing more than one client in this case, Law Firm asks that Client agree, and by signing this Agreement Client does agree, to waive Client's rights to confidentiality and the attorney-client privilege as to the other class members and class representatives in this case. This waiver concerns the confidentiality of communications as to the other class members and class representatives in this case only, not as to any other persons such as opposing parties or other third parties.

9. Joint Representations. When attorneys represent multiple parties in a single lawsuit, there is the possibility that conflicts of interest may arise. However, Law Firm(s) are not aware of any conflicts of interest that preclude multiple representations in this case. Nonetheless, Law Firm(s) advise Client that Law Firm(s) will represent Client as long as there are no conflicts of interest that make multiple representations of the class, the Client and its class representatives, inappropriate. If Law Firms become aware of a conflict, Law Firm(s) will inform and advise Client of this conflict. At that point, Client may decide, if Client wishes, to seek the advice of another attorney, to try and resolve the conflict and agree upon an appropriate way to proceed, or to discontinue Law Firm(s)' representation of Client. Similarly, Law Firm(s) retain the right to withdraw from representing Client if a conflict arises that makes this necessary. By signing this Agreement, Client acknowledges an understanding of the potential for conflicts of interest and consents to Law Firm(s)' representation of Client, the class and other class representatives in this case.

10. Client grants Law Firms a limited power of attorney to place monies, referred to above, in Law Firm's trust account and from that trust account, make distributions and payments to Law Firms for the agreed to fees stated above, reimbursement to Law Firms for any and all expenses incurred by Law Firms in handling this case, payments to Client of Client's interest in the monies recovered as stated above, and payments to parties other than Client and Law Firms for their services performed, fees charged or bills rendered in connection with representing Client,

11. Before granting a lien in favor of Law Firm(s), which give Law Firm(s) a preferred right to recover its fees and costs from any recovery, Client is advised he or she has a right to confer with outside counsel of his or her choice as to the advisability of granting a lien and any other matter included in this Agreement. Client shall have the reasonable time necessary to seek this advice before executing this Agreement. By signing this Agreement Client acknowledges he or she understands his or her rights and terms of this Agreement and has either sought outside legal counsel of his or her choice or does not wish to do so. Whether you have actually consulted such law firm by signing this Agreement Client agrees that Law Firms will have a lien as specified above.

12. Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration. You have the right to elect arbitration pursuant to the fee arbitration procedures of the State Bar of California, in any dispute subject to the jurisdiction of the State of California over attorneys' fees, charges, costs or expenses, as set forth in California Business and Professions Code Section 6200, et seq.

If, after receiving a notice of this right to arbitrate, you do not elect to proceed under the State Bar fee arbitration procedures, and do not file a request for fee arbitration within 30 days, any dispute over fees, charges, costs or expenses, will be resolved by binding arbitration as described below.

Any controversy between the parties regarding the construction, application or performance of any services under this Agreement, and any claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or its breach, shall be submitted to binding arbitration upon the written request of one party after the service of that request on the other party. The sole and exclusive venue for arbitration shall be before Judicial Arbitration Mediation Services ("JAMS") in Los Angeles, California. All disputes between Client and Law Firms must be submitted to arbitration within the limitations period applicable to the particular claim made as provided by the California Code of Civil Procedure from the date Law Firms' representation of Client terminated or the last date on which Law Firms performed services for Client under this Agreement (whichever is later). Each party shall bear their own costs, expenses and attorney fees.

By initialing here, Client confirms that he/she has read and understand the paragraphs above, and voluntarily agrees to binding arbitration. In doing so, Client and law firm voluntarily give up important constitutional rights to trial by judge or jury, as well as rights to appeal. You are advised that you have the right to have an independent law firm of your choice review these arbitration provisions, and this entire agreement, prior to signing this Agreement. (Initials)

13. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between Attorneys and Client. There is to be no change or waiver of any provision of this agreement unless the changes are in writing and signed by Client and both The Bartz Law Group and United Employees Law Group.

14. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts. A signature by facsimile or via email will be deemed as valid and binding as an original signature.

15. The undersigned understands that a fully executed copy of this Agreement will be provided to Client upon acceptance of, and execution by Attorneys.

16. Client hereby specifically authorizes Attorneys, without any further notice by Attorneys to Client, to destroy Client's file three (3) years from the date Attorneys' representation of Client terminates, or from the date Attorneys last performs services for Client under this Agreement, whichever is later.

17. Should any provision of this Agreement be declared or determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, the legality, validity, and enforceability of the remaining parts, terms or provisions shall not be affected hereby and said illegal, unenforceable or invalid part, term, or provision shall be deemed not to be part of this Agreement.

DUTIES OF A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE

1. A class representative represents the interests of all members of his/her class in litigation to recover money damages or obtain injunctive relief for the class.
2. The class usually consists of all persons who are similarly situated with respect to a common course of conduct or practice. In other words, all those persons who are affected by the challenged behavior.
3. A class representative always considers the interests of the class just as he/she would consider his/her own interests and in some cases must put the interests of the class before their own interests. This means that you are a champion of the class or fiduciary litigant.
4. A class representative always actively participates in the lawsuit, as necessary, by, among other things, answering interrogatories, producing documents to the defendants and giving deposition and trial testimony if required. You may be required to travel to give such testimony.
5. A class representative recognizes and accepts that any resolution of the lawsuit, by dismissal or settlement, is subject to Court approval, and must be designed in the best interest of the class as a whole.
6. A class representative is not required to be particularly sophisticated or knowledgeable about the subject of the lawsuit. However, a class representative should follow the progress of the lawsuit and should provide all relevant facts to the attorneys for the class.
7. A class representative volunteers to represent or champion many other people with similar claims and injuries because of the importance of the case and that necessity that all class members benefit from the lawsuit equally; the savings of time, money and effort should benefit all parties and the Court. Class actions are an important tool to assure compliance with the law even where an individual's losses may be relatively small.

I have reviewed and acknowledge my duties as a class representative.
