UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT, CALIFORNIA LABOR
CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff BERNARDO DUBON (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff BERNARDO DUBON is an individual residing in the State of California.

28 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully

1 caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this
2 Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names
3 and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

9 hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

10 21. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants
11 identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions,
12 wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
13 employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the 14 statutory provisions set forth herein.

15 PAGA ALLEGATIONS

16 22. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff’s employment
17 by Defendants.

18 23. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under 19 the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the 20 LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered
21 through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other
22 current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code
23 section 2699.3.

24 24. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an 25 “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and 26 against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

27 25. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were 28 committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved

1 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 2 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of 3 Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

4 26. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
5 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 6 following requirements have been met:

- 7 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
8 (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce
9 Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified
10 Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor
11 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 12 support the alleged violations.
- 13 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 14 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not 15 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar
16 days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of 17 the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within
18 sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s
19 Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant 20 to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in 21 addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

22 27. On October 3, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to 23 the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendants NOWHERE BEVERLY HILLS LLC,
24 NOWHERE CALABASAS, LLC, NOWHERE CULVER CITY LLC, NOWHERE
25 COMMISSARY, LLC, NOWHERE HOLDCO, LLC, NOWHERE PALISADES, LLC,
26 NOWHERE PARTNERS, LLC, NOWHERE SANTA MONICA, LLC, NOWHERE
27 SILVER LAKE, LLC, NOWHERE VENICE, LLC, and MODERN HR, INC. of the specific 28 provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts

1 and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice
2 within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff's notice.

3 28. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under 4 California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for 5 violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 6 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

7 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

8 29. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 9 aggrieved hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants in 10 the State of California (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "other aggrieved 11 employees").

12 30. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-13 exempt employee from approximately August 2022 to approximately December 2022 in the 14 State of California, County of Los Angeles.

15 31. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees, and failed to 16 compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

17 32. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other 18 aggrieved employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other 19 aggrieved employees' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

20 33. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 21 Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' employment for them to be joint employers of 22 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

23 34. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the 24 other aggrieved employees.

25 35. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, within 26 the State of California.

27 36. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a
28 day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to

1 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 2 minimum wages for all hours worked.

3 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 5 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and 6 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all
7 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

8 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 10 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
11 employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages
12 and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor
13 Code section 204.

14 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 16 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 17 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 18 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by 19 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

20 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
21 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
22 records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law,
23 but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

24 47. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 26 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

27 48. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
28 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

49. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation.

50. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

51. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked.
