12 DEMAND FOR A JURY TRIAL

13 PLAINTIFF RAQUEL PATE-TERRELL (“PLAINTIFF”), an individual, on behalf of 14 PLAINTIFF and all other similarly situated current and former employees, alleges on information
15 and belief, except for their own acts and knowledge which are based on personal knowledge, the 16 following:

18 PRELIMINARY ALLEGATIONS

19 1. Defendant THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CEMETERIES OF THE DIOCESE OF 20 OAKLAND (“DEFENDANT RCC”) is a California nonprofit corporation that at all relevant times
21 mentioned herein conducted and continues to conduct substantial and regular business throughout 22 California.
23

24 2. DEFENDANT RCC owns and operates a Funeral Service business in California, 25 including the County of Contra Costa, where PLAINTIFF worked.
26

27 3. Defendant CATHOLIC FUNERAL AND CEMETARY SERVICES OF THE 28 DIOCESE OF SACRAMENTO, INC. (“DEFENDANT CFCS”) is a California nonprofit corporation that at all relevant times mentioned herein conducted and continues to conduct substantial and regular business throughout California.

4. DEFENDANT CFCS owns and operates a Funeral Services business in California, including the County of Contra Costa, where PLAINTIFF worked.

5. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, subsidiary, partnership, associate or otherwise of DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, are presently unknown to

1 PLAINTIFF, by such fictitious names pursuant to California Civil Procedure Code Section 474.
2 PLAINTIFF will seek leave to amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of 3 DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, when they are ascertained.

4 6. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief
5 alleges, that the DEFENDANTS, inclusive of DEFENDANT RCC, DEFENDANT CFCS, and 6 DOES 1 through 50 (hereinafter collectively “DEFENDANTS”), named in this Complaint, are 7 responsible in some manner for one or more of the events and happenings that proximately caused 8 the injuries and damages hereinafter alleged.

9 7. PLAINTIFF alleges that at all times relevant herein, DEFENDANT RCC,
10 DEFENDANT CFCS, and DOES 1-50, and each of them, were the agents, managers joint
11 venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors in interest,
12 predecessors in interest, co-conspirators, and/or assigns of each other, and at all times relevant 13 hereto, where acting the course and scope of their authority as such agents, managers, joint
14 venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors in interest,
15 predecessors in interest, co-conspirators, and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein
16 were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization,
17 and/or consent of each DEFENDANT RCC and/or DEFENDANT CFCS, inclusive of DOES 1 18 through 50.

19 8. PLAINTIFF further alleges that DEFENDANTS, and each of them, directly or 20 indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of 21 employment of PLAINTIFF and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS as defined infra, so as to make 22 each of the DEFENDANTS joint employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

23 9. PLAINTIFF further alleges that DEFENDANT RCC, DEFENDANT CFCS, and 24 DOES 1 through 25 (hereinafter collectively referred to as “ALTER EGO DEFENDANTS”) were 25 the agents, managers, director, majority shareholders, joint venturers, joint employers,
26 representatives, servants, employees, successors in interest, predecessors in interest, co-
27 conspirators, and/or assigns of each other, and that there existed such a unity of interest and 28

ownership among the ALTER EGO DEFENDANTS, such that any individuality or separateness between the entities or individuals has ceased.

10. Consequently, PLAINTIFF herein alleges that the ALTER EGO DEFENDANTS are the alter ego of each other, and that adherence to the fiction of the separate existence of the ALTER EGO DEFENDANTS would permit an abuse of the corporate privilege and would promote injustice by protecting ALTER EGO DEFENDANTS from liability for the wrongful acts committed by them.

11. PLAINTIFF further alleges that the ALTER EGO DEFENDANTS' various separate corporate entities are used by an individual or individuals, or by another corporation, to accomplish inequitable purposes, including to limit liability for the unlawful acts of the ALTER EGO DEFENDANTS.

12. PLAINTIFF further alleges that there is such a unity of interest and ownership between the ALTER EGO DEFENDANTS' various corporate entities and the individual or individuals, or organization controlling those corporate entities that their separate personalities no longer exist.

13. PLAINTIFF was employed by DEFENDANTS in California from September 2024 to December 2025, as a non-exempt employee, paid on an hourly basis, and entitled to the legally required meal and rest periods and payment of minimum and overtime wages due for all time worked.

14. PLAINTIFF reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

15. PLAINTIFF brings this Class Action on behalf of PLAINTIFF and a California class, defined as all persons who are or previously were employed by DEFENDANT RCC and/or DEFENDANT CFCS and/or Does 1-50, in California and classified as non-exempt employees (the "CALIFORNIA CLASS") at any time during the period beginning four (4) years prior to the filing of the original Complaint and ending on the date as determined by the Court (the "CLASS

1 PERIOD”). The amount in controversy for the aggregate claim of the CALIFORNIA CLASS
2 members is under five million dollars ($5,000,000.00).

3 16. PLAINTIFF brings this Class Action on behalf of PLAINTIFF and a CALIFORNIA
4 CLASS in order to fully compensate the CALIFORNIA CLASS for their losses incurred during the 5 CLASS PERIOD caused by DEFENDANTS’ uniform policy and practice which failed to lawfully 6 compensate these employees. DEFENDANTS’ uniform policy and practice alleged herein was an 7 unlawful, unfair, and deceptive business practice whereby DEFENDANTS retained and continue
8 to retain wages due to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS.
9 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS seek an injunction enjoining
10 such conduct by DEFENDANTS in the future, relief for the named PLAINTIFF and the other
11 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS who have been economically injured by DEFENDANTS’
12 past and current unlawful conduct, and all other appropriate legal and equitable relief.

13 17. The agents, servants and/or employees of DEFENDANTS and each of them acting 14 on behalf of DEFENDANTS acted within the course and scope of his, her or its authority as the 15 agent, servant and/or employee of DEFENDANTS, and personally participated in the conduct 16 alleged herein on behalf of the DEFENDANTS with respect to the conduct alleged herein.
17 Consequently, the acts of each DEFENDANTS are legally attributable to the other DEFENDANTS
18 and all DEFENDANTS are jointly and severally liable to PLAINTIFF and the other members of 19 the CALIFORNIA CLASS, for the loss sustained as a proximate result of the conduct of the 20 DEFENDANTS’ agents, servants and/or employees.

21 18. DEFENDANTS were PLAINTIFF’S employers or persons acting on behalf of 22 PLAINTIFF’S employer, within the meaning of California Labor Code Section 558, who violated
23 or caused to be violated, a Section of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California Labor Code or any provision 24 regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission and, as such,
25 are subject to civil penalties for each underpaid employee, as set forth in Labor Code Section 558,
26 at all relevant times.

27 19. DEFENDANTS were PLAINTIFF’S employers or persons acting on behalf of 28 PLAINTIFF’S employer either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person,

1 within the meaning of California Labor Code Section 1197.1, who paid or caused to be paid to any
2 employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by California state law, and as such, are subject to 3 civil penalties for each underpaid employee.

4 20. DEFENDANTS' uniform policies and practices alleged herein were unlawful,
5 unfair, and deceptive business practices whereby DEFENDANTS retained and continue to retain 6 wages due to PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS.

7 21. PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS seek an injunction
8 enjoining such conduct by DEFENDANTS in the future, relief for the named PLAINTIFF and other
9 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS who have been economically injured by DEFENDANTS'
10 past and current unlawful conduct, and all other appropriate legal and equitable relief.

11 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12 22. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil 13 Procedure Section 410.10 and California Business and Professions Code Section 17203. This action
14 is brought as a Class Action on behalf of PLAINTIFF and similarly situated employees of 15 DEFENDANTS pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382.

16 23. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure,
17 Sections 395 and 395.5, because DEFENDANTS operate in locations across California, employ
18 the CALIFORNIA CLASS across California, including in this county, and committed the wrongful
19 conduct herein alleged in this county against the CALIFORNIA CLASS.

20 THE CONDUCT

21 24. In violation of the applicable sections of the California Labor Code and the
22 requirements of the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order, DEFENDANTS as a
23 matter of company policy, practice, and procedure, intentionally, knowingly, and systematically
24 failed to provide legally compliant meal and rest periods, failed to accurately compensate
25 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for missed meal and rest periods,
26 failed to pay PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for all time worked,
27 failed to compensate PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for off-the-
28 clock work, failed to pay PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS

1 overtime at the correct regular rate of pay, failed to compensate PLAINTIFF and the other members
2 of the CALIFORNIA CLASS meal and rest premiums at the regular rate of pay, failed to pay
3 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS redeemed sick pay at the regular 4 rate of pay, failed to reimburse PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS
5 for business expenses, and failed to issue to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 6 CALIFORNIA CLASS with accurate itemized wage statements showing, among other things, all
7 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay periods and the corresponding amount of time
8 worked at each hourly rate. DEFENDANTS' uniform policies and practices are intended to 9 purposefully avoid the accurate and full payment for all time worked as required by California law
10 which allows DEFENDANTS to illegally profit and gain an unfair advantage over competitors who 11 comply with the law. To the extent equitable tolling operates to toll claims by the CALIFORNIA
12 CLASS against DEFENDANTS, the CLASS PERIOD should be adjusted accordingly.

13 A. Meal Period Violations

14 25. Pursuant to the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, DEFENDANTS were 15 required to pay PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members for all their time worked,
16 meaning the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, including all
17 the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work. From time to time during the CLASS
18 PERIOD, DEFENDANTS required PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members to work
19 without paying them for all the time they were under DEFENDANTS' control. Specifically,
20 DEFENDANTS required PLAINTIFF to work while clocked out during what was supposed to be 21 PLAINTIFF'S off-duty meal break. Indeed, there were many days when PLAINTIFF did not even 22 receive a partial lunch. As a result, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members 23 forfeited minimum wage and overtime compensation by regularly working without their time being 24 accurately recorded and without compensation at the applicable minimum wage and overtime rates.
25 DEFENDANTS' uniform policy and practice not to pay PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA
26 CLASS members for all time worked is evidenced by DEFENDANTS' business records.

27 26. From time to time during the CLASS PERIOD, as a result of their rigorous work
28 schedules and DEFENDANTS' inadequate staffing practices, PLAINTIFF and other

1 CALIFORNIA CLASS members are from time to time unable to take thirty (30) minute off-duty
2 meal breaks and were not fully relieved of duty for their meal periods. PLAINTIFF and other
3 CALIFORNIA CLASS members are required to perform work as ordered by DEFENDANTS for 4 more than five (5) hours during some shifts without receiving a meal break. Further,
5 DEFENDANTS failed to provide PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members with a second
6 off-duty meal period for some workdays in which DEFENDANTS require these employees to work
7 ten (10) hours of work. The nature of the work performed by PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA
8 CLASS members does not qualify for the limited and narrowly construed “on-duty” meal period
9 exception. When they were provided with meal periods, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA
10 CLASS members were, from time to time, required to remain on duty and on call. Further,
11 DEFENDANTS from time to time required PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS
12 members to maintain cordless communication devices in order to receive and respond to work-
13 related communications during what was supposed to be their off-duty meal breaks.
14 DEFENDANTS’ failure to provide PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS members with 15 legally required meal breaks is evidenced by DEFENDANTS’ business records. As a result of their 16 rigorous work schedules and DEFENDANTS’ inadequate staffing, PLAINTIFF and other members
17 of the CALIFORNIA CLASS therefore forfeit meal breaks without additional compensation and in 18 accordance with DEFENDANTS’ strict corporate policy and practice.

19 B. Rest Period Violations

20 27. From time to time during the CLASS PERIOD, PLAINTIFF and other
21 CALIFORNIA CLASS members were also required to work in excess of four (4) hours without 22 being provided ten (10) minute rest periods as a result of their rigorous work requirements and 23 DEFENDANTS’ inadequate staffing. Further, for the same reasons, these employees were denied 24 their first rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts worked of at least two (2) to four
25 (4) hours from time to time, a first and second rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts
26 worked of between six (6) and eight (8) hours from time to time, and a first, second and third rest 27 period of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts worked of ten (10) hours or more from time to 28 time. When they were provided with rest breaks, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS

1 members were, from time to time, required to remain on duty and/or on call. Further,
2 DEFENDANTS from time to time required PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS
3 members to maintain cordless communication devices in order to receive and respond to work-
4 related communications during what was supposed to be their off-duty rest breaks. PLAINTIFF
5 and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members were also not provided with one-hour wages in lieu
6 thereof. As a result of their rigorous work schedules and DEFENDANTS' inadequate staffing,
7 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members were from time to time denied their proper
8 rest periods by DEFENDANTS and DEFENDANTS' managers.

9 C. Unreimbursed Business Expenses

10 28. DEFENDANTS as a matter of corporate policy, practice, and procedure,
11 intentionally, knowingly, and systematically failed to reimburse and indemnify the PLAINTIFF
12 and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS members for required business expenses incurred by the 13 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members in direct consequence of discharging their 14 duties on behalf of DEFENDANTS. Under California Labor Code Section 2802, employers are 15 required to indemnify employees for all expenses incurred in the course and scope of their 16 employment. California Labor Code Section 2802 expressly states that "an employer shall 17 indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee
18 in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the 19 directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the 20 directions, believed them to be unlawful."

21 29. In the course of their employment, DEFENDANTS required PLAINTIFF and other
22 CALIFORNIA CLASS members to incur personal expenses for the use of their personal cell
23 phones, as a result of and in furtherance of their job duties. Specifically, PLAINTIFF and other 24 CALIFORNIA CLASS members were required to use their personal cell phones, in order to 25 perform work related tasks. However, DEFENDANTS unlawfully failed to reimburse
26 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members for the use of their personal cell phones.
27 As a result, in the course of their employment with DEFENDANTS, the PLAINTIFF and other
28 CALIFORNIA CLASS members incurred unreimbursed business expenses that included, but were

1 not limited to, costs related to the use of their personal cell phones all on behalf of and for the 2 benefit of DEFENDANTS.

3 D. Wage Statement Violations

4 30. California Labor Code Section 226 required an employer to furnish its employees
5 an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
6 worked, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece-rate, (4) all deductions,
7 (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 8 name of the employee and only the last four digits of the employee's social security number or an 9 employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of 10 the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay 11 period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

12 31. From time to time during the CLASS PERIOD, when PLAINTIFF and other
13 CALIFORNIA CLASS members missed meal and rest breaks, or were paid inaccurately for missed
14 meal and rest period premiums, or were not paid for all hours worked, DEFENDANTS also failed
15 to provide PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members with complete and accurate
16 wage statements which failed to show, among other things, all deductions, the total hours worked 17 and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding amount of time
18 worked at each hourly rate, correct rates of pay for penalty payments or missed meal and rest 19 periods.

20 32. In addition to the foregoing, DEFENDANTS, from time to time, failed to provide 21 PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS Members with wage statements that comply with 22 California Labor Code Section 226.

23 33. As a result, DEFENDANTS issued PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS
24 members with wage statements that violate California Lab. Code § 226(a)(1)-(9). Further, 25 DEFENDANTS' violations are knowing and intentional, and were not isolated due to an 26 unintentional payroll error due to clerical or inadvertent mistake.

27
28 ///

1 E. Off-the-Clock Work Resulting in Minimum Wage and Overtime Violations

2 34. During the CLASS PERIOD, from time-to-time DEFENDANTS failed and
3 continues to fail to accurately pay PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS
4 for all hours worked.

5 35. During the CLASS PERIOD, from time-to-time DEFENDANTS required
6 PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS to perform pre-shift or post-shift
7 work, including but not limited to, performing keyholder duties. This resulted in PLAINTIFF and 8 other CALIFORNIA CLASS members having to work while off-the-clock.

9 36. DEFENDANTS directed and directly benefited from the undercompensated off-the-
10 clock work performed by PLAINTIFF and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS members.

11 37. DEFENDANTS controlled the work schedules, duties, and protocols, applications,
12 assignments, and employment conditions of PLAINTIFF and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS 13 members.

14 38. DEFENDANTS were able to track the amount of time PLAINTIFF and the other 15 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS spent working; however, DEFENDANTS failed to 16 document, track, or pay PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS all 17 wages earned and owed for all the work they performed.

18 39. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS were non-exempt
19 employees, subject to the requirements of the California Labor Code.

20 40. DEFENDANTS' policies and practices deprived PLAINTIFF and the other
21 CALIFORNIA CLASS members of all minimum regular, overtime, and double time wages owed
22 for the off-the-clock work activities. Because PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 23 CALIFORNIA CLASS typically worked over forty (40) hours in a workweek, and more than eight 24 (8) hours per day, DEFENDANTS' policies and practices also deprived them of overtime pay.

25 41. DEFENDANTS knew or should have known that PLAINTIFF'S and the other 26 CALIFORNIA CLASS members' off-the-clock work was compensable under the law.

27 42. As a result, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS
28 forfeited wages due to them for all hours worked at DEFENDANTS' direction, control, and benefit

1 for the time spent working while off-the-clock, including but not limited to, performing key holder
2 duties. DEFENDANTS' uniform policy and practice to not pay PLAINTIFF and the members of 3 the CALIFORNIA CLASS wages for all hours worked in accordance with applicable law is 4 evidenced by DEFENDANTS' business records.

5 F. Regular Rate Violation – Overtime, Double Time, Meal and Rest Period Premiums, and 6 Redeemed Sick Pay

7 43. From time to time during the CLASS PERIOD, DEFENDANTS failed and 8 continues to fail to accurately calculate and pay PLAINTIFF and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS 9 members for their overtime and double time hours worked, meal and rest period premiums, and 10 redeemed sick pay. As a result, PLAINTIFF and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS members
11 forfeited wages due to them for working overtime without compensation at the correct overtime
12 and double time rates, meal and rest period premiums, and redeemed sick pay rates.
13 DEFENDANTS' uniform policy and practice not to pay the CALIFORNIA CLASS members at 14 the correct rate for all overtime and double time worked, meal and rest period premiums, and sick
15 pay in accordance with applicable law is evidenced by DEFENDANTS' business records.

16 44. State law provides that employees must be paid overtime at one-and-one-half times
17 their "regular rate of pay." PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members were 18 compensated at an hourly rate plus incentive pay that was tied to specific elements of an employee's 19 performance.

20 45. The second component of PLAINTIFF'S and other CALIFORNIA CLASS
21 members' compensation was DEFENDANTS' non-discretionary incentive program that paid
22 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members incentive wages based on their 23 performance for DEFENDANTS. The non-discretionary bonus program provided all employees
24 paid on an hourly basis with bonus compensation when the employees met the various performance
25 goals set by DEFENDANTS.

26 46. However, from time to time, when calculating the regular rate of pay in those pay
27 periods where PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members worked overtime, double 28 time, paid meal and rest period premium payments, and/or redeemed sick pay, and earned non-

1 discretionary bonuses, DEFENDANTS failed to accurately include the non-discretionary bonus
2 compensation as part of the employee's "regular rate of pay" and/or calculated all hours worked
3 rather than just all non-overtime hours worked. Management and supervisors described the 4 incentive/bonus program to potential and new employees as part of the compensation package. As 5 a matter of law, the incentive compensation received by PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA
6 CLASS members must be included in the "regular rate of pay." The failure to do so has resulted in 7 a systematic underpayment of overtime and double time compensation, meal and rest period
8 premium payments, and redeemed sick pay to PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS
9 members by DEFENDANTS. Specifically, California Labor Code Section 246 mandates that paid
10 sick time for non-exempt employees shall be calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of 11 pay for the workweek in which the non-exempt employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the 12 employee actually works overtime in that workweek. DEFENDANTS' conduct, as articulated 13 herein, by failing to include the incentive compensation as part of the "regular rate of pay" for 14 purposes of sick pay compensation was in violation of California Labor Code Section 246, the 15 underpayment of which is recoverable under California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, and/or 16 204.

17 47. In violation of the applicable sections of the California Labor Code and the 18 requirements of the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order, DEFENDANTS as a 19 matter of company policy, practice, and procedure, intentionally and knowingly failed to 20 compensate PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS at the correct rate
21 of pay for all overtime and double time worked, meal and rest period premiums, and redeemed sick
22 pay as required by California law which allowed DEFENDANTS to illegally profit and gain an 23 unfair advantage over competitors who complied with the law. To the extent equitable tolling
24 operates to toll claims by the CALIFORNIA CLASS members against DEFENDANTS, the CLASS
25 PERIOD should be adjusted accordingly.

26
27 ///
28

1 G. Unlawful Deductions

2 48. DEFENDANTS, from time-to-time, unlawfully deducted wages from 3 PLAINTIFF'S and CALIFORNIA CLASS members' pay without explanations and without 4 authorization to do so or notice to PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS members. As a 5 result, DEFENDANTS violated Labor Code Section 221.

6 H. Timekeeping Manipulation

7 49. During the CLASS PERIOD, DEFENDANTS, from time-to-time, did not have an 8 immutable timekeeping system to accurately record and pay PLAINTIFF and other members of 9 the CALIFORNIA CLASS for the actual time PLAINTIFF and other members of the 10 CALIFORNIA CLASS worked each day, including regular time, overtime hours, sick pay, meal
11 and rest breaks. As a result, DEFENDANTS were able to and did in fact, unlawfully, and 12 unilaterally alter the time recorded in DEFENDANTS' timekeeping system for PLAINTIFF and 13 other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS in order to avoid paying these employees for all 14 hours worked, applicable overtime compensation, applicable sick pay, missed meal breaks and 15 missed rest breaks.

16 50. As a result, PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, from 17 time to time, forfeited time worked by working without their time being accurately recorded and 18 without compensation at the applicable pay rates.

19 51. The mutability of the timekeeping system also allowed DEFENDANTS to alter
20 employee time records by recording fictitious thirty (30) minute meal breaks in DEFENDANTS'
21 timekeeping system to create the appearance that PLAINTIFF and other members of the 22 CALIFORNIA CLASS clocked out for thirty (30) minute meal breaks when, in fact, the employees
23 were not provided an off-duty meal break at all times. This practice is a direct result of 24 DEFENDANTS' uniform policy and practice of denying employees uninterrupted thirty (30)
25 minute off-duty meal breaks each day or otherwise failing to compensate them for missed meal 26 breaks.

27 ///

52. As a result, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS forfeited wages due to them for all hours worked at DEFENDANTS' direction, control and benefit for the time that DEFENDANTS' timekeeping system was inoperable. DEFENDANTS' uniform policy and practice to not pay PLAINTIFF and the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS wages for all hours worked in accordance with applicable law is evidenced by DEFENDANTS' business records.

I. Unlawful Rounding Practices

53. During the CALIFORNIA CLASS PERIOD, DEFENDANTS did not have in place an immutable timekeeping system to accurately record and pay PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members for the actual time these employees worked each day, including overtime hours. Specifically, DEFENDANTS had in place an unlawful rounding policy and practice that resulted in PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members being undercompensated for all their time worked. As a result, DEFENDANTS were able to and did in fact unlawfully and unilaterally round the time recorded in DEFENDANTS' timekeeping system for PLAINTIFF and the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS in order to avoid paying these employees for all their time worked, including the applicable overtime compensation for overtime worked. As a result, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members, from time to time, forfeited compensation for their time worked by working without their time being accurately recorded and without compensation at the applicable overtime rates.

54. Further, the mutability of DEFENDANTS' timekeeping system and unlawful rounding policy and practice resulted in PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members' time being inaccurately recorded. As a result, from time to time, DEFENDANTS' unlawful rounding policy and practice caused PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members to perform work as ordered by DEFENDANTS for more than five (5) hours during a shift without receiving an off-duty meal break.

1 J. Violations for Untimely Payment of Wages

2 55. Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 204, PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA
3 CLASS members were entitled to timely payment of wages during their employment. PLAINTIFF
4 and the CALIFORNIA CLASS members, from time to time, did not receive payment of all wages,
5 including, but not limited to, overtime wages, minimum wages, meal period premium wages, and 6 rest period premium wages within the permissible time period.

7 56. Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 201, “If an employer discharges an 8 employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.”
9 Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 202, if an employee quits his or her employment, “his 10 or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee 11 has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is 12 entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.” PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS 13 members were, from time to time, not timely provided the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 14 their discharge and/or at the time of quitting, in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201 15 and 202.

16 57. As such, PLAINTIFF demands up to thirty days of pay as penalty for not timely 17 paying all wages due at time of termination for all CALIFORNIA CLASS members whose 18 employment ended during the CLASS PERIOD.

19 K. Sick Pay Violations

20 58. California Labor Code Section 246 (a)(1) mandates that “An employee who, on or 21 after July 1, 2015, works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year
22 from the commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days as specified in this section.”
23 Further, California Labor Code Sections 246(b)-(d) provide for the sick day accrual requirements.
24 From time to time, DEFENDANTS failed to have a policy or practice in place to provide
25 PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS with sick days and/or paid sick
26 leave. As of January 1, 2024, DEFENDANTS failed to adhere to the law in that they failed to 27 provide and allow employees to use at least 40 hours or five days of paid sick leave per year.

28 ///

1 59. California Labor Code Section 246(i) requires an employer to furnish its employees
2 with written wage statements setting forth the amount of paid sick leave available. From time to
3 time, DEFENDANTS violated California Labor Code Section 246 by failing to furnish PLAINTIFF
4 and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS with wage statements setting forth the amount of 5 paid sick leave available.

6 L. Reporting Time Violations

7 60. Further, DEFENDANTS from time to time required PLAINTIFF and other
8 CALIFORNIA CLASS Members to report to work but were furnished less than half their scheduled
9 shift's worth of work and were not paid reporting time pay as required by Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8 §
10 11040, subdivision(A). Specifically, Subdivision 5(A) states, "(A) Each workday an employee is 11 required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said 12 employee's usual or scheduled day's work, the employee shall be paid for half the usual or 13 scheduled day's work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at 14 the employee's regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage." In addition,
15 when DEFENDANTS required PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members to engage 16 in additional work, this sometimes resulted in a second reporting for work in a single workday. In 17 such a circumstance of a second reporting for work in a single workday, DEFENDANTS failed to 18 pay these employees reporting time pay as required by Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8 § 11040. Subdivision
19 5(B) states: "If an employee is required to report for work a second time in any one workday and is 20 furnished less than two (2) hours of work on the second reporting, said employee shall be paid for 21 two (2) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay, which shall be not less than the minimum 22 wage." Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8 § 11040, subd. 5(B).

23 M. Failure to Provide Personnel Files

24 61. On January 28, 2026, and March 20, 2026, PLAINTIFF caused written requests via
25 certified mail to be delivered to DEFENDANTS for PLAINTIFF'S personnel and employment
26 records, including but not limited to: (1) payroll records; (2) employment contracts; (3) itemized
27 pay stubs; (4) time records; and (5) PLAINTIFF'S complete employment file.

28 ///

1 62. DEFENDANTS failed to provide and/or make available to PLAINTIFF their
2 personnel records, payroll records, time records, employment contract, and entire employment file
3 within thirty (30) days of their requests stated above. In fact, as of the date of filing of this
4 complaint, DEFENDANTS have still failed to pay PLAINTIFF the statutory penalty in the amount
5 of $750 pursuant to California Labor Code Sections 226 and 1198.5. DEFENDANTS violated
6 California Labor Code Sections 226, 432, and 1198.5 and the applicable IWC Wage Order by 7 failing to respond and provide PLAINTIFF with their employment file. Labor Code Section 226(b)
8 requires employers to make payroll records available to employees upon reasonable request. Labor
9 Code Section 226(c) further requires that the employer comply with the request for records as soon
10 as practicable, but no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of request. Labor Code
11 Section 226(f) entitles employees to recover civil penalties of $750 against an employer who 12 violates these requirements. Labor Code Section 432 also entitles an employee to receive copies of 13 any signed documents related to the obtaining or holding of employment. Finally, pursuant to the 14 applicable Industrial Welfare Commission wage orders, DEFENDANTS are required to maintain 15 accurate records for employees, including time records, and such records must be made readily 16 available for inspection by the employee upon a reasonable request. Section 1198.5 states that 17 employees (and former employees) have the right to inspect personnel records maintained by the 18 employer “related to the employee’s performance or to any grievance concerning the employee.”
19 Employers must allow inspection or copying within thirty (30) days of the request. As a result,
20 PLAINTIFF is now entitled to and requests injunctive relief to obtain compliance with California
21 Labor Code Sections 226, 432, 1198.5 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and applicable
22 statutory penalties and an award of attorneys’ fees and costs for bringing this action.

23 63. Specifically, as to PLAINTIFF, PLAINTIFF was from time to time unable to take 24 off-duty meal and rest breaks and was not fully relieved of duty for their rest and meal periods.
25 PLAINTIFF was required to perform work as ordered by DEFENDANTS for more than five (5)
26 hours during a shift without receiving an off-duty meal break. Further, DEFENDANTS failed to 27 provide PLAINTIFF with a second off-duty meal period each workday in which DEFENDANTS 28 required them to work ten (10) hours of work. When DEFENDANTS provided PLAINTIFF with a rest break, they required PLAINTIFF to remain on-duty and on-call for the rest break.

1 DEFENDANTS' policy caused PLAINTIFF to remain on-call and on-duty during what was
2 supposed to be their off-duty meal periods. PLAINTIFF therefore forfeited meal and rest breaks
3 without additional compensation and in accordance with DEFENDANTS' strict corporate policy
4 and practice. Moreover, DEFENDANTS also provided PLAINTIFF with paystubs that failed to 5 comply with California Labor Code Section 226. Further, DEFENDANTS also failed to reimburse
6 PLAINTIFF for required business expenses related to the personal expenses incurred for the use
7 of their personal cell phone, on behalf of and in furtherance of their employment with 8 DEFENDANTS. Additionally, DEFENDANTS failed to provide and/or make available to 9 PLAINTIFF their personnel records, payroll records, time records, employment contracts, and 10 entire employment file within (30) days of all their requests on January 28, 2026, and March 20, 11 2026. To date, DEFENDANTS have not fully paid PLAINTIFF the minimum, overtime and 12 double time compensation still owed to PLAINTIFF, or any penalty wages owed to PLAINTIFF
13 under California Labor Code Section 203. The amount in controversy for PLAINTIFF individually
14 does not exceed the sum or value of $75,000.

15 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

16 64. PLAINTIFF brings this Class Action on behalf of PLAINTIFF, and a California
17 class defined as all persons who are or previously were employed by DEFENDANT RCC and/or 18 DEFENDANT CFCS and/or DOES 1-50 in California and classified as non-exempt employees at 19 any time during the period beginning four (4) years prior to the filing of the original Complaint and 20 ending on the date as determined by the Court.

21 65. PLAINTIFF and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS members have uniformly been 22 deprived of wages and penalties from unpaid wages earned and due, including but not limited to 23 unpaid minimum wages, unpaid overtime compensation, unpaid meal and rest period premiums, 24 illegal meal and rest period policies, failure to reimburse for business expenses, failure to 25 compensate for off-the-clock work, failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failure to 26 maintain required records, and interest, statutory and civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and 27 expenses.

28 ///

1 66. The members of the class are so numerous that joinder of all class members is 2 impractical.

3 67. Common questions of law and fact regarding DEFENDANTS' conduct, including 4 but not limited to, off-the-clock work, unpaid meal and rest period premiums, failure to accurately
5 calculate the regular rate of pay for overtime compensation, failure to accurately calculate the 6 regular rate of compensation for missed meal and rest period premiums, failure to provide legally
7 compliant meal and rest periods, failure to reimburse for business expenses, failure to provide 8 accurate itemized wage statements, and failure to ensure they are paid at least minimum wage and 9 overtime, exist as to all members of the class and predominate over any questions affecting solely 10 any individual members of the class. Among the questions of law and fact common to the class are:

- 11 a. Whether DEFENDANTS maintained legally compliant meal period policies and 12 practices;
- 13 b. Whether DEFENDANTS maintained legally compliant rest period policies and 14 practices;
- 15 c. Whether DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS 16 members accurate premium payments for missed meal and rest periods;
- 17 d. Whether DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS 18 members accurate overtime wages;
- 19 e. Whether DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS 20 members at least minimum wage for all hours worked;
- 21 f. Whether DEFENDANTS failed to compensate PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA
22 CLASS members for required business expenses;
- 23 g. Whether DEFENDANTS issued legally compliant wage statements;
- 24 h. Whether DEFENDANTS committed an act of unfair competition by systematically
25 failing to record and pay PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA
26 CLASS for all time worked;
- 27 i. Whether DEFENDANTS committed an act of unfair competition by systematically
28 failing to record all meal and rest breaks missed by PLAINTIFF and other

CALIFORNIA CLASS members, even though DEFENDANTS enjoyed the benefit of this work, required employees to perform this work and permits or suffers to permit this work;

- j. Whether DEFENDANTS committed an act of unfair competition in violation of California Business and Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq. (the “UCL”), by failing to provide the PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS with the legally required meal and rest periods.

68. PLAINTIFF is a member of the CALIFORNIA CLASS and suffered damages as a result of DEFENDANTS’ conduct and actions alleged herein.

69. PLAINTIFF’S claims are typical of the claims of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, and PLAINTIFF has the same interests as the other members of the class.

70. PLAINTIFF will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the CALIFORNIA CLASS members.

71. PLAINTIFF retained able class counsel with extensive experience in class action litigation.

72. Further, PLAINTIFF’S interests are coincident with, and not antagonistic to, the interest of the other CALIFORNIA CLASS members.

73. There is a strong community of interest among PLAINTIFF and the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS to, inter alia, ensure that the combined assets of DEFENDANTS are sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for the injuries sustained.

74. The questions of law and fact common to the CALIFORNIA CLASS members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, including legal and factual issues relating to liability and damages.

75. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy because joinder of all class members is impractical. Moreover, since the damages suffered by individual members of the class may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation make it practically impossible for the members of the class

1 individually to redress the wrongs done to them. Without class certification and determination of 2 declaratory, injunctive, statutory, and other legal questions within the class format, prosecution of 3 separate actions by individual members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS will create the risk of:

- 4 a. Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the 5 CALIFORNIA CLASS which would establish incompatible standards of conduct 6 for the parties opposing the CALIFORNIA CLASS; and/or,
- 7 b. Adjudication with respect to individual members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS
8 which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the other
9 members not party to the adjudication or substantially impair or impede their ability
10 to protect their interests.

11 76. Class treatment provides manageable judicial treatment calculated to bring an 12 efficient and rapid conclusion to all litigation of all wage and hour related claims arising out of the 13 conduct of DEFENDANTS.

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 Unlawful Business Practices

16 (Cal. Bus. and Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

17 (Alleged by PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS against DEFENDANTS)

18 77. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, reallege and 19 incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior paragraphs of this 20 Complaint.

21 78. DEFENDANTS are each a “person” as that term is defined under California
22 Business and Professions Code Section 17021.

23 79. California Business and Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq. (the “UCL”)
24 defines unfair competition as any unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business act or practice. Section
25 17203 authorizes injunctive, declaratory, and/or other equitable relief with respect to unfair
26 competition as follows:

27 Any person who engages, has engaged, or proposes to engage in unfair competition 28 may be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction. The court may make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by any person of any practice which constitutes unfair

1 competition, as defined in this chapter, or as may be necessary to restore to any person
2 in interest any money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired
3 by means of such unfair competition. (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17203).

4 80. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANTS have engaged and continues to 5 engage in business practices which violate California law, including but not limited to, the 6 applicable Wage Order(s), the California Code of Regulations and the California Labor Code
7 including Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 8 2802, for which this Court should issue declaratory and other equitable relief pursuant to California
9 Business and Professions Code Section 17203 as may be necessary to prevent and remedy the 10 conduct held to constitute unfair competition, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

11 81. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANTS' practices were unlawful and unfair
12 in that these practices violated public policy, were immoral, unethical, oppressively unscrupulous 13 or substantially injurious to employees, and were without valid justification or utility for which this
14 Court should issue equitable and injunctive relief pursuant to Section 17203 of the California
15 Business and Professions Code, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

16 82. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANTS' practices were deceptive and 17 fraudulent in that DEFENDANTS' uniform policy and practice failed to provide the legally 18 mandated meal and rest periods and the required amount of compensation for missed meal and rest
19 periods, failed to pay minimum and overtime wages owed, and failed to reimburse all necessary 20 business expenses incurred, due to a systematic business practice that cannot be justified, pursuant 21 to the applicable California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission requirements in 22 violation of California Business and Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq., and for which this
23 Court should issue injunctive and equitable relief, pursuant to California Business and Professions
24 Code Section 17203, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

25 83. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANTS' practices were also unlawful,
26 unfair, and deceptive in that DEFENDANTS' employment practices caused PLAINTIFF and the 27 other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS to be underpaid during their employment with 28 DEFENDANTS.

1 84. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANTS' practices were also unfair and 2 deceptive in that DEFENDANTS' uniform policies, practices and procedures failed to provide 3 mandatory meal and/or rest breaks to PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS members as 4 required by California Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512.

5 85. Therefore, PLAINTIFF demands on behalf of PLAINTIFF and on behalf of each
6 CALIFORNIA CLASS member, one (1) hour of pay for each workday in which an off-duty meal
7 period was not timely provided for each five (5) hours of work, and/or one (1) hour of pay for each
8 workday in which a second off-duty meal period was not timely provided for each ten (10) hours 9 of work.

10 86. PLAINTIFF further demands on behalf of PLAINTIFF and on behalf of each 11 CALIFORNIA CLASS member, one (1) hour of pay for each workday in which a rest period was 12 not timely provided as required by law.

13 87. By and through the unlawful and unfair business practices described herein,
14 DEFENDANTS have obtained valuable property, money and services from PLAINTIFF and the 15 other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, including earned wages for all time worked, and has 16 deprived them of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law and contract, all to the detriment
17 of these employees and to the benefit of DEFENDANTS so as to allow DEFENDANTS to unfairly
18 compete against competitors who comply with the law.

19 88. All the acts described herein as violations of, among other things, the Industrial 20 Welfare Commission Wage Orders, the California Code of Regulations, and the California Labor
21 Code, were unlawful and in violation of public policy, were immoral, unethical, oppressive, and 22 unscrupulous, were deceptive, and thereby constitute unlawful, unfair, and deceptive business
23 practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq.

24 89. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS are entitled to,
25 and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to restore to them the money and property which 26 DEFENDANTS have acquired, or of which PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 27 CALIFORNIA CLASS have been deprived, by means of the above described unlawful and unfair
28 business practices, including earned but unpaid wages for all time worked.

1 95. California Labor Code Section 1194 establishes an employee's right to recover
2 unpaid wages, including minimum wage compensation and interest thereon, together with the costs
3 of suit.

4 96. DEFENDANTS maintained a uniform wage practice of paying PLAINTIFF and the 5 other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS without regard to the correct amount of time they 6 work. As set forth herein, DEFENDANTS' uniform policy and practice was to unlawfully and 7 intentionally deny timely payment of wages due to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 8 CALIFORNIA CLASS.

9 97. DEFENDANTS' uniform pattern of unlawful wage and hour practices manifested,
10 without limitation, applicable to the CALIFORNIA CLASS as a whole, as a result of implementing 11 a uniform policy and practice that denies accurate compensation to PLAINTIFF and the other 12 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS in regard to minimum wage pay.

13 98. In committing these violations of the California Labor Code, DEFENDANTS
14 inaccurately calculated the correct time worked and consequently underpaid the actual time worked 15 by PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS. DEFENDANTS acted in an 16 illegal attempt to avoid the payment of all earned wages, and other benefits in violation of the 17 California Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare Commission requirements and other applicable laws 18 and regulations.

19 99. As a direct result of DEFENDANTS' unlawful wage practices as alleged herein,
20 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS did not receive the correct
21 minimum wage compensation for their time worked for DEFENDANTS.

22 100. During the CLASS PERIOD, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 23 CALIFORNIA CLASS were paid less for time worked than they were entitled to, constituting a 24 failure to pay all earned wages.

25 101. By virtue of DEFENDANTS' unlawful failure to accurately pay all earned
26 compensation to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for the true
27 time they worked, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS have suffered 28

1 and will continue to suffer an economic injury in amounts which are presently unknown to them,
2 and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

3 102. DEFENDANTS knew or should have known that PLAINTIFF and the other
4 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS were under-compensated for their time worked.
5 DEFENDANTS systematically elected, either through intentional malfeasance or gross
6 nonfeasance, to not pay employees for their labor as a matter of uniform company policy, practice
7 and procedure, and DEFENDANTS perpetrated this systematic scheme by refusing to pay
8 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS the correct minimum wages for 9 their time worked.

10 103. In performing the acts and practices herein alleged in violation of California labor
11 laws, and refusing to compensate the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for all time worked
12 and provide them with the requisite compensation, DEFENDANTS acted and continues to act
13 intentionally, oppressively, and maliciously toward PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 14 CALIFORNIA CLASS with a conscious and utter disregard for their legal rights, or the 15 consequences to them, and with the despicable intent of depriving them of their property and legal 16 rights, and otherwise causing them injury in order to increase company profits at the expense of 17 these employees.

18 104. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS therefore request
19 recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the assessment
20 of any statutory penalties against DEFENDANTS, in a sum as provided by the California Labor
21 Code and/or other applicable statutes. To the extent minimum wage compensation is determined 22 to be owed to the CALIFORNIA CLASS members who have terminated their employment, 23 DEFENDANTS' conduct also violates Labor Code Sections 201 and/or 202, and therefore these 24 individuals are also be entitled to waiting time penalties under California Labor Code Section 203,
25 which penalties are sought herein on behalf of these CALIFORNIA CLASS members.
26 DEFENDANTS' conduct as alleged herein was willful, intentional and not in good faith. Further,
27 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members are entitled to seek and recover statutory 28 costs.

1 other CALIFORNIA CLASS members and denied accurate compensation to PLAINTIFF and the 2 other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for overtime worked, including, the overtime work
3 performed in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, and/or twelve (12) hours in a workday, and/or 4 forty (40) hours in any workweek.

5 112. In committing these violations of the California Labor Code, DEFENDANTS
6 inaccurately recorded overtime worked and consequently underpaid the overtime worked by 7 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members. DEFENDANTS acted in an illegal
8 attempt to avoid the payment of all earned wages, and other benefits in violation of the California
9 Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare Commission requirements and other applicable laws and 10 regulations.

11 113. As a direct result of DEFENDANTS' unlawful wage practices as alleged herein,
12 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS did not receive the correct
13 overtime compensation for their time worked for DEFENDANTS.

14 114. California Labor Code Section 515 sets out various categories of employees who are 15 exempt from the overtime requirements of the law. None of these exemptions are applicable to 16 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS. Further, PLAINTIFF and the 17 other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS are not subject to a valid collective bargaining
18 agreement that would preclude the causes of action contained herein this Complaint. Rather,
19 PLAINTIFF brings this Action on behalf of PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS based on 20 DEFENDANTS' violations of non-negotiable, non-waivable rights provided by the State of 21 California.

22 115. During the CLASS PERIOD, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 23 CALIFORNIA CLASS were paid less for overtime worked than they were entitled to, constituting 24 a failure to pay all earned wages.

25 116. DEFENDANTS failed to accurately pay PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 26 CALIFORNIA CLASS overtime wages for the time they worked which was in excess of the 27 maximum hours permissible by law as required by California Labor Code Sections 510, 1194, and 28 1198, even though PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS were

1 regularly required to work, and did in fact work overtime, and did in fact work overtime as to which
2 DEFENDANTS failed to accurately record and pay as evidenced by DEFENDANTS' business
3 records and witnessed by employees.

4 117. By virtue of DEFENDANTS' unlawful failure to accurately pay all earned
5 compensation to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for the true
6 amount of overtime they worked, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA
7 CLASS have suffered and will continue to suffer an economic injury in amounts which are presently 8 unknown to them, and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

9 118. DEFENDANTS knew or should have known that PLAINTIFF and the other
10 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS were undercompensated for their time worked.
11 DEFENDANTS systematically elected, either through intentional malfeasance or gross
12 nonfeasance, to not pay them for their labor as a matter of uniform company policy, practice and 13 procedure, and DEFENDANTS perpetrated this systematic scheme by refusing to pay PLAINTIFF
14 and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS the correct overtime wages for their overtime 15 worked.

16 119. In performing the acts and practices herein alleged in violation of California labor
17 laws, and refusing to compensate the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for all time worked
18 and provide them with the requisite compensation, DEFENDANTS acted and continues to act
19 intentionally, oppressively, and maliciously toward PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 20 CALIFORNIA CLASS with a conscious of and utter disregard for their legal rights, or the 21 consequences to them, and with the despicable intent of depriving them of their property and legal
22 rights, and otherwise causing them injury in order to increase company profits at the expense of 23 these employees.

24 120. Therefore, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS request
25 recovery of overtime wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the assessment
26 of any statutory penalties against DEFENDANTS, in a sum as provided by the California Labor
27 Code and/or other applicable statutes. To the extent overtime compensation is determined to be 28 owed to the CALIFORNIA CLASS members who have terminated their employment,

1 DEFENDANTS' conduct also violates California Labor Code Sections 201 and/or 202, and 2 therefore these individuals are also be entitled to waiting time penalties under California Labor
3 Code 203, which penalties are sought herein. DEFENDANTS' conduct as alleged herein was 4 willful, intentional, and not in good faith. Further, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS
5 members are entitled to seek and recover statutory costs.

6 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 Failure To Provide Required Meal Periods

8 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512)

9 (Alleged by PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS against DEFENDANTS)

10 121. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS reallege and
11 incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior paragraphs of this
12 Complaint.

13 122. During the CLASS PERIOD, DEFENDANTS failed to provide all the legally 14 required off-duty meal breaks to PLAINTIFF and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS members as 15 required by the applicable Wage Order and Labor Code. The nature of the work performed by 16 PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members did not prevent these employees from being 17 relieved of all of their duties for the legally required off-duty meal periods. As a result of their 18 rigorous work schedules, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members were often not 19 fully relieved of duty by DEFENDANTS for their meal periods. Additionally, DEFENDANTS'
20 failure to provide PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS members with legally required meal
21 breaks prior to their fifth (5th) hour of work is evidenced by DEFENDANTS' business records.
22 Further, DEFENDANTS failed to provide PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members with 23 a second off-duty meal period in some workdays in which DEFENDANTS required these 24 employees to work ten (10) hours of work. As a result, PLAINTIFF and other members of the 25 CALIFORNIA CLASS forfeited meal breaks without additional compensation and in accordance 26 with DEFENDANTS' strict corporate policy and practice.

27 123. DEFENDANTS further violated California Labor Code Section 226.7 and the 28 applicable IWC Wage Order by failing to compensate PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS

1 members who were not provided a meal period, in accordance with the applicable Wage Order, one
2 additional hour of compensation at each employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a
3 meal period was not provided.

4 124. As a proximate result of the aforementioned violations, PLAINTIFF and 5 CALIFORNIA CLASS members have been damaged in an amount according to proof at trial, and 6 seek all wages earned and due, interest, penalties, expenses and costs of suit.

7 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 Failure To Provide Required Rest Periods

9 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512)

10 (Alleged by PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS against DEFENDANTS)

11 125. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, reallege and 12 incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior paragraphs of this
13 Complaint.

14 126. From time to time, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members were 15 required to work in excess of four (4) hours without being provided ten (10) minute rest periods.
16 Further, these employees were denied their first rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for some 17 shifts worked of at least two (2) to four (4) hours, a first and second rest period of at least ten (10)
18 minutes for some shifts worked of between six (6) and eight (8) hours, and a first, second and third
19 rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts worked of ten (10) hours or more. PLAINTIFF
20 and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members were also not provided with one-hour wages in lieu
21 thereof. As a result of their rigorous work schedules, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS
22 members were periodically denied their proper rest periods by DEFENDANTS and 23 DEFENDANTS' managers. In addition, DEFENDANTS failed to compensate PLAINTIFF and 24 other CALIFORNIA CLASS members for their rest periods as required by the applicable Wage
25 Order and Labor Code. As a result, DEFENDANTS' failure to provide PLAINTIFF and the 26 CALIFORNIA CLASS members with all the legally required paid rest periods is evidenced by 27 DEFENDANTS' business records.

28 ///

127. DEFENDANTS further violated California Labor Code Sections 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order by failing to compensate PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members who were not provided a rest period, in accordance with the applicable Wage Order, one additional hour of compensation at each employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that rest period was not provided.

128. As a proximate result of the aforementioned violations, PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS members have been damaged in an amount according to proof at trial, and seek all wages earned and due, interest, penalties, expenses and costs of suit.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure To Provide Accurate Itemized Statements

(Cal. Lab. Code § 226)

(Alleged by PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS against DEFENDANTS)

129. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, reallege and incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior paragraphs of this Complaint.

130. California Labor Code Section 226 provides that an employer must furnish employees with an “accurate itemized” statement in writing showing:

- a. Gross wages earned,
- b. total hours worked by the employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission,
- c. the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis,
- d. all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item,
- e. net wages earned,
- f. the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid,

- g. the name of the employee and his or her social security number, except that by January 1, 2008, only the last four digits of his or her social security number of an employee identification number other than social security number may be shown on the itemized statement,
- h. the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and
- i. all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

131. When DEFENDANTS did not accurately record PLAINTIFF'S and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members' missed meal and rest breaks, or were paid inaccurate missed meal and rest break premiums, or were not paid for all hours worked, DEFENDANTS violated California Labor Code Section 226 in that DEFENDANTS failed to provide PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members with complete and accurate wage statements which failed to show, among other things, all deductions, the accurate gross wages earned, net wages earned, the total hours worked and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding amount of time worked at each hourly rate, and correct rates of pay for penalty payments or missed meal and rest periods.

132. In addition to the foregoing, DEFENDANTS failed to provide itemized wage statements to PLAINTIFF and members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS that complied with the requirements of California Labor Code Section 226(a)(1)-(9).

133. DEFENDANTS knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with California Labor Code Section 226(a)(1)-(9), causing injury and damages to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS. These damages include, but are not limited to, costs expended calculating the correct wages for all missed meal and rest breaks and the amount of employment taxes which were not properly paid to state and federal tax authorities. These damages are difficult to estimate. Therefore, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS may elect to recover liquidated damages of fifty dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which the violation occurred, and one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each violation in a subsequent pay period pursuant to California Labor Code Section 226, in an amount according to proof at the time of trial

(but in no event more than four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) for PLAINTIFF and each respective member of the CALIFORNIA CLASS herein).

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure To Pay Wages When Due

(Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201, 202, & 203)

(Alleged by PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS against DEFENDANTS)

134. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, reallege and incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior paragraphs of this Complaint.

135. California Labor Code Section 200 provides that:

As used in this article:

- (d) “Wages” includes all amounts for labor performed by employees of every description, whether the amount is fixed or ascertained by the standard of time, task, piece, commission basis, or other method of calculation.
- (e) “Labor” includes labor, work, or service whether rendered or performed under contract, subcontract, partnership, station plan, or other agreement if the labor to be paid for is performed personally by the person demanding payment.

136. California Labor Code Section 201 provides, in relevant part, that “If an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.”

137. California Labor Code Section 202 provides, in relevant part, that:

If an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an employee who quits without providing a 72-hour notice shall be entitled to receive payment by mail if he or she so requests and designates a mailing address. The date of the mailing shall constitute the date of payment for purposes of the requirement to provide payment within 72 hours of the notice of quitting.

138. There was no definite term in PLAINTIFF’S or any CALIFORNIA CLASS members’ employment contract.

139. California Labor Code Section 203 provides:

If an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Sections 201, 201.5, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or

1 who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date
2 thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the 3 wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.

4 140. The employment of PLAINTIFF and many CALIFORNIA CLASS members
5 terminated, and DEFENDANTS have not tendered payment of wages to these employees who 6 missed meal and rest breaks, as required by law.

7 141. Therefore, as provided by California Labor Code Section 203, on behalf of 8 themselves and the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS whose employment has ended,
9 PLAINTIFF demands up to thirty (30) days of pay as penalty for not paying all wages due at time
10 of termination for all employees who terminated employment during the CLASS PERIOD and 11 demand an accounting and payment of all wages due, plus interest and statutory costs as allowed 12 by law.

13 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 Failure To Reimburse Employees for Required Expenses

15 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2802)

16 (Alleged by PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS against DEFENDANTS)

17 142. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, reallege and
18 incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior paragraphs of this
19 Complaint.

20 143. California Labor Code Section 2802 provides, in relevant part, that:
21 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or 22 losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her
23 duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though 24 unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to 25 be unlawful.

26 144. From time to time during the CLASS PERIOD, DEFENDANTS violated California
27 Labor Code Section 2802, by failing to indemnify and reimburse PLAINTIFF and the 28 CALIFORNIA CLASS members for required expenses incurred in the discharge of their job duties for DEFENDANTS' benefit. DEFENDANTS failed to reimburse PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS members for expenses which included, but were not limited to, the use of their personal cell phones, all on behalf of and for the benefit of DEFENDANTS. Specifically,

1 DEFENDANTS required PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS members to use their 2 personal cell phones, to execute their essential job duties on behalf of DEFENDANTS.
3 DEFENDANTS' uniform policy, practice and procedure was to not reimburse PLAINTIFF and 4 the CALIFORNIA CLASS members for expenses resulting from the use of their personal cell
5 phones, within the course and scope of their employment for DEFENDANTS. These expenses
6 were necessary to complete their principal job duties. DEFENDANTS are estopped by 7 DEFENDANTS' conduct to assert any waiver of this expectation. Although these expenses were 8 necessary expenses incurred by PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS members,
9 DEFENDANTS failed to indemnify and reimburse PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS 10 members for these expenses as an employer is required to do under the laws and regulations of 11 California.

12 145. PLAINTIFF therefore demands reimbursement for expenditures or losses incurred
13 by them and the CALIFORNIA CLASS members in the discharge of their job duties for 14 DEFENDANTS, or their obedience to the directions of DEFENDANTS, with interest at the 15 statutory rate and costs under California Labor Code Section 2802.

16 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 Failure To Permit Inspection of Employee Records

18 (Cal. Lab. §§ 226, 432, 1198.5 and Applicable IWC Wage Orders)

19 (Alleged by PLAINTIFF against all Defendants)

20 146. PLAINTIFF realleges and incorporates by this reference, as though fully set forth
21 herein, the prior paragraphs of this Complaint.

22 147. Labor Code Section 226(b) requires employers to make payroll records available to 23 employees upon reasonable request. Labor Code Section 226(c) further requires that the employer
24 comply with the request for records as soon as practicable, but no later than twenty-one (21)
25 calendar days from the date of request.

26 148. Labor Code Section 432 also entitles an employee to receive copies of any signed 27 documents related to the obtaining or holding of employment.

28 ///

1 149. Labor Code § 1198.5 states that employees (and former employees) have the right
2 to inspect personnel records maintained by the employer “related to the employee’s performance
3 or to any grievance concerning the employee.” Employers must allow inspection or copying
4 within thirty (30) days of the request.

5 150. The applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders require employers to 6 maintain accurate records for employees, including time records, and such records must be made
7 readily available for inspection by the employee upon a reasonable request.

8 151. On January 28, 2026, and March 20, 2026, PLAINTIFF caused written requests via
9 certified mail to be delivered to DEFENDANTS for PLAINTIFF’S personnel and employment
10 records, including but not limited to: (1) payroll records; (2) employment contracts; (3) itemized
11 pay stubs; (4) time records; and (5) PLAINTIFF’S complete employment file.

12 152. DEFENDANTS failed to provide and/or make available to PLAINTIFF their 13 personnel records, payroll records, employment contract, and entire employment file within thirty 14 (30) days of their requests stated above. In fact, as of the date of filing of this complaint, 15 DEFENDANT has still failed to pay PLAINTIFF the statutory penalty in the amount of $750.

16 153. PLAINTIFF is now entitled to and requests injunctive relief to obtain compliance
17 with California Labor Code Sections 226, 432, 1198.5 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and 18 applicable statutory penalties and an award of attorneys’ fees and costs for bringing this action.

19 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 VIOLATION OF THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

21 (Cal. Lab. Code §§2698 et seq.)

22 (Alleged by PLAINTIFF against all DEFENDANTS)

23 154. PLAINTIFF realleges and incorporates by this reference, as though fully set forth
24 herein, the prior paragraphs of this Complaint.

25 155. PAGA is a mechanism by which the State of California itself can enforce state labor
26 laws through the employee suing under the PAGA who do so as the proxy or agent of the state’s 27 labor law enforcement agencies. An action to recover civil penalties under PAGA is fundamentally 28 a law enforcement action designed to protect the public and not to benefit private parties. The

1 purpose of the PAGA is not to recover damages or restitution, but to create a means of “deputizing”
2 citizens as private attorneys general to enforce the Labor Code. In enacting PAGA, the California
3 Legislature specified that “it was ... in the public interest to allow aggrieved employees, acting as 4 private attorneys general to recover civil penalties for Labor Code violations ...” (Stats. 2003, ch.
5 906, § 1.) Accordingly, PAGA claims cannot be subject to arbitration.

6 156. PLAINTIFF, and such persons that may be added from time to time who satisfy the 7 requirements and exhaust the administrative procedures under PAGA, bring this individual PAGA
8 and Representative Action on behalf of the State of California with respect to Plaintiff and all non-
9 exempt employees who worked for DEFENDANT RCC and/or DEFENDANT CFCS and/or Does
10 1-50 in California during the time period of May 22, 2025, until the present (“PAGA PERIOD”)
11 (the “AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES”).

12 157. At all relevant times, for the reasons described herein and others, PLAINTIFF and 13 the AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were aggrieved employees of DEFENDANTS within the 14 meaning of Labor Code Section 2699(c).

15 158. Labor Code Sections 2699(a) and (k) authorize an AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE, like 16 PLAINTIFF, on behalf of PLAINTIFF and other current or former employees, to bring a civil
17 action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code Section 2699.3

18 159. PLAINTIFF complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code
19 Section 2699.3. By certified letter, return receipt requested, dated May 22, 2026, PLAINTIFF
20 gave written notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and to 21 DEFENDANTS of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated,
22 including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. (See Exhibit #1.)

23 160. As of the date of this complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days after serving the 24 LWDA with notice of DEFENDANTS’ violations, the LWDA has not provided any notice by 25 certified mail of its intent to investigate the DEFENDANTS’ alleged violations as mandated by 26 Labor Code Section 2699.3(a)(2)(A). Accordingly, pursuant to Labor Code Section
27 2699.3(a)(2)(A), PLAINTIFF may commence and is authorized to pursue this cause of action.

28 ///

1 161. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 2699(a) and (f), PLAINTIFF and the 2 AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES are entitled to civil penalties for DEFENDANTS' violations of 3 Labor Code Sections 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 218.6, 221, 226, 226.2, 226.3, 226.7, 4 227.3, 232, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.14, 1198, 1198.5, 1199,
5 2802, 2804, and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 1 1070(14) (Failure to Provide 6 Seating), in the following amounts:

7 a. For violation of Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, and 204, up to ($200)
8 per AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE per pay period [penalty per Labor Code
9 Section 2699(f)];

10 b. For violations of Labor Code Section 226(a), a civil penalty in the amount
11 of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE for 12 any initial violation and one thousand dollars for each subsequent violation
13 [penalty per Labor Code Section 226.3];

14 c. For violations of Labor Code Sections 204, a civil penalty in the amount of 15 one hundred dollars ($100) for each AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE for any initial 16 violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE for 17 each subsequent violation [penalty per Labor Code Section 210];

18 d. For violations of Labor Code Sections 226.7, 510 and 512, a civil penalty
19 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid AGGRIEVED
20 EMPLOYEE for the initial violation and one hundred dollars ($100) for each
21 underpaid AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE for each subsequent violation [penalty
22 per Labor Code Section 558];

23 e. For violations of Labor Code Section 1174(d), a civil penalty in the amount
24 of five hundred ($500) dollars for each AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE [penalty
25 per Labor Code Section 1174.5].

26 f. For violations of Labor Code Sections 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198 and 1199,
27 a civil penalty in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each
28 AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE per pay period for the initial violation and two

1 hundred dollars fifty ($250) for each AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE per pay
2 period for each subsequent violation [penalty per Labor Code Section 1197.1].

3 162. For all provisions of the Labor Code for which civil penalty is not specifically
4 provided, Labor Code Section 2699(f) imposes upon DEFENDANTS a penalty of up to two 5 hundred dollars ($200) for each AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEE per pay period. PLAINTIFF and the 6 AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES are entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs in 7 connection with their claims for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699(k)(1).

8 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

9 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF prays for a judgment against all DEFENDANTS, jointly and 10 severally, as follows:

11 1. On behalf of the CALIFORNIA CLASS:

- 12 a. That the Court certify the First Cause of Action asserted by the CALIFORNIA
13 CLASS as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382;
14 b. An order temporarily, preliminarily and permanently enjoining and restraining 15 DEFENDANTS from engaging in similar unlawful conduct as set forth herein;
16 c. An order requiring DEFENDANTS to pay all overtime wages and all sums
17 unlawfully withheld from compensation due to PLAINTIFF and the other members
18 of the CALIFORNIA CLASS; and
19 d. Restitutionary disgorgement of DEFENDANTS' ill-gotten gains into a fluid fund
20 for restitution of the sums incidental to DEFENDANTS' violations due to 21 PLAINTIFF and to the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS.

22 2. On behalf of the CALIFORNIA CLASS:

- 23 a. That the Court certify the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth
24 Causes of Action asserted by the CALIFORNIA CLASS as a class action pursuant 25 to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382;
26 b. Compensatory damages, according to proof at trial, including compensatory 27 damages for overtime compensation due to PLAINTIFF and the other members of 28 the CALIFORNIA CLASS, during the applicable CLASS PERIOD plus interest thereon at the statutory rate;

c. Meal and rest period compensation pursuant to California Labor Code Sections 226.7, 512 and the applicable IWC Wage Order;

d. The greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per each member of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and an award of costs for violation of California Labor Code Section 226;

e. The wages of all terminated employees from the CALIFORNIA CLASS as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is commenced, in accordance with California Labor Code Section 203.

f. The amount of expenses PLAINTIFF and each member of the CALIFORNIA CLASS incurred in the course of their job duties, plus interest, and costs of suit.

3. On the Ninth Cause of Action

a. For an award of statutory damages as plead pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5.

b. For an injunction compelling production of Plaintiff's employment records pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226, 432 and 1198.5 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

4. On the Tenth Cause of Action

a. For reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit to the extent permitted by law, including pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699, et seq.;

b. For civil penalties to the extent permitted by the law pursuant to the Labor Code under the Private Attorneys General Act.

5. On all claims:

a. An award of interest, including prejudgment interest at the legal rate;

b. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable; and

1 c. An award of penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit, as allowable under the law,
2 including and pursuant to, but not limited to, California Labor Code Sections 218.5, 3 226, 246 and/or 1194.

Dear Sir/Madam:

This notice is being sent in compliance with California Labor Code Section 2699.3. Our offices represent Plaintiff Raquel Pate-Terrell ("Plaintiff") and other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant The Roman Catholic Cemeteries of The Diocese of Oakland ("Defendant RCC"), Defendant Catholic Funeral and Cemetery Services of The Diocese of Sacramento, Inc. ("Defendant CFCS"), and DOES 1-50 (hereinafter, collectively, "Defendants") in California from September 2024 through December 2025 as a Family Service Advisor and worked at Defendants' office at 2200 E. 18th St. Antioch, CA 94509. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee, paid on an hourly basis, and entitled to payment of all wages and the legally required meal and rest breaks.

Plaintiff alleges that within the past year, Plaintiff personally suffered violations of the following Labor Code Sections as a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff for all time worked, provide Plaintiff with compliant meal periods, provide Plaintiff with compliant rest periods, provide Plaintiff with accurate itemized wage statements that facially comply with the requirements provided for in Labor Code Section 226, furnish wages to Plaintiff with the frequency as set forth under Labor Code Section 204, and reimburse Plaintiff for necessary business expenses pursuant to Labor Code Sections 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 218.6, 221, 226, 226.2, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.14, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, 2804, and Title 8, Section 1 1070(14) (Failure to Provide Seating). These violations are actionable under California Labor Code Section 2699.3.

The information below provides notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the facts and theories supporting the alleged violations for the agency's reference. If the agency needs any further information, please do not hesitate to ask.

Plaintiff seeks to represent a group of aggrieved employees defined as any person currently or formerly employed by Defendant RCC and/or Defendant CFCS and/or Does 1-50 who performed work in California and against whom one or more of the alleged violations listed above were committed during the relevant claim period ("Aggrieved Employees"). Plaintiff believes this group to be comprised of all current and former non-exempt employees who performed work for Defendant RCC and/or Defendant CFCS and/or Does 1-50 in California during the period beginning one year prior to the date of this Notice and continuing through the present.

In violation of the applicable sections of the California Labor Code and the requirements of the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order, Defendants as a matter of company policy, practice, and procedure, intentionally, knowingly, and systematically failed to provide legally compliant meal and rest periods, failed to accurately compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for missed meal and rest periods, failed to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for all time worked, failed to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for off-the-clock work, failed to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees overtime at the correct regular rate of pay, failed to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees meal and rest premiums at the regular rate of pay, failed to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees redeemed sick pay at the regular rate of pay, failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for business expenses, and failed to issue to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees accurate itemized wage statements showing, among other things, all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay periods and the corresponding amount of time worked at each hourly rate. Defendants' uniform policies and practices are intended to purposefully avoid the accurate and full payment for all time worked as required by California law which allows Defendants to illegally profit and gain an unfair advantage over competitors who comply with the law.

Meal Period Violations: Pursuant to the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all their time worked, meaning the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, including all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work. From time to time during the last year, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to work without paying them for all the time they were under Defendants' control. Specifically, Defendants required Plaintiff to work while clocked out during what was supposed to be Plaintiff's off-duty meal break. Indeed, there were many days where Plaintiff did not even receive a partial lunch. As a result, Plaintiff and other

Aggrieved Employees forfeited minimum wage and overtime compensation by regularly working without their time being accurately recorded and without compensation at the applicable minimum wage and overtime rates. Defendants' uniform policy and practice not to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for all time worked is evidenced by Defendants' business records.

During the last year, as a result of their rigorous work schedules and Defendants' inadequate staffing practices, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were from time to time unable to take thirty (30) minute off duty meal breaks and were not fully relieved of duty for their meal periods. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were required to perform work as ordered by Defendants for more than five (5) hours during some shifts without receiving a meal break. Further, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with a second off-duty meal period for some workdays in which these employees were required by Defendants to work ten (10) hours of work. The nature of the work performed by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees does not qualify for the limited and narrowly construed "on-duty" meal period exception. When they were provided with meal periods, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were, from time to time, required to remain on duty and on call. Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with legally required meal breaks is evidenced by Defendants' business records. As a result of their rigorous work schedules and Defendants' inadequate staffing, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees therefore forfeited meal breaks without additional compensation and in accordance with Defendants' strict corporate policy and practice.

Rest Period Violations: From time to time during the past year, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were also required to work in excess of four (4) hours without being provided ten (10) minute rest periods as a result of their rigorous work requirements and Defendants' inadequate staffing. Further, for the same reasons, these employees were from time to time denied their first rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts worked of at least two (2) to four (4) hours, from time to time denied a first and second rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts worked of between six (6) and eight (8) hours, and from time to time denied a first, second and third rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts worked of ten (10) hours or more. When they were provided with rest breaks, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were, from time to time, required to remain on premises, on duty and/or on call, and not fully relieved of all duties. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were also not provided with one-hour wages in lieu thereof. As a result of their rigorous work schedules and Defendants' inadequate staffing, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were from time to time denied their proper rest periods by Defendants and Defendants' managers.

Unreimbursed Business Expenses: Defendants as a matter of corporate policy, practice, and procedure, intentionally, knowingly, and systematically failed to reimburse and indemnify the Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for required business expenses incurred by the Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties on behalf of Defendants. Under California Labor Code Section 2802, employers are required to indemnify employees for all expenses incurred in the course and scope of their employment. California Labor Code Section 2802 expressly states that "an employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful."

Within the last year, in the course of their employment, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to incur personal expenses as a result of and in furtherance of their job duties for the use of their personal cell phones and personal vehicles. Specifically, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were required to incur personal expenses for the use of their personal cell phones and personal vehicles. However, Defendants unlawfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for the personal expenses incurred for the use of their personal cell phones and personal vehicles. As a result, in the course of their employment with Defendants, the Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees incurred unreimbursed business expenses that included, but were not limited to, costs related to the personal expenses incurred for the use of their personal cell phones and personal vehicles, all on behalf of and for the benefit of Defendants.

Wage Statement Violations: California Labor Code Section 226 requires an employer to furnish its employees and accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece-rate, (4) all deductions, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of the employee's social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. From time to time during the last year, when Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees missed meal and rest breaks, or were paid inaccurately for missed meal and rest period premiums, or were not paid for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with complete and accurate wage statements which failed to show, among other things, all deductions, the total hours worked and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, and the corresponding amount of time worked at each hourly rate, correct rates of pay for penalty payments or missed meal and rest periods. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with complete and accurate wage statements that included all required elements listed above.

As a result, Defendants issued Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with wage statements that violate California Labor Code Section 226. Further, Defendants' violations are knowing and intentional; they were not isolated due to an unintentional payroll error due to clerical or inadvertent mistake.

Off-the-Clock Work Resulting in Minimum Wage and Overtime Violations: During the last year, from time-to-time, Defendants failed and continue to fail to accurately pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked. During the last year, from time-to-time Defendants required Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to perform pre-shift or post-shift work, including but not limited to performing key holder duties. This resulted in Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees having to work while off-the-clock. Defendants directly benefited from the undercompensated off-the-clock work performed by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees. Defendants controlled the work schedules, duties, and protocols, applications, assignments, and employment conditions of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

Defendants were able to track the amount of time Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees spent working; however, Defendants failed to document, track, or pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved

Employees all wages earned and owed for all the work they performed. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were non-exempt employees, subject to the requirements of the California Labor Code. Defendants' policies and practices deprived Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees of all minimum regular, overtime, and double time wages owed for the off-the-clock work activities. Because Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees typically worked over forty (40) hours in a workweek, and more than eight (8) hours per day, Defendants' policies and practices also deprived them of overtime pay.

Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff's and other Aggrieved Employees' off-the-clock work was compensable under the law. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees forfeited wages due to them for all hours worked at Defendants' direction, control, and benefit for the time spent working while off-the-clock, including but not limited to, undergoing pre-shift and post-shift work. Defendants' uniform policy and practice to not pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees wages for all hours worked in accordance with applicable law is evidenced by Defendants' business records.

Reporting Time Violations: During the last year, Defendants from time to time required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to report to work, but were furnished less than half their scheduled shift's worth of work and/or less than two (2) hours of work for a second reporting, and were not paid reporting time pay as required by California Code of Regulations, title 8, section 11040, subdivisions (A) and (B) and the applicable IWC Wage Orders. Subdivision 5(A) states, "(A) Each workday an employee is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work, the employee shall be paid for half the usual or scheduled day's work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the employee's regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage." Subdivision 5(B) states: "If an employee is required to report for work a second time in any one workday and is furnished less than two (2) hours of work on the second reporting, said employee shall be paid for two (2) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay, which shall be not less than the minimum wage."

Regular Rate Violation – Overtime, Double Time, Meal and Rest Period Premiums, and Redeemed Sick Pay: From time to time during the last year, Defendants failed and continue to fail to accurately calculate and pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for their overtime and double time hours worked, meal and rest period premiums, and redeemed sick pay. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees forfeited wages due to them for working overtime without compensation at the correct overtime and double time rates, meal and rest period premiums, and redeemed sick pay rates. Defendants' uniform policy and practice not to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees at the correct rate for all overtime and double time worked, meal and rest period premiums, and sick pay in accordance with applicable law is evidenced by Defendants' business records.

State law provides that employees must be paid overtime at one-and-one-half times their "regular rate of pay." Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were compensated at an hourly rate plus incentive pay that was tied to specific elements of an employee's performance. The second component of Plaintiff's and other Aggrieved Employees' compensation was Defendants' non-discretionary incentive program that paid Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees incentive wages based on their performance for Defendants. The non-discretionary bonus program provided all employees paid on an hourly basis with bonus compensation when the employees met the various performance goals set by Defendants. However, from time to time, when calculating the regular rate of pay in those pay periods where Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees worked overtime, double time, paid meal and rest period premium payments, and/or redeemed sick pay, and earned non-discretionary bonuses, Defendants failed to accurately include the non-discretionary bonus compensation as part of the employee's "regular rate of pay" and/or calculated all hours worked rather than just all non-overtime hours worked. Management and supervisors described the incentive/bonus program to potential and new employees as part of the compensation package. As a matter of law, the incentive compensation received by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees must be included in the "regular rate of pay." The failure to do so has resulted in a systematic underpayment of overtime and double time compensation, meal and rest period premium payments, and redeemed sick pay to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees by Defendants.

Specifically, California Labor Code Section 246 mandates that paid sick time for non-exempt employees shall be calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the non-exempt employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek. Defendants' conduct, as articulated herein, by failing to include the incentive compensation as part of the "regular rate of pay" for purposes of sick pay compensation was in violation of California Labor Code Section 246 the underpayment of which is recoverable under California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, and/or 204.

In violation of the applicable sections of the California Labor Code and the requirements of the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order, Defendants as a matter of company policy, practice, and procedure, intentionally and knowingly failed to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees at the correct rate of pay for all overtime and double time worked, meal and rest period premiums, and redeemed sick pay as required by California law which allowed Defendants to illegally profit and gain an unfair advantage over competitors who complied with the law.

Unlawful Deductions: During the last year, Defendants, from time-to-time, unlawfully deducted wages from Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' pay without explanations and without authorization to do so or notice to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees. As a result, Defendants violated Labor Code Section 221.

Timekeeping Manipulation: During the last year, Defendants, from time-to-time, did not have an immutable timekeeping system to accurately record and pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for the actual time Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees worked each day, including regular time, overtime hours, sick pay, meal and rest breaks. As a result, Defendants were able to and did in fact, unlawfully, and unilaterally alter the time recorded in Defendants' timekeeping system for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in order to avoid paying these employees for all hours worked, applicable overtime compensation, applicable sick pay, missed meal breaks and missed rest breaks. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, from time-to-time, forfeited time worked by working without their time being accurately recorded and without compensation at the applicable pay rates.

The mutability of the timekeeping system also allowed Defendants to alter employee time records by recording fictitious thirty (30) minute meal breaks in Defendants' timekeeping system so as to create the appearance that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees clocked out for thirty (30) minute meal breaks when in fact the employees were not at all times provided an off-duty meal break. This practice is a direct result of Defendants' uniform policy and practice of denying employees uninterrupted thirty (30) minute off-duty meal breaks each day or otherwise compensating them for missed meal breaks. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees forfeited wages due to them for all hours worked at Defendants' direction, control and benefit for the time the timekeeping system was inoperable. Defendants' uniform policy and practice to not pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees wages for all hours worked in accordance with applicable law is evidenced by Defendants' business records.

Unlawful Rounding Practices: During the last year, Defendants did not have in place an immutable timekeeping system to accurately record and pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for the actual time these employees worked each day, including overtime hours. Specifically, Defendants had in place an unlawful rounding policy and practice that resulted in Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees being undercompensated for all of their time worked. As a result, Defendants were able to and did in fact unlawfully and unilaterally round the time recorded in Defendants' timekeeping system for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in order to avoid paying these employees for all their time worked, including the applicable overtime compensation for overtime worked. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, from time to time, forfeited compensation for their time worked by working without their time being accurately recorded and without compensation at the applicable overtime rates.

Further, the mutability of Defendants' timekeeping system and unlawful rounding policy and practice resulted in Plaintiff's and the Aggrieved Employees' time being inaccurately recorded. As a result, from time to time, Defendants' unlawful rounding policy and practice caused Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to perform work as ordered by Defendants for more than five (5) hours during a shift without receiving an off-duty meal break.

Untimely Payment of Wages: Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 204, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to timely payment of wages during their employment. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, from time to time, did not receive payment of all wages, including, but not limited to, overtime wages, minimum wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages within the permissible time period. Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 201, "If an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately." Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 202, if an employee quits his or her employment, "his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting." Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were, from time to time, not timely provided the wages earned and unpaid at the time of their discharge and/or at the time of quitting, in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201 and 202. To date, Defendants have not fully paid Plaintiff the minimum, overtime and double time compensation still owed to Plaintiff or any penalty wages owed to Plaintiff under California Labor Code Section 203.

Sick Pay Violations: California Labor Code Section 246 (a)(1) mandates that "An employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days as specified in this section.” Further, California Labor Code Sections 246(b)-(d) provide for the sick day accrual requirements. From time to time, including within the last year, Defendants failed to have a policy or practice in place that provided Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with sick days and/or paid sick leave. As of January 1, 2024, Defendants failed to adhere to the law in that they failed to provide and allow employees to use at least 40 hours or five days of paid sick leave per year. California Labor Code Section 246(i) requires an employer to furnish its employees with written wage statements setting forth the amount of paid sick leave available. From time to time, including within the last year, Defendants violated California Labor Code Section 246 by failing to furnish Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with wage statements setting forth the amount of paid sick leave available.

Suitable Seating Violations: Plaintiff further alleges that the counters in Defendants’ workplace provide ample space at work stations to allow for the presence and use of a stool or seat by Defendants’ employees during the performance of their work duties. Defendants’ employees’ working at Defendants’ facilities spend a very substantial portion, and, in many workdays, the vast majority of their working time with Defendants’ customers. The nature of the position can reasonably be accomplished while using a seat/stool. In violation of the applicable sections of the California Labor Code and the requirements of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order, Defendants as a matter of company policy, practice and procedure, intentionally, knowingly and systematically failed to provide Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees suitable seating when the nature of these employees’ work reasonably permitted sitting. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were entitled to suitable seating and/or were entitled to sit when it did not interfere with the performance of their duties, and that Defendants did not provide suitable seating and/or did not allow them to sit when it did not interfere with the performance of their duties. By reason of this conduct applicable to Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees, Defendants violated California Labor Code Section 1198 and Wage Order 4-2001, Section 14 by failing to provide suitable seats.

Personnel File Violations: On January 28, 2026 and March 20, 2026, Plaintiff caused written requests via certified mail to be delivered to Defendants for Plaintiff’s personnel and employment records, including but not limited to: (1) payroll records; (2) employment contracts; (3) itemized pay stubs; (4) time records; and (5) Plaintiff’s complete employment file. Defendants failed to provide and/or make available to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees their personnel records, payroll records, employment contract, and entire employment file within thirty (30) days of their requests stated above. In fact, as of the date of filing of this notice, Defendants have still failed to pay Plaintiff the statutory penalty in the amount of $750. Defendants violated California Labor Code Sections 226, 432 1198.5 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders by failing to respond and provide Plaintiff with their employment file. Section 226 requires employers to make payroll records available to employees upon reasonable request. Section 432 entitles employees to receive copies of any signed documents relating to the obtaining or holding of employment. Section 1198.5 states that employees (and former employees) have the right to inspect personnel records maintained by the employer “related to the employee’s performance or to any grievance concerning the employee.” Employers must allow inspection or copying within thirty (30) days of the request.

Defendants also include DOES 1-50, the true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, subsidiary, partnership, associate or otherwise, are presently unknown to Plaintiff who therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. To the extent that entities and/or individuals are named and charged with violations of the Labor Code—making them liable on an individual basis as permitted by numerous Labor Code Sections including, but not limited to 558, 558.1, and 1197.1—Plaintiff reserves any and all rights to add, substitute, or change the name of employer entities and/or individuals, including DOES 1-50, responsible for the violations at issue.

To the extent that entities and/or individuals are named and charged with violations of the Labor Code—making them liable on an individual basis as permitted by numerous Labor Code Sections including, but not limited to 558, 558.1, and 1197.1—Plaintiff reserves any and all rights to add, substitute, or change the name of employer entities and/or individuals responsible for the violations at issue.

Any further amendments and changes to this notice shall relate back to the date of this notice. Consequently, Defendants are on notice that Plaintiff continues their investigation, with the full intent to amend and/or change this notice, to add any undiscovered violations of any of the provisions of the California Labor Code—to the extent that are applicable to this case—and to change and/or add the identities of any entities and/or individuals responsible for the violations contained herein.
