PRAYER FOR RELIEF 23

1 Plaintiff Edgar McCarthy, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general
2 public similarly situated, brings this action against Defendant Mygrant Glass Company Inc., and 3 Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION AND PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant Mygrant Glass Company Inc., and 6 Does 1 through 10 (collectively, “Defendants”) for violations of the California Labor Code and 7 unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay
8 overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest
9 periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely 10 pay all wages to employees, failure to indemnify necessary business expenses and failure to 11 furnish accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of self and certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 14 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully below). The 15 Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any Defendants in 16 California as an hourly, non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period applicable to 17 the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties on behalf of the State of 20 California and Plaintiff and other current or former employees against whom one or more of the 21 same alleged Labor Code violations were committed, as permitted by applicable law (hereinafter 22 referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

23 4. Defendants own and operate an industry, business, and establishment within the 24 State of California, including in Riverside County. As such, Defendants are subject to the 25 California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”), and 26 the California Business and Professions Code.

27 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants maintained 28 a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- a. Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- b. Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday in which a meal period violation occurred;
- c. Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday in which a rest period violation occurred;
- d. Failing to indemnify employees for necessary expenditures or losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or obedience to Defendants' directions;
- e. Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within the time period specified by California law when employment terminates;
- f. Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked;
- and
- g. Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that Defendants were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of "respondeat superior."

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff Edgar McCarthy ("Plaintiff") is an individual residing in the County of San Bernardino, California and worked as a Driver/Warehouse Associate for Defendants from on or about August 12, 2019 through March 30, 2026. During that period, Defendants employed Plaintiff as an hourly, non-exempt employee. At all times during his employment, Plaintiff was paid on an hourly basis and was subject to Defendants' timekeeping, meal-and-rest-period, and payroll policies and practices.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that Defendant Mygrant Glass Company Inc. ("Mygrant") is:

a. a California corporation with its principal place of business in the County of Alameda, California.

b. a business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Riverside County; and

c. the current or former employer of Plaintiff and of the putative Class.

Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously named defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged and that Plaintiff's damages were proximately caused by said defendants' conduct.

12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured Plaintiff and a significant number of the Class in the State of California.

13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

VENUE AND JURISDICTION

14. The wrongful conduct alleged against the Defendants occurred in the County of Riverside, California. At all relevant times, the conduct at issue was part of a continuous and ongoing pattern of behavior.

15. This Court is the proper forum to adjudicate this action because the wrongful acts that are the subject of this action occurred in Riverside County and Plaintiff performed work for Defendants in Riverside County.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

16. During the statutory period, Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Class as hourly, non-exempt employees.

17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours worked (including minimum wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest periods, failed to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff upon the end of Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not paying Plaintiff and the Class for all hours worked, including by requiring or permitting work to be performed off the clock and by failing to accurately record and compensate all non-overtime and overtime hours worked.

19. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendants failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Class worked.

20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants failed to maintain accurate meal-period records and failed to implement or enforce a policy providing timely, 30-minute, continuous, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods. Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a timely 30-minute, continuous, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, and, for shifts greater than 10 hours, without providing a timely second meal period by the end of the tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and the Class one hour of premium pay at the regular rate of compensation for each workday on which a compliant meal period was not provided. Accordingly, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not providing meal periods to Plaintiff and the Class in compliance with California law.

1 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize
2 and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants
3 sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of four consecutive 4 hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous
5 and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or 6 without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted.
7 Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take a rest
8 period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or 9 authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Class, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or 10 practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not have adequate policies or 11 practices to verify whether Plaintiff and the Class were taking their required rest periods.

12 22. Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, 13 and therefore Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiff and the Class took rest periods during 14 the middle of each work period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not 15 authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

16 23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
17 pay Plaintiff and the Class during and at the conclusion of their employment all wages for all 18 minimum wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages.

19 24. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Class
20 with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net
21 wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages earned for hours worked, correct
22 wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct
23 wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California
24 law). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), the 25 Plaintiff and the Class suffered injury because, among other things:

26 a. the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid 27 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages to 28 which they were entitled, even though they were entitled to such wages;

b. the violations led them to believe that they had been paid minimum wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages, even though they had not been;

c. the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they were;

d. the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum wages, overtime, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they had not been;

e. the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;

f. in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information; and

g. by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;

h. the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), including actual damages.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

25. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

26. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

1 27.

2 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an
3 hourly, non-exempt Driver/Warehouse Associate at any time during 4 the period beginning four years before the filing of the initial 5 complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

6 28. Plaintiff is a member of the Class.

7 29. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 8 conditions of all Class Members.

9 30. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 10 readily ascertainable:

11 a. Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 12 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of 13 the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, however, the Class is estimated to be greater 14 than 100 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 15 Defendants' records.

16 b. Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 17 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of 18 interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as 19 demonstrated herein.

20 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 21 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of 22 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests
23 antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in 24 the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and 25 throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have 26 been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 27 benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

1. The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
2. The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
3. The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and
4. The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

e. Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

31. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- a. failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum wages, and overtime wages;
- b. failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- c. failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- d. failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their discharge or resignation;

1 e. failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, and
2 all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
3 f. failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; and 4 g. violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq. as a result
5 of their illegal conduct as described above.

6 32. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 7 California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because:

8 a. The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 9 question affecting only individual members;

10 b. A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 11 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;

12 c. The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all 13 members of the class before the Court;

14 d. Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain 15 effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

16 e. There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable 17 relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and 18 injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate
19 the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;

20 f. Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual 21 members of the class would create a risk of:

- 22 1. inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
23 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards
24 of conduct for Defendants; and/or
- 25 2. adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,
26 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members 27 not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or 28 impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not

1 limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those 2 parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and

3 g. Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 4 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

5 33. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 6 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. Defendants' own
7 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated
8 notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would contemplate the 9 use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice,
10 e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods
11 suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

12 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

13 Failure to Pay Minimum Wage for All Hours Worked

14 (Lab. Code §§ 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197 and 1197.1)

15 (Against All Defendants)

16 34. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
17 fully herein.

18 35. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 19 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 20 not required to do so.

21 36. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 22 Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay
23 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions 24 of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which 25 require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

26 37. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for all
27 non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

38. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

39. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

40. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

41. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

42. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

43. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code sections 218.5, 218.6, and 1194, subdivision (a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay Overtime Compensation (Lab. Code §§ 510, 1194, 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

44. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth fully herein.

1 45. California Labor Code section 510 provides that employees in California shall not
2 be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless 3 they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

4 46. California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California
5 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 6 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
7 Labor Code section 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those 8 fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

9 47. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight
10 hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

11 48. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class
12 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
13 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Plaintiff and the 14 Class are regularly required to work overtime hours.

15 49. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
16 compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class 17 have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 18 them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained
19 according to proof at trial.

20 50. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code section
21 1174, subdivision (d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime
22 compensation due to Plaintiff and the Class.

23 51. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to 24 proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, 25 subdivision (a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as 26 provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

27 52. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with 28 all wages due and payable twice a month. IWC Wage Orders also provide that every employer

1 shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for 2 all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the 3 Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code section 204.

4 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

5 Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, and IWC Wage Orders)

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 53. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
8 fully herein.

9 54. At all relevant times, Defendants were aware of and were under a duty to comply
10 with California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable sections of IWC Wage Orders.

11 55. California Labor Code section 512 prohibits an employer from employing an 12 employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with 13 a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, or for a work period of more than 10 hours per day 14 without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

15 56. Section 11 of Wage Order No. 4 provides, and at all times relevant hereto provided,
16 in relevant part that:

17 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more
18 than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, 19 except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will 20 complete the day's work the meal period may be waived by mutual 21 consent of the employer and employee. Unless the employee is 22 relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period
23 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time
24 worked. An "on duty" meal period shall be permitted only when the 25 nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all 26 duty and when by written agreement between the parties an on-the-27 job paid meal period is agreed to. The written agreement shall state 28 that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.

1 If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in 2 accordance with the applicable provisions of this Order, the 3 employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the 4 employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the 5 meal period is not provided.

6 57. Labor Code section 226.7 prohibits any employer from requiring any employee to 7 work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable IWC wage order, and provides that
8 an employer that fails to provide an employee with a required rest break or meal period shall pay
9 that employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each
10 work day that the employer does not provide a compliant meal or rest period.

11 58. Defendants knowingly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with meal periods as 12 required by law. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with any payment of 13 meal premiums. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for 14 each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal break(s), plus interest thereon.

15 59. Plaintiff and the Class have therefore been damaged and are entitled to payment of 16 the meal period premiums as provided by law.

17 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 Failure to Provide Rest Periods (Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and IWC Wage Orders)

19 (Against All Defendants)

20 60. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
21 fully herein.

22 61. Section 12 of Wage Order No. 4 provides, and at all times relevant hereto provided,
23 in relevant part that:

24 Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest
25 periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each 26 work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the 27 total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time
28 per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof. However, a rest period

1 need not be authorized for employees whose total daily work time
2 is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours. Authorized rest period
3 time shall be counted, as hours worked, for which there shall be no
4 deduction from wages. If an employer fails to provide an employee
5 a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this 6 Order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at 7 the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that 8 the rest period is not provided.

9 62. California Labor Code section 226.7 prohibits any employer from requiring any 10 employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable IWC wage order, and 11 provides that an employer that fails to provide an employee with a required rest break or meal 12 period shall pay that employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 13 compensation for each work day that the employer does not provide a compliant meal or rest 14 period.

15 63. Defendants knowingly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with rest periods as 16 required by law, and knowingly failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take rest periods as 17 required by law. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with any payment of rest
18 premiums. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each 19 workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

20 64. Plaintiff and the Class have therefore been damaged and are entitled to payment of 21 the rest period premiums as provided by law.

22 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses (Lab. Code § 2802)

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 65. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
26 fully herein.

66. Defendants violated California Labor Code section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff and the Class for necessary expenditures or losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or obedience to Defendants' directions.

67. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

68. Plaintiff and the Class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code section 2802, subdivision (c) and interest pursuant to California Labor Code section 2802, subdivision (b).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Waiting Time Penalties (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

(Against All Defendants)

69. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth fully herein.

70. California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 require an employer to pay its employees all wages due immediately upon discharge or within 72 hours of resignation. This requirement applies to unpaid overtime wages. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay such wages, the employer must continue to pay the subject employee's wages until the back wages are paid in full or an action is commenced, up to a maximum of thirty days of wages.

71. Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class their earned and unpaid wages for 30 days from the time such wages should have been paid under the Labor Code.

72. As a result of Defendants' willful failure to pay owed wages upon separation from employment, Plaintiff and the Class have been harmed and Defendants are liable for statutory waiting time penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

1 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements (Lab. Code § 226)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 73. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
5 fully herein.

6 74. California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) requires employers to provide 7 employees, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment of wages, with a statement that 8 accurately reflects certain itemized information including total number of hours worked.

9 75. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Class
10 with timely and accurate wage statements that accurately reflected the total number of hours
11 worked and wages earned, as required by California Labor Code section 226.

12 76. As a result of Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, 13 Plaintiff and the Class suffered injury by being unable to promptly and easily determine from the 14 wage statements alone the accurate information required by California Labor Code section 226, 15 including the hours worked, applicable rates of pay, and gross and net wages earned.

16 77. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 17 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as a 18 result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following 19 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of the California Labor Code and 20 related laws and regulations.

21 78. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual damages
22 caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

23 79. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 24 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code
25 section 226, subdivision (h).

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 Violation of Unfair Competition Law (Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 80. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
5 fully herein.

6 81. Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq. (“UCL”) prohibits any 7 unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business act or practice. Defendants have engaged in unlawful 8 activity as follows:

9 82.

10 a. violations of California Labor Code sections 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197,
11 and 1197.1 for failure to pay minimum wages;

12 b. violations of California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 for failure
13 to pay overtime wages;

14 c.

15 d. violations of California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable
16 IWC Wage Orders for failure to provide meal periods;

17 e. violations of California Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC
18 Wage Orders for failure to authorize and permit rest periods;

19 f. violations of California Labor Code section 226 for failure to provide 20 accurate wage statements;

21 g.

22 h. violation of California Labor Code section 2802 for failure to indemnify 23 necessary business expenses; and 24 i.

25 j. violations of California Labor Code sections 201 through 203 for failure to 26 pay all wages due upon separation from employment.

27 83. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 28 herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

84. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

85. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

86. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further entitled to and does seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

87. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, has no plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

88. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other withholdings.

89. Pursuant to the UCL, Plaintiff and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Private Attorneys General Act (Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

90. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth fully herein.

91. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the California Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

92. California Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “[n]otwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

93. Plaintiff has satisfied the applicable administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3. On May 11, 2026, Plaintiff submitted written notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and provided notice to Defendants identifying the specific Labor Code provisions alleged to have been violated and the facts and theories supporting the alleged violations. The applicable statutory waiting period has expired, or the LWDA otherwise authorized Plaintiff to commence this action. If attached, a true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s notice is included as Exhibit A. Plaintiff’s LWDA case number is LWDA-CM-1176695-26.

94. Plaintiff is authorized to proceed with this representative action under California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.3. Plaintiff seeks the civil penalties available under PAGA and

1 the Labor Code for the violations identified in the LWDA notice and alleged herein, subject to all
2 applicable statutory limitations, cure provisions, and allocation requirements.

3 95. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants' violation of California Labor
4 Code section 1174, subdivision (d). Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174.5, any person,
5 including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete
6 records required by California Labor Code section 1174 is subject to a penalty under section
7 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records
8 showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours
9 worked daily shall also be recorded.

10 96. Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall 11 keep total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

12 97. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, 13 Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the California Labor Code and IWC Orders by 14 failing to maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records showing when 15 employees begin and end each work period. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records
16 required by the California Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
17 Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal
18 periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked, as stated in Defendants' records. Therefore,
19 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all 20 of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants.

21 98. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and 22 continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest
23 on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform
24 its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial.
25 Because of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the California Labor Code and applicable
26 IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they 27 were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

99. Based on the conduct described in this complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of self, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

100. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (g)(1), which states, “[a]ny employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, on behalf of all others similarly situated with respect to the class claims, and as an aggrieved employee with respect to the PAGA claim, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382;
2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and
3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all minimum wages due;
5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
7. For liquidated damages;
8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, subdivision (a); and
9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due;
11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;
12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, subdivision (a); and
14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Third Cause of Action

15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders;
16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;
17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and
19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;
21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;
22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and
24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 2802;
26. For reimbursement of necessary expenditures or losses as may be appropriate;
27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and
29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;
31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;
32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;
33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and
34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;
36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e);
37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (h);
38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the UCL by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, and failing to furnish accurate wage statements;

41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of Defendants' violations of the UCL;

43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5;

44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to the UCL; and

45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the Labor Code by failing to pay minimum wages and overtime wages, failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to indemnify necessary business expenses, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failing to timely pay all wages due upon separation from employment, and failing to furnish accurate wage statements;

47. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, et seq., and all other applicable Labor Code provisions;

48. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; and

1 49. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

2 As to All Causes of Action

3 50. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.

Re: Amended Notice of Claim Under Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA")

Dear LWDA:

My office has been retained by Edgar McCarthy ("Plaintiff") to pursue a PAGA representative action (Lab. Code § 2699, et seq.) against Mygrant Glass Company Inc. ("Defendant"). This letter shall serve as notice, and a request pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, that the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") investigate the violations by Defendant described herein against Plaintiff and against other current and/or former employees ("Aggrieved Employees"). If LWDA does not intend to investigate the violations described herein, we respectfully request that the agency specifically notify our office of the same at your earliest possible opportunity.

Plaintiff's Employment with Defendant

Defendant owns/owned and operates/operated an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California. Defendant is therefore subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC"), and the California Business and Professions Code.

Plaintiff is a resident of Riverside County, California who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately August 12, 2019, to approximately March 30, 2026. Plaintiff regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and/or more than 40 hours in a workweek.

Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff with legally compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take rest periods, failed to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff when Defendant terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. Plaintiff worked as a Driver/Warehouse Associate assigned to Defendant's Riverside, California branch located at 795 Palmyrita Ct., Riverside, CA 92507, reporting to Branch Manager Eugene Kim and District Manager Louie

Rivera. His duties included transporting Defendant's windshields and related product between Defendant's branches and to windshield-installer customer locations throughout California and Nevada (including runs from Riverside to Las Vegas, Bakersfield, San Diego, Chula Vista, San Fernando, Anaheim, and Compton), performing local deliveries, pulling and loading orders, buffing windshields, restocking and sweeping the warehouse, taking out trash, mopping, and performing daily vehicle inspections. Plaintiff was paid on an hourly, non-exempt basis, most recently at $23.34 per hour, and was regularly scheduled full-time at 40 hours per week over five eight-hour shifts. Defendant terminated Plaintiff's employment on or about April 1, 2026.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e., more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendant wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take legally compliant rest periods. While Plaintiff was assigned to Defendant's Transport Department, he was routinely dispatched on long-haul delivery routes (including Riverside to Las Vegas, Bakersfield, San Diego, Chula Vista, San Fernando, Anaheim, and Compton) with delivery windows so compressed that, after picking and loading windshields (ranging from five ounces to approximately 100 pounds), driving to each customer, unloading, and returning to the Riverside branch, Plaintiff was unable to take a compliant morning or afternoon rest break on approximately 80% of those workdays. When Plaintiff worked local deliveries out of the Riverside warehouse, he was unable to take a compliant rest break on approximately 50% of workdays, and it was not uncommon for Defendant to interrupt his rest breaks to dispatch him on a delivery. Defendant's supervisors treated "HOT SHOT" rush deliveries as taking priority over rest breaks regardless of whether Plaintiff had already been on the road, and taking breaks was openly discouraged, with Plaintiff experiencing adverse assignment decisions when he did so. On March 13, 2026, for example, Assistant Manager Maria Zaragoza interrupted Plaintiff mid-rest-break and directed him to the office while he was still on his authorized break.

Instead, Defendant continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages at the regular rate of compensation for each workday in which a compliant rest period was not authorized or permitted. Defendant, however, did not pay Plaintiff such premium wages. Plaintiff's own wage statements from Defendant reflect at most isolated single-hour "Meal Premium" entries (e.g., a $22.33 entry) and contain no separate rest-period premium wages, despite Plaintiff having missed or been interrupted during rest breaks on a majority of his workdays throughout the statutory period.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code sections 210 and 2699, subdivision (f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendant also violated Labor Code section 204.

Labor Code section 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendant systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wage for all hours worked. As a result, Defendant owes employees the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code section 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d). Under Labor Code section 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code section 1174 is subject to a penalty under section 1174.5. Pursuant to IWC Wage Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Defendant, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Defendant's failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Order deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendant's records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendant. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendant to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendant's knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, Defendant terminated Plaintiff's employment on or about April 1, 2026. At the time of his termination, Defendant had not paid Plaintiff all wages owed, including unpaid rest-period premium wages for the workdays on which Defendant failed to authorize or permit a compliant rest period (or interrupted a rest period) during Plaintiff's employment. Those wages were due immediately upon Plaintiff's discharge under Labor Code section 201 but were not paid at that time and have not been paid since.

Defendant's conduct violates Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced, but that the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up 30 days, pursuant to Labor Code section 203. Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination.

Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9)

all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Lab. Code § 226, subd. (e)(2)(B)(iii).)

The statute further provides that “[a]n employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Lab. Code § 226, subd. (e)(1).)

Throughout the statutory period, Defendant or failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

Because Defendant violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendant’s failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Plaintiff personally suffered these injuries. His wage statements from Defendant for pay periods in which he missed or was interrupted during rest breaks reflect, at most, isolated single-hour "Meal Premium" entries and no rest-period premium entries, materially understating the gross and net wages earned and omitting premium wages owed under Labor Code section 226.7. These deficiencies prevented Plaintiff from determining, from the face of his wage statements, the premium wages to which he was entitled.

Statement of Specific Provisions of the Labor Code Violated

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees:

- (1) Labor Code section 204 by failing to timely pay all earned rest-period premium wages;
- (2) Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by failing to provide meal periods;

- (3) Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by failing to authorize and permit rest periods;
- (4) Labor Code section 204 by failing to pay all earned wages twice per month;
- (5) Labor Code section 1174.5 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;
- (6) Labor Code section 201 to 203 by willfully failing to pay all wages owed at termination;
- (7) Labor Code section 226 by failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
- (8)

Pursuant to PAGA, Plaintiff seeks civil penalties arising from these violations. These include, but are not limited to, penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699, subdivision (f)(2).

This letter shall serve as Plaintiff's notice pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3 and we ask that LWDA conduct an investigation concerning the violations described herein. Alternatively, if LWDA does not intend to investigate these violations, we ask that it issue a notification letter to our office confirming the same so that we may proceed with our civil action asserting the PAGA claims described herein.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or if you would like to discuss this matter further. Nothing in this letter is intended to be, or should be construed as, an admission against the interests of Plaintiff or other current or former employees of Defendant and shall not be construed as a waiver of their rights, remedies, claims, or defenses, all of which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,
