FOR THE COUNTY OF ORANGE

ARSENIO BATTISTE, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

GOLDEN STATE SECURITY, INC.; and DOES
1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 30-2026-01583660-CU-OE-CXC

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF ARSENIO BATTISTE'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff ARSENIO BATTISTE ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants GOLDEN STATE SECURITY, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive
(collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with

Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout California, including but not limited to Orange County, at 3400 W. Warner Ave, Santa Ana, California 92704.

III. PARTIES

3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp

1 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 2 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 3 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Orange County from in or around 4 October 20, 2025, until in or around November 27, 2025.

5 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant GOLDEN
6 STATE SECURITY, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing
7 business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant 8 hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant GOLDEN STATE SECURITY, INC. in the 9 establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies.
10 Defendant GOLDEN STATE SECURITY, INC. operates in Orange County and employed Plaintiff
11 and aggrieved employees in Orange County, including but not limited to, at 3400 W. Warner Ave, 12 Santa Ana, California 92704.

13 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 14 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 15 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted
16 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 17 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

18 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
19 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 20 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 21 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 22 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 23 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

24 7. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
25 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 26 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 27 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 28 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this

1 complaint.

2 8. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 3 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff
4 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 7 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

8 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 9 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

10 9. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

11 10. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 12 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 13 1198, 2802, 6401.7, 6401.9, and the applicable Wage Orders.

14 11. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
15 Labor Code:

16 12. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
17 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
18 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
19 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 20 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 21 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

22 13. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees
23 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 24 Wage Orders.

25 14. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 26 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 27 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
28 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all

1 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 2 to:

3 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
4 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty after clocking-out for their meal breaks resulting in
5 untimely uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked;

6 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
7 non-exempt employees to walk around entire property prior to their start of their shifts and after
8 their end of their shifts.

9 15. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 10 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants'
11 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 12 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 13 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable
14 Wage Order.

15 16. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
16 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
17 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

18 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay
19 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 20 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer
21 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee
22 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 23 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 24 the benefit of the employer.'

25 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 26 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40)
27 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

28 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours

1 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 2 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half
3 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 4 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

5 Labor Code section 510.

6 19. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
7 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 8 to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

9 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
10 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty after clocking-out for their meal breaks resulting in
11 untimely uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked;

12 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
13 non-exempt employees to walk around entire property prior to their start of their shifts and after 14 their end of their shifts.

15 20. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 16 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
17 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
18 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

19 21. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each
20 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 21 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 22 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
23 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday,
24 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed
25 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code
26 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

27 22. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 28 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to

1 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 2 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 3 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

4 23. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 5 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 6 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 7 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11;
8 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 9 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
10 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh
11 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
12 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal
13 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 14 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

15 24. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 16 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay
17 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code
18 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11.

19 25. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 20 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-21 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 22 limited to:

23 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
24 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty after clocking-out for their meal breaks resulting in
25 untimely uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked;

26 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
27 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff
28 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were

1 required to keep their employer-issued radio and/or personal cellphone on them at all times during
2 their shift to monitor and respond to calls from Defendant, including during their off-the-clock meal 3 breaks; and

4 (c) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based
5 hourly non-exempt employees a second uninterrupted duty-free meal period of no less than thirty 6 (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
7 based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

8 26. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or
9 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 10 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 11 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 12 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

13 27. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and
14 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving
15 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal
16 periods in compliance with California law.

17 28. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
18 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
19 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 29. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that
21 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
22 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 23 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

24 30. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
25 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code
26 section 226.7; Wage Order 4 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes'
27 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 28 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on." Brinker

1 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7;
2 Wage Order 4 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
3 Wage Order 4 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement ““obligates employers to permit –
4 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc.
5 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all
6 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

7 31. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 8 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the 9 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 10 Order 4 at § 12.

11 32. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 12 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
13 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 14 limited to:

15 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 16 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 17 or major fraction thereof; and

18 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
19 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their rest breaks because Plaintiff and other current 20 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were required to keep their 21 employer-issued radio and/or personal cellphones on them at all times during their shift to monitor
22 and respond to calls from Defendant, including during rest breaks.

23 (c) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based
24 hourly non-exempt employees a third uninterrupted duty-free rest period of no less than ten (10) net
25 minutes on each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

27 33. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or
28 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based

1 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday
2 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 3 226.7.

4 34. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and
5 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving
6 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods
7 in compliance with California law.

8 35. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
9 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
10 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

11 36. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 12 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 13 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 14 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 15 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

16 37. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff
17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary
18 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 19 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

20 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 21 employees the use of their personal cell phone (including both telephone use and cellular data use)
22 for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
23 California-based employees for such use;

24 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 25 employees to purchase uniform for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other 26 current and former aggrieved California-based employees for such use.

27 38. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 28 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.

1 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 2 compliance with California law.

3 39. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 4 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell
5 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

6 40. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
7 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
8 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

9 41. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 10 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 11 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 12 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 13 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 14 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll
15 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7)
16 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 17 section 204(d).

18 42. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 19 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
20 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 21 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants'
22 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 23 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 24 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

25 43. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
26 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
27 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

28 44. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section

223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

45. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

46. Failure to Establish, Implement, and Maintain a Workplace Violence and Injury Prevention Program in Compliance with Labor Code Sections 6401.7 and 6401.9: California Labor Code Section 6401.7 requires every employer to establish, implement, and maintain an effective injury prevention program. California Labor Code Section 6401.9 requires California employers to adopt a comprehensive Workplace Violence Prevention Plan (WVPP), train employees on workplace violence, log safety incidents, and conduct periodic inspections to evaluate workplace violence hazards.

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant did not comply with Defendant's responsibilities and duties under Labor Code sections 6401.7 and 6401.9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant (1) failed to establish, implement, and maintain an effective injury prevention program; (2) failed to adopt a compliant Workplace Violence Prevention Plan; (3); failed to train Employee and other aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees in workplace violence and injury prevention; (4) failed to log safety incidents; and (5) failed to conduct compliant periodic inspections. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

47. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section

226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee his or her wages, the employer must “furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

48. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

49. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

50. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

51. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

52. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all

1 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages,
2 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each
3 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

4 53. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

5 54. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
6 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
7 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

8 55. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 9 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 10 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 11 section 2699.3.

12 56. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code
