Attorneys for Plaintiff Valerie Vizgaudis-Gomez, individually,
and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO

VALERIE VIZGAUDIS-GOMEZ, individually,
and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees,

Plaintiff,

v.

CALIFORNIA FORENSIC MEDICAL ROUP
INCORPORATED; WELLPATH LLC; and
DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 26CV016968

REPRESENTATIVE COMPLAINT FOR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PRIVATE
ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004,
LABOR CODE §§ 2698, ET SEQ.:

1 Plaintiff Valerie Vizgaudis-Gomez (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all other
2 aggrieved employees, alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this representative action against defendants California Forensic 5 Medical Group, Incorporated, Wellpath LLC, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (collectively,
6 “Defendants”), on Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of all other non-exempt employees
7 currently or formerly employed by Defendants in California at any time from May 8, 2025 to the 8 present (“aggrieved employees”).

9 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 10 violated state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 11 (a) failing to pay all wages;
- 12 (b) failing to provide meal periods or pay meal period premiums;
- 13 (c) failing to authorize or permit rest periods or pay rest period premiums;
- 14 (d) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
- 15 (e) failing to pay all wages due during employment and upon separation of 16 employment.

17 3. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of himself and all other 18 aggrieved employees to recover, among other things, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, and civil 19 penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 98.6, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.7, 510, 511, 512, 558, 20 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2698, et seq.

21 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

22 4. The penalties and other legal and equitable relief sought by Plaintiff exceed the 23 minimal jurisdictional limits of this Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

24 5. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Article VI, § 10 of the 25 California Constitution, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”
26 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not 27 specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

28 6. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and

1 belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California,
2 and/or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise
3 of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play
4 and substantial justice.

5 7. Venue is proper in this court because Defendants maintain offices, have agents,
6 employ individuals, and/or transact business in this county.

7 THE PARTIES

8 8. Plaintiff is a California citizen and was employed by Defendants in Auburn, 9 California as a non-exempt registered nurse from approximately January 2024 to approximately 10 February 2026.

11 9. Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as 12 employers whose employees were and are engaged to work throughout this county and the State
13 of California.

14 10. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the Defendant sued herein 15 under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 50 but will amend the complaint and serve such 16 fictitiously named Defendants once their names and capacities become known.

17 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each and all of the acts 18 and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable, to each Defendant acting as 19 the agent, employee, alter ego, and/or joint venturer of, or working in concert with, each of the 20 other co-Defendants and within the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, 21 or concerted activity with legal authority to act on the others' behalf.

22 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that during the relevant time
23 period, DOES 1 through 50 were the employers of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees
24 within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes. Plaintiff is informed and believes and 25 thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working 26 conditions, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
27 employees so as to make each Defendant an employer liable under the statutory provision set forth 28 herein.

13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 exercise sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

15. During the relevant time period, Defendants employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees as non-exempt employees throughout California at Defendants' California business location(s).

16. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were entitled to compensation for all hours worked. However, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees all wages at the correct rate of pay. For example, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees worked an alternative workweek schedule of 3, 12-hour shifts per workweek. However, Defendants routinely required Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to work shifts outside of their regularly scheduled alternative workweek schedule without payment of all overtime and double-time wages earned. Additionally, Defendants failed to pay for all time Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees worked due to their policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to clock out for meal periods that Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were required to work through. As a result, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for all minimum and regular wages in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order.

17. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were entitled to receive 30-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked or payment of meal period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof. However, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and aggrieved employees with 30-minute,

1 uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked and failed to pay meal period
2 premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof in violation of the Labor Code and applicable
3 IWC Wage Order. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to 4 listen to and answer radios at all times, including during meal periods.

5 18. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and aggrieved
6 employees were entitled to receive 10-minute, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or 7 major fraction thereof or payment of rest period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu 8 thereof. However, Defendants failed to permit Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to take 10-9 minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof
10 and failed to pay rest period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof in violation of the 11 Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff and other 12 aggrieved employees to listen to and answer radios at all times, including during rest periods.

13 19. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and aggrieved
14 employees were entitled to reimburse for necessary expenditures. However, Defendants made it
15 necessary for Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to use their personal devices to clock in and out 16 on a mobile application, and Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for 17 these expenses in violation of the Labor Code.

18 20. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and aggrieved
19 employees were entitled to itemized wage statements that accurately showed, inter alia, gross 20 wages earned, total hours worked, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during 21 the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

22 21. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and aggrieved
23 employees were entitled to timely payment of wages due during employment and upon separation
24 of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees did not receive 25 payment of all wages within the required time periods.

26 22. During the relevant time period, Defendants retaliated against Plaintiff for making 27 complaints regarding being instructed to falsify time records, not being able to take breaks, and 28 not being paid overtime for mandatory attendance at meetings outside of her regularly scheduled

1 alternative workweek schedule, and for filing a complaint with the Labor Commissioner in 2 violation of the Labor Code.

3 23. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew they had a duty to compensate
4 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees, and Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 5 compensation but willfully, knowingly, and/or intentionally failed to do so in order to increase 6 Defendants' profits.

7 24. Therefore, Plaintiff brings this lawsuit against Defendants on Plaintiff's own behalf 8 and on behalf of all aggrieved employees to recover, among other things, attorneys' fees, civil 9 penalties, costs, and expenses.

10 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

11 ENFORCEMENT OF LABOR CODE §§ 2698, *ET SEQ.

12 (Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

13 25. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 14 though fully set forth herein.

15 26. Labor Code § 2699(a) provides that notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 16 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
17 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 18 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a 19 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or 20 former employees against whom a violation of the same code provision was committed pursuant 21 to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.

22 27. Labor Code § 2699(m) provides that civil penalties recovered by aggrieved
23 employees shall be distributed as follows: 65% to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency 24 for enforcement of labor laws, including the administration of this part, and for education of 25 employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities under this code, to be continuously 26 appropriated to supplement and not supplant the funding to the agency for those purposes; and 27 35% to the aggrieved employees.

28 28. Plaintiff and all other non-exempt employees currently or formerly employed by

1 Defendants in California at any time from May 8, 2025 to the present are “aggrieved employees”
2 as defined in Labor Code § 2699(c).

3 29. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, violates numerous Labor Code sections, 4 including the following:

- 5 (a) Failing to pay all wages to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees at the 6 correct rate in violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 511, 558, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 7 1197.1, and 1198;
- 8 (b) Failing to provide compliant meal periods without paying Plaintiff and other 9 aggrieved employees meal period premiums for each day that lawful meal
10 periods were not provided in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- 11 (c) Failing to authorize and permit compliant rest breaks without paying 12 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees rest period premiums for each day 13 that lawful rest periods were not authorized or permitted in violation of 14 Labor Code § 226.7;
- 15 (d) Failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor
16 Code § 226;
- 17 (e) Failing to timely pay all wages due during Plaintiff’s and other aggrieved 18 employees’ employment and at the end of their employment in violation of 19 Labor Code §§ 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, and 210;
- 20 (f) Failing to maintain accurate and complete records showing the hours worked 21 each day by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor 22 Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5; and
- 23 (g) Retaliating against Plaintiff in violation of Labor Code §§ 98.6 and 1102.5.

24 30. Plaintiff personally suffered each of the Labor Code violations alleged in this 25 lawsuit within the one-year period prior to her PAGA notice.

26 31. Plaintiff has exhausted the administrative requirements provided in Labor Code §
27 2699.3 as to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties on Plaintiff’s own 28 behalf and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under PAGA.

1 32. Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 98.6, 210,
2 558, 1102.5, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2699, 2699.3, and 2699.5 for the Labor Code violations alleged
3 herein.

4 33. Plaintiff is entitled to recover attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code §§ 98.6, 210,
5 218.5, and 2699(k)(1).

6 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 On Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees, Plaintiff prays 8 for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- 9 1. For civil penalties pursuant to PAGA;
10 2. For injunctive relief;
11 3. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit and interest, pursuant to Labor Code 12 §§ 98.6, 210, 218.5, and 2699(k)(1); and 13 4. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
