FRANCISCO M. GUERRERO, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

URBAN PLATES LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 26STCV22172

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF FRANCISCO M.
GUERRERO'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff FRANCISCO M. GUERRERO ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants URBAN PLATES LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively
"Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 21503 Hawthorne Blvd. Unit A, Torrance, CA 90503.

III. PARTIES

1. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work

1 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp
2 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 3 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 4 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or around 5 September 10, 2025, until in or around November 29, 2025.

6 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant URBAN 7 PLATES LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business in 8 the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto were 9 persons acting on behalf of Defendant URBAN PLATES LLC in the establishment of, or ratification
10 of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant URBAN PLATES 11 LLC operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los 12 Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 21503 Hawthorne Blvd. Unit A, Torrance, CA 13 90503.

14 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 15 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 16 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted
17 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 18 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

19 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
20 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued
21 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 22 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 23 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 24 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

25 4. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
26 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 27 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 28 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously

1 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 2 complaint.

3 5. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 4 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff
5 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 8 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

9 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 10 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

11 6. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

12 7. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 13 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 14 2802, 6401.7, 6401.9, and the applicable Wage Orders.

15 8. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
16 Labor Code:

17 9. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 21 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 22 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

23 10. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees
24 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 25 Wage Orders.

26 11. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 27 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 28 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved

1 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all
2 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 3 to:

4 (a) Sometimes required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
5 based hourly non-exempt employees to clock out at the end of their shifts and continue working,
6 without being paid for that time.

7 (b) Sometimes required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
8 based hourly non-exempt employees to clock out for their meal breaks and continue to work through
9 their off-the-clock meal breaks.

10 12. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 11 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants'
12 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 13 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 14 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable
15 Wage Order.

16 13. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
17 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
18 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

19 14. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay
20 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 21 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer
22 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee
23 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 24 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 25 the benefit of the employer.'

26 15. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 27 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40)
28 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

1 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours
2 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 3 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half
4 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours
5 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay
6 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 7 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 8 employee.

9 Labor Code section 510.

10 16. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
11 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 12 to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

13 (a) Sometimes required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
14 based hourly non-exempt employees to clock out at the end of their shifts and continue working,
15 without being paid for that time.

16 (b) Sometimes required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
17 based hourly non-exempt employees to clock out for their meal breaks and continue to work through 18 their off-the-clock meal breaks.

19 17. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 20 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
21 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
22 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

23 18. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each
24 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 25 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 26 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
27 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 28 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

19. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that

1 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 2 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 3 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 4 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

5 20. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 6 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 7 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 8 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11;
9 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 10 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
11 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh
12 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
13 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal
14 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 15 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

16 21. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 17 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay
18 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 19 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11.

20 22. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 21 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-22 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 23 limited to:

24 (a) Sometimes failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
25 California-based hourly non-exempt employees with timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks 26 of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked due to chronic understaffing and workload.

27 23. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 28 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based

1 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that
2 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did
3 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

4 24. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 5 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving
6 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal
7 periods in compliance with California law.

8 25. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
9 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
10 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

11 26. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 12 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
13 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 14 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

15 27. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 16 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code
17 section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes'
18 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 19 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on." Brinker
20 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 21 Wage Order 5 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
22 Wage Order 5 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement "“obligates employers to permit –
23 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc.
24 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 25 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

26 28. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 27 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday the 28 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage

Order 5 at § 12.

29. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Sometimes failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof due to chronic understaffing and workload.

30. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

31. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods in compliance with California law.

32. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

33. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

34. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed

1 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

2 (a) Personal cell phone usage (including cell phone usage and cellular data usage) for 3 work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
4 California-based hourly non-exempt employees for such use.

5 35. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 6 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
7 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 8 compliance with California law.

9 36. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 10 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell
11 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

12 37. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
13 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
14 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

15 38. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 16 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 17 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 18 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 19 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 20 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246,
21 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor
22 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 23 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

24 39. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
25 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
26 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

27 40. Failure to Establish, Implement, and Maintain a Workplace Violence and 28 Injury Prevention Program in Compliance with Labor Code Sections 6401.7 and 6401.9:

1 California Labor Code Section 6401.7 requires every employer to establish, implement, and 2 maintain an effective injury prevention program. California Labor Code Section 6401.9 requires
3 California employers to adopt a comprehensive Workplace Violence Prevention Plan (WVPP), train 4 employees on workplace violence, log safety incidents, and conduct periodic inspections to evaluate 5 workplace violence hazards.

6 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant did not comply with Defendant's responsibilities and duties
7 under Labor Code sections 6401.7 and 6401.9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges
8 that Defendant (1) failed to establish, implement, and maintain an effective injury prevention
9 program; (2) failed to adopt a compliant Workplace Violence Prevention Plan; (3); failed to train
10 Employee and other aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees in workplace
11 violence and injury prevention; (4) failed to log safety incidents; and (5) failed to conduct compliant
12 periodic inspections. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional. Plaintiff also 13 believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable 14 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

15 41. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section
16 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee
17 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 18 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 19 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 20 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare
21 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee
22 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders
23 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive
24 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 25 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 26 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 27 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

28 42. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff

1 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages
2 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period
3 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based 4 hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 5 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

6 43. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

7 44. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
8 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
9 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 45. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 11 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 12 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72)
13 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

14 46. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
15 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all
16 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 17 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 18 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

19 47. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

20 48. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
21 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
22 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

23 49. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 24 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 25 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code
26 section 2699.3.

27 50. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code
28 section 2699.3. On May 6, 2026, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and provided

1 notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of the Labor
2 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations alleged.

3 51. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 4 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code
5 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 6 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 7 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

8 52. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 9 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 10 510, 512, 1194, 6401.7 and 6401.9: During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the 11 present, preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in 12 the following amounts:

13 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 2802;
14 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 15 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 16 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

17 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 18 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 19 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period
20 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

21 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 22 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 23 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 24 established by Labor Code section 558].

25 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 26 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 27 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
28 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code

1 section 210].
