DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff ANTHONY JUSTICE JOHNSON (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have 2 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 3 further investigation and discovery, individually and on behalf of all other members of the public
4 similarly situated, alleges as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants CENTRAL OCCUPATIONAL
7 MEDICINE PROVIDERS-ONTARIO, A MEDICAL CORPORATION and COMP
8 MANAGEMENT, INC., (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor
9 Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all 10 hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods,
11 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to indemnify employees for expenditures, 12 failure to furnish accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon separation of 13 employment, failure to timely pay wages during employment, and unfair business practices.

14 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action individually and as a class
15 action on behalf of Plaintiff and certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 16 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” and defined more fully below). The 17 Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any Defendant in 18 California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period 19 applicable to the claims pleaded here.

20 3. Plaintiff brings the Tenth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 21 California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 22 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt employees by Defendants in 23 the State of California during the statute of limitations period for his PAGA claim (hereinafter
24 referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees.”

25 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 26 establishment within the State of California, including Riverside County. As such and based upon
27 all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.
28

5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants have, at times:

- (a) Failed to pay some, but not necessarily all employees for all hours worked, including all minimum, straight time, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- (b) Failed to provide some, but not necessarily all employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failed to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failed to pay an additional hour’s pay for each workday a meal period violation occurred;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit some, but not necessarily all employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failed to pay an additional hour’s pay for each workday a rest period violation occurred;
- (d) Failed to indemnify some, but not necessarily all employees for expenditures incurred in direct discharge of duties of employment; and
- (e) Failed to provide some, but not necessarily all employees with accurate, itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders; and
- (f) Willfully failed to pay some, but not necessarily all employees all minimum wage, straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within the time period specified by California law when employment terminates.

6. On information and belief, Defendants were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful conduct.

Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employers of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of "respondeat superior."

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in Riverside County, California as a nonexempt employee paid hourly from approximately August 1, 2025 to approximately January 30, 2026 as an X-Ray Technician.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law, as well as to add additional claims.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that Defendants are, and at all times herein mentioned, were:

(g) Business entities qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Riverside County; and,

(h) The former employers of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employer of the Class Members because Defendants engaged Plaintiff and the Class to work; and/or suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled or had the power and authority to control their wages, hours, or working conditions;

11. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the

1 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts, and omissions as described in each and all of the 2 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and of the Class. Further, Defendants are 3 responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of 4 “respondeat superior.”

5 12. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued
6 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each
7 of the Doe Defendants were in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 8 Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true
9 names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with 10 appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

11 13. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 12 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or 13 injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

14 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each 15 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the 16 other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages,
17 hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all 18 relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, 19 controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or 20 predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all 21 of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some 22 or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged 23 below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant 24 to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should 25 have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the 26 conduct of all other Defendants.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter because Plaintiff brings this Complaint for various violations of the Labor Code and California Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) orders, Defendants are business entities operating in California, and Plaintiff is a California resident.

16. This class action is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages, penalties, and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, section 10. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction. Plaintiff’s share of damages, penalties, and other relief sought in this action does not exceed $75,000.

17. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the County of Riverside, California.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

18. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in Riverside County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately August 1, 2025 to approximately January 30, 2026. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff often worked more than eight hours per day and forty (40) hours in a workweek.

19. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants for Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide legally compliant meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to reimburse business expenses, failure to furnish accurate wage statements, failure to pay final wages at termination, and failure to timely pay wages during employment. As discussed below, Plaintiff’s experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative of the class.

1 20. Plaintiff brings these causes of action individually and as a class action on behalf of 2 certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 3 “Class” or “Class Members,” and defined more fully below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and 4 all other persons who have been employed by Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-
5 exempt employee during the statute of limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

6 21. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and
7 establishment within the State of California, including Riverside County. As such and based upon
8 all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants are
9 subject to the Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the IWC, and the California Business &
10 Professions Code.

11 22. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully
12 failed to comply with the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders with respect to Plaintiff and the Class 13 and instead maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of including, but not 14 limited to, the following violations on a regular basis:

- 15 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight
16 time, and overtime wages, as well as on-call/standby pay. For example,
17 Defendants:
18 i. maintained policies and practices requiring employees to remain available 19 during on-call periods, respond to calls within a limited timeframe, and 20 perform work upon demand, while failing to compensate employees for such 21 controlled time and for all off-the-clock work performed, including time
22 spent handling work-related communications and tasks outside of recorded 23 hours; and/or
24 ii. failed to pay for all hours worked and failed to pay some of this unpaid work 25 at the overtime rate, as required; and/or 26 iii. required them to continue working during unpaid meal and rest periods; 27 and/or
28 iv. failed to maintain accurate records of the hours worked.

- 1 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods; for 2 example, Defendants:
- 3 i. required employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day
4 without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for 5 every five hours of work; and/or
- 6 ii. continued to assert control over employees by requiring, pressuring, or
7 encouraging them to perform work tasks, which could not be completed
8 without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods; for example
9 Defendants continued to contact employees during meal periods regarding 10 charts, radiology reports, and other work-related issues, thereby preventing 11 uninterrupted, duty-free breaks; and/or
- 12 iii. interrupted Plaintiff's meal periods; and/or denied employees permission to 13 take a meal period; and/or
- 14 iv. failed to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed and 15 denied employees opportunities to do their own timekeeping.
- 16 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
17 periods. For example, Defendants:
- 18 i. required employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day
19 without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, 20 uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major 21 fraction of four hours); and/or
- 22 ii. failed to compensate employees for rest periods that were not authorized or 23 permitted; and/or
- 24 iii. continued to assert control over employees by requiring, pressuring, or
25 encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed
26 without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods.
- 27 (d) Failing to indemnify employees for work-related expenses, such as having 28 to use Plaintiff's personal cell phone for work-related communications, obtaining work related materials such as X-Ray markers, all without reimbursement.

(e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as the legal employing entity's address, rest/meal break premiums, the remaining paid sick leave balance, and all wages for all hours worked, among other things.

(f) Failing to timely pay employees their final wages due upon separation of employment, including, but not limited to, all expenditures, minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime wages, meal and rest period premium wages.

(g) Failing to timely pay wages during employment in violation of §204 of Lab. Code.

(h) Failing to provide Notice to Employee in violation of Lab. Code § 2810.5.

23. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them, were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

24. As a result of these violations of Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class suffered injury because, among other things:

(a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they were entitled;

(b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they had not been;

(c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium

- 1 wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;
- 2 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time,
- 3 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the
- 4 correct California rate even though they had not been;
- 5 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum,
- 6 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
- 7 wages owed to them;
- 8 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in
- 9 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have
- 10 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
- 11 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage
- 12 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 13 (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to
- 14 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security,
- 15 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits; and,
- 16 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage
- 17 rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the
- 18 Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were
- 19 entitled.

20 25. Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in Labor Code §

21 226(e) and injunctive relief under Labor Code § 226(h).

22 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

23 26. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other

24 persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil 25 Procedure section 382.

26 27. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief

27 authorized by California law.

28 28. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

1 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or 2 non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before 3 the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending on the first day of trial in this matter.

4 29. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

5 30. Plaintiff undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 6 conditions of all Class Members.

7 31. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 8 readily ascertainable:

9 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so
10 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
11 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time;
12 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than one hundred (100) 13 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by 14 inspection of Defendants' records.

15 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
16 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
17 defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims are typical of all Class
18 Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

19 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly, and adequately protect
20 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
21 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated 22 herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 23 Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the 24 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
25 Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 26 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 27 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 28 benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and,

32. The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

33. Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

34. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages;
- (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- (d) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures
- (e) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;
- (f) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;

(g) Failed to timely pay wages during employment in violation of §204 of Lab. Code; and

(h) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

35. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

(a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;

(b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;

(c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;

(d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

(e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;

(f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:

1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,

2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or

1 impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not 2 limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those 3 parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

4 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 5 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 6 the class as a whole.

7 36. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 8 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. Defendants' own business 9 records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices.
10 To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff contemplates the use of additional 11 techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice,
12 website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class
13 and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and 16 Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

17 37. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the 18 above paragraphs.

19 38. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 20 an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 21 not required to do so.

22 39. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay Plaintiff
23 and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. For example, Plaintiff was contacted during 24 meal periods by management regarding X-rays, radiology reports, and patient charts, requiring him
25 to perform work during those periods. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff to remain on 26 call during evenings and weekends with strict response times and failed to compensate him for all 27 on-call and standby time. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged 28 above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code § 1194, and any additional

1 applicable Wage Orders that require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

2 40. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight
3 time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

4 41. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 5 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

6 42. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 7 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class
8 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff
9 and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

10 43. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d),
11 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due
12 Plaintiff and the Class.

13 44. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover
14 liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

15 45. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and 16 straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§
17 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

18 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

20 46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
21 paragraphs.

22 47. California Labor Code §§510, 1194 and 1198 require employers to pay at least 23 minimum wage for all hours worked, pay overtime wages payable at the rate of at least one and 24 one-half times the regular rate of pay for more than eight hours in one workday or more than forty 25 hours in one workweek. Employees are entitled to double overtime wages payable at the rate of at 26 least twice the regular rate of pay for work in excess of twelve hours in one workday or work in 27 excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek. For purposes of computing the overtime 28 rate of compensation required to be paid to a non-exempt full time salaried employee, the

1 employee's regular hourly rate shall be 1/40th of the employee's weekly salary. The regular rate
2 shall be 1/8th of the employee's daily rate. Payment of a fixed salary to a non-exempt employee
3 shall be deemed to provide compensation only for the employee's regular, non-overtime hours,
4 notwithstanding any private agreement to the contrary. (Lab. Code §515(d))

5 48. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff and the Class were non-exempt
6 employees and regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40)
7 hours in a workweek and were entitled to the protections of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194,
8 and the applicable IWC Wage Order. Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiffs for all overtime
9 hours worked as required under the foregoing provision of the California Labor Code and IWC
10 Wage Order by, among other things: failing to pay overtime at one and one-half or double the 11 regular rate of pay; requiring, permitting or suffering Plaintiff to work off the clock including time
12 on-call; requiring, permitting or suffering Plaintiff to work through meal and rest breaks but not 13 compensating them for this time and failing to include this time in their hours worked; illegally
14 and inaccurately recording time in which Plaintiff worked; and failing to properly maintain 15 Plaintiff's records.

16 49. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class
17 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday
18 and/or forty (40) hours in a workweek, as required by Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

19 50. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
20 compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class 21 have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 22 them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained
23 according to proof at trial.

24 51. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 25 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 26 Plaintiff and the Class.

27 52. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to 28 proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the

1 assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code
2 and/or other statutes.

3 53. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and 4 payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each
5 employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours
6 worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with all
7 compensation due, in violation of Labor Code § 204.

8 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

10 54. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
11 paragraphs.

12 55. California law requires an employer to provide an employee an uninterrupted meal 13 period of no less than thirty minutes before the end of a five-hour work period during which 14 employees are relieved of all duties. A second meal period of not less than 30 minutes is required
15 if an employee works more than 10 hours in one day. (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512; Wage Orders, 11; 16 Brinker Restaurant Corp v. Superior Ct. (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1049.) The Wage Order's meal
17 period requirement is satisfied if the employee (1) has at least 30 minutes uninterrupted, (2) is free 18 to leave the premises, and (3) is relieved of all duty for the entire period. (Brinker Restaurant Corp.
19 v. Superior Court, supra, at 1036.) An employer must relinquish control over their activities, 20 permit a reasonable opportunity to take an uninterrupted 30-minute break, and not impede or 21 discourage an employee from taking a meal break. (Id. at p. 1040.) If the employee is not relieved 22 of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an “on duty” meal period and 23 counted as time worked. (Id. at p. 1035.) “An employer may not undermine a formal policy of 24 providing meal breaks by pressuring employees to perform their duties in ways that omit breaks.
25 (Cicairos v. Summit Logistics, Inc. (2005) 133 Cal.App.4th 949, 962–963; see also Jaimez v.
26 Daiohs USA, Inc., (2010) 181 Cal.App.4th 1286, 1304–1305 [proof of common scheduling policy
27 that made taking breaks extremely difficult would show violation]; Dilts v. Penske Logistics, LLC
28 (S.D.Cal. 2010) 267 F.R.D. 625, 638 [indicating informal anti-meal-break policy “enforced

1 through ‘ridicule’ or ‘reprimand’” would be illegal].) The wage orders and governing statute do
2 not countenance an employer's exerting coercion against the taking of, creating incentives to forgo,
3 or otherwise encouraging the skipping of legally protected breaks.” (Id. at p. 1040.)

4 56. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 5 law, the employer must pay the employee one hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for 6 each workday that a legally required meal period was not timely provided or was not duty-free.
7 (Lab. Code §226.7(c)). The California Supreme Court held that premium pay for denying an 8 employee a meal or rest break constitutes “wages.” (Naranjo v Spectrum Security Services, Inc.
9 (2022) 13 Cal.5th 93.)

10 57. Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class timely full thirty-11 minute meal period completely duty free for each five-hour period of work as required under the 12 foregoing provisions of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Order. For example, Plaintiff 13 was required to clock out for meal periods before the fifth hour regardless of workload, but was 14 often contacted during meal periods regarding X-rays, radiology reports, and patient charts,
15 requiring him to perform work during those periods, and Defendants failed to provide premium
16 pay for such noncompliant meal periods. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the 17 Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it 18 impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully
19 violated the provisions of Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

20 58. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 21 additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s), plus 22 interest thereon.

23 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

25 59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
26 paragraphs.

27 60. California Labor Code §226.7 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission
28 Order §12 requires that employers must provide employees timely, uninterrupted 10-minute rest breaks, free of all duty, for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof. If an employer fails to provide an employee a rest break in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall pay the employee one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest break is not provided as a rest break premium wage. Employees are entitled to a 10-minute rest break for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on." (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029.) Furthermore, "Employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time during rest periods. (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269.) This obligation includes allowing employees to leave the premises during their rest periods.

61. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages at their regular rate of pay for each workday they were not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

62. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a workday. For example, Plaintiff was routinely unable to take compliant rest breaks, was required to request permission to take breaks, and was denied such requests due to workload demands and patient volume. Plaintiff only took both rest breaks on a handful of occasions, typically took one break if at all, and ultimately ceased taking rest breaks entirely, as was the common practice among employees. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

63. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday they were not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

65. Plaintiff and the Class were required to incur substantial necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

66. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and indemnify Plaintiff and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants, including, but not limited to, the use of Plaintiff's personal cell phone for work-related communications and purchase of white shoes and necessary tools to perform job duties, all without reimbursement.

67. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

68. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(b).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

70. At all material times set forth herein, Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee

1 and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number 2 other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 3 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 4 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

5 71. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 6 complete and accurate wage statements compliant with these Labor Code sections. For example,
7 Plaintiff's paystubs do not list the accurate rest/meal break premiums, and all wages for all hours
8 worked, among other things.

9 72. As a result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class 10 have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

11 73. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by 12 Defendants' intentional violations of California §§ 226(a) because they were denied both their 13 legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements
14 under Labor Code § 226(a).

15 74. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 16 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as 17 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
18 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related 19 laws and regulations.

20 75. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 21 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate 22 penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

23 76. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 24 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code § 226(h).

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

78. At all times herein set forth, Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that, if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

79. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other members of the Class ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of other member will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

80. Defendants' failure to pay those Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

81. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

82. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

83. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment)

84. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

85. This cause of action is dependent upon, and wholly derivative of, the overtime wages, minimum wages, and/or meal and rest period premiums that were not timely paid to Plaintiff and Class Members during their employment.

86. At all times relevant herein set forth, Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the first (1st) and the fifteenth (15th) days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the sixteenth (16th) and the twenty-sixth (26th) day of the month during which the labor was performed.

87. At all times relevant herein, Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the sixteenth (16th) and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the first (1st) and the tenth (10th) day of the following month.

88. At all times relevant herein, Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. Alternatively, at all times relevant herein, Labor Code section 204 provides that the requirements of this section are deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period.

89. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages due including, but not limited to, overtime wages, minimum wages, and/or meal and rest period premiums, within the time periods specified by California Labor Code section 204.

1 90. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages due violates Labor
2 Code section 204. Plaintiff and Class Members are therefore entitled to recover from Defendants
3 the statutory penalty wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 210.

4 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Against All Defendants for Violations of California
6 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

7 91. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
8 paragraphs.

9 92. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business
10 & Professions Code § 17201.

11 93. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, 12 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class Members, and to the general public. Plaintiff seeks 13 to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 14 Procedure § 1021.5.

15 94. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 16 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
17 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

18 95. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 19 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described above in the 20 foregoing causes of action are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and are immoral, 21 unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or 22 fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et 23 seq.

24 96. By and through their unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices
25 described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from 26 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and has deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly 27 situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

1 97. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of 2 Defendants' wrongful conduct.

3 98. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled 4 to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 5 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by 6 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and 7 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 8 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

9 99. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further 10 entitled to, and does, seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair,
11 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
12 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices
13 in the future.

14 100. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, has no plain,
15 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered
16 as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a 17 result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, 18 individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to 19 suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to 20 engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

21 101. Plaintiff also alleges that, if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth
22 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance, and other 23 withholdings.

24 102. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 25 putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 26 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a
27 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Class
28 Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and

1 other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

3 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal.
5 Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

6 103. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs of this 7 Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

8 104. At all relevant times, Defendants were subject to the California Labor Code and the 9 applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders.

10 105. Plaintiff brings this cause of action as an aggrieved employee, individually and as a
11 representative on behalf of the State of California and all other current and former aggrieved
12 employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), Labor Code sections 13 2698 et seq.

14 106. Plaintiff exhausted the administrative prerequisites to the commencement of this 15 action as required by Labor Code section 2699.3. On May 4, 2026, Plaintiff submitted written
16 notice by online filing to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”)
17 and provided notice to Defendants identifying the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to 18 have been violated, along with the facts and theories supporting those violations. Plaintiff paid the 19 required filing fee. The LWDA assigned this matter Case No. LWDA-CM-1175242-26.

20 107. The sixty-five (65) day statutory period for LWDA review elapsed on July 8, 2026, 21 without the LWDA providing notice of its intent to investigate. Accordingly, Plaintiff satisfied the 22 administrative exhaustion requirements of Labor Code section 2699.3 and is authorized to pursue
23 civil penalties under PAGA.

24 108. The statute of limitations applicable to the PAGA claims was tolled during the 25 period of administrative exhaustion pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3(d).

26 109. The Labor Code violations alleged in this cause of action are the same violations
27 identified in Plaintiff’s LWDA notice and arise from Defendants’ uniform policies, practices, and 28 course of conduct applicable to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff seeks to recover

1 civil penalties for all such violations experienced by Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees
2 during the PAGA period.

3 110. Plaintiff has standing to pursue civil penalties for the violations alleged herein
4 because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants during the PAGA period and personally
5 experienced the Labor Code violations identified in the LWDA notice. The alleged violations arose
6 from Defendants' uniform policies and practices and affected Plaintiff and other aggrieved
7 employees in the same or similar manner, and were not the result of isolated or employee-specific 8 circumstances.

9 111. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Defendants violated the 10 California Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 201–204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 1174, 11 1194, 1197, and 2802.

12 112. Defendants' violations were willful, knowing, and systematic, and resulted from 13 company-wide policies and practices. Upon information and belief, such violations continued
14 during the PAGA period and, absent judicial intervention, will continue to occur, thereby exposing 15 Defendants to ongoing civil penalties.

16 113. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff seeks 17 recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a), including any applicable
18 statutory penalties, and pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f) for violations for which no specific 19 civil penalty is provided, together with all other relief available under PAGA.

20 114. Plaintiff seeks recovery of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and all 21 aggrieved employees, with sixty-five percent (65%) of any civil penalties recovered payable to the 22 LWDA and thirty-five percent (35%) payable to the aggrieved employees, as provided by Labor
23 Code section 2699(m).

24 115. Plaintiff further seeks reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code
25 section 2699(k)(1), interest as permitted by law, and such other relief as the Court deems just and 26 proper.
