Attorneys for Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California as the Real Party in Interest

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF SANTA CRUZ

SHEENA MALOLOT, on behalf of the State of California as the Real Party in Interest;

Plaintiff,

vs.

HOSPICE OF SANTA CRUZ COUNTY, a
California Corporation; and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive;

Defendants.

Case No.: 26CV02252

REPRESENTATIVE ENFORCEMENT
ACTION COMPLAINT [Private
Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"),
Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.]

- (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages;
- (2) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages;
- (3) Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
- (4) Failure to Provide Rest Breaks;
- (5) Failure to Reimburse Bus. Expenses;
- (6) Failure to Pay Vested Vacation;
- (7) Failure to Timely Pay Final Wages; and
- (8) Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

1 Plaintiff Sheena Malolot (“Plaintiff”) brings this Private Attorneys General Act
2 (“PAGA”) Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”), on behalf of the State of California
3 as the real party in interest,¹ against Defendants as follows.

4 I. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against her former employer(s), Defendants Hospice of 6 Santa Cruz County and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, (collectively, “Defendants”) on behalf of 7 the State of California, seeking civil penalties under PAGA for Labor Code violations committed
8 against all current and former nonexempt employees employed by Defendants in California
9 within the last one year and 65 days prior to the filing of this action (hereinafter, the “Aggrieved
10 Employees”). Such violations include, but are not limited to, Defendants’ failure to pay all wages
11 owed, including minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure
12 to provide rest breaks, failure to reimburse business expenses, failure to pay all vested vacation 13 owed upon separation of employment, failure to timely pay wages upon separation of 14 employment, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

15 2. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants during the relevant periods herein and 16 alleges on information and belief that the Aggrieved Employees were subjected to the same
17 policies, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations to which Plaintiff was 18 subjected during employment.

19 3. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided all minimum, regular,
20 and overtime wages due to Defendants’ failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
21 worked, which led to frequent and reoccurring unpaid compensable time. For example,
22 Defendants frequently required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to perform pre- and post-
23 shift work without compensation. These practices violate California law. Troester v. Starbucks
24 Corporation (2018) 5 Cal.5th 829 (California law “do[es] not allow employers to require 25 employees to routinely work for minutes off the clock without compensation”); Frlekin v. Apple
26

27 ¹ Because a PAGA action is aimed at deterring and punishing violations of the Labor Code, the 28 State of California “is always the real party in interest in the suit.” Iskanian v. CLS Transp. of Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348, 360; ZB, N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, 185 (all PAGA claims “are brought on the state’s behalf”).

1 Inc. (2020) 8 Cal.5th 1038 (tasks are compensable when employee is under company's control
2 and where the tasks served the employer's interests).

3 4. Additionally, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees often worked more than 8
4 hours per day and/or 40 hours per week yet did not receive all required overtime and doubletime
5 compensation on such occasions. Also, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
6 Employees were compensated on an hourly basis plus additional earned compensation (such as 7 bonuses and other earned compensation). However, when the Aggrieved Employees worked
8 overtime hours and earned additional compensation during the same workweek, Defendants 9 failed to properly include these amounts in the calculations for the regular rate of pay – in 10 violation of California law and which led to the failure to pay proper overtime, sick time, meal
11 premiums, and other wages.

12 5. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were also denied 30-minute off-duty meal
13 periods, as mandated by California law. As a result of Defendants' policies and practices, the 14 Aggrieved Employees were subjected to meal period violations when they were: (1) unable to 15 take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal period while under the 16 control of Defendants [and they were forced to record a meal period despite one not occurring, 17 leading to unpaid wages described herein], (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4) forced 18 to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated second meal
19 periods for shifts in excess of 10 hours. Moreover, Defendants failed to record or keep accurate 20 information regarding when Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees took their meal periods, in 21 violation of the applicable IWC Wage Order § 7(A)(3).

22 6. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with 10
23 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major fraction thereof, as mandated 24 by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
25 Employees and the Aggrieved Employees were often not authorized and/or permitted to take 26 mandated rest breaks due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload.

27 7. Moreover, at all relevant times, Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 28 Employees to incur necessary business-related expenses and costs without reimbursement. For

1 example, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to use personal vehicles to carry
2 out their duties for Defendants, without sufficient reimbursement.

3 8. Also, at all relevant times, Defendants utilized a policy and practice through 4 which Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees accrued vacation and/or paid time off hours
5 (collectively, “PTO”). However, on the occasions when Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
6 had accrued but unused vacation hours upon separation of employment, Defendants failed to pay
7 for these earned wages and, further, failed to pay for vested and unused vacation at the “final 8 rate” as required by Labor Code § 227.3.

9 9. Plaintiff further alleges that she and the Aggrieved Employees were not paid all
10 wages due and owing upon separation of employment within the time required by Labor Code §§
11 201 – 203. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants engaged in the practice of failing to pay all
12 wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees at the time their employment
13 ended with Defendants, including, but not limited to minimum, regular, and overtime wages, 14 wage premiums, vacation and sick wages, among others.

15 10. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants failed to provide accurate itemized wage
16 statements that fully complied with the requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

17 11. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants’ violations of the wage and hour components of 18 the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders enabled them to decrease expenses and to increase their 19 level of productivity and profits, thereby allowing Defendants to gain an unfair advantage over 20 its competitors.

21 12. At all material times, Defendants and DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 22 Aggrieved Employees’ employers or persons acting on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees’
23 employer, within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be 24 violated, a section of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California Labor Code or any provision regulating
25 hours and days of work in an IWC Wage Order and, as such, are subject to penalties for each 26 underpaid employee as set forth in Labor Code § 558 and under California law.

27 13. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit on behalf of the State of California, as the real party in 28 interest, to recover all applicable and available PAGA remedies for violations of the California

1 Labor Code committed against the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein, as well as attorneys’
2 fees, costs, and/or other damages as permitted by PAGA. Plaintiff reserves the right to name
3 additional representatives throughout the State of California.

4 II. JURISDICTION

5 14. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims for relief of Plaintiff and the 6 Aggrieved Employees pursuant to the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Orders.

7 III. VENUE

8 15. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this Court pursuant to Code of Civil 9 Procedure § 395(a) because: Defendants transact business in Santa Cruz County, the unlawful 10 acts alleged herein have a direct effect on the Aggrieved Employees in Santa Cruz County, and 11 Defendants employs/employed Aggrieved Employees in Santa Cruz County. Crestwood
12 Behavioral Health, Inc. v. Superior Court (2021) 60 Cal.App.5th 1069, 1075 (“venue is proper in 13 any county in which an aggrieved employee worked and Labor Code violations allegedly 14 occurred.”).

15 IV. PARTIES

16 Plaintiff

17 16. Plaintiff and PAGA Representative Sheena Malolot was employed by Defendants
18 and performed work for Defendants during the relevant periods herein.

19 Defendants

20 17. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant Hospice of Santa Cruz County is a California
21 corporation authorized to and doing business in Santa Cruz County and is or was the legal 22 employer of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees during the applicable periods.

23 18. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships, and extent of 24 participation in the conduct herein alleged, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 20, 25 inclusive, but on information and belief alleges that those Defendants are legally responsible for 26 the payment of penalties and damages to Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees by virtue of 27 Defendants’ unlawful actions and practices and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious
28 names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE

1 Defendants when ascertained.

2 19. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that she and the Aggrieved
3 Employees worked under the joint direction and control of Defendants and that Defendants, and 4 each of them, acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants,
5 carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respect pertinent hereto, and the acts of 6 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. On information and belief, a 7 unity of interest and ownership between each Defendant exists such that all Defendants acted as 8 a single employer of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

9 20. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 10 Defendants, and each of them, are an integrated enterprise and should be treated as a single 11 employer because these entities share an interrelation of operations, with common human 12 resources and personnel policies and shared common offices and facilities. Additionally,
13 Plaintiff alleges that Defendants also have a shared website, common management, a centralized 14 control of labor operations, and common ownership or financial control.

15 21. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, in conducting 16 themselves in the manner described herein, Defendants, and each of them, were acting in active 17 concert with one another such that the acts of each were and are fully attributable to the others in 18 all material respects. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times
19 Defendants and each of them are now, and at all material times herein mentioned were, the 20 agents, servants, employees, partners, affiliates, and/or representatives of each of their remaining 21 co-Defendants, and were, at all times herein mentioned, acting within the course, scope, and 22 purpose of such relationship(s) and with the knowledge, consent and/or ratification of each of 23 their remaining co-Defendants.

24 22. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times, Defendants
25 have been inadequately capitalized to conduct business, have failed to follow appropriate 26 corporate formalities, and have simply been a shell and instrumentality through which 27 Defendants DOES 11 through 20, inclusive, have conducted their personal affairs. Accordingly,
28 the corporate veil should be pierced, and any liability attached to Defendants should be imposed

1 jointly and severally against Defendants DOES 11 through 20. Adherence to the fiction of the 2 separate existence of these corporate entities would permit abuse of the corporate privilege,
3 thereby sanctioning fraud and promoting injustice.

4 V. PAGA CAUSES OF ACTION (Labor Code §§ 2698 – 2699.5)

5 23. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
6 alleged herein.

7 24. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under the PAGA as she was employed by 8 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code
9 violations alleged herein. As such, Plaintiff may recover the remedies described herein in a civil 10 action filed on behalf of the State of California and for violations committed against the 11 Aggrieved Employees.

12 25. Plaintiff seeks to recover all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to 13 Labor Code § 2699, as well as attorneys’ fees, costs, and/or other damages as permitted by 14 PAGA through a representative action pursuant to the PAGA and the California Supreme Court
15 in Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969. Therefore, Plaintiff is not required to, nor 16 does she, seek class certification of the PAGA claims under Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

17 26. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a), Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing
18 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to 19 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including 20 the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since 21 Plaintiff provided notice of the claims alleged herein without the LWDA assuming jurisdiction,
22 so Plaintiff has fully satisfied the administrative prerequisites for bringing suit under the PAGA.

23 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

24 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

25 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

26 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants

27 27. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
28 alleged herein.

1 28. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not exempt from the requirement to 2 be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for each 3 hour worked.

4 29. As noted herein, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided proper
5 minimum and regular wages due to the allegations herein. As a result of these policies and 6 practices, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to perform off-the-clock work
7 that Defendants either knew or should have known they were performing.

8 30. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum 9 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 1197, IWC Wage Order § 4, and Cal. Code Regs., tit.
10 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

11 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
12 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
13 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197.

14 32. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the 15 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to be paid wages throughout the statutory period for each
16 hour worked, including proper minimum and regular wages, yet Defendants chose not to pay 17 them in accordance thereto.

18 33. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff, on
19 behalf of the State of California, seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA
20 remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or
21 any other damages permitted under PAGA.

22 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

23 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

24 (Labor Code § 510; IWC Wage Order § 3(A))

25 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants

26 34. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully 27 alleged herein.
28

1 35. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were employees of Defendants who did
2 not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing payment of overtime wages.

3 36. Labor Code § 204 requires that the employer timely pay all overtime wages to its 4 employees. Labor Code § 510(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) provide that any 5 work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in 6 any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the 7 regular rate of pay for an employee. Furthermore, any work performed in excess of twelve (12)
8 in one workday shall be compensated at twice the regular rate of pay for an employee.

9 37. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required by 10 Defendants to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week. However, as a
11 result of the policies and practices described in this Complaint, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff
12 and the Aggrieved Employees proper overtime wages for all overtime hours worked.

13 38. Defendants violate Labor Code § 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A)
14 every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees because Defendants
15 required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week
16 without proper overtime compensation.

17 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
18 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the 19 Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 and 1197.

20 40. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the 21 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to be paid proper overtime wages throughout the statutory 22 period, yet Defendants chose not to pay them in accordance thereto.

23 41. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff, on
24 behalf of the State of California, seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA
25 remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or
26 any other damages permitted under PAGA.

28 ///

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

2 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

3 (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

4 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants

5 42. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
6 alleged herein.

7 43. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
8 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of laws governing mandatory meal periods.

9 44. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide 10 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

11 45. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may 12 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an 13 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
14 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
15 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers 16 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing 17 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

18 46. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B), 19 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 20 pay for each meal period that is missed.

21 47. At all relevant times, and as a result of the policies and practices described in this 22 Complaint, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were denied the 30-minute meal periods to 23 which they were entitled.

24 48. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
25 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with 26 all mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
27 one additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.
28

1 49. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees did not
2 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers
3 obtained from Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not willfully obtained, were not 4 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an
5 unlawful adherence. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
6 Employees to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

7 50. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff, on
8 behalf of the State of California, seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA
9 remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or
10 any other damages permitted under PAGA.

11 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

13 (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

14 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants

15 51. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
16 alleged herein.

17 52. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
18 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

19 53. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
20 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

21 54. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and 22 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of 23 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major 24 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as 25 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

26 55. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage 27 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees one additional hour of pay at 28 their regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

1 56. At all relevant times, and as a result of the policies and practices described in this
2 Complaint, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were denied mandated paid rest breaks.

3 57. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
4 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with
5 all mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
6 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

7 58. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff, on
8 behalf of the State of California, seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA
9 remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or
10 any other damages permitted under PAGA.

11 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

13 (Labor Code § 2802)

14 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants

15 59. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
16 alleged herein.

17 60. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants 18 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing reimbursement of 19 business expenses.

20 61. Labor Code § 2802(a) requires that the employer indemnify its employees for 21 expenses and losses incurred while discharging their duties or in obedience to the directions of 22 their employer.

23 62. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802(a)
24 when they failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for expenses incurred as a 25 direct consequence of employment with Defendants and/or under the direction of Defendants.

26 63. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff, on
27 behalf of the State of California, seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA
28 remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY VESTED VACATION

(Labor Code § 227.3)

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants

64. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

65. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were employees of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the payment of vested vacation time and/or paid time off upon separation of employment.

66. Pursuant to Labor Code § 227.3, an employer that has implemented a paid vacation, paid time off, or compensated time off policy must, upon an employee's separation from employment, pay to the employee all vested but unused vacation and/or paid time off at her final rate of pay.

67. At all relevant times, and as a result of the policies and practices described in this Complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code § 227.3 when they failed to pay the Aggrieved Employees for all accrued and unused vacation hours to the Aggrieved Employees upon separation of employment and, moreover, failed to calculate and pay for said hours at the "final rate" of pay as required by Labor Code § 227.3.

68. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to pay the Aggrieved Employees, including Plaintiff, all vested but unused vacation time and/or paid time off upon separation from employment, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

69. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California, seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

1 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

3 (Labor Code §§ 201 – 203)

4 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants

5 70. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
6 alleged herein.

7 71. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
8 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the timing and 9 payment of wages.

10 72. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without 11 abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

12 73. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid, 13 without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of 14 intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

15 74. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a 16 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is 17 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

18 75. At all relevant times, Defendants employed a policy and practice whereby
19 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not paid all wages due and owing upon separation
20 of employment within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

21 76. Also, at all relevant times, Defendants engaged in the practice of failing to pay all
22 wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees upon separation of employment,
23 including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, meal and rest period
24 premiums, and vested vacation wages.

25 77. Additionally, at all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay all mandated sick
26 wages owed to the Aggrieved Employees at the proper rate of pay under Labor Code § 246(l), 27 leading to a failure to pay all wages owed upon separation of employment.

28 78. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned

1 pattern and practice of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages due
2 and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

3 79. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff, on
4 behalf of the State of California, seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA
5 remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or
6 any other damages permitted under PAGA.

7 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR

9 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

10 (Labor Code § 226)

11 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants

12 80. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
13 alleged herein.

14 81. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants 15 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the provision of 16 accurate itemized wage statements.

17 82. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized 18 wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the 19 inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her 20 Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal 21 entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 22 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

23 83. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff
24 and the Aggrieved Employees due to violations including: failure to accurately state total hours 25 worked (for example, the wage statements failed to accurately state total hours worked and/or 26 reflect the correct compensable hours); failure to accurately state gross wages earned, all 27 deductions, and net wages earned (due to, for example, the failure to pay all required minimum
28 and overtime wages); failure to state the applicable hourly rates (including the accurate overtime

1 rate of pay); failure to state the inclusive dates of the pay period; failure to accurately state the 2 name and address of the legal entity of the employer; and failure to accurately state the 3 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

4 84. Moreover, Defendants' wage statements directly violated Labor Code § 226(a)
5 each period due to the failure to pay and report premium wages for denied meal periods and rest
6 breaks under § 226.7.

7 85. Therefore, Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect
8 to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees because Defendants failed to provide a wage statement
9 to the Aggrieved Employees that complied with the requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

10 86. Unlike class action claims, a PAGA Plaintiff need not meet the "injury" and 11 "knowing and intentional" violation requirements of Labor Code § 226(e). See Lopez v. Friant
12 & Associates, LLC (2017) 15 Cal.App.5th 773, 788 ("a plaintiff seeking civil penalties under 13 PAGA for a violation of section 226(a) does not have to satisfy the "injury" and "knowing and 14 intentional" requirements of section 226(e)(1)").

15 87. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff, on
16 behalf of the State of California, seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA
17 remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or
18 any other damages permitted under PAGA.

19 VI. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

20 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California, as the real party in interest, 21 prays for judgment and relief against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- 22 1. For the assessment of all remedies and/or penalties available under the PAGA;
- 23 2. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit to the extent permitted by law; and
- 24 3. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
