Dept.: 17

1 I, Hallie Von Rock, declare as follows:

2 1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of California and admitted to 3 practice before this Court. I am a partner with Aiman-Smith & Marcy and counsel of record for Plaintiff
4 Janette Tello (“Plaintiff Tello”) in this action. I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein 5 and, if called as a witness, could and would competently testify thereto.

6 2. My firm and I have extensive experience in class action and employment litigation, 7 including wage and hour class actions, and do not have any conflict with the Class. Attached hereto as 8 Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of the firm resume of Aiman-Smith & Marcy, describing Class
9 Counsel’s experience.

10 3. On July 23, 2024, Plaintiff Tello filed a putative class action against Defendant Love’s
11 Country Stores of California, Inc., in San Bernardino County Superior Court, Case No. CIVVS2400177,
12 asserting wage-and-hour claims arising from Defendant’s uniform employment policies and practices
13 applicable to non-exempt employees in California. As part of the proposed global resolution, Plaintiff 14 Tello’s claims were consolidated for settlement purposes into this action pursuant to the Second 15 Amended Complaint.

16 4. Plaintiff Tello worked for Defendant as a non-exempt employee in California from 17 approximately July 2013 through April 2024. During her employment, she was paid on an hourly basis 18 and was entitled to legally compliant minimum wages, overtime wages, meal and rest periods, accurate 19 wage statements, and reimbursement of necessary business expenses.

20 5. Prior to the filing of Plaintiff Tello’s action, and throughout the pendency of this 21 litigation, I conducted an extensive investigation into her claims. This investigation included multiple 22 detailed interviews with Plaintiff Tello concerning Defendant’s timekeeping, compensation, meal and 23 rest period practices, and reimbursement policies, as well as review of documents relating to her 24 employment.

25 6. Based on my investigation and experience litigating wage-and-hour class actions, 26 Plaintiff Tello’s factual allegations were consistent with those of the other named Plaintiffs and with 27 evidence showing Defendant maintained uniform policies and practices affecting non-exempt employees 28 statewide.

1 7. As an experienced employment litigation attorney, with significant experience with class
2 action claims and expense reimbursement claims, I believe that Plaintiffs conducted sufficient discovery
3 and analysis to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the case and Defendant's defenses and I 4 recommend this Settlement to the Settlement Class Members and the Court.

5 8. I worked collaboratively with co-counsel to evaluate the legal merits and potential value
6 of Plaintiff Tello's claims, including the strengths and risks of continued litigation, class certification
7 challenges, manageability issues, defenses asserted by Defendant, and the likelihood of recovery at trial 8 and on appeal.

9 9. I participated in preparing for and attending the June 9, 2025 mediation before mediator
10 Steven Rottman, Esq., including reviewing data exchanged by Defendant, evaluating damages models 11 prepared by experts, and assisting in settlement negotiations on behalf of Plaintiff Tello and the 12 proposed Settlement Class Members.

13 10. The Settlement was reached only after arm's-length, non-collusive negotiations 14 conducted with the assistance of an experienced neutral mediator. In my professional judgment, the 15 Settlement represents a fair, reasonable, and adequate compromise of the Settlement Class Members 16 claims when weighed against the risks, expense, and delay of continued litigation.

17 11. Under the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff Tello does not provide a general release of 18 claims. Her individual FEHA and related claims are expressly carved out and preserved. This carve-out 19 was a material and negotiated term of the Settlement. Plaintiff Tello's individual FEHA and related 20 claims have been settled separately after mediation, and her claims will be dismissed with prejudice
21 separately in the pending action in the Superior Court of San Bernardino.

22 12. Plaintiff Tello also devoted substantial time and effort to this case. She assisted counsel 23 by participating in interviews, providing employment documents, reviewing pleadings and settlement
24 materials, and remaining available to consult throughout the litigation and settlement process. Her 25 contributions supported the prosecution of the claims on behalf of thousands of current and former 26 employees.

27 13. Based on Plaintiff Tello's efforts, the scope of her employment period, the risks she 28 assumed in serving as a named plaintiff, and the benefits conferred on the Settlement Class, the

1 proposed $10,000 Class Representative Service Payment for Plaintiff Tello is fair and reasonable.

2 14. For all of these reasons, I believe the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of 3 Plaintiff Tello, the Settlement Class Members, and the Aggrieved Employees, and I respectfully support
4 the Court's preliminary approval of the Settlement.

5
6 I declare, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California, that the foregoing is 7 true and correct.

8 Executed on January 20, 2026 at Oakland, California.
