DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 INTRODUCTION

2 1. Plaintiff Tywana Lanette Paulk (“Plaintiff”) brings this action on behalf of herself 3 and the Class Members who are defined as “all current and former employees within the State of 4 California who, at any time from four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, are or were 5 employed as non-exempt hourly employees by Defendants STUDENT TRANSPORTATION OF 6 AMERICA, INC., a Delaware corporation, MISSION TRANSPORTATION, INC., a California
7 corporation; SANTA BARBARA TRANSPORTATION CORPORATION, a California 8 corporation; CASCADE STUDENT TRANSPORTATION, an entity of unknown origin; and 9 DOES 1 through 50 (all defendants being collectively referred to herein as “Defendants”).

10 2. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants, and each of them, violated various provisions of 11 the California Labor Code, relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC), and the 12 California Business & Professions Code, and seeks redress for these violations.

13 3. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and (1) shared 14 similar job duties and responsibilities; (2) was subjected to the same policies and practices; and (3) 15 endured similar violations at the hands of Defendants as the other Class Members who served in 16 similar and related positions.

17 THE PARTIES

18 A. The Plaintiff

19 4. Plaintiff TYWANA LYNETTE PAULK resides in California, during the time 20 period relevant to this Complaint, was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee 21 within the State of California.

22 B. The Defendants

23 5. Defendant STUDENT TRANSPORTATION OF AMERICA, INC. is a Delaware
24 corporation and is registered with the California Secretary of State. Defendant STUDENT 25 TRANSPORTATION OF AMERICA, INC. has been the employer listed on the wage statements 26 and employment records issued to Plaintiff during the relevant time period that Plaintiff was 27 employed with Defendants.

28 6. Defendant MISSION SCHOOL TRANSPORTATION, INC. is a California

1 corporation and is registered with the California Secretary of State. Defendant MISSION 2 SCHOOL TRANSPORTATION, INC. has been the employer listed on the wage statements and 3 employment records issued to Plaintiff during the relevant time period that Plaintiff was employed 4 with Defendants.

5 7. Defendant SANTA BARBARA TRANSPORTATION CORPORATION is a 6 California corporation and is registered with the California Secretary of State. Defendant SANTA 7 BARBARA TRANSPORTATION CORPORATION has been the employer listed on employment 8 records issued to Plaintiff during the relevant time period that Plaintiff was employed with 9 Defendants.

10 8. Defendant CASCADE STUDENT TRANSPORTATION is an entity of unknown 11 origin, doing business in the state of California. Defendant CASCADE STUDENT 12 TRANSPORTATION has been the employer listed on employment records issues to Plaintiff 13 during the relevant time period that Plaintiff was employed with Defendants.

14 9. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 15 whatever else, of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently 16 unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of 17 Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants 18 designated herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and each of them, are legally responsible in 19 some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend 20 this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated herein as 21 Does 1 through 50 when their identities become known.

22 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in 23 all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried 24 out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of 25 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in 26 all respects as the employers or joint employers of Class Members. Defendants, and each of them, 27 exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Class Members, or suffered or 28 permitted Class Members to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment

1 relationship, with Class Members. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly 2 employed Class Members.

3 11. Whenever and wherever reference is made in this Complaint to any act by a 4 defendant or defendants, such allegations and references shall also be deemed to mean the acts and 5 failures to act of each defendant acting individually, jointly, and severally.

6 12. Whenever and wherever reference is made to individuals who are not named as a 7 Defendant in this Complaint but were agents, servants, employees and/or supervisors of 8 Defendants, such individuals at all relevant times acted on behalf of Defendants within the scope 9 of their employment.

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 13. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil 12 Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought 13 as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Class Members of Defendants pursuant to 14 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial 15 district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief, 16 the obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred in part in Los Angeles County.
17 Defendants maintain and operate facilities in Los Angeles County and employs Plaintiff and other 18 Class Members in Los Angeles County, while doing business throughout California.

19 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

20 14. Class Members consistently worked at Defendants behest without being paid all 21 wages due. Class Members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours worked or were not 22 paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Plaintiff also contends that 23 Defendants failed to pay Class Members all wages due and owing, including by requiring off the 24 clock work, unlawfully rounding to their detriment, failing to provide meal and rest breaks, failing 25 to pay reporting time wages, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to timely pay 26 wages including final wages, failing to maintain accurate records, failing to pay split-shift 27 premiums, and failing to reimburse necessary business expenses all in violation of various 28 provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

1 15. During the course of Class Members' employment with Defendants, they were not 2 paid all wages they were owed, including for all work performed resulting in off the clock work.
3 Defendants required Class Members to perform pre-shift and post-shift off the clock work. For 4 instance, at the beginning of Class Members' shift, they were required to wait in line to pick up 5 keys before the start of their shift. Additionally, Class Members were required to spend time off-6 the-clock to speak with other drivers, trainees, and supervisors regarding work obligations.

7 16. Moreover, Defendants had a consistent policy and practice of unlawfully rounding 8 hours worked to the detriment of the Class Members. Rather than paying Class Members for all 9 hours and minutes they actually worked, Defendants followed a uniform policy and practice of 10 rounding all time entries to the nearest quarter-hour or half-hour (i.e. to the nearest 15-minute or 11 30-minute time increment), and generally did so to the detriment of the Class Members, and 12 Plaintiff contend this policy is not neutral and resulted, over time, to the detriment of the Class 13 Members by systematically under-compensating them. Rather than reflecting the actual hours 14 worked by Class Members, the time entries were rounded and reduced to reflect the scheduled 15 work time rather than the actual hours worked. These unlawfully rounded time entries were 16 inputted into Defendants' payroll system from which wage statements and payroll checks were 17 created.

18 17. By implementing policies, programs, practices, procedures and protocols which 19 resulted in off the clock work and unlawful rounding by Defendants, Defendants' willful actions 20 resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Class Members, including underpayment of 21 overtime pay to Class Members over the relevant time period. For example, the above described 22 off the clock work addressed above caused Plaintiff to begin receiving overtime pay later than 23 they should have.

24 18. As a result of the above described requirements to work off the clock, unlawful 25 rounding by Defendants and the other wage violations they endured at Defendants' hands, Class 26 Members were not properly paid all wages earned and all wages owed to them by Defendants, 27 including when working more than eight (8) hours in any given day and/or more than forty (40) 28 hours in any given week.

1 19. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policies and practices, Class Members incurred 2 overtime hours worked for which they were not adequately and completely compensated, in 3 addition to the hours they were required to work off the clock. To the extent applicable, 4 Defendants also failed to pay Class Members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for 5 the first eight hours of the seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime payments at the 6 rate of 2 times the regular rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh consecutive work 7 day, as required under the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders.

8 20. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 9 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Class 10 Members for all hours worked, and failing to pay minimum wages for all time worked, as required 11 by California law. Defendants thus failed to pay Class Members at least minimum wages for all 12 the time they worked for Defendants in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage 13 Orders as the actual times when Class Members were under the control and direction of 14 Defendants was under reported in the hours reflected on the timekeeping records. Furthermore, 15 Defendants' willful actions resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Class Members, 16 including underpayment of overtime pay to Class Members over a period of time.

17 21. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 18 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Class
19 Members for all hours worked. Also, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit 20 and continuing to the present, Defendants also had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay 21 Class Members their true and correct overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all 22 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, and double-time
23 rates for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours a day, in violation of Labor Code § 510 24 and the corresponding sections of IWC Wage Orders.

25 22. Additionally, Defendants failed to provide all the legally required unpaid, off-duty 26 meal periods and all the legally required paid, off-duty rest periods to Class Members, as required 27 by the applicable Wage Order and Labor Code. Class Members were required to perform work as 28 ordered by Defendants for more than five (5) hours during a shift but were often required to do so

1 without receiving a lawful and timely meal break. In addition to untimely meal periods, 2 Defendants also required Class Members to respond to work demands. Defendants placed their 3 needs over Class Members lawful meal and rest breaks and this resulted in Class Members often 4 having to work through their scheduled meal and/or rest breaks, or otherwise taking shortened 5 ones, because the demands of the job would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully 6 uninterrupted and off duty meal and/or rest break.

7 23. On the occasions when Class Members worked over 10 hours in a shift, Defendants 8 also failed to provide them with a second, uninterrupted, timely and duty-free meal period. As a 9 result, Defendants' failure to provide Class Members with all legally required off-duty, unpaid 10 meal periods and all the legally required off-duty, paid rest periods is and will be evidenced by 11 Defendants' business records, or lack thereof. Defendants also failed to pay Class Members 12 "premium pay," i.e. one hour of wages at each Class Member's effective hourly rate of pay, for 13 each meal period or rest break that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

14 24. Therefore, for at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and through to 15 the present, Defendants have regularly required Class Members to work shifts in excess of five (5) 16 hours without providing them with uninterrupted meal periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes, 17 and shifts in excess of (10) hours without providing them with second meal periods of not less 18 than thirty minutes; nor did Defendants pay Class Members "premium pay," i.e. one hour of 19 wages at each Class Member's effective hourly rate of pay, for each meal period that Defendants 20 failed to provide or deficiently provided.

21 25. Meal period violations thus occurred in one or more of the following manners:

- 22 (a) Class Members were not provided full thirty-minute duty free meal periods 23 for work days in excess of five (5) hours and were not compensated one (1) 24 hour's wages in lieu thereof, all in violation of, among others, Labor Code 25 §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage 26 Order(s);
- 27 (b) Class Members were not provided second full thirty-minute duty free meal 28 periods for work days in excess of ten (10) hours;

- (c) Class Members were required to work through at least part of their daily meal period(s);
- (d) Meal periods were provided after five (5) hours of continuous work during a shift; and
- (e) Class Members were restricted in their ability to take a full thirty-minute meal period.

26. Class Members were also not authorized and permitted to take lawful rest periods, were systematically required by Defendants to work through or during breaks and were not provided with one (1) hour's wages in lieu thereof. Class Members were restricted in their ability to take their full ten (10) minutes net rest time or were otherwise not provided with duty-free rest periods. Therefore, from at least four years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Class Members with paid rest breaks of not less than ten minutes for every work period of four or more consecutive hours; or major fraction thereof, nor did Defendant pay Class Members premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided.

27. Rest period violations therefore arose in one or more of the following manners:

- (a) Class Members were required to work without being provided a minimum ten (10) minute rest period for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked and were not compensated one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not provided;
- (b) Class Members were not authorized and permitted to take timely rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof; and
- (c) Class Members were required to remain on-duty during rest periods or otherwise had their rest periods interrupted by work demands.

28. Defendants also consistently failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements as required by Labor Code § 226(a). Specifically, the wage statements fail to provide the full name of the legal entity that is the employer. Labor Code § 226(a)(8) requires that an employer shall 1 provide wage statements with the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer.

2 However, Defendants failed to provide its full name on the wage statements. Thus, the wage 3 statements do not comply with Labor Code § 226(a)(8). Additionally, the wage statements given 4 to Class Members failed to accurately account for unpaid wages and overtime because Defendants 5 had unlawfully rounded time entries to the detriment of the Class Members and their actual hours 6 worked were under-reported due to off the clock work. Additionally, the wage statements given to 7 Class Members failed to accurately account for premium pay for deficiently provided meal periods 8 and rest breaks.

9 29. From at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing to the present, 10 Defendants have thus also had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages owed to Class 11 Members at the time of their termination of within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as 12 required by California wage-and-hour laws. Specifically, Class Members were not paid all regular 13 and overtime wages because Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked, required off the clock 14 work, and unlawfully rounded time entries to the detriment of Class Members. Additionally, 15 Defendants failed to pay premium wages owed for unprovided meal periods and rest periods, as 16 further detailed in this Complaint. Defendants' failure to pay said wages within the required time 17 was willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203.

18 30. Moreover, Defendant required Plaintiff and the Class Members to, on occasion, 19 report for a scheduled work day to be told whether work was available for them or not, and when 20 there was no work, Plaintiff and the Class members would be sent home after waiting for hours.
21 On such days when Defendant required Plaintiff and the Class Members to report to work only to 22 be sent home because work was not available, they were not paid required reporting time wages 23 for the hours they waited without receiving their regular hourly rate of pay for them.

24 31. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 25 continuing to the present, Defendants have regularly required Class Members to incur business 26 expenses in the course of performing their required job duties for Defendants including for cell 27 phone expenses, uniform expenses, and protective equipment. Upon information and belief, Class 28 Members incurred similar costs. These expenses incurred by Class Members were necessary and

1 required of them in performing their assigned job duties, but Defendants failed to reimburse Class 2 Members for all such necessary expenditures, thus entitling them to reimbursement according to 3 proof as required under Labor Code § 2802 and the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage 4 Orders.

5 32. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff and Class Members bring this action pursuant to, 6 inter alia, Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 248, 510, 512, 558, 7 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2802, 2698 et seq., and 8 California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et seq.

9 33. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, Plaintiff 10 and the Class Members seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits 11 Defendants have enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code and the other unfair, unlawful, or 12 fraudulent practices alleged in this Complaint.

13 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

14 34. Plaintiff seeks to represent the Subclasses composed of and defined as follows:

15 a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class Members who were not 16 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

17 b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class Members who were not 18 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all 19 hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.

20 c. Subclass 3. Meal Period Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to 21 Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to provide unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted and duty-22 free meal periods or one hour of pay at the Class Member's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

23 d. Subclass 4. Rest Break Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to 24 Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Class Members to take 25 uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction 26 thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Class Member's regular rate of pay in lieu 27 thereof.

28 e. Subclass 5. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class Members who, within the applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

f. Subclass 6. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class Members who, within the applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon termination.

g. Subclass 7: Failure to Timely Pay Wages Twice Monthly Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to Defendants' policy and practice of not timely paying all wages earned when they were due and payable at least twice monthly.

h. Subclass 8. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

i. Subclass 9. Expense Reimbursement Subclass. All Class Members who incurred necessary and reasonable expenses in connection with performing their job duties for Defendant and who were subject to a policy and/or practice under which such expenses were not reimbursed.

j. Subclass 10. Split Shift Pay Subclass. All Class Members who did not reside at their place of employment with Defendants and whose work schedules were interrupted by non-paid and non-working time periods which were longer than bona fide meal or rest periods, and were established by Defendants.

k. Subclass 11. Reporting Time Pay Subclass. All Class Members who were required to call in or otherwise show up to work without being paid half of their usual or scheduled day's work.

l. Subclass 12. UCL Subclass. All Class Members who are owed restitution as a result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

35. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues. To the extent equitable tolling operates to toll claims by the Class against Defendants, the Class Period should be adjusted accordingly.

1 36. Defendants, as a matter of company policy, practice and procedure, and in violation 2 of the applicable Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order requirements, 3 and the applicable provisions of California law, intentionally, knowingly, and willfully, engaged 4 in a practice whereby Defendants failed to correctly calculate compensation for the time worked 5 by Class Members, even though Defendants enjoyed the benefit of this work, required Class 6 Members to perform this work and permitted or suffered to permit this work. Defendants have 7 uniformly denied these Class Members wages to which these employees are entitled and failed to 8 provide meal periods or authorize and permit rest periods, in order to unfairly cheat the 9 competition and unlawfully profit.

10 37. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action 11 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community 12 of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

13 A. Numerosity

14 38. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all 15 the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class member has not been 16 determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the 17 time period relevant to this lawsuit, hundreds of employees who satisfy the Class definition within 18 the State of California.

19 39. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 20 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants’ employment records will provide 21 information as to the number and location of all Class Members.

22 B. Commonality

23 40. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class that predominates over 24 any questions affecting only individual Class Members. These common questions of law and fact 25 include but are not limited to:

- 26 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members minimum wages;
- 27 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members wages for all hours worked;
- 28 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members overtime as required under Labor

Code § 510;

- d. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, by failing to provide Class Members with requisite meal periods or premium pay in lieu thereof;
- e. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, by failing to authorize and permit Class Members to take requisite rest breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof;
- f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a) by providing Class Members with inaccurate wage statements;
- g. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;
- h. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful;
- i. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226 and § 1174 and the IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of Class Members' earned wages and work periods;
- j. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 1194 by failing to compensate all Class Members during the relevant time period for all hours worked, whether regular or overtime;
- k. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 204 by failing to timely pay wages;
- l. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses Defendants required them to incur in performing their job duties;
- m. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay proper reporting time pay;
- n. Whether Defendants failed to pay proper split-shift premiums;
- o. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and
- p. Whether Class Members are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

1 C. Typicality

2 41. The claims of the named plaintiff is typical of those of Class Members. The Class 3 Members all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common 4 course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of 5 law, as alleged herein.

6 D. Adequacy of Representation

7 42. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of the Class
8 Members. Counsel who represents Class Members are experienced and competent in litigating 9 employment class actions.

10 E. Superiority of Class Action

11 43. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient 12 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and 13 questions of law and fact common to all Class Members predominate over any questions affecting 14 only individual Class Members. Each Class Member has been damaged and is entitled to recovery 15 by reason of Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Class Members 16 properly.

17 44. As to the issues raised in this case, a class action is superior to all other methods for 18 the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, as joinder of all Class Members is 19 impracticable and many legal and factual questions to be adjudicated apply uniformly to all Class 20 Members. Further, as the economic or other loss suffered by vast numbers of Class Members may 21 be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual actions makes it difficult for the Class 22 Members to individually redress the wrongs they have suffered. Moreover, in the event 23 disgorgement is ordered, a class action is the only mechanism that will permit the employment of 24 a fluid fund recovery to ensure that equity is achieved. There will be relatively little difficulty in 25 managing this case as a class action, and proceeding on a class-wide basis will permit Class 26 Members to vindicate their rights for violations they endured which they would otherwise be 27 foreclosed from receiving in a multiplicity of individual lawsuits that would be cost prohibitive to 28 them.

1 45. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their 2 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
3 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class treatment.
4 Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed Class Members that would 5 set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records can be 6 utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent 7 that any further notice is required additional media and/or mailings can be used.

8 46. Defendants, as prospective and actual employers of the Class Members, had a 9 special fiduciary duty to disclose to prospective Class Members the true facts surrounding 10 Defendants' pay practices, policies and working conditions imposed upon Class Members as well 11 as the effect of any alleged arbitration agreements that may have been forced upon them. In 12 addition, Defendants knew they possessed special knowledge about pay practices and policies, 13 most notably intentionally refusing to pay for all hours actually worked which should have been 14 recorded in Defendants' pay records and the consequence of the alleged arbitration agreements 15 and policies and practices on Class Members.

16 47. Class Members did not discover the fact that they were entitled to all pay under the 17 Labor Code until shortly before the filing of this lawsuit nor was there ever any discussion about 18 Plaintiff's and the Class' waiver of their Constitutional rights of trial by jury, right to collectively 19 organize and oppose unlawful pay practices under California law as well as obtain injunctive relief 20 preventing such practices from continuing. As a result, the applicable statutes of limitation were 21 tolled until such time as Plaintiff and the Class Members discovered their claims.

22 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
23 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES
24 (Against All Defendants)

25 48. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporate all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 26 full herein.

27 49. Defendants failed to pay Class Members minimum wages for all hours worked.
28 Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Class Members' time records and failing to pay

1 Class Members for all hours worked. Class Members would work hours and not receive wages, 2 including as alleged above in connection with off the clock work and unlawful rounding of hours.
3 Defendants, and each of them, have intentionally and improperly changed, adjusted and/or 4 modified the hours of Class Members, which resulted in off the clock work and underpayment of 5 all wages owed to Class Members over a period of time, while benefiting Defendants. During the 6 relevant time period, Defendants thus regularly failed to pay minimum wages to Class Members, 7 to their detriment. Additionally, Defendants had a consistent policy of failing to pay Class 8 Members for hours worked during alleged meal and rest periods for which Class Members were 9 consistently denied, as also addressed herein. Defendants' uniform pattern of unlawful wage and 10 hour practices manifested, without limitation, applicable to the Class as a whole, as a result of 11 implementing a uniform policy and practice that denied accurate compensation to Class Members 12 as to minimum wage pay.

13 50. In California, employees must be paid at least the then applicable state minimum 14 wage for all hours worked. (IWC Wage Order MW-2014). Additionally, pursuant to California 15 Labor Code § 204, other applicable laws and regulations, and public policy, an employer must 16 timely pay its employees for all hours worked. Defendants failed to do so.

17 51. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled "Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage" states: 18 "The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to 19 employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful."

20 52. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the 21 relevant period is found in Paragraph 4(A)-4(D) of the IWC Wage Orders.

22 53. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private 23 civil action pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a) which states: "Notwithstanding any agreement to 24 work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal 25 overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the 26 unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including 27 interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit."

28 54. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages

1 incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. Also, 2 California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and those Industrial Welfare Commission Wage 3 Orders entitle non-exempt employees to an amount equal to or greater than the minimum wage for 4 all hours worked. All hours must be paid at the statutory or agreed rate and no part of this rate may 5 be used as a credit against a minimum wage obligation.

6 55. In committing these violations of the California Labor Code, Defendants 7 inaccurately recorded, or required Class Members to input times that did not reflect their actual 8 hours worked, or calculated the correct time worked and consequently underpaid the actual time 9 worked by Class Members. Defendants acted in an illegal attempt to avoid the payment of all 10 earned wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare 11 Commission requirements and other applicable laws and regulations. As a result of these 12 violations, Defendant also failed to timely pay all wages earned in accordance with California 13 Labor Code § 1194.

14 56. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies: “In any 15 action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of the payment of a wage less than the 16 minimum wages fixed by an order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover 17 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.”

18 57. In addition to restitution for all unpaid wages, pursuant to California Labor Code § 19 1197.1, Class Members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely 20 pay each employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each 21 employee minimum wages.

22 58. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Class Members are further entitled to 23 recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

24 59. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have 25 willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this 26 indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Class Members.

27 60. Wherefore, Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages 28 (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum

1 wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant 2 to California Labor Code § 1194(a). Plaintiff and the other members of the Class further request 3 recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the 4 assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California 5 Labor Code, including § 558, and/or other applicable statutes.

6 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 61. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 10 full herein.

11 62. California Labor Code § 1194 provides that "any employee receiving less than the 12 legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to 13 recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime 14 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit." The action 15 may be maintained directly against the employer in an employee's name without first filing a 16 claim with the Division of Labor Standards and Enforcement.

17 63. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code § 18 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Class 19 Members: (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8) 20 hours in a workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours 21 worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for 22 hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of 23 eight (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek.

24 64. Defendants had a consistent policy of not paying Class Members wages for all 25 hours worked, including by requiring off the clock work and by unlawfully rounding down actual 26 hours worked as addressed above. Defendants, and each of them, have intentionally and 27 improperly rounded, changed, adjusted and/or modified certain employees' hours, including 28 Plaintiff's, in order to avoid paying Class Members all earned and owed straight time and

1 overtime wages and other benefits, in violation of the California Labor Code, the California Code
2 of Regulations and the IWC Wage Orders and guidelines set forth by the Division of Labor
3 Standards and Enforcement. Defendants have also violated these provisions by requiring Class 4 Members to work through portions of their meal period. Therefore, Class Members were not 5 properly compensated, nor were they paid overtime rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours
6 in a given day, and/or forty hours in a given week. Based on information and belief, Defendants 7 did not make available to Class Members a reasonable protocol for correcting time records when 8 Class Members worked overtime hours or to fix incorrect time entries or those that Defendants 9 unlawfully rounded to the Class Members' detriment.

10 65. Defendants' failure to pay Class Members the unpaid balance of regular wages 11 owed and overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor 12 Code §§ 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

13 66. Additionally, Labor Code § 558(a) provides "any employer or other person acting 14 on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any 15 provisions regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC shall be subject to a civil 16 penalty as follows: (1) For any violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each 17 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover 18 underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each 19 underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an 20 amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall 21 be paid to the affected employee." Labor Code § 558(c) states, "the civil penalties provided for in 22 this section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by law." Defendants 23 have violated provisions of the Labor Code regulating hours and days of work as well as the IWC
24 Wage Orders. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class Members seek the remedies set forth in Labor 25 Code § 558.

26 67. Defendants' failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a 27 violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid 28 semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct

1 violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages
2 and overtime compensation earned by Class Members. Each such failure to make a timely 3 payment of compensation to Class Members constitutes a separate violation of California Labor 4 Code § 204.

5 68. Class Members have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code 6 §§ 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

7 69. Consequently, pursuant to the California Labor Code, including Labor Code §§
8 204, 510, 558, and 1194, and the applicable IWC Wage Order, paragraph 3(A) and 4(B), 9 Defendants are liable to Class Members for the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime 10 compensation, with interest, plus their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as well as the 11 assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, and any additional 12 sums as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

13 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

14 MEAL-PERIOD LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

15 (Against All Defendants)

16 70. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 17 full herein.

18 71. Class Members regularly worked shifts greater than five (5) hours and in some 19 instances, greater than ten (10) hours. Pursuant to Labor Code § 512 an employer may not employ 20 someone for a shift of more than five (5) hours without providing him or her with a meal period of 21 not less than thirty (30) minutes or for a shift of more than ten (10) hours without providing him or 22 her with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

23 72. Defendants failed to provide Class Members with meal periods as required under 24 the Labor Code. Defendants placed their needs over Class Members lawful meal breaks and this 25 resulted in Class Members consistently having to work through their scheduled meal breaks 26 because the demands of the job would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully 27 uninterrupted and off-duty meal break. Furthermore, upon information and belief, on the occasions 28 when Class Members worked more than ten (10) hours in a given shift, they did so without 1 receiving a second uninterrupted thirty (30) minute meal period as required by law.

2 73. Defendants thus failed to provide Class Members with meal periods as required by 3 the Labor Code, including by not providing them with the opportunity to take meal breaks, by 4 providing them late or for less than thirty (30) minutes, or by requiring them to perform work 5 during breaks.

6 74. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Class Members for each meal period 7 not provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraph 11 of 8 the applicable IWC Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee 9 a meal period in accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of 10 pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not 11 provided. Defendants failed to compensate Class Members for each meal period not provided or 12 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7.

13 75. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order, 14 paragraph 11, Class Members are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages 15 at their effective hourly rates of pay for each meal period not provided or deficiently provided, a 16 sum to be proven at trial, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the 17 Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and other statutes.

18 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

20 (Against All Defendants)

21 76. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 22 full herein.

23 77. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders 24 provide that employers must authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods at the rate of 25 ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) work hours.

26 78. Class Members consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts and were 27 generally scheduled for shifts of greater than 3.5 hours total, thus requiring Defendants to 28 authorize and permit them to take rest periods. Pursuant to the Labor Code and the applicable IWC

1 Wage Order, Class Members were entitled to paid rest breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes for 2 each consecutive four (4) hour shift, and Defendants failed to provide Class Members with timely 3 rest breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift. Defendants 4 placed their needs over Class Members lawful rest breaks and this resulted in Class Members 5 consistently having to work through their scheduled rest breaks because the demands of the job 6 would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully uninterrupted and off-duty rest break.
7 Thus, Class Members were consistently denied of their rest breaks.

8 79. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders 9 provide that if an employer fails to provide an employee rest period in accordance with this 10 section, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 11 compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.

12 80. Defendants, and each of them, have therefore intentionally and improperly denied 13 rest periods to Class Members in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and paragraph 12 of 14 the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

15 81. Defendants failed to authorize and permit Class Members to take rest periods, as 16 required by the Labor Code. Moreover, Defendants did not compensate Class Members with an 17 additional hour of pay at each Class Member's effective hourly rate for each day that Defendants 18 failed to provide them with adequate rest breaks, as required under Labor Code § 226.7.

19 82. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC
20 Wage Orders, Class Members are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages 21 at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to 22 be proven at trial, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each 23 of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

24 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO PAY REPORTING TIME PAY

26 (Against all Defendants)

27 83. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 28 full herein.

1 84. Section 5(A) of the applicable Wage Order(s), requires that for “[E]ach workday an 2 employee is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less 3 than half said employee’s usual or scheduled day’s work, the employee shall be paid for half the 4 usual or scheduled day’s work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) 5 hours, at the employee’s regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage.”

6 85. As addressed in detail above, Defendants followed a uniform policy of failing to 7 pay reporting time pay on in accordance with the applicable IWC Wage Order requirements. For 8 example, Defendant required Plaintiff and the Class members to, on occasion, report for a 9 scheduled work day to be told whether work was available for them or not, and when there was no 10 work, Plaintiff and the Class members would be sent home after waiting for hours. On such days 11 when Defendant required Plaintiff and the Class Members to report to work only to be sent home 12 because work was not available, they were not paid required reporting time wages for the hours 13 they waited without receiving their regular hourly rate of pay for them.

14 86. Plaintiff brings this claim for failure to pay reporting time pay as required by 15 Section 5 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders pursuant to California Labor Code §1198, which 16 instructs that: “the maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor fixed by the 17 commission shall be the maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor for 18 employees. The employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or 19 under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.”

20 87. Reporting time pay constitutes wages that remain unpaid to Plaintiff and the Class 21 members, despite the fact that they were required by Defendants to report for work and were under 22 Defendants’ control during these times and were unable to use their time for their own purposes.
23 The failure to pay for reporting time pay is a violation of the California wage orders and is a 24 failure to pay all wages owed, which is a violation of Labor Code §1198.

25 88. Under Section 20(A) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Class 26 members are entitled to recover civil penalties, in addition to other penalties, for each underpaid 27 Employee for violation of Section 5 of the IWC Wage Orders in the amount of $50 for the initial 28 violation and $100 for subsequent violations during each relevant pay period when Defendants

1 failed to pay reporting time pay. These reporting time pay violations also give rise to violations of 2 Labor Code §§ 203, 226, and under the PAGA.

3 89. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover unpaid reporting time pay which Defendants 4 failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members pursuant to Sections 5(A) and 20(A) of the 5 applicable IWC Wage Orders and civil penalties and attorneys' fees and costs as may be 6 authorized.

7 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
8 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)
9 (Against All Defendants)

10 90. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 11 full herein.

12 91. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her 13 employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings, 14 total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these 15 statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else 16 serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these 17 statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the 18 employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

19 92. Defendants failed to provide Class Members with accurate itemized wage 20 statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements fail to 21 provide the full name of the legal entity that is the employer. Labor Code § 226(a)(8) requires that 22 an employer shall provide wage statements with the name and address of the legal entity that is the 23 employer. However, Defendants failed to provide its full name on the wage statements. Thus, the 24 wage statements do not comply with Labor Code § 226(a)(8). Additionally, the wage statements 25 given to Class Members failed to accurately account for unpaid wages and overtime because 26 Defendants had unlawfully rounded time entries to the detriment of the Class Members and their 27 actual hours worked were under-reported due to off the clock work. Additionally, the wage 28 statements given to Class Members failed to accurately account for premium pay for deficiently

1 provided meal periods and rest breaks.

2 93. Throughout the liability period, Defendants intentionally failed to furnish to Class 3 Members, upon each payment of wages, itemized statements accurately showing: (1) gross wages 4 earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any 5 applicable piece rate paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 6 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and 7 only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number 8 other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 9 employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 10 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee pursuant to Labor Code § 226, 11 amongst other statutory requirements. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide 12 Class Members with such timely and accurate wage and hour statements.

13 94. Class Members suffered injury as a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional 14 failure to provide them with the accurate wage and hour statements as required by law and are 15 presumed to have suffered injury and be entitled to penalties under Labor Code § 226(e), as the 16 Defendants have failed to provide wage statements with accurate and complete information as 17 required by any one or more of items Labor Code § 226 (a)(1) to (9), inclusive, and Class 18 Members cannot promptly and easily determine from the wage statement alone one or more of the 19 following: (i) The amount of the gross wages or net wages paid to the employee during the pay 20 period or any of the other information required to be provided on the itemized wage statement 21 pursuant to items (2) to (4), inclusive, (6), and (9) of subdivision (a), (ii) Which deductions the 22 employer made from gross wages to determine the net wages paid to the employee during the pay 23 period, (iii) The name and address of the employer and, (iv) The name of the employee and only 24 the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other 25 than a social security number. For purposes of Labor Code § 226(e) "promptly and easily 26 determine" means a reasonable person [i.e. an objective standard] would be able to readily 27 ascertain the information without reference to other documents or information.

28 95. Therefore, as a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code

1 § 226(a), Class Members suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether 2 they received all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay 3 records, and forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid 4 in fact compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

5 96. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e) and 1174, and the applicable IWC 6 Wage Order, paragraph 7(B), Class Members are entitled to recover the greater of all actual 7 damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one 8 hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate 9 penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an award of costs and 10 reasonable attorneys' fees.

11 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
12 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 203
13 (Against All Defendants)

14 97. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 15 full herein.

16 98. Numerous Class Members are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit 17 Defendants' employ or were terminated by Defendants therefrom.

18 99. Defendants failed to pay these Class Members all wages due and certain at the time 19 of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

20 100. The wages withheld from these Class Members by Defendants remained due and 21 owing for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation from employment.

22 101. Defendants failed to pay Class Members without abatement, all wages as defined 23 by applicable California law. Specifically, Class Members were not paid all regular and overtime 24 wages because Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked, required off the clock work, and 25 unlawfully rounded time entries to the detriment of Class Members. Additionally, Defendants 26 failed to pay premium wages owed for unprovided meal periods and rest periods, as further 27 detailed in this Complaint. Defendants' failure to pay said wages within the required time was 28 willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203.

102. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged entitles these Class Members to penalties under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 204
(Against All Defendants)

103. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

104. Labor Code § 204 instructs that: "All wages, ...earned by any person in any employment are due and payable twice during each calendar month, on days designated in advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month." Additionally, the requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period." As detailed above, Defendants maintained a consistently applied policy and practice of not paying all wages earned between the 1st and 15th days of a month between the 16th and 26th day and failed to pay all wages earned between the 16th and the last day of the month between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Defendants similarly failed to pay all wages earned by not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. These failures all arose from either Defendants' failure to pay for all hours worked or failure to pay all earned commission wages.

105. All wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Class Members, including as required under Labor Code § 510, were therefore not timely paid by Defendants, as addressed in detail above. Additionally, wages required by Labor Code § 1194 and other sections became due and payable to each Class Member in each pay period that he or she was not provided with a meal period or rest period or paid straight or overtime wages or commissions to which he or she was 1 entitled.

2 106. Defendants thus violated Labor Code § 204 by systematically refusing to pay 3 wages due under the Labor Code, as addressed above. Additionally, under paragraph 4(B) of the 4 applicable IWC Wage Orders, employers are required “to pay each employee, on the established 5 payday for the period involved, not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in 6 the payroll period, ...” Under Labor Code § 1198, “[t]he employment of any employee for longer 7 hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is 8 unlawful.” Plaintiff and the Class Members may therefore pursue damages and penalties for 9 violations of Labor Code § 204 and paragraph 4(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, including 10 penalties under paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

11 107. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and Class Members seek to 12 represent they have been deprived of wages in amounts to be determined at trial, and they are 13 entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys’ fees, and costs, 14 pursuant to Labor Code § 210, 218.5, 1194 and 1198, and paragraphs 4(B) and 20 of the 15 applicable IWC Wage Orders.

16 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE § 1174

18 AND 1174.5

19 (Against All Defendants)

20 108. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 21 full herein.

22 109. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time 23 and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any 24 employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek 25 damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

26 110. During the course of Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ employment, Defendants 27 consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Class Members as 28 required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Class Members proper wages, overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

111. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code § 1174.5 for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY SPLIT-SHIFT PREMIUMS

(Against all Defendants)

112. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

113. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members are or have been non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the applicable Wage Order.

114. Section 4 of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on employers to pay non-exempt employees one (1) hour's pay at the minimum wage in addition to the minimum wage for that workday when an employee works a split shift.

115. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium wages to Class Members when their schedules were interrupted by non-paid and non-working time periods established by the employer. The time periods between these shifts were longer than a bona fide meal or rest periods and were for the benefit of the employer.

116. At no time did the Class Members reside at the place of their employment.

117. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the full amount of split-shift premiums earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period.

118. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and Class Members, seek to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and costs of suit.

119. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and

1 Class Members, seek to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

2 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 REIMBURSEMENT OF NECESSARY EXPENDITURES UNDER LABOR CODE § 2802

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 120. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though set forth in 6 full herein.

7 121. Under Labor Code § 2802(a) an employer must indemnify its employees for all 8 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge 9 of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

10 122. Defendants have regularly required Class Members to incur business expenses in the 11 course of performing their required job duties for Defendants including for cell phone expenses, 12 uniform expenses, and protective equipment. These expenses incurred by Class Members were 13 necessary and required of them in performing their assigned job duties, but Defendants failed to 14 reimburse Class Members for all such necessary expenditures. Class Members were not reimbursed 15 for those lawful and necessary work related expenses or losses incurred in direct discharge of their 16 job duties during employment with Defendants and at the direction of the Defendants pursuant to 17 Labor Code § 2802(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, paragraph 9.

18 123. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Class Members have been deprived 19 of reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to recovery of such amounts, 20 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

21 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 *ET SEQ.

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 124. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 25 full herein.

26 125. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, Class Members, and the general public, brings this 27 claim pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as 28 alleged in this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Class

1 Members and the general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public 2 interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

3 126. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code 4 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive 5 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

6 127. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair 7 business practices. By the conduct alleged herein, Defendants’ practices were deceptive and 8 fraudulent in that Defendants’ policy and practice failed to provide the required amount of 9 compensation for missed meal and rest breaks, and failed to adequately compensate Class 10 Members for all hours worked, due to systematic business practices as alleged herein that cannot 11 be justified, pursuant to the applicable California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission 12 requirements in violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., and for 13 which this Court should issue injunctive and equitable relief, pursuant to California Business & 14 Professions Code § 17203, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

15 128. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 16 wages and overtime, providing them with meal periods and rest breaks, etc., are fundamental 17 public policies of California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State 18 vigorously to enforce minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or 19 permitted to work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding 20 employers and their employees from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to 21 comply with minimum labor standards.

22 129. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 23 in this Complaint Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 24 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in 25 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; which conduct has deprived Plaintiff, 26 and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and privileges 27 guaranteed to all employees under the law.

28 130. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged above, constitutes unfair competition in violation of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

131. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and overtime, failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks, etc., either knew or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct violates the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

132. By the conduct alleged herein, Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in a business practice which violates California and federal law, including but not limited to, the applicable Industrial Wage Order(s), the California Code of Regulations, and the California Labor Code including Sections 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 512, 1194, 1197, and 1198, for which this Court should issue declaratory and other equitable relief pursuant to California Business & Professions Code § 17203 as may be necessary to prevent and remedy the conduct held to constitute unfair competition, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

133. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Class Members have been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

134. Unless restrained by this Court Defendants will continue to engage in such unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Class Members to the money Defendants have unlawfully failed to pay.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

(Against All Defendants)

135. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

136. Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class are also aggrieved employees as defined under Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they suffered the violations alleged in this Complaint and

1 either were or are employed by the alleged violators, Defendants (“Aggrieved Employees”) during 2 the relevant time period.

3 137. In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages and overtime, not 4 providing proper meal and rest periods, failing to provide accurate wage statements, and failing to 5 Pay Employees upon termination or timely upon resignation, all discussed above, Defendants 6 failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor 7 Code § 204. Defendants also failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and 8 the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and paragraph 7 of the 9 applicable IWC Wage Orders.

10 138. As such, Employees seek wages and penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699 11 for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code 2699.5, including 12 the penalty provisions, without limitation, based, inter alia, on the following California Labor 13 Code sections: 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.2, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1185, 1194, 14 1194.1, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and 2698 et seq.

15 139. More specifically, after complying with the notice procedures of Labor Code §
16 2699.3, Plaintiff asserts, as a representative action on behalf of the California Attorney General 17 and other similarly Aggrieved Employees, a PAGA claim for violations of the above addressed 18 underlying claims and seeking penalties as specified by the applicable corresponding provisions, 19 including as follows:

20 (a) Wage Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all 21 earned regular pay and minimum wages for regular hours worked and for failure to pay overtime 22 premium wages for overtime hours worked under Labor Code §§ 226.2, 510, 1194(a), 1197, and 23 1198, and paragraphs 2(K), 3(A), 4(A), 4(B) and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking 24 all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, and wages, under Labor Code §§ 510, 25 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant 26 to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

27 (b) Meal and Rest Period Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 28 Employees off-duty, timely, and unpaid meal periods and failure to authorize and permit them to

1 take off-duty, timely, and paid rest periods, or pay one hour of regular pay in lieu thereof, under 2 Labor Code §§ 512, 1198, and 226.7, and Sections 11, 12(A), and 12(B) of the applicable IWC 3 Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, including under 4 paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and wages under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 5 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs
6 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

7 (c) Inaccurate Wage Statements and Failure to Maintain Records: For failure to 8 provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to 9 maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 10 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s)
11 seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 12 226€, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, 13 and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1). More specifically, by 14 providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor 15 Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor 16 Code § 226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to "a 17 penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial 18 citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent 19 citation, ..."

20 (d) Failure to Timely Pay Wages: For failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at 21 least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203, 204, 22 226.2, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable, and wages, 23 under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 24 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code 25 § 2699(g)(1);

26 (e) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses: For Defendants' failure to 27 reimburse the necessary work related expenses incurred under Labor Code §§ 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 28 and 2802, and Sections 2(K), 4, 9, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), seeking civil

1 penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 221, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, 2699.5, 2 and 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 9 and 20 of the IWC Wage Orders, and also attorneys' fees and costs
3 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

4 (f) All Alleged Violations of the IWC Wage Orders and Other Labor Code

5 Sections: For any above addressed violation of the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage 6 Orders, each of which constitute separate violations of Labor Code § 1198 and Labor Code § 7 2699.5, and seeking penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) and 8 paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 9 Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

10 140. As also addressed above, Plaintiff, on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees, also 11 seeks the penalties and remedies set forth in Labor Code § 558, which states:

12 (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or 13 causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days 14 of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil 15 penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid 16 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an 17 amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one 18 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 19 employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages.
20 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.

21 (b) If upon inspection or investigation the Labor Commissioner determines that a 22 person had paid or caused to be paid a wage for overtime work in violation of any 23 provision of this chapter, or any provision regulation hours and days of work in any order 24 of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the Labor Commissioner may issue a citation. The 25 procedures for issuing, contesting, and enforcing judgments for citations or civil penalties 26 issued by the Labor Commissioner for a violation of this chapter shall be the same as those 27 set out in Section 1197.1.

28 (c) The penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other civil or 1 criminal penalty provided by law.

2 141. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies by sending a certified letter to 3 the LWDA and Defendants postmarked on November 21, 2023, addressing in detail the specific 4 provisions of the Labor Code Defendants have violated and addressing the facts and legal theories 5 to support the alleged violations and requested penalties. The LWDA has not provided notice of 6 its intent to investigate the alleged violations within 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the 7 letter, and Plaintiff adds this claim seeking penalties under the PAGA for the violations addressed 8 herein and in the PAGA Notice Letter and the original Complaint.

9 RELIEF REQUESTED

10 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- 11 1. For an order certifying this action as a class action;
- 12 2. For compensatory damages in the amount of the unpaid minimum wages for work 13 performed by Class Members and unpaid overtime compensation from at least four (4) years prior 14 to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 15 3. For liquidated damages in the amount equal to the unpaid minimum wage and 16 interest thereon, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, according to proof;
- 17 4. For compensatory damages in the amount of all unpaid wages, including overtime 18 and double-time pay, as may be proven;
- 19 5. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Class 20 Members for each missed or deficient meal period where no premium pay was paid therefor from 21 four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 22 6. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Class 23 Members for each day requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided where 24 no premium pay was paid therefor from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as 25 may be proven;
- 26 7. For compensatory damages in the amount of the waiting time pay owed for 27 requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to call in or otherwise report to work and failing to pay for 28 hours equal to half of the normal or scheduled shift.

- 1 8. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) for Class Members, as may be 2 proven;
- 3 9. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all Class Members who quit or were 4 fired in an amount equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days, as may be proven;
- 5 10. For restitution and/or damages for all amounts unlawfully withheld from the wages
6 for all class members in violation of Labor Code § 204, as may be proven;
- 7 11. For restitution and/or damages for all amounts unlawfully withheld from the wages
8 for all Class Members in violation of Labor Code § 2802, as may be proven;
- 9 12. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code 10 § 17200 et seq., including disgorgement or profits, as may be proven;
- 11 13. For an order enjoining Defendants and their agents, servants, and employees, and 12 all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in derogation of any rights or 13 duties adumbrated in this Complaint;
- 14 14. For other wages and penalties under the Labor Code as may be proven;
- 15 15. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq., as may be proven;
- 16 16. For all general, special, and incidental damages as may be proven;
- 17 17. For an award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;
- 18 18. For an award providing for the payment of the costs of this suit;
- 19 19. For an award of attorneys' fees; and
- 20 20. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem proper and just.
