Complaint Filed: January 24, 2024
FAC Filed: February 24, 2025

1 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on April 7, 2026, at 10:00 a.m., in Department 15 of the above-
2 entitled Court, located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012, Plaintiffs Rhina Blanco and

5 1. Making final the Court’s previous preliminary certification of the class for settlement
6 purposes, and approving the First Amended Class, Collective and PAGA Representative Action
7 Settlement Agreement and Class Notice (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement,”), on 8 the grounds that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable because, inter alia:

- 9 • A Net Settlement Amount of approximately $832,092.71 will be fully distributed to the Class
10 Members who do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion (“Participating Class 11 Members”); and

25 of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), in the amount of $750,000.00
26 (“PAGA Penalties”), of which 75%, or $562,500.00, will be paid to the California Labor and 27 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) (“LWDA PAGA Payment”) and 25%, or 28

$187,500.00 will be distributed to Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis, based on PAGA Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period ("Individual PAGA Payments").

This motion is made pursuant to Rules 3.764, 3.769, and 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of Court, which, respectively, require that a memorandum in support of class certification not exceed 20 pages, require approval by the Court of a class action settlement, and permit the Court to extend the page limit for memoranda, and California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2), which requires approval by the Court of a PAGA settlement. Unless otherwise specified, all citations and references to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. ("PAGA") are to the version of that statute prior to the recent amendment effective July 1, 2024; the amended statute does not apply to the Action, or the Settlement pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(v)(1), as amended, because the notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency was filed prior to June 19, 2024.

This motion is based upon the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities; the Declarations of Class Counsel (Ryan Slinger), Class Representatives (Rhina Blanco and Carlos Gonzalez), and Settlement Administrator (Nick Castro of ILYM) in support thereof; the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter; and such evidence and oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this motion.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiffs Rhina Blanco and Carlos Gonzalez (together, “Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives”) seek final approval of: (1) the settlement reached between Plaintiffs and Defendants Autism Learning Partners, Autism Learning Partners, LLC, Pacific Child & Family Associates, LLC, Proof Positive ABA Therapies, LLC, Children’s Learning Connection, Inc., and A is for Apple, Inc. (collectively, “ALP” or “Defendants”), (collectively with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”) which provides for Defendants’ payment of a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00;¹ (2) attorneys’ fees in the amount of $833,333.33 (“Class Counsel Fees Payment”), which is one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $25,000.00 (“Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment”) to Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Class Counsel”); (3) payment in an amount not to exceed $60,000.00 to ILYM Group, Inc. (“Administration Expenses Payment”); (4) payment in the amount of $7,500.00 each (for a combined total of $15,000.000) to Plaintiffs Rhina Blanco and Carlos Gonzalez (“Class Representative Service Payments”); and (5) allocation of $750,000.00 for penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA Penalties”).²

Plaintiffs request that the Court make final its preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes. The Settlement resolves the Released Class Claims and provides relief to a class consisting of the following individuals: all California current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants during the Class Period (i.e., the time period of January 24, 2020 through April 18, 2025) (“Class” or “Class Members”).³

The Settlement also resolves the Released PAGA Claims pertaining to the employment of the following alleged aggrieved employees: all California non-exempt employees employed by

Defendants during the PAGA Period (i.e., the period from November 20, 2022 through January 24, 2025) ("Aggrieved Employees").⁴

This matter involved, and the settlement is the product of, meaningful and extensive investigations and review and analysis of thousands of pages of information, documents, and data exchanged by the Parties in the course of litigation and mediation and settlement negotiations (which involved one full day mediation conducted by Lynn Frank, Esq.).⁵

This case has required 371.80 hours of attorney time by Class Counsel.⁶ As will be demonstrated herein, the request for attorneys' fees, which represents one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, is fully supported by the use of the percentage-fee method. Courts have historically awarded fees of up to fifty percent (50%) of the recovery. The requested attorneys' fees are also supported under the lodestar cross-check method.⁷

The requests for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment, Class Representative Service Payments, Administration Expenses Payment, and allocation for the PAGA Penalties were fully disclosed in the Notice of Class, Collective and PAGA Representative Action Settlement ("Class Notice") that was mailed to the Class Members. Most importantly, as of the date of this Motion, no Class Member has objected to the Settlement or to the contemplated Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment, Class Representative Service Payments, Administration Expenses Payment, or allocation for PAGA Penalties.

The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and is the product of arm's-length, good-faith negotiations by experienced counsel presided over by a highly regarded mediator who is experienced in mediating wage-and-hour class action lawsuits. Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement, and award the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment, Class Representative Service Payments, Administration Expenses Payment, and allocation for the PAGA Penalties in the full amounts requested herein.

⁷ Applying a modest multiplier of 2.64, the total enhanced lodestar fees are $834,319.20 and Class Counsel seeks an attorneys' fees award of $833,333.33 (equal to 1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount).

In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to grant final approval of the Settlement, and award Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment, Class Representative Service Payments, Administration Expenses Payment, and allocation for the PAGA Penalties, Plaintiffs also move for an order permitting the filing of this single consolidated memorandum, although it exceeds the page limit established by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.764, instead of filing several separate motions.

II. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND SINCE PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

For a discussion of relevant procedural history and facts regarding this matter since preliminary approval, please see the Declaration of Ryan Slinger at paragraphs 2 to 4.

III. THE CLASS SHOULD BE CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES

For the reasons previously addressed by way of Plaintiffs' moving and supporting papers for the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (namely, that the relevant class certification factors are satisfied, i.e., ascertainability, numerosity, community of interest, typicality, adequacy of representation, superiority, and manageability), as well as the reasons discussed herein regarding the completion of the due process notice procedure, the Court is requested to now make final its preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes.

IV. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS, NOTICE PROCESS, AND PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendants have agreed to pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00 on a non-reversionary basis,⁸ and separately the amounts necessary to pay its Employer Paid Taxes.⁹ Within forty-five (45) calendar days of the Effective Date, Defendants shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay the Employer Paid Taxes by transmitting the funds to the Settlement Administrator.¹⁰ Subject to approval by the Court, the Net Settlement Amount will be calculated by deducting the Individual PAGA

1 Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Costs
2 Payment, Class Representative Service Payments, and Administration Expenses Payment.¹¹ The Net
3 Settlement Amount, which is estimated to be $832,092.71, will be fully distributed to Participating Class
4 Members in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.¹² The PAGA Penalties of $750,000.00 will 5 be distributed to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") (in the amount of 6 $562,500.00) ("LWDA PAGA Payment") and to the Aggrieved Employees (in the amount of 7 $187,500.00) in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.¹³

8 ILYM Group, Inc. ("Administrator" or "ILYM") will determine each Participating Class
9 Member's (i.e., Class Members who did not timely opt out of the Class Settlement) pro rata share of the 10 Net Settlement Amount ("Individual Class Payment")¹⁴ by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the 11 total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and then
12 multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.¹⁵

13 The Administrator will calculate each Aggrieved Employees' pro rata share of the 25%
14 of the PAGA Penalties ("Individual PAGA Payment") by dividing the amount of the Aggrieved
15 Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods
16 worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and then multiplying the result by
17 each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods.¹⁶

18 Class Members had forty-five (45) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice
19 ("Response Deadline") to dispute the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods credited to 20 each of them, opt out of the Class Settlement, and/or object to the Class Settlement.¹⁷ The Response
21 Deadline was January 26, 2026, and the extended Response Deadline was February 9, 2026, for Class
22 Members who were re-mailed the Class Notice.¹⁸ As of the date of this motion, the Administrator has

4 which will be reported on an IRS Form W-2; and the remaining eighty percent (80%) as interest and 5 penalties, which will be reported on an IRS Form 1099.²⁰ The Administrator will withhold the 6 employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Class
7 Payment, and issue checks to Participating Class Members for their Individual Class Payments.²¹
8 Defendant will pay the employer's share of payroll taxes and contributions with respect to the wage

10 Amount.²² The Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%)
11 penalties, and will be reported on an IRS Form-1099 (if applicable), by the Administrator.²³

12 Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, the 13 Settlement Administrator will mail checks for: all Individual Class Payments to Participating
14 Class Members, all Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees, the LWDA PAGA Payment
15 to the LWDA, the Class Representative Service Payments to Plaintiffs, the Class Counsel Fees

20 Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment checks will be valid and negotiable

V. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

The Court directed ILYM to administer and effectuate the notice and settlement administration process, as set forth in the Court’s November 4, 2025 Preliminary Approval Order. On November 26, 2025, ILYM received the mailing list from Defendants’ counsel that contained each Class Member’s name, last-known mailing address, Social Security number, and number of Class Period Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (collectively, “Class Data”).²⁹

The Class Data contained information for 14,517 individuals identified as Class Members.³⁰ The mailing addresses contained in the Class Data were processed and updated utilizing the U.S. Postal Service’s National Change of Address Database (“NCOA”).³¹

On December 10, 2025, ILYM mailed the Class Notice via U.S. first class mail to all 14,517 individuals identified as Class Members in the Class Data.³²

1,215 Class Notices were returned and none of them were returned with a forwarding address.³³ ILYM performed a skip-trace search on 1,215 Class Notices that were returned to ILYM without forwarding addresses, located an updated address for 968 Class Members, and promptly re-mailed the Class Notice to the updated addresses.³⁴ There are 247 mailed Class Notices that remain undeliverable.³⁵

The Settlement Administrator has received zero (0) Objections and zero (0) Requests for Exclusion from Class Members by the Response Deadline of January 26, 2026 or the extended Response Deadline of February 9, 2026 for those Class Notices that were re-mailed.³⁶

To date, there are 14,517 Class Members who did not submit a timely and valid Request for

3 $750,000.00 will be distributed in accordance with the terms of the Settlement.³⁸

4 VI. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION
5 SETTLEMENT.

6 In reviewing a class settlement, the court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of 7 fact and law that underlie the merits of the dispute. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland
8 Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1146. The inquiry is not whether the settlement agreement is the best
9 one that class members could have possibly obtained, but whether the settlement, taken as a whole, is 10 “fair, adequate, and reasonable”—and the trial court has broad discretion to determine this. Chavez v.
11 Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-55. A settlement need not obtain 100 percent of the damages
12 sought in order to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc.
13 (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 251. Even if the proposed settlement affords relief that is substantially
14 narrower than it would be if the case were to be successfully litigated, that is no bar to a class settlement
15 because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives 16 ground in the interest of avoiding prolonged litigation. Id.

17 To determine whether the settlement is fair and reasonable, relevant factors to consider are:

18 the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 19 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 20 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

21 Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The list of factors is not exclusive and the 22 court can consider different factors based on the circumstances of each case.” Wershba at 245. At the 23 final approval stage, a presumption of fairness exists where, as here:

24 “(1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and 25 discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is 26 experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.”

27 ³⁷ Id., ¶ 14.

28 ³⁸ Id., ¶ 15.

1 Id. at 1802. “Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the
2 parties.” Dunk at 1801.

3 A. The Settlement Resulted from Arm’s-Length Negotiations Based Upon Extensive
4 Investigation and Informal Discovery.

5 The Parties actively litigated the case since the initial complaint was filed on January 24, 2024.
6 Class Counsel conducted significant investigation and extensive informal discovery into the facts of the 7 case, to assess the veracity, strength, and scope of the claims, and was preparing for class certification and 8 trial prior to reaching the Settlement.³⁹

9 The Parties informally exchanged a volume of information, documents, and data throughout the 10 course of the litigation and in connection with the mediations and settlement negotiations.⁴⁰ The volume
11 of data and documents that Class Counsel reviewed and analyzed included, and was not limited
12 to: a sampling of Class Members’ time and payroll data, Plaintiffs’ personnel records,
13 Defendants’ Handbooks, earning statements, arbitration agreements, company policy
14 acknowledgements (e.g., Policy Acknowledgement Status Report, Employee Acknowledgement, 15 Meal and Rest Period Policy and Acknowledgement, Employee Handbook acknowledgment,
16 Frequently Asked Questions Acknowledgement, Job Description Review, Training Review,
17 Transportation Policy, Confidentiality Agreement, Returning Company Property Agreement, 18 Supplemental Policies Packet, Video Recording Policy, Zero Tolerance Policy), among other
19 information and documents.⁴¹ Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiffs and other
20 percipient witnesses.⁴² Class Counsel developed liability, damages, and penalties valuation models in the 21 course of litigation and in connection with the mediation and settlement negotiations, and met and 22 conferred with Defendants’ counsel on numerous occasions, e.g., to discuss issues relating to the 23 pleadings, case management, motion practice, and production of information, documents, and data in the 24 course of litigation and in connection with the mediation and settlement negotiations, and settlement.⁴³
25 Other work performed by Class Counsel included, but was not limited to, case strategy and analysis;

researching, drafting, reviewing, and/or revising the pleadings, motion-related papers, the mediation briefing and supporting materials, and settlement documents; and preparing for and attending court proceedings, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other tasks.⁴⁴

The Parties participated in a formal, full-day mediation conducted by Lynn Frank, Esq., who is a well-regarded mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters.⁴⁵ In the course of mediation and settlement negotiations, the Parties exchanged extensive information, documents, and data and discussed all aspects of the case, including and not limited to, the risks and delays of further litigation, the risks to the Parties of proceeding with class certification and/or representative adjudication, the law relating to off-the-clock theory, regular rate, meal and rest periods, PAGA representative actions, and state wage-and-hour law and enforcement, as well as the evidence produced and analyzed, and the possibility of appeals, among other things.⁴⁶ During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm's length in an adversarial position.⁴⁷ Arriving at a settlement that was acceptable to the Parties was not easy.⁴⁸ Defendants and their counsel felt very strongly about Defendants' ability to prevail on the merits and to avoid class certification and representative adjudication and prevail on the merits, while Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believed that they would be able to obtain class certification and prevail at trial.⁴⁹ After conducting significant informal discovery and investigations, extensive settlement negotiations, and with the aid of the mediator's evaluation, the Parties agreed that this matter was well-suited for settlement given the legal issues relating to Plaintiffs' principal claims, as well as the costs and risks to the Parties that would attend further litigation.⁵⁰

The Settlement takes into account the strengths and weaknesses of each side's position and the uncertainty of how this matter might have concluded at certification, trial, and/or appeals.⁵¹ The Settlement was based on a volume of facts, evidence, and investigation.⁵² Additionally, Class Counsel has extensive experience in handling complex wage-and-hour actions, including significant experience in employment class action litigation.⁵³

B. The Risks Inherent in Continued Litigation Favor Final Approval of the Settlement.

The risks inherent in litigating the claims through certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals, favor resolving this matter for a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00.⁵⁴ The Settlement was calculated using information and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, informal discovery, and the exchange of information in the context of litigation, mediation, and ongoing settlement negotiations.⁵⁵ Had the action not settled, Defendants would have vigorously challenged class certification, manageability, and liability. Defendants contended that individualized questions of fact predominated over any common issues, and these issues would pose challenges to certification and representative adjudication. Defendants would have likely argued again at trial, if any, that Plaintiffs' claims were not appropriate for class-wide and/or representative adjudication. On the other hand, Defendants also faced the risk of the Court certifying a class and allowing a jury to decide Plaintiffs' claims on a class-wide or representative basis. Also, preparation for trial would have been expensive for all Parties.

It is preferable to reach an early resolution of a dispute because such resolutions save time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. If this matter had settled after further litigation, the settlement amount would have taken into account the additional costs incurred, and there might have been less money available for Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California after all was said and done. This is not just an abstract contention. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. These risks of further litigation include a determination that the claims were unsuitable for class treatment and/or representative adjudication, failure to obtain certification, class de-certification after certification of a class, allowing a jury to decide the claims asserted in this matter, and the real possibility of no recovery after years of litigation.

⁵³ Id., ¶¶ 14-18.

⁵⁴ Slinger Decl., ¶¶ 9 & 11.

⁵⁵ Id., ¶¶ 6-9.

1 Additionally, the Parties were moving into the phase of the litigation where they would have to conduct a
2 significant amount of formal discovery, including depositions of Defendants' Person Most 3 Knowledgeable designees, expert witnesses, and percipient witnesses, such as managers, supervisors, and 4 other current and former employees throughout the State of California. Additional discovery would have
5 certainly arisen, which would have cost the Parties additional time and money. In contrast, the Settlement
6 provides real and significant benefits for the Class, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California
7 here and now, while avoiding the further expenses, risks, and delay of prolonged litigation with only the 8 possibility of recovery.

9 It would be grossly inefficient for such a large class of current and former employees to bring
10 individual actions to recover from Defendants for the alleged violations of wage-and-hour laws.
11 Moreover, the potential individual recovery that could be obtained by a Class Member would not be 12 significant enough to provide him or her with the incentive to sue. By granting final approval of the 13 Settlement, the Court can approve a resolution that provides a certain and substantial recovery for Class
14 Members, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California.

15 C. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate.

16 The Settlement, which provides for a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00, represents a
17 fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution of this matter. The Settlement was calculated using information 18 and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, informal discovery, and the exchange of 19 information in the context of litigation, mediation, and extensive settlement negotiations. The Settlement
20 takes into account the potential risks and rewards inherent in any case and, in particular, in this matter.
21 Moreover, considering the facts in this matter, the Gross Settlement Amount represents a considerable 22 recovery.

23 The Gross Settlement Amount will be fully paid out, in accordance with the terms of the 24 Settlement. As discussed in Section IV, supra, each Participating Class Member will be paid a pro rata
25 share of the Net Settlement Amount (which is currently estimated to be $832,092.71), based on the 26 number of Workweeks credited to them, and each Aggrieved Employee will be paid a pro rata
27 share of the 25% share of the PAGA Penalties, based on the number of PAGA Pay Periods
28

1 during the PAGA Period credited to them.⁵⁶ The highest Individual Class Payment to a Participating
2 Class Member is currently estimated to be $417.26 and the average Individual Class Payment is
3 currently estimated to be $57.32.⁵⁷ The highest Individual PAGA Payment to an Aggrieved
4 Employee is current estimated to be $83.09 and the average Individual PAGA Payment is 5 currently estimated to be $23.09.⁵⁸ These are significant individual recoveries, particularly in light of 6 the risks of litigation.

7 Class Counsel believes that the Settlement as a whole is fair, reasonable, and adequate.⁵⁹
8 Although Class Counsel's recommendations are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the 9 recommendations into account, particularly if Class Counsel appears to be competent, has experience
10 with this type of litigation, and significant discovery and investigation have been completed, as is the case
11 here. Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed., 2002) § 11.47. Accordingly, the Court
12 should grant final approval of the Settlement.

13 D. The Class Was Represented by Competent Counsel.

14 Class Counsel has extensive experience in employment class action law and complex wage-and-
15 hour litigation.⁶⁰ Lawyers for Justice, PC has been appointed class counsel in numerous complex wage-
16 and-hour cases, and has recovered millions of dollars for individuals in California.⁶¹ Both Parties' counsel
17 were capable of assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the Class Members' claims against 18 Defendants and the benefits of the Settlement under the circumstances of the lawsuit and in the context of 19 a private, consensual settlement agreement.

20 E. There Are No Written Objections to the Class Settlement.

21 The Settlement has been well received by the Class – not a single Class Member objected to or
22 *opted out of the Settlement.*⁶² Specifically, no objections have been made as to the Gross Settlement

23 ⁵⁶ Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 1.24 & 1.25. The pro rata allocation here is a fair and reasonable way to distribute the Net
24 Settlement Amount that is payable to the Participating Class Members and 25% of the PAGA Penalties that is payable to the Aggrieved Employees. At the final approval stage, “[a]n allocation formula need only have a reasonable, rational basis [to

Amount or contemplated Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment, Class Representative Service Payments, Administration Expenses Payment, or allocation for the PAGA Penalties. California courts have consistently found that even a small number of objectors indicates support for a settlement and strongly favors final approval.⁶³

Here, the lack of any objections speaks volumes about the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of this Settlement. Accordingly, the Settlement as a whole is presumed to be fair, reasonable, and adequate, and the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement in its entirety. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802.

VII. THE CLASS COUNSEL FEES REQUESTED SHOULD BE APPROVED.

A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate.

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendants will pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00.⁶⁴ The requested Class Counsel Fees Payment is one-third (1/3) of the total value of the monetary settlement.⁶⁵ In light of Class Counsel's successful prosecution and resolution of this matter, the requested attorneys' fees are appropriate and reasonable.

Where the amount of a settlement is a "certain easily calculable sum of money," California courts may calculate attorneys' fees as a reasonable percentage of the settlement. Weil and Brown, California Practice Guide, Civil Procedure Before Trial, Chapter 14, § 14:145; In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig. (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 942 (The percentage method is particularly appropriate where a monetary settlement has been recovered and "the benefit [recovered can be] easily quantified."); see also Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503; Dunk at 1808. Courts may calculate and award attorneys' fees as a percentage of a monetary fund that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered for the benefit of others. Laffitte at 486 & 506. Trial courts "retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and [may] use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee." Id. (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 253.

Courts award fees as an economic incentive for lawyers to pursue litigation that will enhance and

2 similar alleged wrongs that would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here. See
3 A. Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d ed. 1993) 104, at 6.

4 The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because “it better approximates
5 the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach.” Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82
6 Cal.App.4th 19, 49. California law provides that the award for attorneys’ fees should be equivalent to fees
7 freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable litigation based on the result achieved
8 and risk incurred. Id. at 47-50; Laffitte at 503. In cases where the settlement agreement provides that the 9 defendant will pay the plaintiff’s attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the settlement, use of that 10 percentage method is appropriate. Lealao at 32. Fee awards that are too small will “chill the private 11 enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal rights and obstruct the representative actions that 12 often relieve the courts of the need to separately adjudicate numerous claims.” Id. at 53. Therefore, fees in 13 representative actions should approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a 14 sophisticated attorney and client in comparable litigation. Id. at 48. “The ultimate goal . . . is the award of 15 a ‘reasonable’ fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of calculation.”

Court* (2005) 126 Cal.App.4th, 1253, 1270).

17 Class Counsel's application for Class Counsel Fees Payment in light of the facts and 18 circumstances surrounding the case is well-within the range of reasonableness. Courts have awarded fees
19 as high as 50% of the settlement in complex actions, depending on the circumstances of the case.⁶⁶

20 Class Counsel has performed significant work in this matter, as discussed in the Declaration of 21 Ryan Slinger with the very real possibility of an unsuccessful outcome and no fee recovery of any
22 kind.⁶⁷ In the present matter, Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not
23 receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁶⁸ Class Counsel is experienced in complex wage-
24 and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a significant settlement recovery for Plaintiffs, the

25 ⁶⁶ See In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding attorneys’ fees in the amount of 45% of the $7.3
26 million total settlement amount); Beech Cinema, Inc. v. Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 480 F.Supp. 1195
27 (awarding approximately 53% of the settlement as attorneys’ fees). California courts routinely approve attorneys’ fees awards 28 “average[ing] around one-third of the recovery.” Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found the range of contingency fees in marketplace to be 20%-40% and determined such a percentage fee was appropriate).

⁶⁷ Slinger Decl., ¶¶ 10-11.

⁶⁸ Id., ¶¶ 10-11, & 19.

Class, and the State of California.⁶⁹ Considering the amount of fees requested, work performed, risks incurred, results obtained, and experience of Class Counsel in handling similar matters, Plaintiffs maintain that the requested attorneys' fees are reasonable and should be awarded.

Compensating class counsel in class litigation on a percentage basis, as requested herein, makes good sense because: (1) it is consistent with the private marketplace where contingent fee attorneys are customarily compensated on such a basis; (2) it aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members in achieving the maximum possible resolution of the case; and (3) it encourages the most efficient and expeditious resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement. The attorney fee request here satisfies all of these factors and should be approved on a percentage basis.

The percentage method is consistent with, and is intended to mirror, the practice in the private marketplace where contingent-fee attorneys typically negotiate percentage-fee arrangements with their clients. The named plaintiff's agreement to pay a contingent fee is powerful evidence of a reasonable fee. One of the best ways to demonstrate the value of counsel's work to the class is to review the consideration agreed to be paid by the named plaintiff. If the named plaintiff has employed counsel on a contingency-fee basis, it would indeed be inequitable for the members of the class, who will enjoy the benefits of the settlement without incurring the risks of bringing the claim, to pay less than the named plaintiff. In this case, the Plaintiffs have agreed to a contingency fee agreement of at least one-third (1/3) of the recovery.⁷⁰

Class Counsel has obtained a substantial recovery on behalf of Plaintiffs, the Class, and the State of California and the results achieved justify an attorneys' fees award that is the equivalent of the standard market fee and that is consistent with the contingency-fee agreement entered into by and between Plaintiffs and Class Counsel. Thus, the requested attorneys' fees are appropriate.

B. The Class Counsel Fees Payment Requested Are Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered in Determination of Fee Awards.

⁶⁹ Id., ¶¶ 14-18.

⁷⁰ Slinger Decl., ¶ 10.

The factors which courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable, all of which support the fee award requested by Class Counsel, are: the time and labor required; the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of the case; the customary fee; whether the fee is fixed or contingent; the time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; the undesirability of the case; the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and awards in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772. Some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be addressed below.

The award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $833,333.33 (which is 1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount) is commensurate with the time, effort, and expense dedicated to this matter, the contingent nature of Class Counsel's fee recovery and the risks taken, the skill and determination required, the results that Class Counsel has achieved, and the value of the settlement that Class Counsel has obtained in this matter.

1. Time & Labor.

Class Counsel used its experience and skills, and dedicated the full extent of resources, to litigate and bring this matter to a successful conclusion.⁷¹

As outlined in the Declaration of Ryan Slinger, Class Counsel has fully and actively participated in litigation of this matter.⁷² Prior to commencing the lawsuit, Class Counsel had conducted a significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendants' business and their operations, and employment policies, practices, and procedures.⁷³ During the litigation of this matter, Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiffs and other percipient witnesses; reviewed and analyzed a volume of pages of information, documents and data obtained from Defendants, Plaintiffs and other sources; and prepared liability, damages, penalties, and valuation calculations.⁷⁴ Class Counsel also met and conferred with Defendants' counsel on numerous occasions e.g., to discuss issues relating to the pleadings, case management, motion practice, informal discovery, and the production of information, documents and data, among other things, and prepared for and attended court proceedings, mediation, and settlement negotiations.⁷⁵

⁷³ Id., ¶ 8.

⁷⁴ Id., ¶ 7.

Class Counsel has dedicated staffing and monetary resources necessary to prosecute this matter diligently and with maximum efficiency and has fully and actively participated in the litigation process.⁷⁶ The Attorney Task and Time Chart, which is attached as “EXHIBIT 1” to the accompanying Declaration of Ryan Slinger, sets forth in detail the hours that attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC have spent performing tasks in this matter.⁷⁷ Class Counsel has spent 371.80 hours performing tasks and to obtain a significant recovery in this matter.⁷⁸ These hours were required to bring this matter to its successful conclusion. In light of the value of Class Counsel's work and the carrying of costs involved in litigating this matter, the requested attorneys’ fees are fair, adequate, and reasonable.

2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly.

The skill required to properly litigate this matter is evident from the results achieved, the steps necessary to reach those results, and that Defendants retained well-respected counsel to represent them.

Class Counsel exercised its skill to perform significant investigation, analysis, and research prior to filing the case, during the litigation, and prior to and during the mediation and settlement negotiations. Class Counsel took steps to prepare the matter for class certification and representative adjudication and had every intention of taking this matter to trial on a class-wide basis if the Parties were unable to reach a reasonable class-wide settlement. Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, as demonstrated in the Declaration of Ryan Slinger, Class Counsel used its extensive experience in the handling of class actions and complex wage-and-hour matters in order to obtain the Settlement with maximum efficiency.⁷⁹

3. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent.

Plaintiffs entered into a contingency fee agreement with Class Counsel, and the representation of ⁷⁵ Id., ¶ 7.

⁷⁶ Slinger Decl., ¶ 12; Exh. 1.

⁷⁷ Id., Exh. 1.

⁷⁸ Id., ¶ 12; Exh. 1.

⁷⁹ Id., ¶¶ 14-18.

the Class provided by Class Counsel has been wholly contingent.⁸⁰ Class Counsel has invested 371.80 hours of time to obtain relief on behalf of Plaintiffs, the Class, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California.⁸¹ Class Counsel has also incurred litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $19,623.96.⁸² Thus, Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁸³

In determining the reasonableness of a fee award in a class action settlement, whether or not representation is provided on a contingency basis is an important factor:

A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they are performed. The contingent fee compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. A lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.

Cates v. Chiang (2013) 213 Cal.App.4th 791, 823 (internal quotes and citations omitted). Class Counsel litigated this matter on a contingent basis with all of the concomitant risk factors inherent in such an uncertain undertaking. Had Class Counsel not been successful, the time that Class Counsel has devoted to litigating this matter would have been for naught, and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-49 (discussing the risks of engaging in litigation without certainty of compensation).

4. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved.

The Settlement represents an excellent resolution of this matter, given the risks inherent in litigating the matter through class certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals. Had this matter not settled, Defendants would have vigorously challenged certifiability, manageability, and liability. Defendants, however, faced risks if the Court certified a class and allowed a jury to decide the claims. Additionally, preparing this matter for trial would have been expensive for the Parties. The Settlement at this stage is preferred over continued litigation because such resolutions save time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might ⁸⁰ Id., ¶ 10.

⁸¹ Id., ¶ 12; Exh. 1.

⁸² Id., ¶ 19.

⁸³ Ibid.

1 have been gained otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery, as opposed to an uncertain
2 result in the future after costly, risky, and prolonged litigation involving expert discovery, trial
3 preparation, class certification proceedings, and appellate review of those proceedings.

4 The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific 5 difficulties faced in this matter, are considerable. Class Counsel obtained a settlement of 6 $2,500,000.00.⁸⁴ The Settlement has yielded a positive response from the Class Members—no Class
7 Members objected to the Class Settlement.⁸⁵

8 5. The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys.

9 Lawyers for Justice, PC is a recognized class action law firm that employed its attorneys’
10 knowledge, skills, and experience in bringing this case to a successful conclusion.⁸⁶ Class Counsel has 11 years of complex and class action litigation experience, has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of 12 thousands of individuals in California, and has successfully handled numerous significant wage-and-hour
13 class action and complex cases.⁸⁷

14 C. The Lodestar Methodology Also Justifies Approval of the Requested Fees.

15 While the percentage-of-the-benefit approach is endorsed as the better approximation of the 16 workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach, courts may also use the lodestar method to 17 “cross-check” the results of the other.⁸⁸ The lodestar is calculated based on reasonable hours at reasonable
18 prevailing hourly rates for the attorneys, and counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour
19 reasonably spent on the matter. Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1131-33. The reasonableness
20 of hours is assessed by “the entire course of the litigation, including pretrial matters, settlement
21 negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the trial itself[.]” Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist.

27 ⁸⁸ Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 505 (explaining that “[a] lodestar cross-check is simply a quantitative method for bringing a 28 measure of the time spent by counsel into the trial court’s reasonableness determination” and “the lodestar calculation . . . does not override the trial court’s primary determination of the fee as a percentage” and “does not impose an absolute maximum or minimum on the potential fee award.”); see also, e.g., Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050 (“[W]hile the primary basis of the fee award remains the percentage method, the lodestar may provide a useful perspective on the reasonableness of a given percentage award.”).

As discussed above in Part VII.B.1, infra, and also discussed in the Declaration of Ryan Slinger, Class Counsel expended significant time and labor in this highly contested matter.⁸⁹ Class Counsel has been actively involved in the prosecution of the case, and the work performed in this case has precluded other employment.⁹⁰ Class Counsel bore the risk that, despite all of its efforts and skills employed, there may be no recovery.⁹¹ Ultimately, Class Counsel was successful in reaching a settlement of $2,500,000.00.⁹² The Attorney Task and Time Chart sets forth in detail the numerous tasks that Class Counsel performed in this matter, and the time required for completing those tasks.⁹³ The chart demonstrates that Class Counsel has spent a total of 371.80 hours litigating this matter and finalizing the Settlement.⁹⁴ In light of the facts and circumstances of this matter, as well as the results that Class Counsel has achieved, Class Counsel has spent a reasonable number of hours performing work on this matter. In addition, Class Counsel will continue to perform work on this matter through the date of final approval and in connection with the implementation of the Settlement.

As set forth in the Declaration of Ryan Slinger, the professional background and experience of Class Counsel support a reasonable rate of compensation of at least $850 per hour for services provided by Class Counsel.⁹⁵ Lawyers for Justice, PC has been awarded attorneys' fees, compensating the firm at the blended rate of at least $850 per hour for legal service performed, by courts of this state.⁹⁶ While the circumstances of every case are unique, the fact remains that the work performed by Class Counsel in this matter justify the requested attorneys' fees.

It also bears noting that a court may apply a multiplier in consideration for risk, efficiency, and/or obtaining a substantial result, to enhance the lodestar for purpose of cross-check. See Ketchum at 1133-34 (holding that a risk multiplier may be applied to compensate contingency fee attorneys at a fair market rate).⁹⁷ The risks involved, skill required, complexity of the matter, and results obtained warrant upward ⁹⁷ Courts have approved fee awards with multipliers of 2 and even higher. See, e.g., *City of Oakland v. enhancement of the lodestar.⁹⁸ In determining whether or not to enhance the lodestar, California courts take into account multiple factors, many of which were specifically addressed above in §§ VII.B, infra. See, Cates at 822-23. Multiple factors warrant enhancement of the lodestar in the case, including the following: the time and labor required; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of this case; the contingent nature of the fee; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; and awards in similar cases. Ketchum at 1134. Therefore, a multiplier of 2.64 should be applied. Applying the rate of $850 per hour to 371.80 hours for services provided by Class Counsel results in a base lodestar value of $316,030.00 for the work performed by Class Counsel, and applying a modest multiplier of 2.64⁹⁹, the total enhanced lodestar fees are $834,319.20.

The lodestar method, as a cross-check to the percentage award sought herein, strongly supports the reasonableness of the requested Class Counsel Fees. The nature of the work performed, skill exercised, and the outcome in this matter—which involves an outstanding monetary recovery involving a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00 (with a Net Settlement Amount of at least $832,092.71 to be paid to Participating Class Members (with gross Individual Class Payments averaging approximately more than $57.32), payment of $187,500.00 to Aggrieved Employees, and payment of $562,500.00 to the State of California)—support the percentage fee sought. Accordingly, the Court is respectfully requested to award attorneys’ fees in the amount of $833,333.33 to Class Counsel.

multiplier on a lodestar cross-check); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (applying a 2.5 multiplier in a consumer class action).

⁹⁸ Even when courts have opted to award fees in settlement fund cases based on time reasonably expended on the action, courts have generally awarded these fees based on the actual time expended (the lodestar) in conjunction with a multiplier of between 2 and 4. Kerr v. Screen Extras Guild, Inc. (9th Cir. 1975) 526 F.2d 67. Adjustment of the base lodestar figure to compute an award of attorneys’ fees for a claim under the California Labor Code is appropriate. See Id., at 1135-36; Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48-49. Courts frequently apply multipliers to enhance the lodestar to reflect the risks involved, the complexity of the litigation, and the other relevant facts. Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051; Graham v. DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 579 (“One of the most common fee enhancers [...] is for contingency risk.”). Such an enhancement “mirrors the established practice in the private legal market of rewarding attorneys for taking the risk of nonpayment by paying them a premium over their normal hourly rates for winning contingency cases.” Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051; accord Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at 1132-33. A risk multiplier also serves to bring the financial incentives for enforcing important rights “into line with incentives [attorneys] have to undertake claims for which they are paid on a fee-for-services basis.” Ketchum at 1132.

⁹⁹ Larger multipliers have been awarded in similar cases, and the total amount of fees sought by Class Counsel is also reasonable compared to fees awarded in similar cases. Courts routinely enhance lodestar amounts based on multipliers that “range from 2 to 4 or even higher.” Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 (emphasis added); see also, e.g., Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (approving multiplier of 2.5); Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051 (approving multiplier of 3.65); Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc. (2d Cir. 2005) 396 F.3d 96, 123 (approving multiplier of 3.5); Craft v. County of San Bernardino (C.D. Cal. 2006) 624 F.Supp.2d 1113, 1125 (awarding multiplier of 5.2 and referring to other cases with cross-check multipliers ranging from 4.5 to 19.6).

VIII. REIMBURSEMENT OF CLASS COUNSEL LITIGATION COSTS SHOULD BE APPROVED.

The Settlement provides for reimbursement of Class Counsel Litigation Costs of up to $25,000.00. As set forth in the Declaration of Ryan Slinger, Class Counsel only seeks reimbursement of $19,623.96 in litigation costs and expenses incurred in this matter.¹⁰⁰ This amount was reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement, and is less than the maximum amount allocated under the Settlement Agreement.¹⁰¹ The cost savings of $5,376.04 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount, which will be distributed to Participating Class Members in accordance with the Settlement.¹⁰² Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court award litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $19,623.96 to Class Counsel.

IX. THE ADMINISTRATION EXPENSES PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED.

As set forth in the accompanying ILYM Declaration, the total costs incurred and to be incurred by ILYM for the notice and settlement administration process are $49,950.00.¹⁰³ The costs incurred and to be incurred include, but are not limited to, establishing and maintaining a settlement fund account; establishing and maintaining a calendar of administrative deadlines and responsibilities; processing, issuing, and transmitting settlement payments; distributing notice of the Settlement to the Class; receiving and validating Requests for Exclusion, Objections, or Workweeks Disputes submitted by Class Members; calculating Employer Paid Taxes and providing appropriate forms and calculations to Defendants; providing counsel with weekly reports; and other tasks as the Parties mutually agree or the Court orders ILYM to perform.¹⁰⁴

Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of payment to ILYM, a necessary third-party for its handling of the notice and settlement process, in the amount of $49,950.00.

X. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENTS SHOULD BE APPROVED.

¹⁰¹ Slinger Decl., ¶ 19.

¹⁰² Ibid.

¹⁰³ ILYM Decl., ¶ 17.

¹⁰⁴ Id., ¶ 3.

1 Plaintiffs request Class Representative Service Payments, in the amount of $7,500.00 each
2 (for a combined total of $15,000.00), for their efforts and work spearheading the prosecution of this
3 matter and serving as the Class Representatives, as well as their broader individual waiver and release
4 of claims with a California Civil Code Section 1542 waiver. Such enhancement awards are common, and 5 the one requested here is reasonable.¹⁰⁵

6 Plaintiffs spent a substantial amount of time and effort providing the facts and evidence necessary
7 to support the prosecution of the claims.¹⁰⁶ Plaintiffs were available whenever Class Counsel needed them
8 and actively tried to obtain, and gave, information to support the pursuit of this matter.¹⁰⁷

9 Accordingly, it is appropriate and just for Plaintiffs Rhina Blanco and Carlos Gonzalez to receive
10 $7,500.00 each as reasonable Class Representative Service Payments, in addition to their Individual 11 Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments.

12 XI. CONCLUSION

13 For the foregoing reasons, the Court is respectfully requested to grant final approval of the 14 Settlement, approve and award Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment
15 to Class Counsel, the Class Representative Service Payments to Plaintiffs, Administration Expenses
16 Payment to the Administrator, and the PAGA Penalties, in their entirety, as sought herein; and permit 17 the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.
