Attorneys for Plaintiffs

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SOLANO

JESSICA S. SANCHEZ and CRISTOFER A.
LOPEZ, individually, and on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved persons,

Plaintiffs,

v.

GOLDEN STATE JACKS, INC. DBA JACK IN THE BOX, a Nevada corporation; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: CU24-00553

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab.
Code § 2699, et seq.]

Plaintiffs Jessica S. Sanchez and Cristofer A. Lopez (“Plaintiffs”), on information and belief, allege as follows:

INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiffs bring this action individually, and on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved persons, against Defendants Golden State Jacks, Inc. dba Jack in the Box and DOES 1 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay all earned wages twice per month, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate wage statements, failure to indemnify employees for expenditures, and failure to produce requested employment records.

2. For over 50 years, California’s courts and Legislature have recognized that this State’s wage-and-hour laws serve a compelling public interest of fostering a stable job market. Wages are not ordinary debts. Because of the economic position of the average worker and his or her family, it is essential to the public welfare that employers obey the wage-and-hour laws so that employees are promptly paid the minimum/overtime wages that the Legislature has required for employees. So fundamental are California’s wage-and-hour laws that the Legislature has criminalized certain types of violations. In extending extra protection to deter violations of these underlying statutes—since Plaintiffs are not seeking general and/or special damages, restitution, or other damages other than civil penalties—California has enacted PAGA to permit an individual to bring an action for PAGA penalties only, which is the precise and sole nature of this action.

3. All California employees during the relevant period who are or were harmed by Defendants’ illegal practices are “Aggrieved Employees.” The Aggrieved Employees worked for Defendants as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the applicable period.

4. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants seeking only to recover penalties on behalf of Plaintiffs individually, on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees that worked for Defendants, and on behalf of the State of California. Plaintiffs do not seek to recover anything other than

1 penalties as permitted by California Labor Code Section 2699 at this time. To the extent that
2 statutory violations are mentioned for wage violations, Plaintiffs do not seek underlying general
3 and/or special damages for those violations, but simply penalties as permitted by California Labor
4 Code Section 2699, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief for Plaintiffs individually, and all
5 Aggrieved Employees as permitted by the PAGA.

6 5. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 7 establishment within the State of California, including Solano County. As such and based upon all 8 the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' businesses in California, Defendants are 9 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission
10 ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

11 6. On information and belief, Defendants were on actual and constructive notice of the 12 improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify Defendants' unlawful practices.
13 Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and 14 deliberate.

15 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 16 unlawful conduct, patterns, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 17 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, 18 Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under 19 the doctrine of "respondeat superior."

20 THE PARTIES

21 A. Plaintiffs

22 8. Plaintiff Jessica S. Sanchez is a resident of American Canyon, California who worked 23 for Defendants in Solano County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from 24 approximately September 2018 to present.

25 9. Plaintiff Cristofer A. Lopez is a resident of Vallejo, California who worked for 26 Defendants in Solano County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from 27 approximately October 2022 to present.

28 ///

1 B. Defendants

2 10. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief
3 allege, that Defendant Golden State Jacks, Inc. dba Jack in the Box, is, and at all times herein 4 mentioned, was:

5 (a) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the 6 State of California, including Solano County; and,

7 (b) The former employer of Plaintiffs, and the current and/or former employer
8 of Aggrieved Employees, because Defendant Golden State Jacks, Inc. dba
9 Jack in the Box suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees 10 to work; and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions; and or 11 engaged Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, thereby creating a common 12 law employment relationship.

13 11. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued
14 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each 15 of the Doe Defendants were in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 16 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to 17 set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, 18 together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

19 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 20 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or 21 injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of 22 California.

23 13. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times each 24 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the 25 other employees and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs 26 are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the 27 principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary,
28 affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

14. Plaintiff Jessica S. Sanchez worked for Defendants in Solano County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately September 2018 to present. Plaintiff Cristofer A. Lopez worked for Defendants in Solano County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately October 2022 to present. At all times, Defendants paid Plaintiffs an hourly wage and classified Plaintiffs as non-exempt from overtime.

15. Throughout Plaintiffs' employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

A. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, and Overtime Wages

16. Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

17. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

18. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

1 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a pattern and practice of 2 not paying Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum
3 wages, straight time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved
4 Employees to work “off-the-clock,” uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiffs and the 5 Aggrieved Employees to perform work during uncompensated meal periods and/or requiring 6 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work after clocking out for the workday. Some 7 of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours
8 worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiffs and the 9 Aggrieved Employees worked.

10 B. Failure to Provide Meal Periods

11 20. Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve 12 employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the 13 end of the fifth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute
14 meal period no later than the end of the tenth hour of work in a workday. Further, employees are 15 entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with a 16 required meal period(s).

17 21. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiffs
18 and the Aggrieved Employees with their legally mandated 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free
19 meal period in a manner required by law. Defendants also continued to assert control over Plaintiffs
20 and the Aggrieved Employees by, among other things, requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them
21 to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory
22 meal periods, or by denying Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a meal
23 period under the conditions required by law, and without properly compensating Plaintiffs and the 24 Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided as required by law. Defendants also 25 never informed Plaintiffs of their right to, nor permitted Plaintiffs to take, a second meal period
26 when they worked at least ten hours of work in a workday and otherwise unlawfully pressured
27 Plaintiffs to waive such breaks. Accordingly, Defendants’ pattern and practice was not to provide 28 meal periods to Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

22. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided.

C. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Breaks

23. Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

24. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods in a manner required by law. Defendants also regularly required Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), and without properly compensating Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, among other things, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, and by denying Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period under the conditions required by law. Accordingly, Defendants' pattern and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

25. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest periods. Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

D. Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

26. Based on Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

27. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendants owe employees the legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

E. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

28. Plaintiffs seek penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

29. Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees.

30. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform Defendants' obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

F. Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

31. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

32. Within the applicable period, the employment of Plaintiffs and many other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay Plaintiffs and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), missed meal period premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages.

33. Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

34. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

G. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

35. Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Labor Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

36. The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Labor Code § 226(e)(1).)

37. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law). Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiffs and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and similarly Aggrieved

1 Employees are entitled to recover damages from Defendants including the greater of their actual
2 damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate
3 penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) dollars per employee, or as otherwise
4 permitted by PAGA based upon all bases of liability.

5 H. Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

6 38. Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify their employees for 7 all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct
8 discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the period applicable to this cause of action, Defendants 9 wrongfully required Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in 10 direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees regularly
11 paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, work
12 attire and cell phone expenses. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial 13 expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to 14 indemnify Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

15 39. As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for the 16 civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2699(f)(2) for failing to indemnify Plaintiffs 17 and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary business expenditures.

18 I. Failure to Produce Requested Employment Records

19 40. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226, current and former employees have the 20 right to inspect or receive a copy of their records pertaining to their employment, upon reasonable 21 request to their employer. Under this statute, an employer that receives a request to inspect or 22 receive a copy of records pertaining to a current or former employee must comply with the request
23 as soon as practicable, but no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of the request.

24 41. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1198.5(a), every current and former employee, 25 or his or her representative, has the right to inspect and receive a copy of the personnel records that 26 the employer maintains relating to the employee's performance or to any grievance concerning the 27 employee. Under this statute, upon written request from a current or former employee or his or her 28 representative, an employer must make the contents of those personnel records available for

1 inspection or provide a copy of the personnel records to the current or former employee, or his or 2 her representative, not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date the employer receives the 3 written request, subject to some limited exceptions. Failure to comply with these requests allows 4 for a civil penalty seven hundred fifty dollars ($750), pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1198.5(k) and 5 226(f).

6 42. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 432, if an employee or applicant signs any 7 instrument relating to the obtaining or holding of employment, he or she shall be given a copy of 8 the instrument upon request.

9 43. As set forth above, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees are current and former 10 employees of Defendants.

11 44. Plaintiffs Jessica S. Sanchez and Cristofer A. Lopez sent written requests through 12 Plaintiffs' counsel to Defendants for their personnel files, pay records, wage statements,
13 timekeeping records, and other employment-related documents pursuant to Labor Code section
14 226, 1198.5, and 432. However, Defendants failed to timely produce the requested employment
15 records, in violation of Labor Code sections 226, 1198.5, and 432.

16 45. Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226, 1198.5, and 432 by failing to 17 timely produce the required records requested by Plaintiffs.

18 46. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiffs with their 19 requested employment records is not an isolated incident but was instead consistent with 20 Defendants' policy and practice that applied to Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees.

21 47. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1198.5, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved
22 Employees are entitled to a penalty of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) from Defendants,
23 injunctive relief in the form of compliance with section 1198.5, and attorneys' fees and costs.

24 48. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226, Plaintiffs are entitled to a penalty of seven 25 hundred fifty dollars ($750) from Defendants, injunctive relief in the form of compliance with 26 section 226, and attorneys' fees and cost.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

49. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

50. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

51. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself or himself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

52. Plaintiffs gave written notice by online filing pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiffs and current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiffs also paid the filing fee. Plaintiffs’ PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-995132-23 (Jessica S. Sanchez and Cristofer Lopez v. Golden State Jacks, Inc.). The Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Plaintiffs hereby commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699.

53. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiffs are entitled to an award of civil penalties individually, on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to

1 be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted
2 by law.

3 54. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant 4 to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be 5 entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

6 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of the State of California, and on behalf of all 8 similarly aggrieved employees, pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and 9 severally, as follows:

10 1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California
11 Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages),
12 failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to pay all earned 13 wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods,
14 failing to timely pay final wages, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to indemnify
15 for necessary expenditures, and failing to produce requested employment records;

16 2. An award of civil penalties on behalf of Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of the 17 State of California, and all similarly aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA;

18 3. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

19 4. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

20 5. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and,

21 6. Such other and further relief that the Court deems proper.

22 Respectfully submitted,
