1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Audie Munoz (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) brought this class and representative action
4 for various wage and hour violations on behalf of current and former non-exempt distribution
5 center associates who were employed by Defendant Ralphs Grocery Company (“Ralphs”) in 6 California at any time from November 16, 2019 to December 10, 2022 (the “Class Period”). On 7 November 16, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint against Ralphs in Los Angeles
8 Superior Court alleging the following causes of action: (1) minimum wage violations; (2) wage 9 statement violations; and (3) unfair competition. On February 20, 2024, Plaintiff filed the 10 operative First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“FAC”), adding a cause of 11 action for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”).

12 Plaintiff now respectfully requests that this Court preliminarily approve this non-13 reversionary, common-fund class action settlement,¹ in which Ralphs has agreed to pay Three 14 Hundred Eighty-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($387,500.00) to the 15 following Settlement Class:

16 All current and former non-exempt distribution center associates who were 17 employed by Defendant Ralphs Grocery Company in California at any time
18 from November 16, 2019 to December 10, 2022 (the “Class Period”).

19 If the Settlement is approved, Ralphs will pay a non-reversionary Gross Settlement
20 Amount of $387,500.00. After deducting administration costs, Plaintiff’s requested Class
21 Representative Service Payment, the amount designated as PAGA civil penalties, and requested 22 attorneys’ fees and costs, the Net Settlement Amount (“NSA”) of approximately $180,333.34 will 23 be distributed to all participating Class Members who do not opt-out of the Settlement based on 24 the proportionate number of workweeks worked by each participating Class Member during the 25 Class Period.

26 Significantly, Class Members do not need to file a claim to reap the financial benefits of

27

28 of Sean M. Blakely as Exhibit 1. The proposed Class Notice is attached to the Settlement as Exhibit A. All defined terms in this motion have the same definition as that in the Settlement.

1 the Settlement, as all Class Members will automatically receive an Individual Class Payment
2 unless they affirmatively opt-out. There are approximately 3,350 Class Members, and the average
3 Individual Class Payment to Participating Class Members is projected to be approximately 4 $53.83. This is a favorable result especially in light of the narrow issues presented in this case, 5 and the significant risks of continued litigation.

6 The proposed Settlement is within the range of possible approval in light of the significant 7 legal and factual obstacles that Plaintiff faced, the risks and costs of further litigation, and the 8 tangible monetary benefits to be received by Plaintiff and the Settlement Class. For the reasons
9 discussed herein, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary approval of the 10 Settlement.

11 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

12 A. THE PARTIES AND BRIEF PROCEDURAL HISTORY

13 Ralphs is a Southern California supermarket chain founded in 1873 offering a wide range
14 of groceries, household goods, and pharmacy services. See Declaration of Sean M. Blakely 15 (“Blakely Decl.”), ¶ 8. Plaintiff worked for Ralphs as a non-exempt employee in the position of 16 “Truck Driver” since approximately June 2013. See Declaration of Plaintiff Audie Munoz In 17 Support of Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Munoz Decl.”), ¶ 2.

18 On November 16, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in Los Angeles County 19 Superior Court, alleging causes of actions for: (1) failure to pay minimum wages; (2) failure to 20 provide accurate, itemized wage statements; and (3) unfair competition in violation of California
21 Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Blakely Decl., ¶ 9. On that same day, Plaintiff sent 22 his PAGA notice letter to Ralphs and the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).
23 Id., ¶ 9, Exhibit 2 (LWDA Letter). On February 20, 2024, Plaintiff filed the operative First 24 Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“FAC”), adding a cause of action for civil 25 penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”). Id., ¶ 9.

26 B. PLAINTIFF’S CLAIMS AND RALPHS’ DEFENSES

27 1. Unpaid Wages Due to Rounding Policies/Practices

28 Plaintiff contends that Ralphs underpaid Class Members due to its allegedly unlawful

1 rounding policies/practices. Blakely Decl., ¶ 14. Plaintiff contends that although Ralphs’
2 timekeeping system recorded hours worked to the minute, Ralphs rounded all time-punch entries
3 to the nearest tenth of an hour, resulting in an underpayment of wages to Class Members. Id.

4 However, Ralphs argues that its timekeeping policies/practices complied with California
5 law and have always compensated Class Members for all hours worked throughout the Class
6 Period. Blakely Decl., ¶ 14. Ralphs further argues that its rounding policies/practices were 7 lawful, since it was both neutral on its face and resulted, over time, in employees being paid for 8 all hours worked. Id. Ralphs also argues that it stopped its rounding policies/practices in 9 December 2022, thereby cutting off liability for this claim. Id. Additionally, Ralphs asserts 10 Plaintiff would be unable to certify a rounding class given the individualized inquiries as to 11 whether Class Members were in fact underpaid, or potentially overpaid, for each workday in 12 question, including whether each Class Member was performing compensable worked while 13 clocked in. Id.

14 2. Violations Under Labor Code § 226 and the PAGA

15 As a result of the alleged unpaid wages due to Ralphs’ rounding policies/practices, 16 Plaintiff asserts that Ralphs failed to comply with its wage statement obligations, in violation of 17 Labor Code § 226. Blakely Decl., ¶ 15. In addition, Plaintiff seeks civil penalties under the PAGA, 18 based on the aforementioned claims. Id., at ¶ 16.

19 Ralphs contends that any alleged wage statement violations could not be shown to be 20 “knowing and intentional,” particularly given its good-faith defenses, that Plaintiff cannot show
21 he or other employees “suffer[ed] injury” due to alleged wage statement violations, as required 22 by Lab. Code § 226(e) for the imposition of penalties, and that the wage statements always 23 accurately reflected amounts paid to employees. Blakely Decl., ¶ 15; see also, Maldonado v.
24 Epsilon Plastics, Inc., 22 Cal.App.5th 1308, 1337 (2018) (“The purpose of section 226 is to 25 ‘document the paid wages to ensure the employee is fully informed regarding the calculation of 26 those wages’”).

27 Finally, Ralphs contends that since Plaintiff’s PAGA claim is derivative of his underlying 28 wage claims, Plaintiff’s PAGA claim would fail with those claims. Blakely Decl., ¶ 16; see Price

1 v. Starbucks Corp., 192 Cal.App.4th 1136, 1147 (2011) (“Because the underlying causes of action
2 fail, the derivative UCL and PAGA claims also fail”). Ralphs further maintains that given its 3 good-faith defenses, the Court would substantially reduce any PAGA penalties awarded. Blakely
4 Decl., ¶ 16; Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2) (authorizing reduction in PAGA penalties in court’s
5 discretion); Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc., 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (2012)
6 (affirming reduction of PAGA penalties); Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., No. ED-CV-10-1487-RGK
7 (OPx), 2011 WL 7563047 at *4 (C.D. Cal. 2011) (reducing PAGA penalties by over 82%);
8 Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 529 (2018) (affirming PAGA penalty of just 9 $5 per pay period where employer made “good faith attempts” to comply with the law).

10 C. DISCOVERY AND MEDIATION

11 Prior to reaching the proposed Settlement, the Parties engaged in extensive formal and 12 informal discovery. Blakely Decl., ¶ 10. In response to Plaintiff’s written discovery requests, 13 Ralphs produced timekeeping and payroll records for the entire putative class, as well as its 14 relevant policies utilized during the putative class period. Id. In connection with mediation, 15 Ralphs produced relevant data points such as the number of putative class members, the number 16 of aggregate workweeks during the Class Period, and the total number of pay periods worked 17 during the PAGA Period. Id. Plaintiff’s counsel retained an expert to assist Plaintiff in conducting 18 a comprehensive analysis of the timekeeping and payroll records produced by Ralphs in order to 19 calculate damages for each of Plaintiff’s claims. Id. This discovery allowed the Parties to assess 20 the merits and value of Plaintiff’s claims, the chances of certification of Plaintiff’s claims, and 21 Ralphs’ potential defenses. Id.

22 On June 13, 2025, the Parties participated in a full-day mediation with Steven Mehta, Esq., 23 a well-respected wage and hour class action mediator. Blakely Decl., ¶ 11. During mediation, the 24 Parties vigorously debated their opposing legal positions, the likelihood of certification of 25 Plaintiff’s claims, and the legal basis for the claims and defenses. Id. At the conclusion of the 26 mediation, the Parties were unable to come to a resolution. Id. Following mediation, the Parties
27 resumed class certification discovery. Id. While the Parties were conducting class certification
28 discovery, the Parties also continued engaging in settlement negotiations, ultimately leading to a class-wide settlement. Id. During the months that followed, the Parties finalized the terms of the Settlement and executed the long-form Settlement Agreement now before the Court. Id.

III. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A. ESSENTIAL TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

If the Court preliminarily approves the Settlement, Ralphs will pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $387,500.00. See Settlement, §§ 1.21, 3.1. Significantly, this Settlement is non-reversionary, and no Class Member will have to submit a claim form to receive an Individual Class Payment. Id., at §§ 1.22, 3.1. Each Class Member who does not request exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member and will automatically receive an Individual Class Payment. Id., at § 7.5.3. The monetary terms of the Settlement are summarized below:

• Gross Settlement Amount:	$387,500.00
• Minus Court-approved attorneys' fees:	$129,166.66
• Minus Court-approved verified costs (up to):	$40,000.00
• Minus Court-approved Service Payment:	$7,500.00
• Minus amount set aside as PAGA civil penalties:	$7,500.00
• Minus estimated Settlement Administration costs:	$23,000.00
Net Settlement Amount ("NSA"):	$180,333.34
• PLUS 25% "PAGA Payment" to PAGA Group Members:	$1,875.00
Total Amount Paid to Class Members:	$182,208.34

1. The Settlement Provides for Reasonable Monetary Payments

After deducting amounts for the Court-approved attorneys' fees and costs, the Class Representative Service Payment to Plaintiff, the amount designated as PAGA civil penalties, and Settlement Administrator's fees and expenses, the Settlement requires Ralphs to pay a Net Settlement Amount ("NSA") of at least $180,333.34 to all Class Members who do not timely opt out. See Settlement, §§ 1.27, 7.5.3. The Net Settlement Amount shall be allocated to Participating Class Members who worked during the Class Period based upon the number of workweeks worked as a non-exempt employee during the Class Period. Id., at §§ 1.22, 3.2.4. In addition to the NSA, Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($7,500.00) of the Gross Settlement Amount has been designated as the PAGA Settlement Amount, allocated as 25% to the PAGA Group ($1,875.00) and 75% to the LWDA ($5,625.00). Id., at §§ 1.31, 3.2.5. Each PAGA Group Member shall receive a portion of the PAGA Settlement Amount proportionate to

1 the number of pay periods that he or she worked between November 16, 2022 to December 10, 2 2022 (the “PAGA Period”). Id., at §§ 1.23, 1.32, 3.2.5.1.

3 Based on information from Ralphs, Plaintiff understands that there are approximately 4 3,350 Class Members. Blakely Decl., ¶ 13. Therefore, the average Individual Class Payment is 5 projected to be approximately $53.83. Id. There are approximately 2,000 PAGA Group Members
6 who worked during the PAGA Period. Id. Therefore, the average Individual PAGA Payment is 7 estimated to be approximately $0.94. Id.

8 Class Members who wish to opt out of the Settlement must complete and mail, e-mail, or 9 fax a Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator within forty-five (45) calendar days
10 of the date of the initial mailing of the Class Notice (the “Response Deadline”). See Settlement, 11 §§ 1.42, 7.5.1. Class Members who do not opt-out of the Settlement will be bound by its terms
12 and will release all claims against Ralphs included within the Settlement. See Settlement, § 7.5.3.

13 2. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Service Payment, and PAGA Payment

14 Plaintiff will apply for a Class Representative Service Payment at the time of seeking final 15 approval of the proposed class action settlement in the amount of $7,500, for his service to the 16 Settlement Class. Blakely Decl., ¶ 20; see also Settlement, §§ 1.13, 3.2.1. “[I]ncentive awards are 17 fairly typical in class action cases . . . and are intended to compensate class representatives for 18 work done on behalf of the class [and] to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in 19 bringing the action.” In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1393-94
20 (2010). As will be fully briefed at the time of final approval, Plaintiff’s requested Service Payment
21 is intended to recognize the time and effort Plaintiff expended on behalf of the Settlement Class,
22 including providing substantial factual information and documents to Class Counsel, attending 23 multiple meetings with Class Counsel to discuss the claims and theories at issue in the litigation, 24 actively participating in the prosecution of his claims, searching for responsive documents and 25 responding to formal document requests, as well as the significant risks Plaintiff undertook by 26 agreeing to serve as the named Plaintiff in this case and the fact that Plaintiff agreed to a general
27 release of all claims subject to a waiver of California Civil Code section 1542. Blakely Decl., ¶
28 20; see generally, Munoz Decl.

1 Class Counsel will also apply for an attorneys' fees award of one-third of the Gross
2 Settlement Amount, which is currently estimated to be $129,166.66, and up to $40,000.00 in 3 verified costs reimbursement. See Settlement, §§ 1.6, 3.2.2; Blakely Decl., ¶ 19. Plaintiff submits 4 the requested fee is fair compensation for undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-
5 consuming litigation on a purely contingent fee basis. Blakely Decl., ¶ 19. Class Counsel has 6 incurred substantial attorneys' fees conducting pre-filing investigation, analyzing Plaintiff's 7 claims, conducting legal research, conducting extensive formal and informal discovery, analyzing 8 Class Members' timekeeping and payroll records and other data and documents, creating a 9 comprehensive damages model, preparing for and attending mediation, negotiating and preparing 10 the long-form Settlement Agreement, preparing this Motion, and otherwise litigating the case. Id.
11 Class Counsel expect to expend additional attorney time in attending the hearing on this Motion, 12 overseeing the Notice process and fielding questions from Class Members, preparing the final 13 approval papers, and attending the Final Approval hearing. Id.

14 California courts recognize an appropriate method for awarding attorneys' fees in class
15 actions is to award a percentage of the "common fund" created as a result of a settlement. See
16 e.g., Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 (2016) (holding "the percentage of fund 17 method survives in California class action cases"). Class Counsel's request for fees of one-third 18 of the Gross Settlement Amount is well within the range of reasonableness, and indeed is 19 considered the typical rate for common fund settlements. Historically, courts have awarded
20 percentage fees in the range of 20% to 50%, depending on the circumstances of the case. See 4
21 Newberg on Class Actions § 14.6 (4th Ed. 2013).

22 Class Counsel submit their request for attorneys' fees is reasonable when viewed as an 23 overall percentage of the Settlement and in light of the substantial risks and significant work 24 undertaken, the results obtained, and the efficiency with which the litigation has been conducted.
25 Should the Court grant preliminary approval, Class Counsel will seek an award of attorneys' fees 26 and verified costs upon seeking final approval.

27 Additionally, the Parties have agreed to designate $7,500.00 of the Gross Settlement
28 Amount as the "PAGA Settlement Amount," allocated as 25% to the PAGA Group ($1,875.00)

1 and 75% to the LWDA ($5,625.00). See Settlement, at §§ 1.31, 3.2.5. Plaintiff submits this
2 allocation to the LWDA for civil PAGA penalties is appropriate. See, e.g., Chu v. Wells Fargo
3 Investments, LLC, Case No. C 05-4526 MHP, 2011 WL 672645 at *1 (N.D. Cal. 2011) (approving 4 PAGA payment of $7,500 to LWDA out of $6.9 million common-fund settlement); Lazarin v.
5 Pro Unlimited, Inc., Case No. C11-03609 HRL, 2013 WL 3541217 (N.D. Cal. 2013) (approving

7 IV. ARGUMENT

8 A. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL IS WARRANTED

9 California Rule of Court 3.769 conditions settlement of a class action on court approval, 10 which is generally evaluated under the federal standards applicable under Rule 23 of the Federal 11 Rules of Civil Procedure. See Reed v. United Teachers Los Angeles, 208 Cal.App.4th 322, 337
12 (2012) (Rule 3.769 requires trial court to determine “that the settlement is fair, reasonable and 13 adequate to all concerned”); Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998) (Rule 14 23(e) requires the trial court to determine “whether a proposed settlement is fundamentally fair, 15 adequate, and reasonable”). Settlement is the preferred means of dispute resolution, particularly 16 in complex class action litigation. See In re Syncor ERISA Litig., 516 F.3d 1095, 1101 (9th Cir.
17 2008). The Court’s role in evaluating a proposed settlement is limited to ensuring that the 18 agreement taken as a whole is fair. See e.g., Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1027. There is an initial 19 presumption of fairness where, as here, the Settlement was negotiated at arm’s-length by class
20 counsel and with the assistance of an experienced wage and hour class action mediator. See e.g.,
21 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 130 (2008).

22 1. Standard for Preliminary Approval

23 To make a fairness determination, the Court should consider several factors, including:
24 “the strength of Plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 25 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 26 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, [and] the 27 experience and views of counsel.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996).
28 “The list of factors is not exclusive, and the court is free to engage in a balancing and weighing of the factors depending on the circumstances of each case.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th at 245 (2001). As discussed below, the proposed Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable in light of the overall balance of factors in this case.

a. The Strength of Plaintiff’s Case

Although Plaintiff steadfastly maintains that his claims are meritorious, Plaintiff acknowledges that there were substantial risks and uncertainty in proceeding with litigation. As described above in section II.B., supra, Ralphs presented multiple defenses to Plaintiff’s claims, both on the merits and with respect to class certification. Thus, while Plaintiff was prepared to litigate these claims through class certification, and ultimately trial, success was far from certain.

b. Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Duration of Further Litigation

Although the Parties engaged in significant formal and informal discovery prior to mediation, the Parties still had significant formal discovery to complete had the matter not settled. Blakely Decl., ¶ 18. This would have required expenditure of substantial time and resources by both Parties that would have very likely spanned several years. Id. Even if Plaintiff was to certify the classes, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys’ fees and costs through a possible decertification motion, trial, and possible appeal. Id. This Settlement avoids those risks and the accompanying expense. Id.

c. Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status

Plaintiff has not yet filed his motion for class certification, and as such, the extent to which Plaintiff’s proposed classes were certifiable is somewhat speculative. Absent settlement, there was a risk that there would not be a certified class at the time of trial, or if there were, it would consist of a significantly smaller group of employees than the proposed Settlement Class (either due to a narrowing of the class definition in a Court order on a contested motion for class certification, or through settlement agreements entered into by Ralphs with individual class members by way of Pick-up-Stix type settlement agreements²), and the expected recovery could

² In Chindarah v. Pick Up Stix, Inc., 171 Cal.App.4th 796 (2009), the Court of Appeal held an employer may enter into pre-certification settlement agreements with individual putative class members in which the putative class members release claims for past unpaid wages and penalties

1 be significantly reduced, given the settlement amounts that are typically offered through the Pick-
2 up-Stix process. Thus, this factor, too, supports preliminary approval of the settlement.

3 d. Amount Offered in Settlement Given Realistic Value of Claims

4 The Settlement provides a positive recovery for the Settlement Class in the face of hotly
5 disputed claims. Plaintiff conducted an analysis of alleged unpaid wages due to unlawful 6 timekeeping policies/practices, wage statement penalties, and PAGA civil penalties. A summary
7 of the results of Plaintiff's exposure analysis are discussed below:

8 Unpaid Wages Due to Unlawful Rounding Policies/Practices: $146,509

9 Based on Plaintiff's analysis of Ralphs' timekeeping and payroll records, there was an 10 underpayment of wages due to rounding in approximately 47.43% of all pay periods in the Class
11 Period, an overpayment of wages in approximately 48.14% of all pay periods, and approximately 12 4.43% of all pay periods were neutral. Blakely Decl., ¶ 14. Taking into account only those pay
13 periods where there was an underpayment, Plaintiff estimated that Ralphs underpaid Class
14 Members by approximately 10,419 hours, resulting in approximately $261,622 in unpaid wages 15 (10,419 underpaid hours * $25.11 average hourly rate of pay). Id.

16 However, as stated above, Ralphs counters that its timekeeping policies/practice complied
17 with California law and that it has always properly compensated Class Members for all hours
18 worked throughout the Class Period. Blakely Decl., ¶ 14. In addition, Ralphs ended its rounding 19 policies/practices in approximately December 2022, thereby cutting off liability for this claim. Id.
20 Finally, Ralphs asserts that Plaintiff would be unable to certify this claim since its timekeeping 21 policies/practices are facially neutral and individualized inquiries would be necessary as to 22 whether employees were in fact underpaid for each workday in question, resulting in an 23 unmanageable series of mini-trials. Id. In light of these defenses, Plaintiff discounted this 24 maximum amount by 20% for risk of non-certification and an additional 30% for a risk of being 25 unsuccessful on the merits or of failing to recover the full amount sought, to arrive at an estimated 26

27 _____
28 in exchange for consideration. The Court further held that such settlements could preclude those individual employees from recovery in class action litigation against the employer for the same wage claims.

1 realistic exposure of approximately $146,509. Id.

2 Wage Statement Penalties: $203,125

3 Plaintiff's analysis reflected that there were approximately 2,000 putative class members
4 and approximately 7,250 pay periods worked during the liability period applicable to Plaintiff's
5 wage statement claim. Blakely Decl., ¶ 15. Those penalties are calculated as $50 for each "initial"
6 violation and $100 for each "subsequent" violation, with a maximum of $4,000 per employee.
7 Blakely Decl., ¶ 15; see also Labor Code § 226(e). Accordingly, Plaintiff calculated Ralphs'
8 potential wage statement exposure at approximately $625,000 ([2,000 "initial" violations * $50]
9 + [5,250 "subsequent" violations * $100]). Blakely Decl., ¶ 15.

10 In light of Ralphs' arguments that no violations occurred, that employees suffered no
11 "injury," that any alleged violations were not "knowing and intentional," that the wage statements 12 always accurately reflected hours worked and amounts paid to employees, as well as risks
13 associated with Plaintiff's underlying claims discussed above, Plaintiff discounted the maximum 14 exposure by 35% for risk of non-certification, and by an additional 50% for risk of being 15 unsuccessful on the merits, for an estimated realistic exposure of approximately $203,125.
16 Blakely Decl., ¶ 15.

17 PAGA Penalties: $43,500

18 Plaintiff estimated a maximum total PAGA exposure at approximately $725,000 (7,250 19 pay periods * $100 "initial" penalty). Blakely Decl., ¶ 16; Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163
20 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1207 (2008) (finding "initial" violation rate applies until employer is notified 21 that it is violating a Labor Code provision). However, these penalties derive from the underlying 22 wage and hour violations discussed above, which Ralphs vigorously disputes. Blakely Decl., ¶
23 16; see e.g., Green v. Lawrence Service Co. 2013 WL 3907506, *5, n.5 (C.D. Cal. 2013)
24 (explaining that a PAGA claim's success was determined by the merits of its underlying claims).
25 Ralphs also asserts the Court would drastically reduce any award of PAGA penalties as 26 "confiscatory." Blakely Decl., ¶ 16; see also Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc., 203
27 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (2012) (affirming reduction of PAGA penalties); Fleming v. Covidien
28 Inc. (C.D. Cal. 2011) Case No. ED CV10-01487 RGK (OPx), 2011 WL 7563047, at *4 (reducing PAGA penalties from $2.8 million to $500,000). Therefore, Plaintiff discounted the maximum figure by 60% for risk of losing on the merits and/or not recovering a PAGA penalty for each and every pay period, and an additional 85% to account for the possibility of this Court reducing penalties, to arrive at an estimated exposure of approximately $43,500. Blakely Decl., ¶ 16.

Using these estimated figures for each of the claims described above, Plaintiff predicted that the potential recovery for the Settlement Class would be approximately $393,134. Blakely Decl., ¶ 17. The proposed Settlement of $387,500 therefore represents approximately 98.5% of the reasonably forecasted recovery for the Settlement Class. Id. Preliminary approval is appropriate since the Settlement will provide significant monetary relief to the Settlement Class, which is consistent with what Plaintiff’s counsel believes could have been recovered had the case proceeded through trial.

e. The Experience and Views of Counsel

“Parties represented by competent counsel are better positioned than courts to produce a settlement that fairly reflects each party’s expected outcome in litigation.” In re Pacific Enterprises Securities Litigation 47 F.3d 373, 378 (9th Cir. 1995). Here, Plaintiff is represented by competent, experienced counsel who possess extensive experience prosecuting and defending wage-and-hour class actions, and who have been appointed as class counsel in numerous cases alleging similar claims. See Blakely Decl., ¶¶ 2-6; see also Declaration of Paul K. Haines (“Haines Decl.”), ¶¶ 3-8. Class Counsel conducted an in-depth review of Ralphs’ timekeeping and payroll records and drew on their extensive experience in similar cases to assess the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s case. See Blakely Decl., ¶ 10. The Settlement was also reached with the assistance of an experienced and respected wage-and-hour class action mediator. This factor strongly supports preliminary approval of the Settlement. See Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at 130.

2. The Preliminary Approval Standard Is Met

At this stage, the Court can grant preliminary approval of the settlement and direct that notice be given if the proposed settlement: (1) falls within the range of possible approval; (2) appears to be the product of serious, informed and non-collusive negotiations; and (3) has no obvious deficiencies. See Manual for Complex Litigation § 30.41(3rd Ed. 1995); 4 Newberg on Class Actions § 11:24-25 (4th Ed. 2013).

a. The Settlement Is Within the Range of Possible Approval

The proposed settlement reflects approximately 98.5% of the estimated recovery the Settlement Class could reasonably expect in light of the significant litigation risks, and will provide tangible, substantial monetary compensation for hotly disputed claims. Indeed, the percentage of the liability exposure recovered in this case far exceeds percentages routinely approved by courts. See, e.g., Glass v. UBS Finan. Servs., Case No. C-06-4068 MMC, 2007 WL 221862, *4 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving settlement representing 25% to 35% of potential damages); Dunleavy v. Nadler, 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) (approving settlement representing about one-sixth of potential recovery); Nat'l Rural Telecomm. Coop. v. DirecTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 527 (C.D. Cal. 2004) (“it is well-settled law that a proposed settlement may be acceptable even though it amounts to only a fraction of the potential recovery that might be available to the Settlement Class members at trial”). Further, the average Individual Class Payment of approximately $53.83 is in line with payments achieved in other wage and hour class action settlements.³ Thus, Plaintiff submits that the proposed settlement is within the range of possible approval, such that notice should be provided to the Class Members so that they can consider the Settlement. The Court will have the opportunity to again assess the reasonableness of the Settlement after the Class Members have had the opportunity to opt-out or object.

³ See e.g., Bercea v. AE Retail West, Case No. 34-2012-00123947 (Sacramento County Super. Ct. May 9, 2012) (average net recovery of approximately $105); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case No. BC335018 (Los Angeles County Super. Ct. Jan. 2, 2009) (average net recovery of approximately $90); Palencia v. 99 Cents Only Stores, Case No. 34-2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $80); Doty v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Case No. CV05-3241 FMC-JWJx (C.D. Cal. May 14, 2007) (average recovery of approximately $65); Lim v. Victoria's Secret Stores, Inc., Case No. 04CC00213 (Orange County Super. Ct. Jan. 20, 2006) (average net recovery of approximately $35); Gomez v. Amadeus Salon, Inc., Case No. BC392297 (Los Angeles County Super. Ct. July 23, 2010) (average net recovery of approximately $20); Sorenson v. PetSmart, Inc., Case No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (E.D. Cal. Dec. 17, 2008) (wage and hour class action settlement approved where average recovery was approximately $60); Schiller v. David's Bridal, Inc., Case No. 1:10-cv-00616-AWI-SKO, 2012 WL 2117001 at *17 (E.D. Cal. June 11, 2012) (“Class Members will receive an average of approximately $198.70...[T]his is a substantial recovery where Defendants asserted compelling defenses to liability; Plaintiff also notes several similar actions where the gross recoveries per class member were less than $90...[T]he Court finds that the results achieved are good”); and Williams v. Centerplate, Inc., Case Nos. 11-CV-2159-H-KSC, 12-CV-0008-H-KSC, 2013 WL 4525428 (S.D. Cal. Aug. 26, 2013) (average recovery of approximately $108).

b. The Settlement Resulted from Serious, Informed Negotiations

The Settlement resulted from an exchange of substantial information, arm's-length negotiations by counsel, a full-day mediation before an experienced wage and hour mediator, and additional months of negotiating the long-form settlement agreement. Thus, the Settlement is entitled to an initial presumption of fairness. See Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at 130. As discussed above, Plaintiff carefully vetted the claims at issue and reviewed extensive timekeeping and payroll data and conducted a detailed statistical analysis of the data to arrive at his estimated classwide damages figures. See Blakely Decl., ¶¶ 14-17. Thus, this factor supports preliminary approval.

c. The Settlement Is Devoid of Obvious Deficiencies

Preliminary approval of the Settlement is also warranted because there are no obvious deficiencies. The Settlement will provide substantial monetary relief to Class Members. The amounts proposed for Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs, PAGA Settlement Amount, settlement administration costs, and Plaintiff's Class Representative Service Payment, are all reasonable and appropriate based on the facts of this case. Because the Settlement is devoid of obvious deficiencies, this factor supports preliminary approval.

B. THE COURT SHOULD CERTIFY THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

The Settlement Class satisfies the criteria for certification of a settlement class under California law because: (1) the Settlement Class is so numerous that joinder would be impractical; (2) common questions of law and fact predominate over individual questions such that class certification is the most efficient and desirable way to maintain this litigation; (3) Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of absent Class Members; and (4) Plaintiff and his counsel will fairly and adequately represent Class Members' interest. See Cal. Civ. Proc. § 382.

1. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

A class is "ascertainable" where the members "may be readily identified without unreasonable expense or time by reference to official [or business] records.” See Sevidal v. Target Corp. 189 Cal.App.4th 905, 916 (2010) (alterations in original). Here, the proposed class is defined as all current and former non-exempt distribution center associates who were employed by Ralphs in California at any time during the Class Period. See Settlement, § 1.4. Therefore, Class Members can be identified from Ralphs’ personnel and employment records. Based on information provided by Ralphs, Plaintiff understands that the Settlement Class consists of approximately 3,350 current and former non-exempt employees. See Blakely Decl., ¶ 13. It would therefore be impracticable to bring all Class Members before the Court, or for each Class Member to bring an individual lawsuit. The proposed Settlement Class therefore satisfies numerosity. See, e.g., Bowles v. Sup. Ct., 44 Cal.2d 574 (1955) (holding a class representing 10 beneficiaries of a trust sufficiently numerous).

2. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

The focus in a certification dispute is not the merits, but rather on what types of questions, “common or individual,” are likely to arise in the action. See Sav-On Drug Store, Inc. v. Superior Court (Rocher) 34 Cal.4th 319, 327 (2004). Plaintiff’s claims are predicated on Ralphs’ uniform timekeeping policies and/or practices. These types of claims are commonly held to be proper for class certification. See e.g., Faulkinbury v. Boyd & Associates, Inc., 216 Cal.App.4th 220 (2013) (certifying unpaid wage claims).

3. The Claims of the Named Plaintiff Are Typical

The typicality requirement is satisfied where class representatives have claims that are typical of those of the rest of the class. B.W.I. Custom Kitchen v. Owens-Illinois, Inc. 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 (1987) (finding typicality satisfied where named Plaintiff purchased the same goods as the putative class in a consumer class action). Here, Plaintiff’s claims are typical of those held by the Class Members. First, Ralphs employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee in the California during the Class Period, and Plaintiff was subject to Ralphs’ wage and hour policies at issue in this case. See Munoz Decl., ¶ 2. Second, Plaintiff was injured by the same challenged policies/practices that allegedly injured the Settlement Class as a whole. For example, Plaintiff asserts that he was deprived of all wages due to Ralphs’ timekeeping policies. Id., at ¶ 3.

1 Plaintiff further asserts that he did not receive accurate and compliant wage statements Id.
2 Because Plaintiff has suffered the same injuries as the other members of the Settlement Class, the 3 typicality requirement is satisfied.

4 4. Plaintiff and Class Counsel Will Fairly and Adequately Represent the 5 Class

6 The adequacy requirement examines conflicts of interest between named parties and the 7 class(es) they seek to represent. See Capital People First v. State Dept. of Developmental Services
8 155 Cal.App.4th 676, 697 (2007). Plaintiff and his counsel will adequately represent the 9 Settlement Class, as there are no conflicts between Plaintiff and the proposed Settlement Class, 10 and Plaintiff possesses claims that are in line with those of the Settlement Class. See McGhee v.
11 Bank of America 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 450-51 (1976) (adequacy satisfied where there was no
12 indication that Class Counsel were not qualified and the named plaintiff had no interests
13 antagonistic to those of the proposed class). Class Counsel also have extensive experience in wage 14 and hour class action litigation. See Blakely Decl., ¶¶ 2-6; Haines Decl., ¶¶ 3-8.

15 C. THE COURT SHOULD ORDER DISTRIBUTION OF THE NOTICE

16 This Court should order distribution to the Settlement Class of the proposed Class Notice, 17 in English and Spanish, by First Class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid, using last known mailing 18 address information provided by Ralphs Grocery. See Settlement, §§ 1.10, 7.4.2. This manner of 19 giving notice is the “best notice practicable” under the circumstances because it provides 20 “individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort.” See Eisen v.
21 Carlisle & Jacquelin 417 U.S. 156, 173 (1974). Here, the Parties have agreed that the Settlement
22 be administered by ILYM Group, Inc. (“ILYM”), an experienced class action settlement
23 administrator. See generally Declaration of Anthony Rogers (“Rogers Decl.”) and attached 24 exhibits. Class Members’ addresses will be ascertainable through Ralphs’ Class Data, which 25 Ralphs will provide to ILYM within twenty (20) business days after entry of order preliminarily
26 approving the Settlement. See Settlement, §§ 1.7, 4.1. Within ten (10) business days from receipt 27 of the Class Data, the Settlement Administrator will run the names of all Class Members through 28 the National Change of Address (“NCOA”) database to determine any updated addresses for Class

Members and mail a Class Notice to each Class Member at his or her last known address. Id., at §§ 1.9, 7.4.2. To the extent that any notices are returned, ILYM will perform a “skip trace” to track any Settlement Class Member’s current mailing address. Id., at §§ 1.9, 7.4.3.

The content of the proposed Class Notice satisfies California Rule of Court 3.766(d) because it advises Class Members of the nature of the claims, basic contentions and denials of the parties and the key terms of the Settlement, the 45-day deadline to opt-out or object to the Settlement and the procedures by which to do so, explains the recovery formula and expected recovery amount for each Class Member, and advises them that they will be bound by the terms of the Settlement if they do not opt-out. See Blakely Decl., Exh. A to Exh. 1. The proposed Class Notice will also notify Class Members of the final approval hearing date and provides the Settlement Class contact information for Class Counsel and advises Class Members that they may enter an appearance through counsel if they wish to. Id. This manner of giving notice satisfies California Rule of Court 3.766(e) as the most reliable and cost-effective method of reaching Class Members.

D. THE COURT SHOULD SET A FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

Finally, this Court should set a hearing for Final Approval of the Settlement on a date appropriately scheduled to follow the deadline by which Class Members must file objections to the Settlement or opt-out. See California Rule of Court 3.769.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, provisionally certify the Settlement Class, and enter the Proposed Order submitted concurrently herewith.
