DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

1 Plaintiff JALISA MONIQUE BLAKE, as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other 2 aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, alleges as 3 follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against Brea Citrus Heights
7 LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated 8 companies within the State of California ("Brea Citrus Heights"); Emeritus Corporation, a 9 Washington corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the 10 State of California ("Emeritus"); Brookdale Senior Living Communities, Inc., a Delaware 11 corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of 12 California ("Brookdale Senior Living Communities"); Brookdale Senior Living Foundation, a 13 Washington corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the 14 State of California ("Brookdale Senior Living Foundation") and Jerry Lynn, an individual (Lynn) 15 (collectively, and with DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, "Defendants"), as a proxy of 16 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of 17 Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the 18 Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to 19 comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor 20 Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 245, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on 21 competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants 22 working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

23 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 24 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

25 3. Venue is proper in SACRAMENTO County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 26 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, SACRAMENTO County is where the 27 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 28 began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff

1 and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of 2 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, 3 or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff
4 and Aggrieved Employees in SACRAMENTO County, and because Defendants employ numerous 5 Aggrieved Employees in SACRAMENTO County.

6 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 7 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 8 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 9 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
10 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 11 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 12 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

13 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 14 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
15 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 16 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

17 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 18 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 19 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 20 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 21 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

22 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 23 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 24 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 25 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

26 8. On or around November 15, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 27 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 28 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA,

1 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

2 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 3 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 4 calendar days of the November 15, 2023, postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 5 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

6 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

7 10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 8 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 9 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 10 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 11 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime 12 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 13 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 14 limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to 15 clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendant's control due to long lines for clocking in, to 16 complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for 17 meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or 18 safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls, 19 failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, 20 meal allowances, mask allowances, gift cards and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate 21 of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned 22 for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time 23 entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, for 24 paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, and by attempting but failing to properly implement an 25 alternative workweek schedule ("AWS") (including, without limitation, by failing to implement a 26 written agreement designating the regularly scheduled alternative workweek in which the specified 27 number of work days and work hours are regularly recurring; failing to adopt the AWS in a secret 28 ballot election, before the performance of work, by at least a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the affected

1 employees in the work unit; failing to follow the notice/disclosures procedures prior to any AWS
2 election; and/or failing to register an AWS election with the State of California, as required by Labor
3 Code section 511 and applicable Wage Orders) all to the detriment of Employee and other aggrieved 4 employees.

5 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy
6 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours 7 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 8 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to come early 9 to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under 10 Defendant's control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in 11 and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock 12 out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend 13 company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls; detrimental rounding of employee time 14 entries; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked; and 15 failing to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

16 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 17 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 18 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 19 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 20 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 21 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 22 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 23 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 24 periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 25 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

26 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 27 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 28 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions

1 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof as required by California wage and hour laws, including, 2 without limitation, by: failing to provide rest periods all together; requiring that they be bundled 3 together and/or with meal periods; interrupting them; requiring that employees carry cellular 4 telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not providing them in a timely fashion; not 5 permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods.

6 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
7 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 8 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 9 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 10 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 11 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the 12 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 13 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

14 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
15 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 16 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
17 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 18 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 19 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 20 Aggrieved Employees.

21 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
22 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages
23 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
24 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 25 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

26 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 27 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 28

1 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 2 and applicable Wage Orders.

3 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 4 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 5 limitation, Employee and other aggrieved employees, with their costs incurred for purchasing 6 uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, separately laundering mandatory uniforms, and for 7 the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of 8 the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Employer, as required by 9 Labor Code section 2802.

10 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 11 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 12 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 13 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 14 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 15 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 16 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 17 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

18 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 19 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 20 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not 21 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 22 all other Aggrieved Employees.

23 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 24 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 25 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 26 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 27 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 28 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

1 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
2 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 3 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 4 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 5 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 6 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 7 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 8 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 9 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

10 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 11 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 12 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 13 of Business and Professions Code section 17200. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that 14 Defendants' herein-described policies and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved 15 Employees from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about 16 wage and hour violations in violation of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

17 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 18 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 19 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 20 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 21 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 22 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 23 economic liberty.

24 25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 25 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 26 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 27 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

1 PARTIES

2 A. Plaintiff

3 26. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff 4 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-5 exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, distributing medication to the 6 residents, provided help and assisting the residents with their needs. Plaintiff is informed and 7 believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately November of 2022 through the 8 present.

9 B. Defendants

10 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant Brea 11 Citrus Heights is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and 12 existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware and doing business in the County
13 of SACRAMENTO, State of California.

14 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant Emeritus 15 is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of 16 the laws of the State of Washington and doing business in the County of SACRAMENTO, State of 17 California.

18 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant Brookdale 19 Senior Living is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a Delaware organized and existing under and 20 by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware and doing business in the County of SACRAMENTO, 21 State of California.

22 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant Brookdale 23 Senior Living Foundation is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and 24 existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Washington and doing business in the County
25 of SACRAMENTO, State of California.

26 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant Lynn is, 27 and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual .

28 32. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise,

1 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, 2 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
3 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 4 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
5 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 6 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 7 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 8 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 9 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 10 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 11 include Lynn, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State of 12 California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

13 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

14 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 15 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 16 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 17 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 18 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

19 34. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 20 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 21 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 22 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 23 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 24 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 25 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 26 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 27 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

28 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the

1 formation of the purported corporate existence of Brea Citrus Heights; Emeritus, Brookdale Senior 2 Living Communities, Brookdale Senior Living Foundation, Lynn, and DOES 1 through 50, 3 inclusive (the “Alter Ego Defendants”), they, and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 4 51 through 100 (“Individual Defendants”), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following 5 reasons:

6 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 7 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws
8 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 9 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 10 inequitable purpose;

11 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 12 and through the Alter Ego Defendants’ unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 13 the funding source for the Individual Defendants’ own personal expenditures;

14 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 15 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 16 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 17 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

18 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs 19 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 20 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 21 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 22 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 23 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 24 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

25 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 26 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 27 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 28 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be

1 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
2 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

3 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 4 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 5 disregarded.

6 36. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 7 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

10 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 11 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

12 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

13 38. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 14 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 15 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 16 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 17 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

18 39. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 19 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 20 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 21 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 22 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 23 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 24 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

25 40. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 26 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 27 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 28 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor

1 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 2 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee
3 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 4 Code section 204.

5 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

6 41. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
7 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 8 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 9 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;
10 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 11 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 12 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 13 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

14 42. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 15 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 16 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 17 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 18 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

19 43. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 20 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

21 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 22 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 23 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 24 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 25 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 26 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's 27 services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor 28 Code section 226, subdivision (a).

45. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

Violation of Labor Code § 558

46. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows:

- (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;
- (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;
- (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

47. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any “doing business as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

48. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars

1 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

2 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

3 49. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 4 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 5 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 6 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 7 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 8 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 9 or papers of the person.”

10 50. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 11 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 12 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

13 51. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 14 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 15 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 16 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
17 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 18 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 19 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 20 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 21 earned.”

22 52. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully 23 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 24 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 25 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 26 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

27 53. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 28 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar

1 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
2 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
3 under Labor Code section 1174.

4 54. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 5 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 6 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 7 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

8 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

9 55. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 10 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 11 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 12 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 13 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 14 Section 203 as follows:

15 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 16 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 17 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
18 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
19 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

20 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 21 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 22 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 23 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
24 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
25 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

26 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 27 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 28 employee."

1 56. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 2 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 3 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees' minimum wages for all 4 hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 5 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 6 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 7 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, 8 entitling Plaintiff and other aggrieved Employees to actual and liquidated damages.

9 57. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
10 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 11 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one 12 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 13 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 14 subsequent violation.

15 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

16 58. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 17 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 18 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 19 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 20 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 21 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

22 59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 23 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 24 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person 25 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 26 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 27 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

28 60. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and

1 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for 2 the failure to: pay the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment,
3 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by Defendants, the 4 name of the employer, including “doing business as” names used, the name, address, and telephone 5 number of the workers’ compensation insurance carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and 6 other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants under Labor Code section 7 2810.5, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick
8 leave required to be provided pursuant to California and local laws.

9 61. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California 10 whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs in 11 connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

12 REQUEST FOR JURY TRIAL

13 62. Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury.

14 PRAYER

15 WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for 16 judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 17 A. An award of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 18 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
19 B. An award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 20 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
21 C. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest; 22 D. For costs of suit incurred herein; and
