DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff JONAH ZECHARIAH JOHNSON (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all others
2 similarly situated, hereby brings this Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”)
3 against Defendants DREAM HOME CARE, INC., a California non-profit corporation, and DOES 1
4 to 50 inclusive (collectively “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this 7 Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions
8 Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194,
9 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order
10 5-2001 (“Wage Order 5”), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution.
11 This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has 12 jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy 13 exceeds $25,000.

14 2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have 15 agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including Los Angeles County, and some 16 of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in Los Angeles County. Furthermore, 17 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within Los Angeles County.

18 PARTIES

19 3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of 20 eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to 21 each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee.
22 Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs complained of 23 herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et 24 seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 25 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Wage Order 5.

26 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 27 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
28 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiff and other,

1 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Los Angeles County, and the State of California
2 and, therefore, were (and are) doing business in Los Angeles County and the State of California.

3 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 4 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
5 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 6 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed,
7 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
8 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein,
9 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined below) to be subject to the unlawful 10 employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

11 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 12 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
13 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other
14 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 15 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

16 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
17 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 18 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 19 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
20 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining 21 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

22 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 23 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 24 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

25 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and 26 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 27 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

28 ///

1 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

2 10. Defendants own and operate group homes for children in California. Defendants
3 employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately April or May 2022
4 to approximately September 28, 2022 as a direct care staff.

5 11. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 6 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 7 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
8 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest
9 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. Specifically, Defendants required Plaintiff 10 and other non-exempt employees to remain on duty and on premises during their rest periods and 11 further required them to sign a per se unlawful agreement to take their rest periods on duty and on 12 site, entitled On-Duty-Paid-Meal-And-Rest Period Agreement (the "On-Duty Agreement"). On 13 those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted
14 to take all legally compliant rest periods to which they were entitled, Defendants failed to 15 compensate them with the required rest period premium(s) for each workday there was a rest period
16 violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained
17 no mechanism for the payment of rest period premium payments as required by Labor Code § 18 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest period was not authorized and permitted to their 19 non-exempt employees.

20 12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all 21 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 22 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes),
23 and/or missed meal periods. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and other non-exempt
24 employees were not able to take their legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed 25 by Defendants. The On-Duty Agreement is unenforceable as to on-duty meal periods. First, the On-26 Duty Agreement failed to inform Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees that, by signing the 27 agreement, they would be waiving their right to receive a meal period premium for each day they 28 were not provided with an off-duty meal period. Second, the On-Duty Agreement's revocation

1 provision is illusory as Defendants' offer letter to Plaintiff requires him to take meal periods on duty
2 and on premises as a condition of employment. On information and belief, Defendants' offer letter
3 to other employees similarly requires them to take meal periods on duty and on premises as a
4 condition of employment. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not keep accurate records of 5 Plaintiff's and other non-exempt employees' hours worked, including accurate time records
6 showing when employees take their meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-7 exempt employees were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were 8 entitled, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the 9 required meal period premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated 10 by Labor Code § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the 11 payment of meal period premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7 in the event that a 12 legally compliant meal period was not provided to their non-exempt employees.

13 13. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping
14 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being 15 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly 16 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and 17 belief, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to perform work before their 18 scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks, and failed to 19 compensate employees for this time. As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were 20 not compensated for all earned minimum and overtime wages.

21 14. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, failure to 22 pay all meal and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as 23 alleged above, Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage
24 statements to Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees. As a further result of Defendants' failure to 25 pay all minimum and overtime wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants failed
26 to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and other former non-exempt employees upon their 27 separation of employment from Defendants.

28 ///

15. Labor Code § 432.5 provides: “No employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law.” Defendants violated Labor Code § 432.5 by requiring Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to sign an unlawful agreement to take their rest periods on duty and on premises.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

16. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- a. Minimum Wage Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- b. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- c. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours; and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- d. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- e. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

f. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, and/or Meal Period Class during the three years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

17. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

18. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime Class;
- b. Whether Defendants paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked to members of the Minimum Wage Class;
- c. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- d. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
- e. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226; and
- f. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

1 These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and 2 stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As 3 such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual
4 class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

5 19. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because 6 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)
7 of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein,
8 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all minimum and overtime wages owed due
9 to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, was not provided all required meal 10 periods, was not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-11 compliant meal and rest periods, was not paid all final wages upon separation of employment, and 12 was not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements.

13 20. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps
14 to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's
15 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes
16 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 17 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 18 members of the Classes.

19 21. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important
20 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 21 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 22 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 23 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this
24 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class 25 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 26 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 27 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited 28 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

1 22. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
2 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file
3 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 4 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
5 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution
6 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

7 23. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members,
8 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
9 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 10 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 11 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest 12 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 13 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified 14 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

15 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

16 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 24. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
19 fully set forth herein.

20 25. Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1197, and Wage Order 5, § 4 establish the right of 21 employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state or local law.
22 Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal 23 minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with 24 attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid
25 wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its 26 pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the 27 Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were 28 subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and

1 Wage Order 5.

2 26. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under 3 conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code § 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an 4 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those 5 employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount 6 equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

7 27. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiff and 8 members of the Minimum Wage Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid wages, including
9 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
10 218.6, 558, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 11 3289.

12 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
13 OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS
14 (Against All Defendants)

15 28. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
16 fully set forth herein.

17 29. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and 18 Wage Order 5, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages
19 and compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure
20 to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

21 30. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-
22 exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours
23 worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 5. Wage Order 5, § 3 requires an employer
24 to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay
25 for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of the Overtime
26 Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime hours 27 actually worked.

28 ///

1 31. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and 2 members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including
3 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
4 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§
5 3287 and 3289.

6 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

7 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 32. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
10 fully set forth herein.

11 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
12 in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including 13 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 14 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Order 5, § 11.

15 34. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 16 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 17 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

18 35. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 19 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
20 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code
21 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Order 5, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

22 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 36. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
26 fully set forth herein.

27 37. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Order 5, § 12 and establish the right of 28 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period

1 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that
2 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
3 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals
4 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 5 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

6 38. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 7 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
8 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
9 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Order 5, and Civil Code §§
10 3287 and 3289.

11 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES

13 (Against All Defendants)

14 39. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
15 fully set forth herein.

16 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff
18 and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements
19 that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay
20 and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay 21 period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of 22 Labor Code § 226.

23 41. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class 24 with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led 25 to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest period
26 premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies
27 in Defendants' reported payroll data.

28 ///

1 42. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and
2 members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable
3 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

4 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 43. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
8 fully set forth herein.

9 44. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an 10 employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the 11 employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their 12 intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit, 13 said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last 14 date of employment.

15 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
16 to timely pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their 17 separation from employment, including unpaid minimum and overtime wages as well as unpaid 18 meal and rest period premium wages.

19 46. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a 20 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and members of 21 the Waiting Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to 22 the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

23 47. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor
24 Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay Plaintiff and the members of the Waiting 25 Time Class their earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of 26 daily wages up to thirty days from the time the wages were due.

27 48. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 28 Waiting Time Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code §

1 203.

2 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 UNFAIR COMPETITION

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 49. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
6 fully set forth herein.

7 50. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business
8 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

- 9 a. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum
10 wages due;
- 11 b. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
- 12 c. failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal
13 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium
14 wages due;
- 15 d. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest 16 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period premium
17 wages due;
- 18 e. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of 19 the Wage Statement Class; and
- 20 f. failing to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time
21 Penalty Class.

22 51. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived
23 Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally 24 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over 25 Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting to 26 do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

27 52. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged 28 herein, Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired and/or converted by Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

53. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint in this action.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT
(Against All Defendants)

54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

55. Plaintiff, an “aggrieved employee” within the meaning of Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq., acting on behalf of himself and other aggrieved employees (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees”), brings this representative action against Defendants to recover the civil penalties due to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 558 and 2699(a) and (f) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for each initial violation for each failure to pay each employee and $200 for each subsequent violation or willful or intentional violation pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210 and/or 225.5 for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld; (2) $50.00 for each initial violation and $100 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 558 per employee per pay period; (3) $100 for each initial violation and $250 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 1197.1 per employee per pay period; (4) $250 for each initial violation and $1,000 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3 per employee per pay period; (5) pursuant to Labor Code § 256, a civil penalty in an amount not exceeding 30 days per former employee as waiting time under the terms of Labor Code § 203; and/or (6) $100 for each initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided, based on the following Labor Code violations:

- a. Failing to pay minimum wages for all hours worked to Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code § 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198;

- b. Failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198;
- c. Failing to provide all legally required meal periods, and failure to pay meal period premium wages, to Aggrieved Employees at the regular rate of compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, and 1198;
- d. Failing to authorize and permit all legally required rest periods, and failure to pay rest period premium wages, to Aggrieved Employees at the regular rate of compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198;
- e. Failing to furnish Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- f. Failing to timely pay all final wages and compensation earned by Aggrieved Employees at the time of separation in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-202;
- g. Failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all paid sick leave wages in violation of Labor Code § 246;
- h. Failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all earned wages at least twice during each calendar month in violation of Labor Code § 204; and
- i. Failing to maintain accurate records on behalf of Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1198.

56. On or about November 9, 2023, Plaintiff notified Defendants via certified mail, and notified the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) via its website, of Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code and Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. with respect to the violations of the Labor Code identified in the preceding paragraph. Now that 33 days and 65 days have passed from Plaintiff notifying Defendants and the LWDA of these violations, Defendants have not cured any curable violations, and the LWDA has not provided notice that it intends to investigate the violations, Plaintiff has exhausted administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these violations.
